College of Cardinals At Record High 103

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI created 27 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today, bringing the membership of the College of Cardinals to an all-time high of 103.

Creation of the new cardinals—three from Communist nations, three from the Americas, Africa and Asia—gave the college its widest international representation. Forty-one countries are now represented.

For the formal creation of the 27 new cardinals, Pope Paul and 26 members of the college met in the Apostolic Palace's Consistorial Hall. The Pope announced nomination of the 27 on Jan. 25, but approval of the other cardinals was required.

The 27 were the first cardinals he has named in his 20-month-old reign. He has said he will name more after the Vatican Ecumenical Council ends later this year.

After the secret consistory, papal messengers fanned out across Rome to give formal notification to 26 of the new prelates waiting at four Catholic embassies in the city.

One group, at the North American Pontifical College, included two new cardinals from North America—Archbishops Lawrence Shehan of Baltimore and Maurice Roy of Quebec.

The three cardinals from Communist lands are Archbishop of Zagreb, Yugoslavia, Josip Beran of Prague, Czechoslovakia, and Josef Slipyi, primate of Ukrainian Catholics.

Archbishop Beran came to Rome last Friday after 16 years of confinement in Czechoslovakia. He will remain in Rome. Archbishop Slipyi has been living in Rome since he was released from confinement in Siberia two years ago.

They were the first prelates from Communist lands to be made cardinals since 1853.

The 27th new cardinal, Bishop Angel Herrera y Oria of Malaga, Spain, was not in Rome. In accordance with the tradition for Catholic countries, he will receive his insignia from the Spanish chief of state, Generalissimo Franco.

Also among the new cardinals were three Middle East patriarchs and the second Negro elevated to the college, Archbishop Paul Zoungana of Upper Volta. The patriarchs are Maximos IV Saigh, Melchite Patriarch of Antioch; Paul Pierre Meouchi, Maronite Patriarch of Antioch; and Stephanos I Sidarous, Coptic patriarch of Alexandria.

The wide geography of the Pope's choices emphasized his expressed desire to internationalize the highest bodies of the world's largest Christian church.

For the creation of his first cardinal, Pope Paul also decreed a series of changes that broke with precedent.

The traditional week-long round of ceremonies and pomp was drastically reduced and streamlined.

One of the chief ceremonies of the consistory, the conferring of the broad-brimmed red galero hat which cardinals wear, was eliminated entirely.

Alabama's Racial Fight In 6th Week

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—Alabama's racial conflict, described by a Negro leader as the last stand for white supremacy, moved into its sixth week today after another plea for racial talks.

Returning to join the drive aimed at registering Negro voters was Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize winner who triggered the massive campaign last Jan. 18.

Arrests have mounted to more than 3,000 in Selma and nearby Marion where a Thursday night march by Negroes brought violence, leaving eight persons injured—including a Negro man wounded by gunfire.

"This is it," grimly warned a "Klan" lieutenant, Hosea Williams of Savannah, Ga., at a news conference during a church meeting Sunday night. "This is the last stand for white supremacy."

Williams said applications for a parade permit had been mailed to the City Council, Mayor Joseph T. Smithman said earlier, however, he had received no request and would not grant a permit for any type of procession.

Williams said more federal legislation was needed to assure Negroes the right to vote. He

British Slash Surcharge From 15 to 10 Per Cent

LONDON (AP)—The British government today cut from 15 to 10 per cent its controversial import surcharge, effective April 27.

The announcement was made in the House of Commons by Chancellor of the Exchequer James Callaghan. A similar announcement was made in Geneva by Economics Minister George Brown to Britain's trading partners in the European Free Trade Area.

"We have now decided that enough progress is being made to enable us to reduce the charge after it has been in operation for six months," Callaghan said.

The members of the association—Europe's "Outer Seven"—have complained about the surcharge, installed by the Labor government last fall to cut imports and reduce the trade deficit.

Edward Heath, Conservative spokesman on financial affairs, asked why the reduction was being delayed until April. He said it gave a clear indication to importers that if they held up shipments for two months, their duties would be lower—and a rush of imports would follow.

Callaghan replied that exports had risen 2.3 per cent and this indicates the way the economy is moving. He said it will also "enable us to say to our trading allies that we shall be in a position in April to put reduction into effect without adverse effect on the balance of payments."

But he added it would be a "long haul" before the country overcomes the deficit of $2 billion amassed last year.

In Geneva, Britain's EFTA partners warmly welcomed the announcement.

Trade Minister Gunnar Lange of Sweden said the cut was a "sign of success" for the British economy. Others said the announcement meant the trade group could proceed once again in unity.

Police Fear Revenge For Malcolm X Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Police in New York and Chicago kept wary guard today against any effort to avenge the assassination of Malcolm X, fiery counselor of violence in the Negro civil rights movement.

The rebel Black Muslim, who broke from the parent group to form his own sect, was shot down by conspirators here Sunday as he stepped forward to address a meeting of his followers.

Police seized a young Negro man, wounded in the leg during the disorder caused by the slay-ing, and charged him with homicide. The FBI identified the man as Thomas Hayer, 22, alias known address was 347 Marshall St., Patterson, N.J.

Other persons were sought in the plot described as an apparent outgrowth of the 15-month feud between Malcolm X and the Black Muslims headed by Elijah Muhammad in Chicago.

Police, however, did not report any evidence of a link between the assassins and Muhammad's faithful.

In Chicago, special police details were posted outside Muhammad's three-story house and Mosque of Islam No. 2 in the wake of unconfirmed reports that six members of Malcolm's Afro-American Union had departed from New York on separate missions of revenge.

In Harlem, extra uniformed officers walked the streets, on guard against any new violence.

The murder came exactly a week after Malcolm X and his family were driven from their residence in Queens by firebombs. He was being evicted from the dwelling which was purchased by Black Muslim donations before his break with Muhammad.

For months, Malcolm had spoken of a conspiracy against his life and he reportedly planned to name his assassins at the meeting Sunday. But the blast from shotguns and pistols cut him down after three words: "Brothers and sisters."

The man who advised Negroes to form rifle clubs to fight the "devil white man" for civil rights, to use "ballots or bullets," apparently was dead before his body hit the floor.

It was he who had spoken of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy as a case of the "chickens coming home to roost."

Washington's New 'Image' Seen Warmer

WASHINGTON CROSSING, Pa. (AP)—That widely held impression of George Washington as a cold fish is at last giving way to a more human and appealing image, a historian said today.

Ann Hawkes Hutton, author of several books and a play about Washington, and chairman of the Washington Crossing Park Commission, said that more and more Americans are finding unexpected warmth in the personality of the father of his country.

For a long time, she said in an interview, Washington has been overshadowed in the popular imagination by the heart and humor of Abraham Lincoln, the dash of Andrew Jackson, the sophistication of Thomas Jefferson.

"The usual thing," Mrs. Hutton continued, "was to call Washington a great man and let it go at that. Great, but touching no sympathetic chord."

"Now, however, Americans finally are discarding those time-worn ideas of Washington as forbiddingly aloof, coldly remote, a legendary figure rather than one of life and blood, who suffered as a truly, who knew what it meant to be hard up and in debt, who was as sensitive as most men to criticism, who was fond of children and grieved that he had none of his own, and had his share of faults."

"Every year we welcome thousands of visitors to this shrine," she said. "They come from all the states and dozens of other countries. They have been telling us the last few years how much more they appreciate the character of Washington, and that they feel he has been misunderstood."

"This is true even among grade school children. Many of these ask keen questions, far removed from that 'Father, I cannot tell a lie' which probably has alienated more people than it has pleased."

Mrs. Hutton said she had studied attendance records at this and other favorite Washington shrines—Mt. Vernon, Virginia, Valley Forge, Pa., and the Washington Monument in the nation's capital—and found increases up to about six per

'Colonial Militiamen' Return to Valley Forge

Well, it's not really Colonial Militia, but this troop of hardy warriors tramped over the Valley Forge parade ground this weekend just as the men of Washington did in the winter of 1777-78. They are really Boy Scouts participating in the 52nd annual Winter Encampment and Pilgrimage of Valley Forge Council, BSA, in tribute to George Washington and his Continental Army.

Man Lives 79 Hours Under Ice

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (AP)—Einar Myllyla is partly frozen—but alive.

He lived for 79 hours under an avalanche of snow and crushed buildings at the devastated Granduc mining camp in northwest British Columbia.

A Finnish construction worker in his 30s, Myllyla is one of 130 miners who survived Thursday's giant slide off Le Duc Glacier near the Canadian-Alaska border. He was pulled from the ruins of a bunkhouse by rescuers Sunday afternoon, then hospitalized at Ketchikan. He was reported partly frozen and in serious condition.

Searchers continued to probe acres of ice and snow on the precarious mountainside for more men. So far 14 bodies have been recovered. At least 13 are missing.

Continuing heavy snowfall, darkness and threat of more slides hampered tired rescue crews. The finding of Myllyla renewed hopes that still more might be found alive.

Long Distance Talks New Viet Nam Junta Seeks Khanh Ouster

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's new junta negotiated long distance with Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh today as it tried to carry through its ouster of the armed forces chief and get him out of the country.

Three members of the Armed Forces Council were reported back from Dalat where they have been dickered with the former strong man. There was speculation that they offered Khanh a post abroad to get him to agree to leave South Viet Nam.

Military leaders in Saigon had announced that Khanh had agreed to step down but said later he had asked to meet with a full session of the Armed Forces Council to discuss his future.

One report said Brig. Gen. Nguyen Khanh Thi, impatient with Khanh's stalling, had threatened to drop paratroops in the Dalat area 200 miles north-east of Saigon.

New military activity around Saigon Airport kept tension up. Unconfirmed reports circulated that the "Young Turk" generals who toppled Khanh had already begun squabbling. One report said the 1st Corps commander, Brig. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi, and the air force commander, Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, were contending for power.

The military leaders conferred throughout the night behind barricades at the Saigon airport. The airport was reopened to traffic at dawn, but at noon troops loaded anti-aircraft guns around the airport headquarters building and drew up recoilless rifles at entrances to the field, indicating that the crisis was not over.

An unconfirmed report said the 8th Cavalry unit of about 40 tanks might still be loyal to Khanh.

Despite all the alarms and threats, there had been no shooting since the latest upheaval began Friday.

The generals of the Armed Forces council decided to oust Khanh after crushing an attempted coup against him Friday. Sunday they stripped him of his title of commander in chief, named Maj. Gen. Tran Van Minh "temporary acting chairman" of the council, or chief of the armed forces, and voted to send Khanh into exile.

Khanh, who had held power for 13 months, flew to Dalat Saturday to try to muster support but his plane ran out of gas there. Apparently fearing an attack by Khanh's followers, the members of the council barricaded themselves inside the airport and conferred among themselves and with American advisers.

Ky, the air force commander, ordered fighter-bombers to circle the area in search of partisans of Khanh who were reported readying a tank attack on the airport.

U.S. Air Force Brig. Gen. Robert Rowland, who has mediated previous disputes, persuaded Ky to refrain from any bombing.

So far the civilian government of Premier Phan Huy Quat did not appear to be affected by the military maneuvering.

Gen. Minh, the new armed forces commander, is known as Little Minh to distinguish him from Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, or Big Minh, who led the coup that overthrew President

Richard Leche Dies, Was Huey Long Aide

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Richard W. Leche, who was governor at the time of the Louisiana scandals in the late 1930s and early 40s died today.

A lieutenant of the late Sen. Huey P. Long, D-La., Leche was elected governor by a landslide in 1938. He resigned the office three years later and went to federal prison for mail fraud.

Leche was pardoned in 1963 by then President Harry S. Truman and returned to New Orleans to practice law.

He told an interviewer recently, "I have no animosities what-soever. I'm thoroughly enjoying watching the parade."

Services will be held Tuesday at the House of Bultman Funeral Home with burial in Metairie Cemetery.

Survivors include the widow; two sons, Richard W. Leche Jr. of Houston, Tex., and Charles Eustace Leche of New Orleans, and one sister, Mrs. Herbert Deignan of Lausanne, Switzerland.

Leche was born in New Orleans May 17, 1889, and was educated here, attending Loyola University Law School.

Leche quickly caught the eye of Long, and his political star soared. He soon was a state appeals court judge.

After a brief stint as Long's life in 1935, Leche took command of the Long political machine. His election as governor came the next year.

Leche presided over a high-living administration in Baton Rouge. Questioned about the yachts, handsome homes and luxuries he and his close associates surrounded themselves with, he answered:

"When I took the oath of office, I didn't take any vow of poverty."

Following in Long's footsteps, Leche built roads, schools and supplied pupils with free pencils, tablets and erasers to go along with the free textbooks supplied by Long.

The scandal that toppled Leche broke June 9, 1939, when the New Orleans States published pictures of state trucks delivering building materials to a home being built by a Leche aide.

Soon charges of graft, corruption and misuse of public funds were leveled against many top state officials, including the governor.

Leche resigned June 30 and was sentenced on June 1, 1940, to 10 years in federal prison for mail fraud. He was released from prison June 27, 1949, and given a presidential pardon later by then President Truman.

Leche was reinstated as an attorney in 1956 and practiced law here until forced by illness to retire.

Daigle, McCusker Collide on Issues

Two candidates involved in the consolidation election to be held March 2 have engaged in a heated exchange of state-ments.

Republican candidate for the board of representatives John L. Daigle lashed out at Thomas J. McCusker, the Democratic candidate for mayor, charging McCusker with conducting a "massive attack on everything but motherhood."

McCusker charged the Republicans with conducting a campaign without a platform, of running "big meaningless ads," and of appealing to the voters "to suggest a platform to run on and issue to discuss."

Referring to a local newspaper advertisement last week, McCusker said, "The following is a direct quote from one of the high priced Republican ads on Feb. 16: 'These are the Republicans who have been elected to lead from the front to help the people.'"

Daigle, presently a Vernon as-semblyman, replied to McCusker's charge, saying, "The Republican and the Jayces have been trying to get him to publicly de-bate the real issues with Sam Pearson (the Republican rule-candidate) but McCusker claims he is too busy at his law firm to do so."

Man Lives 79 Hours Under Ice

Rescuers used hand tools, afraid heavy equipment would trigger another slide as they continued sifting through the devastation around the clock.

Several other miners were dug out alive earlier from under the tons of ice, snow and debris buried with them. About 40 were rescued Thursday from a tunnel where the miners were boring under the glacier for Grandin's low-grade copper ore.

A backhoe from Winnipeg, Man., Mytila was moved by air hoisted in the cold, wet dark.

Doctors here said they are amazed Mytila could survive for more than three days in the weak and emaciated. Parts of his arms and legs were frozen, but he had no broken bones.

Mytila was flown out of the mountain-ringed copper mining site by helicopter. When he arrived in Ketchikan, his arms were wrapped in bandages. His hands were the color of chalk.

Dr. James Wilson said Mytila would have to show out for the next two years.

Mishaps Kill Over 2,900 Servicemen

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than 2,900 U.S. servicemen died in accidents around the world last year when they were killed on the battlefields of Vietnam.

Figures made available by the Defense Department today show that 2,944 U.S. servicemen were killed in accidents in 1964, compared with a Viet Nam combat toll of 140.

However, the casualty rate for American fighting men in Viet Nam has increased somewhat since the beginning of this year.

Among other contributing factors were the two Viet Cong attacks on U.S. bases at Pleiku and Qui Nhon last month, which killed nine and 23 Americans, respectively.

The 2,944 accidental deaths last year included 869 in the Army, 911 in the Air Force and 1,164 in the Navy and Marine Corps.

The accidents occurred both while men were on duty and while they were off duty. The most common in civilian life was automobile accidents.
