Business Bodies

JOINS WATKINS Angelo J. Larco of Wetherfield has joined the Watkins Bros. sales staff at 935 Main St.

A native of Lawrence, Mass., Larco came to Hartford in 1938 where he was later employed by the Johns-Manville Home Insulation Co. for 10 years. Larco will replace the vacancy created recently by Frank W. Kopyha's resignation when he moved to Waterbury.

Angelo J. Larco

Since 1960, Larco has been in the furniture business, having formerly managed the Castro Convertible showroom in Hartford.

JOINS ALLSTATE Donald L. Zuccardy, formerly of Manchester and now of Norwich, has been named a sales representative for Allstate Insurance Companies.

Prior to his new position with Allstate, he underwent a professional training course at the Eastern Zone training center at White Plains, N. Y., and passed the firm's exam with high honors.

30TH ANNIVERSARY The first Arthur Drug Store was founded at 845 Main St., Manchester, in the year, 1932, in an era when hectic times forced the banks to close down.

The Herald, in 1932, published an ad of Arthur Drug, stating it would close the Chaney checks.

Arthur's, one of four or five drug firms in the Main St. shopping area at that time, cashed the Chaney pay checks.

BRIEFS Merton Gay and Gary Heints, salesman with Moriarty Bros., Inc. Lincoln-Mercury dealers at 315 Center St., have each earned membership in the "100 Club."

George P. Churilla of 82 Foxcroft Dr., last month completed 35 years of service with Hamilton Standard. A supervisor of purchased material inspection in the Quality Control department, Churilla started in production and has worked as a plant foreman at the division's Westley, R. I., plant during World War II.

Sales of $4 1/2 million for the first six months of 1962 have been reported by Friendly Ice Cream Corp. The figure is a 22 per cent increase over the same period a year ago.

July 13 at Saybrook. Friendly's Manchester store is at 435 Main St.

The Grand Union sales for four-week period ended July 28 totaled $48,793,971. The figure shows a decrease of 3.4 per cent from the 1961 comparable sales figure of $48,433,386.

Ten per cent reductions in basic premiums for home insurance package policies for Connecticut residents have been announced by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Co. and Standard Fire Insurance Co.

New Products: An 15-pound electric refrigerator for Connecticut on a 12-volt automotive current or ordinary 110-volt household current is being marketed at a retail price of under $60 by Otto Berns Co., Inc., Rochester, N.Y.

The Bon Ami Co., diversified household products firm, yesterday reported substantial increases in sales and net income for the first six months of 1962.

United Aircraft Corporation earnings on common stock for the first half of 1962 were double the 1961 offerings.

United Aircraft Corp. contracts, orders, and government letters of intent at June 30, 1962, amounted to approximately $1,975,000,000.

During last month's house-to-house sampling of new Wondergold bread, Mrs. Charles Lesperance of 47 Battista Rd., left, received her free sample from Mrs. Joyce Dube, supervised crews under the direction of the Continental Baking Co. of East Hartford and Mrs. George Waddell of 465 Porter St. carried on the house-to-house promotion of the Wondergold bread product.

Chamber Wants Postal Dept. To Provide Adequate Parking

The Chamber of Commerce has recommended to town postal authorities that the Main Post Office provide parking space for its customers.

Bruce Watkins, chairman of the Chamber's Parking and Traffic Committee, is studying a parking plan for the Post Office.

A Chamber newsrelease, stating parking situation of the present official opinion of the present feeling of the (chamber) board of directors that it is incongruous to have a main post office located in the center of the city without having parking facilities available for the customers.

The Post Office Department provides no funds to local offices for parking facilities.

"We need a new oil burning furnace now," says Bailey. "If some other Post Office in our (administrative) region needs money for an emergency expense, we may not even get that."

Watkins, informed of the Post Office's budget, says that he will continue to investigate the possibility of post office financed parking. "Our next step," he said, "is to write to the Post Office Department (headquarters)."

Police Arrests

Fred A. Micoletti, 25, of 638 Forbes St., East Hartford, early today was charged with failure to carry a car registration and failure to carry a license. The arrest stemmed from a complaint in which Patrolman Ronald Roberts was sent to Spencer St. to investigate. He found Micoletti sleeping in a car, with the motor running and lights on, parked off the side of the road.

Bloodmobile Visits Temple Thursday

The Red Cross bloodmobile will make its August visit to Manchester Thursday, when it is stationed at Temple Beth Shalom, 83 Myrtle St., from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The visit will be the first at the temple. Donors are asked to make appointments to give by calling the Red Cross office, E. Center St.

"Illness takes no holiday during the vacation season, and blood is constantly needed by the hospitals to care for the sick and injured," says the Red Cross office, which is seeking 150 pints at the visit.

Teacher Attends UConn Workshop

John F. Delaney of Coventry, a Manchester High School teacher, has been awarded a scholarship to attend the 12th economic education workshop at the University of Connecticut beginning Monday.

The workshop will continue through Friday, Aug. 24. Basic economic problems to be studied include "Will U.S. Economic Growth Keep Pace with Expanding Needs" and "Eliminating the Booms and Busts in the Economic System."

New Dump Hours Tabled for Week

The change in dump hours which would have gone into effect Monday will not go into effect for at least another week.

Workmen need the extra time to clear the area north of the new road from Oloott St. They had been clearing the area south of the new road.

Residents of surrounding streets asked the board of directors Tuesday to expand the disposal area north of the road instead of south of the road, which is closer to their properties.

While the residents oppose the expansion of the disposal area, they agreed to hold their complaints until they see whether the promised improvement in the land fill method materializes.

When the houses do go into effect, they will be 5 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and holidays.

5 YOUTHS ARRESTED MILFORD (AP)—Five out-of-town youths were arrested and charged with breach of the peace last night for pestering a Milford housewife with obscene telephone calls.

The woman, at the request of police, made a date with the anonymous caller and the youths were seized when they showed up at her home. They were identified by police as George Montano, 19, Woodbridge; John F. Montano, 16, and Donald Montano, 17, Hamden; James Bossuto, 16, and John Bossuto, 15, Waterbury.

MRS. MAY LANIER GREENWICH (AP) Private funeral services will be held for Mrs. May Field Lanier, 89, Greenwich.

A Look at TV Fare Coming in the Fall

By DICK KLEINER
Newspaper Enterprise Association
NEW YORK (NEA)—If re-runs
come, can fall be far behind?

So perhaps this would be a good time to look at television's fall schedule, and dream a little as we watch Frontier Circus for the third time or The Zane Grey Theater for the fifth.

This coming season will see 33
new shows replacing 39 programs which folded or have not been renewed. Next season there will be more hour-long shows, fewer half-hour shows, hence the lower total.

One major trend is the decline of Westerns, which were on the air last year have bitten the dust—
Frontier Circus, Lawman, Tales of Wells Fargo, The Tall Man and Outlaws. Only one new Western is due—The Virginians, NBC's 90-minute program which is frankly an experiment.

But horseflesh lovers need not cry into their oats, because there is something new to take up the opine slack—rodeo shows. Two such, Stony Burke and Wide
Country, are on the fall schedule.
And there's also Empire, which is set in today's ranch country. So, while old-fashioned Westerns are on the decline, there are new-fashioned Westerns moving up.

Last season's big hits—Ben Gandy and Dr. Kildare—have, of course, inspired some competition.
But not as much competition as was originally expected. There are only three shows with even slight medical tinges, and each has certain original touches. The Eleventh Hour features Wendell Corey as a psychiatrist; The Nurses has Zina Bethune and Shirl Conway as nurses; Don't Call Me Charlie has Josh Peine as an Army veterinarian
in Paris.

One trend that seems to be shaping up is the war story. There are three dramas set during military action. One is Combat, another The Ballant Men (both of these are 90-minute entries) and the third is a half-hour show, McHale's Navy, starring Ernest Borgnine.

Situation comedies continue big.
Beulah Ball is back with a new
cast and you'll also see an attempt
at a full-hour situation comedy,
Fair Exchange, with Eddie Foy.
There also will be Beverly Hills
90210, I'm Dickens—He's Fenster,
Our Man Higgins and a new animated situation comedy, The Jet-
sons.

Some big television names are coming back this season. Jack Pearl will try a weekly variety hour in prime time. Jackie Gleason is coming back to his old Saturday night stand. Sid Caesar will have a half-hour show virtually every other week. Jack Webb has a new half-hour adventure series, based on stories from True Magazine.

The Voice of Firestone is returning.

Loretta Young has a new series of anthology dramas. Lloyd Bridges will venture onto dry land with a new adventure half-hour. Andy Williams has finally won the weekly musical hour he so richly deserves. Roy Rogers and Dale Evans have been given an hour for their glorified yodeling.

Two old favorites are expanding.
Red Skelton will have an hour
of comedy and Alfred Hitchcock will have a full hour to tell his mystery stories.

Other odds and ends are Sam
Benedict, another series dealing with a lawyer at work, starring Edmund O'Brien; Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, which features Fess Parker, the former Davy Crockett; Saints and Sinners, a story of newspapermen in action; It's a Man's World, which tells of four young men living on a houseboat; Stump the Stars, a new game show; a series based on the movie, Going My Way.

What looks good? Well, advance information seems to favor Beverly Hills 90210 and I'm Dickens—he's Fenster (despite the frightful title) among the comedies and Wide Country and The Eleventh Hour among the dramas. From a critical standpoint, the series which is most awaited is The Nurses. It comes from the same team which produced The Defenders and has such men as Broadway great, Jose Quintero directing.

There's only one thing that's sure—most of the 33 will not be back for a second season.

In "A Likely Story," Tracy (Anthony Eisley) faces danger for lovely divorcee (Dorothy Provine)
in "Hawaiian Eyes" over ABC-TV
Wednesday, Aug. 15.

Cheyenne (Clint Walker) escapes a bounty hunter's kidnapping murder trap and saves a dying
kid's life in "The Brahma Bull"
story on the "Cheyenne Show"
Monday, Aug. 15, over ABC-TV.

Situation comedies continue big.
Beulah Ball is back with a new
cast and you'll also see an attempt
at a full-hour situation comedy,
Fair Exchange, with Eddie Foy.
There also will be Beverly Hills
90210, I'm Dickens—He's Fenster,
Our Man Higgins and a new animated situation comedy, The Jet-
sons.

Eddie Foy Jr., Audrey Christie, Lyn Loring and Flip Mark are the family in "Fair Exchange" (above). Zina Bethune and Shirl Conway star in "The Nurses."

Sonja Henie is interviewed in the Friday, Aug. 17 program of "International Showtime" (NBC-TV, 7:30-8:30 p.m. EDT. Repeat of Jan. 19, 1962). Miss Henie joins host Don Ameche in watching the performance of "Morris Chalfen's Holiday on Ice in Switzerland."

TV Personalities

ARNALDO LACAGNINA

A man's home may be his castle.
But to Arnaldo Lacagnina, NBC
News Middle East correspondent,
it is his house boat.

Lacagnina lives on a houseboat docked in the Nile River alongside the island of Gezira, a part of Cairo's residential section. The boat was built for a cousin of King Far-ouk. Despite the fact that it includes a 42-foot living room, four bedrooms, a studio, servants' quarters and a huge deck, the rent is lower than a much smaller apartment would cost.

"It's the most comfortable place
we've lived in," Lacagnina said. "It's cooler in summer because it's on the water and warmer in winter because it gets so much sun. And don't let anybody tell you Cairo is warm in winter. It gets freezing cold, and the houses have no heating."

Lacagnina, however, doesn't get a whole lot of time to enjoy his floating residence. In the past eight months that he has been a regular staff member of NBC News, he has spent six months away from Egypt
on assignments.

During this period he covered the landing of the British troops in Kuwait, the coup by which Syria broke away from Egypt, the Syrian elections, Tanganyika's independence, the fighting in Katanga between Katangans and UN troops, Mrs. Kennedy's tour of India and Pakistan, the trouble in Algeria, the Kurdish rebellion in Iraq
and the crisis in Laos.

Lacagnina was born in Rome.
After attending Rome University and the University of Paris, he joined the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Montreal as an announcer-producer for the "Voice of Canada." He was there one year, then worked for the San Francisco Chronicle as a reporter for 18 months. While in the Army he was with the Army Information Service in Verona and later with Armed Forces Radio there.

He became a part-time cameraman-reporter for CBS, based in Rome, in October 1956. One of his first assignments was coverage of the Yemenese border dispute. He was one of 14 newsmen who entered Yemen. It was the first time that newsmen had been allowed in the country in years and none has been permitted to enter since.

Lacagnina joined BCINA (British Commonwealth International Newfilm Agency) in 1958 as a cameraman working out of Rome.
He covered the troubles in Lebanon, the revolution in Baghdad,
the late Dag Hammarskjold's tour of the Middle East, the Shah of Iran's wedding, the coup d'etat in Ethiopia and four months of fighting in the Congo. He was one of the first persons to do a film report on the Abu Simbel Temple
on the Nile which will be submerged when the Aswan Dam is completed. That film was presented on BBC Television.

Lacagnina was transferred to Athens in April 1959, and to Cairo in May 1960. While still employed by BCINA, he began working part-time for NBC News in July 1960. He joined NBC on a full-time basis in November 1961.

Two Soviet Cosmonauts Continue Orbiting In Tandem; One in 3rd Day, Other His 2nd

West Berliners Enraged - Wild Tear Gas Battle Marks 1st Anniversary of Red Wall

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BERLIN (AP)—Border guards fought a fierce tear gas battle today as massed West Berliners screamed their hatred of the Red wall on its first anniversary.

The battle erupted in the Wilhelmstrasse opposite the former East Air Ministry. It is now the seat of several East German government ministries.

East police shot a stream of water from a water cannon at West Berlin youths carrying a wooden cross along the wall.

Enraged West Berliners then hurled stones at the water cannon.

East guards then tossed tear gas grenades into the thickly massed crowd. The grenades were off with loud explosions and poured out clouds of stinging, choking gas.

West Police immediately threw about 100 tear gas grenades over the wall. They fell all around two water cannons, which were enveloped in a thick cloud of gas.

The water cannon withering about 90 yards. The gasping, choking crowd had to get out for fresh air.

West police were soaking wet, as were the youths carrying the cross.

A company of 100 West riot police was rushed to the scene. There were about 80 East police massed on the other side of the wall.

The West reinforcements were ordered up after thousands of booing, shouting persons massed along the wall.

A U.S. Army helicopter hovered over the crowd on the west side of the wall near Friedrichstrasse. People waved to the pilot, who waved back.

East Berliners tried to join in the demonstration. But Communist police kept them back. About 100 persons were seen being

State News Roundup

Auto Deaths 176 for Year

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Connecticut's highway death toll rose to an unofficial 176 today when a truck driver was killed in Norfolk and a six-year-old girl died in an accident on the Merritt Parkway at Westport.

The truck driver was identified by State Police from the Canaan Troop as 26-year-old Charles J. Newell, 40 West Elm St., Deep River.

Police said his truck ran off the road on a curve on Route 44 and overturned.

The highway toll for the corresponding period last year was 153.

The six-year-old girl was injured fatally early today in a two-car crash on the Merritt Parkway near exit 57 in Westport. She was Diane Bromahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bromahan, 28 Woodstone St., Rockaway, N.J.

Police from the Westport Troop said that the car containing the Bromahan family had just returned to the westbound express highway after a rest stop at the grassy roadside when it was struck from the rear by a vehicle driven by Peter Pascullo, 31, of 1271 DeDeCoda St., Ridgewood, N.Y.

Following the collision, police said, the Bromahan car skidded about 100 feet and swerved across the express lane into the eastbound lane.

Bromahan, 26, his 26-year-old wife, and their 6-year-old daughter, Darlyn, 2, and Denise, 4, and Pascullo were admitted to Norwalk Hospital all in fair condition.

Police said the Bromahan children were sleeping on an improvised bed in the rear of the car when the accident occurred. Their parents were riding up front. Pascullo was alone in his car.

Two other persons died in automobile accidents Sunday.

John Bacciocchi, 22, Ridgefield, died early in the morning when his sports convertible careened out of control on Route 54 in Ridgefield.

His companion, Robert Sturgess, 23, also of Ridgefield, was taken to Danbury Hospital with a broken leg and other injuries.

Later in the day, another accident killed a 10-mile driver in Danbury took the life of Debra Goldberg, 15, Flushing, N.Y.

This photo of Soviet cosmonaut Popovich in his space ship before he was launched into orbit early Sunday was taken from a TV monitor in New York. The photo was sent by Russia over the Eurovision system and picked up in London. The tape later was flown to New York for retransmission. (AP Photofax).

No Significant Change Rusk Talks Berlin With Soviet Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin conferred for 23 minutes today on the Berlin situation.

The conference, initiated by the Russian, produced no significant change in the situation, the State Department reported.

Rusk and the ambassador had further comments on the Berlin question and the discussions the secretary held with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in Geneva recently, a State Department spokesman said.

Rusk, the State Department said, called Dobrynin's attention to the Western proposal of June 25 for a four-power meeting on means of easing tensions in Berlin. The Russians have rejected the proposal.

The State Department gave no explanation why Dobrynin asked for the meeting on the first anniversary of the Berlin wall. The ambassador made the request Sunday.

The communique did not explain why the meeting was so unusually short. On previous occasions when Dobrynin has met with Rusk, their conversations have lasted from an hour to an hour and a half.

State Department specialists on German affairs had nothing to offer to answer these questions.

They declined to go beyond the words of the communique.

State Department press officer James Bishop added that Rusk expects to meet Dobrynin again but no date was set.

Bishop also said that no papers changed hands, meaning that the Russian brought no written message or note. He declined to say whether Dobrynin made new proposals on how to break the Berlin deadlock.

Similarly, Dobrynin himself, when leaving the department, had told newsmen that no notes were exchanged at the meeting, but had declined to answer a question

No Landings Today, Red Source Reports

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Sohio research center here, which has tracked the two latest manned Soviet space ships since launching, said today they were getting farther apart and could land early Tuesday if they wanted to.

Dr. A. L. Jones, supervisor of basic research at Sohio, said his calculations were based on the first pass today they made over the eastern half of the United States at 11:27 a.m.

He said Vostok III was now 769 miles ahead of Vostok IV and they are moving farther apart as expected.

The station did not pick up any voices from the crafts as it did Sunday, he said.

By PRESTON GROVER
MOSCOW (AP)—Two Soviet cosmonauts wheeled around the earth in tandem today, one entering his third day in space and the other his second in a historic feat putting the Russians ahead in the race to the moon.

Already they had passed the point where they would have been in position to land and that meant almost certainly they would go on through at least another night and morning.

Aboard Vostok III, Maj. Andrian Nikolayev, 32, had made 35 circuits of the earth by 4 p.m. Moscow time, since his blastoff Saturday morning, the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Aboard Vostok IV, Lt. Col. Pavel Popovich, 31, had made 19 circuits since his launching Sunday morning. He thus also had surpassed the 17-orbit flight of Maj. Gherman S. Titov a year ago.

The two exchanged radio greetings this morning after awaking and eating breakfast, but it was not clear how close their space ships were together. Tass reported they were near enough Sunday to see each other's ships.

Trackers in Japan had put the distance between them as about 75 miles Sunday. But the Sohio Research Center in Cleveland, Ohio, said they later had moved 385 miles apart.

At noon, every correspondent in Moscow braced for news that the pilots had begun their descent to Soviet soil. But rumors of a landing proved wrong. One Soviet source declared: "They are not coming down today."

Premier Khrushchev messaged them: "I again congratulate you and embrace you. I wish you successful fulfillment of the program of the flight, and happy landing."

Nikolayev replied: "I thank Nikita Sergeevich Khrushchev for the warmth of his greeting. I will spare no efforts to complete fully the flight task."

Said Popovich: "Give Nikita Sergeevich Khrushchev my most cordial thanks. I'll spare no effort to fulfill the set task and to be healthy and unharmed. I'll do everything."

They were shown again on television today. Lying back in their chairs, occasionally rising to a half sitting position to work better with a log book or to keep it from sliding, their faces from the television viewer in the cabin of the ship. Gestures and movements were relatively limited.

Tass reported that millions of

Reds Told U.S. For Safe Trip By Cosmonauts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has congratulated the Soviet Union on its latest space accomplishment, but American space officials adopted a wait-and-see attitude and withheld official comment.

While relaxing over the weekend at Boothbay Harbor, Maine, Kennedy said in a statement: "I congratulate the Soviet Union on this exceptional technical feat and salute the courage of her two new astronauts. The American people, I know, wish them a safe return."

In Washington, a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said: "Until we know more about the Soviet mission we can't comment intelligently about it."

American television saw films of the two Soviet cosmonauts orbiting the earth in twin space-

Bulletins Culled from AP Wires

BRIBE OFFER DENIED
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., said today he was not offered any bribe by the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. to support the administration's communications satellite bill. Long, one of a small group filibustering against the bill, made the statement to a reporter after Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., told the Senate it was its duty to vote the bill aside until "this charge of bribery has been investigated."

KOWALSKI STILL UNDESIDED
MERIDEN (AP)—Congressman Frank Kowalski said today that he has still not made up his mind whether to run for the U.S. Senate on an independent party ticket. Kowalski, who lost the Democratic nomination for the Senate, is former Governor Abraham Ribicoff at the state convention last month, said that the offer of the nomination by the independent party presents him with a "difficult political decision."

LAWYERS MAP ACTION TO SAVE FUGITIVE SPY
LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen's attorneys go to Britain's high court again Tuesday for another legal attempt to save the 41-year-old spy from the life sentence waiting for him in the United States.

The lawyers for the 61-year-old psychiatrist said they would ask the court for Soblen's release on a writ of habeas corpus and challenge the order Home Secretary Henry Brooke issued Saturday for Soblen's deportation to the United States.

Soblen's lawyers are expected to argue that while Brooke can expel the fugitive from the country, he cannot direct that he be delivered to the United States because that would constitute illegal extradition. Soblen was convicted of wartime spying for the Soviet Union, and espionage is not an extraditable crime under the U.S.-British extradition treaty.

VIENNA, Austria (AP)— Rationing of bread and meat has been ordered in the province of Transylvania and possibly elsewhere in Romania, apparently because of poor harvests, diplomatic sources reported here today. Meat stores are open only one day a week. The informants said ration cards are being used in Transylvania. In central Romania, ration cards are being used to ration wheat or other bread. Families may purchase each month a couple of chickens, a staple item in rural Romania.

Talks to Nation Tonight Kennedy May Offer Tax Slash for 1963

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy may offer an advance peek at his plans for a 1963 tax cut when he speaks to the nation tonight on taxes and the lagging economy.

Most observers in and out of government were convinced he would reject suggestions that a quick tax cut offers the best chance of averting any early recession.

Kennedy was likely to call attention in his 7 p.m. EDT television-radio address to his stalled requests for stand-by authority to cut taxes and launch a public works program in the event of a recession. If Congress should approve these proposals, the door would be kept open for a possible tax cut later this year.

Strong recommendations for quick tax reductions have come from such diverse quarters as the AFL-CIO and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Those who were convinced that Kennedy would turn down the appeals said that for one thing, there is formidable congressional opposition to the idea of considering a deficit-expanding tax cut in the waning weeks of an election year session.

Also, major economic indicators surveyed by Kennedy and key advisers at a White House conference Friday showed a moderate business pickup in July.

"Perhaps equally important, the Treasury is fearful that a 1963

Vital Military Edge? Soviet Space Lead Called Impressive

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union's latest pioneering space feat was hailed abroad today as fantastic and vivid new proof of Soviet scientific prowess.

British scientists said the launching of two manned space ships into close orbits may give the Russians an important military edge as well as a large lead in the race with the United States to land a man on the moon.

Pope John XXIII said he hoped the new space experiment "would assume the significance of an homage to God."

"These historical events, as they are inscribed in the annals of scientific knowledge of space, could then become expressions of the true and peaceful progress, with a solid foundation, of the human fraternity," said the 80-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church.

Sir Bernard Lovell, director of Britain's Jodrell Bank Radio Astronomy Observatory which tracked the Soviet space vehicles, called the Soviet feat "the most remarkable development man has ever seen—a striking demonstration of the depth of Russian resources—quite fantastic."

British scientists generally viewed the two space vehicles in close orbit as giving the Soviet Union an impressive lead over the United States in space research.

Some said the Russians might land a man on the moon years ahead of the first American astronaut.

They added it could lead to an early development of anti-satellite satellites that could destroy spying space vehicles such as the

Jap Sails Pacific Alone in 19-ft. Craft

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Japanese youth who crossed the Pacific alone in a 19-foot sailboat on a diet of Japanese rice, beer, sake and fresh fish wants to stay in the United States two years to learn English.

The plans of Kenichi Horie, 23, of Osaka, are somewhat clouded by the fact he arrived without passport, visa, immunization record, proof of financial stability or a sponsor.

While the U.S. Immigration Service, the Public Health Service and the Japanese consulate work on the problem, Horie is staying at the home of a consulate employee in amiable protective custody.

Horie sailed into San Francisco Bay Sunday after a three-month voyage from Osaka. He surprised U.S. Coast Guard escorts him to
