Rising Ohio Floods Towns In 3 States

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The flooding Ohio River was still rising slowly as it continued to spread destruction over these states today.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said the rampaging river should begin creating a variety of points along its stretches today, although it may not be reached until Saturday far downstream.

Thousands of persons have been forced from their homes in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, and the high waters have been blamed for at least five deaths in Ohio.

Refugees were being cared for in emergency Red Cross shelters set up in the inundated river towns and by relatives.

The Weather Bureau said the river at Cincinnati should crest at 66 1/2 feet at noon Thursday, which would make it the fourth highest in history and the highest since 1942.

It was at 63.5 feet late Tuesday night when it hit the Ohio and its tributaries plunging over their banks.

Queen Elizabeth Has Fourth Child, a Son

LONDON (AP)—British broke-and Prince Andrew, 7 pounds 3 ounces, was born today to the queen's fourth child, a son.

The queen's husband, Prince Philip, went ahead with plans to represent the queen at the funeral of King Paul of Greece Thursday. The prince arranged to arrive in the Great Britain late this afternoon.

The names to be given to the prince were the subject of much public speculation. The favorite was James, in tribute to Scottish Stuart ancestors of the queen. Robert, Rupert and David also were mentioned.

It was the second British royal birth this year. Princess Alexandra, the queen's first child, had a son on Feb. 29, Princess Margaret, the queen's sister, expects her second child soon.

State Leaders React to Lodge Primary Coup

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—Divergent views were expressed today by state leaders of the Goldwater and Rockefeller presidential drives in the wake of the New Hampshire GOP victory of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Newman M. Marvill Jr. of Trumbull, state chairman of the Goldwater for President Committee, expressed disappointment at the Arizona senator's showing in the primary yesterday but indicated the fight for his nomination will be waged in the nation with added vigor.

He sees Gov. Rockefeller as the key Goldwater rival.

Daniel E. Brennan Jr. of Fairfield, state co-chairman of the presidential drive for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, expressed a similar view.

The chairman of the Connecticut State GOP Committee is delighted, a 17-1 victory with Lodge's upset victory in the New Hampshire primary.

"The response," said Roy C. Cowles after last night's victory, "is doubly encouraging since the ambassador would not campaign in New Hampshire and his name wasn't even on the ballot."

Governor John D. Lodge of Westport today interpreted his brother's spectacular win in the primary as "far more than a regional proposition" and predicted future contests would prove his national popularity.

"I think he will do well in Oregon and other states," the former Connecticut governor said.

Smith Will Direct Kennedy Day Camp

Harry F. Smith of 24 Bigelow St., head of the school system's program for the teaching of retarded children, has been appointed director of the recently approved day camp for the mentally retarded.

In making the announcement, Mayor Thomas Mahoney said that the camp, to be operated in cooperation with the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation, will be held at the Kennedy Day Camp.

Smith, a World War II veteran and purple heart winner, has been active since 1948 in teaching and helping the mentally retarded and the handicapped, both in the school system and in summer activities.

For the past two summers, he has served as director of the Harrison summer camp for the mentally retarded, conducted in Waterford by the Connecticut Association for the Mentally Retarded.

Smith and Recreation Department Superintendent James A. Herdic will attend a one-week's training course, beginning Sunday, at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill., under the auspices of the Federal Government.

The Kennedy Day Camp will be operated under a $3,000 grant by the foundation, and by Herdic and Murphy will be in charge of the camp.

The camp will have three or four full-time counselors, plus 20-25 high school seniors and college students as volunteer campers, with swimming facilities, during restricted hours, at the Globe Hollow Pool, and with in-campment activities at the East Side Y.

The Kennedy Foundation has two goals in sponsoring the day camp:

- (1) To provide summer recreation and activities for mentally retarded children.
- (2) To train workers in the program, with the hope that high school seniors and college students will turn to it as their life's work.

Mayor Mahoney appointed an advisory committee for the day camp, consisting of himself, William Curtis, superintendent of schools, Kenneth Welton, president of the Manchester Association for the Retarded, and mentally retarded children:

BOY SCOUT Notes and News

Boy Scout Troop 3, sponsored by the American Legion Post, spent last weekend camping at the Lake of Isles Scout Reservation at North Stratford.

The trip was under the direction of Lewis Manning, Scoutmaster, who was assisted by Arthur Norwood, assistant scoutmaster, and Calvin Russell and Paul Molinari Sr., troop committee members.

On Saturday morning, after breakfast and a camp cleanup, a seven-mile hike around the lake was taken by all tented and second class scouts. First class scouts and star scouts worked on craft projects at camp. During the afternoon there was a scout training session, and then games were led by Tom Lewis Jr., senior patrol leader.

In the evening, a campfire program was held, with songs and stunts. Prizes for a poster contest, held in conjunction with a bottle drive on Saturday, were awarded to Calvin Russell and Paul Molinari Sr.

The annual Town Meeting will be held on April 6. The proposed budget calls for expenditures of $3,528,750, an increase of $473,681.50 over this year's budget.

Continuing to the defense of the town, Samuel Pearl, first selectman, will be studying the salaries for the post office town.

Paul Molinari Jr. was elected as the Order of the Arrow during the camping program to this national Boy Scout camping group. He will join other scouts from the Oak Council in an ordination and induction ceremony in May at the Lake of Isles.

The next camping program will be held the weekend of April 2, 4 and 5 at the troop's campsite in Tolland.

Hartford reported the most claims last week, with 4,680, followed by New Haven with 3,125; then Bridgeport with 2,772; and Waterbury with 4,340.

Rockville-Vernon Tricarico's Raise Protested At Hearing on Town Budget

"If this keeps up we'll soon be paying taxes like West Hartford," was the comment of Stanley Olander at last night's town budget hearing.

Olander, of Rockville, was commenting on a proposal to increase the salary of Andrew Tricarico, town road foreman, from $7,000 to $8,000 per year.

"I think $7,000 is a very nice wage," Olander said. He expressed his opinion that the personnel in the highway department are the highest being paid in the town.

Tricarico's raise was one item in the proposed budget, which was presented to the public the requests of various departments. The Board of Finance will meet in executive session to consider the requests; their final action will be presented at the Annual Town Meeting on April 6.

The proposed budget calls for expenditures of $3,528,750, an increase of $473,681.50 over this year's budget.

Stamps In The News

The second commemorative stamp of the year to be issued by the United Nations will honor the U.N. Conference on Trade and Development and will have first-day ceremonies March 22. This is the date the conference convenes in Geneva.

The international conference has an estimated 1,000 participants from 120 countries. It will consider problems involved in the expansion of trade and will have practical steps to meet the special needs of developing nations. It will continue until June 16.

The new stamp has a basic design of a globe, pointing in two directions, denoting a global flow of trade. The stamp will be red and yellow and black. The 11 cent will be five green, yellow and black.

There was no way to stop South from putting a diamond in the ace, and he did it. East must play low. Even if South puts up the king of diamonds, West can with the second diamond and the queen and can then return a diamond. This defense will produce three diamond tricks and thus defeat the contract.

As declarer, you hold: Spades, A-8-3; Hearts, A-4-3; Diamonds, A-8-4; Clubs, A-4-3. What do you play? Answer: Bid one diamond.

There was no explanation here of the much softer wording of Tuesday night's statement. There was some suggestion that U.S. officials were puzzled, if not embarrassed, by the fact that the RB68 with a pilot and two navigators aboard had strayed across the dividing line in Germany and gotten over Communist territory.

There was no explanation of how this happened. The previous incident was also explained.

The Air Force said the twin jet aircraft was on a routine training mission from Toul, France, and that the crew had been briefed to fly a practice mission over West Germany.

Before takeoff, the Air Force told The Associated Press here, "emergency procedures near the border were reviewed and crews advised that, if there was any discrepancy near the border, to immediately take up a westerly heading" away from the Communist area.

The RB68 was last spotted near the central Berlin air corridor, one of the lanes reserved for Allied planes flying over Communist territory between Berlin and West Germany, an Air Force announcement said.

A civilian pilot said he saw what looked like an attack dive by a Soviet-made MIG-17. He said he saw a flash as if the

Downed Jet Strayed; U.S. Embarrassed

M. Korolev, minister counselor for the Soviet Embassy, announced that U.S. "delivered a strong oral protest" to the Soviet diplomat against "the precipitous action" by Soviet military forces in shooting down a RB68.

Tyler also expressed the U.S. government's regrets that the plane became lost and in violation of the demarcation line between the Federal Republic (West Germany) and East Germany.

This was the second incident of this kind in six weeks and the wording of the U.S. protest after the Soviet destruction of a U.S. T-28 jet trainer on Jan. 29 was much harsher. All three men in the trainer were killed.

At that time Tyler made no apology and denounced the Soviet Union's shooting down of the T-28 as "a callous and inexcusably brutal act of violence against an unarmed aircraft."

There was no explanation here of the much softer wording of Tuesday night's statement. There was some suggestion that U.S. officials were puzzled, if not embarrassed, by the fact that the RB68 with a pilot and two navigators aboard had strayed across the dividing line in Germany and gotten over Communist territory.

There was no explanation of how this happened. The previous incident was also explained.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the differences over the Panama Canal, U.S. officials said today the South Vietnam government plans changes in its strategic hamlet program to help speed the war against Communist guerrillas.

They said the new program would include reducing to a minimum the number of forced relocations of peasants into strategic hamlets, payment of compensation to peasants required to leave their homes and providing security, economic and social benefits quickly.

The strategic hamlet program proved successful in combating Communist subversion in Malaya, but it has failed thus far in South Vietnam.

American authorities felt the regime of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem built too many of the hamlet sites in mountainous villages. Many could not be defended.

BUSINESS: Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges says business investment is expected to climb to a record $42.2 billion this year.

His prediction at a news conference Tuesday was backed by figures released by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Hodges, when asked if the increase in business spending was a forecast of an economic boom replied, "You know I don't like that word."

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Police were reported today to have arrested 49 suspected Communists in Thailand's strategic northeastern provinces, where Communist infiltration has long been a problem.

The Thai government has conducted a series of anti-Communist raids in the northeast over the past four years because of the improved region is open to infiltration from the Soviet Union.

The 18,000 officers would have to spend $30 or so out of their own pockets.

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet scientists have concluded that the moon is covered by a "hoax" of nervous substances and that the interior is solid.

The Soviet space agency said this conclusion was based on a study of radio waves emanating from the moon.

TORONTO (AP)—Cancer insurance is available in Ontario for both smokers and non-smokers.

British Pacific Life Insurance Co. has announced its new cancer insurance in advertisements.

The number of cigarettes smoked determines the terms of payment. The insurance premiums range from $10 to $80 a year, depending on age and coverage.

The policy covers up to $10,000 for all necessary medical expenses.

A nonsmoker pays a quarter-of premium, a pack-a-day man pays a semi-annual and a pack-a-day man an annual premium.

ROME (AP)—The suburban villa where Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius is believed to have been born in A.D. has been discovered in excavations or a hospital.

The rambling, brick structure is between the Lancia and Cilian Hills, south of the Colosseum.

next month. The Duchess of Kent, Alexandra's sister-in-law, expects her second child in May.

The queen's husband, Prince Philip, 42, telephoned the news of his new son to Queen Mother Elizabeth, Princess Margaret and other members of the royal family.

"The new prince is third in line of succession to the throne, behind his brothers, Charles, 13, and Andrew, 4. He rates ahead of his sister, Anne, 15.

The baby was delivered by a team of five physicians headed by Sir John Peel, 68, the gynecologist who attended the births of Charles, Andrew and Anne.

45 at Meeting Of South PTA

About 45 parents and teachers turned out for last night's meeting of the South School PTA to hear talks by two school board members.

Baldo Schaffer, chairman of the finance committee, reviewed the board's proposed school operating budget. The Community College budget, and the capital improvements budget for next year, which, if approved by $4,400,000.

Individual items affecting the budget discussed by Schaffer included teachers' salaries, proposed curriculum study, pay schedules for department heads and extra-curricular activities.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)— Air-line personnel seem to be being up in the wide younger even when they're not flying, if their choice of living quarters is any indicator.

A new apartment house near Newark Airport has leased 37 of the buildings 180 units to pilots and navigators based at the airport.

Dancers Complain

MOSCOW (AP)—Dancers of the Bolshoi Ballet complained today they are suffering from too many accidents while training and dancing.

They blamed the accidents on the pressure to produce more and better dances. Some dancers are forced to dance while they are ill, the complaint said.

The complaint was signed by some of the top Bolshoi stars and published by the official medical newspaper, Medical Workers.

They gave no specific examples of accidents, but judging from the article they were talking about such things as twisted joints, strained backs and perhaps even cracked or broken limbs.

that the state had not proved its case against Ruby. The judge promptly denied the motion and called a 30-minute recess.

Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Baltimore psychiatrist, spelled out the core of the defense case: "An abnormal individual with an abnormal personality structure... under a very great emotional impact for two days... came upon this perpetrator of the assassination (of President Kennedy)... a psychotic episode... with the homicide resulting."

Ruby faces the electric chair on a charge of murdering Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, in Dallas, Nov. 24. His defense is temporary insanity.

"I don't think he (Ruby) was capable of distinguishing between right and wrong or knew the nature and quality of his act at the time of the homicide," Guttmacher testified.

Guttmacher was one of several psychiatrists who examined Ruby. Two others have testified they believe Ruby has organic brain damage and suffers from psychomotor epilepsy.

Dr. Walter Bromberg, clinical director of Pinewood Psychiatric Hospital in Kewanee, Ill., may be called. Chief defense counsel Melvin Bell said he is holding Bromberg as an "ambush witness" to rebut whatever psychiatric testimony the prosecution may present against Ruby.

After Guttmacher, the defense's star witness, finished testifying, Bell commented, "I'd say we had a very good day."

The psychiatrist said he believes Ruby was "struggling to keep his sanity" after the assassination of Kennedy. He said Ruby told him, "I feel for that man." Guttmacher said Ruby considered the President the "head of the ideal family."

Guttmacher said Ruby told him Oswald looked to him like "a rat, a vicious, cunning animal." The psychiatrist said Ruby has no guilt feelings over killing Oswald.

Asst. Atty. William Alexander, in cross-examination, asked Guttmacher: "Did he know where he was, did he know what he was doing, and know the consequences of his act?"

Guttmacher replied: "If he knew all these things, then I certainly think it would not be the act of temporary insanity. Individual I think with all those ingredients he would be acting more normally." Alexander's question embroiled circumstances of the slaying were given by Ruby and members of Ruby's family.

The attorney asked: "If he was untruthful to you about what happened at the time of the shooting, would that mean he knew what he was doing?"

"I think so," Guttmacher said.

Rome Says Darwin Confessed Freely

For various periods during the week.

Maj. Rome said that messages at court as well as from reporters are placed at a corner of his blotter for his attention.

"I'm not a reporter," Atty. Shea shouted. "The right of a man to see his lawyer is so important to you?"

But Maj. Rome said he received no messages. "I didn't think he had attorneys," he said. Maj. Rome also denied that he was informed of any personal visits by Darwin's attorneys at Hartford and Stafford Springs.

Troop officers called weekend. The state police official also said he received no messages that a deputy sheriff was looking for him during the weekend to deliver a writ of habeas corpus.

"In this matter of these routine messages that are above off?" Atty. Shea asked. "I don't know what you're talking about," he said. "I think you're talking about the meaning of innocuous."

"I think you're talking about 'to check in a dictionary' to be sure."

"Isn't this what happened to Darwin from the time you arrested him to the Sunday in court?" Shea asked.

"I don't know what you're talking about," he said.

Darwin was held on a corporation's warrant from Dec. 6 to Dec. 8 when he was served with a bench warrant formally charging him with the murder.

Maj. Rome asked Darwin if he was not feeding back information to his lawyer when he had the alleged confession Dec. 7, replied "This would have been absolutely impossible. He said that Darwin gave that later was checked in the state police laboratory could only have been known by the murderer."

During Rome's testimony Darwin was written in a fast flap in a notebook. Occasionally he glanced at Maj. Rome.

"The state police official said that Darwin during any period of time that he was held had 'conversations' with the attorneys," he said.

Today that at times Darwin was brought to get a 'kick' out of the weekend.

Atty. Shea said that the defendant was in state police custody. The state police official insisted that Darwin was not feeding back information to his lawyer when he had the alleged confession Dec. 7, replied "This would have been absolutely impossible. He said that Darwin gave that later was checked in the state police laboratory could only have been known by the murderer."

No bodies have been found, but indications are that Collins listed as a passenger was the local man. A friend with whom he had been staying in Times Square took the plane.

Collins had taken the plane. The plane was seen on Texas on vacation with friends and was on route home.

Waugh to Resign
STORRS (AP) — Albert E. Waugh, provost of the University of Connecticut, is planning to retire at the end of the 1964-65 academic year.

Waugh's intention to resign was announced by University President Homer D. Babcock Jr. in a letter to faculty members.

Waugh joined the faculty in 1924 as instructor of agricultural economics. He was professor of rural economics when the university was still the Connecticut Agricultural College.

He became assistant professor, associate professor and professor of economics, then dean of the department of economics from 1929 to 1942.

From 1945 to 1950 he was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

In a tribute to Waugh, Babcock said that "the strength of this university today is in substantial part attributable to his able and dedicated leadership."

Maj. Rome said that at one point that he offered Darwin a drink because he appeared nervous.

"I said, 'You have a lot to drink. Do you want a drink?'"

He said he had a drink with him when he was in the cell.

Atty. Shea asked if he had the drink.

"I didn't have any liquor," Maj. Rome replied. He said he had a drink with him when he was in the cell.

Maj. Rome said that he was talking but denied any threats were made or promises used.

"It was obvious to anyone who was present that Darwin was lying about murdering the girl," Maj. Rome said. "We learned from tests he had taken that no one in the world could have written the confession that investigators only had 'conversations' with the attorneys."

He repeated today that at times Darwin was brought to get a 'kick' out of the weekend.

Atty. Shea said that the defendant was in state police custody. The state police official insisted that Darwin was not feeding back information to his lawyer when he had the alleged confession Dec. 7, replied "This would have been absolutely impossible. He said that Darwin gave that later was checked in the state police laboratory could only have been known by the murderer."

Lodge Takes 35% of Vote, To Remain in Saigon Post

Goldwater, claiming victory in advance, said he expected to capture seven to 10 delegates.

Five of the delegate races were state-wide, and he expected to win each New Hampshire congressional district.

There were a scattered few write-in votes for Gov. William W. DeMott, and for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. Kennedy received 35 percent of the vote.

Despite the snowstorm, the Republican turnout totaled some 20,000 voters. Goldwater had placed it at 90,000 to 100,000.

New Hampshire Democrats staged a write-in drive of their own in what Gov. John W. King called "an expression and recommitment" that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy be the party's nominee for vice president.

His leaders had some last-minute changes in the slate of candidates that topped that President Johnson would endorse the President.

The outcome questioned those who predicted that Kennedy would be elected.

New Hampshire voters also approved a substance called "the victory of moderation."

The New York governor termed his reaction with complete confidence in the New Hampshire "the victory of moderation."

He called on would-be voters to "come on in and take their position in the New Hampshire election."

Goldwater and Goldwater said they will head for California to meet with Mrs. Schard, 31 Eastland Dr.; Mrs. Estelle J. Simpson, 72 School St.; Mrs. William J. Dool, of Green Manor Rd.

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Newspaper Editor, The Star

Of what use is the thyroid gland? Like your left thumb, it is there to be used. If it is not used, it is a waste of space. It is a gland of internal secretion. It secretes a substance called thyroxine which is an essential part of the body's metabolism. It controls the rate at which the body uses energy.

Thyroid gland dysfunction is a common condition. It can be caused by a variety of factors, including heredity, infection, and autoimmune disease. Symptoms include weight gain, fatigue, and depression.

Diagnosis is usually made through blood tests. Treatment involves hormone replacement therapy.

Bolton School Board Award Bids

The board of education awarded bids on movable equipment for the junior-senior high school last night and came out in the black. The allocation by the public building commission was $38,850. Expenditures by the board of education will total $38,854.19. In the action area, some of this money will be recovered eventually under the National Defense Education Act.

The board will invite bids again in the science, home economics and industrial arts areas because of a lack of quotations. They will also invite further bids on a photocopier and on arts materials equipment. These items are budgeted for and have been advertised, thereby satisfying the requirements of the town ordinance. The board was concerned that they continue to comply with the ordinance. Board member Kenneth Matthews, vice president and member of the PBC, said he did not foresee any difficulties.

Considerable time was spent discussing typewriters and the merits of having students learn on manual as opposed to electric typewriters. It was finally decided to equip the typing room with electric and the general office room with manual of different makes.

The Smith Corona will supply 27 electric typewriters at $190 each. Two of these are for general office use, the rest for instruction. These typewriters are compact units with the full keyboard, guaranteed fully for two years and replaceable rollers every two years with new machines at half each.

For the office practice room, a Royal will be purchased at $185, a Smith Corona at $122.40 and a Remington at $135.

Connecticut Typewriter will supply a duplicator at $675, two Ditto machines at $200 each and a mimeograph at $54. Two dictating machines at $470 each will be purchased from IBM. Underwood-Olivetti will supply a substitutor at $475 and two adding machines at $200 each. National Typewriter will supply a timer at $8.00.

Board member Walter Wadsworth, who has had experience with many different office machines in his work, spoke about the various machines.

The office machines are for the business education program and for the administrative office.

Senior physical education equipment will be supplied by Hurlfield at $2,010.00. Additional indoor-outdoor physical education equipment will be sought for $1,000.00. The board adjusted their budget so that all equipment necessary will be purchased exclusive equipment needed for varsity sports with the exception of soccer.

Some sets and crafts supplies will be purchased from Wolcott. Invitations will be sought on the rest, to a total of $1,973.54.

Administrative office furniture will be purchased from Davis and Ryan at $1,471.85. Harris and Harris will demonstrate transparency equipment at the April 7 meeting. Tentatively allocated for this purchase is $750.00.

According to Supt. Philip C. Largent, everything, including chairs and tables for the lunch area in the double classroom, is now within the budget. Chairs

Court Upsets ZBA Verdict

Judge John A. Spallone of the Hartford County Court of Common Pleas has overruled a Nov. 18 action of the town's zoning board of appeals (ZBA) which would have permitted the move of a local package store from one non-conforming location to another.

The ZBA had granted John St. DeQuattro of 134 Constance St. a variance to move a package store from 40 1/2 Main St. to 415 Main St., both in violation of the town's 1,000 sq. ft. (between liquor outlets) regulation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siano of 9 Lily St., whose property abuts the intended location, opposed the ZBA action, and retained Atty. Robert W. Gordon to argue the case.

In sustaining the appeal, the court overruled the ZBA on the basis that no new evidence had been submitted by DeQuattro since October 1962 when he had been denied the variance.

The ZBA was represented in the action by Town Counsel Irving Aronson.

Merchants Hear Renewal Plans

Downtown merchants who have not attended any of a series of day-time meetings on the proposed downtown urban renewal project are invited to a meeting at 7:30 tonight at the Franklin Building cafeteria in Educational Square, 1181 Main St.

Edward Rybozyk, executive director of the Manchester Redevelopment Agency (MRA) and Alexander Penny, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC), will explain the work schedule for the proposed project, and its impact on downtown business and professional people.

The session is being sponsored by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce.

The United States Department of Agriculture estimates that about 25 per cent of the consumer food dollar is spent in public, away-from-home eating places.

Bennet Drama Club in Comedy

Members of the Bennet Junior High School Drama Club are shown in dress rehearsal polishing their third-act farce comedy "Good Night Ladies" which will present in public performance Friday at 2:30 p.m. and Saturday at 7:40 p.m. in the Bennet auditorium. The plot revolves around the attempts of three orphan children — all of college age — to turn their home on a college campus into a girls' dormitory in order to meet the mortgage payments. When the chaperones fail to arrive on opening day, confusion and hilarity result — and the dean of women threatens to close down the dorm. Jeff Dupont, on couch, is wooed by the charms of disguised Bruce Derrick. Right, Jeff is being revived by Kathy Knoxa, with pitcher, while Ken Bomberger, Judy Meiers and Nancy Solomon look on aghast. Tickets will be on sale at the door. (Herald photo by Barbara).

GOING UP

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The price of car batteries in West Germany will go up by about five per cent because of a 10 per cent increase in the price of lead, an industry spokesman said. The hike will go into effect as soon as great stocks of lead are depleted.

DINING OUT

The session is being sponsored by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce.

FOR THE GYMNASIUM-AUDITORIUM

are not included, although the 150 lunch chairs can be used. Last night's meeting was held at Wadwell's home in order to obtain a quorum. Wadwell, who broke his leg last week, was not allowed out on the ice on his crutches. John McCarroll was absent.

The board will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. to continue the March agenda. Supt. Liguori said that he will give the remainder of his superintendent's report in writing, enabling the board to get on to the new business.

A discussion of kindergarten funding for next year and a progress report on site selection for the proposed new elementary school. First Selectman Richard Morris will be asked to confer with the board over more removal of the high school.

The board will go into executive session to discuss a replacement for George Banks, who resigned last week. The appointment must be made within 30 days of his resignation. The board voted to waive its policy of not conducting board business outside of meetings in order to seek good candidates for the position.

It is reported that although Banks was a Democrat, the board is not legally bound to appoint a Democratic replacement. The board stands three Democrats to three Republicans at this time.

The board will meet again on March 24 in executive session for contract negotiations with the superintendent.

No quorum. Tickets could not be obtained.

Rising Ohio Floods Towns In 3 States

span over the weekend and ended Tuesday.

Small boats replaced autos on main streets in small cities and towns from Portsmouth, Ohio to Louisville, Ky. Hundreds of homes were under water and only the rooftops could be seen.

Damage was running into the millions of dollars as entire business sections in riverfront towns and those in towns along streams which feed into the Ohio were inundated.

The $2-million Markland Dam at Marietta, Ind., was stopping traffic on the Ohio. When the river reached close to 60 feet at Cincinnati, said a deputy U.S. engineer, "the water was over the locks and we could operate them no longer."

At Evansville, Ind., the Red Cross said it was caring for about 120 families. The trial may reach 300 before the river is expected to crest there Saturday.

The Weather Bureau said there are no changes in predicted Ohio River crests be- tween Pittsburgh and Wheeling, W. Va. At Pittsburgh, where flood stage is 28 feet, the river was 20.9 feet and was expected to crest at 22 feet early today. The river was over the 28-foot mark at Wheeling and was expected to crest at 42 feet this afternoon.

Louisville and other towns and cities in Kentucky experienced their worst floods. Only a few of the 2,000 residents at Fair- mouth, Ky., remained in their homes as the Licking River crested at 67.1, making it the highest flood crest in Fair- mouth's history. Flood stage is 28 feet.

Dayton and Ludlow, Ky., were other hard hit Ohio River com- munities. Four hundred homes had been evacuated along Day- ton's two-mile waterfront and the yellow floodwaters chased 200 Ludlow families from their homes.

Other towns under water were New Richmond, Manchester and Ripley, Ohio. Portsmouth, Ohio, although protected by a 77-foot flood wall, was partially isolated as high waters eroded over main highways.

At Enterprise, Ohio, the Hook- ing River, a tributary of the Ohio, crested Tuesday after- noon at 21.5 feet, 10 feet above flood stage and the highest since 1907.

Dr. Gram Talks On Golden Age

The Bolton Art Club will hear an illustrated talk by Dr. Peter B. Gram on "The Golden Age of Greek Art" at its meeting tomorrow at the Community Hall.

A native of Athens, Dr. Gram came to this country after World War II to study medicine, aided by an American whom he met in the OSS. He received his pre-medical training at the University of Rochester, where he also took his residency. He is an orthopedic surgeon in Manchester and lives with his wife and six children on Vernon Rd.

A life-long interest in Greek art and history was renewed during a six-week trip to Greece last year. The slides with which he will illustrate his talk were taken during the trip. Anyone interested is invited to attend. The meeting starts at 8 p.m., the program at 8:30. Members are reminded to bring paintings from which the picture of the month will be chosen.

The annual science fair is being held today. Exhibits will be on display from 8:30 to 7:30 p.m. and after the presentations of awards at 7:30.

Directors Favor Cutting Size Of Globe Hollow Bathhouse

The town's board of directors voted last night to chop eight feet from the width of the proposed Globe Hollow bathhouse, in an effort to trim the $23,000 estimated cost of the building.

The vote was unanimous — but came after the two Republican members of the board, James Turkin and Harlan Taylor, objected that the recreation officials who roughed out the plans for the building ought to have an opportunity to review the proposed changes and defend their original specifications. Both indicated they believed the plans might have been drawn with some specific purpose of which the directors were unaware.

The plans for the bathhouse were originally sketched by recreation superintendent James Herdic and approved by the Park and Recreation Advisory Board after final plans were prepared by Puns and Building Inspector Thomas Monahan.

General Manager Richard Martin agreed the revisions should go to the Advisory Board before final approval is given by the directors. The Democrats concurred, and agreed to a tightly scheduled review procedure. This calls for:

1. Preparation of new plans for the cut down bathhouse, to take about a week.
2. Review of the plans by the Park and Recreation Advisory Committee, at their scheduled March 13 meeting if the plans are ready.
3. Advertising the revised plans for bids if the advisory committee agrees to the modifications, advertising of both old and new plans if the committee does not agree.

Approval from the directors of an appropriation for the bathhouse if the advisory committee approves the revised plans, or a meeting of recreation officials and the directors if they don't agree at the April 7 meeting.

General Manager Martin said that the agreed schedule would still probably allow enough time to complete the bathhouse by swimming season.

Lodge came out publicly in November 1951, in favor of drafting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination. He was practically alone among the political "big names" who did so — until he scored a smashing victory in the 1952 presidential primary in New Hampshire.

Lodge was the leader at the GOP national convention in Chicago that summer, where Eisenhower won the nomination over Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Lodge was the prime mover in the campaign which resulted in Eisenhower's November election over Adlai E. Stevenson.

But while Lodge was working for Ike he was away from his political fences in Massachusetts. A young congressman by the name of John F. Kennedy upset him in the Bay State Senate race and Lodge was out of the race in the summer of 1962. He was back on the national

School Registration Cabot Lodge Built Career Of Surprises

Parents of children who will attend kindergarten in September are reminded that they are required to register their children in April with the schools.

At registration, the parent must present certificates for smallpox and polio immunization. A child must have had a series of three Polio Salk Vaccine or a series of Oral Sabin Polio Vaccine in the three types of polio.

It would benefit women who probably are covered by their husbands' insurance policies.

Of the 53 employees in the lowest bracket, Ostrinsky said, all but eight are women and probably not family wage earners. Of the eight men, only five are married.

Apples Trim Trees

many families have Christmas trees — although this custom is relatively rare in southern Europe — but they decorate them with apples and oranges in place of tinsel. This keeps alive an old tradition that all the trees bore fruit when Christ was born.

He had been an avowed isolationist before World War II, saying, "This is not our war," even though he was a leader in the preparedness movement.

Afterward he was quick to admit that, "I was 100 per cent wrong."

"The Lodge who came back from the war was not the Lodge who had gone overseas," he said and worked to win Senate approval of the Marshall Plan and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.
