Voting Heavy By Canadians

TORONTO (AP)—Heavy early balloting aided by generally fine spring weather pointed to a record vote today in Canada's national election which most analysts expect will make Lester B. Pearson, 66, the nation's prime minister.

Pearson, the Liberal party leader, and Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker of the Conservative party cast their ballots in the early voting, described as brisk to heavy in eastern Canada. Both expressed confidence.

Montreal and Ottawa reported the early turnout heavier than in the last election, in June 1965. All parties in Metropolitan Toronto said they were flooded with calls asking for transportation to polling booths. Lines formed before polls opened in many areas.

Turnouts in the Atlantic provinces ranged from poor in parts of sparsely populated Prince Edward Island to heavy in urban areas of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. Quebec reported moderate balloting with the expectation of a last-minute rush.

Qualified observers, after soundings in all 10 provinces, concluded that only a major upset could save Diefenbaker's Conservative party from a drubbing.

Diefenbaker, 67, became prime minister in 1957, ending 22 years of Liberal rule. In 1958 he scored

He said the steel industry suffered because of the federal government's intervention against a price hike a year ago this week. And he said "it is at least an open question whether any action that adversely affects a group of this size does not weaken the economy of the nation."

Blough, in remarks prepared for the Iowa Medical Society, termed himself "a specimen who—almost exactly a year ago—was virtually torn limb from limb as a result of an unfortunate but well-intentioned attempt to have a company try for economic recovery."

Mariani Claims Democratic Insult

HARTFORD (AP)—Senate Democrats have been accused of insulting the Republican leadership in the Upper House. Senate minority leader Peter Mariani made the charge during the weekend. He said the Democrats ignored his selection of a Republican to serve on the bi-partisan compromise committee.

Mariani said he wanted Sen. Aiden A. Ives, R-Morris on the committee, which became necessary when the House and Senate were unable to agree on a deficiency appropriations bill. Both parties turned down versions.

But, instead of Ives, the Democrats selected John A. Minetto, R-Torrington, Mariani said.

Sen. Maurice J. Ferris, chairman of the Senate appropriations committee, a Democrat, denied Mariani's claim.

He said he made the committee appointments and knew nothing of Mariani's preference for Ives. Mariani said he was "abruptly informed" by Senate Majority Leader Louis I. Gladstone of Minetto's appointment.

He warned that the Democrats' action "is bound to lead to retaliation in the House." The House of Representatives is under Republican control.

The committee's job is to work out a compromise on a deficiency appropriations bill snarled in a partisan difference over the teachers retirement fund.

Republicans say the fund has $2 million in available surplus which the state can use to avoid dipping into revenues. Democrats say using a surplus would be tantamount to a raid on teacher retirement funds.

The conference committee will include Sen. Ferland, D-Danielson, and Sen. Samuel Lebon, D-Hartford, and Sen. Minetto. Selection of the House members of the committee has not yet been announced.

Ferland said he picked Minetto because he is the senior Republican member of the appropriations committee. He praised him as a "man of good judgment."

He contrasted the veteran Minetto's experience with Ives, who is serving his second term.

Red Force Strikes in Key Plain

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today Communist forces have committed "a serious violation of the cease-fire" in Laos.

It called on Britain and the Soviet Union for "prompt and effective action to stop the firing."

The State Department statement was issued as official reports began arriving in Washington about an attack by Red forces against neutralist Gen. Kong Le's army in the strategic Plain des Jarres.

Press officer Lincoln White said there is evidence that some Communist troops from neighboring Red North Viet Nam were in on the assault, which he said had been "instigated by the Communist Pathet Lao faction in Laos."

Britain and Russia—plus the three-nation International Control Commission—were called on to halt the first because those two nations are co-chairmen of last year's Geneva conference which worked out the international agreement for an independent neutral Laos.

The agreement provided for withdrawal of outside forces, a provision which White also accused the Reds of violating.

The text of the State Department statement:

"Our information is that the Kong Le neutralist forces have been attacked by pro-Communist Pathet Lao and there are indications that they are supported by some Vietminh military personnel."

"We have no detail or late information on how serious the fighting is in the Plain des Jarres."

"However, the fighting now going on not only appears to be a serious violation of the cease-fire, but if it continues will endanger the implementation of the Geneva accords with all the dire consequences that such a breakdown will mean for Laos."

"In these circumstances we consider it incumbent on the co-chairmen of the Geneva accords and the International Control Commission to take prompt and effective action to stop the fighting which has been instigated by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao and to insure that the cease-fire is restored."

"Such action is essential in order to preserve the independence and neutrality of Laos."

Rome Overrun With Tourists In Holy Week

By BENNETT M. BOLTON
ROME (AP)—Thousands of foreign tourists thronged Rome today attracted by the Holy Week ceremonies that usher in Easter.

Despite a cold spell, the vanguard of seasonal tourists flocked in over the weekend as Palm Sunday opened Christendom's most solemn week.

Government tourism officials said they expected a bigger crowd than last year, when some 100,000 tourists swelled the city.

As usual, the pre-Easter arrivals are predominantly from Germany, France, Scandinavia, Austria and the Netherlands.

Pope John XXIII blessed Palma Sunday in St. Peter's Basilica. He gave his blessing at noon from his apartment window to 50,000 persons—double the usual Sunday crowd—in St. Peter's Square.

Palms were distributed at Masses in Roman Catholic churches throughout the world. In Italy the palms of Palma Sunday actually are olive branches, more plentiful and more traditional.

Roman Catholic dioceses put aside some of the palms each year and burn them. The ashes are used for marking forehead to start the penitential season of

More demonstrations were scheduled today. Blind singer Al Hibbler—"You'll Never Walk Alone" fame—volunteered to help in the desegregation effort.

Airman Held for Crime Starts Out on New Life

By DIAL TORGERSON
SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—The man is slim, prematurely balding. He has heavy-lidded eyes, and a forehead which furrows easily. On the plastic pencil holder in the pocket of his uniform is the name: Jerry.

At 35, as a service station attendant, Gerald M. Anderson is starting what he hopes will be a new life.

A year ago, Anderson was an airman at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. He dropped off a bottle of milk at a neighbor's home—and became the next-to-last person to see Nancy Johnson alive.

The last person to see her killed her and her small son.

The Air Force, convinced that Anderson killed her, grilled him until he agreed to sign a confession. Even after another man admitted the killings, the Air Force kept Anderson for weeks in a military jail.

By the time he was freed, and given a quick discharge, he had been jailed 10 months for a crime all authorities now agree he hadn't committed.

This wasn't the full measure of disaster in the Anderson family.

White Anderson was in jail, his wife, Jane, became pregnant. By the time he was released the baby, not his, was expected soon.

What kind of a life can a man build on ruins like these?

Anderson explained as he wiped the windshield.

"First, I want to go to night school and get my high school diploma. I looked for two weeks before I got this job. I'm just a common laborer. Anything I can do, anybody can do. For every job I can handle, there's a million people who can do the same thing."

"I've got to learn a trade. After seven years in the Air Force I haven't got one. Maybe I'll try bookkeeping."

"But I like this job, for now."

Smog, Smokes Held Harmful To Lung Cells

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Smog, the bans of cities, and cigarette smoke, the pleasure of millions, may have with human lung cells growing in test-tubes, a scientist finds.

Irritants in the smog make the lung cells grow and multiply about as fast as a known cancer-causing chemical does, says Dr. Charles M. Pomeroy of the Pasadena, Calif., Foundation for Medical Research.

Lung cells exposed to cigarette smoke show far more breaks in their chromosomes, the carriers of heredity, than cells not exposed to the smoke, he told an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers. Many agents that break chromosomes, like X rays or chemicals, are known to produce cancers.

This test-tube or tissue culture method of growing lung cells

Nebraska GOP Praises Rocky

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, still insisting he is not a candidate for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, made a tremendous impression on the Executive Committee of the Nebraska Republican party during a week-end Midwest swing.

That appraisal came from State Chairman Robert Denney of Fairbury after Rockefeller met with the committee Saturday afternoon. The things the New Yorker said, Denney commented, "definitely fit in with my definition of a conservative Republican."

Nebraska's conservative Republican segment is large and influential in state politics.

In the evening, Rockefeller got a standing welcome from a big dinner honoring Nebraska Sen. Hruska. The response to his speech was polite but not particularly demonstrative, newsmen agreed. In it, Rockefeller pictured himself as a budget-balancing, fiscally conscious governor.

Earlier in a state address, Rockefeller said achievement of a more rapid rate of economic growth "is our nation's No. 1 domestic problem."

He called for a reduction in corporation taxes from 52 to 47 per cent and a $7.5 billion cut in per-

Goldwater Favors Cuba Exiles' Raids

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater says he favors an economic blockade of Cuba, U.S. support of Cuban exile attacks and as a last resort—an invasion sponsored by the United States and the Organization of American States.

"We should not do it unilaterally," the Arizona Republican said Sunday in a taped radio, television interview. "It should be a multilateral effort, but I think we can accomplish it without our having to commit our own troops."

First, Goldwater said, the United States should blockade Cuba economically and support Cuban exiles bent on sabotage, espionage or invasion by giving them supplies by airift or airdrop if an exile invasion is begun.

Goldwater also endorsed Cuban exile commando raids on Soviet merchant ships. He said of Kennedy administration estimates that such raids are ineffective: "Well, I don't know, I think they killed a few Russians the other day."

Asked if this was helpful, the senator replied:

"It doesn't hurt. If they are not going to take them out of there alive, maybe they are going to take them out of there dead—but that is not up to us, that is up to these Cuban exiles."

Goldwater scored as "cry-babies" those in Washington "who say anything we do against Cuba will result in a nuclear holocaust."

Rusk Cautions SEATO, Cites Laos Tensions

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk accused Communist forces in Laos today of obstructive tactics and warned that tension is rising in the Asian kingdom.

As fighting erupted between neutralist and pro-Communist Pathet Lao troops, Rusk called on the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization to be vigilant.

Rusk told a meeting of SEATO ministers that a "trap and deplorable series of developments has increased tensions in the Plain des Jarres" of east-central Laos. It is there that the Pathet Lao has forced a withdrawal of neutralist forces under Gen. Kong Le.

The secretary said the treaty of Geneva setting up Laos as a neutral land down terms with which the Western powers have complied.

"We are not satisfied, however, that the other side has done so, particularly the requirement that all foreign military forces be withdrawn," Rusk declared.

White House Seen Johnson's Goal in 1968

By JACK BELL and JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson regards his office as "either a stepping stone nor a barrier" to winning election to the presidency.

Johnson is not saying so, but evidence is accumulating that the No. 2 elective man in the government is pacing himself with prudent steps toward availability for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1968.

This presumes, of course, that he will be retained in second place on the ticket next year when President Kennedy will be running again and there is no existing evidence that he will not be.

Johnson furnished an insight into his political stance, as well as his views on world and domestic problems, in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says he favors an economic blockade of Cuba, U.S. support of Cuban exile attacks and—as a last resort—an invasion sponsored by the United States and the Organization of American States.

"We should not do it unilaterally," the Arizona Republican said Sunday in a taped radio, television interview. "It should be a multilateral effort, but I think we can accomplish it without our having to commit our own troops."

First, Goldwater said, the United States should blockade Cuba economically and support Cuban exiles bent on sabotage, espionage or invasion by giving them supplies—by airlift or drop if an exile invasion is begun.

Goldwater also endorsed Cuban exile commando raids on Soviet merchant ships. He said of Kennedy administration estimates that such raids are ineffective: "Well, I don't know, I think they killed a few Russians the other day."

Asked if this was helpful, the senator replied: "It doesn't hurt. If they are not going to take them out of there alive, maybe they are going to take them out of there dead—but that is not up to us, that is up to these Cuban exiles."

Goldwater scored as "cry-babies" those in Washington "who say anything we do against Cuba will result in a nuclear holocaust."

Rusk Cautions SEATO, Cites Laos Tensions

PARIS (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk accused Communist forces in Laos today of obstructive tactics and warned that tension is rising in the Asian kingdom.

As fighting erupted between neutralist and pro-Communist Pathet Lao troops, Rusk called on the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization to be vigilant.

Rusk told a meeting of SEATO ministers that "a tragic and deplorable series of developments has increased tensions in the Plaine des Jarres" of east-central Laos. It is there that the Pathet Lao has forced a withdrawal of neutralist forces under Gen. Kong Le.

The secretary said the treaty of Geneva setting up Laos as a neutral laid down terms with which the Western powers have complied.

"We are not satisfied, however, particularly the requirement that all foreign military forces be withdrawn," Rusk declared.

Red Force Strikes in Key Plain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department said today Communist forces have committed "a serious violation of the cease-fire" in Laos.

It called on Britain and the Soviet Union for prompt and effective action to stop the firing.

The State Department statement was issued as official reports began arriving in Washington about an attack by Red forces against neutralist Gen. Kong Le's army in the strategic Plaine des Jarres.

Press officer Lincoln White said there is evidence that some Communist troops from neighboring Red North Viet Nam were in on the assault, which he said had been "instigated by the Communist Pathet Lao faction of Gen. Kong Le's army in the strategic Plaine des Jarres."

Britain and Russia — plus the three-nation International Control Commission — were called on to halt the first, because those two nations are co-chairmen of this year's Geneva conference which worked out the international agreement for an independent neutral Laos.

The agreement provided for withdrawal of outside forces, a provision which White also accused the Reds of violating.

The text of the State Department statement: "Our information is that the Kong Le neutralist forces have been attacked by pro-Communist Pathet Lao and there are indications that they are supported by some Vietminh military personnel."

"We have no detail or idea information on how serious the fighting is in the Plaine des Jarres."

However, the fighting now going on not only appears to be a serious violation of the cease-fire, but if it continues will endanger the implementation of the Geneva accord with all the dire consequences that such a breakdown will mean for Laos.

"In these circumstances we consider it incumbent on the co-chairmen of the Geneva accord and the International Control Commission to take prompt and effective action to stop the fighting which has been instigated by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao and to insure that the cease-fire is restored."

"Such action is essential in order to preserve the independence and neutrality of Laos."

Bulletins Culled from AP Wires

GOLDWATER DRAFT STARTS WASHINGTON (AP) — Formation of a national committee to draft Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., as the 1964 Republican presidential candidate was announced today.

Peter O'Donnell Jr., Texas Republican state chairman and head of the group, described Goldwater as a man with "political sex appeal" who can win the South away from the Democrats and help Republicans sweep Congress in 1964.

CRASH KILLS FIVE BALTIMORE (AP) — Five 14-year-old girls in a convertible were killed today when the car collided with a Baltimore Transit Co. bus. The driver of the car was seriously injured.

SOVIET NOTE MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union handed the United States a note today and diplomatic sources said it concerned the North Atlantic Treaty Organization alliance nuclear weapons and West German. Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko handed the note to U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler. Details weren't disclosed.

ASK TRIAL TRANSFER BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A Birmingham attorney asked today that the trial of 41 Negro demonstrators be transferred to U.S. District Court on the grounds that they couldn't get a fair trial in Recorder's Court.

Judge G. H. Brown recessed court to consider the motion by William N. Kunstler.

BRITAIN BARS BRUCE LONDON (AP) — American comedian Leany Bruce was barred from entering Britain today on the ground it would be against public interest. Bruce was turned back at London Airport after arriving from New York.

White House Seen Johnson's Goal in 1968

By JACK BELL and JOHN CHADWICK WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson regards his office as "neither a stepping stone nor a barrier" to winning election to the presidency.

Johnson is not saying so, but evidence is accumulating that the No. 2 elective man in the government is pacing himself with prudent steps toward availability for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1968.

This premonition, of course, that he will be retained in second place on the ticket next year when President Kennedy will be running again and there is no existing evidence that he will not be.

Johnson furnished an insight into his political stance, as well as his views on world and domestic problems, in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press.

Contest Appears Tight For 35th Oscar Awards

By JAMES BACON AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — They hand out the Oscars tonight, and the 25th annual Academy Awards look closer than a National League pennant race.

For instance, each nominee for best actress is strong enough to win. There can be no upsets among Bette Davis ("Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?"), Lee Remick ("Days of Wine and Roses"), Katharine Hepburn ("Long Day's Journey Into Night"), Anne Bancroft ("The Miracle Worker") and Geraldine Page ("Sweet Bird of Youth").

Sentiment for Miss Davis to become the first three-time star winner gives her a slight edge. The race is just as tight among the men. Greg Peck, Jack Lemmon and Peter O'Toole are hitting the wire neck-and-neck. Marcello Mastroianni and Burt Lancaster are not far behind.

Peck and O'Toole have the backing of nominated pictures — "To Kill a Mockingbird" and "Days of Wine and Roses"; Mastroianni ("Divorce — Italian Style") and Lancaster ("Birdman of Alcatraz") are going, it on their own.

There's a lot of talk, as always, for a landslide for best picture

Powell Will Retain Post as Minister NEW YORK (AP) — Congressman-clergyman Adam Clayton Powell Jr. has withdrawn his resignation as pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist church in Harlem and announced he will continue in the post without pay.

Powell, a Negro, Democratic leader in Harlem as well as pastor of Harlem's biggest congregation, said that malicious attacks on him had led him to change his mind about quitting the pulpit. He had announced months ago that he planned to quit.

Powell did not detail the attacks he said he was under.

Stockholders Await SEC's Final Report

NEW YORK (AP)—The rank and file of the 17 million Americans who own stocks are waiting for the Securities and Exchange Commission to drop the other shoe.

Its first report Wednesday on securities markets touched mainlines on the malfunctions of stock salesmen and their sales practices. But the changes suggested have not affected brokerage houses more than most of their customers.

The SEC's opinion of the conduct of the major stock exchanges and the even larger over-the-counter market, of mutual funds, margin requirements and last week's stock market break are still to be spelled out. By June 30, if anything is to be done, May's stock market break will have a much better explanation, and more importantly perhaps, how they must happen to the way they buy or sell securities, and more importantly perhaps, how they must happen to the way they buy or sell securities.

The SEC is going out of its way to reassure the investing public that the great majority of stock transactions and dealer practices are free of fraud, in spite of the relatively few abuses it spotlighted.

And relief that the government's watchdog had done this, stockbrokers and professional investors had been led in advance to understand it would—apparently caused a modest stock market recovery Wednesday afternoon.

Y members and guests are invited. A baby sitter will be available. Mrs. Harold Treash, Mrs. B. R. Bilis, Mrs. Alden Grant and Mrs. Waido DuCharme will serve as hostesses.

Alvin Skoog Poster Entry State Winner

Alvin Skoog of Rose Lane, a Rhawn High School student, has won the second prize of $125 in state judging in the "Hire the Handicapped" poster contest sponsored by the State Department of Labor.

He was also first award winner in local competition, in which two other Rhawn students won prizes. Skoog will receive a $15 prize given by the Disabled American Veterans. Paul Anderson, who won the second place award will be given a $10 prize by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. George Monson, first place winner, will receive a certificate of merit.

The state awards will be presented at the Connecticut State Employment Service, Willimantic office Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Skoog will receive his award at a luncheon at the Stetson Hilton in Hartford on April 11. Also invited are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Skoog; Alvin D. Spaulding, principal of Rhawn, and Mrs. Frederick Wythe, art teacher.

The Andover Fire Department responded to three calls this weekend. One of the calls was for the emergency truck, which took Mrs. Janet Juruvoy of Juruvoy Rd. to the Manchester Memorial Hospital on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Juruvoy suffered a fall from a shoulder after being thrown from a horse.

Firemen were called Saturday night to extinguish a grass fire at the Anderson property at Wheeling and East Windsor. The fire was believed to have been caused by sparks from an outdoor incinerator.

Another grass fire broke out Sunday afternoon on a large property on Townsend Rd. The origin of the fire was undetermined. Fire Chief J. Russell Thompson has issued a reminder that residents must obtain a permit

3 IN THE FAMILY ROOM, everybody likes to relax. Especially Dad. You can imagine how he'll appreciate having a desk phone handy—no more scrambling up the stairs. (P.S.—Extensions are a great idea anywhere!)

Advance Notices

We have a pleased feeling that one gets from seeing a man or priest in a habit in real life getting hold of a hat and belting one over the outfield—when the Vatican that austere and holy institution, reaches for the publicity gimmick and uses it with considerable expertness. It is one suspects, the youthful and practical spirit of that grand old man, Pope John XXIII, inspiring one more piece of revolution.

Its object amount, at any rate, have been to obtain advance publicity for the encyclical Pope John is scheduled to address to the world this week.

The device the Vatican has been using is that familiar to publicity experts in many fields. In the past few days, there have been rather surprising "advance leaks" of the various things the document might say. Some of these advance tips have been so "authoritative" and from such "reliable sources" that they have somehow been able to put quotation marks around some of the phrases they may be likely to be found in the encyclical when it is finally made public, toward the middle of the week.

All this would indicate a double objective, one being to advertise in advance and thus gain wider attention for some of the things the Pope is going to say, the other being, perhaps, to dilute, in advance, the sense of shock which might come if the Pope were to be found saying the things he is going to say without any advance warning.

What are the big advance "leaks" from this encyclical? Well, its title is to be "Pascen in Terris" or "Pascen on Earth."

All the important things suggest one uniform direction for the Pope's thinking and teaching. And this is that he goes rather far toward full acceptance of the idea of one common sovereignty and temporal power for all mankind, with the law to be vested in some "world political community" which some might call a "super state" and with the enforcement of that degree of law necessary to prevent war and permit human survival to be vested in an international police force owing its allegiance to no temporal sovereignty other than that of such a world state.

All this, it is true, means that Pope John is about to become more explicit and direct in his call for an end to the importance of national sovereignties than any world leader of comparable stature and power has yet done.

If, by its advance "leaks" of things he may be about to say, the Vatican has been seeking to focus our expectant attention on the power and persuasiveness of the language Pope John uses, the effectiveness and courage with which he develops his arguments, the potential change his words may work in the habit and behavior of men and nations, we would say that this press agency is achieving something of its designated objective. There has been an audience prepared.

One reason there will be an audience surely waiting, now that the alert has been cleverly given, is that this Pope, in his all but brief term of leadership, has already established himself as one of perhaps only two world figures who can be given credit for thinking in free and absolute terms about the problems of our world. He has a mind of his own, not conditioned and prepared by public opinion polls, not arranged or acquired by the unimportant superficialities of one particular time in history, but capable of applying what he feels to be fundamental truths to the modern world he finds when he looks out from his balcony.

Only Charles de Gaulle sometimes seems to be quite as much of a man, being formidable even when one disagrees with him. We recall "Pascen in Terris."

Washington also has practical reasons which have led it to exert to much pressure that it has not succeeded in convincing General Park he has to change his mind, and hold an election after all. Washington calculated the continued military rule, instead of guaranteeing peace and unity for South Korea, would merely increase its atmosphere of military crisis. And it calculated, even more seriously, that if the army alone continued to be the only source of power in South Korea, the army itself would soon be so involved in the playing of politics, with its own political factions, that it wouldn't have much fighting capacity left against the threat of a possible invasion from Communist North Korea. For all these reasons Washington apparently led General Park to believe that if he didn't agree to hold elections we would be forced to cut our military and economic aid to South Korea so much that not even General Park's military dictatorship would be able to keep the country stable. As we can still get South Korea to take orders from us. It is too bad we still have to keep giving it. YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Person To Person

We were reading that the bicycle built by the wind and pedals was not invented until 1839, and it was a model similar to today's 34 years before the bicycle was even born. It was even better than the bicycle we know today. It was the self-propelled velocipede, or "boneshaker," as it was called in 1816, someone brought out a motorcycle powered by a steam engine. It never became very popular, and it is a pity that we have never heard the name. How would you like to be sitting astride a presurized tank of steam mounted directly under your seat? But with the introduction of motorcycles, the thing like those of today that "laughed" and by 1899 the motorcycle and automobile began displacing the bicycle for adult transportation. Most of us have heard the cliché, "It isn't the cost, but the upkeep that's the cost but the place where you buy that can mean most to you. In many a purchase the product or service itself is only HALF the purchase. The other half is the amount of attention to details given by the dealer and the care he is concerned for your continued welfare. If that is not completely fulfilled, the cost to you can be great indeed to you. We import the complete promise you complete fulfillment of this most important purchase. The five-year-old Our Savior Lutheran parish in South Windsor is now worshipping and teaching in its contemporary new church and school building on Graham Rd. Acting as its own general contractor, the parish has built the two-story structure seating 250 worshippers and containing nine classrooms. Although much of the work was sub-contracted, a phenomenal amount was done by the parishioners. Many of the volunteers did unfamiliar jobs, picking up nails as they worked. The Rev. Walter L. Abel, commenting on this contribution, said they had the "motivation and patience" to enable them to produce quality results.

Facing east on Graham Rd., the building presents a Georgia white marble facade with a three-paned surface. Set into the wall of the marble masonry is a large mosaic portrait of Christ with his arms spread palms open and outward in a welcoming gesture.

A large free-standing cross dedicated on Nov. 19, 1961 in memory of Mrs. Anna Galinet, the first deceased member of the parish stands north of the church. On this side is the main entrance to the tee-shaped building.

Entering the spacious narthex which runs almost the complete width of the building, the visitor gets his first view of the church interior, furnished in light oak and red carpeting.

Dominating the church, however, is the interior of the rough-cut Georgia marble front wall. Laid up in the reverse of the exterior wall, the interior wall catches the light from two narrow side windows, set in full length at right angles to the marble. The resulting diffraction

Part of the lower level area which would otherwise be used, perhaps for storage because it lacks windows, is furnished and equipped as a projection room. The parish organized by the Rev. Walter L. Abel, held its first worship service at Wapping School on April 13, 1958. In November 1959 the parish bought the 5 1/2-acre site on which it has built the church. In May 1960 it bought the building and installed the Rev. Mr. Abel as its first pastor.

Under his guidance, the actual construction project began last May. The church was dedicated on Feb. 24 in services that began at Wapping School where the building for education rather than five full years.

Goldwater Favors Cuba Exiles' Raids

(Continued from Page One) "It will not," he said. "Russia is not going to risk losing her world empire over a tiny island in the Caribbean." He acknowledged that "Russia might start a diversionary effort, maybe in Iran or Berlin or something like that," but insisted no risk of a major war would be involved in any sort of U.S. action against Cuba.

Goldwater accused President Kennedy of "doing everything in his power" to keep the flag of the Cuban exiles "from ever flying over Cuba again."

Two other senators, Democrats from Thurnmont of South Carolina and Clair Engle of California, differed over President Kennedy's move to curtail exiles' sorties.

Engle said the President is right in trying to halt raids and attacks from this country by Cuban exiles. "These self-starters go to speak, can get us into a lot of trouble," he said in a taped television interview.

In Miami, Cuban rebel sources said unclassified U.S. and British efforts to halt their commands activities had dealt a crippling blow to their movement to rid Cuba of communism.

The State Department denied Florida report that this country is working to resume diplomatic relations with the Castro regime. A spokesman said the report "is just not correct."

The Pompano Beach Sun-Sentinel said Cuban underground sources in Miami said they were told that James H. Dornan has been leaving the grounds for reorganizing the U.S. Embassy while negotiating for release of prisoners now in Cuba. The source said that word came in a coded message.

Though, who did not mention Kennedy by name in his talk to day, said "No one in government—no matter how highly placed, how well-advised or how sincere his belief—should interfere with the business decisions of our people."

He said those who thought that production would rise enough to make up for rising production costs, "were doomed to disappointment."

"The profits for the industry in 1962, in spite of some increase in production, were below even the 1961 results of 1961. Employment was down and three major companies in the industry were forced to reduce dividends," he added.

Teacher Statistician system, and the teachers in that system. I do not particularly believe the salary schedule is the petty bubbling involved with it, but I like teaching and am dedicated to teach in spite of all this. I do, however, believe low teaching salaries tend to subordinate education.

At the conclusion of the budget hearing meeting held at the Wadsworth School I was astonished and taken a little back in witnessing somewhat a reminiscence of our town meetings under the selectman type form of government held in the old high school on Main St. prior to the year 1947.

As a staunch Democrat my board was shattered in knowing that the majority members of said board of directors have an awful lot to learn in conducting a hearing or meeting at which expression of opinions can be given on any subject matter.

I don't always agree with Town Manager Richard Martin, but at the same time he deserves respect of the post he holds. I just didn't like the manner Dr. Moran used in hitting Mr. Martin below the story line with such shrill and derogatory statements. Respecting you as a doctor and one of our own I am not out of order if I honestly believe an apology in the public arena is owed to me.

It takes a good man to admit he's been wrong, but believe you me, doctor, it will tend to make you more respected than ever.

If you don't care to follow my instructions, it might do some good in finding a solution by patching up your friendship with Mr. Martin by having Mr. Martin request a six months leave of absence from Mr. Curtis, superintendent.

2 Assemblymen Back Equalized Grand List Bill

Rep. Paul Groobert of Manchester has notified Frederick C. Nasiff, president of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, that he will "do everything in my power" to work toward passage of the equalized grand list bill for education.

Rep. Groobert replied to Nasiff's letter from the chamber which said the chamber's board of directors favors the bill, now pending in the state Legislature.

Rep. Groobert says the other Manchester representative, Steve Cavagnaro, will also give the bill "his unqualified support."

He says, "I wish to call to your attention and to the attention of the chamber that there appears to be a movement afoot to delay not only the proposal of the much-needed medical and dental school in our state, but also the passage of the equalized grand list proposal which is based in part upon a survey made by the state tax department."

"I refer specifically to a resolution proposed by Rep. Noyes of Farmington requesting an investigation of certain aspects of the medical-dental site at Farmington," says Rep. Groobert.

"Unfortunately, he has seen fit to make part of his investigation the survey by the state tax department as it relates to the equalized grand list. It is my feeling that it is his purpose and the purpose of others in the House, particularly the majority party of the House, to not only kill the medical-dental school, but also any equalized grand list approach to state aid to education."

He asks that the chamber and "every civic-minded citizen" support the equalized grand list and the proposed school.

HERE NOW IN THE MANCHESTER-ROCKVILLE AREA A FASTER, EASIER WAY TO DIAL LONG DISTANCE CALLS JUST DIAL "1" INSTEAD OF "112"

Here's an important improvement in telephone service for everyone listed in the Manchester-Rockville telephone book. Starting now, you need dial only the numeral "1"—instead of "112"—to be connected to our direct distance dialing equipment. Then proceed with your call in the usual way. For example: To dial long distance calls within Connecticut, just dial "1" and then the telephone number you wish to reach. To dial calls outside of Connecticut, just dial "1" then the area code, followed by the telephone number.

P.S. All-Numeral Telephone Numbers Are Here Now, Too! Remember, your number in the new Manchester-Rockville telephone directory has a new look. Instead of two letters and five figures, all numbers have seven figures. For example, a number like MI 3-9299 becomes 698-9299. Please check your new directory before making local calls. The new numbering system is needed because of rapid telephone growth. As more and more telephones go into use, there aren't enough usable combinations of letters and numbers to keep pace.

Instead of two letters and five figures, all numbers have seven figures. For example, a number like MI3-9259 becomes 303-9259. Please check your new directory before making long distance calls. This new numbering system is needed because of rapid telephone growth. As more and more telephones go into use, there aren't enough simple combinations of letters and numbers to keep pace.
