Dempsey Hurries East-West Road

HARTFORD (AP)—The first link of the East-West Highway in downtown Hartford will be opened July 13, as the result of efforts of Gov. Dempsey.

The governor announced today that the 3,000 foot section of highway between Bulkeley Bridge and High St. will be opened on that date.

It had been feared that the opening would be delayed several weeks awaiting delivery of traffic signal equipment.

However, at Gov. Dempsey's direction, State Highway Department officials conferred with Hartford officials and worked out a plan whereby policemen will be assigned to traffic duty during peak traffic hours on the new highway section until the traffic lights are installed about mid-August.

When the highway section is opened, westbound traffic coming from the Bulkeley Bridge area will leave the highway at the Ann St. ramp. Eastbound traffic will enter the highway from High St. or from the Ann St. Ramp. Ann St. is one-way northbound and High St. is one-way southbound.

This section will do much to relieve traffic congestion in the center of the city especially during peak traffic hours," the governor said.

Westover Headmaster

MIDDLEBURY (AP)—For the first time in more than three decades, Westover School was under a new headmaster today.

While at Choate, Iglehart headed the French department, directed scholarship aid, and served as admissions officer and housemaster. He was a former headmaster of St. Mark's School, Dallas, Tex., and prior to that of the Lancaster County Day School, Lancaster, Pa. Westover is an independent secondary boarding school for girls.

Poles Offer Tearful Farewell; Cold Shoulder from Communists

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's visit to Poland ended today with a noisy, tearful farewell from hundreds of Poles and a cold shoulder from the Communist government.

Before leaving for London, en route to the United States, he issued a statement to newsmen urging "the reconciliation of Eastern and Western Europe in association with the United States" as "the only sure guarantee against nuclear war, whether by design or accident."

Except for low-ranking aides and security people, no Polish officials saw Kennedy, his wife and three of their children off at the airport. Although Ken-edy's visit was private, he had been met on his arrival last Saturday by Ambassador Eugeniusz Minkiewicz of the Foreign Ministry.

The government was understood to be irritated at Kennedy's series of stump-style speeches to street crowds and his visit to Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, the Roman Catholic primate of Poland, against the advice of government officials.

Several hundred Poles outside Kennedy's hotel repeated the ovations he has received the past few days. They screamed him with a chorus of "may you live 100 years" as he climbed again to the roof of his sedan.

At the airport, Kennedy got out of his car to shake hands with almost everyone standing in a crowd of 150 outside the entrance. Two old women broke into tears. One kissed his hand and he patted her cheek.

Kennedy's departure brought the first appearance of pickets during his visit. Both at the hotel and beside the plane were men with placards in Polish reading "In the name of peace, don't give nuclear weapons to West Germany" and "Why doesn't the government of the United States recognize our frontiers on the Oder and the Neisse?"

Kennedy shook hands with the pickets at the airport and gave one of them a rose.

In his statement to newsmen Kennedy plugged a theme which is said to have attracted the interest of Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki in a meeting two days ago.

It was that "Poland has political ties with the Soviet Union and personal ties with the United States and therefore has a unique opportunity to contribute to European security and the easing of tension between the United States and the Soviet Union."

Kennedy said America wants Poland's help "in building those open bridges of reconciliation that President Johnson called for last month."

Kennedy said his strongest impression of Poland was the friendliness of the people. He said the Poles were "a strongly religious people devoted to their faith and belief in God."

"This was very inspiring to see," Kennedy said. "I don't think it exists with such intensity in many other countries."

Coffee Break Must Be Pure Experts Say

LONDON (AP)—Good news is in store for coffee addicts in this world of substitutes. The International Coffee Organization is trying to make sure they get their brew almost pure.

Nearly every cup of coffee hides a substitute, sometimes called an additive. It may be ordinary roasted dried bean or barley or chicory.

The executive board of the ICO in a report today called on its member nations to implement legislation requiring coffee roasters and packers as well as manufacturers of instant coffee to see that what they brand as coffee is mainly coffee.

The suggested tolerance of 10 per cent called for in the World Coffee Pact—which means that at least 90 per cent of the stuff marketed as coffee would be coffee.

This is one of 18 points the board will consider when it meets Monday to prepare an agenda for a meeting of the ICO Council opening in London July 27.

Officials of the organization are worried about the failure of the U.S. Senate so far to pass implementing legislation to make the coffee pact operative. The legislation has been passed by the House of Representatives.

Some Relief Seen Later In Showers

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP)—Record-breaking temperatures continued in Connecticut again today as hot air streamed in from the central portion of the country.

Moisture is on the increase over the area, the U.S. Weather Bureau said. By late this afternoon scattered thundershowers will be developing to the west. They will spread over the state during the evening and nighttime hours.

The leading edge of cooler and drier air was approaching the northern New England area this morning and will continue southward over southern New England during the night, the Bureau said.

This condition will continue the threat of scattered thundershowers through most of 18-night and return temperatures to more seasonal levels tomorrow.

National Outlook
Thundershowers brought some relief today to portions of the country beset several days by searing, high temperatures.

Rain fell in the lower Ohio Valley, the southeast states, northern Great Lakes and most of the Great Plains.

One and one-third inch of rain fell in the Wichita, Kan., area, and more than one inch was reported at Panama City, Fla.

In the East, New York farmers asked federal aid in five counties where the May-June rainfall was the lowest on record.

Heaviest Demand In MDC History Spurs Water Ban

HARTFORD (AP)—The Metropolitan District Commission (MDC), faced with the heaviest water demand in its history during the 24-hour period that ended at 6 a.m. today banned until further notice lawn sprinkling between 5 and 9 p.m. It also sharply curtailed sprinkling during other hours.

The action was taken, an MDC spokesman said, after Hartford towns used a record 73.4 million gallons of water between 6 a.m. yesterday and the same hour today. The all-time record set June 17, 1957, was 68.2 million gallons.

The spokesman said absolutely no sprinkling would be permitted between 5 and 9 p.m. (See Page Twelve)

NO BEER TODAY

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—More than 200 truck drivers went on strike today, halting deliveries in Rhode Island of most brands of beer and liquor. The drivers, members of Local 351 of the Teamsters Union, rejected the distributors' latest offer of a new contract last night.

137 to 15. Only distributors for F. Ballantine and Sons were working today—their drivers being represented by another union. A spokesman for the companies said 25 distributing firms were affected by the strike. The drivers, who now earn $2.75 an hour, are seeking a 50-cent hourly wage increase plus improved fringe benefits.

Goldwater Camp Jubilant After Victory in Illinois

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater's smashing success with the Illinois delegation prompted his backers today to renew predictions of an early ballot victory for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Goldwater was jubilant after winning 48 of the 58 Illinois delegates to the Republican National Convention while Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton failed to pick up a single vote.

"This is the biggest boost for Goldwater's campaign since the California primary," said Hayes

Robertson, a staunch Goldwater delegate and former Cook County GOP chairman.

Robertson and other Goldwater supporters said the strong Illinois vote for the Arizona senator would have national impact and "should result in an easy first-ballot victory" for him.

The poll of delegates was taken after Goldwater and Scranton made separate appearances before the group at closed-door sessions Tuesday.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, who had been uncommitted, started the momentum for Goldwater by casting the first vote for him.

Before the meeting, Goldwater's Illinois strength had been listed at 25 votes in surveys by The Associated Press.

The 10 delegates who did not support Goldwater in Tuesday's session declined to back any candidate.

Scranton, although obviously disappointed, contended his poor showing did not deal a fatal blow to his candidacy. He said his decision to address the Illinois delegation was intended to "arouse the public" and not to gain delegates at this time.

He said the overwhelming Goldwater support in the Illinois delegation "did not surprise me or shock me. Although elated over the outcome, would not claim the nomination was wrapped up."

Goldwater said he thought he has "maybe, 600" delegates, or 35 more than required for the nomination, but added he would like a bigger insurance margin.

"I'd like a few more and then I might say, 'I'm over the hump' he said.

An Associated Press survey showed Tuesday that Goldwater now has 705 committed, instructed, pledged or favorable delegates, which is 50 more than needed for the nomination.

If none of the delegates stray, Goldwater's closest pursuer, the survey showed, is Scranton with 141 delegates.

Leaders of the Goldwater movement in Illinois said they thought Scranton made a tactical blunder in deciding to make a personal appeal to the delegates.

Charles H. Percy, party nominee for governor, also joined the delegates behind Goldwater, keeping a promise to abide by the majority sentiment of the delegation.

Lodge Has Confidence On Viet Nam Outlook

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge declared today that the "downward spiral" in the anti-Communist war in South Viet Nam has been stopped.

He said "we will win" if the United States and the South Vietnamese persist in carrying out realistic political and military policies.

In his first major speech since returning from Saigon Monday, Lodge pictured the greatest threat to this confident outlook as an increase in "hostile outside pressures" from the Communist side.

If those pressures grow too great, he said in an address prepared for the National Press Club, then "we may be forced" to take other actions to deal with the new threat.

Lodge did not spell out what additional steps might be employed against Communist forces in Southeast Asia. There has been considerable talk from U.S. officials in recent weeks about possibly carrying the war to North Viet Nam by air strikes, but he did not mention that.

He did say, however, that one kind of "outside pressures" can come from neighboring land areas as a "sanctuary" from which Viet Nam can be attacked and the Communist Viet Cong forces given assistance "with impunity."

Obviously, Lodge said, "when one is engaged in a life-and-death struggle, such a 'sanctuary' must not go on for."

Secret Committee Meeting During St. Augustine Truce

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—to identify the interim group's members.

King said the committee was made up of two whites and two Negroes. He said their names were withheld to protect them from harassment.

King said he had called a halt to demonstrations to show good faith.

The leaders of white segregationists also accepted the truce. Holsted Manucy said a Ku Klux Klan rally scheduled July 4 has been canceled.

Manucy, who disclaims membership in the KKK, advised his followers not to engage in violence during this truce period.

King said one of the biracial committee's first jobs would be to study the question of dropping charges filed against Negroes during the demonstrations.

King was released on his own recognizance Tuesday, after warrants were sworn out against him on six charges. Fred Brinkhoff Jr., county juvenile counselor, charged King in four warrants with contributing to the delinquency of a minor by having juveniles on probation march in demonstrations.

James Brock, owner of a motel that has been the scene of racial demonstrations, swore out two warrants charging conspiracy to break the peace.

Rudi (Topless Suit) Gernreich Embarrasses Fashion Industry

NEW YORK—I have nearly seen a topless evening gown. I say "nearly" because Rudi Gernreich, who invented the topless bathing suit, was represented in a fashion show at the New York World's Fair by a brown skirt falling from just below the bustline, topped by a sort of emerald green shutter that stood straight up and was not a wraparound model, so that the side view was most interesting.

New York fashion circles, which have been invaded this week by about 150 fashion editors from various newspapers and radio or TV stations, covering the American Designer Series showings, are rather embarrassed by the existence of Rudi Gernreich. Older, better established designers are lamenting in private that they have spent careers creating lovely clothing that women might enjoy wearing, and here comes this newcomer and gets all that publicity by just leaving off a top, and holds fashion up to ridicule in the bargain.

Last year, when Gernreich was given the City Fashion Critics' Award, a move arose to revamp the judging on the grounds that too many young editors with no background were voting. Yesterday the award was bestowed on Jacques Tiffau, jewelry designer David Webb, Geoffrey Beene and lingerie designer Sylvia Pedlar, and no one complained.

Gernreich showed his fall collection yesterday with no topless bathing suits, but he recognized the situation by preceding his show with a press conference that began with an embarrassing moment of silence when no one asked a question. Finally the tide turned and editors were asking him if this trend, carried to its logical extreme, would not destroy the bathing suit business. He didn't seem to have faced that contingency.

About Gernreich's fall collection, it seems sufficient to quote

Eisenhower's Help Still Scranton Goal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton's supporters, rebuffed in Illinois, cling to the hope today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would help prevent Sen. Barry Goldwater from getting the top presidential nomination.

But all that Lodge reported after a 45-minute conference with the former president was that he would not make a case for the Pennsylvania governor before a National Press Club luncheon and dinner today.

Lodge conceded, in a hospital steps news conference, that he was saying that he was "on the fence" with his conversion to Eisenhower.

South Windsor Town Mental Health Drive Nets $700, Short of Goal

A total of $700 has been contributed by South Windsor residents to the 1964 fund drive of the Greater Hartford Association for Mental Health. Mrs. Alex Truska, local drive chairman, has announced.

The total represents about 65 per cent of the town's $1,100 goal. The chairman noted however, that late returns may bring the town up to its quota. She urged all volunteers who have not yet completed their returns to do so as soon as possible to complete final tabulation of the fund drive total.

The steering board of appeal will hear five applications for variance tomorrow night. The hearing will be held at 8 at the Yapping Elementary School. Applications are:

Porter A. Collins, 8 Sand Hill Rd., a specific exception to allow a personal gift shop at the same address. This is an R-30 zone.

Herbert C. Porter, 685 Oakland Rd., a variance to allow a building lot with less than the required front footage at a specific address. This is an R-30 zone.

Chippewa Homes, Inc., Chippewa Rd., a variance to allow the placing of two under-sized houses on Miller Rd. This is an R-30 zone.

Fight Imminent On Salary Hike For Lawmakers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opponents of a proposed $7,500 salary increase for members of Congress are expected to have a floor fight today as the Senate opened floor debate on a $24-million federal pay hike bill.

Sponsors of the legislation said they were confident they could beat out any major amendments, including those aimed at the congressional boost.

They said that if the House could go along with the increase, when all of its members are up for election this year, the Senate should be able to do so without difficulty.

The bill covers about 1.7 million classified civil service and postal workers and also at federal executives and U.S. judges as well as senators and representatives.

President Johnson has been pushing hard for prompt action on the measure, asserting the executive raises are essential to retain key personnel in his administration.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told a reporter he would like to see the bill amended to give a $10,000 raise to members of Congress, the same as that which would be granted Cabinet members.

Scandinavia Tour Pointless for Red

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev's 14-day visit to Scandinavia promises to be remembered as a journey into pointlessness.

Apart from some agreements to expand trade, Khrushchev's tour has produced no practical results of importance either politically or commercially, it is almost as if neither the Soviet nor the Scandinavians really see much use in trying to get on closer terms.

Khrushchev—mostly boisterous and high spirited but occasionally sour and sarcastic—at times has gone out of his way to scorn Scandinavian achievements and philosophies.

He upset the Danes by saying their farming methods were too small-scale to hold any lessons for the massive Soviet collective. Denmark's Socialist Premier Jens Otto Krag was miffed by a Khrushchev dig at his "capitalist state" during an informal television program.

In Sweden, Khrushchev also winds off a typical farm as "small" and he flustered Premier Tage Erlander in an astonishing, half-serious, half-sarcastic luncheon speech.

He demanded to know whether Erlander planned to join anti-Communist Ukrainian exiles in an attack on the Soviet Union. Khrushchev was angry because

Paul Moeller told television viewers: "It was nothing but a circus. Khrushchev is a dictator and will never be any different."

Khrushchev left Sweden in an even more strained atmosphere. Swedish officials were affronted by the Kremlin leader's declaration that Swedish diplomat Raoul Wallenberg, arrested by the Red army in Budapest at the end of the war in Europe, and reportedly held ever since, was not in the Soviet Union.

Sweden claims to have information that Wallenberg—who the Russians previously said, died in a Soviet prison in 1951—is alive and behind bars.

Expression, Scandinavia's biggest paper, called Khrushchev a liar. Others said Sweden had expected more understanding of its deep concern over Wallenberg's fate.

The security mesh around Khrushchev is such that he has been able only rarely to mix with ordinary people. There is little doubt that he would have liked more opportunity for the kind of informal bedside talk that Khrushchev has indulged his earthy humor at.

When Khrushchev left Denmark and Sweden, his first words of call, there were signs of relief from government and

On his last full day in Sweden, Khrushchev instructed Gromyko to join him in a circle of hard-holding dancers. The foreign minister, whose dislike of Denmark is still a Communist and Danish issue on its peaceful coexistence with itself and its neighbors.

Some comments were sharp. Danish Conservative leader

Military Probes Haverhill Crash

Haverhill, Mass. (AP)—A three-man Air Force investigating team today probed the wreckage of an F16 jet fighter plane which crashed into a residential area and claimed the lives of two sleeping children.

Burned to death in their one-story ranch home were Todd Clifford, 10, and his sister, Pamela, 8.

The wreckage will be cleared away as soon as the investigation has finished their examination.

The parents of the children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Clifford, were unable to reach the child because of searing walls of flames.

"The girls' door was closed," Mr. Clifford said. "We couldn't open it.... We tried to get to the boys' room. The door was open but the room was gone."

The pilot of the plane, Capt. Douglas B. Sullivan, a father of five, ejected himself from the crippled jet and parachuted to safety.

He said he was running low on fuel when he hit the house at the fire hydrant, for a while at least, until things cooled off.

Members of the Air Force investigating team arrived from the North Carolina are Brig. Gen. Lawrence P. Tanberg, Col. William Riddle and Col. William Bush. Heading the local investigation is Maj. Gen. Thomas J. Donnelly.

Neshoba Calmer, Search Goes On

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—This little town—10 days ago by the baffling disappearance of three civil rights workers—is almost back to normal.

The search for the missing trio goes on.

There are no more anxious groups of residents crowding street corners. Discussion of the mysterious disappearance is limited to quick questions and occasional jokes.

A week ago today, a large force of FBI agents, state highway patrolmen and other investigators moved into Philadelphia to comb the hills and swamps of Neshoba County for clues in the disappearance of the three.

A COFO spokesman said Tuesday night that a white summer volunteer and his Negro companion had been beaten by a group of whites near the town of Spring in northern Mississippi.

The incident involved Larry Rubin, 21, of Philadelphia, Pa., and an unidentified Negro, COFO said.

The Holly Springs police department and the Marshall County sheriff's men said they had no reports of any incidents.

SOIL TESTS SLOW ALASKA RECOVERY

MURKIN RECOVERY—Anchorage, Alaska (AP)—Alaska is an Alsat which means "The Great Land." Today, three months after a great earthquake battered sections of the state, the state is a "great headache."

The nation's 49th state, seeking to recover from the disaster, is encountering problems and delays in reconstruction so one could foresee immediately the south-central section stopped making that late last March 27.

In Alaska problems of soil stability have required time-consuming tests. Some sections have been found to have dropped as much as five feet, as the land tilted. This was completely. All these factors have slowed reconstruction in an area where construction work outdoors must wait until the ground is firm enough to support structures—the kind and size of structures.

Prerequisite reports are in, or will be shortly. The final report will be the Aug. 15 report to the Alaska Dept. of Public Safety. The picture is not all dark. Alaska hopes that tourists will flock there again as many accommodations are as many as they were before the quake. And such cities as Fairbanks, Juneau, Nome, Sitka and Kotzebue have not touched by the quake.

No-Knock Law Attacked in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two controversial laws "stop and frisk" and "no-knock" — go into effect today in New York State. A State Bar Association committee has condemned them as unconstitutional and a law clerk has filed suit seeking a federal court order banning their enforcement.

The stop and frisk law permits police to stop and question in a public place anyone suspected of a serious crime or to inspect a person's wallet, purse or bag. The law also allows police to search for weapons.

The no-knock law permits police, armed with a search warrant, to enter a person's home without first knocking or announcing their presence.

Law enforcement officials have argued to use "a very narrow interpretation" of the measures.

"Always merit parrot over hot water—never over direct heat."

beginning of an accounting of what they do with their private funds while they are entrusted with the public power. Perhaps that much is worth having; better than nothing.

Still Our Main Business

The first live, if still distant, prospect that the country may finally gain one of the things it once thought it was fighting World War II to assure itself has now appeared in the new study of the draft being inaugurated by the Pentagon at the request of President Johnson.

There may be, at the end of this study, the possibility that the United States may find itself able to end that system of peacetime conscription which once seemed such a violation of American custom and principles.

Many Americans thought one of the reasons they were fighting World War II was to keep away from these shores that same institution of compulsory peacetime military service so many immigrants had thought to escape when they came to these shores.

But the world which followed that war was not one of peaceful relaxation, but rather one of quarrel among the victors.

And even now the possibility that peacetime conscription may be ended rises from other factors, one which represents, in turn, a defeat and negation of traditional principle.

One reason why authorities have begun wondering if they might be able to wipe out all need for conscription is that with the draft is the obvious fact that the draft operates with glaring inequities in the way it calls upon young Americans.

But the chief reason they think we might be able to get the military manpower we need without using the draft at all is the likelihood that the economic and professional opportunities of military service may, as time goes on, become more attractive to young Americans, who seem to be multiplying faster than normal job and career opportunities.

Inside Report

A Thought for Today
Sponsored by the Manchester Council of Churches

"It would not be that we should be ignorant," (I Corinthians 10:1).

"Our religion is our rationale of God, as well as how we worship God. And what we think of God, as well as how we worship God, is shown forth in our actions. Because we walk one step at a time, we may think that the little things of life are not very important. That is our mistake. The little amenities of life are vitally important. We need not only piety, but piety in action. All too often we think that our religion should please only us. 'If it suits us,' we say, 'then it is all right for me.' And that is where we may be quite wrong. Such a religion is not God-centered, but self-centered. And the practice of it is: Does it please God and reflect our love, adoration and praise of His Holy Name? St. John D. Hughes, St. Mary's Church.

Mike Thompson, who pals around with sea creatures for a living, playfully pokes his head into the mouth of a white whale during a performance at the Aquarium at Coney Island. Long Lunch Peril to U.S.

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions: Power-greedy girls have less trouble getting dates than girls who are knock-kneed. The dogs that are the most fun to own are pointers, fox terriers and dachshunds. Bloodhounds always look like they have just lost their leg and only friend.

What this country needs is a longer football season and a shorter baseball season. A lot of people who are tired of professional baseball hesitate to say so for fear that it sounds unpatriotic.

Most crooks are underweight. Fat people aren't necessarily more honest by nature; they have just found out that they aren't fast enough on their feet to be anything else.

Ruth Millet

TAKE TIME FOR KINDNESS
Hardly a day goes by when you can't find time to make one of these several gestures toward friendship.

Let someone know you're pleased that something nice has happened to him. Admire another's new and proud possession. Praise someone for a job well done, or say just the right thing to make him feel less of a failure if his best efforts weren't good enough.

Call a friend you don't see often enough — just to keep in touch. Offer to do something for someone who could use a helping hand. Put in a good word for someone where it will do the most good.

Fire Engine Jet Gas

Tycoon Slain With Stiletto

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Police sought today a killer who stabbed millionaire banker Jacques Mossier more than 23 times with a stiletto.

Mossier, 68, owner of banks in Indiana, Illinois and Florida, was found dead only in a nightgown by his wife, Candace, 66, about 4:30 a.m. Tuesday.

An ornamental glass bird lay shattered on the floor and drapery in the plush ocean-front apartment was torn. Capt. Paul Gallagher, Miami homicide chief, said no murder weapon was found but "we assume it's a thin-bladed knife, something like a stiletto."

Mossier's dog Rocky, chained inside the door, was heard barking wildly about 2 a.m. A neighbor reported hearing someone shout, "Don't, don't do that to me."

The neighbor, a red-haired former model, Peggy Fletcher, said, "I heard someone close the door across the hall and I heard him run down the concrete outdoor stairway." She said heavy footprints convinced her it was a man.

About 9:45 a.m., before police knew of the murder, several officers questioned a man found out and bloody near Mossier's apartment. He told officers three boys had beaten him up and stolen his car. A routine report was filed.

Police returned to the man later for more questioning, but he was halted after his lawyer obtained a court order demanding a stop to interrogation. He was not charged.

Mossier and his wife each had children by former marriages. Four adopted children were with Mrs. Mossier when she found the body upon returning from a morning drive.

Mossier owned interests in three Miami hotels and others in Chicago, and South Beach, Houston, Tex. The Mossier had homes in Miami and Houston.

Mossier's daughter, Rita, 20, said about 9:45 in cash, a gold watch and a gold pocket watch were missing from Mossier's apartment.

"The room had been ransacked," she said. "No one had been in there."

Driver Cuts Chin In Auto Crash

BARBEN, N. La. (AP)—Police said a driver who crashed his car into a tree in Barboursville, West Virginia, today was hospitalized with a serious head injury.

DISASTER SURVIVORS—Men who survived the worst disaster in the history of offshore oil drilling are assisted from a helicopter at Morgan City, La., yesterday. The men are smeared with first aid salves for burns. (AP Photofax.)

If Hell Is Worse, I Don't Want It! Fear 20 Men Perished In Oil Rig Explosion

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP)—A fire was burned on the back of shallow pocket of gas puffed into a giant blow torch, touching the worst disaster in the history of offshore oil drilling Tuesday, leaving 20 men dead.

"There was fire everywhere," said Lt. C. Frank, one of the 25 survivors. "If hell is any worse, I don't want to go there."

The horrific gas explosion and fire collapsed the C. P. Baker, a $6-million floating oil rig and sent it plunging 100 feet to the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico.

Two bodies were recovered. An intensive search found no trace of 18 men who were missing.

The 18 "are probably still aboard the Baker at the bottom," said Jack Bates of Reading and Bates Offshore Drilling Co., owner of the giant rig—actually two 80-foot hulls with derrick mounted between them.

The rig had moved to its new drilling spot 73 miles off the Louisiana coast southwest of the fishing town last Sunday.

Half of the 43 persons aboard were asleep when the drilling crew encountered a shallow pocket of gas under high pressure at 800 feet. Two others were in a service barge tied up alongside the rig.

The gas ignited the giant apparatus and a stray spark touched off the explosion and fire.

"The explosion rocked the entire craft," said Frank, from Winnfield, La., who was one of those sleeping on the C. P. Baker when the tragedy occurred about 3:30 a.m.

"I didn't know where the fire was," he said from his hospital bed. "It was on the water and everywhere else."

Frank put on a life preserver and jumped into the water.

Third Out Ruins Indians As Sox Go on Hit Spree

No Hit Pitchers Are Rivals But Jackson Gains Spotlight

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Bunning of Philadelphia, one of the few men to pitch a perfect game, and Ken Johnson of Houston, one of the few to lose a no-hitter, each were in the spotlight today as they pitched for the first time in their new clubs.

White Sox were Gerry McPhee's seventh game win. He struck out seven and pitched a five-hitter in a 5-0 victory over the Yankees at Yankee Stadium.

BOSTON (AP)—Maybe it was the heat, the pitching, or the fact that the Red Sox were down 3-0 in the series, but they managed to split the series with the Athletics.
