Nobody Can Lose

While the American press is disengaged, at some considerable length, the press and the public are being told that the U.S.-Russian moon shot, the technological difficulties, the diplomatic involvements, the military sacrifices entailed, and a host of other matters, the British Manchester Guardian has offered a characteristically succinct explanation of why President Kennedy's proposal is a winner.

Wonders of the Universe

Porous Plastic May Provide Temporary Shelter on Moon

By DR. I. M. LEVITT, Director, The Polar Research Institute.

The versatility of foamed plastic is attracting the attention of space researchers.

One foamed plastic is suddenly thrust into prominence as a liquid urethane. This is a curious plastic in that it comes as a liquid and by the application of a catalyst the liquid expands into a highly porous and lightweight solid.

The U.S. Air Force has been using it to form shelters for troops in the field.

Engineers visualize this material as ideal for space shelters, portable desks, beds, chairs, storage compartments and laboratory facilities.

The reason why this is ideal for space is that the material while foamed plastic without hardening may be inflated.

In the past, a man on the moon would have to bring an inflatable structure like a balloon and have this rigid shell support him.

Now, a man on the moon could bring a portable shelter for himself and have this rigid shell support him.

The use of this plastic as an emergency "hibernaculum" to return the astronaut to earth in the event of an orbital accident has been suggested.

Group will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mattson for installation of officers and an orientation meeting for a new group.

EXPANDING

Expansion of the Welles Farm Wagon Gift Shop headquarters on Rt. 83, Talcottville, will provide more space for us to go deeper into the gift line, providing a wide pricing of items, all in good taste, for every member of the family," Mrs. Franklin Welles said yesterday.

"During our planned Oct. 15 opening day, we will feature 'hot mulled cider,'" she added. "This will tie in with our old fashioned philosophy of the old country store and our aim to give a personal touch in customer service," she added.

Salespeople will dress country style in the new Welles Farm Wagon gift shop. They will wear straw hats and the women, with "old fashioned" aprons.

This friendly neighborhood store of Connecticut will continue to carry its full line of S. S. Pierce food products, fresh fruits and vegetables from neighborhood farms, and meat counter with prime meat products.

The gift shop, which has been located on the second floor, will be transformed into office rental space.

The country store building, which also houses the Talcottville Post Office, is owned by State Senator Franklin G. Welles.

OPENS OFFICE

James M. Ganzer, local real estate and auto salesman for the past fifteen years, has opened a real estate firm at 357 E. Center St.

Ganzer and Company, presenting a new concept and methods in real estate service and appraisal, is equipped to handle mortgages, interior decorating, architectural service, remodeling, landscaping, land development and appraisals.

A native of Michigan, Ganzer graduated from Manchester High School and holds an associates degree in business administration from Worcester Junior College (1948). After attending the University of Connecticut, in 1949 he went into selling real estate for Russell Isham, builder, in Bloomfield.

He later worked for Alexander Jarvis, Manchester builder, as a salesman, and also handled the firm's advertising layouts.

From 1954 through 1962, Ganzer was one of the top automobile salesmen for Moriarty Bros. on Center St. In 1959, he was second best salesman for Lincoln Mercury, New England Division, and has been an exclusive Lincoln Continental salesman for that firm. He ran for state senator in 1955, has such hobbies as photography, parachute jumping, motorcycle riding,

Business Bodies

The Welles Farm Wagon Country Store & Gift Shop, Rt. 83, Talcottville, has expanded its first floor building area to accommodate the moving of the firm's upstairs gift shop into new 1,200 square-foot quarters and also for additional similar stock space for a Rockville shoe firm which is expected to move in this coming week. The new gift shop headquarters is expected to open on Oct. 15.

SALON OPENS

The Parisian Coiffure beauty salon Monday will open for business at 55 Oak St. with hair styling by Mr. Steven and Miss Yvonne.

The newest of Manchester's beauty salons will have three booths and six dryers included in the latest modern equipment and supplies.

Mr. Steven, formerly with a leading Manchester beauty firm for eight years, is a graduate of the Connecticut Institute of Hairdressers at Hartford. Prior to his Manchester association, Mr. Steven was associated with G. Fox & Company's salon and has spent three months under M. Lewis in New York.

Miss Yvonne, a native of France, attended a hairdressers school in Nancy, France, and worked there for two years prior to coming to the United States in 1946. She has since graduated from the Connecticut Institute of Hairdressing, has returned to France to take a six-week course in styling and hair-cutting at L'Oréal, 33 St. H'Onore, Paris, during a two-year association here in a Manchester beauty salon.

Retail Sales In Town Up, Says Chamber

Retail sales in Manchester increased 2.2 per cent during the second quarter of 1963, when compared with the same period in 1962. James DeRocco, chairman of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce's Retail Division, announced the increase and the sales figures yesterday afternoon.

Total retail sales in the town increased to $15,515,000 for the quarter, as compared to $15,123,000 during the same period in 1962.

DeRocco attributes part of the increase to the chamber's retail promotions — the under-the-umbrella Sidewalk Sales, the summertime Hawaiian Days, and the sometimes sanily promoted Washington Birthday Sale.

He sees the success of the special sales stemming from merchants' "excellent cooperation on our year-round promotional calendar," and anticipates, "even more of a sales increase for the future."

Moss Says U.S. Curbed War News

WASHINGTON (AP)—A congressional subcommittee today accused the State Department of "hiding the facts from the American public" by restricting newsmen in South Viet Nam.

The criticism came from the House subcommittee on information, headed by Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif. "In recent weeks," a report by the subcommittee said, "the American public has been surprised by developments in Viet Nam—developments which have been many months in the making. The report said the restrictive U.S. press policy in Viet Nam unquestionably contributed to the lack of information about conditions in Viet Nam which created an international crisis."

"Instead of hiding the facts from the American public," the subcommittee concluded, "the State Department should have done everything possible to expose the true situation to full view."

The subcommittee directed most of its criticism at a cable prepared by Carl T. Rowan, now ambassador to Finland, and sent over the signature of Secretary of State Dean Rusk to the U.S. embassy in Saigon early in 1962. This cable is still classified although its provisions are no longer in effect. The subcommittee, paraphrasing the language, said it contained these guidelines for handling American news correspondents in Viet Nam:

1. "News stories which criticize the President Ngo Dinh Diem government could not be 'forbidden,' but they only increase the difficulties of the U.S. job."

2. "Newsmen should be advised that trifling or thoughtless criticism of the Diem government would make it difficult to maintain cooperation between the United States and Diem."

3. "Newsmen should not be transported on military activities of the type they are likely to result in undesirable stories."

The subcommittee said the cable had been prepared by Rowan, then deputy assistant secretary of state, and described him as an official with an admitted distrust for the people's right to know.

The subcommittee based this description on a statement by a former newsmen, on a statement by a former newsmen, on a statement by a former newsmen.

JFK Approval Seen on Selling Wheat to USSR

WASHINGTON (AP)—The big question of whether to permit the sale of wheat to the Soviet Union lies in the decision basket for President Kennedy, returning to his White House desk today.

Some high officials expect him to say yes. The Russians have made no formal request to this country. But Soviet negotiators have been talking in Ottawa of deals for American grain. One report mentioned three million tons at $50 million.

Administration officials sounded out Congress last week on feelings about a grain deal with the Soviets. It is understood that there was some outspoken opposition. However, it is reported that the officials considered the burden of congressional sentiment to be in favor of it.

The government departments involved are expected to recommend a policy change to permit

Goldwater Shrugs At Ikes' Calling For Clear Views

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says he is "unclear" about Sen. Barry Goldwater's views. The Arizona senator replies that he can't understand it. "In view of the wide publication my views have received."

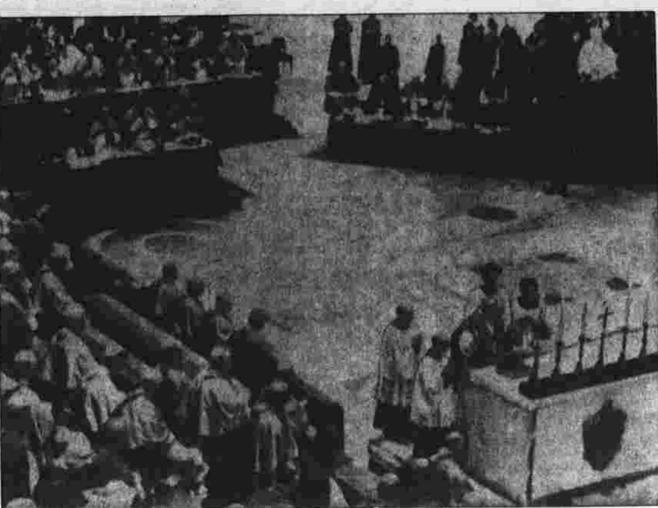

Goldwater's reply was carried in today's New York Herald Tribune, which Sunday published the statement by Eisenhower.

The former president denied what he said reports that he is "anti-Goldwater." "This is simply not true," he said.

But Eisenhower said in the copyright Herald Tribune story under his byline: "I am unclear on precisely what Sen. Goldwater's present views are, and I think all Republicans would want to learn more about how he—and each of the other possible (presidential) candidates—would now approach the issues of 1964."

"Only when these men are on record with their current views will the party be in a position to make the most intelligent choice," Goldwater, a leading but unannounced contender for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, told the Herald Tribune.

"It is difficult to understand how President Eisenhower can be unclear about my position in view of the wide publication my views have received."

Church Redefinition Favored Conclave Fast-Paced

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A proposed redefinition of the Roman Catholic Church won general endorsement today from the first prelates to speak at the second phase of the Vatican Ecumenical council.

Two cardinals and six bishops took the floor in St. Peter's as the 2,500 council fathers resumed their working sessions. Pope Paul VI reopened the council Sunday after a nine-month recess with a strong appeal for reform.

The council press office, summarizing today's three-hour meeting, told newsmen the topic before the assembly—"De Ecclesia," concerning the church—was accepted by speakers as "a good foundation on which to build."

It was revised during the recess, and undoubtedly will be revised further. It will be the main topic before the council's session ending Dec. 4.

The topic, considered the key to all the council's work, proposed a new way for the Roman Catholic Church to look at its structure. It came up originally at the council's first session last year and was criticized by many fathers as being too juridical and academic and not sufficiently pastoral. There was criticism that the original draft would not help the cause of Christian unity.

During the recess, a council spokesman said today, 372 proposed corrections and amendments to the first half of the topic were mailed to the Vatican by prelates around the world.

No speakers expressed disapproval of the topic today. Spokesmen for the council said speeches on the topic in general would end Tuesday, with the full council then taking a vote whether to accept the topic in principle and proceed with detailed discussion.

Briefings today at the council press office were the first under a new system designed to make public more information on the council's deliberations. At the first session last year, general summaries were made public, but the press office did not include what individual speakers said.

A feeling was evident among the church fathers that the session would move with greater speed and efficiency than the first, which ran from Oct. 11 to Dec. 8 last year. This session will continue until Dec. 4.

A young American bishop summed up this spirit. "I think all the bishops are coming back to this session with a lot more enthusiasm. They know now what is intended and what it is they are trying to do."

He described the first session, convened by the late Pope John XXIII, as "a sort of dry run" where there was bound to be some disorder because of the size of the gathering.

"But we learned from it and I think the council will move much more speedily this time," added the American prelate, who asked to remain unidentified.

"In opening the council, Pope Paul said its aims were redefinition and reform of the Catholic Church, restoring Christian unity and closer contact with today's world."

He called the Episcopal assembly a council of invitation, "with the expectation of confidence." His clear voice rolled through the hushed basilica and out to a crowd of 50,000 persons in St. Peter's Square as he delivered the 30,000-word address in Latin.

Like Pope John, Pope Paul held the door open for a reuniting of Christians. To the Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox observers near him, he said: "We lay no snares. We do not wish to make of our faith an occasion for polemics."

Hopes for completing the council's business with greater dispatch were expressed today.

Out of the Past: Earl Browder Ex-Leader Pities U.S. Reds

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Two FBI agents called on a gray-haired, grandiose man reclining in a chair in his apartment. He was a little man few persons would notice in casual passing.

For two hours they explored his opinions on the background and importance of the Red Chinese-Soviet conflict. They took with them his written analysis of the ideological struggle between Red China and the Soviet Union.

"Police said they had been contacted I ever had with the FBI," said Earl Browder, 72, whose contacts with the FBI have been many.

To millions of Americans, Browder's name is synonymous with the U. S. Communist party. He joined the party shortly after its formation in 1919 and remained in it through the peak of its popularity in this country, the 1930's.

The late Soviet Premier Josef Stalin ordered Browder's ouster as general secretary, the position of power, in 1945 for "revisionism." Expulsion from the party followed.

Revisionism—or "Browderism," as it came to be known internally—consisted of advocating coexistence. Browder argued that neither armed conflict nor cold war was inevitable. He rejected the basic dogma that Communism must destroy capitalism before the world can know peace and social progress.

"Khrushchev occupies today a position on the big issues in the world that I occupied in 1945," Browder said in an interview. "When the Chinese accuse him of revisionism they are merely echoing and elaborating the arguments used against me when I was thrown out of the movement."

"They did me a favor when they kicked me out. I have no hard feelings at all. I deliberately provoked it."

Now a caustic critic of communism, Browder characterized the party in the U. S. as a weak nuisance to America.

Kansas-born Browder flew high within communism after he first studied Karl Marx in 1919—while serving a term in Leavenworth Federal Prison for conspiring to obstruct the World War I draft law.

He knew former Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov and many other top Communists personally, went to China in the 1920's on a two-year Red labor union mission.

Mass Protest Set If Wallace Speaks

NEW HAVEN (AP)—The New Haven branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) today called for a mass protest demonstration if Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama speaks at Yale University.

The Alabama governor has not yet decided whether he will accept an invitation from two student organizations at the Yale Law School. A date in mid-November was suggested.

The NAACP called for a protest demonstration of "at least 5,000 persons" if Wallace decides to come to New Haven.

It requested all organizations in the Negro community to participate in a parade and rally, and in picketing of the building in which Wallace speaks.

In its statement, the NAACP said that an appearance at Yale by other Southern segregationists would cause "little or no adverse response on the part of the New Haven Negro community, even though the message of such bigots to Yale students might well be the same in content as any by Wallace."

The organization said it would protest Wallace's appearance because "he has plummeted the level of brutality imaginable in brutes of his state to the lowest this so-called enlightened age of the 20th century."

Wallace originally was invited to speak at Yale by the Yale Political Union, an undergraduate organization. Spokesmen for the political union said they withdrew the invitation at the request of president of the university.

Kingman Brewster Jr., acting Mayor Richard Blumenthal, and Mayor Richard Blumenthal, who spoke at the time of the original invitation that he would be "officially unwelcome" in New Haven.

Gun Was Jammed

HARTFORD (AP)—Sgt. Blagoslav Ruzic, 33, doesn't know it at the time, but the man he killed Saturday night was holding a gun that would not fire, police said yesterday.

Francisco Morales Morino, 33, had a bullet fired in the magazine of his .25 automatic pistol, but a shell had jammed in the chamber, police said.

Ruzic, firing his .38 revolver at a man for the first time in his 11 years as a policeman, missed with his first shot but put his second bullet through Morino's left arm and chest. Morino was dead on arrival at McCook Memorial Hospital.

Morino had shot Detective Chester C. Stelmach through the hand before Ruzic brought him down.

Ruzic's pistol had been jammed, wounded or killed himself if Morino's gun had not been jammed, said Capt. Thomas C. Hankard.

The shooting of Morino put an end to a vendetta in his third-floor apartment that began as a chattering party.

Five shots had been fired before Stelmach and Ruzic arrived at the apartment, police said. There were about 30 people in the apartment, but the shots were fired in the hall and stairway and no one was injured.

Another shot was fired as Stelmach grappled with Morino in an effort to take the automatic away from him, but it went through a door into the next apartment without hitting anyone.

"It was found another .25 automatic under a mattress in Morino's bedroom."

Morino had two small children, but police said they were unable to determine whose christening prompted the party.

Norwich Aide Dies

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Robert M. Anderson, 42, chairman of the Norwich Board of Education and Norwich Republican Town Committee, died today in Grace-New Haven Community Hospital.

Anderson was recently operated on at Backus Hospital in Norwich for an intestinal block. When his condition worsened, he was transferred last Thursday to Grace-New Haven.

He was first elected to the Norwich Board of Education in 1961. After his election, board members chose him as chairman. He was their choice again in 1962.

Anderson was serving his second two-year term as Republican town chairman.

He was secretary and assistant treasurer of the Anderson Supply Co. of Norwich, a firm he ran with his father, Ralph P. Anderson.

Farrel Walkout Ends

ANSONIA (AP)—Union workers returned to their jobs at Farrel Corp. plants in Derby today, one week after they walked out in protest over the suspension of a union official.

The dispute was settled yesterday with labor and management negotiators agreeing to drop law suits filed by both parties. The company also agreed to reduce Frank Poliferno's suspension from 90 days to two weeks.

Poliferno, president of local 3571 United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, took a day off the week before last when that was what he touched off the dispute.

State Arrests 2 In Birmingham Bombing Probe

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two white men were placed in city jail early today for further investigation into the series of bombings that have rocked this racially troubled city for several years.

Col. Al Lingo, head of the state highway patrol, said that others picked up in the intensified investigation have been released. He declined to say how many others had been questioned.

Night Warden L. A. Holcomb identified the two being held as R. E. Chambliss, 59, and Charles Cagle, 22, both of the Birmingham area.

Chambliss was found innocent in 1949 on a charge of flogging while masked. He has been active in anti-integration efforts. Officers had to restrain Chambliss recently when he engaged in a near-brawl with a newsman at a segregation meeting.

Cagle has been affiliated with anti-integration activities, mostly in the Warrior area south of Birmingham. Last summer he was arrested while going to a Ku Klux Klan rally in Tuscaloosa a short time before the University of Alabama was desegregated. State officials identified him as a Klansman and said that he was carrying a weapon.

Both men had been under surveillance by city, county and federal agents. The local law enforcement agencies said that the arrests by the state came as a surprise.

Lingo said the state was conducting its investigation separately from any other police agency. Lingo would give no information on the men, nor on results of the questioning. He also declined to definitely link them with the blast at the 16th St. Baptist church Sept. 15 in which four young Negro girls were killed.

The two men arrived at the city jail, where some 2,000 Negro demonstrators were held last spring, in a highway patrol car with two troopers. Dressed in sport shirts and slacks, they covered their faces as they were led into the jail.

Although the investigations into the bombings—there have been at least 40—had been intensified since the church explosion, these were the first arrests. A tip-off that they were coming came Sunday night in Montgomery from the office of Gov. George C. Wallace.

A statement said that "arrests were imminent in the church bombing. But the actual arrest of the church blast, it said: 'State investigators have taken into custody and are holding two persons in connection with the Birmingham bombings. Their identities are being withheld in the interest of the continuing investigation.'

The city has had more than 40 bombings since World War II, but the one which nearly destroyed the 16th Street Baptist church was the worst.

About 20 persons were hurt in the blast, which sparked a near riot. Sporadic outbreaks of violence continued through the day and night. Two young Negroes were shot to death—one by police officers and the other as he was riding a bicycle. Two white youths are free on $10,000 bonds.

Peace, Prosperity JFK Tour Themes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is approaching the 1964 presidential campaign with the apparent hope of borrowing a theme from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower: Peace and prosperity.

Kennedy test-marketed the peace argument during the West-ern tour he just completed. He obviously was pleased with the result, particularly because he drew warm response in the Rocky Mountain area where many voters favor the conservative policies of Sen. Barry Goldwater, Arizona Republican.

Repeatedly, Kennedy was interrupted by applause as he talked up the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, foreign aid and global involvement—all of which he credited with making brighter prospects for peace.

Unquestionably, this choice of subjects was to determine audience reaction. But these topics also concern Kennedy more deeply than the conservation matters that were the announced focal point of his trip.

Ironically, Kennedy was far less successful in striking sparks with appeals for bigger conservation programs than when he argued for internationalist policies.

Plugs for local conservation projects drew applause, but audiences rarely responded to talk about conservation in the broader sense.

Prosperity also figured in Kennedy's trip.

Bosch Exiled, Likely to Live In Puerto Rico

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Ex-President Juan Bosch called into exile today a Dominican navy frigate aboard a Dominican navy frigate today after charging the military coup that overthrew him was organized before his inauguration last February.

A high official source said Bosch would be landed on the French island of Guadalupe, probably early today. With Bosch aboard the frigate Meila were his wife and Gen. Antonio Imbert Barrera, a leader of the military junta which removed the president from office Wednesday on charges he was soft on communism and his administration was chaotic.

Bosch was elected president by an overwhelming vote in the Dominican Republic's first free elections since dictator Rafael L. Trujillo took power more than 30 years ago.

Shortly before he sailed on the Meila Saturday night, the silver-haired ex-president gave a hand-

Ben Bella Sends Troops To Stem Berber Revolt

TIZI OUZOU, Algeria (AP)—Ben Bella entered the Kabylie Mountain town of Tizi Ouzou today to stem a revolt of Berber units in the steep Kabylie ranges.

The government officers described the movement as a putsch, and said the situation was serious.

Ben Bella took personal command of the Defense Ministry with the departure for Moscow of Defense Minister Col. Houari Boumedienne, considered a strong man in the government. Boumedienne left to work out details of a $100 million loan from the Soviet Union.

Berbers in the Kabylie area took to the streets Sunday shouting "Down with Ben Bella!" An underground group calling itself the Front of Socialist Forces—FFS—proclaimed all-out war on Ben Bella's one-man rule.

A government gendarmic commander dispatched from eastern Algeria reported roadblocks had been set up by dissident troops during the night. But the main

ASSURES FINANCE AIDES WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy assured the world's finance ministers today that the United States is determinedly bringing its international payments into balance, will support any needed measures to avoid damaging its trading partners around the globe. The President won a standing ovation from the boards of governors of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund at the opening of their five-day annual meeting. He made his address an occasion also for indirectly nudging the Senate to pass his $11-billion tax cut program, which the House has approved. He said the tax cut is "the most important action Congress can take" to solve the gold-dollar problem.

SURVEYS FAVOR BARRY NEW YORK (AP)—Surveys by news magazines today found that Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is the front contender for the Republican presidential nomination—and that he could give President Kennedy a tight race. Newsweek said its check showed that Goldwater probably has 500 of the 655 GOP convention votes needed to win the party's nomination, and the prospect of considerably more. Similarly, Time magazine indicated that Goldwater could give President Kennedy "a breathlessly close contest" in the present climate of opinion.

TIZI OUZOU, Algeria (AP)—Ben Bella entered the Kabylie Mountain town of Tizi Ouzou today to stem a revolt of Berber units in the steep Kabylie ranges.

The government officers described the movement as a putsch, and said the situation was serious.

Ben Bella took personal command of the Defense Ministry with the departure for Moscow of Defense Minister Col. Houari Boumedienne, considered a strong man in the government. Boumedienne left to work out details of a $100 million loan from the Soviet Union.

Berbers in the Kabylie area took to the streets Sunday shouting "Down with Ben Bella!" An underground group calling itself the Front of Socialist Forces—FFS—proclaimed all-out war on Ben Bella's one-man rule.

A government gendarmic commander dispatched from eastern Algeria reported roadblocks had been set up by dissident troops during the night. But the main
