Hope Troupe Returns From Holiday Jaunt

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I out a lot of things. I never think we had the most security of all time," said comedian Bob Hope, just returned from a Christmas tour of U.S. military bases in the Far East. "I've never had my back scrubbed by a bayonet before."

He praised the U.S. fighting men there.

Hope's lips were chapped from the countless outdoor shows he performed. Actress Jill St. John was nursing a limp: someone dropped a native crossbow on her ankle. No one suffered any serious mishaps.

Military authorities weren't taking any chance the Hope troupe might be the target of red terrorists.

Hope said "Our destination was such a secret we really didn't know where we were ourselves. Really!"

MIAMI, Fia. (AP) — If the He didn't produce an over-all Playoff Bowl game Sunday between the National Football League runners-up. Green Bay and St. Loutis, should end in a stalemate, the Packers may have the tie-breaking ace in Paul Hornung, the Golden Boy. "Paul is a real cultch player." The game, starting at 2 p.m. EST in the Orange Bowl before an expected crowd of 65,000 and a vast television audience, CBS, will be decided by sudden death if there is a draw after the regulation for coming through with the big play. It is his trademark.

Hornung, acclaimed the most valuable player in the league before he got in the doghouse over some betting activities, came back this year after a year's suspension.

He teamed with hard-running Jim Taylor in leading a form: dable Green Bay running strack and back that carried the Packers to second place behind Baltimore in the Western Division.

Miller, interviewed by telephone at his Washington home, said he is too old to move in and out of politics but still young enough to develop a thriving law practice.

"The choice was between rentering public life and trying to get a holding operation until an opportunity developed or to cut the ties completely and return to my law practice." he said.

Miller cited his family and a desire to reutrn to his law practice in announcing last Jan. 9 a decision to bow out of public life both as a congressman and as regional incinerator latenty in Manchester is expected to solve the problem within the next few years.
