Why Stocks Flipped

Over the past few months, we have had occasion to despair of the impartial expertise of the supposedly acknowledged experts in Wall Street. We have noticed, for instance, that the market fell just about as much from the nuclear explosion as would occur with their own private, personal, emotional, and political view of whether or not nuclear war should be contemplated. We have noticed, in addition, that the experts on detecting nuclear explosions profess ability to detect the explosion for the most part by their own personal, emotional and political idea of whether or not to live at peace with Russia.

We go on to a new category—that of the experts on the stock market. It is no means the most massive and serious revelation of Communist economic and political intent on the world scene, but it is certainly one of the curious and dramatic.

It is a request from the East German government which just recently built a wall through the middle of Berlin to separate the West from the East. The request from East Germany for the Communists to admit to their plan to build a wall through West Germany, headed by an obscure old gentleman named Adenauer. And the request is for a five year loan in the sum of $500,000,000.

Perhaps the simple point is this: If you are the spokesman of the Communist government of East Germany, you think twice before you get up the nerve and take the drastic risk of admitting what Adenauer and the world to which you need the kind of help you are asking for you will even ask it from him.

This loan request from East Germany is the most startling item of the news which emphasizes the fact that the Communist way of life is not at all monotonous. It is a very handsome economic dividend to itself and its people.

Not only does Communist China, suffering from a combination of natural crop disasters and futile efforts to turn Chinese peasant life into unnatural farming conditions, seek food abroad. Even Russia, which has had a longer time to come to the realization that what it would like best is a farm-what, is a sort of bigger carbon copy of Iowa, has to make a deal to obtain it.

So that was what was wrong with the stock market last Monday and Tuesday. We had, however, of horrors, balanced the book.

Ground Travel Dangerous

The tragic toll from the wrecking of trains continues, with 92 deaths and 1,000 injuries. The cause is, however, merely the latest in a series of tragedies — tragedies which have been forced to declare its over emergency need in so many areas can ever dream of propagating anybody else into its camp. It took very much like a moment of tangible victory for the West.

Such appearances of Western supremacy and triumph are, unfortunately, just very good news on one front, but not decisive in the whole cold war battle between East and West.

We are fond of using, as an argument against Communism, the truth that "man does not live by bread alone." That assigns to us the superior emphasis on spiritual values, and assumes that all the Communists value and think that it is bread and butter. This is much too simple for the truth. We, for our part, are pretty materialistic ourselves, and not quite as spiritual as we claim to be. But the Communists, for their part, have been much more spiritual in their approach and their concepts than we would believe possible for any system of life which began by denouncing existing religions. The explanation has to be that Communism itself is a kind of religion which after denouncing all other religions proceeds to the ritual and the dogma of the Communists themselves.

20 Million Hide Leprosy

MANILA—More than 10,000,000 people in the world are known to have leprosy. But all almost 20,000,000 people of leprosy are unaware of their affliction because they do not know they have it. Leprosy is a disease which is often spread by contact with an infected person, but it can also be spread by contact with an infected dog or cat. Connecticut Yankee

By A. H. O.

I have one last admonition to give the candidates, leaders, and delegates heading into the Republican State Convention of 1962 next Monday evening. It would be this: Don't take your gross notions too seriously.

We don't take this time, any more than we take any other time, to give you as much for granted as many of them did back in 1958. For one thing, this time everybody knows, down to the bitter end, and nobody is making any free gifts of nomination to anybody else in the comfortable supposition that the nomination isn't worth anything anyway. The Republicans expected Ribicoff's strength in 1958, and actually wound up almost dead longer toward the end. They expect it in 1962, too, but it will be a similar, not a process which may also, for all we know, be similar to the process which, in 1958, gave us a certain amount of relief.

This was something a good many of us, including some dead ones, were in for in 1958. It was a thing that, in the race for the nomination between John Edgar Hoover and Fred Zeller, it was Zeller who came to the convention and won the nomination. There were some analysts who predicted that Zeller would have the lead on the first ballot. After he had done so, the convention was in a state of confusion. Zeller was the man who took the lead, and he was the man who took the lead. Zeller was the man who took the lead, and he was the man who took the lead.

Space Shot Observations Will Be of Great Importance

By Dr. M. L. Lewis, Director
The first observation of a solar eclipse from space will be of great importance to astronomers. The observations will be made from the Earth-orbiting satellite, Alouette I, which is now in orbit. The satellite is carrying a special instrument which will observe the sun during the eclipse. The observations will be made from a point of view which is completely different from that of any ground-based observation. The observations will be of great importance to astronomers because they will provide a new way of looking at the sun. Over the past few months, we have had occasion to despair of the impartial expertise of the supposedly acknowledged experts in Wall Street. We have noticed, for instance, that the market fell just about as much from the nuclear explosion as would occur with their own private, personal, emotional, and political view of whether or not nuclear war should be contemplated. We have noticed, in addition, that the experts on detecting nuclear explosions profess ability to detect the explosion for the most part by their own personal, emotional and political idea of whether or not to live at peace with Russia.

Ground Travel Dangerous

The tragic toll from the wrecking of trains continues, with 92 deaths and 1,000 injuries. The cause is, however, merely the latest in a series of tragedies — tragedies which have been forced to declare its over emergency need in so many areas can ever dream of propagating anybody else into its camp. It took very much like a moment of tangible victory for the West.

Such appearances of Western supremacy and triumph are, unfortunately, just very good news on one front, but not decisive in the whole cold war battle between East and West.

We are fond of using, as an argument against Communism, the truth that "man does not live by bread alone." That assigns to us the superior emphasis on spiritual values, and assumes that all the Communists value and think that it is bread and butter. This is much too simple for the truth. We, for our part, are pretty materialistic ourselves, and not quite as spiritual as we claim to be. But the Communists, for their part, have been much more spiritual in their approach and their concepts than we would believe possible for any system of life which began by denouncing existing religions. The explanation has to be that Communism itself is a kind of religion which after denouncing all other religions proceeds to the ritual and the dogma of the Communists themselves.

Space Shot Observations Will Be of Great Importance

By Dr. M. L. Lewis, Director
The first observation of a solar eclipse from space will be of great importance to astronomers. The observations will be made from the Earth-orbiting satellite, Alouette I, which is now in orbit. The satellite is carrying a special instrument which will observe the sun during the eclipse. The observations will be made from a point of view which is completely different from that of any ground-based observation. The observations will be of great importance to astronomers because they will provide a new way of looking at the sun. # San Francisco No Longer Has 'Room at the Top' L.A. in Annual Bid for Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—It's June, you know. You can tell just by looking at the National League standings. The Giants no longer own sole possession of first place. It was the result of the same as it has been for four years: The Giants threatened to run away and hide from the rest of the league all through May. Then they started heading out all over. And the Giants seem to fade. Judge that by the fact that they returned to the Polo Grounds last night, all right, beating the hapless New York Mets 4-2. But the surprising Dodgers you saw from Philadelphia, 1-4 and 4-5.

43,742 Welcome Giants Back Failure Fails to Dim Faithful Met Boosters

NEW YORK (AP)—Has failure spoiled the fans of the New York Mets? There were 43,742 of them last night, not yet 24,000 in the stadium, and the Giants, and although their Mets beat their 13th straight game, they were hounding, shouting, and cheering and blowing fog horns and chanting for a rally right to the end.

80 Boys Placed On Alumni Faced

Cleveland's McGaha Earns New Respect

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Colavito left the pro game looking like a 19th-century pitcher. He was playing baseball. The 1962 was a year of his shooing. He was playing the job of getting the Indians out of the woods. Dick Donovan has become the new hero with an 8-1 record. Grant is 2-0 as a spot starter and Perry finally seems to be responding to the McGaha treatment.

New Giants Aren't Used to Field Willie's Glad to Be Back, Fans Feel He's Never Left

NEW YORK (AP)—"It's been the longest, duffing his plastic helmet. When Willie McGaha made a catch in right field that night, he was taken, although it obviously was made by Willie McGaha. Later in the sixth inning they finished it on a 9-1 ball by Mike Santilli.

Rockville Jayves Defeat East, 11-5

Rockville Jayves came up with four runs in the fourth to go ahead 11-5. The Jayves were led by Dick Dixon, who pitched a 7-0 game. The Jayves were led by Dick Dixon, who pitched a 7-0 game.

Player Takes Lead

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Gary Peck, leading the Memphis pro golf circuit, held a one-shot lead today as the $40,000, 18-hole open golf tournament entered the crucial stage.

Dixon Point Leader

Dick Dixon, off to his fastest and fiercest start, led the Jayves to a 11-5 victory over the East. Dixon pitched a 7-0 game, leading the Jayves to a 11-5 victory over the East.

Jim Martello Wins for Rams; Coventry Blanks Somers, 11-0

Strong pitching by freshman right-hander Jim Martello helped Rockville High to a 6-4 victory over Newton yesterday at Rockville. Martello pitched a 6-4 victory over Newton yesterday at Rockville.

About Town

The Holy Name Society of St. James' Church at a meeting Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the school hall will present its annual achievement awards to a boy and a girl in this year's graduating class at St. James' School. The Rt. Rev. Magr. John F. Hamon, pastor of St. James' Church, will speak. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Alfred B. Sundquist, 50 Wyllys St., was elected to a two-year term as first vice president of the Pembroke Alumnae Association at its annual meeting last night at Pembroke College, Providence, R. I.

A picnic for volunteer hospital workers of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Connecticut, will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wilber Little, 185 Spencer St., who is department chairman of the hospital volunteer program.

The Chamaine Musical Club will hold its annual dinner Monday at 8:45 p.m. at Clark's Restaurant, Wilmantia. Members may call Mrs. Howard Chase, Hebron Rd., Bolton, for reservations.

A special program of recorded Salvation Army band music will be presented tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the social hall at Westhill Gardens. Cecil Kittle is chairman of the program.

The Friendship Circle of the Salvation Army will meet Monday at 7:45 for a worship service. Mrs. Ward Tiedford and Mrs. William Johnson will be hostesses.

Two Girls Get Manchuck Scholarship

Miss Georgann Minder (left), daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Minder, 613 Main St., registers a big smile for a big surprise as she is presented a $100 scholarship from the Daniel Manchuck Memorial Scholarship Fund by Manchester High School music teacher Robert Vater. Miss Carolyn Mather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Mather of Hebron Rd., Bolton, also was awarded a $100 scholarship from the fund. Both awards, given to high school seniors planning a career in music education, were made last night at an all-school instrumental concert in Bailey Auditorium. (Herald photo by Saterlis).

Heard Along Main Street

Up With a Bird
When asked why she looked so "beat" one morning, a young secretary caused raised eyebrows by replying, "I was awake all night learning about the birds and bees."
Noting the shocked silence she quickly explained that the buzzing of a bee awoke her about 1 a.m. She removed a window screen when she ousted the bee and was too tired to replace it. A little later the whirring of wings disturbed her sleep. This time she saw a large bird flying around her bedroom.
It was dawn before things returned to normal.

Can't Tell a Player

Do you know Police Chief Jim Reardon?
No? He's easily identified, judging from the Memorial Day parade.
He was the ONLY policeman in the line of march WITHOUT one of the new identification tags.
No Comment
The girl reporter had learned that the proud parents of a new baby had not quite beat the stock to the hospital. She called the home, hoping to get a story on this classic of human interest events.
The new father was visiting at the hospital and grandpa, whose accent implied he was a Continental gentleman, was asked to relate the story, "from the beginning."
"Are you married?" he asked the reporter.
"No," said she.
"I can't tell you then," the older gentleman replied, and he didn't.

Cancer Drive Exceeds Goal Fourth Year

With memorial donations still coming in, the 1962 American Cancer Society drive has exceeded its goal for the fourth consecutive year with a total of about $14,850. This year's quota was $13,500.
Sam Diamond has been serving as chairman, and Mrs. Gloria Benson as assistant chairman. Alvin Horwitz, president of the Manchester chapter, American Cancer Society, praised townspeople for their response to the drive, and Diamond said its success was due largely to the efforts of more than 800 volunteer workers, captains, divisional chairmen and society officers.
Various town groups have contributed sums to the drive. The employees of the Ions Manufacturing Co. raised $1,000, and the Holiday and Parkside Bowling Alleys, with a "Bowl Down for Cancer" campaign, donated $300.
The YWCA Auxiliary led by Mrs. Laura Escabert, canvassed 800 homes for funds. Throughout the year, the auxiliary has made dressings and helped prepare kits for the drive.
The Four-Leafers 4-H Club, directed by Mrs. Vivian Ladabouche, completed its fourth year in the house-to-house drive. William Allen was chairman of the Youth Fellowship Group of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in raising contributions.
A group of young girls, aged 9 through 12, all of Butternut Lane, presented a program for the neighborhood.
The house-to-house canvass was led by co-chairmen Carl Higgins and Mrs. Helen Hachadorian. Other persons in charge were William Slieth, Industrial; Edgar Clarke, gifts; Dr. Horwitz, medical; Alty, Ronald Jacobs, attorneys; Theodore Goodchild, real estate and insurance; James DeRocco, commercial; and William Freedman, "Bowl Down for Cancer."
The Cancer Society will elect officers at its annual meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at Mott's Community Hall.

Two Get Degrees In Merchandising

Two Manchester women were graduated Thursday from the Chamberlain School of Retailing in Boston, Mass., with associate degrees in merchandising.
They are Miss Mary Lou Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Johnston, 3 Munro St., and Miss Janice H. Bostick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley S. Bostick, 73 Ludlow Rd. Both are 1960 graduates of Manchester High School.
Miss Johnston was a dormitory representative for her junior and senior years and was art and layout editor of the yearbook "Hats and Heels" as a senior.
Miss Bostick was senior advisor of the glee club and was chairman of fashion shows for two years.
Miss Johnston is now employed as a contingent cartographer by the engineering department of Pratt and Whitney, division of United Aircraft Corp., East Hartford. Miss Bostick plans to work in Manchester for the summer, and then move to San Francisco, Calif., to enter the executive training program at the Emporium, a large retail store.

Business Bodies

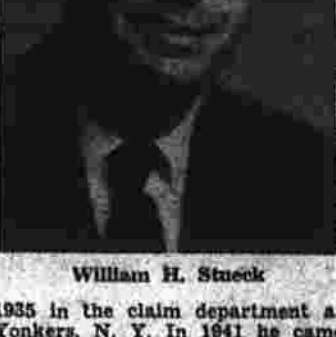

George Neal, manager of the meat department at the First Food Store, 646 Center St., shows meat cut to Mrs. Evelyn Jobert of 723 Center St. taken direct from new meat counter of unpackaged meats. The food store last week returned to unpackaged meats for its patrons. John Quigley, store manager, yesterday said "we have returned to unpackaged meats where nothing is hidden by paper. Our customers have remarked about our change back to this type of personal service. We have a closer relationship with our customers, we get to know them by name and know what kinds of meat cuts they like to buy," he said. The new refrigerated display cases display the meat under bright illuminated lights. "This is how I like to buy meat," one customer said, "no fidgeting with packages and prices." International Sports Reporter

Ex-Newsman McKay Really Gets Around

Jim McKay, whose versatility as a television commentator and former newspaper reporter is being put to full use as host and commentator for "ABC's Wide World of Sports," received his first real introduction in sports from the Jesuits. As all Jesuit school alumni will testify, there are no bookworms in Jesuit schools. In addition to maintaining high scholastic marks, participation in sports is a must — and Jim proved himself outstanding in both. He graduated from Loyola College with an A.B. degree and membership in the Alpha Sigma Nu, the national Jesuit honor society.

McKay's formal career in television began in 1947 when with only three days' notice he shifted from the city room of the Baltimore Evening Sun to the paper's new television starting as a broadcaster, writer, and production man. It wasn't long until New York, recognizing his outstanding ability, beckoned him.

In August 1950, Jim came to New York as head of his own daily variety show, "The Real McKay," which he did for two years on CBS-TV. From that he branched out into special events, public affairs and finally, sports.

A free-lance broadcaster, Jim has covered virtually every sport on radio and television, including track and field, football, bowling, tennis, golf, baseball, boating, all of which plus a number of others are presented on "ABC's Wide World of Sports."

Last year Jim was the anchor-man for the television coverage of the summer Olympics; for the past two years he was the play-by-play commentator for the Ivy League football games of the week; he has done the Orange Bowl regatta, Masters golf tournament on TV for the past three years and many other sporting events during his 14 years as a broadcaster.

All this combined with "ABC's

Wide World of Sports" had made Jim one of the best customers for the airlines. As a matter of fact, more often than not, the best place to interview him is usually in the airline terminal between flights.

"The jet was supposed to liberate man," McKay says. "But it didn't do a thing for me. It just means that I can fly all night and work the next morning."

Golf at St. Andrews, Scotland, surfing championships in Hawaii, or a track meet in Moscow, McKay does them all. He has logged more than 100,000 miles of travel since he first began the "Wide World" tour in 1961.

Recalling his most grueling stint—a 24 hour non-stop appraisal of the famed auto race at Le Mans, France, Jim described the occasion:

"At least a quarter of a million people made camp on the grounds," recalled McKay. "There were carnivals, cheap restaurants, expensive restaurants, and guys running back and forth among the crowd hawking souvenirs. At night, while bands played and the neon lights of concession booths flashed on and off, you could hear the constant and eerie roar of the engines."

"I was in a broadcasting booth with reporters from 14 different countries. Each of us had our own microphone, but with everybody jabbering away together, there was an unnerving sensation of being locked in a cage with a lot of monkeys. Finally, I had a chance to relax. I went outside and found that the temperature had suddenly dropped. So I sought refuge from the cold at the IBM center which was tabulating the lap by lap results. But I couldn't sleep because the place was air-conditioned and mighty cold."

He has tasted the haute cuisine of stadium fare in Russia (grey, boiled sausages), used hand signals to make himself understood in France, and shared the mike with a soccer announcer in England.

"British reporters don't describe the game," said McKay. "They give their own personal critique. They'll say, 'Oh, look at that play by so and so,' or 'Bully, what a shot,' or 'unique scoring.'"

His most embarrassing moment occurred at the Moscow airport.

Coming Shows

A world-wide search for virtues that may cause human cancer—a search carried on in such widely separated efforts as an African safari and an experiment in a Chicago jail that could lead to an anti-cancer vaccine—will be traced in "Breakthrough: Cancer Virus" on the NBC-TV Network Friday, June 5 (9:30-10:30 p.m. EDT).

Gisela MacKenzie returns for her second guest appearance on the Emmy Award-winning "Bob Newhart Show" color broadcast Wednesday, June 6 (10 p.m. EDT).

Showbusiness—from circus to vaudeville, from radio to the lavish

Hollywood musicals—in serenade by Betty Miller and the Sing Along Gang, with soloists Diana Trank, Leslie Uggams and dancer Victor Griffin, Thursday, June 7 on NBC-TV's "Sing Along with Mitch" color show (10-11 p.m. EDT; a repeat of Oct. 28, 1961).

Hazel (Shirley Booth) is pleased that the Baxters (Don DeFore and Whitney Blake) plan to honor her on a special day, but she tries to back out when she learns that Mr. Baxter had to cancel an important meeting to avoid hurting her feelings. In "Hazel's Day" on NBC-TV's "Hazel" series Thursday, June 7 (9:30 p.m. EDT).

Robert Ryan and Aldo Ray star, with Robert Keith co-starring, in a starkly realistic story of a platoon in combat in the Korean War

In "Men in War," the feature film presentation, on "Hollywood Special" Sunday, June 3 ABC-TV 8:30-10:30 p. m. EDT).

The Adventures of Chip 'n' Dale. A group of cartoon coppers featuring the mischievous chipmunks, will be presented on "Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color" Sunday, June 3 (NBC-TV color broadcast 7:30-8:30 p. m. EDT).

Jack Carson is guest star as Frankie Fane, a fugitive who flees to Italy, where his lack of charity boomerangs, in "The Children of Aida Nuova" on NBC-TV's "Alfred Hitchcock Presents" Tuesday, June 5 (8:30-9 p.m. EDT).

A variety of minor announcements including calls from drunks, estranged citizens and a man claiming to have murdered his wife—start the day of Capt. Matt Holbrook in "A Barrel Full of Monkeys" on "Robert Taylor's Detectives" Friday, June 8 (8:30-9:30 p.m. EDT); repeat of Oct. 27, 1961.

Each September in Atlantic City, N. J., the nation's attention is directed to the beauty contest that produces "Miss America." "David Brinkley's Journal" will be focused on the beauty pageant story in the NBC-TV color broadcast of Wednesday, June 6 (10:30 p.m. EDT).

Telly Savalas, James Donald and Robert Walker star in "Three Soldiers," drama of a sergeant who tries to teach two of his men respect for their own lives, on the "Dick Powell Reynolds Aluminum Show" Tuesday, June 5 (9-10 p.m. EDT); repeat of Dec. 5, 1961.

Dana Andrews stars as a hard-boiled police detective with a heart in "The Boy Who Won't Wait," Alcoa Premiere drama to be seen Tuesday, June 6, from 10-11 p.m. NYT over ABC-TV.

Andrew Mason (Dennis Hopper), a teen-ager who's dominated by his mother, is the prime suspect in the murder of a pretty cop, but police lack evidence for an arrest in "My Friend, My Enemy" on NBC-TV's full-hour "7th Precinct" Monday, June 4 (9-10 p.m. EDT); repeat of Nov. 27, 1961.

Noris Karioff, Phyllis Thaxter and Marilla Hunt star in a "Thriller" drama, "The Last of the Somerswells." Written and directed by Ida Lupino Monday, June 4 on NBC-TV (10-11 p.m. EDT); a repeat of Nov. 6, 1961.

Representative Laurence Curtis, who is opposing George Cabot Lodge for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator from Massachusetts, will be interviewed on "Meet the Press" Sunday, June 3 (on NBC-TV in color 8 p.m. EDT; on NBC Radio Network 6:30 p.m. EDT).

'Circle' Show In 8th Year

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "Circle Theatre," one of television's hardest perennials, has been renewed for an eighth season starting next fall. One reason for its continued existence is an inexhaustible source of material from life itself. Circle's specialty is entertainment called "dramatized documentaries," which means that the situations are real (and sometimes the names of the characters are also) but the writers have dramatic license to telescope time, add fictitious characters, and, sometimes, dream up a windup to a situation that, in actuality, wanders along to an inconclusive end. In the past seven years, producer Robert Costello and his staff have turned out bi-weekly programs on CBS that have ranged from stories of crime and detection on one hand to a story about the successful treatment of cancer on the other. Sometimes, the drama has been built around a fictional situation that is a composite of many real stories. When, for instance, the program concerned Communist espionage in the United States, the plot was pure fiction, but the narrator broke in from time to time to tie up each episode with a real case and a real spy. "Sometimes we create one or two characters and use them to reflect the attitude of a whole community," Costello explained. "Other times we stick close to the facts. And on still other occasions, we create a fictitious story that is typical of many." Costello enjoyed most the job of piecing together the story of the World War II "ghost plane" found in the African desert, the "Lady Be Good." He flew to Libya to scout the area—and deduced for the program—what had happened to the crew. "Later, when they found the remains of the airman, our calculations proved completely correct," he said. "It was very satisfying." The program is free to work in any area, although it often concerns itself with themes of built-in dramatic appeal. "We hold meetings to decide what themes to tackle," Costello said, "and, generally, what comes out are subjects that interest us as individuals."

Hollywood on TV

By HENRY JOHNSON Hollywood Correspondent Newspaper Enterprise Assn. HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Hollywood is talking about the 41 network television leaving home screens at the end of the current season—from A (Advantages in Paradise) to Z (Zigzag Zoner). Leading the casualty list is ABC with 18 shows, CBS loses 14, and NBC 9. Canadian Don Rickles' name for the "Aloose" which afflicts fellows who can't seem to find their wallets or money clips when the check arrives—"shel-out falter." June Allyson apparently putting "Fin" to her career. "I've worked since I was 12 years old," she says. "I'm very happy now just taking care of Dick (husband Dick Powell) and the children." Comedian Gene Raylow quip about Las Vegas: "It's the only place in the world where you can see a woman in a full-length mink coat sitting in a Cadillac begging her husband for nickels." David Niven set to star in a film titled, "The Pink Panther." Seems like Phil Harris would be more appropriate for that one. Keely Smith's big warbling hit, solo, in Las Vegas. As Louis Prima's ex-wife and act partner, she should be singing, "I Can Get Along Without You Very Well." Hugh O'Brian mixing a new telefilm series. At $15,000 per guest appearance, Wyatt Earp can afford to take life a little easier. Leonard Reinisch's report that the transistor radio has had a greater impact on the minds of people in Asia and Africa than any instrument of communication since the printing press. Says Reinisch, chairman of the U.S. Advisory Commission on Information: "Natives in the back country carry a spear in one hand and a transistor radio in the other." Unhappily, the strongest signal comes from Moscow and Peking in Communist China. Phil Silvers angling for a straight dramatic role — a psychotic — in "Dr. Newman." Bob Hope's ski nose buried in the book titled, "Golf Is a Four-Letter Word." The tome is subtitled: "The Intimate Confessions of a Hooked Slicer." Author Richard Armour says he's now a member of G.A. — Golfers Anonymous. How to make money with movies, plan of a new Hollywood company with a slate of 13 proposed films. They will be made for television networks, with the producer retaining theatrical distribution rights overseas. Vince Edwards laughing about the "matter of timing" which doomed him to television fame as "Ben Casey." Two years ago an agent tried to sell the networks on a series starring Edwards as an ex-convict who learned medicine while helping a prison doctor. Pat Buttram's latest: "Middle age has arrived when you have the choice of two temptations and you take the one that gets you home earlier." "Lawrence of Arabia" joining "Cleopatra" and "Mutiny on the Bounty" in the "When will they be completed?" league. The film has been shooting since last August, with a July windup now projected. Chico Marx's widow, Mary, headed for the altar with New York attorney Lou Frasca. Ann Miller planning a show business comeback via the annulment of her Mexican marriage to oil millionaire Arthur Cameron. Sign in a drive-in theater: "For your convenience we also carry salter and aspirin." (7) A tour of Rome that the guidebooks never show and tourists never see will be conducted by NBC News correspondent Irving R. Levine on the NBC-TV premiere of "This Is NBC News" Sunday, June 3 (8:30 to 7 p.m. EDT).
