As You Like It

By JUDITH MACKOWN

The winner of the Manchester Fine Art Association scholarship this year plans to become an architect. John Juras, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Juras, 68 Bradford St., will study architecture at the Rhode Island School of Design.

John took three art courses at Manchester High School, including Art I and II, and an art appreciation course. His teacher, Mrs. George Bland, staged him out to recommend to the Fine Art Association for the scholarship.

John was started, he said, that the second semester of his senior year ended so well. At the beginning of the year, he took a job clerking at a Manchester grocery store, and his marks slipped to C's. Then in the third quarter, he contracted mononucleosis, which set his studies back further.

He is looking forward to the course of study at Rhode Island School of Design, which has changed in the past two years, he said.

Instead of an entire curriculum of fine and applied arts, he said, the curriculum now includes two years of liberal arts education. The school has added about 30 more teachers in the past two years to effect the expansion.

The architecture course has two years of liberal arts and three years of specialized study.

John is the recipient not only of the Manchester Fine Art Association award. Two weeks ago he was chosen for the DeVos Art Guild scholarship of $140, as the student most likely to succeed in an art field.

Monks are all Buddhists and we must work together, one said. On the surface little seems to have changed. Monks rise with the first clang of the temple bell at 4:30 a.m.

New ideas about Buddhist activities have brought radios, tape recorders, loudspeaker systems, telephones and pickup trucks to the ancient pagodas. When Quang Duc died, monks with cameras photographed the scene.

Aides Cutting Vibration in Titan Rocket

By Ralph Dighton
NORTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The alo-launched, super-powered Titan 2 is ready for war—but not for its prime peacetime job: lofting the two-man Gemini capsule into space.

The Air Force and the civilian space agency have begun intensive research to reduce bone-rattling vibrations set up during the burning of Titan 2's 430,000-pound-thrust strap-on boosters. They say they are close to solving the problem.

These longitudinal vibrations are enough to bounce an astronaut up and down so hard he would have difficulty operating his controls for several critical seconds during launch. They do not interfere with Titan 2's effectiveness as a missile.

The Titan 2 is the core around which huge solid rockets will be strapped to form Titan 3 — a powerful booster for many types of space vehicles, such as the X-30 "Orion" orbital glider.

Brig. Gen. John L. McCoy, Titan 2 boss in the ballistic systems division here, acknowledges the vibration problem, but says he is confident it will be solved.

Three Films Based Upon Bomb Peril

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ready to be scared? Three major movies about future perils of the nuclear age will be in the theaters within a year.

They are: "Fall-Safe," "Seven Days in May" and "Dr. Strangelove; Or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb." All are based on noted novels. All are getting the push of stellar casting and realistic filming.

"Fall-Safe" and "Dr. Strangelove" are Columbia releases. That would seem curious, since they bear a seemingly identical theme: the frantic efforts of the heads of the United States and the Soviet Union to head off a nuclear war.

The reason for the pair under Columbia's banner appears to be legal. "Fall-Safe," from the best-seller by Eugene Burdick and Harvey Wheeler, was planned as an independent film by a new company headed by Mike Young.

Complications arose from a suit by Peter George, who claimed the "Fall-Safe" plot copied his novel "Red Alert," in which "strangelove" was based.

"Fall-Safe" became a Columbia release, and it is expected that the suit will be dropped. The film was shot recently in New York with Sidney Lumet directing Henry Fonda, Dan O'Herlihy, Walter Matthau and others.

"Fall-Safe" is a straight drama, based on an accidental triggering of the nuclear war. The president (Fonda) then works feverishly from his bomb shelter to prevent the utter devastation of the earth.

In "Strangelove" the war is started by a psychotic Air Force general. But the film is apparently played for laughs.

"It is a nightmare comedy," says director Stanley Kubrick ("Lolita").

His laughmakers include Peter Sellers in multiple roles as president, etc., George C. Scott, Sterling Hayden and Keenan Wynn. The film is nearing completion at Shepperton Studios in England.

Freddie March has been elected president of "Seven Days in May," Paramount's entry in the nuclear-scary pic. Based on the Fletcher Knebel-Charles Malott bestseller, it portrays an attempted takeover of the White House by militarists in the 1950s.

Burt Lancaster is the power-hungry general, Kirk Douglas the Marine colonel who enters out the shot and Edmund O'Brien the Georgia senator who helps the president. Dick Van Dyke is the president's aide, John Frankenheimer ("Manchurian Candidate") is directing.

New Housing Seen Totalling 1962 Volume

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Mortgage funds are readily available in most sections of the nation despite tightening of credit in the short-term money markets. And building of housing units this year should about equal last year's volume, while other construction is expected to rise above 1962.

Encouraged by modern liberalized mortgage financing and rising postwar incomes, the Minneapolis-based firm expanded its United States home ownership in nearly 100 per cent since the end of World War II. But in those same 17 years, the annual toll of defaulted residential mortgages resulting in foreclosures has soared more than 700 per cent.

The figures are: At the end of the war 18 million nonfarm families owned their homes; today 21 million do. But in 1962 more than 86,000 nonfarm houses were foreclosed, the highest total since 1959 and capping 19 straight annual increases. Official estimates put foreclosures in the first three months of 1963 at 23,000, compared with 21,000 in the like period of 1962.

The insurance company blames the trouble in the "old American custom of over-eating a good thing in this case the easing of mortgage credit to encourage home ownership."

It reports that at per cent of the nation's homes were mortgaged in 1960 for an average of 42 per cent of their value. Today more than 60 per cent are mortgaged at an average of more than 50 per cent of their value.

In the field of commercial construction Dr. Peterson notes two trouble spots this year—"reports of difficulty in finding tenants for steadily increasing supply of office space in New York and some other areas of the country, and a cutback in the construction of new shopping centers."

But completion of the large number of projects begun last year will keep 1963's total at about the same level.

And he looks for industrial construction to improve in the months ahead, as well as greater activity in public construction. Adding them all up, the New York banker looks for $62.5 billion of construction this year, 2 per cent higher than last year's record. The funds are available, the urge to build or to own one's own home is still high—and the mortgage terms are still attractive.

lary its Archduke Otto, the German emperor, was crowned in Vienna. Austria still had a Hapsburg emperor, has been banished from that same Austria.

But a mere 45 years is nothing. The Hapsburgs built their first state—their very name means "of the Alps"—in 1027. Rudolph became Emperor of Germany in 1273, and his descendants became Holy Roman Emperors and Emperors of Austria and some-times of Spain as well. They had a rough time of it when Napoleon came along and, after Napoleon, Russia seemed to be flowing into Central Europe, but the Congress of Vienna rescued them in 1815, and they lasted another century, until another all-European con-quest resulted, in 1918, in revolution that could not withstand.

Since then, 45 years have passed, in which Austria has encoun-tered various fates and phases in-cluding a conquest by pressure and intrigue by Hitler. But at the moment Austria might seem as remote as Hawaii, but not as far from the center of the world as it has ever been.

Then, just the other day, an Austrian court handed down the decision which upheld the legal right of Otto von Habsburg, the last Hapsburg emperor, to resume his rights of citizenship in his own country. And, by the tremors of fear and alarm and controversy which have been running through Austria's political life ever since, the last 45 years have indeed been a mere nothing, and the Hapsburg centuries still have a very real and ominous position overshadowing Austrian life.

In the Austrian Parliament, a narrow majority has voted for the preparation of a law which will strip permanent and legal habi-tation against any return by Otto. Even the imprint of his foot on Austrian soil, the shuddering po-litical sentiment seems to indicate, would be a dangerous privilege to permit him. Meanwhile, Otto him-self is discreetly out of the country, making many engagements about the world that he couldn't even find time for any trip to Austria, even were it permitted, before next October at the latest.

If he has inherited any wisdom at all, Otto, along with his castled traditions and purple blood, what he really wants is to be a peaceful tourist, and let somebody else try to rule.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the House today, the House is expected to vote today on a proposed $47,000,000 defense budget, which has brought on a battle of words between the Pen-tagon and Capitol Hill.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has complained that the $3-billion reduction from what he requested will cost the army forces 40,000 men and tactical airpower.

"Bum!" retorted Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., who describes him-self as usually a McNamara fan. He advised his House colleagues Tuesday that the wastepaper basket was the place for a Pentagon news release protesting the Ap-propropriation Committee's slashes in the budget.

Flood contended that McNama-ra may have been misinformed by "one of those fast-talking, long-haired jokers down there that he surrounds himself with."

CITIZEN: Senate Democratic Lead-er Mike Mansfield has cautioned senators trying a tougher policy toward Cuba that they had better be prepared "to go all the way."

Sen. Carl F. Curtis, R-Ieb., and some other GOP senators advo-cated Tuesday a "specific block-ade" of the island.

A blockade, or an invasion, would be an act of war, said Mansfield, and advocates of such action should realize what they are proposing.

He said it would be possible for six American divisions to invade Cuba but that supporters of Prime Minister Fidel Castro then would carry on guerrilla warfare from the hills. It also would require a long and costly occupation, he said.

Curtis argued that "a blockade

Who's For Tomorrow?

There was nothing new in President de Gaulle's announce-ment in announcing that France was taking its Atlantic fleet units out from under NATO command some time ago, de Gaulle had taken France's Mediterranean units out of the NATO organiza-tion.

But even before de Gaulle him-self was in power, France had modied its supposed NATO com-mitments by taking Army units originally supposed to be under NATO command and in NATO rightlines out of NATO, but not in their use in Algeria.

By such precedents, the latest announcement from President de Gaulle was nothing really new in the way of policy.

What it did have was timing. The announcement was timed to coincide, quite perfectly, with the moment President Kennedy was willing to go to Harrow, but not to French soil. And it was an announce-ment timed to cast its shadow on the American President, who was going to be talking to some of our European allies, but not to de Gaulle, about ending the NATO framework for letting them play with some of our nuclear weapons.

President Kennedy, asked about this French fleet withdrawal dur-ing his press conference at Bonn, responded nicely by emphasizing that the important thing was that France should keep its units in good fighting trim. He did not doubt, he said, that in event of trouble, they would be on the right side.

But on such a basis, of course, there was never any sense in an- nouncing a thing called NATO, and there is no sense in trying to main-tain it, if it is to be used, in his effort to give supreme assurance to Chancellor Adenauer and the people of Europe reassured to the simple kind of statement—we will fight any attack on Western Eu-rope as if it were an attack upon ourselves—which the late Senator Taft once considered better and more sensible and just as binding as all the diplomatic and organiza-tional fol-de-rol of NATO.

The irony in this three-way re-lationship between Kennedy, Adenauer and de Gaulle is that each of them really takes any clear aim at the future.

Chancellor Adenauer is in the past, with no look forward of any kind.

President Kennedy is trying to free himself from the straitjacket of fixed cold war policy in which Adenauer wants to remain forever. But Kennedy himself doesn't know how to break out of the NATO formula and the myth that NATO is really a sound and enduring military alliance. As for de Gaulle, he shows President Kennedy trying to get out of the outworn NATO fol-de-rol, which de Gaulle does by the grand simple act of just walk-ing out. But the historic conclu-sion to this bit of de Gaulle real-ism and common sense is that de Gaulle, after he shakes the dust of NATO off his feet, and thumbs his nose at the United Nations too, for good measure, hands straight into his own strategic situation which seems to be that the reign of Charlemagne is about to begin again.

Both de Gaulle and Kennedy, in contrast to Adenauer, do have some instinct to speak for tomor-row. But even they have one foot chained in anachronism.

Here Instant Harburg Time

And then there are those cir-cumstances in which the passage of many years seems to constitute an instantaneous day.

To us, it may seem to be some span of years, suggesting some-thing from 1918 to 1968—this being the years in which the House of Hapsburg, and particu-with private property rights." Kennedy said, "Ironically, are often those who most stoutly de-fend the laws, not by a num-ber of states which forbid Negroes to be served.

"The difference is not one of property rights, but of the color of the customer's skin. That dif-ference is called racial discrimi-nation."

Many federal laws—such as the Fair-Housing Act, minimum wage law and Sherman Antitrust Act—regulate privately owned busi-nesses, Kennedy said. And 30 states already have laws forbidding own-ers of private business from dis-criminating against customers on the basis of race.

Kennedy next promoted the ad-ministration plan to speed achiev-ing the goal of ending racial dis-crimination in schools, he said.

"The call to Congress is not merely for a law, nor does it come only from the President."

"This bill springs from the peo-ple's desire to correct a wrong which has been allowed to exist too long in our society. It comes from the basic sense of justice in the hearts of all Americans."

Until the laws of Negro un-rest rose suddenly last spring, the ad-

WATERBURY (AP)—"Do you want further redevelopment and urban renewal with federal as-sistance in Waterbury at this time?"

The answer to this question was by a 10,928 to 6,836 vote at a referendum yesterday.

"I can't say this has changed my opinion," said Mayor Edward E. Steglin, leading opponent of re-de-velopment, "but the decision has been made by the people and we will have redevelopment."

Steglin noted that the 30 per cent voter turnout was "exceptionally good in a referendum of this kind."

Bergin went so far as to veto the "B-2 Expansion" project some time ago in his opposition to re-de-velopment, but his action was overruled last week by the Bu- reau of Public Works.

Although the Democratic mayor opposed it vigorously, some mem-bers of his party cam-paigned for it with equal vigor.

The voting pattern tendenc-ies, Redevelopment received 70 per cent of the vote.

THE Doctor Says

LEARN TO MAKE MOST OF OUR AIR-CONDITIONING

By Wayne G. Bransford, M.D., Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

We are in the season when those who have air conditioners turn them on and when all of us find ourselves going in and out of air-conditioned stores, offices, restaurants and theaters. How will this affect you?

Some persons sleep better in a room that is air-conditioned while others, especially if they use a single-room unit, may prefer to get the room comfortably cool before retiring, and then turn off the machine. In either case, a good night's sleep in hot weather will greatly improve your health.

In summer when the relative humidity is high, bringing air into the room from the outside and cooling it will increase the relative humidity and hence the chilling effect.

Many houses in areas near large bodies of water are kept comfortable throughout the summer by means of a dehumidifier in the basement. This requires that the windows be kept closed to exclude the warm, humid air. When air conditioning was first introduced, there was a tendency to bring the indoor temperature down too drastically.

It is now recognized that people are more comfortable if the temperature is reduced to only 10 to 15 degrees below the outside official temperature (the official temperature is always taken in the shade), provided the humidity is also reduced. This holds true even for the hottest days.

One of the chief problems in this regard, and one that is not likely to be solved, is that everyone has his own individual rate of metabolism. What is comfortable for one person may be uncomfortable for another.

The person who has arthritis, for example, is likely to react with joint discomfort to even a slight chilling of the surrounding air.

On the other hand, air-conditioning is a great blessing to anyone who has heart disease. This is because, when the temperature approaches the normal body heat, the heart must work harder to circulate blood through the skin and thus cool it.

This added burden will be readily accepted by the normal heart, but will embarrass a heart that has been weakened by a coronary attack or a leaky valve.

Air-conditioning is likewise a great help to persons with asthma or hay fever because it filters the offending pollen out of the air that is brought inside. This protection lasts, however, only as long as the victim remains in the room where the air is filtered.

Whether you are conditioned or made worse by air-conditioning, you can be sure that some form of air-conditioning is here to stay. Every year its use is being extended to more and more facilities, both public and private.

It is wise, especially for women, to carry a light wrap even on the hottest days, and to wear it when going into an air-conditioned store or office where the difference in temperature is too great for comfort. This is especially important for those who must sit close to the cold-air intake fan.

Coventry Professional Suite Proposed By Developer in North Section

The zoning board of appeals will hear requests for variances to Volume 12 of the zoning regulations at a public hearing at 8 p.m. Monday at the Town Office Annex.

William J. Mosher, president of Suburban Home Construction Corp. of Thailand, is requesting permission to construct a sales office on property on Rt. 44, Grant Road, 23A chairman said the company will be building houses on the lower level to two to four years. The use of a model home for the purpose listed would not qualify under the "one temporary home occupation" provision of the town's zoning regulations.

The company hopes to establish a combination professional and office building and to lease two offices on the lower level to a doctor and dentist, respectively, providing essential services and currently available to the residents of the northern area of the town. Mosher said.

Plans for the office building are that it be modest in size and aesthetically indistinguishable from a private home. Sufficient parking area for an estimated total of 24 cars will be created from view by appropriate planting on the 4.4-acre approach from the west as one comes up Twin Mills Road.

The balance of the parking lot is planned for location below the building, sunken below the present grade with a retaining wall running parallel to the road. Five plantings along this embankment will screen the balance of the parking lot from Swamp Rd.

Another appeal is that of Joseph J. Cooke who wishes to attach a carport to his home on Lakeside Dr. This would be 12 by 24 feet with 4 by 4 inch posts set on concrete piers. The plan states the carport would not be enclosed in the future and extend to 4 ft. from the lot line.

Oral lecture at the present time covers eight acres of the town. The lecture on Wright's Mill Rd. has two one-family houses and a full. Ledges will be split the frontage in half and make separate lots in order to sell one house. The lot to be sold will have 122 feet frontage and 300 feet depth.

The Coventry Police Patrol and the football program will benefit from a talent show and dance at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Coventry High School. The dance will start at 8:30 p.m. with music furnished by Elliott Dohertyman and his band.

A total of 18 sets will be presented with the Helen R. Pinnacchio Rockettes of Hartford. Tickets will be available at the door, or may be had from Mrs. Lionel Jean, Mrs. Charles Lowery or Mrs. Roy Higgins.

First Congregational Church choir will meet at 7:45 p.m. tonight in the sanctuary. The Senior Pilgrim Fellowship is planning its annual picnic Saturday at Ocean Beach, leaving at 8 a.m. from Grand Hall on Mason St.

Job Bias Hurts North Negroes

"What's the reason?" asks Campbell. "Close your eyes and stick out your fingers, and you'll find 10 reasons. You want me to say all these reasons mean discrimination here, it's discrimination. It's the story of the Negro in America."

In Washington, Edward A. Haller of the local NAACP, says "we are the victims of tokenism for window dressing—one Negro hired and then they boast of being integrated."

Employers counter with the same argument as the leaders of the craft unions: they would hire Negroes if they were qualified or educated or skilled.

And so the cycle goes on. Employers and unions say Negroes aren't qualified. Without union membership and without Negroes can't get the education and training to become qualified.

The flurry of demonstrations during the last few weeks has spurred some action from unions, employers, and the government.

The AFL-CIO has put pressure on craft unions to make room for Negro apprentices.

President Kennedy has banned racial discrimination on construction projects paid for in whole or part by federal funds.

The President also has asked Congress to pass a massive vocational education bill which would train Negroes for higher paying jobs.

Will these steps soften Negro anger? Some experts believe the problem may not be solved for many years, if it takes time to train skilled workers and if

Siamese Twin Dies After Surgery

PITTSBURGH (AP)—One of the Siamese twin girls separated last Wednesday died early today in Children's Hospital.

Cause of death of Ruth Ann Tenoschko was not known immediately. An autopsy was ordered.

The other twin, Rose Mary, continues in satisfactory condition, the hospital said.

The girls were born June 7 to Mrs. John Tenoschko, 27.

Immediately after the separation, doctors said the infants were in satisfactory condition.

However, it was said the girls would not be out of danger for several days.

Civil War buff Manuel Sempeles, 70, of 1000 E. 10th St., said the girls were joined at the stomach. They shared one organ, the liver, which surgeons divided.

View Is Good and the Rent's Low

One of the area's newest apartment house projects was discovered by Herald photographer Joseph Saterius this week. It's in Toland. It's bank swallows occupants, however, were rather uncooperative in supplying information. As a matter of fact they restricted into their apartments and refused to be photographed except for the two nonconformists shown. The brown-baked, little ones of the barn owl and owl swallow, with a brown band across its white breast, builds his nest in hollows out into mud banks. He feeds entirely on flying insects—flies, bees, and sand bees.

Attack on DeGaulle Harshes Since War

He complained that while the United States talked of a multinational NATO nuclear force for Europe, that force would remain under U.S. control.

He hit the mark there. Under law passed by Congress, this government must retain full control of nuclear weapons, deciding whether or not to use them.

On April 18 De Gaulle kicked the United States again by suggesting France could not be sure of the intentions of its Allies.

In short, from the American view, he had endangered the whole alliance.

Against this background it is understandable why Kennedy on his present European trip has repeatedly assured the Allies the United States would prevent any kind of European economic unity De Gaulle was attacking even if it meant attack on the United States.

He said Tuesday that the United States will risk its cities to defend yours because we need your freedom to protect ours.

But he went far beyond that by implying De Gaulle was playing Europe off against the United States on the alliance and American aid.

He said: "Those who would cast doubt on our pledge—those who would separate Europe from America or split one ally from another—would only give aid and comfort to the men who make themselves our adversaries and welcome any Western disarray."

He called separate "national territories"—meaning De Gaulle's plans for a nuclear force separate from NATO's—turning "the clock back."

He went beyond the political and military and called again in most earnest terms on the kind of European economic unity De Gaulle was attacking.

Any former confidant in the Kennedy-De Gaulle relationship is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hubbard, 36 East 84, celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house at their home. More than 70 friends and relatives from Coventry, Rockville, Hartford, Bloomfield and Manchester attended.

The couple, both Manchester natives, were married June 20, 1938, at St. Bridget's Church. The late Mrs. James F. Tompkins performed the ceremony.

Mr. Hubbard, the former Irene Vichi, is a daughter of Mrs. Polly Gelanese and the late John Vichi. Her husband is the son of Joseph Hubbard Sr. and the late Mrs. Julia Hubbard. He is a mason contractor and associated with his father in the firm of Hubbard and Sons.

The honor attendants at the wedding were present at the open house. They are Hubbard's sister, Mrs. William Demos, the former Olga Hubbard, and a Pharrmat Vichi, Mrs. Hubbard's brother.

The Hubbards have two children, Paul J. Hubbard, 21, a student at Porter School of Design, Hartford, and Miss Nancy G. Hubbard, 17, a senior at Manchester High School.

South Windsor Council Adds Town Bank to Depositories

Town Treasurer John Cutler has been authorized by the council to place town funds up to the statutory limit, in the new South Windsor Bank and Trust Co.

Cutler recommended using the town bank as one of the town's banks of deposit. "It is not our intent," he said, "to deposit all of the town's money in this bank, but to help the town and its businesses... prosper."

Roy Browning, executive vice president of the bank, explained that this is a new commercial bank in town, authorized by state statute to accept deposits up to 20 per cent of the net assets plus of the bank. The bank could, therefore, accept under the town of one person, up to $100,000 South Windsor, having more town funds than the stipulated limit, could maintain its present banking relationship while using the facilities of the town bank.

The consideration of purchase of land in the vicinity of the new high school, which has been tabled by the council for over six months, has again been tabled until July 10. Town Manager Terry Spradley had contacted two property owners in the vicinity of the high school. One was not at all interested in selling at this time. The other is willing to have an appraisal made on his property. Spradley is now negotiating with the property owner for a "reasonable price," so the land could then be appraised.

School Superintendent Maria B. Woodmansee has written the council regarding a site for a new elementary school. The board of education requested 12-15 acres in the general area of the Hilltop Estates-South Windsor Heights developments so that the maximum number of students would be able to walk to the school. This school should be ready for occupancy in Sept. 1948. Woodmansee noted that a plan map denoting every school site in town is available to the council in his office and is helpful in determining areas of density of population.

Mayor John Madden objected that the board did not pinpoint the land they desire. Also he felt that the designated area available for purchase is limited, and there is not enough "scope to negotiate" as this area is "on the border of East Windsor Hill. The Mayor wished to know how many rooms the board is planning to build. A meeting will be arranged between the council, the public improvement committee, the public building commission and the board to discuss the questions.

Parents from the Foster St. East-Union Rd. area wrote to the council requesting a hearing about school boundaries. They are dissatisfied with the board of education's decision to transfer their children from the Wagging Elementary School to Orchard Hill School next year.

The Council decided to suggest that the residents attempt to meet with the board of education again about this matter. "The council," said councilman Gaylord Paine, "has no power whatsoever to dictate to the school board its educational policies."

Henry Priore, formerly of Windsor, has been hired by the town as an engineering assistant at a starting salary of $5,283.

Spradley reported he is awaiting additional information from the public transportation committee regarding bus service in the Farmham Estates-South Windsor Heights area. Upon receipt of this information, he said, it is hoped that a trial-basis public transportation service will be operated in the area for a 30-60 day period. The required meeting dates of the council for the month of July were changed to July 10 and 16. On July 17, the council will hold a public meeting with the planning and zoning commission at 7:30 p.m. at the high school. Councilmen Thomas Burgess and Paine will meet with the commission to discuss the "ground rules" of the meeting.

The council authorized the public building commission to use the William R. Wood trust fund, in the amount of approximately $25,000, for paving and installation of basketball handtops at 184 Ellsworth Elementary School. The fund would no longer be carried on since the school was changed from a high school to an elementary school.

The agenda of the July 10 meeting will include: Appointment of a Democratic-constituted discussion of the status of town roads through the "meadow" to the river; discussion and consideration of a land advisory committee to assist the assessor in ascertaining the provisions of open-space and farming requirements.

Robin Roberts Pitches Orioles Back into Standings White Sox Gain on Yanks

NEW YORK (AP)—On a night when Juan Pizarro hurled the Chicago White Sox into a virtual tie with the American League lead, Robin Roberts wound up pitching Baltimore back into the standings.

For a few hours, the Orioles were missing Pizarro's five-hit pitching and a seventh inning tie-breaking homer by Floyd Robinson gave the White Sox a 2-1 victory over New York Tuesday night and edged the Chicagoans to within nine percentage points of the first-place Yankees.

In Baltimore, the standings showed the Yankees and White Sox at the top in a nine-team league.

The slumping Orioles, losers of 20 of 27 games and locked in a war of words with the local press, had been "inadvertently" dropped from the team listing in the editions that hit the streets before Baltimore's game at Los Angeles.

Roberts pitched emphatically the fifth-place Orioles can't be counted out, posting the 20th victory of his career with a no-decision, 10-4 triumph over the American League lead, Baltimore gave a loud answer to his Baltimore back into the standings.

Fined recently for not hitting, Roberts, 37, pitched a strong game, giving the Orioles a rough going over from the top batters. He gave Angel pitchers the same treatment, serving in six runs with a pair of doubles and his 14th homer.

In other AL action, Harmon Killebrew's homer gave Minnesota a 3-0 decision over Detroit. Boston's 4-1 and 3-2 victories over Cleveland and Kansas City won the Sox a 2-1 victory over New York Tuesday night and edged the Chicagoans to within nine percentage points of the first-place Yankees.

Weather Troubles Net Stars

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—The United States delegation in the Wimbledon tennis championship is troubled more by British weather than the international opposition.

The weather may not bother the British but it is a real pain in the neck for the American players.

Rain stopped play twice in opening rounds and caused a late start Tuesday.

Ralston, one of five U.S. players who won the NCAA National Championship on the adeline Tuesday as Chuck McKinley of St. Louis led six more U.S. players into the second round.

McKinley, who needed American in the tourney, made excellent brilliant defense in a 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 victory over Cliff Drysdale of South Africa.

Colts Lack Power

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Let's just say we've got a long way to go," says Manager Harry Cratt of the Houston Colts. "Let's face it. We just don't have any real power. We do the one plugging, though, and our defense has been good for the most part."

Cratt's Colts are 11th in the American League with a record of 47-57.

The team's offense has been lackluster, with few home runs and a low batting average.

Cratt is looking for ways to improve the team's power and overall performance.

Colts Unable to Score Either Home or Away

NEW YORK (AP)—Pittsburgh's wandering Colts, who can't find home away from home, were again unable to score in either of their last two games.

Home plate again was out of bounds for the useless wonders Tuesday night as they were scored again, this time at Milwaukee by Tony Chalmers.

In suffering their 10th successive loss and 14th in 16 games on their current road trip, the Colts were blanked for the sixth time in their last seven games. In that non-shout, Houston broke loose for one run.

Since leaving Texas two weeks ago, the last-place Colts have lost 11 of 12 games, with a record of 1-11 in that stretch.

At the opposite end of the NL ladder Tuesday night, the St. Louis Cardinals reclaimed first from Los Angeles Dodgers, edging into the fourth with a two-run slugger, 4-1 behind Sandy Kousser's strike and key hits from Jim Gilliam.

Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh 4-0 in the fourth game of a doubleheader at the home of the Chicago Cubs.

The Cardinals' offense was led by a two-run homer for the winners while the loser's pitcher, Steve Carlton, was hit by a two-run homer for the winners while the loser's pitcher, Steve Carlton, was hit by a two-run homer for the winners.

George May's Bat Gives Legion Edge

Power-hitting George May collected three safeties and drove in all the runs last night as the Manchester Legion defeated Stafford, 4-2, in an extra-inning Zone 1-A game at Stafford.

The Legion's offense was led by May's three-run homer in the eighth inning, which gave them a 4-2 lead.

Stafford's pitcher, Tom Crowell, pitched a strong game, allowing only two runs in nine innings.

The game was tied 2-2 in the eighth inning when May hit a three-run homer.
