Contracts, orders and government letters of intent at Sept. 30 amounted to approximately $1,000,000,000 which compares with $1,075,000,000 at June 30, and with $1,025,000,000 a year ago.

NEW ROCKET ENGINE The United Technology Corporation, a California subsidiary of United Aircraft Corp. and pioneer in the development of huge segmented solid propellant boosters, has designed an advanced upper stage liquid rocket engine based on a new cooling concept, technically termed ablative cooling, which reduces drastically the complexity of present liquid rocket engines.

Ablative cooling, adapted from the successful use of ablative plastics to protect missile nose cones and spacecraft during the fiery temperatures of re-entry, has been applied to the design of the space engine's thrust chamber, which literally cooks out the liner of its combustion chamber to cool itself. By sacrificing the ablative liner, the engine can operate for some 10 minutes without a conventional cooling system while 5,000 degree temperatures are being created by its combustion gases.

The Willard Building, Manchester's newest office building at 320 Main St., is of red and yellow brick construction with frame floors. John R. Wennegren Co., general contractor, is completing the exterior of the building as desired by the occupants, of which there are now five, the latest being the main offices of Mark Kravitz and Bernard Hickey, doing business as "Hob-Nob, Inc." a restaurant chain in New England and Puerto Rico. The two-floor structure, which has better than 9,000 square feet of office space, was designed by Arnold Lawrence, architect. Weyerhaeuser "Craft-Wall" paneling, a new product in this area is being used in exterior walling. A feature of the building is the gas heating and air-conditioning elements, installed on the roof to provide more inside office space. Simulated glass is also being used. The G. H. Willard Co., owner of the office building, reported a parking area to accommodate 30 to 35 cars will also be available. (Herald photo by Finke).

NEW PRODUCTS: Spreading epidemics of colds through a business office can now be cut down by disinfecting telephone mouthpieces and receivers with "Spray-a-Phone," according to the maker, General Scientific Equipment Co., Philadelphia, Pa. It comes in a plastic squeeze-type dispenser, is quick drying, and has a refreshing Swiss Pine fragrance. For dirty weather coming up this winter, milady can now obtain handy new stretch rubbers with heels opened to eliminate danger of puncture by spike heels. These "Rain 'N' Snow" rubbers are made of soft latex rubber by the Good-year Tire & Rubber Co. Also, when the inside of your windshield or the side and rear window get foggy, it makes for hazardous driving, so why not try anti-fog "Spritz," a product of Merix Chemical Co. of Chicago. Wipe it on the inside of the windows; they will stay free of steam, mist, or fog.

BRIEFS Manchester is one of several Connecticut communities in which the Southern New England Telephone Co. plans to spend some of its $50.6 million on new construction during 1963. A new office building is planned off E. Center St., next to the present plant there now. Four office buildings, 18 additions and a garage are included in a statewide construction program. East Hartford, Norwalk and Woodbridge will have new buildings along with Manchester.

'Emergency Ward'

DuPont Show Depicts Real Life of Intern

A newcomer — Dr. Martin Mulder — is about to join television's medical line-up.

Dr. Mulder will be seen in "Emergency Ward," on the "DuPont Show of the Week," Sunday, Nov. 18, 10-11 p.m. NY on NBC-TV. Unlike Dr. Kildare and Ben Casey, he's the real thing — an intern at Bellevue Medical Center, New York City, where the show was filmed.

He was chosen by Bellevue officials to typify the hospital's huge staff. "At first, I was uncertain about being on the program," he admitted. "I didn't want to take time away from my work in the wards. After all, — I'm a doctor — not an actor."

He relented when he learned that "Emergency Ward" would be completely factual.

"For two months, TV cameras followed me on my rounds," he said. "Every incident was filmed as it happened. The patients, doctors and nurses in the show are all real people."

"Bellevue is like New York itself, a melting pot. Out cases include accident victims, heart attacks, attempted suicides and every kind of rare disease. I've seen Wall Street businessmen and drifters from the Bowery in adjoining beds."

Producer Frank de Felitta interrupted to detail a true case history, one of several which will be part of the telecast.

"A man was brought into the emergency ward with a serious blood disease," said de Felitta. "Only an operation could save his life. But surgery might also impair the use of his legs."

"He refused. He said, 'I'd rather die on my feet.' Nothing the doctors said could convince him to undergo the operation."

It was de Felitta who first conceived the idea of "Emergency Ward."

"There's plenty of medical action on TV," the producer explained. "But people seldom get a real glimpse of hospital life. When I met Dr. Mulder for the first time, I was amazed. He looks so much like Richard Chamberlain, TV's Dr. Kildare, that some people will think we picked him because of his appearance.

"The truth is that in four months since he graduated from Medical School, Dr. Mulder has proved himself a dedicated, brilliant doctor. He is compulsively interested in only one thing — saving human life."

"And that's why he was chosen." Dr. Mulder talked modestly about himself and his career during a stroll through the Bellevue emergency ward.

He smiled warmly at his patients, offering comfort to them with a kind word or a handshake. "I wanted to be a doctor all my life," he said. "I was born in Holland, but came here when I was 8 years old. My parents got away one step ahead of Hitler."

"There are two really memorable moments in my life. The first came when Columbia University accepted my application to medical school. For months before that, I worried and studied and worried some more. I was scared still that they would turn me down."

"The second big moment? When I married four months ago. My wife Cynthia is a nurse. We recently moved into a small apartment just a few blocks from the hospital."

Dr. Mulder's normal tour of duty is 36 hours long. Then he eats 8 hours off to sleep, followed by another full tour. Once every two weeks, he has a day off.

"A tough schedule," he laughed. "It would be, if I didn't like my work."

For this exhaustive routine, Dr. Mulder receives, then a month. "That's actually good pay for an intern," he said. "It comes to about 400 an hour."

He hopes that "Emergency

A tense real-life moment is played out in the Bellevue Hospital emergency ward as Drs. Martin Mulder, Raymond Turner and Peter Mott (l. to r.) examine a critically ill patient. This sequence is from "Emergency Ward," which will be seen on the "DuPont Show of the Week" Sunday, Nov. 18, 10-11 p.m. NY, NBC-TV.

Ward" will clear up some misconception about what goes on in a big-city hospital. "It's not as frantic or emotional a place as you might think from watching some TV programs," he commented. "Doctors don't fight amongst themselves and they never have emotional outbursts in front of their patients. Those things happen only on television."

"It will be interesting to see how people react to seeing real doctors after Ben Casey and Dr. Kildare. Perhaps we'll seem a bit

TV Notebook

By DICK KLEINER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NBC) — Stoney Burke, ABC's new rodeo series, may or may not be a hit, but it will be one thing: it will be a cliché-free show.

...noted that it has the quality which Lord feels is essential — integrity.
"The idea of Stoney Burke is that each show has a theme," he says. "If a writer comes in and says he has a good plot, we're not interested. But if he has a theme — even as small a theme as men being as old as they feel — that's what we want. The plot comes later, but the theme, the integrity is the base."

TV Personalities

With nine years of solid show-business experience behind her, 18-year-old Roberta Shore has a two-way career that's growing in both directions.
Her first record release in winning teen-age praise throughout the country, establishing her as a songstress, and she is seen this season as co-star of NBC-TV's "The Virginian," television's 90-minute filmed color series (Wednesdays, 7:30-9 p.m. NYT).

At 14, Roberta got her first real acting job ("the first I'd ever auditioned for") on "Fireside Theater" with Jane Wyman. That started her off on a busy round of television appearances, including "Playhouse 90," "Studio One," "Father Knows Best," "Donna Reed," "GE Theater" and "Ozzie and Harriet."

Walt Disney gave her her first leading role when he signed her for his movie, "The Shaggy Dog." She also appeared in "The Young Savages," "Because They're Young" and "Blue Denim."

Roberta says that in both acting and singing she "just does what feels natural." She has never had lessons in either field — "although once I went to a voice therapist to get a cracked note fixed."

One of her most memorable experiences came on a personal appearance tour of Australia for "The Shaggy Dog." Belting out a song for an audience of 12,000 teen-agers, she was dismayed to hear both girls and boys erupt in a noisy outburst of screams and stamping feet.

"I thought they didn't like me," she recalls, "and I remember shivering up there at the mike, trying to decide what to do. Then I realized it was their way of showing they liked me. It took me a while to get over being screamed at — especially by other girls."

Roberta says she's pretty much of a tomboy when she's not dressed up for work. She likes going barefoot, horseback riding and motor scooters, and is a baseball and basketball player on teams sponsored by her church.

She has light brown hair, dark brown eyes and weighs 108 pounds. Her wholesome appearance and bubbling personality won her the National Health Council's title of "Miss Health of 1961."

Roberta lives with her father, Stanley, a salesman; her mother, an older sister and a younger brother, in San Gabriel, Calif.

Lyns Loring, "Fair Exchange," has been acting 13 of her 19 years.

India Asks for Planes

War Rekindles West of Burma

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Hostilities between Indian and Communist Chinese troops are picking up again around Walong in their undeclared border war. An Indian spokesman said today there were three weekend clashes in that area just west of the Burma border.

The spokesman said five Indian soldiers were wounded.

The Indians also had a brush with a Red Chinese patrol near Jang, at the west end of India's North East Frontier Agency, he said, but otherwise a lull continued.

The report from the front came as Prime Minister Nehru, striving to put the nation on guard against all eventualities, told newsmen he has asked the United States for planes. He did not say what kind of planes, but India evidently could use additional transports.

Concerning the weekend fighting, the spokesman said a Red Chinese party of unspecified size approached an Indian position near Walong on Saturday night and opened fire. He called this a probing action from which the Red Chinese withdrew.

That same night, an Indian patrol operating on the Himalayan ridges northwest of Walong encountered some Red Chinese. One Indian was wounded in the clash.

Another Indian patrol exchanged fire Sunday night with the Red Chinese and four Indians were wounded.

Since the initial Communist thrusts into Indian-claimed territory at 13 points in the offensive launched Oct. 20, there has been a lull of almost three weeks. Both sides have been moving up reinforcements.

Commenting on a Peiping diary that Indian troops in northern Ladakh had killed Red Chinese soldiers, the spokesman said this was clearly a pretext for the Red to occupy the area.

Indian troops abandoned a strategic post there Oct. 22 and informed sources said Red Chinese have been seen camping there. It controls a mountain pass.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said President Tito of Yugoslavia has replied to Nehru's circular appeal to other nations for sympathy and support but declined to disclose what Tito said.

There was no immediate indication of the kind of planes Nehru requested.

Accord Seen In AFL-CIO Vacancy Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Walter Reuther carries a recession threat to a crucial AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting today but a compromise was expected in his feud with federation chief George Meany.

Peace-makers worked to settle the union internal battle in the belief that a separated labor movement could not accomplish more than a single organization even though it was embroiled in policy differences.

A simple solution reportedly was being proposed to settle a hot controversy over filling a vacant post on the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

This was to abolish the vacancy by reducing the 29-man council membership by two positions.

The contested vacancy was one from the former CIO side. But another seat, from his old AFL branch, held by President William Doherty of the Letter Carriers Union, is being vacated because Doherty has been appointed by President Kennedy as ambassador to Jamaica.

Seniority Low For Democrats From Region

AP SPECIAL SERVICE
WASHINGTON (AP)—It may be disillusioning and somewhat frustrating, but that's how it's played.

With victory shouts still echoing and bold promises still remembered, New England's three new Senators and four new House members shortly will jump into the Congressional committee wall.

The home state heroes of November become freshmen in January. They will be curbed by custom to respectful listening while seeking committee posts which may make them and their causes effective.

In Congress, the escalator to committee power is seniority—the number of the majority party with the longest service on the committee taking the chairmanship.

Obviously, under the seniority system, Senators-elect Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts and T. J. McIntyre of New Hampshire will be low men on the committees they win. Their placement will be at the pleasure of the party's committee on committees. Being Democrats and in the majority, their chances of desirable assignments is enhanced because the controlling party always has the largest ratio of committee memberships.

In the House, two freshmen New England Democrats will hopefully seek preference. W. L. St. Onge and E. F. Grayson of Connecticut, along with Republican first-termers Louis C. Wyman and J. C. Cleveland of New Hampshire.

New England Democrats, with the notable exception of House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, are service youngsters compared with some of their southern and western brethren, hence none will move into chairmanships.

Sky Dive Survivor Weds

EAST BREWSTER, Mass. A 20-year-old telephone operator who nearly three months ago hurtled 2,500 feet through space and escaped with minor injuries was on her honeymoon today.

Miss Lois Ann Frotten and John E. Burke, 31, were married Saturday in Immaculate Conception Church.

Three months ago the couple decided to celebrate their engagement by taking a sky dive together.

Burke banded safely but Miss Frotten's chute failed to open and she plunged 2,500 feet into Mystic Lake. She hit soft mud at the bottom of the lake and escaped with only two small vertebrae fractures and a cut nose.

The couple has vowed never to sky dive again.

3 Highway Deaths Occur in Weekend

At least three persons were killed on Connecticut highways over the weekend. But one of the deaths was believed to be a suicide.

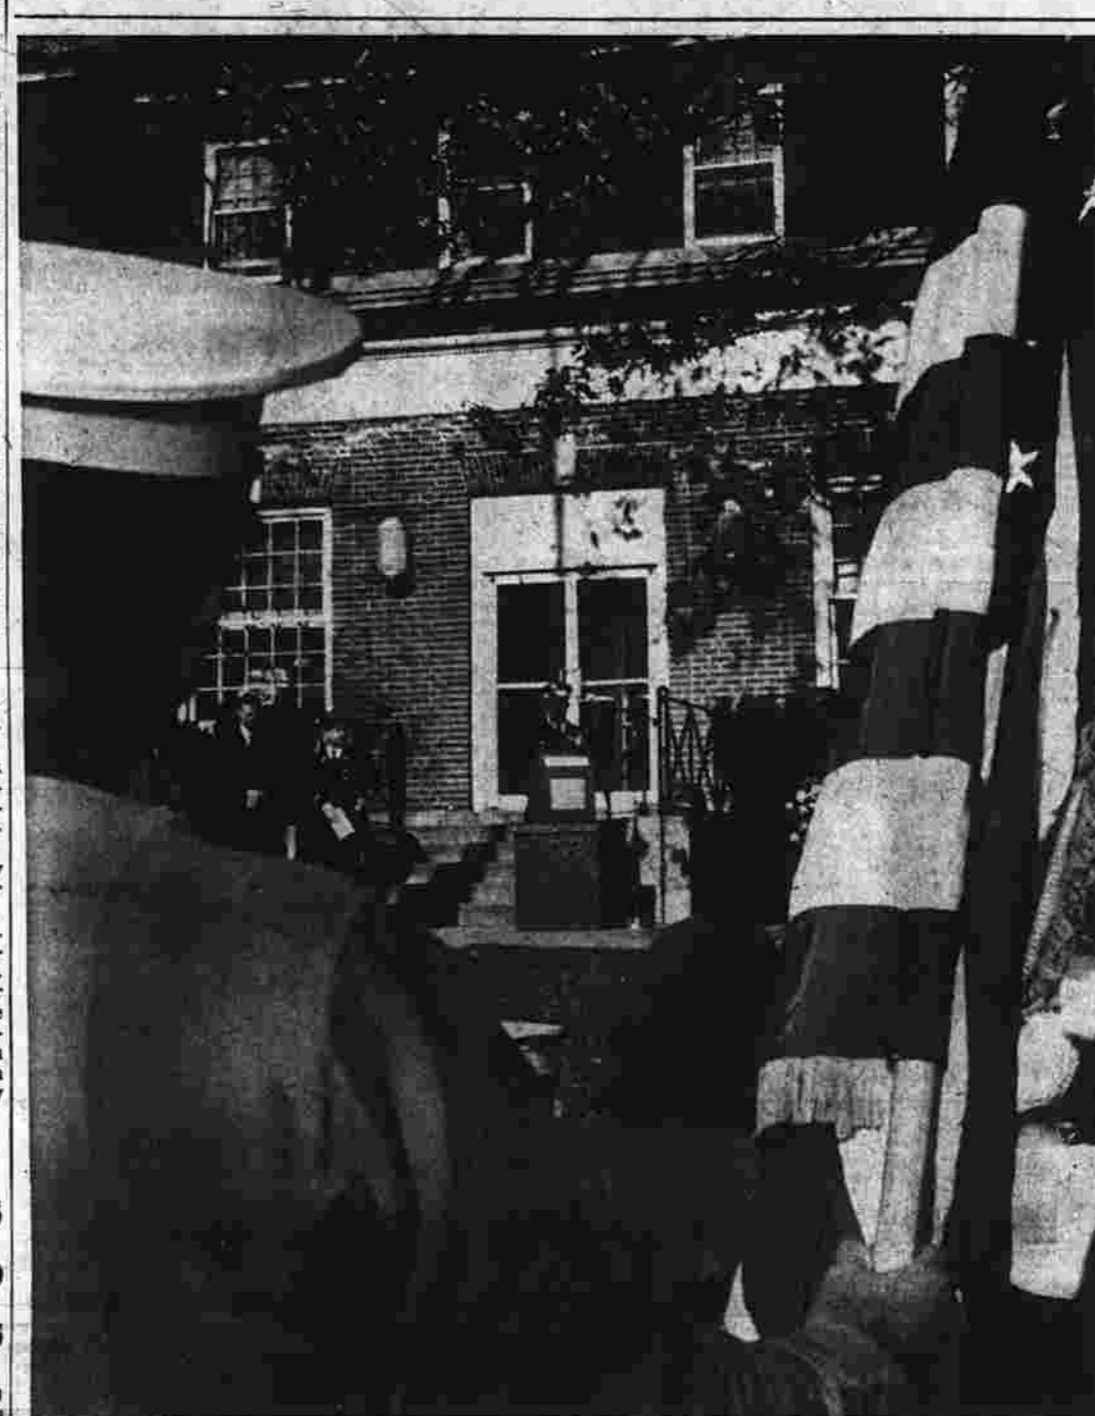

State Police said it appeared that Mrs. Barbara Gleason, 28, of 38 Deming Rd., Glastonbury, had deliberately lunged in front of a northbound car on the Glastonbury Expressway Sunday night.

Saturday night, Mrs. Josephine Dinicola, 39, of Waterbury was killed in a two-car collision on Rt. 83 in Middletown, just west of the Watbury town line.

A one-car crash on Newfield Rd. in Winchester Saturday night took the life of 15-year-old Dana L. Waldron of Winchester, a student at the Hartford branch of the University of Connecticut. Police said Waldron apparently swerved too suddenly to avoid hitting something in the road ahead of him. The car flipped over and skidded 60 feet on its roof.

In an out of state mishap, William H. Holman, 64, of Danbury, Conn., was struck and killed by a New Haven Railroad freight train early Sunday as he was walking along the tracks near Fishkill, N. Y.

President Summons Adlai, Yost, McCloy

Topic Was Progress of Cuba Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy met for nearly two hours today with his top foreign policy advisers and ranged over all current issues obstructing a final settlement of the Cuban crisis.

The White House declined to specify exactly what the President discussed with U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, Charles D. Yost, Stevenson's Security Council deputy, John J. McCloy, Stevenson's special adviser for U.N. deliberations on Cuba, and the executive committee of the National Security Council.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said the meeting, which lasted an hour and 46 minutes, provided the occasion for a "general review of discussions" under way in New York. He said Stevenson and McCloy collected on developments at the United Nations where the Cuban issue is getting Soviet missiles and other offensive weapons out of the island.

Salinger called it an "across the board" review. He said he did not expect any new policy pronouncements to come from the session. There has been no change in U.S. policy, he said.

Kennedy had summoned the top Cuban crisis negotiators to the White House to discuss developments to date in their talks with Soviet and U.N. representatives.

The announcement of the meeting, issued by the U.S. delegation at the United Nations, did not elaborate. One development certain to be on the agenda is the Soviet missile withdrawal.

Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatric confirmed Sunday the United States has counted 46 Russian missiles on ships steaming away from Cuba.

He stressed that without on-site inspection the United States could not be certain whether the 42 were all Moscow sent in.

"The Soviets said there were 42," he said. "We have counted 42 going out. We saw fewer than 42 in U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba."

"Until we have so-called on-site inspection of the island of Cuba we could never be sure that 42 was the maximum number the Soviets brought into Cuba."

The negotiators Kennedy will see are: U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson; Charles D. Yost, Stevenson's Security Council deputy, and John J. McCloy, chairman of the President's Cuban crisis coordinating committee.

A delegation spokesman said the three will discuss with the

Crisis Aided Nikita By Scaring His Foes

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Strong evidence from Moscow suggests that Nikita Khrushchev has been helped as much as he has been hurt by the Cuban crisis. Indications are that he will have his way in preparing the U.S.S.R. for a long-pull economic cold war.

Close examination of what went on before, during and after the 45th October Revolution anniversary seems to justify speculation concerning developments of high significance in the global political-economic war.

A picture emerges of Khrushchev as chairman of a collective of Soviet leaders whose theories, doggedly pushed since the de-stalinization congress of 1956, now are being vindicated.

The collective thus has had the opportunity to apply a coup de grace to its internal enemies and to turn its attention to Khrushchev's original program. This seemingly was based on the assumption that nuclear war would ruin the Soviet Union, and that the logical course was to prepare for economic war on a world scale.

This does not mean Communists will not grab opportunities where they find them. But it can mean that the overriding policy is "better safe than sorry." It can mean that so long as the United States and the West keep up their guard, caution will be the Kremlin watchword.

The Cuban adventure showed how close Moscow could come to blundering into nuclear war with recklessly warlike policies. It is even possible the missile buildup in Cuba was undertaken against Khrushchev's better judgment, that he was overruled when the decision was made some months ago to go ahead with it.

Indications now are that Khrushchev's side has won what ever debates went on in party

Algeria Faces Poverty, Drift, As New Nation

ORAN, Algeria (AP)—"I feel like I'm aboard a rudderless ship, turning and going nowhere," said a French official in the new country's administration. His words reflected the disappointment and pessimism setting in after four months of independence.

In the streets of Oran, once the capital of terror of European right-wing desperados, Moslem men in makeshift uniforms paraded in two.

Less than five months ago, Moslems who dared to enter the European city were shot on sight. Today they crowd the shop-lined streets and drink in bars that once served as meeting points for terrorist European commandos.

Some 15,000 of the city's 200,000 Europeans are still in Algeria's No. 2 city, either liquidating their businesses or tensely waiting to see "which way it will turn."

Winter is setting in, rainy and uncertain, and tens of thousands of Moslems shiver in their shantytowns.

Farmlands around Oran are going to waste. The island of Bouche in sheds abandoned by European settlers. Factories—in what used to be one of Algeria's maddest industrial centers—operate at 10-15 per cent capacity.

"All they need is stability and directives from the government to start full blast," said U.S. Consul Bone Tron.

Tron said American aid is feeding some 600,000 persons in west-

Wild Typhoon Batters Guam, Scores Hurt

HONOLULU (AP)—Typhoon Karen—described as the worst tropical storm in Guam's history—has rendered the island nearly helpless, leaving hundreds of people injured, at least one dead and an estimated $100 million in damage.

Karen ripped the tiny island—hub of the United States Pacific defense ring—late Sunday night and early Monday, Guam time, with winds estimated at 150 knots.

The Navy's Pacific Fleet headquarters at Hawaii said it issued a three-day warning of the big blow "saved countless lives."

Guamanians and U.S. military personnel and their dependents began digging out of the battered island.

Guam's acting governor, Manuel Guerrero, sent an urgent appeal to Washington to rush aid. He said "entire territory devastated by Typhoon Karen."

Guerrero's message said 80 per cent of the island's civilian community, including government employee housing, was useless or destroyed.

Pacific Fleet headquarters said four of every five civilian homes had their roofs blown off.

The acting governor's message said George Washington High and Tumon Junior High schools were destroyed. Guam Memorial Hospital, the island's public works department and utilities agencies were extensively damaged, Guerrero said.

He asked the Office of Emergency Planning to declare Guam a disaster area.

The Navy's report said strongest winds smashed the island Monday morning. First estimates placed property damage at $100 million.

Communications were completely blanked as the storm ripped over antennas and transmitting equipment.

Residents took refuge in storm shelters and government buildings. The Federal Aviation Agency said some dependents were to be evacuated to Wake Island.

Any evacuations or emergency airlifts to the island, however, were dependent on when Guam's airstrips would be cleared. The FAA would all airstrips inoperable. Pacific Air Force planes were standing by to carry in supplies and equipment.

The Navy's tracking center at Guam gauged sustained winds of

UN Threatens Moves to Stop Katanga Raids

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Congo Command is threatening to send a peace-keeping force to Katanga to stop reports of bombings in North Katanga.

A message from the U.N. Command to the Leopoldville office of Robert K. A. Gardiner in command of the U.N. operation in the Congo, estimated about 10 planes may have carried out Saturday's bombings, striking a road junction and a hospital and near a bridge.

It did not speculate on the purpose of the bombing. The report by Buluba tribesmen hostile to Katanga, and Premier Cyrille Adoula's Congolese national army is also there, perhaps to try to recapture Katanga. The United Nations worked out a Congolese-Katanga cease-fire agreement.

The collective thus has had the opportunity to apply a coup de grace to its internal enemies and to turn its attention to Khrushchev's original program. This seemingly was based on the assumption that nuclear war would ruin the Soviet Union, and that the logical course was to prepare for economic war on a world scale.

Hamilton Out As Aid Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fowler Hamilton is leaving his post as U.S. foreign aid director. But before he steps down, he plans a European trip to try to coax other Western nations into giving more assistance to underdeveloped countries.

President Kennedy was reported searching for a successor to Hamilton, who handed in his resignation last week after a little more than a year as head of the Agency for International Development—AID.

Heading the list of those being mentioned for the substitute job was Budget Director David E. Bowles, presidential adviser on underdeveloped areas.

Associates said Hamilton, 51, intends to return to law practice in New York. He presided over some controversial changes in the foreign aid program and ran into personnel difficulties.

Before leaving his official position, Hamilton intended to make a two-week trip starting next Wednesday or Thursday. His mission is to try to convince several

ACLU Requests Citizenship for Ex-Castro Aide

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Civil Liberties Union is to ask the U.S. Court of Appeals here today to restore American citizenship to Milwaukee-born Herman F. Marks, 40, who served in Fidel Castro's revolutionary army and later became the Cuban premier's chief executioner.

A federal district court stripped Marks of his citizenship last March 30, while ruling he was not deportable from this country since he never received Cuban citizenship.

Marks has been free in $10,000 bond pending an appeal of the decision. The government is also appealing it.

In its brief in Marks' behalf, the ACLU says the case "involves the first reported instance in American jurisprudence of an effort to

Disenchanted with Castro

QUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba (AP)—This U.S. naval base is a little mine of information about the grim life outside in Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Fifty refugees from Castro are here now, although U.S. officials do not admit this. The Cubans tell of hunger, a shortage of doctors, police-state rule, and dissatisfaction even among the people's militia.

They say the militia, the bulwark of Castro's military position, was disgruntled when it was put on short rations after being called up because of fear of a U.S. invasion. Two of Castro's soldiers were said to have deserted to this base, but there was no official confirmation.

Western intelligence experts estimate Castro has 200,000 men and women in the militia, and a regular army of 80,000 equipped with modern Soviet weapons.

Castro appears now to distrust the militia, refugees say. They report militiamen no longer can keep their rifles and machine guns while off duty and must account for all ammunition issued.

Refugees Cite Fear, Shortages, in Cuba

Besides the refugees, who climb the high steel, barbed-wire-topped fences or swim past Communist guards on the seaward side, Cuban workers at this base also are a source of information on life on the outside.

A worker employed on the base for 20 years said the people were overjoyed when it appeared last month President Kennedy was about to crack down on Castro. But now he said the people are disappointed and disheartened.

"The medical situation in Cuba is very bad," he said. "I heard three days ago my friend died without medical attention. Castro is very short of doctors and he is trying to improvise doctors. Anybody who had any experience is now a doctor."

"They have a sickness in Oriente which they have many names for, but it is against the babies. They have high fever and diarrhea and then they die. I know of five or six babies who died in the last week. It is bad."

"In the last 15 months I say maybe 80 per cent of the people count for all ammunition issued.

Russia Says 47,000 Leave Siberian Jobs

MOSCOW (AP)—Report from central Siberia: Some 47,000 disgruntled workers have quit their jobs in the first six months of this year and construction of a model industrial center is years behind schedule.

The report was published Sunday in the Soviet newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya.

"Whole groups of workers are leaving, displaced by confusion and low salaries," the newspaper said.

The story appeared as the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's parliament, was called into session Dec. 10 to ratify recommendations on speeding up and improving industrial and farm production. The Communist party Central Committee meets next Monday to outline an action program.

The newspaper, reporting on a special study in the Kemerovo area of central Siberia, accused construction leaders of concentrating on such little jobs as building greenhouses and making repairs while neglecting major tasks so they could report overfulfillment of construction quotas.

The government has 600 million rubles—$60 million—tied up in unfinished buildings, the newspaper said. The industrial complex of cement and chemical plants and other factories was begun in 1954.

A big fruit-canning plant was completed near Tomsk and machinery was installed. The newspaper said everything was dismantled again after officials realized that fruit was not grown on a large scale in the area. The plant was hauled 1,500 miles to the east and set up at Krasnodar, an agricultural community near the Black Sea.

A porcelain factory was built in the same central Siberian district. Officials then learned they had to haul sand and clay as much as 2,000 miles, the newspaper reported.

Hiss TV Talk Draws Protests

NEW YORK (AP)—A televised appearance of Alger Hiss on a program entitled "The Political Obituary of Richard M. Nixon" was met Sunday night by a flood of phoned and telegraphed protests, cancellation of the program by several stations and picketing of network studios.

One Midwestern station carrying the program received a bomb threat but it proved to be a fake. Pickets appeared outside studios of the American Broadcasting Co. in New York and Los Angeles.

ABC said the taped program gave an honest summary of Nixon's career, including comments from persons applauding him.

Nixon could not be reached immediately for comment.

The 10 men and women pickets marching outside ABC's main studio here, from where the program was aired, carried signs such as "Why a nationwide forum for a convicted perjurer, Alger Hiss?"

Several ABC-affiliated stations canceled the showing of the program about the former vice president.

The Tatt Broadcasting Co. said it ordered the show off its two stations where it had been scheduled, in Cincinnati and Columbus, Ohio. A Tatt official wired ABC that "use of Alger Hiss as political commentator" was contrary

SMUGGLED GOLD FOUND
BOMBAY, India (AP)—Customs authorities reported today finding nearly a million dollars worth of smuggled gold hidden at the seashore near Alibag, 45 miles from Bombay. A week ago police chased on another $400,000 worth of gold concealed in bushes near Alibag. The police were looking for illegal liquor distilleries at the time.

HISTORIC HOUSE BURNS
ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—An historic mansion built on the west bank of the Hudson River in the mid-1800s was a charred ruin today, destroyed by flames. The house, just north of Albany, was known as "The Flatts" and was the residence of the famed Schuyler family. Gen. Philip Schuyler, the Revolutionary War leader, lived there shortly after his marriage.

VIETNAM PLANE MISSING
