Traffic Death Record Looms

Traffic deaths across the country for the 4-day New Year's holiday were occurring today at a rate which could exceed the record for a similar New Year's weekend.

More than 40 hours after the start of the 102-hour holiday period the death rate from highway accidents was slightly more than four an hour. If the pace continues throughout the period, the record of 409 deaths set in the 4-day New Year's weekend of 1956-57 would be topped.

The National Safety Council has estimated the New Year's traffic toll this year will reach 390.

The council said the shock of the 594 deaths recorded during the 4-day Christmas holiday a week ago apparently was not having much effect on drivers this weekend.

Traffic deaths last year, estimated at 37,000 by the council, averaged about 101 a day. But the slaughter on the highways since the start of the New Year holiday about 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday topped the daily traffic toll in 1958. The count continues until midnight Sunday.

"The weather is bad and the toll is bad," the council said. "The toll is proceeding at an alarming rate. We appeal to every driver to realize that he must hold his speed down and be doubly careful."

Show, sleet and rain in many sections of the country added to the normal heavy holiday travel yesterday and deaths took a sharp upturn after a comparatively safe start. Treacherous driving conditions were reported in many areas, especially in the Midwest and East. Local blizzard conditions added to the traffic hazards in the High Plains and Upper Mississippi Valley.

The council urged motorists in the storm areas to drive with extra caution and "hold speed down to emergency conditions."

A council spokesman said if the rate of deaths reported yesterday continued, traffic fatalities for the holiday period will exceed 400.

In the one-day New Year's celebration last year, 160 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents. That was the highest total on record for a one-day observance of the New Year holiday.

In comparison with last week's Christmas holiday period, the traffic toll was much lower. Safety experts say the New Year toll always has been lower than in the Christmas period, mainly because there is less long-distance travel. The final toll in the long Christmas weekend was 594 traffic deaths, 93 killed in fires and 57

Advertiser Seeks Outer Space Rate

Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 2 (AP)—A Melbourne air conditioning and refrigeration firm has applied to use America's talking Atlas satellite to advertise its wares from Outer Space.

Soon after the Atlas orbited on Dec. 22, the firm cabled authorities at Cape Canaveral: "Please quote rates for 30 word spot announcements to be broadcast to Earth from Atlas satellite featuring our firm."

B.G. McNabb, operations manager at Cape Canaveral for Convair, the missile's builder, wired back yesterday: "We admire your ingenuity but unable help. Suggest you contact Advanced Research Project Agency at Department of Defense, Washington."

Bert Tiller, managing director of the Melbourne firm, sent his query on to Washington and commented to newsmen: "Imagine advertisements from Outer Space! What a gimmick! Superb!"

Castro Appoints President, Sends Forces into Havana

Urrutia Proclaimed Provisional Leader

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—A provisional Cuban government headed by Dr. Manuel Urrutia, will be established today in Havana, a top Cuban source said today.

The statement came from Nicolas Rivero, a Fidel Castro supporter who resigned his embassy post here about 18 months ago. He now is a spokesman for the Cuban embassy here under the direction of a charge d'affaires picked by the Castro group.

Havana, Jan. 2 (AP)—Fidel Castro triumphantly proclaimed Judge Manuel Urrutia temporary president of Cuba today and sent the vanguard of his bearded guerrilla fighters rolling into Havana.

All Cuba appeared within the grasp of the 32-year-old rebel leader whose relentless pressure sent President Fulgencio Batista and his civilian and military chiefs fleeing into exile yesterday.

Even before the first truckloads of rebel guerrillas sped into the city, the men of Castro were in undisputed control of the bedraggled capital, still tense after a day of rioting.

The army and the police were taking orders from Castro's leaders already installed at Camp Columbia in a Havana suburb.

Young partisans roamed the streets, firing wildly, herding off suspected enemies to jail at gunpoint, and smashing into buildings looking for weapons or Batista supporters.

Newsmen Seized, Released
Three Associated Press men were taken from their office in the Post building at gunpoint, marched to a police station, questioned, and then released. They were Larry Allen, roving AP correspondent, George Kaufman, Havana AP Bureau chief, and Harold Valentine, AP photographer.

Truckloads of bearded guerrilla fighters rolled into the city over the main central highway from the eastern provinces of Matanzas and Las Villas and sped along the Malecon Sea Boulevard toward the former military headquarters of deposed President Batista at Camp Columbia.

As the Castro forces advanced, Cuba's 6,300,000 war-weary people had two provisional presidents. Neither occupied the chair vacated by Batista. The other, Manuel Urrutia, fled in the darkness of the New Year morning yesterday.

The streets of Havana were tense and alive with expectation. The triumphant Castro partisans, who had seemed to emerge armed from nowhere yesterday to take over control of the capital, kept a tight lid on the situation to prevent next-day public emotion from creating a chaotic situation.

In this capital sits the last vestige of a shell of government named by the junta which Batista had installed at the start of the country's early New Year's Day. But the government had no control over either the army or the police who now get their orders from rebel leaders installed at Camp Columbia in a Havana suburb.

The Castro troops entering Havana were unopposed. They were led by the Argentine physician, Ernesto Guevara, and Camilo Cienfuegos, two of the rebel chief's hard-fighting field commanders.

A final showdown obviously is near, Castro announced today. He would not accept what he called a coup d'etat arranged by Batista. Thus he rejects the provisional government which purports to be headed by Supreme Court Justice Carlos Piedra.

Castro claimed Maj. Gen. Eulogio Cantillo, who headed the junta left by Batista, had betrayed the revolution's leadership by letting the chief figures of the Batista government escape from the country.

While Castro's success in his 25-month-old rebellion seemed close

Cuban Consul Hints Trial of War Criminals

Chicago, Jan. 2 (AP)—Cuban consular records throughout the world were ordered seized today by the Castro government.

The move was announced by Constantine N. Kangles, Cuban consul here, who said Dr. Fidel Castro, rebel leader, appointed him general consul for the United States.

Kangles issued a statement saying the seizure of consular records and documents was planned months ago to safeguard them for possible use by the new government "as evidence in the trials of war criminals."

Serapio Montejó, of Chicago, president of the Cuban Liberation Movement of July 26, was appointed acting consul general in Chicago.

The text of Kangles' statement is: "The seizure of the Cuban consulates throughout the world was a planned movement which was decided upon many months ago by the leaders of the 26th of July Movement to prevent the destruction or loss of important documents which may be of use to the new government."

Britain's Gold, Dollar Stocks In Sharp Drop

London, Jan. 2 (AP)—Britain's gold and dollar reserves fell in December for the first time in 15 months, due to large-scale loan repayments to the United States and Canada.

A Treasury announcement said the reserves had dipped by $145 million and stood at 1,066 million pounds ($2,069,000,000) at the end of the year.

The strengthening of reserves was reported to have been a factor in Britain's decision last week to make the pound partially convertible. This move enabled foreign holders of sterling to convert their money directly to dollars. It could lead to pressure on the national reserves.

There was no indication that the slump in reserves is linked with the convertibility decision. The pound has been in a discernible rush to unloose sterling and the freeing of the pound came too late in the month to have much effect on the December figures.

The Treasury said the equivalent of 70 million pounds ($136 million) was paid on various North American loans—including the Canadian interest-free loan during the month. A further sum of million pounds ($1,200,000,000) went as the November settlement to

Platform Set in 1955

Castro for Taking American Utilities

Havana, Jan. 2 (AP)—Rebel leader Fidel Castro's last announced platform calls for the nationalization of American utilities and sugar estates in Cuba.

The bearded guerrilla chieflet published his program in 1955, while in exile in Mexico.

1. Nationalization of U.S. financed and operated utilities in Cuba and division of American-owned sugar estates among Cuban peasants.

2. Confiscation of all properties acquired through "corrupt government."

3. Distribution of 50 percent of all industrial and utility enterprises to Cuban workers.

4. A public housing and rural electrification program.

5. Liberation of Cuba "from the ecological interests of half a dozen businessmen."

6. A speed up of industrialization and increased social security.

Castro never doubted that he would win the victory over strongman Fulgencio Batista.

Now 32, the lanky, 6-foot-2-inch leader is a professional rebel who has been in revolt most of his life. He has been involved in revolutionary movements in the Dominican Republic, where Batista took refuge and in Colombia.

In 1947 he joined an expedition to the Dominican Republic aimed at overthrowing the dictatorship of Rafael Trujillo.

The expedition was a failure and Castro escaped by sea.

In 1948, Castro appeared in Colombia before the Ninth International Conference of American States protesting what he termed the non-Latin influence in Latin America. He joined with a group of Colombian rebels and was captured. He gained his freedom, reportedly largely through the influence of the U.S. delegate to the conference, Gen. George C. Marshall.

On July 26, 1953, he led a bloody but unsuccessful attack on an army barracks in Santiago de Cuba, capital of Oriente Province at the eastern end of Cuba.

For this attack from which his

Planes, Boats Bring Batista Friends to U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Cuban revolution has sent hundreds of supporters of Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista scurrying for cover in the United States and the Dominican Republic.

Planes, including the fallen president's private craft, a yacht, an auto ferry and even a converted PT boat, carried the "refugees" from the war-torn Caribbean Island. Batista, himself, fled to exile in the Dominican Republic, leaving Cuba to the rebel forces of Fidel Castro.

A Cubana Airlines plane brought 92 persons from Havana to New York's Idlewild Airport. The pilot said he took off at gun-point.

"I wasn't a good friend of Batista, and I didn't want to help Batista's men out of the country," the pilot, Capt. Miguel Raul Cabeza, said.

Police forced a boat of angry, shouting Castro sympathizers to get at the Cuban crew members of the airplane.

Two guns were found behind seats after the plane landed at Idlewild. Police made no arrest because it could not be determined to whom the weapons belonged.

Refugee-laden planes from Havana also landed at New Orleans, Miami, Jacksonville, Key West, Daytona Beach, and West Palm Beach, Fla.

At Linden, N. J., scores of Cuban sympathizers to Castro, converged on the airport after a radio report that the ousted chief of the Cuban security police would land.

The plane they awaited did not appear.

The Cubans said they had heard a report from the rebel radio that Gen. Orlando Piedra, dubbed "The Butcher" for his activities as chief, was flying to Linden with other Batista henchmen.

Bulletins from the AP Wires

SUGAR FUTURES DROP
London, Jan. 2 (AP)—World sugar futures dropped sharply today in heavy trading following the collapse of the Batista government in Cuba. The March delivery was quoted in early dealings at 3:15 to 3:30 cents a pound, down between .35 and .47 of a cent. The daily limit is 50 cents. The call for this delivery was still in progress.

BALLOON NOW OVERDUE
London, Jan. 2 (AP)—The time set by four Britons for their balloon crossing of the Atlantic ran out today with still no word of the adventurers. When the balloon "The Small World" took off from the Canary Islands Dec. 12, the crew of three men and a woman were confident they would make the West Indies by today at the latest.

PACIFIC RESCUE STARTS
Honolulu, Jan. 2 (AP)—The Navy search and rescue center reported early today help is on the way for the straggled crewmen of the sunken Japanese fishing vessel Settsu Maru 135 miles northwest of Midway. A Navy spokesman said two Japanese and one American merchant ships were heading to the rescue of the 24-man crew which boarded life rafts dropped by a Navy plane from Midway.

GM REFUNDS EXCESS PROFIT
Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Rogers announced today that General Motors Corp. is returning $6,000,000 as a defense contract which the government contents involved excessive profits and alleged misstatements of costs.

5,000 Close to Riot As Tennis Star Weds

Brisbane, Australia, Jan. 2 (AP)—Five thousand persons caused a near riot today at the wedding of Davis Cup star Ashley Cooper and Helen Wood, Miss Australia of 1957.

They pushed and shoved, ignored a 30-man police team, and climbed up to the windows of the church for a view.

Uniformed police formed a circle around Cooper, 22, and Miss Wood, 20, to help them fight their way through the yelling, shouting crowd. A reporter rescued another child from being crushed and carried it head high to safety. Miss Wood arrived at the church seven minutes late, and her car immediately was surrounded by crowds.

Eight police escorted her into the church.

Two women engaged in a brawl as Wood entered. One was pushed from her position near the church steps and retaliated by knocking

Rayburn Acts To Bar Revolt On Rules Unit

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—A series of hurdles centering around House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) was expected today to stamp out a budding revolt against the power of the House Rules Committee.

The revolt is led by a sizable group of self-styled Liberals. The Rules Committee now is "dominated by a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats."

The Liberals seek to limit the committee's power to bottle up legislation. They would do this either by a change in House rules or by the addition of a Liberal Democrat to the committee, now composed of eight Democrats and four Republicans.

Rayburn returned late yesterday from his Texas ranch, where he has been vacationing since Congress adjourned last summer.

He wouldn't comment on the rules proposals, but there were clear signs he would oppose them. He apparently was quietly sizing up the situation and lining up his forces for a showdown at the Democratic caucus next Tuesday morning.

Leaders of the Liberal group reported privately that Rayburn already has scouted away much of the support they had counted on. Telephone calls even before Rayburn left Texas, they said, convinced them that the speaker was dead set against changing the rules.

Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) has told newsmen:

Ike Prods Russians Show Peace Desire

Gettysburg, Pa., Jan. 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower has told Pussian leaders their professed desire for peace should be applied to their handling of the Berlin crisis.

He made a pointed reply in an exchange of New Year's greetings with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and President Kliment E. Voroshilov.

Their message, delivered to Eisenhower's farm home near here, expressed hope that 1959 would see an end to "years of the dangers of a new world war."

Eisenhower—watching a football game on television, as it happened, when the message came in—shared the Russians' hopes. He agreed that "genuine efforts" might well be fruitful, and went on to say:

"At this moment it seems to me critically important to apply the sentiments expressed in your message to the Berlin situation. In this connection, I cannot fail to recall your government's declaration toward the people of Berlin."

He referred to the Russians' announced intention to make Berlin a free city—which would mean western withdrawal from a key city that, in this country's view, would then inevitably come under Communist rule.

Eisenhower said the Russians' moves to take over Berlin are not in accord with your expressed aspirations, and hopes for peaceful coexistence.

Then Eisenhower reiterated the stand taken by the United States,

Fit Words to Berlin

Britain and France in formal notes delivered only Wednesday to the Kremlin. Those notes, rejecting Russia's demand that they agree within six months to leave Berlin, suggested a general conference on German problems.

"The United States government," Eisenhower said, "regrets that, in an atmosphere devoid of any kind of coercion and threat, it would welcome discussion on the question of Berlin in the wider framework of the whole German problem and European security. Positive progress in this specific problem would, I deeply believe, give real substance to the hope that 1959 would witness great advances toward the goal of a just and lasting peace."

The Russians' note was much like one they sent last year—in commercial cable and telegraph directly to the President rather than through diplomatic channels. This one came the same way.

Khrushchev and Voroshilov told Eisenhower:

"We would like to express the hope that in the coming year our countries will unite their efforts in the search for a way toward the settlement of international problems, for the cessation of the Cold War which is hated by the people, with the aim of reducing international tensions."

"The development of friendly co-operation on the basis of principles of peaceful coexistence between states would permit the deliverance of mankind from feelings of alarm for the future from fears of the dangers of a new war."

Rebel Backer Denies Castro To Nationalize

Washington, Jan. 2 (AP)—A leader of Cuban rebel sympathizers said today the change of government in his country would not bring nationalization of sugar plantations or utilities owned by outside interests.

Ernesto Betancourt made the statement during an interview on the NBC-TV "Today" program when asked about a 1955 statement by rebel chief Fidel Castro in this country that he would favor nationalization.

"That has been discarded as an impractical and unwise move," replied Betancourt. "Castro himself is the owner of a sugar plantation and I doubt he will be in the mood to nationalize anything."

Betancourt also said that Castro would not seek the Cuban presidency.

"Castro cannot be a candidate. He's too young to be a candidate," said Betancourt. Castro is 31. The constitution requires the president to be 35.

Betancourt was asked about statements that there were Communists among the rebels. He said such statements were made by followers of former President Fulgencio Batista to try to discredit the rebels.

"We are against the Communists," Betancourt said. "We don't want to have anything to do with them."

Freezing Rain, Colder Air Due Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain and snow moved into Connecticut today in moderate amounts. Weathermen said freezing temperatures, with spreading rain and snow, may be on the way.

A small storm area moved northward over Connecticut from New Jersey this morning, leaving snow and sleet in northern sections of the state and thick rainfall along the coast.

State Police reported one-half inch to one inch of sleet in the Canaan and Stafford areas, and rain elsewhere. Temperatures generally stayed above freezing.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Windsor Locks said the small storm will be replaced by a larger cold air system which will move up the eastern coast late tomorrow.

That disturbance, said the weather bureau, may bring snow, rain and much colder air to Connecticut over the weekend.

Rockville-Vernon Police Captain Blames Olson For Moving Cells Too Early

The Rockville Police Department has been "up against it" for some time in its effort to move its headquarters to the new city hall. Police Captain Peter J. Dowgiewicz said today.

He blamed the situation on Mayor Herman G. Olson. The department's five jail cells were removed by the public works department for installation in the new city hall, leaving the department without any facilities for holding prisoners or "detainees" and the captain said.

Moreover, Capt. Dowgiewicz said the cells were removed without his knowledge and unreasonably early. The cell material is lying where it once stood while waiting to be put in the new city hall.

The building work was completed Feb. 15 according to building inspector Roland P. Usher. The city officers and police department will move from the old hall into the new city hall and the building work will be completed as soon as it is completed.

Meanwhile, Rockville Police must take arrested persons to the land jail or to the State Police barracks in the Center Shopping Plaza as soon as it is completed.

Hal Boyle Everything Fine In Fifty-Nine

New Year (—) It's time again for our annual peek into the crystal ball at the prospects for the year ahead.

And the forecast is "Everything Fine in '59." But with some reservations.

Almost everybody who is working will earn a little more money, but even the Joneses will find it harder to keep up with their expenses.

Business and the cost of living will rise hand-in-hand together. Politicians of all parties will attempt to call for more economy in government — and then sit down and vote higher taxes all around.

The two words people will be most wary of in 1959 are "inflation" and "taxes."

The Cold War will remain about as peaceful as it has in the past, but defense costs will go up in every country as every day money is a new international crisis.

The rest of the world people will not be so sure about. Russia and America for the postwar after football games.

A few other predictions:

In March, the United States will startle the world by firing into space the first satellite containing a living being.

Secret Soviet agents will also reply by shooting up a satellite containing a talking parrot and a chorus of singing birds.

In China, 250,000 people, weary of communal living, will stage a friendly protest march on Peking, and that is the last that will be heard from them.

In Washington, D. C., these things can be looked for:

1. A Congressman will receive a citizens' award for spending more time working at his job than in preparing to run again in 1960. (But he'll lose in 1960.)

2. In his first major economy move, President Eisenhower will cut the budget of the State Department.

The sagging chief contribution to science is expected to be its ability to transmit heat rays. These are given off by any warm object, and equipment with aspirin settings can measure, analyze and act on these rays. Such a device is being used to detect "Vankee, to Home!" The other: "Vankee, to Home!" The other: "Vankee, to Home!"

Automatic Device Loads Recorders

Chicago—An automatic method of loading tape recorders has been developed by the Armour Research Foundation of the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Armour researchers have produced a self-threading cartridge which consists of a tapered-rod and a graded leader with a catch. It is designed so that the catch engages with a prethreaded leader in the mechanism. With it, no threading is necessary and when recording or playing is completed an end leader reverses the drive for rewind.

The magazine can be operated at any speed. The self-threading device can be installed on most conventional machines.

South Windsor Finance Unit Names Cutler As Chairman

John K. Cutler of Main St., who recently was appointed to the Greater Hartford Bridge Authority, will be chairman of the local Board of Finance this year.

By agreement between the parties, the chairmanship annual alternates between Democratic and Republican members. G. Warren Westbrook of Beetham Rd., a Republican, served as chairman last year.

An industrial accountant supervising capital assets for the Underwood Corp., the new chairman previously served as payroll department supervisor and plant accountant at the Southbridge, Mass. plant.

A graduate of Wapping Great East Hartford High School and Yalwer College, Cutler took extension courses in accounting from Connecticut Business College and the International Accountants Society. Married and the father of two children, he has lived in South Windsor 22 years.

Cutler became a member of the Democratic Town Committee in 1949 and was treasurer since 1950. He was a justice of the peace from 1952-56. Director of Civilian Defense, 1953-54, and a Board of Finance member since 1955. He has served on the Industrial Development Commission since 1956 and was its first chairman.

President of the Underwood Management Corp. for 1956-58 and a member of the Rockville Lodge of Elks, he is a former member of the Church Budget.

Wapping Community Church will hold its annual meeting Jan. 8 at 8 p.m. to consider a budget for the coming year and to act on a slate of proposed new officers for 1959.

Accounts and of the Connecticut Snow Removal Contracts

Awarding of two contracts for snow removal from school property has been announced by the Board of Education when it was informed by First Selectman Thomas Burgess that the town could not continue to clear the school yards because of the increased road mileage to be cleared especially in near housing developments.

William H. Strong of Pleasant Valley Rd. was given the contract for snow removal from school property. Snow removal contracts were awarded on the basis of price and type of equipment to be used. The latter was a factor because of the time element involved in the sizeable areas to be cleared.

School Lunch Menus

The following is the menu for the Pleasant Valley Wapping and Union Schools for next week:

Saved by Coattails

New Haven Jan. 2 (AP)—Little boys their shoes scuffed and their coats flying, often dismay their mothers, who think they may never become proper gentlemen.

But one mother, Mrs. Frank Zuber of Deer Park, N.Y., is thankful her five-year-old son's coattails were flapping yesterday.

The boy, Paul, slipped through a hole in a deep, frozen pond while strolling with a playmate. His coat caught the edge of the ice and held him for 10 minutes in icy water.

The other child dashed to a nearby house where Paul's parents were visiting. The father sprang to the pond and pulled his child but otherwise unharmed was so safely.

Opens Office

ATLANTA, Jan. 2 (AP)—The opening today of a law office for the general practice of law at 9 W. Middle Tpke.

A graduate of St. James School and Rutgers University, he received a bachelor of arts degree from Trinity College in 1952 and his law degree from Boston University Law School in 1955. He was admitted to practice law in Connecticut and Massachusetts in 1955.

Atty. Barry also continues as a member of the Hartford law firm of Belsky and Barry while maintaining an office here.

Atty. Barry served two years in the Army with the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence in The Pentagon, Washington, D.C., and is a member of the Army Reserve. He belongs to the American State, County and local Bar associations.

Atty. Barry was elected State representative to the General Assembly from Manchester in November's election. A native of Manchester, he is the son of Mrs. John F. Barry and the late Dr. John F. Barry, and resides at 22 Scarborough Rd.

Hebron Tax Deadline Notices Sent

Mrs. F. Ellen Post, tax collector, warns property holders that the deadline for paying the second installment of 1958 on the list of October 1958 is February 2.

The final penalty of one half of one percent interest will be exacted from delinquents. Those who did not pay the first installment, the last July must pay in full on or before the deadline.

Mrs. Post also says that there are a number of motor vehicles whose owners have not paid the 1957 tax and that taxpayers will be served in these delinquencies a few days if taxes remain unpaid. No registrations will be made.

The tax collector will be at the town clerk's office every Saturday to receive taxes from 9 a.m. till noon. She will also accept payments at the home of the Hebron Town Clerk at 100 Center St. in Hebron.

Tax notices for Indians

Atty. Barry's office is advised to being unscrupulous to be presented at a manager's office in front of the church, following the 1958 service. Students who are in the Army with the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence in The Pentagon, Washington, D.C., and is a member of the Army Reserve. He belongs to the American State, County and local Bar associations.

Speaks at Church

The Rev. Peter J. Gunaas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Gunaas of Prospect St., will speak at the Church of the Nazarene at 7 p.m. Sunday.

He is a student at the Nazarene Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Mo., where he begins his senior year this month. He is also a member of the Nazarene Church in Rockville and is responsible for Gospel Services to be conducted every night as well as providing material assistance for hundreds of needy people.

Gunaas was co-captain of the soccer team in Manchester High School. He was also a member of the High and Dartmouth College football teams. He is a member of the varsity basketball team and the dean's list in the Dartmouth College.

He will speak Sunday evening on "My Testimony - from Darkness to Light."

False Sapphires Find Many Uses

Detroit—Sapphires made by the General Electric Co. are finding many applications in industrial and medical equipment, glasses, watches.

Clear white sapphires up to 5 inches in diameter have been produced. Differences between the natural and synthetic gems are hard to detect.

The sapphire's chief contribution to science is expected to be its ability to transmit heat rays. These are given off by any warm object, and equipment with aspirin settings can measure, analyze and act on these rays. Such a device is being used to detect "Vankee, to Home!" The other: "Vankee, to Home!"

Marathon Theater

New Haven, Conn. (AP)—A theatrical marathon is the latest achievement of the Yale University School of Drama.

The opening plays of two famous tragedies written 2,500 years apart are being staged in January for five performances. The "Agamemnon" of Aeschylus and "The Oresteia" of Euripides are being combined in the new production. The new production is a re-creation of the original Greek drama, under the direction of the Yale School of Drama.

Church New Completion

The new Rockville Methodist Church on Grove St. has been completed, according to Morgan I. Campbell, building committee chairman.

The fellowship hall which is completely finished was used New Year's Eve by the Couples Club and a party called "Miserable Men" was held at the church.

A new Wurlitzer electronic organ has been purchased with a number of prominent gifts. Campaigns will be held during the month of January to raise money for the new organ.

Church Magazine Merger

New York (AP)—Two Presbyterian women's magazines, the 71-year-old "Missionary Herald" and 34-year-old "Outreach" were combined this week to form the United Presbyterian Church's new publication, called "Concerns." The total running time for each performance: Five hours.

Seeks Better Access

The Board of Directors of the Rockville Area Chamber of Commerce will be asked at a meeting Monday at 3:30 p.m. to appoint a highway committee chairman to work for improved access to and from Rockville.

George H. Bennett, the Chamber's executive secretary, pointed out that he immediately after his arrival here last month, and will recommend that a committee work on the matter.

Bennett observed that this area is ideally situated for a distribution center, but that it needs better access roads.

The new executive will also present a program to promote growth of the Chamber, with the goal of enrolling every businessman in the area.

He Fits The Party Moment
 Despite the fact that the Republican liberals in the Senate have put forward Kefauver's John Sherman Cooper as their worth while candidate for the post, the most minority leader in the Senate will undoubtedly be Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois. Despite the depletion in the ranks of the Republican right wing after the November election, they still have the votes in the Senate.
 The fact that any political party should have to endure formal leadership of Dirksen's stature, or lack of stature, would be a fact to be deplored. Yet in a way, he is a fitting leader for the Republican moment—fitting because he is split personality, that uneasy shifting of faces, which is the problem of the Republican party. Dirksen's personal political career has been one of abrupt changes of policy or lack of policy in which he has variously campaigned and voted as a liberal,
 as a conservative, as an interna-tionalist, as an isolationist. His last great swing to the extreme right took place when he became the Chicago Tribune's choice for his original nomination to the Senate.
 Later, he claims to be an Eisenhower Republican, which would seem to be an adjustment to extreme right returns, but not much of a compliment to President Eisenhower.
 But in not knowing what he is to be, from one election to another, Senator Dirksen is very much like the Republican party itself. Become undecided in its policy in Congress, and in the policy its organizational leaders favor and push, the party leans toward the extreme right. For elections, it regularly nominates somebody who is either a moderate or a liberal. If it gets a moderate or a liberal into office, as a result of his broad appeal across party lines, the party then sets out to capture him for its own right wing, or failing such capture, to either ignore or frustrate him.
 To the party's conservative regulars, the liberal stance the party takes when it wants to win an election is a little short of treachery.
 Why bother to exist as a party,
 they ask, if the party is to be mere "the tool" to the Democrats?
 To the party's liberals, the right wing extremism which takes over party affairs during elections amounts to nothing less than party suicide, via declaration that the party refuses to come into the twentieth century.
 Somewhere in theory, in principle,
 and in the hearts of many Republicans, there must be a Republican party which is neither an echo of the Democrats nor a retreat to the nineteenth century, a party which offers an honest, constructive alternative to the Democrats and invites the country to go forward with it, and not back. Until such an image materializes out of the party's need and the country's need, however, leadership by Dirksen is a not unhelpful reminder of just where the party does stand which is like Dirksen, facing both ways.

The Mikoyan Visit
 The upcoming visit of Anastas Mikoyan, Russia's relatively im-phisticated No. 2 man, represents a new departure in Russia-American relations. What is new about it is the fact that, in the past important Russian officials have not come unofficially to the United States, any more than important American officials have gone unofficially to Russia. Such visitations have been only for stated official business, for specific negotiations or specific conferences. The relationship between us has not been one of friendly visits.
 Mikoyan is coming here ostensibly to make his first official visit to Washington. The inference is that other friendly visits will somehow enter his informal schedule. He comes with no announced specific mission, and for no formal purpose.
 We are thus left to guess at his real purpose, which may be many things. He may be coming in the interest of his own particular field, which is that of trade. He may be coming to do some informal talking about major issues between East and West. Or he may be coming with no greater purpose than that of establishing the new atmosphere which is involved in this type of visit, and which could lead to other visits of a similar nature.
 The latter case, which could actually be all that is really involved in the visit, the sequel would not be the visit but the visit itself,
 himself, as some analysts think,
 but rather the possible visit of Vice President Nixon to Russia. That would complete the exchange of visits on the part of the No. 2 men.
 After that something more might come.
 To expect more than this—the possible establishment of more direct communication between high Russians and high Americans—as a result of this visit would be foolhardy. The fact that this visit comes in the midst of a period of what seems to be Russian diplomatic toughness on the Berlin issue does not necessarily indicate any Russian desire to retreat on the basic issues involved in that toughness. Rather, any foreign policy which feels itself possessed of the initiative is likely to keep mixing up its plays, to confuse the opposition and thus enhance its own chances of keeping the initiative.
 And that—the fact that the Russians do hold and are exercising the foreign policy initiative in this present period—is the main preliminary factor about this visit.
 By one thrust after another—thrusts of toughness, thrusts of friendship-seeking, thrusts of threat and threats of hope—the Russians are, to give them some kind of credit, seeking to break up the long cold war deadlock.
 Whether they are trying to break the cold war deadlock in order to convert it into a Russian victory, or whether they have sense and statesmanship enough to be seeking compromise, concession,
 and peace without victory, but with honor for both sides, remains to be seen. Since neither side of the cold war has as yet sought that kind of peace or has as yet given up the idea that it is somehow, some line going to obtain the defeat and retreat of the other,
 there is no real reason for hope that the present Russian period
 of initiative has sensible objectives.
 There is, so far, however, even less hope that there is an American initiative capable of seeking an end of the cold war rather than victory in it. The typical American official comment of the day is to the effect that we are always ready to entertain serious proposals for negotiation between East and West. It would be refreshingly to have us prove our willingness to entertain such serious proposals by making one ourselves and then, We sit tight, and

Hungry Thruway
 For the latest demonstration of the way in which tolls have increasingly begun to wag the thru-ways they have built, one turn to the New York State Thruway, which is inaugurating new toll
 rates as of the first of the new year.
 It is now to cost $1.60 more, or a total of $7.45, for the motorist to go from the Hudson River to the Pennsylvania state line. The heaviest individual increase in toll station rate has been in the Yonkers section, where the toll goes from 91 to 22 cents which, it is said, imitates the New Jersey Turnpike practice of charging the highest rate per mile in those sections where traffic use is heaviest. The cost of the annual permit sold to regular users has been doubled up to $40.
 All these increases have been put into effect because the New York State Thruway is being living up to expectations and predictions for its revenue. The necessity for meeting the debt service on more than a billion dollars of cost demands more revenue. But while the rates for motorists increase, the rates for trucks are allowed to remain undisturbed.
 That is because the trucks have,
 so far, been guilty of not using the Thruway as much as it was predicted they would. So they are to be bribed into using the Thru-way, while ordinary motorists are soaked because not enough trucks
 do use the Thruway.
 What principles are the managers of the New York State Thru-way following in such policies?
 What, for instance, is the justification, in New York or in New Jersey, for charging most for the use of those particular miles of road which happen to be most heavily traveled? Is it that travel there is somehow a better value for the motorist? Or is it simply that there are more motorists to be trapped and bagged there? Does toll policy follow a principle of getting a fair price for service rendered? Or does it follow a simple, naked policy, and that for the time being of grabbing revenue wherever the grabbing is best?

 The answer would seem to be that its own insatiable cost dictates that our toll system keep grabbing for more and more revenue, which tends to discourage the customer, who makes still higher revenue grabs necessary.
 In other words, the toll system
 has now been carried to those extremes which are causing swing
 public sentiment and public policy.
 The mind so much as rummaging
 through half a dozen desk drawers, trying to figure out for what unknown reason half
 the junk has been saved.
 The first drawer tackled was the long center one, repository of layers upon layer of notepaper, outdated news releases, booklets and magazines sent by such organizations as the Historical Society for the Preservation of the Memory of the Battleship Maine, and the America, Inc.

 One piece notepaper found tucked away in a corner under a dried orange peel contained these mystifying notes in my handwriting: "Con. feels good by, expect meet 13 Newport after, eating broccoli, rest of comm., in better approx. voters." The cleaving task went to a half as I raked my brain trying to figure what I could have possibly meant. Was this scribble from an interview
 from a town meeting, and how did part of a grocery list get in there?
 The best interpretation can give is that some unknown committee felt whatever was discussing was a good buy, that it expected to meet with someone in Newport about something on the 13th of some unnamed month and that the voters must approve what ever it was the committee wanted to purchase. I don't recall moving the broccoli, but I do
 Among the other debris were 27
 pencils, 11 of them less than an inch and a half long and the others containing hard lead unable in editing new copy. There was also a brand new desk calendar for the year 1948, a photograph of a fellow I was supposed to return by mail
 last July, and a scrap paper receipt marked Paid in Full for something that cost me $29.98.
 In another drawer I found Monday's lunch, easily traceable once the drawer was opened. And to my complete surprise and gratification
 in the same drawer was a left over, missing since last winter.
 This was hidden under 13 carefully
 folded lunch bags.
 So it went. Every item uncovered was a moment of bliss as I recalled the events of 1938 and years past. As I closed the last drawer, I savored the wonderful moments that would be mine in the final days of 1959.

2 Killed, 8 Injured
Tossing Dynamite
 San Carlos, Ariz., Jan. 2 (AP)—
 A senseless New Year's Eve prank backfired into tragedy when a dynamite explosion killed two persons, hospitalized eight others
 and splintered a one-room house
 in a small town.
 The explosion occurred at a party for the Indian Bureau, which was held at a San Carlos reservation house. The dynamite was tossed into a box containing other sticks,
 setting off the blast.
 Hinton and his sister, Mrs. Nona
 Peaches, 37, were killed.
 Five of the injured were in critical condition. Several had limbs blown off or so badly mangled they had to be amputated. All were hospitalized, at least temporarily.
 Hospitalized were:
 The dead man's brother, Sam,
 his wife, Gloria, 26, a sister, Mamelle, 18, Sam Hinton's wife, friends, and their unidentified infant child, sex unknown; Norbert Dennis and McGilla Mallow.

Louisiana State Honor Disputed

Low Overpowers Cal With Awesome Display

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—Louisiana State, the national football champion, probably will get a strong argument over the honor from second place Iowa today in the wake of the Sugar and Rose Bowl games. Both teams were heavily favored—LSU by 10 points over Clemson and Iowa by 10 over California in the Rose Bowl. Only Iowa proved the odds-makers correct.

The Hawkeyes scored in every period to overwhelm California in the Pacific Coast Conference game. The two teams played a game that defied the odds.

Oklahoma 7-0 as expected and defeated Oregon, Syracuse 14-0 in the Orange Bowl. Air Force pulled a mild record in the Southwest Conference championship, Texas Christian, 0-0 in the Cotton Bowl. Prairie View A&M won the first round in the Prairie View.

Runners in Play
Iowa was untroubled by the Bayou Bengals in the final Associated Press poll. The national champion, but the Big Ten champs were not expected to have any adjustments made.

On the other hand, LSU was expected to go with the ball down from a hefty Clemson line, but by sheer weight of numbers, was supposed to have things its way in the third period.

Spikes tried again to give the championship to the Cotton Bowl. He tipped the ball to the right, but it was intercepted by the Cotton Bowl.

Spikes made it up with eight, but the Cotton Bowl was still in the lead. He tried to kick the ball down the field, but it was intercepted.

Golf Tournament Tomorrow — If

Weather permitting, the 1959 PGA Tourney at the Westchester Country Club will be played tomorrow.

The event was postponed yesterday because of snow. The tournament was scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Last year on a day not fit for golf, the tournament was held on the greens and fairways a hearty 147 guests participated.

There was rain, rain and more rain, plus heavy freezing temperatures that put ice on the equipment of many players before they completed their rounds.

The success of the Indian Hill Country Club and Duke University Club at Duke University carried a 68 hole tour for the New Year's competition.

The event was postponed one day because of the weather. The tournament was scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Undefeated Windham Plays Here Tonight

Tourney Play Ended Except On East Coast

New York, Jan. 2 (AP)—College basketball powers set their sights today on conference warfare following the greatest outburst of Christmas week tournament activity in the history of the game.

The hectic week of tournament play involved most of the top 10 teams in the Associated Press poll and rang up merry tunes on the cash registers. It also served to point up again the latent riches of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Big Ten and the Big East.

Most of the major tournament and non-tournament action ended Wednesday to permit the short-pants to celebrate the new year in civility.

There was some firing on the guns Thursday, including a couple of tours in the East.

Bowling, beaten in its first eight shots, surprised Drexel, 47-66. The first round of the tournament, Classic at Bangor, Maine, took place on Thursday.

Free skiing for life and the greatest gift with money was the only money to be made in skiing in the winter.

Williams and Massachusetts moved into tonight's semi-finals of the National Tournament. Williams defeated Harvard, 34-37.

College Bowl—Texas Christian 0, Air Force 1

Fumbles Hurt Both Teams

Dallas, Jan. 2 (AP)—"Those mistakes killed us," said Air Force Coach Alvin Martin, "but we just as well have been beaten by a better team."

The Air Force Academy fumbled Steve Galles (36) during fourth period action in Cotton Bowl game yesterday. Lassater picked up seven-yard gain on the play.
