

Police Wound Shelton Youth

Shelton, April 29 (AP)—Police wounded a youth last night after he attempted to shoot his father. Authorities said Ronald Paschewitz, 16, a former mental patient, tried to kill a policeman sent to capture him.

Police said the youth fired a single shot at his father, Anthony J. Paschewitz, at their home here, this night.

Police Sgt. Alton Hanley arrived and found the youth about to fire at his father through a window. Then, said police, Paschewitz threw a knife at Hanley and lunged at him with another. Hanley shot and wounded Paschewitz in the chest.

The youth was taken to Griffin hospital where he was reported in good condition. Police said Paschewitz was a mental patient in Fairbank State Hospital until a month ago.

Gimbel Heir Sued

Bridgeport, April 29 (AP)—Frederick A. Gimbel, an heir to the New York department store fortune, is being sued for abandonment by his wife.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mohl Gimbel, his wife, yesterday filed a suit against Gimbel in Superior Court here. She asked that he be compelled to support her "in the manner to which she has been accustomed."

Mrs. Gimbel gave her address and that of her husband as Chermavaca, Mexico. She said she married Gimbel in 1950 in Mexico, and that he abandoned her last November.

Tolland County Bolton Woman To Show Slides Of European Art

Mrs. Oscar Kreyzig of Bolton will exhibit pictures of art objects and architecture at a meeting of the Tolland County Art Assn. Tuesday at 8 p. m. at Maple St. School, Rockville.

Mrs. Kreyzig obtained the pictures while touring Europe last year.

The association will complete its plans for an annual museum trip to be held May 8. Mrs. Kreyzig is program chairman, will have details as to the meeting place, the time, and the museum to be visited.

The annual outdoor exhibition of the art group is being planned for June by the ways and means committee, of which Mrs. Caroline Foster is chairman.

Members are expected to bring work to the meeting Tuesday for criticism. Those entering their work in the picture of the month competition are asked to have paintings framed and ready for hanging.

Girl Scout Notes

"Look we're airborne!" Exclamations such as this were heard from members as this trip was made by the girls of the city.

Troop 50 last week as the American Airship Flagship New England climbed into the sky whisking the girls to a four day vacation in New York City. Upon arrival at La Guardia Airport, the Scouts boarded a helicopter which took them to the heart of the city.

"A trip to the Moon" was on the agenda at this time. The girls were taken to the planetarium where they saw the surface and how people have tried in vain to reach the unknown universe. Taking a look at what is and has been on the earth was accomplished by a visit to the Museum of Natural History.

It was unanimously agreed that "Green Mansions" starring Audrey Hepburn and "Tommy" starring Paul Anka and "Gloria of Yearling" were the stage shows "Spring Parade" and "Gloria of Yearling" were the stage shows.

Some of the girls found things hard to believe at Ripley's Believe It or Not Museum. The artist's conception of his modern art was sometimes just as hard to believe as the Museum of Modern Art.

At the Pan American Airlines office, the girls were shown what a lot of time and work it takes to register one flight reservation and the vast number of flights which are recorded every minute. Concluding the tour, each girl was made a junior stewardess.

One of the highlights of the trip was a visit to National Girl Scout Headquarters. There each girl saw the plans and programs being made to further her individual, group and national Girl Scout program.

How can you tell which suit is going to break horribly? This is something the trier is trying to predict where lightning is going to strike. The suit break is not, however, quite so unpredictable.

West opens the six of spades. East puts up the king, and you win with the ace. You can now expect to win two tricks in each suit. Where will you seek the ninth trick?

Reflexes to your own hand are so scarce that you should forget about spades and clubs. You must plan to develop one extra trick in either hearts or diamonds.

You can pick either suit if you breaks 4-2 or 5-3. The trouble is that one of the suits may break 3-1. If you happen to start that suit first, it will then be too late to switch to the other suit.

Suppose, for example, that you start a heart to the opponents. Back come a club, which you must win with dummy's ace in order to save entries to your own hand. You now cash the ace of hearts and discover the bad news. The diamonds can no longer be brought in.

Answer: Double. If your partner has a decent hand, you should collect the value of a game. Your hand should take four defensive tricks, and your partner should have at least two for his opening bid.

Andover GOP Supports John Yeomans For Return to District Board

Democrat John H. Yeomans was unanimously endorsed for re-election to the Regional District Board of Education by the Andover Republican Town Committee last night.

Yeomans is the Regional Board member whose three year term will expire June 30. Election of the Board of Education by the Andover Republican Town Committee will be held this Saturday in Town Hall at 8 p. m.

In making the endorsement the Republican Town Committee stated that it believed Yeomans should be kept out of the field of education. The three local members, Mrs. Raymond P. Houde and Clifford Horne, are Republicans.

Yeomans was chairman for the first six years of his term. When he declined the nomination as chairman at the Board's annual meeting in July last year, H. Clay Osborn III, was elected.

As a Board member he has been delegated with responsibility to represent with this town's State Rep. Ellsworth L. Coville and representatives from Hebron and Marlborough on enabling legislation to permit the City of Andover to apply for a hardship grant. After enabling legislation was passed, Yeomans compiled material from the three towns for application for the grant.

Additional legislation concerning a hardship grant for the district is now before the Education Committee.

Tall Cedars Spring Event On Saturday

Twenty marching units, including several bands and drum majorette groups, will be in the Tall Cedars Parade in Manchester Saturday.

General chairman for the Spring Centennial is Senior Deputy Grand Tall Cedar Robert A. King of Natick Forest. Tuxis Forest of Andover will combine with the Manchester forest for the annual event.

The parade will form at Charter Oak Park at 5 o'clock, and the line of march will be north on Main St. to the Center and the Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock.

A dinner will be served to parade units and Tall Cedars in the Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock, and the degree work and entertainment will follow in the main lodge.

Mother's Rings are custom made and must be ordered in advance. Order now in time for Mother's Day, May 10.

Overnight Budget
Regional District Board of Education chairman H. Clay Osborn III of Hebron said last night that the Regional Board is working on the 1959-60 budget so that a basic educational program may be provided while making cuts in the area recommended by district residents.

From Osborn's statement it appeared that cuts which had been made April 14 after the first budget meeting in order to meet the $407,686 budget would not all be the same as those now being made.

Merced to Call Sets
Herb Mercier of Andover, well-known square dance caller, will participate in the second annual Square Dance Jam on May 11 at other callers in the Middletown YMCA Saturday night.

A PFA auction, rummage and food sale will be held May 23 from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. in the elementary school. The auction will begin at 2 p. m.

Anyone who has items to donate rummage sale is asked to notify

St. Pierre-Sandberg Wedding

The wedding of Miss J. Audrey Sandberg, 20 Edgerton St., daughter of Mrs. Harry T. Sandberg and the late Mrs. Sandberg, and Eugene Thomas St. Pierre, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. St. Pierre, was held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Saturday at St. Mary's Church, East Hartford. The Rev. Robert Shasany officiated, and Robert J. Gordon Jr., was soloist. Church decorations were gladioli and carnations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, David W. Sandberg, wore an ankle-length gown of fragile white nylon tulle and chantilly lace. Lace formed and Chantilly lace. Lace formed bodice designed with short sleeves. Wide bands of matching lace accented the bouffant skirt. A pointed matching lace cap held her silver fingertip veil of imported Italian. She carried a bouquet of asters and carnations.

The maid of honor, Miss Barbara A. Haugh, 40 Edgerton St., and the bridesmaids, Miss Theresa J. St. Pierre, Hartford, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Patricia A. Burke, Glastonbury, wore similar gowns, that of the maid of honor in pink and those of the bridesmaids in blue.

Their ballerina-length gowns of figured nylon were made with fitted bodices, scoop necklines, cap sleeves and bouffant skirts. Their headpieces were bands of tulle laces and flowers, trimmed with circular veils. The maid of honor carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and roses, and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of blue and white carnations.

The flower girl, Sandra Ferrin of East Hartford, niece of the bride, wore a dress of pink frosted nylon with pink headpiece. She carried a basket of pink and blue carnations.

Percy A. St. Pierre of Hartford was best man for his brother, Eugene was William R. Sandberg, 19 Jarvis Rd., brother of the bride, and Frank A. Calipari, East Hartford.

The mother of the bride chose a light blue lace dress with navy blue accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom chose a beige dress with matching accessories. A reception for 115 guests was held at the Knights of Columbus Home, Manchester.

The bride's traveling costume, when leaving on a wedding trip South, was a light blue wool suit with black patent leather shoes, white and orchid corsage. The couple will be at home at 42 Edgerton St. after May 31.

The bride graduated from Manchester High School, and the bridegroom attended schools in Lewiston, Maine.

Rainiest Spot
Mt. Waialeale, Hawaii, probably is the world's rainiest spot. Its annual average rainfall is 498 inches, but 624 inches poured down there in a recent year.

Production Staff Named for Play

The production staff has been named for the Manchester Community Players' presentation of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings at Yerplanck School auditorium.

Stage management is under the direction of Arthur Holmes, who will be assisted by George Walker, William Luetigens, Roger Negro, Nick Gentilore, and James Trivino. Properties will be handled by Dorothy McCann and Ann Bushnell Brown. The make-up committee will be supervised by Arnold Thompson.

Barbara Pitkin, a member of the Chamade Club, is the featured soloist between acts and will be accompanied by Gladys Pasini. The usual chore of back-stage prompter will be played as a novelty role by Ann Lamb.

Raymond Culver directs the melodramatic "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." At an early rehearsal, Col-ver reminded the cast that although melodrama was originally intended for purposes of serious reform, today's audience enjoys the spirit of humorous exaggeration in which it is played.

The American Legion sponsors this production. Tickets are available from Legionnaires, from the Community Players, and may be purchased at the door.

Hebron Music Worship Program Sunday

Parishioners of St. Peter's Episcopal Church and others are again reminded of the service, "Worship in Music," to take place this Sunday evening at 7 in the church, sponsored by the Crugden, older members of the order of the Gales.

A sample program is posted in the church. Tickets are available in Phelps Hall.

This is an adult program sponsored by the church youth. Any donations received will be given to the new memorial fund toward an extension of Phelps Hall. This wing will not connect with the church, as has been suggested, as that was considered impractical.

Prominent among those on the program will be Antonia, violinist with the Hartford Symphony, a nephew of Mrs. Clarence E. Porter of Hebron; trumpeter, Randy Wainley of Andover; Horace Sellers, organist; Allan C. Ensign of South Glastonbury, baritone; Lyman J. Smith, soprano, of Glastonbury; John Bell, baritone, and Mrs. Herbert Porter, soprano, both of Hebron.

Those attending are asked to meet the guest soloists at the back of the church, on the way out. A coffee hour will follow for the guests.

Congregational Notes
Among items of local Congregational news are the following announcements: There will be a meeting of the Tolland County Assn. at the First Congregational Church, South Coventry, Rt. 31, Sunday.

Worship will begin at 8:30 p.m., followed by business, dinner at 8:30; evening worship, 7:30. The speaker will be Ronald Ewing, state chairman, Christian Higher Education Fund.

Announced by Mrs. Chandler, Commission on Women's Work, there will be a Kofee Klatch for women at 10:30 a.m., Friday. Guests will meet at the Congregational House, Hartford, and tour the building and also the seminary if time permits.

The Guild Council meeting was postponed last night because of the RHAM meeting that evening. The Hebron Council will meet this evening as scheduled, in the church lounge.

Maneury Group to Meet
The members of St. Peter's Cemetery Improvement Assn. are warned of the annual meeting, to be held in the Douglas Library, tonight at 8. Election of officers will take place.

New HI Members
Among new boys and girls enrolled in 4-H work are: David, Russell and Joyce Kinney, Charles Belden, Judy Laking, Carolyn A. Coolidge and Ned Ellis, all of Hebron. This list includes cards received up to April 18.

West Seen Offering Package at Geneva

(Continued from Page One) both sides of the Iron Curtain can be limited, inspected and controlled. "Belgium" to the French and West Germany means offering political or military concessions until the Russians are first. They don't believe Allied rights need redefinition. They demand political concessions in return for military relaxation. Herter and his advisers seem to see some good in both the British and French-German positions. The Americans recognize the importance of superior "flexible" in the world of opinion. Equally they insist the British should not overlook the "realities" of Soviet power. Before the foreign ministers at their meeting was a long, secret document drafted in London and setting forth Allied agreements and arrangements. This picture of the western negotiating position has emerged. — The Allies are agreed they will resist Soviet demands to turn the western troops into a demilitarized force. They intend to preserve the freedom of West Berlin and their own position there. German reunification and peace treaty — The Allies still believe Germany should be reunited by free, international election. But they are ready to propose at least two years of preliminary negotiations. The formation of a political commission of East and West Germany to work for cooperation in trade, political, economic, communications, sport and culture. The western Allies still insist a peace treaty must be concluded only with reunited Germany. — European security — An East-West security system covering the entire continent could come into effect with the conclusion of a German peace treaty. But before that various limited schemes like Berlin's some of reduced tension and America's open skies scheme to guard against surprise attacks would be started along with the phases of a unification program. — Summit talks — The U.S., France, West Germany have about given in. The U.S. arguments that Nikita Khrushchev is the only Soviet leader with authority to negotiate. The U.S. is willing to accept the necessity of at least one summit conference, probably this summer. The Allies want a summit meeting to discuss peace treaty, Berlin, Cuba and Czechoslovak participation. They intend pressing Italy's claims for a seat.

Pay Days Payless in Michigan

(Continued from Page One) the 1958 recession year and heavy drains on welfare funds for unemployed. The Michigan cities have contributed to the financial dilemma. With its general fund dwindling, Michigan faces millions of dollars in obligations for which no provision has been made. The state's indebtedness by May 15 is expected to be $242 million though much of this is expected to be covered. The veterans fund has been held in trust since its creation after World War II to aid needy veterans. The liquidation plan would require the fund's ultimate restoration through new tax sources. — SURPLUS IN HAWAII Honolulu, April 29 (AP)—Gov. William F. Quinn says Hawaii's government will have a surplus of about $9 million more than expected for the current 2-year period. Gov. Quinn, who is expected to hold a news conference Tuesday he hopes the Legislature will use the surplus for capital improvements and pay raises for government employees.

Invaders of Panama Consider Surrender

(Continued from Page One) manian government is not in the same category with the Latin American dictatorships he has criticized. Fernando Lobo of Brazil, leader of the OAB mission, told newsmen during a stopover in Miami that OAS military advisers would go into the invasion area if possible. "The Panama student federation, which has been feeding with the de la Guardia administration, defended the invasion forces and described them as 'soldiers of liberty and not mercenaries.' But so unscrupulous efforts were made by several others, including a professional acrobat and contortionist."

County Bill Faces Big Test in House

(Continued from Page One) keeping the government and people cheer. Ribicoff's $522 million highway program bill has been amended by Senate Democrats to meet GOP objections to provisions concerning the Hartford area bridges. The amendment was passed by the Senate unanimously yesterday on a vote which it provides that if two of the five Hartford area bridges are made toll free, the other three would have to have sufficient income to pay for all five. The bill allows $38 million in bonding for the State to take over five bridges from the Greater Hartford Bridge Authority. The entire administration bill before the Senate yesterday calls for the authorization of a $146 million bonding program to get the 4-year, $222 million highway construction program under way. The bill was returned to the legislative commission's office for checking after passage of the amendment. It may return to the Senate next week. The Republicans have approved a GOP substitute highway program. It calls for a $484 million program which they say will "reduce substantially the danger to the State's credit through excessive bonding." The GOP program calls for the $200 million expenditure recommended by the Governor for the federal interstate highway program. Under the Governor's plan

BOY SCOUT Notes and News

A record turnout of more than 400 people witnessed the annual Cub Scout Thruway Saturday night. High on the popularity list with the crowd was Pack 2 as the boys demonstrated their skills with the skit making blueberry flapjacks which they passed to the audience. Pack 183 also scored a hit with popcorn making as did Pack 123 with their "Pinewood Derby" entry. Pack 53 with a minstrel show drew an ovation from the crowd while Pack 251 brought down the house with a western skit complete with singing cowboys around the campfire accompanied by a four piece western band. A trip into the future as Pack 88 blasted off into space in a rocket ship, rounded out the program. The Cub Scout Olympic day will be held May 17, 7:30 p.m. at the Keny Street School. The annual district banquet will be held May 16, at 8:30 p.m. at the St. Mary's church. Dr. George Van Bibber, School of Physical Education, University of Connecticut and member of President Eisenhower's Committee on Physical Fitness will be the guest speaker. Troop 112 is conducting a doughnut sale. Sponsored by the Verplanck PTA, the scouts hope to reach their goal of 400 dozen. Faced by ace salesman Dick McFally who sold a hundred dozen last year, the troop will attend Pioneer this summer. Nine senior scouts from Troop 47 of the South Methodist Church spent their Spring vacation from high school last week on a 182-mile bicycle-camping trip through western Connecticut under the leadership of Scoutmaster Bob Van Deek. This trip follows the backroads of the beautiful western hills with campsites in several State parks was undertaken to complete the requirements for the bicycling merit badge. When many weather proved excellent both for bicycling and camping. Leaving Monday morning at 7 a.m., the group reached the New-Haven scout troop cabin at first evening, where they stayed overnight by prearrangement with the local troop. Tuesday and Wednesday nights were spent in camp near the shore of Lake Umbagog. On Friday, Troop 47 rode their bikes on Highland Lake, was reached where tents were again pitched and Saturday the group rode into Manchester about 4:30 p.m., tired, but expert cyclists. Breakfast and evening meals were cooked by boys in their tent. The group also had lunch in the roadside lunch-house in order to expedite travel. The usual day tires and brake linings made the scouts as-

This good world of ours devotes itself to the conquest of atomic energy, the manufacture of atomic bombs, and the launching of satellites into space.

In these fields, the record of our world is masterful and triumphant, although one always has to ask the question: How much more progress can we make?

One compares the world record of everything being accomplished in the nuclear armaments race, with nothing being accomplished in the business of providing food for the human beings born into the world, and one wonders what the energy, money and ingenuity devoted to such purposes of destruction could have accomplished if they had, instead, been devoted to the business of giving the people of the world food to eat.

Such an endeavor would, of course, be socialistic in nature. That is why, in this country, we are so glad to see the world record of atomic destruction turned against fluoridation. A measure like fluoridation is entitled to and should receive the overwhelming popular approval of a community. And if, for a variety of reasons, as many as 8,000 people in a community do not want to accept fluoridation now, that should be enough for the rest of us, for the time being, and until a significant change for these 8,000 has changed their minds.

As for the reasons for the defeat of fluoridation, we do not think any substantial number of those voting against it yesterday were the dupes of a certain campaign against "rat poison" or were confused as to which lever to pull inside the voting machine. They were simply voting the way they felt, and they did not feel ready to accept the idea that their public water supply should be used as the vehicle for something new, even though that something new might be a benefit.

Such instinctive feelings can change, as the idea involved becomes more familiar and common place, and perhaps the most important future fact about the fluoridation issue in Manchester is that the whole Hartford metropolitan water district will soon be fluoridating its water, for communities with which most of us have daily contact.

As fluoridation becomes an every day fact in the lives of our immediate neighbors, we ourselves are certain to become more accustomed to the idea, and the time may arrive for a re-consideration, in a calmer atmosphere.

Meanwhile, no sincere proponent of fluoridation will force it down the throats of 3,000 unwilling people. What the sincere believers in fluoridation do is to persuade people themselves to consider it a good and welcome thing.

It was toward this goal that Dr. Charles Jacobson, leader of the pro-fluoridation campaign, directed his time and energy and persuasion. If his recent reports in this report, it nevertheless stands as an effort deserving commendation and appreciation and gratitude. More than that, the future is likely to prove that the argument and appeal formulated in this campaign have, despite defeat yesterday, laid the groundwork for their own eventual victory, and one who, when it comes, will not be a close division, but a mandate.

We Prefer Bombs

United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld reports that organization's Social Commission a world-wide lag in housing, with the world producing people faster than it produces roofs to cover them.

In spite of considerable and international efforts to improve the housing situation," he declares, "little or no progress can be reported in the attempt to keep an adequate supply of housing, especially low-cost housing, on a level with the needs of growing populations."

There is no country which is not, to some extent, included in this world picture. Some of the shums of America, although narrowed down in the past few decades, are as vile as anything that can be cited in the world's most backward countries.

But having housing cited as a world problem, by the administrative head of the United Nations and having his report sum it up as "little or no progress" leads us to compare the world's record in this respect with its record on certain other problems.

There is no such inertia, no such lack of progress and accomplishment, in the area in which the LAW in your life

May 1st is Law Day U.S.A.

Next Friday, May 1, will be observed throughout the country as the second annual Law Day U.S.A.

Law Day is a day on which we should recognize what the law has meant in the growth and development of our nation. It is also a time for reaffirmation of our respect for the law, and for the important part it plays in our lives.

The overall purpose of Law Day is to honor our priceless heritage of freedom under law, by emphasizing the role of the law as a promoter of progress and as an insurer of the rights which make that progress possible.

As citizens of a government under law, we enjoy certain rights and privileges only because the system under which we live is based on the rule of law.

Law Day is celebrated on May 1 because that is the day on which international communism celebrates its past victories and looks forward to future conquests.

We should recall on this day the fundamental principles on which our society is based, and contrast them with the cynical atheistic philosophy underlying the communist system.

The rule of law is the strongest ideal we offer the world. We must concentrate on the fact that our lives are based on respect for the adherence to the law.

But what is the law and what does it mean to us, as citizens? Blackstone's definition of law, the one most often quoted in law books, says: "Law is a rule of civil conduct prescribed by the supreme power in a state, commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong."

The rule of law is the concept of individual freedom has been outstanding in our history. It is the concept of individual freedom and justice, under law, has been the central theme of our moral leadership in the world. The true advantage of the rule of law is the affirmation of

Compulsory Car Inspection Urged

Hartford, April 29 (AP)—The General Assembly's Transportation Committee favorably reported a bill permitting the state to establish compulsory automobile inspections.

The bill is similar to systems now in effect in Massachusetts and New York States.

The act would become effective July 1, 1959.

The bill would have 15 days to return an inspection form to the Motor Vehicles Department. Failure to comply with the law could result in the loss of number plates and registration.

Monty Fires Salvo At U.S. Leadership

Montgomery was in a mood to make the lack of agreement a hundred times harder.

Several members of parliament were reported protesting the government to do something to muzzle Montgomery.

Officially the government can do nothing. As a private citizen, Montgomery is free to say what he likes as long as he does not violate the Official Secrets Act.

Montgomery seems determined to get a warm reception here but his arrival last night did not create much excitement.

On Berlin, Montgomery indicated he believes this is just the kind of war the Russians may be thinking about fighting.

Tolland County GOP in House For Vernon Bill

All of Tolland County is apparently interested in and stands to benefit from the proposed consolidation of the governments of Rockville and Vernon.

Rep. Harry H. Hamner backed up this statement today by pointing out that five Republican representatives from Tolland County towns crossed party lines last week in voting for a bill that would start the consolidation process.

The bill was opposed by Republican party leaders who felt the bill circumvented the Home Rule Act, designed to allow towns to handle such matters themselves.

Clasme of the Week

"Winnie the Pooh" by A. A. Milne is this week's classic. The 45th annual meeting of the Tolland Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers will be held Sunday at the First Congregational Church, 8 a.m. in Coventry.

The business meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Following the session, Gordon Stearns, organist and choir director of the First Congregational Church of West Hartford, will speak with reference to selecting and installing a pastor.

Swim Scholarship Set

Coventry youths 18 years of age by June 15 and over and having an intermediate swimming certificate are invited to enter a swimming scholarship contest. The contest will be sponsored by the Rockville Chapter, American Red Cross, in branch town of this chapter.

One winner will be chosen from each chapter and awarded an expense-free 10 days at Camp Pequot in Colchester from June 15 through June 25. This program will be for training as a swimming and life saving instructor. Those interested should be willing to teach one child in swimming and life saving. Further details may be had from Mrs. Theodore Hietala of Oak Grove, or a brief personal history may be sent her by May 7.

DIC on Town Growth

The future appearance of the Town of Coventry can be influenced by the Development and Industrial Commission (DIC). This becomes part of the general effort to avoid haphazardness which can become a source of regret to future generations, or a source of future desired growth.

To attain its goal, "We should look forward 10, 15, or 20 years hence, in essence, then the burden upon this commission is four-fold: 1. To attract industry compatible in the town; 2. To aid existing industrial, business, and commercial units; 3. To maintain a more self-sustaining, and 4. To establish restrictions designed to curb the continuation of the rural atmosphere."

The name of the commission, itself, suggests that its sole purpose is to attract industry. "However," he further stated, "however, is to attract industry, particularly of the better class, the commission should also concern itself with making the town attractive."

Since its organization meeting Nov. 29 the commission has been

Clasme of the Week

"Winnie the Pooh" by A. A. Milne is this week's classic. In the story was intended to be a children's classic, but it has become a happiness and wisdom to remain in the strict province of the Dr. Denton set. One of the very best stories in this book concerns the time Pooh, who is a bear, decided to go after a bee hive full of honey. He inflated a balloon and floated up to treetop level, then pretended to be a black cloud, to help the illusion he had his master, Christopher Robin, walk around under an umbrella.

Another good story concerns the

Indians Rally to Toppe Wincham, 3-2

By PAT BOLDUC
Veteran Clyde Richard and newcomer Larry Lovett shared the role of hero yesterday afternoon as punchless Manchester High School rallied in the seventh and eighth innings to defeat the Indians 3-2 at Mt. Nebo. The crucial eighth was witnessed by a small crowd which braved 50 degree temperatures.

White was nicked by a Soracchi solid liner in the bottom half of the eighth inning. Dave was removed for pinch-runner Skip Marsh after stealing second base. Soracchi, who had not lost in seven CCHL games over the past two years, bore down to retire the next three batters on a fielder's choice and a fly ball to centerfield and an infield pop.

Baseball Hub of the Nation
New England region is the baseball hub of the nation. Making these claims after extensive study is the New Englander magazine. Although pleasure boats currently outfit the region with any baseball games, the monthly business magazine said in its April issue nearly 30 per cent of New England's 10 million residents play the game.

The Club Has Been Dead for at Least Three Years' Detroit Press Blasts Tigers

Detroit, April 29 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are probably the most imaginative headlines and provoking tools of public content, even if they are not winning any baseball games. The Detroit Free Press, for example, blasted "Our Pudding is So Stale" after the Tigers dropped Sunday's contest to the Boston Red Sox.

Tommy Devine, a Free Press sports columnist, asked by a letter writer why Detroit Manager Bill Boner had not used Pete Burnside who had been the club's most effective pitcher in spring training, gave this answer:
"Another Devine reader wrote: 'I want to pretend one of your headlines was being grossly inaccurate. It claims that it is impossible to win a pennant with a losing record. I claim that it is impossible. Three years and apparently every other camp under the guise of the Toledo Blade, wrote that those who wanted to see baseball in the west, way certainly did — at Briggs Stadium.'"
