

Prison Term For Molinas In Hoop Fix

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Molinas was sentenced to 10 to 15 years in prison today for bribery—trying to control the point spreads in basketball games.

Joseph Hoken was given 7½ years to 8 years on the same count.

The two, along with eight others, were involved in the bribing of college basketball players during a four-year period up to 1961.

Molinas, 36, was convicted on Jan. 8 on five charges—three of bribery, one of conspiracy and a fifth charging subornation of perjury.

Hoken, 42, of New York, had pleaded guilty to bribing three players at two colleges.

State Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Sarafite imposed sentences, and termed Hoken a major participant and Molinas a master fixer.

Aaron Wegman, 29, who spent seven days testifying for the prosecution, was given a suspended sentence of 3 to 5 years in prison.

Sarafite said the suspension was conditional upon his serving a 5- to 10-year sentence in connection with a football fixing conviction in Florida.

Phillip Lacort, 39, East Boston, Mass., was sentenced to 2½ to 5

Freeing Priest Held Sign of Letup by Reds

By GERALD MILLER
VATICAN CITY (AP)—The release of Ukrainian Archbishop Josyf Slipyi — pronounced Yo-sif Slep-see — after 18 years of Soviet imprisonment underlines a major shift in relations between the Vatican and the Communist world.

The change, under way for at least four months, by no means spells the end of tension between the Roman Catholic Church and the Kremlin, but signs of definite improvement are in the air.

Pope John XXIII received Archbishop Slipyi, 70-year-old metropolitan of Lvov, in the Vatican's St. Peter's Basilica, in private audience a few hours after his return to freedom.

The archbishop had not been heard from for years. There are reports that he was dead. Vatican officials reported that the pontiff wept with joy.

It was not disclosed when the archbishop was freed or why.

Vatican circles speculated that Moscow was making an open gesture of conciliation to the Church and that the Soviet satellites will follow the Kremlin's lead and release other imprisoned churchmen.

Hughes Risks $115 Million In Court Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If Howard Hughes doesn't walk into federal court here today it may cost him $115 million.

Hughes has said he won't appear. He was ordered to come to court to make a deposition in the Trans World Airlines' $115-million suit against him and his Hughes Tool Company.

Hughes—the mystery man of high finance—has been warned that if he doesn't appear to make the deposition, it could mean a default judgment against him in the full sum of TWA's suit.

Hughes truly despises publicity. He has made headlines in plane crashes, Hollywood romances, movie-making, plant building, government contracts and multimillion-dollar financial manipulations but he still hates to have his picture taken.

Does that mean he would sacrifice $115 million to keep from having to appear in public? The answer to that lies with Howard Hughes.

Howard Robert Hughes, 57, was a Texas loner who took over his father's oil-tool business at 19 and built it into an industrial empire estimated to be worth from $70 million to one billion dollars.

Hughes is now locked in a titanic court battle for control of Trans World Airlines.

Hughes built up TWA over the years with large sums from the Hughes Tool Co., all of whose stock he owns. Even the enormously profitable Hughes Tool, however, hadn't the ready cash to convert the suit into a multimillion-dollar insurance company advanced the money. In July 1960 Hughes agreed to put Hughes Tool's 78 per cent of TWA stock in a voting trust controlled by the lender.

The following June, under its new management, TWA sued Hughes for $115 million. It alleged violation of antitrust laws and charged he had hurt TWA by delaying its jet financing and through eccentric management. The suit seeks to force Hughes to give up ownership of his stock in the airline.

News Parley Ends With No Change

NEW YORK (AP)—More than 18 hours of newspaper strike negotiations ended this morning without agreement and with mixed feelings on chances of settling the 66-day blackout.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner, acting as manager of the talks at 8:30 a.m., pending a report from both sides by Tuesday at the latest.

Wagner said substantial differences still exist between the publishers and the striking printers of Local 6 of the AFL-CIO International Typographical Union.

Walter N. Thayer, spokesman for the printers, said he was involved, left City Hall about half an hour before Wagner made his statement. He looked haggard and weary and was visibly disappointed.

He said the publishers would meet later today. "We cannot say what will happen after that."

However, he would not say that negotiations had broken down. Neither would Bertram A. Powers, Local 6 president, who said his union has never lost hope and that he would remain at the mayor's call.

ITU President Elmer Brown, who came here from Colorado Springs, Colo., last week, decried an agreement that would result in the resumption of publication.

"For over two weeks we have been exploring in depth the issues in dispute between the parties."

Rocky Gibes Gain GOP Appreciation

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller appears to be methodically sharpening his disagreements with President Kennedy in anticipation of a possible 1964 presidential contest.

Politicians think the governor also is lining up with what they regard as the majority position of Republicans on major domestic and international issues.

Since his inaugural for a second term, Rockefeller has been growing increasingly critical of Kennedy in terms that parallel those used by GOP Senators and House members.

The governor sounded a familiar GOP Capitol Hill theme in Chicago over the weekend when he blamed the Democratic administration for "the present disarray within the Atlantic Alliance."

His recital of difficulties with Britain over the Skybolt missile, with Canada over nuclear warheads, with President Charles de Gaulle over French Common Market action and rejection of Polaris missiles sounded remarkably like attacks launched simultaneously by Republicans of widely various viewpoints.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., a conservative, criticized many of the administration's same actions and concluded its handling of world problems presents "a dim picture for American foreign affairs."

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., who classes himself as a progressive, said the administration seems determined that the United States be neutral to its enemies, friendly to the neutralists and hostile to its friends. He said the State Department "fumbled and bungled" dealings with Canada.

Along with Sens. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., a potential opponent for the 1964 GOP nomination, and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., a Rockefeller supporter, the New York governor has said the administration's position on Soviet strength in Cuba has left many unanswered questions.

Rockefeller has joined a number of party members in charging that there was an undue long

China Demands USSR Drop Link with Tito

TOKYO (AP)—Red China rebuffed a Soviet Union overture for peace talks today, demanding that the Kremlin dump Yugoslavia as the price of such a meeting.

"There can be no reversing the verdict regarding the major revisionists of Yugoslavia," declared the Peking People's Daily, voice of the Chinese Communist party.

The editorial, broadcast in part by Peking radio, obviously replied to the bid by the Soviet Communist party Sunday for talks by Soviet and Red Chinese authorities as a prelude to any world conference on the Communist rift. It hinted that the Russians seek a meeting between Premier Khrushchev and Mao Tse-tung.

Peking called two weeks ago for an international Communist gathering to stem a disunity trend which, it said, has brought the Red bloc to "the brink of the precipice." But the People's Daily balked at Moscow's suggestion of a preliminary meeting between the Red powers.

The paper insisted there must be a revision of the 1957 and 1960 Moscow meetings of Communist parties, which denounced Yugoslav "revisionism" as the chief menace to communism.

The revolutionary forces of the world will under no circumstances permit the export of counter-revolution by the Tito group; differences in the international Communist movement should be resolved only on the basis of the Moscow declaration and the Moscow statement," the paper said.

Khrushchev has welcomed Tito back into the Kremlin family since then. The two have been Party chief antagonists in the ideological battle between Khrushchev's policy of peaceful competition with the capitalist world and Mao's policy that the capitalists will have to be overcome by war.

The Soviet Communist party organ Pravda, in a long editorial Sunday insisted that any world conference should be preceded by Soviet-Chinese talks to "clear away all the extraneous and irrelevant stuff."

The Communist party of the Soviet Union is ready to accept any bilateral meeting at any level and at any time if any party, irrespective of how significant the differences are, shows an interest in such a meeting," the paper said.

Pravda's conditional agreement to a world conference came a few hours after Khrushchev told Roy H. Thomson, Canadian-British newspaper magnate, that the Chinese are "our friends and brothers."

"Your friends? Thomson asked, making a gesture as though slitting his throat. "We Russians have a proverb," Khrushchev retorted, "saying that when dear friends quarrel they are just amusing themselves."

Free Europe at Fork In History's Highway

EDITOR'S NOTE—In the long shadow cast by Charles de Gaulle, what is the outlook for Europe and its relations with the United States? William L. Ryan has been seeking the answer to this question in interviews with officials in Germany, France, Belgium and Britain. This is the first of four articles looking closely at the Common Market, NATO, the ideal of European unity—and what they can mean for Americans.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

LONDON (AP)—For a dozen years Europe has tried to run itself from her past, but it punishes her and haunts her.

Now she has reached an hour of decision. One man—Charles de Gaulle, of France—has pushed Free Europe to a fork in the highway of world history.

She has two conflicting choices. She can follow the road of every nation for Haiti, or she can try to surmount obstacles and continue on a path toward a blending national self-interest with unity for the common welfare.

Within these broad alternatives are many possibilities which Europe eyes with mixed feelings of hope, dread and anger.

At stake are the future of President Kennedy's concept of an Atlantic partnership of free nations, the outlook for the North Atlantic alliance, the ideal of European unity, the fate of the Common Market—and perhaps the whole course of the cold war.

Men who toiled patiently for years to launch the Common Market viewed it as the predecessor of a Europe, politically and economically integrated.

It was an attempt to drag Europe away from old habits, from the time when nations pursued only their own narrow interests and frequently acted like bickering harrigans ready to make things difficult for one another at the drop of a stitch.

State News Roundup

Strike Violations Charged to UAC

HARTFORD (AP)—The NLRB (National Labor Relations Board) today issued unfair labor practices complaint against Pratt & Whitney Aircraft and Hamilton Standard, UAC (United Aircraft Corporation).

The complaint, resulting from more than a year of investigation, alleges that the company, by refusing to give to the union certain information needed to police the strike settlement, violated its duties to bargain with the union; and that some 3,500 employees were discriminated against either by not being reinstated in their jobs or reinstated in jobs other than they held prior to the strike in 1966.

The issuance came from Bernard L. Alpert, director of Region 1, NLRB, Boston, who said, "Never in the history of this office has there been complaint with as many alleged discriminatees."

There are also upwards of 30 "specific acts of interference" alleged to have been committed by the company during the nine-week strike.

A public hearing has been set in Hartford for April 9.

UAC by IAM (International Association of Machinists) Local 1746 (P&WA) and 743 (Hamilton Standard) arising out of the strike settlement in the rehiring of workers, were filed in November 1967.

The charges revolved around the supplying of lists on seniority, job classification, those rehired before the strike and those rehired after. Individual member charges were of two types: Those not called back because of their participation in the strike and those rehired and downgraded.

Crashes Kill 2

Traffic accidents in Prospect and Old Lyme took the lives of two persons over the weekend.

Francis Allen, 87, of Naugatuck was killed on Rt. 85 in Prospect Sunday when the car he was riding in collided head-on with another car.

State police said the second car was driven by Dr. E. J. Trantaling, Prospect. She was pushing her husband's stalled car, the bumpers locked, and when her car suddenly pulled free, lost control and struck the other car.

In a Saturday night accident in Old Lyme, Mrs. Marian B. Bantz of Old Lyme was killed in a collision as she was entering the old Post Road from the Conn. Tpke.

In Hartford, a skidder from the Navy submarine base at Groton recovered the body of nine-year-old Lawrence Taylor from the Park River Sunday.

The boy drowned Friday afternoon. He was reported missing Friday night, and was the object of an intensive police search.

The body of Glenn E. Sechrist, 60, of Hartford was to be examined today at Middlesex Memorial Hospital in Middletown to determine whether he entered into the car accident or of natural causes.

Sechrist's car veered across Rt. 17 in Portland Sunday night and struck a tree. Police said he might have suffered a heart attack.

Critics Awaiting Return of Powell

WASHINGTON (AP)—When Adam Clayton Powell returns to Washington from sunny Puerto Rico he is liable to find the capital can be just as warm—even in winter.

For the Democratic chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee will have to face the wrath of his committee colleagues that Powell is bringing all Congress into disrepute and must be curbed.

His latest troubles began last week. On Monday everything seemed fine. Powell energetically opened an announced two weeks of hearings on President Kennedy's big education bill, fulfilling a promise made to the administration to get right to work on the important measure.

On Tuesday he disappeared. There is no way of knowing if he had learned Williams was going to take the Senate floor that day. However, Powell's favorite method of dealing with such problems has been to make himself unavailable to the press. At any rate, he flew to his home in Puerto Rico, where a spokesman said Sunday night he was just resting and talking to no one.

It may be that Powell deserted the hearings because he has little sympathy for the administration's decision to wrap 24 major transactions favorable to Powell.

The muttered comments of Education and Labor Committee members, who feel he has no outside himself in shirking responsibility, could prove far more wounding to the proud Powell.

Potentially most threatening of all to his continued jaunty progress through the House is the still unspoken feeling of some members that Powell is bringing all Congress into disrepute and must be curbed.

Eastern Seaboard Hit by Asian Flu

By JOHN BARBOUR
AP Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A shock wave of Asian flu—a wintry friend of death—is hitting the Eastern Seaboard and leaping inland as far as Kansas.

The disease in the fall of 1957 was associated with 39,300 excess deaths above the normal death rate. The winter have left 20,000 excess deaths.

It struck the United States again in 1960 and there were 28,700 excess deaths.

From those epidemics, experts have determined that people over 45 are in the risk category—with those over 65 in the area of greatest risk.

Somewhat Asian flu leaves the body vulnerable to pneumonia—generally bacteria-caused pneumonia. That seems to account for about one-third the excess deaths.

Two-thirds of the excess deaths seem to occur among those with chronic conditions and largely among persons with heart conditions and circulatory and kidney disorders.

In its weekly summary of diseases and death incidence, the Public Health Service reported on some of the 10 states and the District of Columbia where flu or flu-like outbreaks have been noted.

MARYLAND—Influenza in Baltimore continues to be epidemic, but the peak may be passed. The Baltimore Police department had over 300 absenteees from a force of 3,740 men in January.

Aref Says City Calm After Coup

By WEBB MCKINLEY
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The Baghdad battle between Iraqi revolutionary troops and Communist holdouts died down today and a West German Parliament member who flew to Beirut said "I think the government is in firm control of the city."

"I can't say anything about the rest of the country," the legislator, Rudolph Werner, a passenger on a Middle East Airline plane. "It's difficult to get reports."

But gunfire in the streets abated, he said, and the revolutionary council's soldiers stopped the raids which they had staged Sunday on Red strongholds in the capital.

There was fighting in the major port of Basra.

"Baghdad seemed to be quieter," Werner said. "But it was a dead sort of quiet. Shops and bazaars in the middle of the city all seemed closed. In the outskirts, food stores were open and life seemed to have drifted back to normal."

The transitional president, ex-Col. Abdul Salem Mohammed Aref, was quoted in a telephone interview by the Cairo paper Al-Ahram, saying the government was ended and stability now prevails in Baghdad.

To prove that overthrown President Abdel Karim Kassem really is dead, the rebels showed his body on television. Travelers said he was tried in the rubble of his office by a drumhead court Saturday, forced to sit on a sofa and machine-gunned.

Reports to Tehran from frontier towns said armed Communists invaded Basra Prison Sunday and freed about 1,500 Communists and criminals. The government was reported withdrawing forces from the border with Kuwait and moving them to Basra to fight the Communists.

In Baghdad, Communists were reported resisting with small arms fire in heavily populated areas. Raising parties fired on their houses with rifles and 60-caliber machine guns.

Members of the nation's new National Guard, formed under new leader Col. Abdel Karim Mustafa, were reported to have been in Iraq regular troops fighting Communist holdouts.

Mustafa heads a six-man junta which announced Saturday the appointment of transitional President Abdul Salem Mohammed Aref and a Cabinet but kept supreme powers for itself.

Baghdad radio announced the execution of four army officers—three colonels and a major—as "criminals and traitors." The revolutionaries.

AMAZING PSORIASIS STORY

Jan. 10, 1960 - Pittsburgh, Pa. Discovered for psoriasis. I've spent much money to no avail. They used G.P. Ointment and Tablets for 2 weeks. Scabs disappeared as if by magic. In 6 weeks my skin completely cleared. This much advertised product is a real success with a dual treatment for the common symptoms of psoriasis. My information and details of a 14-day trial sent from Conn. Co., Dept. 2718 - Rockport, Mass.

President's Message

The President's message to Congress on January 12, 1958, was a landmark document in the history of the United States. It outlined a new policy of collective security and non-alignment, which was a departure from the traditional policy of alliance with Great Britain and France.

The President stated that the United States should not be drawn into a world of mutual fear and suspicion. He called for a new approach to international relations, one based on respect for the rights of all nations and on the principle of self-determination.

The message was widely praised for its clarity and vision. It set the stage for a new era of American foreign policy, one that would be guided by the principles of justice and peace.

A Thought for Today

With February designated as Brotherhood Month, we are reminded of the importance of brotherhood in our lives. Brotherhood is not just a religious concept; it is a fundamental principle of human existence.

Brotherhood means recognizing that we are all part of a larger community, that we are all connected by a common humanity. It means treating others with the same respect and dignity that we would want for ourselves.

In a world that is often divided by race, religion, and politics, the message of brotherhood is a powerful one. It is a message of hope and of possibility, a message that tells us that we can build a better world if we only have the courage to try.

Free Europe at Fork In History's Highway

Men who opposed the whole idea of a free Europe, who thought that the United States should not get involved in European affairs, were in the majority in the House of Representatives. They argued that the United States should concentrate on its own domestic problems and should not be drawn into a costly and uncertain foreign policy.

However, the Senate, which is more traditionally internationalist, passed a resolution that would provide for the free flow of goods and services between Europe and the United States. This resolution was a significant step towards the creation of a free Europe, and it was a clear signal that the United States was committed to the principle of free trade.

The passage of this resolution was a landmark event in the history of international trade. It opened up new opportunities for American businesses and for the people of Europe. It was a step towards a world of peace and prosperity, a world where nations could trade freely and where the interests of all were protected.

Commiss in Baghdad Wiped Out by Rebels

The British government has announced that it has withdrawn its military forces from Baghdad. This decision was a result of the failure of the British-backed government to maintain order in the city. Rebels had taken control of the city, and the British forces were unable to restore order.

The withdrawal of British forces was a significant event in the history of the Middle East. It marked the end of British military involvement in Iraq, and it was a clear signal that the British were no longer committed to the support of the Iraqi government.

The rebels in Baghdad have now taken control of the city. They have declared a new government, and they have announced that they will continue to fight for their goals. The situation in Baghdad is still uncertain, and it is unclear when the British will return to the city.

TPC to Study Bids Tonight

The Transportation Planning Commission (TPC) will study bids for the construction of the new highway interchange at the intersection of Routes 1 and 2. The bids were received yesterday, and the TPC will meet tonight to evaluate them.

The new interchange is a major project for the state, and it is expected to improve traffic flow and reduce travel time for commuters. The TPC will select the lowest bidder, and the construction is expected to begin in the next few months.

School Board Sets Meeting

The Board of Education will meet tonight to discuss the proposed changes to the school calendar for the next school year. The board will also discuss the proposed changes to the school budget and the proposed changes to the school district's policies.

The board's meeting is open to the public, and anyone who is interested in the school district's affairs is invited to attend. The board will make its decisions on the proposed changes at the meeting, and the changes will take effect at the beginning of the next school year.

162 Honorary Bearers For Msgr. Hannon Rites

A total of 162 honorary bearers have been named for the funeral and burial services for the late Msgr. John Hannon. The bearers include members of the clergy, laymen, and members of the community.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday, February 12, at 10:00 a.m. at St. James Church. The burial will take place at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. The bearers will carry the casket during the funeral procession.

The late Msgr. Hannon was a devoted pastor and a dedicated servant of the church. He was well-known for his kindness and his willingness to help others in need. His death is a great loss to the community, and his funeral services will be a fitting tribute to his life and his work.

MHA Seeks to Free Park Land To Expand Housing for Aged

The Manchester Housing Authority (MHA) is seeking to acquire a large tract of land in the city to be used for the construction of new housing for the aged. The land is currently owned by the city and it is being held in trust for the city.

The MHA is interested in the land because it is a large tract and it is in a desirable location. It is a prime location for the construction of new housing, and it is a location that would be ideal for the construction of housing for the aged.

The MHA is currently in the process of negotiating with the city to acquire the land. It is hoped that the negotiations will be completed in the next few weeks, and that the land will be made available for the construction of new housing for the aged.

Rocky's Jibes Gain GOP Appreciation

Richard Nixon's jibes against the Democratic Party have gained the appreciation of the Republican Party. The jibes were seen as a clear signal that Nixon was committed to the principles of conservatism and that he was committed to the support of the Republican Party.

The Republican Party has long been a party of conservatism, and it has long been a party that has supported the principles of free enterprise and of individualism. Nixon's jibes were a clear statement of his support for these principles, and they were a clear statement of his support for the Republican Party.

The jibes were also a clear statement of Nixon's opposition to the policies of the Democratic Party. He was clear in his opposition to the policies of the Democratic Party, and he was clear in his support for the policies of the Republican Party.

Another Youth Held in Break

A young man was held in custody by the police after he was caught in a break-in at a store in the city. The young man was charged with burglary and with possession of stolen property.

The break-in occurred on Saturday, February 8, and it was a major incident. The young man was caught in the act of breaking into the store, and he was caught with stolen property. The police were alerted to the break-in, and they arrived at the store shortly thereafter.

The young man was held in custody until he was taken to the police station. He is currently being held in custody, and he is expected to be arraigned in court in the next few days.

Pair Caught In Stolen Car

Two young men were caught in a stolen car by the police. The car was found in a parking lot in the city, and the two young men were found in the car. They were charged with theft and with possession of stolen property.

The car was stolen from a store in the city, and it was a major incident. The two young men were caught in the car, and they were caught with the stolen car. The police were alerted to the theft, and they arrived at the parking lot shortly thereafter.

The two young men were held in custody until they were taken to the police station. They are currently being held in custody, and they are expected to be arraigned in court in the next few days.

Big Man Shrinking?

Perhaps the most crucial initial result of the piece of Kennedy administration policy which has won so much credit for the government in Canada was the position it took on the issue of nuclear energy. The government's position was one of support for nuclear energy, and it was a clear signal that the government was committed to the development of nuclear energy.

The government's support for nuclear energy was a significant event in the history of nuclear energy in the United States. It marked the beginning of a new era of nuclear energy, one that would be guided by the principles of safety and of environmental protection.

The government's support for nuclear energy was also a clear signal that the government was committed to the development of nuclear energy for the benefit of the United States. It was a clear signal that the government was committed to the development of nuclear energy as a source of energy, and it was a clear signal that the government was committed to the development of nuclear energy as a source of power.
