Bridgeport Bank Robbed of $5,000

SHELTON (AP) — Two bandits held up a branch of the City Savings Bank of Bridgeport and fled with about $5,000.

A short time later, police arrested two men in Norwalk as they were leaving the Connecticut Pike in a rented automobile.

Police said that the men were armed and had a shopping bag stuffed with cash.

One of the bandits had a gunshot wound in the foot.

Police said he apparently shot himself when he fired a shot outside of the bank while escaping from the building. No one in the bank was hurt.

Police identified the men as Truman Word of El Paso, Tex., and Michael O'Shea of Fairfield, Conn.

They said it was O'Shea who had the wounded foot. O'Shea was treated for the wound by a physician while being questioned at Norwalk Police Headquarters.

The authorities said all the loot from the holdup was recovered.

"Clear out the cash drawers," was the order given to teller Michael Sweeney. No customers were in the bank at the time of the holdup—about 11:05 a.m.

Richard Smith and Karl Eisenman, partners in a next door real estate firm, heard a commotion and went outside to see what had happened.

They came face-to-face with the bandit as he left the bank. They said the bandit fired a shot that hit the doorman outside the bank.

"He fired one shot," Smith said, "out of at our feet. He wanted to scare us. Then he told my partner, 'Get up those stairs or I'll kill you.'"

In the bank at the time were Manager Howard Luntz, teller Sweeney and clerks Ruth Cockrell and Joan Sapienza.

5-Day Forecast

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau today issued the five-day forecast for tomorrow through Saturday.

Temperatures in Connecticut during the five day period are expected to average near normal to about 5 degrees above normal.

At the beginning of the period with a cool trend toward the end of the period.

Some normal high and low in Connecticut will be Hartford, 47 and 29, and New Haven, 47 and 32.

Precipitation may total up to about one tenth inch melted occurring as scattered showers or snow flurries toward the end of the period.

2 Die in Fire

BLOOMFIELD (AP) — Only one of three brothers escaped alive yesterday as a fire destroyed a two-story frame house.

Stanley Kulas, 57, who managed to reach the outside, told police he thought the blaze might have been caused by lighting too much wood in the stove used for heating.

The victims were his brothers, Alex, 55, and John, 46. The house was on a tobacco farm on Blue Hills Ave. Ext. where all three worked.

Firemen said that Stanley, a cripple, threw himself from a second floor window to escape the flames. He crawled about 400 feet to the farm foreman's house in an attempt to give the alarm.

Alarm was turned in by two passing motorists.

Denies Implications

HARTFORD (AP) — State's Atty. Gen. D. LaBelle says he meant no implication of wrongdoing on the part of the Church Street Parking Co. of Hartford in his report on the State Highway Department.

The company's attorney, minutes later came a second signal that the crew was abandoning ship.

Coast Guard and Navy planes took off from Puerto Rican bases and spotted the lifeboat bobbing in the waves. The planes circled the survivors and communicated by means of a radio parachute to the lifeboat.

UAW Hears President in Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — President Johnson told the United Auto Workers today that Congress will pass both the civil rights bill and the medical assistance bill for the aged.

In his first address to a major union, President Johnson received a rousing welcome from the 3,000 delegates and perhaps 9,000 guests in the Atlantic City Convention Hall where the Democratic National Convention will be held this summer.

The audience broke into his address with loud and frequent applause.

One of the loudest outbursts came when he told the convention that "we are going to pass the civil rights bill if it takes all summer."

The convention has adopted a resolution backing the bill and criticized what it called "the shameful, undemocratic filibuster in the Senate."

The President was not making a political speech labeled as such. But his talk had political overtones. He and his party are counting on heavy labor backing.

Johnson lauded the UAW as "a clean, honest and progressive union led by President Walter Reuther and his fellow officials, all elected democratically by your votes."

He said the UAW is making a contribution to "responsible, industrial democracy in our country and support for our free system of working men throughout the entire world."

Soviets to Return Two U.S. Fliers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has agreed to return two American fliers shot down over East Germany March 10.

The announcement that the two were to be freed was made Sunday by Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation."

He got the word by telephone from Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin just before going on the air.

"I would hope the matter will not be taken off the books," Rusk said. The secretary did not say when the fliers would be freed, only that "they shortly will be back in this country."

The fliers are Capt. David I. Holland, 35, of Holland, Minn., and Melvin J. Kessler, 31, of Philadelphia. The third member of the crew, Lt. Harold W. Welch, 24, of Detroit, was freed by Soviet authorities Saturday.

The Americans were aboard a reconnaissance plane shot down by Soviet fighters in East German airspace. The three parachuted to safety.

Rusk said there were no dealings with the East Germans in getting the fliers released. He denied that the plane was on a spying mission.

The Russians have been insisting that the fate of the Americans was a matter to be settled by the United States and East Germany. Washington has refused to deal with the East German government, contending the Soviet Union is still the occupying authority in East Germany.

The Russians "are simply releasing" the men, Rusk said. "The Soviets came to their own decision."

But State Department Chairman A. Searles Pinney had no comment and said he would have none until later this week.

His comment and that of other GOP leaders could come tomorrow when Republican legislators meet in Hartford to discuss legislative and congressional redistricting problems.

While Dempsey was planning a meeting designed to discuss means of tightening Highway Department procedures, he announced he had already initiated a series of reforms.

Five highway department employees were among 10 men arrested after an 11-month investigation into department operations. Another arrest is expected.

The state's attorney, who led the investigation, accompanied the arrests with a report critical of the department's land appraisal procedures.

Despite the apparent ammunition supplied in the LaBelle report, only one ranking Republican reacted quickly with criticism.

State Sen. Robert L. Bliss, R-New Canaan, demanded Saturday that Ives resign. Ives rejected the demand.

Barry Adopts Tougher Line In California

WASHINGTON (AP) — Schooled in the snows of New Hampshire, Sen. Barry Goldwater's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination is gradually taking a new shape—and a tougher line—in the California sun.

In the primary contest he considers crucial to his bid for the White House, the Arizona senator has made clear that he intends to handle other Republican hopefuls on his terms, not theirs.

He has sharpened his assault on President Johnson, bearing down on two issues: the situation in South Viet Nam and the case of former Senate Democratic secretary Bobby Baker.

Goldwater still envisions direct attacks on New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. In California, he has sought by implication to enlist the support of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower for his style of primary campaigning.

He indirectly invoked Eisenhower, too, in his efforts to put to rest Rockefeller charges of extremism in Goldwater's California campaign camp.

Those were the trademarks of the 10-day California push he wound up Saturday. Goldwater plans to spend about three weeks more hunting votes for the June 2 primary election for the award to the winner a bloc of seats in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Darwin Reiterates Confession False

By A. J. CHEMERSI
Roy F. Darwin, back on the witness stand for more than a year, insisted today he gave police a false confession Dec. 8 so that he could see his family and lawyers. The first degree murder defendant testified for almost two hours today.

Friday he underwent intense questioning by the state for more than three hours.

The defense is expected to wind up its case in the five-week trial at Tolland County Superior Court sometime today. The case is expected to go before the jury this week, after the state presents its rebuttal witnesses.

Special Asst. State's Atty. Etalo G. Gnuttli asked Darwin, "How would it get you to your family to confess a murder?"

The answer man said he began thinking of his teen-aged daughter and his older son, and wanted to see them. He suddenly broke into loud sobbing, and said "That's why and that's plenty too."

His 19-year-old son, Roy Jr., stationed in the U.S. Army at Monterey, Calif., was in court today.

Atty. Gnuttli suggested to the defendant that his family would have been less disturbed if he hadn't confessed to the murder, Darwin agreed.

What advantage was there in making a statement, Atty. Gnuttli asked.

"Only that they would have lawyers," Darwin said.

The defendant repeated over and over again during his testimony today, "I wanted to get out." Darwin was held Dec. 8-9 by state police under a coroner's warrant. The confession police say he made Dec. 8 and testimony of a re-enactment of the crime, have been entered in evidence by the state.

Private White Community Reported Planned by Klan

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A new plan to escape integration is being considered by Ku Klux Klan leaders who spoke at a mass Klan rally attended by Black Muslims.

Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., imperial wizard of the United Klans of America, Inc., told The Associated Press in an interview Sunday night that the Klan is considering a pilot private Caucasian community.

"It's still in the planning stage," he said.

Earlier, at a rally in Atlanta, he said, "and it may be more than a year before any Calvin Craig, grand dragon of the Georgia Klan, described the plan to a group of Klan leaders. He said that Dr. Martin L. King Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, "has gone as far as he can with the peaceful movement. The Negroes realize that even with what they are not going to get when they want."

Craig said the Klan was not

Ballots or Bullets, Warns Malcolm X

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm X, the rebel Black Muslim leader, says it's time Negroes down South put the weight of ballots behind their fight for ballots.

He told 1,000 cheering Negroes at a Harlem rally Sunday night, "It's time for you and me to let the government know it's ballots—or bullets."

Malcolm added: "No more turning the other cheek. No more live like that. There will be non-violence only with those who are not violent with us."

It was Malcolm's first public rally since he bolted March from Elijah Muhammad's Nation of Islam to organize Negroes into a new civil rights movement, emphasizing "self-defense."

His first effort, he said, will be a voter registration drive.

Negro voters, Malcolm asserted, have the "power to determine who will sit in the White House and who will sit in the doghouse."

But in the Deep South, "in order to start casting ballots, you have to have some bullets," he said.

In the first two weeks of the civil rights fight the Senate met at 11 a.m., an hour early, and

Rights Bill Fight in 13th Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate civil rights battle moves into its 13th day today with leaders asking 15-hour daily sessions in hopes of getting a vote by midweek on bringing the bill to the floor.

A steady stream of Dixie oratory, with more on tap, raises doubts that Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's timetable can be kept.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., floor general for the 19 Southerners fighting the measure, made no objection this weekend when the assistant Democratic leader, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, floor manager for the legislation, asked unanimous consent to bring the Senate in two hours earlier than usual.

Plans are to keep the Senate in session until 10 p.m. each night.

In the first two weeks of the civil rights fight the Senate met at 11 a.m., an hour early, and kept grinding away until well past the dinner hour. Last Thursday, when a Democratic fund-raising dinner with President Johnson as chief speaker was held, the Senate quit early.

Hope for a brief Easter recess, possibly from Friday through Monday, may speed calling up the bill.

Even after the measure reaches the floor, unlimited debate still will be possible on a promised effort by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., to send it to the Judiciary Committee for hearings. There could be unlimited debate, too, on amendments, substitutes or other actions. All this talk could be out of, however, if leaders muster the two-thirds majority required for cloture.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., hit at the Senate-passed measure in his prepared speech today as "designed to slip the heavy hand of the federal government indiscreetly into the con-

Ship Blazes, Crew Saved

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Twenty seamen were rescued from the Caribbean Sunday night after abandoning the blazing freighter Beth, owned by a New Yorker, and skippered by his brother.

The Liberian freighter World Jockey picked up the men from their lifeboat and headed for a rendezvous with the Coast Guard cutter Aurora, which was dispatched to bring them to San Juan. They were due today.

All the survivors were reported in good condition. Among them were George Markakis, the master, and the chief engineer, Alexander Markakis.

The Beth's radioman, Andreas Markakis of New York, was reported about to sink as she wallowed in seas south of the Dominican Republic. The flames fed by a cargo of lubricating oil and chemicals.

The freighter caught fire about 2 a.m. Sunday while sailing from Port Arthur, Tex., to the French island of Martinique southeast of Puerto Rico.

The Beth's radioman flashed word to the Coast Guard at San Juan 300 miles away that the fire had gotten out of control.

Minutes later came a second signal that the crew was abandoning ship.

Coast Guard and Navy planes took off from Puerto Rican bases and spotted the lifeboat bobbing in the waves. The planes circled the survivors and communicated by means of a radio parachute to the lifeboat.

Geneva (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant appealed today for new patterns of planning world trade that would raise the living standards of the poor nations. He said the Communist world should be allowed to play a larger role in the international marketplace.

"How long shall we permit blind economic forces to control human relations?" he asked at the opening of the U.N. conference on trade and development.

The Burmese U.N. chief crystallized the sentiments of the majority of representatives from the have-not nations, who are demanding a larger slice of world trade for themselves. His speech's soft-pedaled the classical methods of reciprocal trade deals being pressed here by the United States and some of its industrialized trading partners.

Thant concentrated instead on the needs of the have-not nations.

Thant conciliatory toward Panama

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says the United States is "prepared to review every issue which now divides us" and Panama.

The President gave a detailed statement of his views on the Panamanian dispute in a letter to the Organization of American States, which he read to White House newsmen Saturday.

The newsmen were attending a routine briefing by press secretary George A. Reedy, when Johnson walked in unannounced. After he read his statement, the President answered questions on Panama and several other subjects.

Panama's ambassador to the O.A.S., Miguel Alemán, said he would have to study Johnson's statement but commented, "It's what we have been working for since January."

On other subjects, Johnson said he was "not disturbed" by press secretary Pierre Salinger's sudden resignation last Thursday to seek the Democratic nomination for the senate from California. He said Salinger gave him only two hours' notice.

He saw no indication that

Sets Meeting On Highway Payoff Probe

HARTFORD (AP) — Gov. John N. Dempsey threw his full support behind State Highway Commissioner Howard S. Ives today.

"Commissioner Ives stays on the job," the Governor told his news conference.

"He has given most of his life to the department," the Governor said. "He is a sincere, dedicated public official. I hope every confidence in his integrity."

Dempsey's remark came in the wake of a report on an investigation of the Highway Department by State's Atty. John D. LaBelle.

A demand for Ives' resignation was made over the weekend by State Sen. Robert L. Bliss, R-New Canaan.

Ives himself said he would not resign unless the governor asked him to.

The governor said he would meet today with Atty. Gen. Harold M. Mulvey, Ives, Deputy Highway Commissioner Ralph Hager and Deputy Finance Commissioner C. Ferris Phillips, who will be sitting in for Commissioner George Conking.

The governor also asked LaBelle to make copies of his report available to legislative leaders and to the chairman of the General Assembly's Roads and Bridges Committee, Sen. John J. Reihan, D-Bridgeport, and Rep. Gennaro W. Frate, R-Darien.

The governor will discuss the investigation with his top aides today.

Five highway department employees were among 10 men arrested after an 11-month investigation into department operations. Another arrest is expected.

The state's attorney, who led the investigation, accompanied the arrests with a report critical of the department's land appraisal procedures.

Head Issue in Also Pace

Just Saturday, in this space, we expressed the hope that the mediator for the Organization of American States would get enough to help President Johnson get out of the negative position he had apparently blundered himself into a week before, and we expressed the hope that President Johnson himself would be that good to himself, to take such an opportunity to work his way out of a corner which seemed of his own creation.

On Saturday afternoon, as it proved that his mediation in Washington itself had been along similar lines, President Johnson held another of his impromptu news conferences, which he opened with the reading of a statement on our difficulties with Panama.

The statement the President read did not, about everything, anything, or anything. It moved the President himself off the dead end stand he had taken a week before. It gave the hemisphere another chance to take up, once again, what might be the relatively easy task of getting some final official seal on an agreement with which neither side really quarrels so far as its substance is concerned.

Then, after the formal statement had been read, the reporters began asking questions. President Johnson's answers were brief, and his explanations of all the conciliatory shadings which had been worked into the prepared document.

And this is the way a New York Times editorial, this morning, describes that the President answered such questions: "In his response to questions, the President accepted the negative and positive. He stressed that his message embodied nothing new and that our position at the start of the conflict was exactly the same as it is now. How such an emphasis can add to the letter's persuasiveness is difficult to understand.

"The President would have been much better advised to let his excellent letter speak for itself. The best that can be hoped is that his spoken work will not detract from his good effort.

the same happy days with his more famous old ones.

When, after extensive research and rationalization, he proclaimed that the amount of work one does automatically increases to fill the amount of time one has available to do it in, the very least of us could understand and rally the innumerable instances of such a law.

Similarly, when he found that expenditure always rises to meet or exceed income, he was delivering not merely from calculation, but from experience familiar to all budgets, personal, family, or company.

One can judge, in fact, just when Professor Parkinson himself has found the law of expenditure over income applying to himself. Every time he finds himself running in the red, he comes out with a new law, which he proceeds to sell in the form of paid lectures, essays, books, etc.

The new law was stated, the other day, in an address to a fancy group of British businessmen who are concerned by the conflict private enterprise and the principle of nationalization are experiencing in Britain.

Perhaps quite suitably, the new Parkinson law announced to this gathering went as follows:

"All state monopolies have a built-in tendency to bankruptcy."

Explaining this Professor Parkinson elucidated as follows:

"They cannot economize. For every man sacked is a voter. And every man hired is a voter. Each party in power wants to hire people."

How should businessmen fight such a formidable monster? Not by any routine kind of competition, because the "state will not play fair."

The only answer, said the Professor, is for businessmen who really believe in freedom to mount a campaign against all monopolies that they include.

"They must," he declared, "show what free enterprise is and what free enterprise can do."

Thus the course of the Professor's latest lecture, expounding his latest law.

Does one dare suggest, to such a lawyer, one more law?

"Any presumed monopoly of ideas is no less subject to eventual bankruptcy than any other."

The Mind At Its Best

Eventually there will work its way into our language and our assumption a complete abandonment of the adjective "childish" in its normal form.

For the child, in this introspective twentieth century, beginning to be yielded back some of the distinction mysticism awarded the child in the first century.

And when, nowadays, one speaks of the child's intellect, one shows one is speaking of perhaps the ultimate in adult wisdom and tacit understanding.

What any child knows is, these days, likely to be more than the rest of us do.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: FRINGE BENEFITS: President Johnson told members of the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department today that he favors legislation to insure labor benefits as part of federal construction work.

Johnston is scheduled to address the legislative conference for the labor group Tuesday. In an advance message he said: "I can assure you that this bill providing for fringe benefits as part of the prevailing wage on federal construction work has the continuing support of this administration."

C. J. Haggerty, president of the Building and Construction Trades Department, said in a prepared speech to the conference that passage of the legislation favored by Johnson "would mean jobs for many thousands of union construction craftsmen, jobs that are badly needed in an industry where unemployment still runs as high as 10 per cent in some areas."

KENNEDY MEMORIAL: A collection of papers and mementoes of the late Sen. John F. Kennedy will go on exhibit in 28 American cities.

It will open in New York May 29, which would have been Kennedy's 47th birthday. Exhibits for other cities has not been completed.

Events In World

TOKYO (AP)—The Venus de Milo arrived Sunday after a 32-day voyage from France with four small chips in the folds of her robe below her left hip.

"It is not serious," said the Paris' Louvre Museum, Robert Landais, after the statue was removed to the Museum of Western Art.

Three chips were in place used to restore the famed art treasure. Another was a fragment of marble that was lying beside the statue when it was discovered on the island of Milos in 1820 and had been put in place again.

Landais said Venus would be in good shape for her Tokyo debut April 8.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand's armed forces and police were ordered on the alert over the weekend because of government fear of a coup.

Interior Minister Phrahas linked the weekend activity with the arrest of two men last week for distributing anti-government leaflets to Bangkok newspapers.

EDUPOLOVDILLIC, the Congo, said he would lead a group of 100 men to war against the government.

Aloua pledged continued Congo support for the rebel, however, at a ceremony Sunday marking the third anniversary of the war against Portuguese rule being waged in northern Angola.

Halden Rogner, president of the Angolan "government in exile," said he and his followers were "Angolans and Africans, and nothing else," but that they would "make an alliance with the devil if it is necessary."

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—A patrol of British marines today with a platoon of Indonesian regular troops in the Malaysian Borneo state of Sarawak, an army spokesman said.

The clash occurred six miles northwest of Kuching, capital of Sarawak, and left 10 Indonesians and several Indonesians killed.

MORCOW (AP)—A Yaman government spokesman said today that Yaman planes today remained behind for several more days.

The government news agency said an agreement providing for a Soviet aid for Yaman.

The amount was not disclosed.

TORONTO (AP)—Premier John P. Roberts is expected to make some revision of the so-called "police state" bill to her robe below her left hip.

Press aide William Kinmond released a statement from Robert's Louvre Museum, Robert Landais, after the statue was removed to the Museum of Western Art.

Three chips were in place used to restore the famed art treasure. Another was a fragment of marble that was lying beside the statue when it was discovered on the island of Milos in 1820 and had been put in place again.

GOP Caucus Set Tonight

Manchester Republicans will meet tonight at 8 at Whittemore Memorial Library auditorium at a party caucus to select town committee members and party convention delegates for the coming year.

Also on the agenda is a resolution committee proposal that would reduce the size of the town committee.

The town committee will propose a slate of candidates for the available posts, and nominations may also be accepted from the floor. The caucus is a party primary, if the challenge can obtain sufficient signatures on qualifying petition and post the necessary fee.

Neither the town committee nominations nor party nominations for state or national posts have been announced yet.

South Windsor April 7 Hearing Set On Three Zone Bids

The South Windsor Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a public hearing April 7 at 8 p.m. to hear three applications for zone changes.

Joseph Carino, commission chairman, said these applications for change of zone have been received by the commission in the last two months.

The change requests are (1) Change from R-20 to A-20 for approximately 15 acres on the west side of Avery St. now or formerly owned by S. Flipo; (2) Change from R-20 to A-20 on approximately 12 acres between Belden and Governor's Highway owned by J. Barga; and requested by the Waldman Construction Co. (3) Change from R-20 to A-20 on approximately 30 acres north of Sullivan Ave. and west of Hill Street owned by H. Hoberman.

In addition to those three zone changes, the commission will also consider increasing the minimum floor area of split-level homes from the present 1150 square feet to 1200 square feet. This will make the minimum living area of the split-level home consistent with other types of homes.

"Such public hearings," Carino said, "should be considered more than just a statutory requirement. Each is an opportunity for the public to express views and recommendations regarding their town planning and zoning."

Dog Owners Warned

Dog Warden Edward Deskus, warned dog owners that they are required by state law to keep their dogs on their own property or on a leash at all times. The owners of impounded dogs will pay a fee of $5 plus the advertising expense for its release.

Effective immediately any dog involved in a dog bite will be quarantined for a period of 14 days at the Town Dog Pound or at a veterinary at the owner's expense.

Board of Education

The Board of Education will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the South Windsor High School. Mrs. Rudolph Dunning will discuss the teacher evaluation program and the method of printing and distributing rules and regulations. Mrs. Russell Rodwin will discuss teacher assignments in relation to their training and/or experience, analysis of the staff by SWBA and/or administration (number with second job, number of hours, etc.), the program of the board's expansion of local teacher recruitment and review the March "Notes and Quotas". The board will also study the custodians' salaries and receive a report by the physical education teachers.

Scholarship Fund

The South Windsor Scholarship Fund has announced plans for a fund raising drive to take place on the weekend of April 4. The organization will utilize a door to door appeal using high school students as volunteers. The aim of the organization are to award $2,000 in scholarships.

Ballots or Bullets, Warns Malcolm X

Malcolm X said he had once heard Elijah Muhammad say, "If 10 million of us die, there'll be 10 million of us left to enjoy freedom."

By June, Malcolm said, his movement may hold a national convention here, and "if it's necessary to form a black nationalist party—or a black nationalist army—we'll form it."

Planters Hear Larus Tonight

John R. Larus, a West Hartford horticulturist, will give an illustrated talk on "Chrysanthemums and the Japanese" at the meeting of the Perennial Planters tonight at the home of Mrs. Paul Goulet, 3 Faith Rd., Rockville, Conn.

Members will meet at the bank at Varon Circle Shopping Center at 7:40 p.m. and proceed to Mrs. Goulet's home.

Currently serving as vice president of the American Daffodil Society, Larus has gained national recognition for his work with daffodils and gladioli. During his many years in gardening, he has developed many new varieties of gladioli which he has exhibited in national shows. His interest and success with daffodils are evident throughout his wooded estate in West Hartford. Through an extensive travel, Larus has recently become very interested in the Japanese culture of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Dexter Stark will serve as co-hostess for the evening.

ASK BETTER SOUP

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen spoke up today for more chicken in chicken soup.

When the housewife serves prepared chicken soup she shouldn't have to "turn to a microscope" to find the chicken in it, the AFL-CIO union told an Agriculture Department hearing.

The union protested that some soups sold in dehydrated form contain less than 3 percent of poultry meat. The union wants chicken or turkey soup should contain at least 2 per cent poultry meat on a ready to serve basis.

Planters Hear Larus Tonight

John R. Larus, a West Hartford horticulturist, will give an illustrated talk on "Chrysanthemums and the Japanese" at the meeting of the Perennial Planters tonight at the home of Mrs. Paul Goulet, 3 Faith Rd., Rockville, Conn.

Members will meet at the bank at Varon Circle Shopping Center at 7:40 p.m. and proceed to Mrs. Goulet's home.

Currently serving as vice president of the American Daffodil Society, Larus has gained national recognition for his work with daffodils and gladioli. During his many years in gardening, he has developed many new varieties of gladioli which he has exhibited in national shows. His interest and success with daffodils are evident throughout his wooded estate in West Hartford. Through an extensive travel, Larus has recently become very interested in the Japanese culture of chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Dexter Stark will serve as co-hostess for the evening.

ASK BETTER SOUP

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen spoke up today for more chicken in chicken soup.

When the housewife serves prepared chicken soup she shouldn't have to "turn to a microscope" to find the chicken in it, the AFL-CIO union told an Agriculture Department hearing.

The union protested that some soups sold in dehydrated form contain less than 3 percent of poultry meat. The union wants chicken or turkey soup should contain at least 2 per cent poultry meat on a ready to serve basis.

'Good Old Days' Recalled At Co. 2 Annual Banquet

A touch of nostalgia, a splash of joy, and a sense of camaraderie were the order of the evening Saturday night as the members of the Co. 2 Veterans Association gathered for their annual banquet at the Garden Grove for the home company of its present quarters in the white wood-frame building at the corner of Main and Center streets. The event was a dual affair, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the company's formation and the 25th anniversary of the company's formation.

Murphy Issues Skating Report

Final figures released today by Park Superintendent Horace F. Murphy show that there were nine days of skating at the Center Springs Pond this winter, compared to 42 days at Charter Oak and 42 at Center Springs. The last day of skating at Center Springs Pond was Jan. 19, while Charter Oak held out for 42 days.

Community Plan Reported by Klan

Looking for trouble but would not be called 40-year rest-at-ance, "we'll fight it we're attached," he said. Bletton said the experimental project "probably will be at the end of the year, and will have a house, a garage, a driveway, a lawn, a garden, a pool, and a garage. The location has not been determined, but will be somewhere between Birmingham and Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Today's Team— Houston Colt 45's

COCOA, Fla. — Rome wasn't built in a day. . . Neither are pennant contenders and Harry Craft, manager of the National League expansion Houston Colt 45's, is the first to concede. "We're facing another uphill battle. Only the rich-throwing but poor-in-talent New York Mets finished lower in the first N. L. standings last year. "We're standing 7-0 after 11 games. We're looking for us to give up what we consider our best chip boys to make deals."

Among the youngsters, catcher Johnny Bettemo, only 21, appears destined for stardom. The receiver led the Colt in home runs and runs batted in a year ago. Most other N. L. clubs would gladly welcome pitchers like Dick Farrell, Don Nottbart and Hal Woodcock, all better than 500 winners in '63, plus Ken Johnson.

But money alone won't win ball games, and the rebuilding Colt cannot be regarded as an object for the Colt 45's. "I'm going to take a little time but if there is anything the club has, it's money and that should mean a lot," Craft said.

Love to Strip Clay's Crown Given Little Good Reaction

NEW YORK (AP)—The move of the World Boxing Association to strip Clay's title was met with a "big, big mess," Ed Lassman, president of the WBA, said in Miami, Fla. yesterday. Lassman said that Clay's personal actions have made him a "detraction to the boxing world" and that he was hoping the WBA's 20-member executive committee to declare the title vacant.

Lassman said that only 11 votes were needed and that he expected to announce a "favorable" vote. The champ himself or Muhammad Ali as he prefers to be called—countered with the assertion that "they're going to strip Clay because he's a big, big mess." Lassman's action, virtually on the eve of Tuesday's opening of a Senate boxing probe in Washington, surprised pugilists circles almost as much as Clay did in destroying champion Sonny Liston in his title bout Feb. 25 at Miami Beach. Liston failed to get up after the seventh round, claiming an injured shoulder. Lassman said that only 11 votes were needed and that he expected to announce a "favorable" vote. The champ himself or Muhammad Ali as he prefers to be called—countered with the assertion that "they're going to strip Clay because he's a big, big mess."

'Child' Labor Wrecks Mets Starts Houston Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Mets may also be an unfair child labor charge against the Houston Colt 45's. The charge is that the Mets' youthfulness is a detriment to the Houston Colt 45's.

Should the WBA declare the title vacant, it would be unprecedented. Frankly, Lassman said, he thought Lassman's action was "premature" adding "I would not vote until we had more votes."

Money No Object Lassman said that the Houston Colt 45's are not an object for the Colt 45's. "I'm going to take a little time but if there is anything the club has, it's money and that should mean a lot," Craft said.
