Tension Ratcheted Do Russians Find West Weakening?

telling the Communists they would be patient.

The 1961 temperature rose with the construction of the Communist wall and a u.s.-Soviet tank confrontation. Once again, the Russians are being hailed as victors in the cold war.

Now the pressure is rising again.

This insistent hammering may be a Kremlin under hand job, for the West will crack under the political pressures involving the construction of the Berlin wall.

But the Russians themselves are not immune to such fears. Soviet propagandists tell them of a clear danger that Berlin will be "normalizing" Berlin.

The West is not so sure. It is because it wants Berlin as a NATO base, a constant threat to Soviet security.

The Kremlin now may be trying to find out how far the West can be pushed, to learn whether the United States is possibly under pressure to renounce its commitments—would deal with the East Germans and thus put the Red Army in a position to reoccupy West Berlin.

The Russians repeat over and over that when they sign a peace treaty with East Germany, the United States must renounce its rights in West Berlin.

They are pushing to deal with the Communist East Germany, but they are not so sure that West Germany will accept a solution to Berlin.

Falling to bring concessions from the Communists, the West eventually may want to see a situation in which the United States would have to influence an aggressor. This would raise the opportunity of offering lines of communication—along Moscow lines, of course.

Sheinwold on Bridge

GET OPPONENTS TO HELP YOU

By Alfred Sheinwold

It isn't enough to do your own thing, you need help. You can't call yourself an expert unless you get the opponents to do your work for you.

When this hand was played, South was red-blooded American boy of 47 who had been brought up in the traditions of doing his own thing. He kept his principles, but he lost the last contract.

South won the opening lead with the king of spades, drew trumps and cashed the ace and king of clubs just in case somebody had Q-3 or Q-4 of clubs. When nothing but small clubs fell under the ace and king, South sighted and took a finesse with dummy's queen of hearts.

East won with the king of hearts, and South eventually had to give up another heart trick.

South should play the hand the way many of us play it. He should not have cashed the ace and king of clubs, but he did. There he catches the next opponent, but it does not pay for Sheinwold's 36-page book, "A Pocket Guide to Bridge," published by Harper & Row, 55 West 37th St., New York 18, N.Y. author, the United States government and necessary agents reloaded and armed the shells with impunity from Florida.

"Cuba wants the United States to be a threat to its own security," said the author. "The Cuban revolution will be able to resist and reject a direct attack."

The communique said the raiders were shot and the shells were destroyed. Nearby residents said there had been no air raiding the night before. The shells were fired from the coast before opening fire.

Lowly Mets Still Have a Chance in Race

Trip Dodgers To Chop Lead By Full Game

The New York Mets may have been eliminated from the National League pennant race, but they are sure not out of it. Not by a long shot.

Ask the Los Angeles Dodgers, Ask 'em, that is, if you can get them to stop mulling their nerves in sleep and hit their bell. Ask the Cincinnati Reds, who got a humiliating lesson a couple of weeks ago.

Their question that Casey Stengel's good-lot collection of heroes is going away. They're coming out in 100 percent 31 games of the pace.

They're playing how with the leaders?

Take Friday night. They lugged up Dodger ace Don Drysdale, the winning pitcher in the 10th inning, and they were downed by Ron Perdomo for 11 hits, including home runs by Marv Throneberry, Choo Choo Johnson and Rod Carew on a grand slam home run from Steve Garza.

Fail to Gain Ground as Yanks Drop Pair

LA Misses Chance

That somebody up there who likes the Angels must have been caught with a bolt of lightning.

At least it didn't put in an appearance Friday night at Los Angeles when the Angels were given an opportunity to make up substantial ground on the American League leading New York Yankees.

When the Angels took the field against the Chicago White Sox and the results of the Yankees-Dodgers doubleheader were clearly visible on the scoreboard: New York 2, Baltimore 14, New York 2.

The Angels, who started the day with a 10-7 lead over the Yankees, were downed by a 10-7 rout in a game that was a shutout and had a scoreless inning streak snapped at 21 when they didn't get a hit. Herb and Dom Zanni combined for a single by Albie Pearson, a walk by Tommie Agee, a home run by Sherman Lollar, supplied the punch and the White Sox won 7-0.

The Yankees were beaten by pitch hitting and an unusually potent Baltimore attack. Chuck Estrada won his first since July 15.

Ted Breaks Up Grid Game

Williams Shares Hitting Tips With Little League Players

What kind of a pitch do you like to hit for a home run?

"How many kids here are hitting in the back of the home run?"

"Who was the toughest pitcher for you?"

Williams answered Bob Feller, Tommie Agee, and Spud Chandler.

He said the major league players were little "home run happy" these days, and recommended that the kids should be a little more patient.

He asked John Wilken, Colby Colquhoun, baseball coach and Little League summer camp director, how the boys communicated with the Mexican and American boys broke up by a little bit of a language barrier.

They have a common language—baseball. Wilken said. "They all admire Ted Williams, and they know they're all good. If you watch them play, you'll see they're all good."

Stubborn Rannels Pacing Red Sox Along with Yaz

CLEVELAND (AP)—Determined Pete Rannels, closing in on the batting crown, and "sophomore" Carl Yastrzemski, who is currently cutting a wide path through the American League with his .300 batting average, checked Houston on night five for 4-2 victory.

Rannels and Yastrzemski both hit home runs in the 10th inning, helping Rannels to a 10th hit, and Yastrzemski to a 10th home run.

Rannels singled, doubled to left, walked and grounded out. Yastrzemski hit a home run, a double, a single and a walk.

Business Bodies

This commercial building on the England property at the Manchester Green, is being readied for its newest tenant, the C and D Cleaners, a corporation which does business at 285 W. Middle Tpke., and 20 E. Center St., Manchester, and in East Hartford under the names of One-Hour Martinizing and Two-Hour Shirt Laundry. A five-year lease, effective Sept. 1, has been signed by the business firm's owners, Peter Di Rosa and Lawrence Chaine of Thompsonville, and the England estate. Atty. Robert W. Gordon of 417 E. Center St. represented both parties in the transaction. The location at the Green will feature automatic self-service dry cleaning and laundering facilities—six dry-cleaning machines, some 13 washers of various capacities, and eight drier units. There will also be a pick-up station for dry cleaning and shirt laundering for customers. An attendant will be available for assistance, if needed. Chaine yesterday said that the new enterprise will be opened to the public about Oct. 1.

Teen Center Rally Draws Small Crowd

The committee of teen-agers trying to establish a teen club in Manchester explained their goals at a rally of the town's youth last night, and asked for support.

Harry Huntington, a member of the organizing committee, told the audience of about 100 of the group's efforts to get the club started, and described what he hoped the finished club would be like. It would have, he said, a room for ping pong, pool, and other games, a meeting room with a television set, a canteen with vending machines, a small library, and a room big enough for dancing, with tables and a juke box. He cited the old Howell Cheney Tech building as a possible location for the club. The third floor has suitable space and is "in surprisingly good condition," he said. The teen center would be run by the teen-agers themselves, although under the Town Recreation Department for legal and financial reasons. The present organizing committee will act as ruling council for the first year, appointing leaders from each age group. Next year, the council would be elected from the club's membership. A board of adult advisors will oversee the club's operation, but will not interfere with the decisions of the council. For example, if the council should vote to suspend an individual's membership for breaking a rule, the adult advisors would consider the ruling and make suggestions as to its fairness, but would not change it. Teen-agers in other communities have started teen clubs much like the one Manchester's youth proposes. Huntington said that the committee has spoken to club organizers in Danbury and Granby. "The Granby group raised $30,000 for their club," he said. "An organization in Hartford lent him $12,000 so they could get started." He went on to say, "We need more lowerclassmen on our organizing committee, particularly freshmen and sophomores." He added that much hard work would be involved before the club could get started.

The event, the 38th annual gathering of the group, will bring together most of the 800 members who reside in a dozen Northeastern States, the District of Columbia and six Eastern provinces of Canada, all professionally engaged in different aspects of farming.

DRIVER TESTING PROGRAM Leonard D. Rivard of the Leonard E. Rivard Agency, Inc., temporarily located at 696 Main St., this week announced a new psychological testing program to help male drivers—under 25—reduce the cost of their automobile insurance. The written testing is being introduced in Connecticut by Lumbertens Mutual Casualty Co. of which Rivard is a representative. The test evaluates the emotional maturity in operating a motor vehicle. The test will be given in five cities in the state—Bridgeport, Hartford, New Haven, Norwich and Waterbury—to separate groups of young male drivers on Saturdays August 25 and September 22 at 9 a.m. at Hartford University of Hartford at 200 Bloomfield Ave., West Hartford. Collectively, men under 25 have twice as many accidents as older drivers, and as a result, pay more for insurance, Rivard said. The average person can finish the test in 45 minutes, although there is no time limit. The young driver writes answers to a series of questions which measure his emotional maturity, that is the way in which he faces up to responsibility and accepts authority. The test is based on studies which indicate that a young man's emotional attitudes will be reflected in his behavior behind the wheel. The test was first given in California, where the state has elaborate safety records on individual drivers. When the scores were compared with driving records, it was found that in a large majority of cases, the result agreed with the record, Rivard said. Officers of the company say several years must pass before the value of the testing program can be fully known. The reason is that test scores of individuals will be checked against their future accident and traffic violation records.

KING'S EXPANDS King's Department Stores, Inc., nationwide chain of self-service department store (one at Hartford Rd. and Pine Sts., Manchester, announced today the acquisition of two Met Department Stores in Jacksonville and Orlando, Fla., under leasing agreement with Robert Lehman, owner. The lease is effective as of October. King's also has scheduled the opening of six additional units during the remainder of the year, bringing the total to 27, extending from New England to Florida and as far west as Colorado. Now units in Connecticut will be located at Seymour, Meriden and New Haven. Others will be opened at Portland, Maine, Niles, Ohio, and Methuen, Mass.

NEW PRODUCTS: Corning Glass Works, Corning, N. Y., will introduce nationally in September a four-quart Dutch Oven made of Pyroceram, the heat-and-cold-resistant, glass-ceramic. Offering the homemaker many of the advantages of an extra oven, it features a removable metal roasting rack and a clear Pyrex glass lid. A gag gift for you! Martinizing friends is the "Vermouth Mist" spray bottle—with real vermouth flavor but non-alcoholic—which is said to give only slightly more flavor than waving the Vermouth cork at the gin. It's offered by the Berkshire Sales of San Francisco. With tongue in cheek, they suggest that you spray "Vermouth Mist" toward the ceiling, then quickly remove the drinks before they are diluted too much. First Hartford Realty Corp. of Manchester had income of $275,111 for the quarter ended June 30, and earnings of $120.7 equal to 2.3 cents a share on $22,480 shares, the average number outstanding during the period. The real estate investment firm also reports cash generated during the quarter of 10 cents per share on the same basis. The merger of the Wallingford Bank and Trust Co. into the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co. has been approved by the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System, officials of both banks announced. It is anticipated that the merger will be effected next Monday. The Wallingford Bank and Trust Co. will add over $10,000,000 in resources to the Connecticut Bank and Trust Company, the resources of which totaled in excess of $500 million as of December 31, 1961. The merged bank will have total capital funds in excess of $41,000,000. Richard S. Carpenter, CLU, of 285 Henry St., and Frank P. Shelton, CLU, of 35 Meadow Lane, Manchester representatives of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co., have received the National Quality Award for outstanding service to policyholders in 1961. This is the 15th year that they have qualified for this recognition. A research contract to develop an advanced high performance solid rocket propellant had been awarded to United Technology Corp. (subsidiary of United Aircraft Corp.) by Edwards Air Force Base, Research Laboratories. Development and testing of the propellant is scheduled to be completed by March, 1968. Manchester Chrysler-Plymouth dealers next Friday will join other dealers throughout the Boston sales region at the preview of the new 1968 Plymouth, Valiant, Chrysler and Imperial cars to be shown at the Music Hall in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Edna Manning of Stafford Springs, woman's representative of Hartford National Bank and Trust Co. has been appointed an assistant secretary, the banking firm announced this week. The bank has also announced that it will increase its quarterly dividend rate from 45 cents per share to 50 cents per share, effective with the third quarter dividend payment, payable Oct. 1 to shareholders of record as of Sept. 30.

Ernie Ford Credits Success to Family

"Ole Ern," Tennessee Ernie Ford star of the "The Tennessee Ford Show" (ABC-TV, 11-11:30 a.m.), has often been considered a combination of Will Rogers and Bob Burns. In any event, early this year when negotiating for the new show with the ABC officials in Hollywood, he proved himself more than just a country boy.

Ernie left nighttime TV last year because production requirements of an evening show were too time consuming. He deserted Hollywood in favor of a newly-built home in the rolling hills some 55 minutes out of San Francisco.

"ABC made me an offer," he says dryly, "and we just made it attractive." When the negotiations were settled, the canny Ern (who looks and talks like a country boy but can do as well as any city slicker) had a three-year contract with no options and ownership of all the shows.

"We did a little horse trading," Ern says diffidently.

To cap the deal, at Ern's insistence the show is taped at ABC's station in San Francisco.

His new daytime TV series allows him 12 weeks out of every year to spend leisurely with his family. He tapes two shows a day on three days a week and what with time off for vacation and reruns, Ern will have his cake and eat it too.

The reason behind his bargaining is the importance he places on his home life and family.

"People tell me on the average of once an hour, 'Ernie, you got it made.' Sure I do. But the reasons I think I've got it made and the reasons they think I've got it made have nothing to do with each other.

"I think I'm successful because I'm married to my Betty, a girl who's just as cute today as she was 20 years ago when I married her. I've got two boys, Buck and Erion, and anyone who's a dad knows what a great reward children can be. I can afford to spend time with my family, and I can afford to give my family a good home and all they need to eat. That's why I've got it made.

"But that isn't what everyone means when they explain to me what a huge, towering success I am. And I'll be honest with you, I prefer my interpretation to theirs.

"In the first place, in terms of hard work, success in television just means more blood, sweat and tears. When you're a small-time entertainer—and we all were once, you know—you relax a great deal more than you do when you're a "Success." Being a ham at heart, I'll always be happy making people laugh on a network or in a small group of friends."

"As for time to myself and family these days, I guess I've got more than I used to have. We'll tape two shows a day on three days a week and we'll be off the air for four weeks vacation and we'll have four weeks of reruns. I'm only a short drive from the studio so I'm not too far away if one of the boys breaks an arm falling out of a tree, or something. And I'm close enough so Betty can drop by rehearsal when she's got a minute to spare. Betty's not that interested in show business, but I'm happy to say she's still interested in Ernie Ford. And Ernie Ford's mighty interested in her.

"There are times when I turn down engagements when it means the appearance in question would keep me away from Betty and Buck and Erion. Maybe this sounds like Ole Ern doesn't like fame and success and all that. Well, it isn't that, because I'm proud I've made a success of my career. But so many people these days put success before their home life, and no matter whether you make $10 a week or ten hundred dollars a week, your home is the best part of your life and no one should forget it. A man with a wife and family who love him is a lucky man, and he should treat this good luck right, no matter what he does for a living."

Ern was born in Bristol, Tenn., on Feb. 13, 1919, and was christened Ernest Jennings Ford. He attended grade school there and used to make himself handy at the local radio station where he was hired as a staff announcer in 1937. He later went on to study voice at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

From 1939 to 1941, Ford announced for stations in Atlanta and Knoxville. At the onset of World War II, he enlisted in the Air Corps in December 1941, flew in heavy bombers and was a bombing instructor for two years. While stationed in California, he met the former Betty Heminger. They were married on Sept. 13, 1942. His first job on the Coast was with a station in San Bernardino.

Later, Ern became a hillbilly disc jockey in Pasadena. His first day at this station was a memorable one for it was then he met veteran western music star Cliff Stone.

Hollywood on TV

By ROBERT MITCHUM (Sitting in today for Erskin Johnson)

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Why did I become an actor? I'm glad you asked me that question. Gather 'round, youngsters, and I'll itemize the reasons:

First of all, I had a warm body plus a relatively weak mind—a blending of qualities that render one unfit for many other jobs.

Also, I had a fairly retentive memory. Ideal for remembering each and every ingredient in a bottle of maple syrup, and how many days hath September. Given a group of words to remember, I never pause to examine how much sense they make. I just remember.

Why did I want to be an actor? As to the attractions inherent in the job, there is money.

And there are also fringe benefits. Take "Two for the Seesaw," which, as the coming attraction at your neighborhood theater would have you know, is a Mirisch Pictures—Robert Wise presentation for United Artists release (see, I can remember anything). It's also a funny movie—something I don't usually get too close to.

And then, as I mentioned, there is the money. When we started shooting "Seesaw," someone asked me if I saw the play. I told him "No, but I read the contract."

But I'm straying from my subject. What was it like when I began as an actor? Restful. Above all, it was restful. I'd done some hard work in my formative years, even a stint on a Georgia chain gang, so I knew manual labor wasn't the answer to my problems.

Got a television set? Look closely at some of those early Hopalong

Cassidy pictures. That's me, sleeping in the saddle in a bunch of them. Lots of whiskers—didn't even bother to shave. It gave me character.

Then, a fortuitous combination of my patience and my agent's perseverance got me started on bigger and occasionally better things.

Now, a quick look over my shoulder tells me that I've been declaring myself an actor in income tax forms and in other areas of inquiry for almost 20 years.

Do I have any pet gripes? Why yes. One in particular.

The big trouble with being an actor, it occurs to me, is that people are forever trying to glamorize the job. They don't seem to be able to understand that this is a business. Maybe it takes a slightly different set of muscles and skills to swing in this business than, say, being a plumber.

But please spare the romanticizing, lest you turn our heads.

Miss Peggy Lee, the New Christie Minstrels and the comedy team of Mimi McCall and Charlie Brill will return for their second engagement on NBC-TV's "The Lively Ones," musical color series starring Vic Damone, Thursday, Aug. 30 (9:30-10 p.m. EDT).

Claude Duhaime and Everett Sloane star in "The Problem in Cell No. 13," a suspense drama about a scientist who beta a prison warden that he can escape from a maximum security prison within five days, on NBC-TV's "Kraft Mystery Theater" Wednesday, Aug. 29 9-10 p.m. EDT.

Guest star Scott Marlowe portrays a psychotic killer who eludes a police dragnet, boards an evening excursion steamer and then hunts for a victim in "Night Boat" on "Robert Taylor's Detectives" Friday, Aug. 31. (NBC-TV, 8:30-9:30 p.m. EDT; repeat of March 2, 1962.)

Guest star Peter Falk plays a small-time hoodlum whose desire to be a big man makes him easy prey for three thugs who convince him (through hypnosis) that he has committed murder in "The Pigeon" on NBC-TV's full-hour "87th Precinct" Monday, Aug. 27 (9 p.m. EDT. Repeat of Jan. 29, 1962). Greg Bravane (Falk) in a hypnotic trance, confesses.

"Just for be-heck of it," Ford recalls, "I used to run in the studio while Cliffie's show was on the air, exchange a few jokes, sing a hymn with the quartet and leave. It was all for fun and didn't pay a thing."

However, Cliffie soon insisted that Ford join his Saturday night program as a regular. This was the beginning of Tennessee Ernie Ford and the start of a recording career for Ern whose records have sold well into the millions throughout the world.

"Circus Headliners" will be repeated on NBC-TV's "International Showtime" Friday, Aug. 31 (7:30-8:30 p.m. EDT. Repeat of April 6, 1962).

Mariner Races Toward Venus

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Mariner 2 spacecraft rocketed into space today and scientists reported there is a possibility it will pass near the planet Venus as planned despite an early trajectory error.

If the early line is followed the Mariner will miss the planet by more than 800,000 miles, but an effort will be made by remote control steering to put it back on course.

The key to jockeying Mariner 2 back onto its proper path is a 50-pound thrust motor which is to be fired by ground signal eight days after launching when the spacecraft is more than a million miles away from earth.

By then scientists will have calculated the vehicle's path velocity precisely and will know just how long to fire the small motor to straighten out the course.

Mariner 2 blasted away from Cape Canaveral at 1:53 a.m. atop a powerful Atlas-Agena B rocket. Half an hour later the rocket injected the spacecraft on an interplanetary trajectory.

The exact reason for the spacecraft being off course in its early stages was not immediately known. But officials suspected that an abnormal rolling motion in the first stage Atlas rocket might have affected its trajectory. The rolling motion occurred for about 50 seconds of the five-minute Atlas flight.

It was thought at first that indications of rolling might be due to a false radio signal from the Atlas. But after analysis of data.

Wife of Prominent Industrialist Shot Herself, Police Say

NORTH BRANFORD (AP)—The wife of a prominent New Haven industrialist remained in critical condition at New Haven's Grace-New Haven Community Hospital today with what has been described as a self-inflicted bullet wound in the chest.

Mrs. C. Forbes (Ellen) Sargent was admitted to the hospital after a hospital spokesman said there has been no change in her condition.

The 47-year-old Mrs. Sargent was admitted to the hospital early Sunday morning.

Dr. Dana Blanchard, the Sargent family physician and North Branford medical examiner, told authorities he was summoned to

State News Roundup

39 State Youths, 35 Under 21, Held After Beer Party

SOUTH SALEM, N. Y. (AP)—A raucous, beer-laden "hayride" last night resulted in some courtroom discipline for 39 youths from Connecticut.

All but four of them were under 21, some of them in their early teens. The legal drinking age in New York State is 18, but in Connecticut and all other bordering states it is 21.

The group—25 boys and 14 girls—were arrested in an abandoned quarry off East Street in the Vista area here, after nearby residents complained the party was whooping it up to the point of public disturbance.

State Police said they found seven cases of beer at the affair. The youths, who had come to this northern Westchester County community in a truck, said they were on a "hayride," police reported.

The group was taken before Justice of the Peace Robert E. Green on disorderly conduct charges.

He fined the 25 boys $20 each, and fined 10 of the girls the same amount, but suspended sentence. Four girls under 16 were released to their parents. The others also were allowed to go home, after those fined had settled up.

The boys and girls are from the Norwalk, Conn., area.

Dies of Injuries

WINSTED (AP)—Donald Whitbeck, 20, Salisbury, died in Litchfield County Hospital yesterday of head and internal injuries suffered in a one-car crash in North Canaan.

Whitbeck's car, a secondhand State Police cruiser, ran off Route 64 and struck two trees early Friday morning, State Police said.

Boy's Arm Amputated

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Robert Kline Jr., 18 Butten St., has lost an arm because of an encounter with a freight train. His younger brother, Albert, 10, told police they were trying to hop the train yesterday when Robert fell on the tracks. Robert's left arm was amputated at the shoulder at Grace-New Haven Hospital.

2 Held in Theft

MILFORD (AP)—Two men are under arrest in connection with what police say was an attempt to hijack a truck of liquor from the Middle Atlantic Transportation Co. terminal yesterday.

Charged with breaking and entering and theft are Andrew Conant, 46, North Branford, and Robert J. McNeil, New Haven.

Mechanics End Strike

WATERBURY (AP)—A strike that began June 5 at the U.S. Time Corp., has been settled.

Members of the U.S. Time Corp. of Local 1335, International Association of Machinists (IAM), agreed yesterday to accept the terms worked with company officials Aug. 24.

Life Formed in Test Tube?

Scientist Produces Infectious Viruses

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—A Utah scientist has succeeded in making infectious viruses out of inert chemicals for the first time. It was reported here today.

Dr. George W. Cochran produced viruses which cause a disease in tobacco plants. His test tube viruses can infect plants.

To make the viruses, he also put into the test tube the infectious core or nucleic acid obtained from other tobacco viruses. This infectious portion then organized the inert chemicals into the new viruses. It contains the complex genetic code to do so.

Answering his own question whether this could mean forming "life" in a test tube, Dr. Cochran said, "Viruses are considered to be living objects, then the answer is yes."

However, he said the most significant result was that by producing viruses apart from a living cell, the virus-formation process could be studied more closely in seeking counter-measures.

"It permits for the first time an understanding of the biochemistry of the virus-forming process itself," he said in an interview. "We can now examine it in great detail, and very accurately, and should be able to select chemicals to interrupt it."

Viruses are tiny agents which cause disease in men, plants and animals. In men, they cause colds, polio, measles, chickenpox, yellow fever, sleeping sickness and various other diseases.

U.S. Blames Russia for Wall Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States blamed the Soviet Union today for "wanton provocations" and "senseless" police cruelty in the Soviet sector of Berlin following the illegal erection of the Berlin wall.

In a note delivered in Moscow it called on the Soviet government to meet with representatives of the United States, Britain and France "to find ways of reducing dangerous tensions and restoring normal conditions in Berlin."

The text of the note was released by the State Department here.

It was a reply to a Soviet note of last Friday and the latest in a series of statements and notes which followed the death of Peter Fechter, 18, who died on the wall Aug. 17, arousing the wrath of West Berliners.

The note said: "It should not be necessary to remind the Soviet government that the present tensions in Berlin have been caused by the illegal erection of the wall and the senseless cruelty of the police of the Soviet sector."

"The people of the Western sectors were manifesting revulsion, which was worldwide, against the criminal shooting of a defenseless and innocent boy on Aug. 17, who was left to die in the Soviet sector without even the elementary respect of being buried."

"On Aug. 23 another young German was shot in the back by the police of the Soviet sector. Although he was taken to a West Berlin hospital, he could not be saved."

"Despite these wanton provocations, the U.S. authorities in Berlin are maintaining law and order in their sector. All traffic, including that of members of the Soviet armed forces, is moving without incident."

"The U.S. government understands the concern of the Soviet government about the stone-throwing at Soviet personnel. But the Soviet government cannot expect to escape censure, or to avoid the consequences of its own, permitting these brutalities to occur in the sector of the city for which it is responsible."

"The governments of the United States, Great Britain and France are united in their condemnation of these acts."

Six Children Of One Family Perish in Fire

CLOVIS, Calif. (AP)—The six children of Ben and Betty Funk died in a fire that destroyed their new home in this Fresno suburb Sunday despite valiant rescue tries by the father and neighbors.

One teenage neighbor smashed through a window into the blazing home and, with hands slashed by broken glass, handed out four of the children. But they apparently were dead.

"The father and others broke more windows in desperate rescue attempts but were turned back by intense heat."

Fire Chief W. E. Riley said afterward the window smashing may have worsened the situation. "It let in wind drafts," he said.

The dead children were: Dennis, 8; Howard, 8; Charlotte, 7; Shirley, 6; John, 3; and Deborah, 21 months. Deputy Coroner Walter Secher said all had suffocated.

Authorities said cause of the fire was not immediately apparent and may not be learned for several days, pending check of the ashes.

Funk, 32, a cabinet maker, was awakened by his wife, 28, about 1:30 a.m. Sunday with a cry of "fire."

He broke a window of their bedroom and tumbled outside, cut by glass fragments. Then Funk and his brother, Leonard, 20, who had been sleeping in the back yard, pulled Mrs. Funk through the window.

Her leg was broken when it became entangled between frame and sill.

Russell Welch, 19, who lives two houses away, heard screams of alarm, ran to help and battered in through a window.

He told newsmen later he found three of the children in bed and two others on the floor.

"I thought at the time they were dead," he said, but while neighbors sprayed water on him with a lawn hose, he handed four of them outside to another neighbor. An unidentified policeman brought out the other two.

The parents were taken to a Fresno hospital for treatment of shock and their injuries.

A Must for Kennedy Critics Urge Debate On Tax Bill Changes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate had decided the bill should be brought up today amid proposals from critics that they be allowed ample time to debate the measure.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., protested that he had been advised that leaders had agreed to vote tabling motions to chop off debate on dozens of pending amendments.

A motion to table is not debatable. Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana replied that no agreement had been reached with anyone. But he said that he was reserving the right to make tabling motions because Proxmire himself had notified the leaders he would block any proposal for unanimous agreement to limit debate.

The bill is on President Kennedy's list of must items for the coming week of Congress and Mansfield is aiming for Senate action by the weekend. However, Republican Leader Everett M. Kirkson of Illinois told newsmen presented the Senate would act that soon.

Proxmire insisted that he was not trying to prevent any final vote on the bill, but he said it was so important that he hoped the leaders would allow ample time on an amendment.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who also opposes several sections of the bill, urged the Democratic leader to permit votes to come on the merits of amendments, and not through tabling motions.

The Democratic leader often backed the motion to table in the recent bitter debate on the communications satellite bill, and was charged by critics to use the same tactic with the bill with using a "guillotine."

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., who also opposes key sections of the tax bill, joined Democratic senators in opposition to tabling motions. He declared he hoped "you are not going to railroad this bill through."

Williams said he was astonished that the Kennedy administration put off indefinitely. No one could forecast when and how Algeria would obtain an elected legislature and an effective elected civilian government.

Wilya No. 2 issued a fiercely worded statement accusing the rebellious guerrilla leaders of Wilya (Zone) No. 4 in Central Algeria of "irresponsible acts obstructing the rebirth of the state and the revival of its economy."

The general staff called on Central Algeria's civilian population to form "vigilance committees" against the Wilya 4 commanders. It appealed to the Wilya's junior officers and troops to rally to the support of Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's political bureau, which it called "the nation's only legitimate authority."

Ben Bella had flown to Oran over the weekend and the Political Bureau abandoned its work in Algiers as the country's provisional government after the Wilya 4 command launched an open campaign to whip up public opposition in the capital to the civilian political leaders.

The rebel military leaders were supported by an estimated 20,000 guerrillas.

Strengthened by the army general staff's strong declaration of support, Ben Bella was reported planning to return to Algiers to attempt to persuade the wilya commanders to accept his leadership.

The general staff's statement disclosed that the regular army has absorbed guerrilla forces in western Algeria's Wilya No. 5 and that Wilya command has been dissolved.

$50,000 Prize For Solution to Mail-Cash Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General J. Edward Day raised to $50,000 today the reward offered for solution of the $1.5 million Cape Cod mail robbery.

Day told a House Government Activities subcommittee investigating the case that he is ordering the entire amount appropriated by Congress to his department for reward offers to be posted on this case. The amount is $50,000.

A reward of $2,000 previously had been offered.

As for how the bold record-breaking robbery was possible, Day said there was a combination of unfortunate circumstances, including what he called a misinterpreted relationship with the Massachusetts State Police.

Day said the postal employees had conducted four previous successful runs carrying currencies from

General Staff Protests Guerrillas Seeking Control of Algeria

ALGERS (AP)—Military leaders controlling western Algeria today condemned the attempt by anti-western guerrilla officers in Algiers to impose their will on their new nation.

The 45,000-man regular army's general staff in Oran accused the rebellious guerrilla leaders of Wilya (Zone) No. 4 in Central Algeria of "irresponsible acts obstructing the rebirth of the state and the revival of its economy."

Also Raps Delay On Roads Program

NORWALK (AP)—Republican gubernatorial candidate John Alsop continued his attack today on the Democratic administration's handling of the state's highway program. He called for a decision on the relocation of Rt. 7 between Norwalk and Danbury to "end the tension and uncertainty caused by the state's delay and inaction."

In remarks made for delivery during a campaign stop here, Alsop said:

"Although money has been appropriated for route planning for the new highway, little has been done to resolve the confusion as to where the road will go.

"The people want to have and have a right to know whose homes will be affected and who will have to be relocated."

Alsop noted that the only money appropriated for Route 7 construction during the last session of the General Assembly was for a one-mile connector between Route 7 and the Connecticut Turnpike.

"And this is still in the planning stage," he said.

His remarks followed previous criticism of the state's highway program.

Discussing the New Haven railroad, Alsop said:

"Now is the time for action if the railroad is to survive, and we must have the benefit of every constructive recommendation."

He charged that the federal government was suppressing the Whitman Committee report, diagnosing the bankrupt line's problems.

He charged that the federal government was suppressing the Whitman Committee report, diagnosing the bankrupt line's problems.

"I call again upon those responsible for the suppression of the report to make it public immediately so that we can act in full knowledge."

The Whitman Committee is composed of a group of railroad executives designed by Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges to survey the railroad's problems. The committee is headed by Frederic B. Whitman, president of the Western Pacific Railroad.

Ted, Ed Debate On Air Tonight

BOSTON (AP)—A toss of a coin given Edward M. Kennedy the chance to deliver his five-minute opening statement first in tonight's debate with State Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr.

The two candidates for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate met tonight at South Boston High School — one the youngest brother of the President, the other the nephew of the Speaker of the House.

Two Boston television stations—WBZ-TV, Channel 4, and WHDH-TV, Channel 5—plan to carry the debate live at 8 p.m. WWTW-TV, Channel 7, has scheduled a delayed telecast at 11:15 p.m. Radio Stations WBZ and WNAC will carry a live broadcast and WHDH a rebroadcast at 11:15.

U.S., Britain Ask Probe Of Tremors

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. disarmament agency officials expressed belief today that Communist China probably will set off a nuclear explosion within a matter of months.

The officials would not elaborate on their estimate of Communist China's ability to fire a nuclear device. Presumably, the shot could come some time later this year.

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—A new Soviet nuclear test in the atmosphere above the Novaya Zemlya region was registered today by the Seismologic Institution at Uppsala University.

The blast today was the seventh in the Soviet Union's current test series which opened Aug. 5 with a 40-megaton explosion.

GENEVA (AP)—Britain and the United States today proposed a treaty for an unpoliced ban on nuclear tests in the atmosphere, under water and in outer space—and the Soviet Union immediately turned a cold shoulder to the idea.

The Western powers proposed to continue working for a treaty to ban tests in all environments—but with provisions for international on-site inspection of suspicious tremors which might indicate underground tests.

KOWALSKI SILENT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Frank Kowalski, D-Conn., who failed to win the Democratic nomination for the Senate, declined today to discuss his future plans. Last Thursday Kowalski turned down nomination by a newly formed Independent party in Connecticut as its candidate against Abraham Ribicoff and Rep. Horace Secley-Brown, regular Democratic and Republican nominees, respectively, to succeed retiring Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn. The chairman of the Independents, Nicholas B. Carbone, Hartford, later took out nominating petitions for an Independent Democratic slate. Asked today whether he might run as an Independent Democrat, Kowalski said he had nothing further to say at this time.

300 AT FUNERAL
BERLIN (AP)—More than 300 East Berliners joined today at the funeral of Peter Fechter, the 18-year-old refugee whose killing by East German police touched off last week's rioting. Those attending the ceremony, in the cemetery of East Berlin's Evangelical Church of the Resurrection, included young Fechter's parents and a sister and brother, who live in East Berlin. There was also a niece, Jutta Mueller, 7, who played the organ at the gravesite. Her mother, Lieselotte Mueller, 37, lives in West Berlin and has not been able to see her since the Communists began to build the wall a year ago.

ONE-WOMAN GANG
STRATFORD (AP)—The pitcher was a one-woman gang today as Orlando, Fla., eliminated Dallas, Tex., with a 3-0 victory in the women's World softball tournament. Sherille Tiger held Dallas to one hit and personally scored on her team's runs in Orlando's triumph. She had a perfect game going until Martha Bourman of Dallas singled in the last inning of the seven-inning contest.

U.S. Checking On Raiders in Havana Attack
WASHINGTON (AP)—The government pressed an investigation today to determine if the shelling of Havana violated the U.S.-neutrality act.

The State Department already has pinned on a Miami-based exiled Cuban students group the responsibility for Friday night's attack, but has not said whether the raiders sailed from this country.

The neutrality law prohibits launching from U.S. soil armed attacks on countries not at war with the United States. The Justice Department is trying to find out if prosecutions under this law are called for.

In a Miami news conference Sunday, Juan Manuel Salvat, leader of the students group, declined to say where the ships used in the off-shore shelling of Miramar suburb were based. But he declared, "I don't feel we have violated any law of any country."

In holding the Students Revolutionary Directorate responsible for the sortie the State Department

VANDALS SMEAR CHURCH
OLD LYME (AP)—Vandals smeared anti-semitic words and symbols on Christ the King Roman Catholic Church early today. State police reported that the words "Jew 1013" were smeared in white paint across the steps of the church. A star of David was painted on the front door and a swastika on the back door of the church. A can of white paint had been buried at a window of the church. A flagstone walk also was smeared.
