Pope Pledges Reign To Peace and Unity

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI dedicated his reign to world peace and Christian unity Sunday night, stressing the universality of his pledge with a coronation address in nine languages.

A quarter of a million spectators, the greatest throng ever to witness a papal coronation, jammed St. Peter's Square to see Paul VI crowned amid ritual splendor.

Speaking first in Latin and then in eight modern languages, the 22nd supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church dedicated his reign to the twin goals of his world-acclaimed predecessor, Pope John XXIII.

He appealed for sacrifice in the interest of world peace and acknowledged the "gravity of the obstacles" on the road to Christian unity. He warned that neither goal can be reached except by the "total conversion of the human mind."

In the highlight of the 2½ hour ceremony, Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani placed a new lightweight beehive crown on the head of Pope Paul, the former Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini of Milan.

As he did so, he said: "Receive this tiara, adorned with three crowns, and know that you are the father of princes and kings, guide of the world and vicar on earth of Christ Jesus our Savior."

The new spiritual ruler of half a billion Roman Catholics opens his personal quest in the cause of peace Tuesday in a historic first Roman Catholic chief executive of the United States.

Absence of Romanian Chief Mars Red Show of Harmony

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet satellite leaders headed home today after a weekend meeting with Premier Khrushchev, apparently called to renew support for him in his worsening dispute with Communist China.

Janos Kadar of Hungary left for Budapest Sunday night. Wladyslaw Gomulka of Poland flew back to Warsaw today.

The show of unity was marred by the conspicuous absence of Romania's veteran Red leader, George Gheorghiu-Dej. This roused speculation there may be a new break in the Red facade.

Khrushchev will address a rally here Tuesday, the East Berlin Press announced.

Khrushchev told an East Berlin audience Sunday night that communism stands "as firm as granite." But the gap in the ranks of the European Reds standing glumly around him underlined the growing crisis in the world Communist movement.

Also absent—as expected—was Albanian Premier Enver Hoxha, who has been in dispute with the Soviet Union.

Romania's absence was all the more glaring since Khrushchev previously announced that he would visit Bucharest to discuss the split in the Eastern Bloc.

China declared today that its quarrel with the Soviet Union had grown from an ideological dispute to a question of government relations.

It said it still intends to send a delegation to Moscow to discuss differences but emphasized that it will hold to its tough line.

A Chinese Communist party statement charged that the Soviet expulsion of Chinese from the Soviet Union last week constituted a "serious step in further worsening of Chinese-Soviet relations and in manufacturing a split in the international Communist movement."

Peking followed this with another biting statement accusing Russians of smashing a display case in Moscow in a "planned act of sabotage."

The official Chinese News Agency accused four Russian of smashing the case and said the Soviet authorities "tried to cover up by saying the four were foreigners and drunk."

"They were very sober, talked intelligently, behaved in a normal manner, and showed no sign of drunkenness," the Chinese agency declared.

Obviously the European Red leaders gathered in the Berlin to celebrate the birthday of East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht, who was 70 Sunday. But with one exception, it became apparent the meeting had a more significant purpose.

Albania, North Korea and North Viet Nam have committed themselves openly to Peking. They have endorsed the Chinese view that Khrushchev's efforts to avoid nuclear war with the West have carried him out of the sphere of revolutionary communism.

Bias Ban By Senate Held Vital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told senators today that passage of the administration's public accommodations bill is imperative "to remove a daily insult to Negroes."

If all the rest of the President's civil rights program were adopted except for this hotly disputed proposal, he said, "we'd not be getting the job done."

And in an apparent reference to racial demonstrations, Kennedy said that failure to adopt this part of the program would mean "we are going to have a good deal more difficulties in the United States."

Kennedy, testifying before the Senate Commerce Committee, said, however, that the public accommodations bill is not intended to apply to the smallest establishments where customers have a sort of "social relationship." He gave a rooming house with two or three boarders as an example.

He was questioned closely by Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., as to just what businesses would be covered by the bill, which would ban racial discrimination in privately owned establishments serving the public and substantially affecting interstate commerce.

For example, Kennedy said that whether a barber shop would be covered would depend on whether it serves interstate travelers to a substantial degree. He said he thought barber shops in hotels or bus and train terminals would be subject to the act. He also would be true of beauty shops, he said.

Kennedy said he didn't think the bill would apply to bowling alleys or pool halls, nor to laundries and dry cleaning establishments, except under unusual circumstances. He said it would not apply to doctors, lawyers or others providing professional services.

He was asked what he called "the immoral logic of bigotry." Kennedy said in his prepared statement:

"It is a people of whatever kind—even prostitutes, narcotics pushers, Communists or bank robbers—are welcome at establishments which will not admit certain of our federal judges, ambassadors and countless members of our armed forces."

Kennedy, generally following the same arguments he presented in testifying for the rights package last week, before a House subcommittee, said the administration bill to outlaw segregation in public accommodations would set no legislative precedent and deny no right except "the right to discriminate—so plainly a right to commit wrong."

In the Senate, the public accommodations provision is not only up against stiff opposition from Southerners who have denounced it as an assault on private property rights but it also lacks the support of the Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

Dirksen has introduced a substitute bill that would rely on persuasion, rather than compulsion, to end racial discrimination in places catering to the public.

The attorney general said the private property argument "should be rejected as a smoke-screen."

"It would be far better if problems like this were handled by the state and local authorities, but in many areas where even so basic a right as voting is still frequently denied to Negroes, there is no hope in the near future that state and local authorities will act to eliminate this kind of discrimination," he said.

Throngs Gather to Witness Pageant of Gettysburg Battle

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD, Pa. (AP)—Drawn by the magnet of awesome history, throngs from North and South commemorate today the beginning of the greatest battle ever fought in the Western Hemisphere.

On this day 100 years ago Gen. Robert E. Lee's Confederates drove the hosts of Gen. George Gordon Meade across rolling country and through the streets of Gettysburg—only to find the federal troops finally rallying on Cemetery Hill and Ridge.

Three days later Lee, a beaten man nobly asserting, "It was all my fault," ordered a retreat—and the Civil War had reached its turning point.

The highlight of today's commemoration was a solemn afternoon ceremony at the Eternal Light peace memorial overlooking the scene of the first day's clash.

Governors or other representatives of 27 of the 29 states whose men fought and fell here were on hand to lay wreaths at the monument's base and otherwise pay tribute to the dead. Louisiana and Tennessee decided not to send a representation.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, the man who led the unsuccessful desegregation stand against integration at the University of Alabama, was in town to take part in the grand demonstration of unity.

JFK in Rome, Will See Pope

ROME (AP)—President Kennedy arrived in Rome today for talks with Italian government leaders before his historic audience with Pope Paul VI.

The President flew to the Italian capital from Milan after spending a night relaxing at a villa beside the lake.

About 500 Americans cheered the President from the observation platform on the roof of the new seaside airport building.

President Antonio Segni, premier Giovanni Leone, and foreign minister Attilio Piccioni headed the official welcoming party.

The Italian president told Kennedy their talks would enable them to review "in a spirit of mutual collaboration and with a high sense of responsibility the grave problems of the hour."

Kennedy in reply said he came to determine how the United States and his allies can maintain "the intimate association which has marked our affairs during the past 15 years."

Italy and the United States, he said, "must assure that the 'association remains as strong in the future as in the past.'"

Tens of thousands of Romans lined parts of Kennedy's route from the Eternal City. Thousands of pasted up posters said "Viva the United States" and "Viva Kennedy."

A few said "Viva Jackie," who originally was to have come with the President. The plans were changed when she became pregnant.

The size of the welcoming crowds was probably reduced considerably by the date, the start of Italy's favorite vacation month.

Little to Show for Work Congress Takes Off a Week For Oratory and Flag-Waving

An AP News Analysis
By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress completed the first six months of what may be a year-long session by taking a week off for Independence Day, flag-waving and oratory.

After a half year of sporadic labors, it has little to show except a stack of unfinished business.

The official "status of major legislation" reads like the line score of the Washington Senators in an American League baseball game. It lists the enactment of four public laws, one extending the draft law, one authorizing procurement of aircraft, missiles and naval vessels, and two appropriations bills.

The seeming small pace does not appear to alarm congressional leaders.

Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the Democratic House whip, summed up their sentiment with these words:

"We've got pretty much done and we're going to do lots more. The year is only half gone. We are paid for a year's work and we can stay here all year if we have to."

Congress might do just that if some of the big bills jelling in committees are to be considered. Members already are talking about a long recess over Labor Day. They are registered to a long session.

The 1963 legislative slowdown hardly can be blamed on the usually balky House Committee headed by Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va.

Smith's group has cooperated more than usual with the House leadership. It even has held back some controversial bills in support of leadership cooperation.

Man Slays Wife, Then Kills Self

NEWINGTON (AP)—A 42-year-old Newington resident and New Britain lawyer, who apparently killed his wife Sunday night and then took his own life, Newington Police said.

Police reported that Anthony Borawski, 388 New Britain Ave., was found in the cellar of his home with knife wounds in his body. His wife, Marie, 41, was found in his upstairs den apparently the victim of slash wounds.

Borawski had attempted to hang himself but the rope apparently broke, police said. A knife was found near his body.

A son, William, 18, returned home from swimming about 6:30 p.m. and apparently found a note addressed to the children on the door reading "keep out—call police."

The boy then went to the home of Jonathan Weeks of 346 New Britain Ave., who notified police.

A daughter, Cathy, 18, who was also away at the time was later notified. The youngsters spent the night with relatives.

Borawski was the operator of the Brown Derby Tavern at 298 Oak St., New Britain.

Investigation is headed by Police Chief William E. Halleran and State Police Major Samuel Rome. Assisting are policeman William Webster and State Police Detective Orlando Ragazzo.

The one-family home where the incident occurred is located opposite the Aldrich chicken hatchery on New Britain Ave. No explanation was given for the apparent murder-suicide.

British, USSR Fail in Talks On Laos War

LONDON (AP)—Britain announced today its joint efforts with the Soviet Union to resolve the Laos problem have collapsed.

The British blamed the Russians for the failure.

The Foreign Office said the Russians wanted to limit the South-east Asian kingdom on the United States and right-wing elements.

The British insist the pro-Communist Pathet Lao is responsible.

Since the two countries could not agree, the British said the only course was to hand the problem back to the 14 nations that took part in the Geneva conference on Laos. Among them are Communist China and the United States.

The British statement was not interpreted in official quarters as a suggestion that there should be another Geneva conference on Laos.

The British policy, said a Foreign Office spokesman, "is that the present Geneva agreement should be made to work."

Britain and the Soviet Union are co-chairmen of the Laotian peace setup and in that capacity have had a special responsibility to see that terms of the settlement are fulfilled.

Announcing the development at a news conference, the Foreign Office said Foreign Secretary Lord Home wrote to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko June 27 expressing regret that they had been unable to agree.

"Since we do not seem able to reach agreement, I suggest that the best thing is for us to submit the whole question to the judgment of the signatories of the Geneva agreement and of public opinion," Home wrote.

The documents in question were transmitted to all the interested countries today.

Soviet-Chinese Break Appears Certain Soon

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The growing rift between Russian and Chinese officials, something the most cunning Western statesmen could not have engineered, seems certain now, perhaps this week.

If it doesn't drive Russia closer to the West, at least it will force her to divert more of her thinking and resources to coping with Red China in Asia and elsewhere.

This will be the best break for the allies since the cold war began. But it doesn't mean world peace is any closer or that the Atlantic partners will have sense enough to make the most of the crack in the enemy camp.

On the contrary, they may start cutting capers of their own until, too, make a mess of themselves.

They stood together solidly enough when they felt intense pressure and danger from Russia. When Premier Khrushchev seemed to relax, they began to re-examine their ancient rivalries. This was exactly the basic cause of the Russian-Chinese split.

French President de Gaulle butted the United States and Britain in what seems to be his dream of a French grandeur which belonged in another century. It is his way of trying to establish new French leadership in Europe.

He barred Britain from the European Common Market, challenged America's loyalty to its allies, they were attacked, and, using this for an excuse, is making his own nuclear weapons over American protests.

This is probably only the beginning of the allies' problems with one another. But if all these problems melted tomorrow, the Russian-Red Chinese split still wouldn't bring world peace closer.

Last week Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations guessed the Chinese Communists

Sex as Weapon in Espionage Seen Inevitable by Allen Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says "as long as there is sex, it is going to be used" in espionage.

However, he declared that Britain's Profumo scandal appears to be more of a vice case than espionage, although he stressed he now gets most of his information from the press.

"As far as I know it has not been clearly shown up as being a case of espionage, although apparently an attempt was made to get certain types of information," he said.

In a wide ranging interview on a radio-television program Dulles touched on matters from Cuba to the efficiency of Britain's security forces.

Asked whether he thought the Soviet missiles had been withdrawn from Cuba, Dulles said "whether they have some tucked away in caves and so forth, I

Farmers Fight With Tomatoes

PERPIGNAN, France (AP)—Riot police saw red Sunday when they tried to stop a farmers' protest parade.

Some 3,000 fruit and vegetable growers joined in the demonstration protesting low prices and poor sales.

When police barred the route to the district government offices, farmers pulled up two truckloads of tomatoes and started bombarding the officers. Police retaliated with tear gas.

The farmers also dumped several tons of tomatoes and apricots on the road leading toward Spain. Traffic soon produced a slippery mixture and it took police three hours to sort out the resulting traffic jam.

VATICAN SALUTES JFK
VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican today saluted President Kennedy on the eve of a meeting with Pope Paul VI and hinted it would welcome closer ties with the United States. An editorial in L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, carried an indirect suggestion that the Vatican would like to see Washington once again assign a presidential representative to the Holy See.

U.S. OUSTS DIPLOMAT
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has ordered expulsion of a Russian diplomat on grounds that he was engaged in a form of espionage, informed sources said today. The man involved in the purported espionage was not identified. Press official Robert S. McLooney declined comment for the time being. He said an announcement is expected later today, but declined to say what it would be.

THE WAY I HEARD IT

by John Gruber

A week or two ago I complained in this column about the tendency to choose tempt that are much flatter than those originally conceived by the composer, and stated the fact that the word "Presto" (or "Forte" in Italian) must have meant something entirely different to Bach and Mozart, who traveled by horse, than to somebody acquainted with the terrific speeds of an astronaut.

I went on to say that performers and conductors should play early works much slower than the tempo markings indicate, in accordance with the understanding of the composer, and that the composer's intent is not to be lost in this belief. Speaking in this argument, but slower than the tempo markings, I am not alone in this belief. Speaking in this argument, but slower than the tempo markings, I am not alone in this belief. Phinney-Hunt Tourists Frontier Law in Dodge City Challenged by Firecrackers

By GIL HUNT

The 16 Manchester High School boys and 1 East Hampton High School girl, who were on a tour of the Dodge City, Kan., area, were met by a group of firecracker throwers on the morning of July 1. The group, which included a number of law-abiding citizens, was met by the group of firecracker throwers on the morning of July 1. The group, which included a number of law-abiding citizens, was met by the group of firecracker throwers on the morning of July 1.

Thompsonville, Spedick worked better than three hours of hard labor to achieve a fine roaring fire of his own. He finished building the contraption just at 11 o'clock, in time to leave it to cool into his sleeping bag.

The boys traveled around the famous "500", and went west all day to cross the Mississippi River at St. Louis, where their motor awaited them. Thursday and Friday took the boys into Kansas, where they camped in Ottawa (Kan.) Municipal Park, and spent the evening at the Dodge City, Kan., area.

The regular evening shooting between Wyatt Earp and Doc Holliday against a band of desperadoes had a new twist in the night. As the mortal and Doc were wiping out the bad men with blank guns, Frank Kalkauskas and Dick Dotchin challenged the skill of the frontier law by firing off their pistols. The boys watched in amazement as the two men fought it out.

At the evening meal in Dodge City, the party was joined by a group of law-abiding citizens. The group, which included a number of law-abiding citizens, was met by the group of firecracker throwers on the morning of July 1.

Prince Facing Paternity Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Nigerian prince, wed here Saturday, was accused Sunday by another girl of fathering her six-month-old daughter.

June Colwright, 19, a business college student, charged that Prince Okotere Paddy Njaka, 25, a Loyola University student, filed her suit for African child support, $200 a month, and $100 a week for child care.

Prince Okotere, who lives with his mother, said her lawyer had filed a paternity suit Friday, a day before the wedding, naming the prince as the father.

Prince Okotere said he met the prince in March 1967, at a party her mother gave for African students at an unaffiliated donor. Prince Okotere said he and the prince dated for about three months. "We dated for about three months," her suit stated, "and talked about marriage. But when I told him I was pregnant, he said the child wasn't his."

The prince is the son of Chief Maduneme G. Njaka, ruler of 60,000 tribesmen in Akoko, Nigeria.

The prince said his grandfather had 40 wives but that he, the prince, wed only one.
