Divers Recover Body From Pond in Park

By ROBERT KILPATRICK

The body of 34-year-old James Taylor of 162 Eldridge St. was dragged up from the west end of Center Springs Pond by two state police SCUBA divers at 11:28 this morning. The troopers had been groping on the muddy slopes of the pond for about 20 minutes before they found Taylor who had been missing since last night.

Medical Examiner Dr. Robert R. Keeney told police, after examining the body, death was due to drowning. The police are presently continuing their investigation and no further details were available at press time. An autopsy may be performed.

Events leading up to this morning's search began early yesterday evening when a man was reported to be standing at the edge of the gate house which controls the water flow at the west end of the pond.

Shortly afterward police found a car parked on Edgerton St., near the gate house. The motor was running and the lights were on.

The car belonged to Taylor. Police went to his home where Taylor's wife said that he had stepped out for about 15 minutes.

When a search last night and early this morning of the woods in the pond area failed to turn up the missing man, an employee of Pratt and Whitney Aircraft, Police Chief James Reardon decided to call in the state police divers on the chance that Taylor might be in the pond.

A small crowd, mostly vacationing school children, gathered on the slopes leading down to the pond as the divers, Trooper Fred Avery of Colchester Troop, and Trooper Dave Winslow of Stafford Springs waded into the nearly freezing waters shortly after 11. They groped through the muddy pond first in the area of the gate house where police suspected that the force of the water going over the control gates might have dragged a body.

Avery and Winslow, who had attached themselves together with a short section of rope, then began to go out further toward the center of the pond. However, they were unable to walk a straight path in the murky waters and requested the use of the police department.

Foreign Policy Tops On LBJ's Agenda

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson boosted foreign policy to a top priority spot on his schedule today.

He also planned to get in more work on the federal budget and his State of the Union message.

Associates said Johnson intends to devote considerable time today and during the remainder of the week to reviewing U.S. relations with nations around the world, including policy on loans, aid and cultural exchanges.

A source close to Johnson said he is closing out the year with a rather optimistic view of most of the work situation despite the problems in Viet Nam and Congo.

He is known, for example, to feel that relations with the Soviet Union are less antagonistic than they have been at times in the past and sees fewer crises that have plagued the world in recent years.

He feels relations with eastern Europe have improved and that the North Atlantic Alliance is in better shape than it has ever been.

Johnson is known to be pleased about what he regards as improved relations with nations of the Western Hemisphere, with Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship in Cuba the major fly in the ointment.

As part of his efforts to bol-

Events In State

State Denies Bus Request For Enfield

HARTFORD (AP)—The State has denied a bus line's request to serve Enfield commuters who work in East Hartford but approved a similar request from a competitor.

The Public Utilities Commission approved the petition of the Short Line of Connecticut Inc. because the company is already authorized to operate in Enfield and proposed to serve a greater part of the town.

In denying the Arrow Line Inc. petition, the commission said: "To introduce added competition into a field that is already operating on a marginal basis could result in cessation of operations by the carrier presently serving this area."

Both companies were seeking to serve Enfield residents who work at the Pratt & Whitney Division of the United Aircraft Corp.

Tickets will be sold on a weekly basis for $3.75 with no refunds for unused tickets. The PUC gave the run a 60-day trial period. The 10-mile run will be routed through the eastern part of Enfield.

Branum Hired

WINSTED (AP)—Former town manager Jack S. Branum today was appointed executive secretary of the Greater Toledo (Ohio) Municipal League, a privately financed research organization.

Branum will begin his new duties Jan. 5, filling a position which has been vacant since last July.

Last August, Branum, 46, was removed as town manager by the board of selectmen following a public hearing. The selectmen had filed a series of charges against Branum, many of them concerning the operation of the police department.

Branum served as town manager in cities in Kansas, Texas and Prescott, Ariz., before coming here in 1962 as Winsted's first town manager.

Nation's Highway Deaths Total Well Below Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic accidents throughout the nation during the three-day Christmas weekend took at least 571 lives and set yuletide records in several states.

The toll fell short of the 1955 record of 609 deaths, but within the range estimated in advance by the National Safety Council.

The highway deaths occurred in the 78-hour period between 6 p.m. Thursday and midnight Sunday. The council had estimated a toll between 550 and 650.

California had the highest toll of 89 deaths, followed by New York with 39, Michigan 35, Texas 34 and Pennsylvania 32.

Only five states — Alaska, Hawaii, Maine, Montana and Washington — reported no fatalities. In at least five states, holiday accidents helped set new 12-month records.

While traffic deaths mounted at an alarmingly fast pace during the early hours of the holiday period, they slackened off during the closing hours, despite the homeward rush in many areas in fog, rain and snow.

Multiple deaths pushed the toll upward in several states. In California, a three-car

Snow Blocks Rescuers In West Coast Flood

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)

A heavy snowfall blocked flood relief flights in Northern California today and prolonged the isolation of stranded refugees into an eighth day.

The cold weather did put a brake on rivers that had rampaged from the mountains into the Pacific and in the hardest hit area — Oregon and Northern California.

Nearly two feet of snow was reported in the Siskiyou Mountains, near the Oregon border, with continued snow forecast for the next 24 hours.

A force of 25 helicopters ordered to Yreka, relief operations center for Klamath and Salmon River refugees, could not take off from Stead Air Force Base in Nevada because of the storm.

The turn to cold dropped the snow level to 1,000 feet elevation.

The Columbia dropped enough in Washington to permit start of cleanup work. The flood threat appeared over in Idaho but the little town of St. Joe, population 75, in the Panhandle, still was without electricity. In Nevada the Truckee River withdrew its threat to Reno.

California counted 19 flood dead with the confirmation Sunday that four had drowned when a helicopter plunged into the Eel River 40 miles south of Eureka Saturday. Seven died in another California "copter crash last Tuesday north of Eureka.

Oregon reported 18 deaths from flood action. The Red Cross listed 16,300 families as suffering major losses to homes, businesses or farms in Oregon, California, Idaho and Washington.

No official estimate of damage was available, but rough guesses by leaders of relief and rescue operations put it at close to $1 billion.

Five hundred persons — miners, loggers and their families — were marooned in several communities along the Klamath and Salmon rivers at the northern tip of California.

"They're beginning to run short of food," reported William Sowle, Civil Defense director at Yreka. A storm that dropped two feet of snow on Yreka Sunday halted helicopter flights in the area. The prediction was for continued snow today.

"We'll have to airlift supplies or evacuate soon," Sowle said. He called those isolated in the mountainous, heavily wooded country "a pretty hardy lot."

About 100 passengers on two Greyhound buses found themselves stranded by highway washouts last Monday after a lunch stop at the Terrace Gardens resort 10 miles south of Garberville on U.S. 101 in California's Humboldt County and about half of them still were awaiting rescue today.

Some walked or were lifted by helicopters to Garberville and others were flown to Eureka. (See Page Twenty-Three)

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo

Each the fate of 80 other missionaries and merchants still was unknown, the radio message said. A United Nations doctor was reported to have been slaughtered by the rebels, who have butchered more than 20 Europeans and Americans in the past two months.

Probe Brewing Over NASA's Patent Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)

A new investigation is brewing in the Senate on charges that the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is giving away valuable patent rights which belong to the taxpayers.

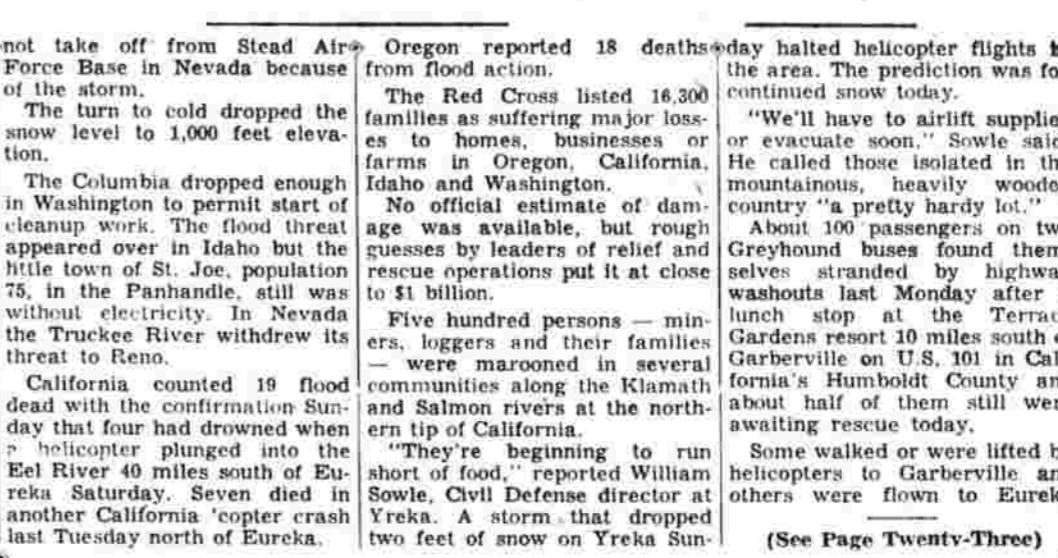

Complaints by some Senate and House members picture NASA as signing away to business firms the rights to patents developed at public expense and worth untold millions of dollars. They contend a recent policy change made the situation worse.

James E. Webb, NASA administrator, has countered with a claim that the agency is following federal law and guidelines laid down by President John F. Kennedy shortly before his death.

The patents in question were developed under government-financed research contracts with commercial and other institutions.

Chairman of a Senate Small Business subcommittee headed by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., told a reporter it may meet shortly after Congress convenes Jan. 4 to consider

New Snow Falls Ski Resorts May Recoup Some Losses

BOSTON (AP)

Heavy snow quelled northern New England today and ski resort proprietors hurried to pack it down hoping to recoup from a disastrous Christmas weekend in which losses were counted in the millions of dollars.

More than a foot of new accumulation was measured. Most resorts planned to reopen today or tomorrow after near 60 degree temperatures and rain in most sectors washed out skiing over the potentially lucrative holiday.

With both Christmas and New Year's falling on long weekends this season many resort owners had anticipated a heavier than usual influx of skiers. They got virtually none.

A spokesman at Vermont's Mt. Snow which bills itself as the nation's largest ski resort, estimated losses from skiing and related services at $2 million.

Conditions today were generally fair to good in northern sections and poorer in southern Vermont and New Hampshire and western Massachusetts.

Sepp Ruschp of the Mt. Mansfield Co. at Stowe, Vt., placed his loss of potential revenue at $700,000. Damon Gadd of Sugarbush, Vt. gave a $200,000 estimate.

Money and education. These two words are inseparable for millions of American families. A three-part NEA series, starting tomorrow in The Herald tells how to get the first and thus achieve the second.

Among other things, it will reveal how extra thousands of young men and women — and they don't have to be the brightest students either — can receive outside financial aid for college. How to get it (and where) will be fully covered in the three-part series written by Bob Cochran.

It starts tomorrow in The Herald!

U.N. Negotiations At Critical Stage

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)

Negotiators at the United Nations reached a crucial stage today in their efforts to head off a Soviet-U.S. showdown over Russian refusal to pay peacekeeping assessments.

The negotiators hoped to work out some agreement before the assembly's next meeting, scheduled for Tuesday morning. The Security Council cannot function after Thursday — New Year's Eve — unless agreement is reached on the basic issue or unless two disputed council seats are filled without a vote so as to avoid a challenge of the Soviets' right to vote.

The Soviet Union has refused to pay assembly assessments to finance the Congo and Middle East peacekeeping operations because it contends the Security Council alone has the right to start and finance such operations. It is more than two years behind in its total assessments.

The United States says that if a vote on anything is called in the assembly, the Soviet Union must suffer the penalty set out in Article 19 of the U.N. Charter, which states that any member two years behind in assessments shall have no vote in the assembly.

To avoid a showdown, there has been no voting since the assembly convened Dec. 1. All necessary business has been done by general consent. Diplomatic sources, said however, Assembly President Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana had failed to get agreement to elect Security Council members the same way.

There is no problem concerning two of the four seats that become vacant at the end of the year on the 11-nation council. Uruguay and the Netherlands are unopposed candidates for the seats held by Brazil and Norway.

Delegates were hopeful some way would be found to get around Indonesia's demand to be allowed to vote against Malaysia, which is otherwise unopposed to replace Czechoslovakia.

They said Quaison-Sackey had failed to resolve a contest between Jordan and Mali for Morocco's seat. They said Mali had rejected his suggestions that a preliminary informal poll outside the assembly decide which candidate would be elected by acclamation in the assembly.

Jordan's chief delegate Abdul Monem Rifai told a reporter that if no agreement could be reached on some informal method by Tuesday he would demand in the assembly that the election be decided before Friday by the usual vote. That would bring on the big-power showdown.

As of New Year's Day, the Soviet Union will have to pay $28,584,236 to avoid being two years behind in its assessments. U.S. chief delegate Adlai E. Stevenson has said the United States would be satisfied with a voluntary contribution from the Soviets, even if it was not specifically earmarked for peacekeeping purposes.

Informed diplomats understood that the United States would agree to a Soviet pledge of about $17 million, covering the part of the larger amount that represents peacekeeping assessments. The other $9.5 million covers regular budget assessments, which the Russians always have paid.

Government Forces Smash Viet Cong Base, Kill 57

EDITORS NOTE

Freelance photographer James Pickrell, wounded by the Viet Cong in November, was assigned by The Associated Press to accompany Vietnamese troops who overran a major Viet Cong guerrilla position Sunday. Here is his report.

DAI NGAI, South Viet Nam (AP)—Government forces overran a major Viet Cong position Sunday, killing at least 67 guerrillas and capturing 10 others as well as a large stock of weapons.

It was one of the most significant government successes in the past year. U.S. officers believed that the position, 75 miles southwest of Saigon, was a Viet Cong zone command headquarters. The Communists have divided South Viet Nam into seven zones.

The government forces suffered 11 dead and 42 wounded. Among the wounded were seven U.S. Army helicopter crewmen hit by small arms fire. (Ten other Americans were reported wounded in other actions in the Mekong delta Sunday. Two were reported in serious condition.)

Capt. Robert W. Butler of Frederick, Md., who went into action at Dai Ngai, said of the government success: "This is as good a Christmas present as I could have wished for."

A radio he had carried on his back was smashed by a machine-gun bullet. He was not hurt.

The attack began when militiamen in the rice-land hamlet beside the Mekong River called for help after exchanging fire with the guerrillas.

Thirty-six helicopters, half of them armed with rockets and heavy machine guns, dropped on top of the Viet Cong position, discharging two battalions in seven quick waves. Air force planes poured bombs and can-

"THE WAY I HEARD IT"

by John Gruber

This is a dull week in the saying: "I have always taught concert music, whether you live in Hartford, New York, or Vienna, so I find myself with nothing very timely about which to write." The music business is a business of a music critic again. People are always asking me about it, as though it were some occult and mysterious science, and wondering what music critics listen for, as well as what qualifications they must have.

A while back (in fact a couple of years ago) I did a piece on Philip Hale, long dead, but the critic who stands out in my mind as the best music critic I ever encountered. Not only was he influential on his own part (The Boston Herald) but such luminaries as Otto Downer and Lawrence Gilman learned their trade under him.

I couldn't listen that way to begin with, and if I did I'd be afraid I'd miss the forest for the trees. Personally, I try to listen to the overall effect of the composition. I am hearing for the first time, and try to ascertain whether the composer was logical and balanced in his music.

Rockville-Vernon Driver Gets More Charges After Fight in Police Station

A Rockville man who was arrested in Vernon about 5 p.m. Christmas Eve following an automobile accident later got into a fight with his brother at Rockville Police station and had further charges placed against him.

Vernon police report that Donald Roy, 28, of 12 Grove St., was arrested after his vehicle struck a car operated by Richard Barnett, 26, of 105 Denning St., Manchester, on Rt. 30 near Dobson Rd. Roy was charged with operating a motor vehicle while his license was under suspension and following too closely.

Roy was released under $500 bond for appearance in Circuit Court 12, Rockville, Jan. 12. Police noted that Barnett had stopped his vehicle in order to make a left turn into a driveway and was struck in the rear by Roy's car. No injuries were reported; the arrest was made by Constable David Husak.

Later in the evening, Roy and his brother, Raymond, 24, also of 12 Grove St., were arrested and taken to Rockville Police Station after a disturbance at their home. While in the station, a fight started, and both brothers were charged with breach of peace and intoxication and were released under $100 bond.

At 11 p.m. Thursday, a three-car accident occurred on Rt. 33 near Pitkin St. As a result of the accident, Marvin H. Winters, 34, of Overbrook Rd., was summoned into court Jan. 12 on charges of reckless driving and failure to grant one-half the highway.

According to police, a car operated by Winters headed north on the highway crossed into the southbound lane and struck a vehicle operated by Al-

In one accident, a car operated by William Shields, 23, of 29 Oak St., collided on wet pavement on Loveland Hill, careened off a telephone pole, ran over some shrubbery and finally came to rest against a tree.

No injuries were reported, and Shields was summoned to court Jan. 12 on a charge of failure to drive in the proper lane by Constable Husak.

A car operated by Edward F. Roybal Jr., 35, of 21 Linden Pl., went out of control and overturned at the intersection of Dart Hill and Thrall Rds.

No injuries were reported, and Estell was summoned to court Jan. 12 on a charge of failure to drive in the proper lane by Constable Husak.

BONN, Germany (AP) — Adenauer that happened Oct. 16, 1962.

The new chancellor was put to his first test when disabled war veterans demanded higher pensions. He said the budget could not stand the strain and the nation's economic stability had to come first.

Many politicians in his own Christian Democratic party worried about this stand, fearing it was highly unpopular. Then the veterans staged a mass march on the capital. Erhard reversed himself and agreed to an increase in pensions.

Erhard supported the Berlin wall agreement for Christmas 1962. It was heavily criticized within the country on the ground that Communist East Germany had been allowed to gain prestige. The chancellor then rejected a similar agreement for Easter.

Public opinion started running the other way, because of sympathy over the continued expansion of Berlin families. Er-

Abandoned Baby

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Tammy Lee Jones, the 14-month-old baby found after being abandoned in a cotton field two nights and one day, has been placed in a foster home.

Police Sgt. Evan Wilson said the child, once pronounced dead, suffered only a "light case of stiffness" and was discharged from a hospital Sunday.

Police began a search for the child on Christmas Eve after her mother, Mrs. Wayne Gregory, 27, reported that Tammy was kidnapped in front of their home in nearby Mesa.

Wilson said Mrs. Gregory is a single mother who had left the child in the field after finding her limp in the family car and believing her dead. Tammy was found after 37 hours.

Mrs. Gregory is serving a 30-day jail sentence for giving a false report.

South Windsor Sullivan Ave. Industry Park Given Preliminary Approval

The planning and zoning commission has given preliminary approval to an industrial park, two subdivisions and one approval to one subdivision. The industrial park on Sullivan Ave. near Rye St. was given preliminary approval for 12 lots. The park will open up another section of railroad siding on the northeast side of Sullivan Ave.

The commission indicated the 12 industrial sites will be similar to those on Nutmeg Rd. The property belongs to John Woodcock, Beechcroft Rd. Preliminary approval was granted for 30 lots in the new section of the U&R Birch Hill subdivision. The section is located on Fell Rd. and formerly belonged to George Lewis. The commission stated it and when final approval is given, Fell Rd. will be a throughway to Oakland Rd.

Preliminary approval was given for six lots on Lake St. and one on the corner of Lake St. and Griffon Rd. The section contains 24 lots. Originally, this request for subdivision was denied for technical reasons and was not taken up. However, the commission indicated that negotiations have been made for the town to take title to Lake St. Final approval was given for the section I of Rolling Park on Rye St. and Griffon Rd. The section contains 24 lots.

The subdivision property of James Milikis was granted preliminary approval about four years ago. In other action, the commission received subdivision maps of the J. Bernie Gray property of Foster St., parcels to Orchard Hill to study. The area containing 44 lots is known as Orchard Heights. The commission received the resignation of A. David Joseph, 72 Palmer Dr., effective Jan. 21. Joseph is moving out of town.

Requested Additional Classrooms
The board of education has voted to request the public building commission to consider the addition of eight classrooms to the Eli Terry School. Plans for the 16-classroom school call for its completion next fall. It was recommended to the architect that he include in his plans an option for the addition of three more classrooms. The board will be determined if eight or eleven classrooms should be added in 1965. The three additional rooms were originally proposed as kindergarten rooms. The proposed kindergarten rooms would be of larger dimensions than regular classrooms.

Holiday Weather Sets New Record

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP)—Temperatures were back at more seasonal levels today after what must have been one of the warmest Christmas weekends in Connecticut's history.

The 64 degrees recorded Christmas Day at the U.S. Weather Bureau at Bradley Field was the highest reading for the date in the bureau's records. The previous record was 64, set in 1915.

Another record was set the next day when the mercury reached 69 degrees, topping the previous Dec. 28 mark of 56 set in 1907.

On Sunday the high was 64 at 1 a.m.—six degrees below the record for the 27th of 60 degrees, recorded in 1947. The temperature kept going down all day Sunday and was 37 at midnight.

Jimmy Breslin

He went into the kitchen and came back holding out a small brown bottle of pills with a white label that had several lines of typing on it.

"Here, you see? Look at this. That's every day 16 pills until the operation. A serious operation. I got my hands full here, what can I tell you?"

He was asked for a picture of his brother. "I don't have one," he said.

Louis Ofria's body was at the City Medical Examiner's, a new post-mortem building on First Ave. and 30th St. The receptionist's sheet showed he was in Comp 11, which is the slab number, that his Medical Examiner number was 10718 and that he was DOA, Bellevue Hospital.

An attendant downstairs was reached by phone.

"No, his body hasn't been moved yet. They got to do an autopsy on it first. I don't know when it's going to be released to the family. Why? Because we're busy that's why. Because we're busy, that's why? Do you think this is the only thing we got to do today? We got 21 cases here besides him. We got five homicides from last night and 16 others. You think all we got to do is one thing to do. We only got one medical examiner in here for the whole 22. We'll get to him when we can."

Then he hung up. The reception room was crowded with mid-faced people. Negroes mostly, who had come to claim the bodies of their dead. They sat on chairs and couches and wait for a white-jacketed attendant to come into the room and lead them downstairs to identify a body. It takes a long time to get a body back on a Sunday afternoon and one bald, colored man sat for an hour, his eyes staring straight ahead and never seeming to move. The branch of an imitation Christmas tree touched his shoulder.

"It's going to be a while," the receptionist was saying to a well-eyed woman. "If you want to stick around and wait, you can just take a meal." The police had notified her an hour before that her husband had been found dead on a street.

A young girl who said she was a member of the Ofria family sat in a telephone ing at the Cleveland-Baltimore football game they were watching on television.

Season came out. He was wearing a dark blue blazer with gold buttons, tan vest and dark blue slacks.

"How are you?" the lawyer said.

"I have nothing to say and my husband will have nothing to say either," she said.

She was in a yellow leather coat. The husband was in a sports jacket and had a raincoat over his arm. An attendant with forms in his hand came out of a doorway and asked them to come with him. They followed him in, then came out quickly. The girl was in tears. They went outside and got into a cab on First Ave. and left without telling anyone anything about Julius Ofria.

The driver of the car, Edward Seaman, was in Criminal Court in the afternoon. He had turned himself in during the night to a detective of the 13th Precinct.

Seaman, 32, an actor, was arraigned and held in $1,000 bail. He was put in the Tombs and then the bail bondsman's papers were sent in from the court and he was brought down to the front door of the Tombs to be released. His lawyer, Stephen Downes, waited in front of the gray building. Noise came from the upper floors. The inmates were shouting.

Drunken Driver Says Surrender Was 'Stupid'

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — A drunken driver who surrendered to police on Christmas Eve said today he never would do it again.

"Giving myself up was stupid," said John Stewart, 39.

A construction foreman, Stewart began drinking with his men on Christmas Eve.

"When it came time for me to go home, I realized that I was drunk and that I was driving," he said.

"I drove to the nearest police station and told the police I was drunk. I thought they would only take my car keys away."

The police took away his keys, locked him up and didn't let him out until Christmas Day.

The next day Stewart pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of drink.

Magistrate James Barwell praised his action, then fined him $15, ordered him to pay $15.00 costs — and barred him from driving for two years.

Body Found

HARTFORD (AP) — Antonio Fornica's bound body was found floating beside his boat at the Homestead Hotel Christmas morning.

The 72-year-old man, his hands and legs tied, had a piece of cloth stuffed in his mouth and a rag tied over it. Police said he had suffocated because of the gag and the cloth, which blocked his breathing. They called the death a murder.

Fornica's pockets were turned out, indicating he was a victim of a robbery, police said.

The earliest post-season Bowl game was in January 1962, between Stanford and Michigan as an attraction for Pasadena's Tournament of Roses.

The barn is 400 feet from the house. The highway will go between them. The highway department is scheduled to take possession of the 250-foot-wide right-of-way Tuesday.

Petty said the road also will take 17 of his 160 acres. Cut of 22 acres of choice pasture land.

Highway Deaths Fall Far Short Of Record Year

Cole was a volunteer fireman who was killed on his way to a fire Sunday morning. Police said his car collided with a car driven by his wife's aunt.

The aunt, Mrs. Francis Bielert, 42, of New Britain, was reported in satisfactory condition at Hartford Hospital.

Volunteer companies in Newington took down Christmas decorations in mourning for Cole, an eight-year volunteer fireman. Diglio died Sunday morning in St. Raphael's Hospital, New Haven, of injuries received when he was struck by a car Saturday night at Union Avenue and Water Streets in New Haven.

Book Circulation Has Doubled in 10 Year Period

A report from Douglas Library and its subsidiary, school branch shows that in 1963 about 10,000 books were circulated to readers. A jump of 10 years to 1953 shows that 22,000 books went out to readers, a gain of over 12,000. The per capita circulation that year was 13, better by far than the standard of nine. About 500 books added and a few withdrawn makes about 10,000 now in the collection.

A pleasing addition to the library is a picture of the former home of one of the library trustees, the late Mrs. Gertrude M. Haven, painted by Gordon McDonald of Andover, by request from the library.

The library staff is made up of Miss Marjorie H. Martin, head librarian, Mrs. Helen Horton and Mrs. Alma Porter.

The library is open Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5, and Tuesday and Friday evenings from 7:30 to 9.

LION STAYS PUT

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP) — The deadline passed Sunday for Leo the lion to leave town. But Howard Sautter's pet still was in his hatched quarters today.

Abington Township's commissioners recently passed an ordinance banning wild animals as pests. The ordinance was inspired by objections of some of Sautter's neighbors. They complained that Leo made them nervous.

Democrats' Sweep, Rec Events Head List of Local Stories

The top local story of 1964 was the Democratic sweep in the Oct. 5 town elections, according to a poll taken 10 days ago among a representative sampling of Manchester residents.

However, a subsequent recheck discloses that an exclusive story that broke in the Herald on Dec. 22 may prove to be a sleeper, and may wind up taking top honors for both this year and next.

That was the disclosure that General Manager Richard Martin will seek a leave of absence this spring, for a retirement as of next November.

Another story that broke last week was the plan to build a $600,000 Bucksland section in Vernon. This story too should score high among the top stories of next year.

The Democratic party's Oct. 5 victory was only its third in the history of Manchester politics, and the most decisive.

The other victories occurred in 1933 and 1953, both times by slim margins.

Top Ten Stories

1. Democratic sweep of town elections.

2. Herd's resignation, two audit reports, and lumping of park-rec department under one head.

3. Charter changes, voted twice, and General Manager Richard Martin's demand for review.

4. North End Renewal approval, tied in with Robertson School additions.

5. Bruno DeMarco dismissed and highway department study.

6. Kennedy Day Camp for retarded children.

Priest Uses Exile to Protest Order to Stay Silent on Racism

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Roman Catholic priest says he is going into "self-imposed exile" from the Los Angeles area because he is ordered to maintain silence on racism.

The Rev. John V. Coffey, 40, called his departure "a solution to an impasse between my cardinal and myself."

The cardinal was not available for comment.

Father Coffey said in a farewell statement to his parishioners that he was ordered to take a five-month "enforced vacation" from California earlier this year because he had spoken out against controversial Proposition 13.

The proposition, upheld by voters last November, amended the state constitution to prohibit any abridgment of an individual's choice to whom he might sell or rent a home or apartment. In effect, it nullified state anti-discrimination housing laws.

"I don't believe that anyone would be shocked by my leaving out of California after I had spoken out against Proposition 13," Father Coffey said in his statement.

"I was ordered out on November 18th," he said. "I am hopeful that the attitude of the justice to my parishioners would help that the proposition was wrong, I should have fought it openly."

"I want to have no part in the continuing silence and lack of conscience which is daily driving away many excellent people."

On Saturday, Nov. 14th, he was ordered to maintain a silence on racism. The cardinal was in a self-imposed exile from the

He graduated 15th in his class of 76 and qualified for a commercial pilot's license as well as a 1,000-hour certificate as a pilot.

Toomey, a 1960 graduate of Manchester High School, attended the University of Maine where he took three years of ROTC training.

Upon graduating from Maine in June, 1963, he attended summer camp at Ft. Devens, Mass., and then was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Army.

Before his Fort Rucker training he spent four months in infantry training at Ft. Benning, Ga.

He is now attached to the First U. S. Army Flight Detachment, Floyd Bennett Station, Brookly, N. Y.

His primary assignment is the Brookly Army Terminal, flying L-22s.

General A. J. Montgomery, commander of the U. S. Army Technical Academy at Fort Benning, said Toomey was one of the best graduates of the academy in 1963.

He is married to the former Susan Thurlow of Phillips, Maine. The Toomeys reside in Brookly, N. Y.

UConn's Basketball Success Year's Leading Sports Story

NEW HAVEN (AP)—The night was mild but wet in Raleigh, N. C., March 14 and what happened there, rather than the outcome, turned out to be Connecticut's top sports story of the year.

Under the coach Fred Schell, the University of Connecticut's basketball team met performances registered by Duke University in the final regional championship.

The fact that Duke University's speedster stopped the UConn and their rebounder "Buck" Kimball was disappointed. The UConn team's triumph over the Blue Devils was a triumph over all accomplishments.

Showdown for Celts Tonight Against Lakers at Boston

BOSTON (AP)—The showdown tonight which the Boston Celtics have been pointing for a week is on tonight when the defending National Basketball Association champions meet the Los Angeles Lakers in the second half of a Boston Garden double-header.

New York plays the Detroit Pistons in the opening game. The Celtics, playing the third game in the night, defeated the Pistons 112-106 at Fort Wayne, Ind., Sunday night.

The Celtics were the star, leading the game 40-30 at the time John Havlicek sank a pair of jump shots to break a 104-104 tie.

Boston was without the injured Tom Heinsohn both at St. Louis and Fort Wayne.

Rest for Bruins After Busy Week

CHICAGO (AP)—The Boston Bruins get a much needed rest after playing three games in three nights — one of the worst jams on the National Hockey League schedule.

The three-game stretch was one game too long for Boston, soundly beaten by the Chicago Black Hawks 5-0 on Saturday night.

The Bruins played a split with the Rangers in Friday and Saturday night games.

Boston doesn't play again until it takes on the Toronto Maple Leafs at the Boston Garden New Year's night.

Sunday night's game featured a successful penalty shoot-out score by Dean Prentice. But it also brought an injury to the team's most valuable player at the moment—the same Mr. Prentice.

Referee Frank Udvardi ruled that Stan Mikita tripped Prentice as he roared in on the Black Hawk goalie Dennis DeJordy. Prentice was obviously shaken on the play but he stayed on the ice long enough to beat DeJordy in the shoot-out situation.

Prentice then was sent to a hospital for X-rays of his back. It was Prentice who scored twice Saturday night to help goalie Ed Johnston to his first shutout of the season — a 2-0 win over the Rangers.

Mikita got two of Chicago's goals and Bobby Hull added his league-leading point with three assists. He now has 29 goals and 21 assists for 50 points.

Coach Screams at Official, Father-in-Law Drops Ref

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight of college basketball's Top Ten teams, led by Michigan and Wichita, protest their high rankings in holiday tournaments tonight, but none is expected to have the in-law trouble that Coach Ladell Anderson of Utah State encountered in the Rainbow Classic at Honolulu.

Michigan, the No. 1 team, meets Manhattan in the first round of the Holiday Festival at New York. Second-ranked Wichita, which has lost only to Michigan, plays Villanova, one of nine major unbeatens, in the Quaker City semifinals at Philadelphia.

Six other teams play in five tournaments tonight while Michigan, which won 70-60 on Saturday, plays Villanova, one of nine major unbeatens, in the Quaker City semifinals at Philadelphia.

Utah State's Anderson was upset with what he termed "poor officiating." Anderson raged onto the floor immediately after the final buzzer and engaged in a midcourt conversation with one of the referees, Craig Richardson.

Suddenly, Jimmy Adams, Villanova's coach, charged out of the stands and dropped Anderson with a right hook to the face.

His conversation ended, Anderson was taken to a hospital for treatment of a bloody nose and said:

"It was just one of those things that can happen in the heat of battle. I was upset over some bad calls, and now I'm sorry about the whole incident which heads the local referees' organization, was arrested and charged with assault and battery after receiving a severe tongue-lashing from Mayor Neal S. Blaisdell of Honolulu, who witnessed the one-punch fight from the stands.

When the outburst finally was quelled, Wisconsin met Boston College and won 70-60 on Saturday. Michigan, the No. 1 team, meets Manhattan in the first round of the Holiday Festival at New York. Second-ranked Wichita, which has lost only to Michigan, plays Villanova, one of nine major unbeatens, in the Quaker City semifinals at Philadelphia.

Hoople on Target, Selects Bowl Tilts

By MAJOR AMOS HOOPLE

Originator of Bowl Games, Hoople, friends, truly the cup rumph over for the football fans this New Year's weekend.

One might say you pickin' devotes are assured of several bowls of enjoyment. No fewer than five of the nation's top 10 collegiate powers — Michigan, Arkansas, Nebraska, Texas and Alabama — will appear in the bowl game.

Go with the forecast, and a Happy New Year to all!

ROSE BOWL
Michigan 10, Oregon State University 9. It's the favorite score of the Wolverines who picked another OSU (Ohio State University) by the same margin to go into the Rose Bowl.

SUGAR BOWL
Louisiana State 15, Syracuse 9. Okay Bayou, this column's Louisiana correspondent, reports the stinky Tigers, who limited their opponents to a 13-point-per-game average, are ready for their orange effort at the 12.

ORANGE BOWL
Texas 22, Alabama 12. The best game of the day — er,

HUNTING AND FISHING

SPARE MANTLE
Make a spare mantle for your pressure lantern. Tape it to the bottom. You'll never be out of luck when you're out of town.

DOG EMETIC
If your dog eats poison and there's no time to get him to a vet, hold open his mouth and pour a can of concentrated emetic milk down his throat. Follow it immediately with a can of soapy water. Up will come the poison.

SOULING GOOD IDEA
Give a can of cork (from an old life preserver) to the boys on your fishing boat. Makes handy place to store plugs and hooks.

SQUIRREL TRICK
Get a squirrel up a tree but he won't show himself. Sometimes you can make him run by taking a good sized dead branch and biting the trunk.

OATMEAL CHUM
Sprinkle oatmeal through the draw when fishing for pan fish. Draws minnow. When minnows come can perch and crappie be far behind?

FAST FUELING
Owners of fuel docks pay attention to this one: Solder a 1/4 inch tube down the spout of the big tanks. You use to fill gas tanks with. Tube allows air bubble tank to escape. Makes pouring faster with no spills.
