

U.S., Britain, Russia Move Closer to Test Ban Accord

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union appeared today to be closer to agreement on a nuclear weapons test ban than they have been at any time in almost two years.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev has removed a major barrier to serious negotiation by telling President Kennedy that he would accept two or three on-site inspections a year in the Soviet Union as part of a system to prevent cheating.

Reaction in the Senate, where a test ban pact would have to be approved, was heavily cautious. But the general feeling was that in accepting the principle of on-site inspection, Khrushchev's move was encouraging.

Despite the cries of "Not enough," the encouraging aspect was apparent on the face of a newly released exchange between the U.S. and Soviet leaders, and Secretary of State Dean Rusk seized on it publicly today.

In a television interview, NBC's "Today," the secretary of state said Khrushchev's acceptance of the principle of on-site inspection was encouraging.

Ulbricht Tells West Germans Beware U.S.

BERLIN (AP)—Walter Ulbricht, East German Communist leader, ended his party's sixth congress today with a warning to West Germany not to put too much trust in the United States.

The spade-headed Red chieftain said vents in Cuba have shown there is a new power in the world the United States cannot defy. He made plain he meant that power is the Soviet Union.

Ulbricht asked for talks with West Germany on a basis of equality with a view to federating the two arts of the country and eventually reunifying them.

This is an old demand, repeatedly rejected in the West. East Germany's satellite regime has 17 million people, a third as many as there are in West Germany, and has never held a free election.

Waldemar Schmidt, East Berlin's deputy mayor, announced the new membership of the party's Central Committee had been elected unanimously at a four-hour closed session. Just who they are, however, will not be announced until Tuesday.

The news surprised nobody—such elections are always unanimous—but it brought a rising ovation and an embrace between Ulbricht and Soviet Premier Khrushchev, who was on the platform.

The windup came after a week highlighted by the clash between Khrushchev and the Communist Chinese for leadership of the world Communist movement.

Chinese delegate Wu Hsiu-chan was in his front row seat for Ulbricht's address.

In Moscow, the Soviet Communist party newspaper announced a harsh rebuke for the first time almost the complete text of Wu's speech to congress last Friday, attacking Soviet policies.

Suspect Caught In Friends' Home SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Robert R. Hagberg, 26, was arrested today in connection with the Jan. 18 robbery of the Park St. Savings Bank of Hartford, Conn.

Springfield police arrested Hagberg at an apartment, 525 Plainfield St., where he was staying with friends.

He was scheduled to be arraigned in District Court today on a charge of being an accessory to a robbery.

Police said Hagberg, a Springfield native, lived at 472 Park St., Hartford, the same address on which the Mechanics Savings Bank branch is located.

A man holding his hand in a pocket as though he carried a weapon, made off with $1,300 from the bank. Police said Hagberg was identified through pictures.

Capt. W. J. Martin, who heads the Springfield detective division, said Hagberg signed a statement admitting the robbery.

Tax Evader Fined HARTFORD (AP)—David R. Sohn, of 635 Main St., was fined $7,500 on one of four counts of tax evasion which he was charged by the federal government.

U.S. District Judge M. Joseph Blumenfeld stated this case was unusual in that Sohn's integrity had been cited to him by many people and he did not believe imprisonment was needed.

Assistant U.S. Atty. James D. O'Connor presented the government's case and said that Sohn pleaded guilty to the third of four counts of income tax evasion. The count to which he pleaded guilty covered the calendar year of 1957.

The government said Sohn reported his income for that year as $3,169 and paid income taxes on it of $787, when his true income was $16,791 and his tax on this should have been $5,034.

In all, O'Connor said, Sohn "willfully and knowingly" evaded $12,888 in taxes over the years 1955 through 1958.

Woman Sentenced HARTFORD (AP)—Mrs. Frances P. Horowitz of Winsted, operator of a contract branch post office, today was sentenced to a one-year federal prison term for diversion of some $2,500 in postal money order funds to her own use, to be suspended after she serves 18 days in jail.

U.S. District Judge T. Emmet Clark also imposed probation for two years. Because of personal matters, the judge gave Mrs. Horowitz 10 days before she begin serving the prison sentence.

Mrs. Horowitz pleaded guilty to the first of two counts facing her, charging embezzlement of U.S. money.

U.S. Atty. James D. O'Connor, the second count was dismissed. Atty. Ernest Fetzler, Winsted, is defending Mrs. Horowitz, said that.

JFK Seeks to Dispel Fear of Large Deficit

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy told Congress today that cutting taxes, despite a huge deficit, is "the best way open to us to increase revenues."

Kennedy devoted the annual economic report, last of his three major messages to the new Congress, to allaying the fears of those legislators who called his fiscal program — the heaviest spending and biggest tax cut in history — "incredible," "a mistake," and "too big."

In the process he revealed a few more details of the tax program he will send to Congress next Thursday. If the country should slide into recession this year through failure to reduce taxes, the President said, the prospective $11.3-billion deficit would worsen and perhaps "break all peacetime deficit records."

By contrast, Kennedy predicted, the planned $3.5-billion tax reduction will add $5 billion a year to families' income, boost output, increase profits, and encourage business investment.

He promised: "As the economy returns to full employment, the budget will turn to constructive balance."

While urging tax reduction as insurance against recession, Kennedy did not predict a slump. On the contrary, he forecast "moderate expansion" in 1963 to a record $78 billion of national output, up 4 1/2 per cent from last year.

Already, he reported, the recovery from the depth of recession 22 months ago has halted the postwar trend of ever more frequent recessions. But the gains are "frustratingly" short of the strides that are needed, he said.

The message went on: "I do not expect a fifth postwar recession to interrupt our progress in 1963."

"It is not the fear of recession but the fact of five years of expansion and almost double the consequent hobbling of our growth rate—that constitutes the urgent case for tax reduction and reform."

"The frustrating indeed to see the unemployment rate stand still even though the output of goods and services rises."

"Yet past experience tells us that only sustained major increases in production can reemploy the jobless members of today's labor force, create job opportunities for the 2 million young men and women entering the labor force each year, and produce new jobs as fast as technological change destroys old ones."

Unions Join Plan To End Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiators for striking longshoremen have accepted a presidential board proposal to end the month long, Michigan-Texas dock tie-up. Ship owners deferred action until Tuesday.

The board's proposal for a 30-cent-a-hour pay increase over two years—including 24 cents in wage costs—was accepted Sunday night by negotiators from union longshoremen who work in ports from Norfolk, Va., northward.

A union spokesman said that even if ship owners and stevedoring companies accept the proposal, the strike could not be considered over until dockworkers along the southeast and Gulf coasts get the same offer.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., chairman of a mediation board appointed by President Kennedy, observed that the New York pact

Insists Tax Cut to Add To Incomes

Unions Pay $1 Million Each Week to Printers

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine unions are paying nearly $1 million weekly in strike benefits to more than 15,000 members idled by the New York newspaper blackout, a survey showed today. The amount is about two-fifths of their normal wages.

The benefits range from $30 for a single man with no dependents to $120 for others, depending on the union.

Only the deliverers union among 10 major unions affected by the strike is paying no benefits. It, 2,800 members voted to go with the union rather than borrow from their pension fund. They still have some income from sales of out-of-town newspapers, and circulations here have spurted since the city's nine major dailies closed.

So far as could be determined, only the American Newspaper Guild of the unions involved in the 45-day-old strike here has borrowed to enable it to continue benefits to more than 5,000 jobless guidelands in New York and Cleveland, where a strike that has closed Cleveland's two newspapers is in its 53rd day.

The guild announced it had obtained loans of $300,000 from the industrial department of the AFL-CIO and $200,000 from the United Auto Workers.

Slender Trial Starts Against Racket Prober

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An unprecedented defamation of character trial begins today for District Atty. Jim Garrison, who has raised the question of racketeer influences on the city's eight Criminal Court judges.

A number of lawyers have told the judge they will sue Garrison, said, "to say out loud what a lot of people already know."

Judge William H. Ponder was named special judge to hear the case without a jury. Louisiana's attorney general, Jack Gremlion, will prosecute Garrison, 42, who will be defended by two private attorneys.

Garrison's lawyers have disclosed they will base their defense on Garrison's constitutional right to freedom of speech—including the right to criticize judges for their conduct in office. Gremlion will try to prove, among other things, that malice figured in Garrison's criticism.

The dispute began after the judges clamped down on Garrison's expenditures for a vice crackdown he launched last year. Garrison criticized the judges for their "lavish vacation and holiday schedule that would draw a nod of approval from any Roman emperor."

He said they took 208 holidays a year—not counting legal holidays. The result, Garrison said, was an overcrowded parish (county) prison.

The judges called Garrison's remarks an "irrational diatribe." Garrison is "master of the dock—like the body."

Who Files and How

EDITOR'S NOTE—The income tax filing order is here again. Here is the first of a series of five articles designed to make the taxpayer's chore easier. This one tells you must file, forms to use, and how to figure deductions.

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON (AP)—Midnight Monday, April 15, is the deadline for your 1962 income tax return. Report only taxable income, not the non-taxable kind like Social Security payments. Examples of both kinds are given below.

Changes in the law on 1962 individual income are very few and won't affect most people. A self-employed person must pay a Social Security tax of 4.7 per cent on self-employment income from $400 to $4,800. This is in addition to whatever regular tax he pays, like everyone else, on taxable income over $600.

A man over 65 must pay this Social Security tax on self-employment income even though he is drawing Social Security payments. But there are limits on how much income such a person can have and still receive Social Security payments. This can get complicated. If you have doubts about your case, contact your nearest Social Security office.

Be sure (1) you enclose with your return all the W-2 withholding statements from your employer or employers; (2) you list your Social Security number on your return. There is a $5 penalty for failing to list your number.

Many special questions are answered in the 14-page instruction sheet which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) sends taxpayers. It has 14 taxable incomes of $1,000 or more.

Mother-Son Team on Police Force

Mom is getting advice from her son, instead of handing it out. That's the theme of this early morning scene today as Patrolman John Krnjak observes his mother, Mrs. Caroline Krnjak, of 58 Bridges St., as she looks over her daily duties as a school traffic guard at the Nathan Hale school on Spruce St.

Accident Victims Much Improved

Two persons, seriously injured in a Jan. 12 head-on collision on Main St. in front of the State Armory, are reported much improved by spokesmen from two hospitals.

Milton K. Burrill, 20, of 97 Beesebub Rd., Wapping, a sailor, who was admitted to St. Francis Hospital at Hartford with a severe head injury, Saturday was transferred by a U.S. Navy ambulance to the U.S. Naval Hospital at St. Albans, Vt. His condition was much improved, it was reported.

Ernest J. Wright, 47, of Ballmore, Md., driver of the second car involved in the accident, is reported in fairly good condition in the intermediate care ward at Manchester Memorial Hospital, a hospital spokesman said. Wright was admitted with head and chest injuries and facial cuts after the crash. His wife, Anna, was treated for bumps and bruises after the crash, which involved four cars. The Burrill and Wright cars were total wrecks in the crash. The accident is still under investigation by Manchester police.

Mayor Seeks Voter Backing To Bond for Road Program

Mayor Francis Mahoney plans to go to the voters in each of the town's five districts to get their approval of a highway reconstruction program before he puts it before all of the voters in a referendum.

To remedy what he calls the "deplorable" condition of town roads, a major reconstruction program must be started, financed by bonding, he said.

At a preliminary to the program, he will ask the board of directors to hire, if necessary, professional men to survey the streets and the highway department equipment, he said.

"We cannot and will not ever attain good roads in Manchester under the present tax system of pay-as-you-go plus the additional $25,000 allotted by the state of (sic) materials. This material is used mostly for very poor patch jobs. This is an outrageous waste of money and materials year in and year out."

"... We do not have the personnel or the proper equipment." The survey might be made by the extension service of the University of Connecticut or the State Highway Department, the mayor suggested.

String Group Gives Concert

A full house heard the Hartford String Ensemble yesterday afternoon in another of its concerts directed by Vytantas Marjolis.

The group has made constant progress under his present conductor, which is reflected in public interest and attendance.

A few seasons back, it was unable to fill Avery Memorial Auditorium; now it fills the Plant School Auditorium in West Hartford, and it appears that it will shortly outgrow the facilities there, all of which reflects credit on the organization, and is a nice thing to be able to report.

The rather lengthy program was comprised mainly of 19th and early 20th century music. Even the works by modern composers (Paganini and Williams) were cast in the moulds used by the baroque composer, so there was a prevailing feeling of antiquity throughout the afternoon.

There were likewise several soloists, chosen from the group's personnel. Isaac Stravinsky was heard in the E-major violin concerto by Bach. Wilfred Fildes performed the solo part in Vivaldi's D-minor concerto for viola d'amore and Cathy Miller played the solo recorder in a concerto by Vivaldi.

All of them played very well, and as a matter of fact their co-ports played nobly, also. Quite a number of these also play in the Manchester Civic Orchestra, incidentally, so it does not seem like a group of strangers to anyone attending from this area.

Mr. Marjolis once guested a rehearsal of the Manchester group, so he is known familiarly here as well.

This is a really excellent ensemble with surprisingly good tone for a group comprised mainly by amateurs. This program was excellently chosen to show this tone to advantage for in the type of music offered there was no attempt by the composer to impress an audience with massive effects; the idea in the baroque era was to divert and entertain. And it was diverting and entertaining.

It was educational, as well. For example, although I knew the opera about Alessandro Stradella, which bears his name, I had never heard any music by the old Italian, who lived 1644-1682. Similarly, I'm quite certain that few in the audience had ever before had the opportunity to hear a viola d'amore, with its sympathetic strings. The recorder, too, is rather seldom employed these days in public concerts.

Altogether, it was an excellent and valuable program. I was happy to hear it so well played, and to see it so well attended.

ICE JAM SOLED NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—A 12-mile ice jam in the lower Niagara River which drew thousands of spectators during the weekend remained solid today.

The Coast Guard said there were no signs of an immediate breakup.
