NEW HAVEN (AP)—Operations of the New Haven Railroad, short on cash but rich in assets, has agreed to sell virtually all it has to a merged Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroad system.

The sale, for considerations estimated at $140 million, would assure continuation of the bankrupt line's freight service, which is considered a vital part of New England's economy.

But it leaves the fate of the New Haven's chronically profitless passenger and commuter services in the hands of state and federal officials.

They must come up with funds to salvage an operation the trustees said has lost $28 million in the past 10 years.

The transaction, dependent on Interstate Commerce Commission approval of the Pennsylvania-Central merger, specifically obligates the purchaser to keep the passenger service going.

The New Haven's trustees, in announcing the agreement yesterday, said Pennsylvania and Central officials "have expressed a willingness to continue operations of the New Haven's passenger service if suitable arrangements with public authorities can be made."

However, the trustees were not counting on governmental subsidies. They said they were proceeding with "all appropriate steps" for elimination of all passenger service by July 30.

"By then they (public officials) will have had a full four years to act, knowing from the outset of bankruptcy that passenger service was in jeopardy," said trustee Richard Joyce Smith. "We can't operate with out subsidies."

Under the agreement, the New Haven, which has been in bankruptcy since July 1961 and in the red since 1967, would sell almost all of its buildings equip-

400 Bricklayers Go on Strike In Bridgeport

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—The 400 members of local 2, Bricklayers and Plasterers Union, went on strike today after failing to reach a contract agreement with the Associated General Contractors of Bridgeport.

The old contract expired Wednesday. Two other construction unions, local 685 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the Carpenters and Joiners of America, also failed to reach new contract agreements at the deadline.

Joseph N. Grassano, business agent for the bricklayers, said there would be no picketing at Bridgeport area. He said his men will not work because they have no contract.

But spokesmen for the laborers and the carpenters said their men will continue to work without a contract. They indicated however that they would honor any picketing by the bricklayers union, which said it expected meetings with the bricklayers to be able to continue, but at a slower pace.

Major projects underway affected by the strike include an 11-story bank building in the downtown section, new dormitories at Fairfield University, an addition at Bridgeport Hospital, and three public school projects.

Spokesmen for the three building trades unions said no dates have been set for resumption of contract negotiations, but each said they expected meetings to be called within the next seven days.

Both sides indicated today that the negotiators for the bricklayers and contractors were close to reaching a new contract.

In Stamford, bricklayers, carpenters and laborers went on strike today, but painters rejected a new contract agreement in 16 days, and bricklayers rejected an agreement with contractors in Norwalk, but carpenters, laborers and bricklayers went on strike today.

Pan-Am Crippled By Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A pilot's strike crippled the globe-circling operations of Pan American Airways today.

Pan Am, the country's largest international airline, announced a shutdown Wednesday night. Thousands of travelers were grounded. But many others were rebooked on other carriers.

The pilots said they would continue to fly government-chartered flights to South Vietnam, Germany and other points where the United States has military installations.

The AFL-CIO Air Line Pilots Association declared the strike in effect at 7 o'clock Wednesday night after contract negotiations collapsed. The union said all flights that began before the strike call would continue to fly. The schedule of flights would be strangled far from home.

The union has 1,523 members employed by Pan Am, which has a total of 25,500 employees worldwide. The airline serves 37 American gateway cities and more than three score international cities. It normally carries 14,000 passengers a day, with about 4,000 of them streaming in and out of Kennedy Airport here.

Levert Edwards, a member of the National Mediation Board, said the settlement of the number of hours a pilot can be required to remain on the flight deck. The pilots demanded a reduction in the basic 60-hour-a-month work schedule.

A union spokesman said in Chicago that the deal that was made was a compromise. He said talks over the number of consecutive working hours for pilots. He said pilots could be required to work as many as 18 consecutive hours, and the union has been seeking a cut.

The spokesman said wages would be reduced. He said Edwards said no further negotiations were scheduled.

Edwards said he was an effort to reach an agreement in 16 months-old contract dispute.

Jilted Suitor May Claim Gifts

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A jilted suitor finds that money, indeed, cannot buy love, he will be able to sue for the return of gifts under a new law passed in Albany.

The law, which would allow a man to sue for the return of gifts if he has been jilted, passed in Albany Wednesday.

Assembliesmen in some long-range-check debate approved 128-14 a bill that would allow a man to sue for the return of gifts if he has been jilted.

This was no joking matter, said the sponsor of the bill, Brockway, a Democrat.

He said he was inspired by the case of a man who had given a woman a diamond ring and a watch. She had broken off the engagement and kept the gifts.

Steel Treats Pay Demand As Excessive

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The basic steel industry was described today as staggered by union demands that pay and benefits be hiked by nearly $1 an hour over the next three years.

"This puts the billion-dollar bundle to shame," said one industry figure. He referred to 1969 when the union wages alone averaged about $2.17 an hour in steel mills.

The industry is expected to resist the demands for a $1.00-a-hour hike, which would mean a 10 percent increase over the current rate.

Water Bills Hit Mother Jailed With Daughter

HARTFORD (AP)—The director of the State Water Resources Commission has asked the legislature to reject any bills that would specify that utility workers be charged to Connecticut rivers.

William W. Wise told the General Assembly's Committee on Water Resources and Flood Control today that he is "convinced" that the bills would "cause considerable disagreement among scientists" on the subject.

Although the United States has kept the door open to possible negotiations in the office of the State Department, Washington officials said North Vietnam has given no hint that it intends to abandon its assault on South Vietnam.

It was a prerequisite to any peace talks.

Amassador Maxwell D. Taylor talked with newsmen Wednesday night after meeting with President Johnson. He gave no indication that any negotiations were in the offing.

Asked by a reporter if he thought the air strikes on North Vietnam were bringing the Ho Chi Minh regime any closer to negotiations, Taylor said: "I have no yardstick to measure the distance to the conference table."

Europe Holds Dizzy Rites

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe celebrated April Fool's Day today with extravagant pranks. The British Broadcasting Corporation paraded a parade of television fans that it could transmit London.

The BBC brought in a genuine professor from the University of Cambridge to demonstrate the "emulation."

He fed coffee beans and then turned on a computerized machine of fake equipment, explaining that the scene would be transmitted through the screen.

"For best results," he said, "stand six feet away from your set and snuff."

He asked successful snufflers to report results by noon, the traditional deadline for April Fool's jokes.

Such is the power of television that snufflers soon were telephoning to report that the scene had come across. Some claimed the onions made their eyes water. (See Page Four)

Pajama-Clad Candidate Stages Election Sleep-in

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Mau-bored eggs, ham and wheat rice R. Zumwalt, decked out in a pair of brown pajamas, turned a sleep-in into a lie-in at the Board of Election Commissioners of St. Louis.

Zumwalt, the Republican nominee for mayor in a traditionally Democratic city, wanted the election postponed until the Board of Police Commissioners of St. Louis had been elected.

"I'll stay," said Zumwalt, 32, "and the election or until the two boards assure me officers will be stationed on the polls for 48 hours on honest vote." He said he was physically fit.

Zumwalt was in the Board of Election Commissioners' office at 1:20 a.m. Wednesday with a suit case containing a change of clothing, shaving brush and a toothbrush.

Milburn Shaw, chairman of the GOP City Central Committee, will keep Zumwalt company overnight.

"Two men with shaving brushes, toilet water, a radio and an ice box were set up in the lobby of the building for Zumwalt and Shaw."

"I'm not a Democrat," said Zumwalt, "but I'm a St. Louisan."

The red-coated waitress from Zumwalt's restaurant served Zumwalt and Shaw a steak dinner.

While the administration apparently has the votes to get the education aid legislation out of committee without major changes, leaders are uncertain what will happen if Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., attempts to amend it to make its provisions permanent. He will oppose it.

Ervin succeeded by a 45-32 vote in attaching an amendment to the bill next Tuesday. Ervin said he would try to bring it up in the Senate on Wednesday.

Unless Southern senators report to the Rev. Lyle E. Burdette stating their reluctance, Mansfield said he thought the other was well on its way.

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP)—Fredrick J. Harris, white opponent of South Africa's racial laws, was hanged today for the death of a white woman killed in the bombing of the Johannesburg railway station last year.

Rockville-Vernon Fire Levels Section Of New Apartments

Fire destroyed a section of the Vernon Garden, a new apartment complex on Rt. 83, in a spectacular blaze late yesterday afternoon.

The fire leveled one section of the project, containing 4 four-room duplex apartments. No estimate of damage has yet been made.

An investigation into the cause of the fire is under way, but tentative reports indicate that the blaze may have started from a workman's tool. There is no electricity in the area.

The fire totally destroyed one end of a building and also damaged an adjoining building. Brick winds spread sparks to nearby areas, causing small fires to erupt. The flames were quickly extinguished.

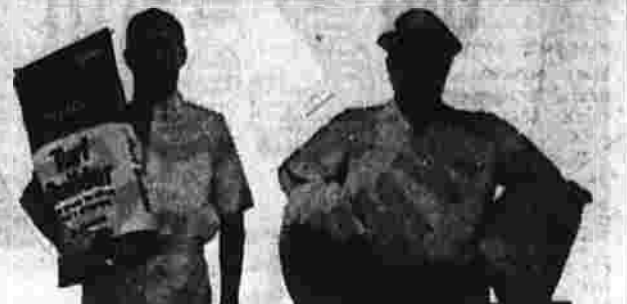

The project contains 154 apartments, and is valued at about $1.5 million. Also planned is a shopping center.

Vernon Fire Chief Joseph Duffin said yesterday that damage could have been minimized, if shutoff walls, planned for the buildings, had been up.

"However," he said, "there is nothing to contain the blaze; the buildings were all open."

This morning's call to the fire department was for minor fire activity. Construction officials requested permission to wet down the fire area, because smoke started billowing.

Rockville-Vernon Town Finance Board Meets on Road Funds

The Vernon Board of Finance met last night to consider a payment of $20,625 to the City of Rockville for road reimbursements.

The meeting precedes a town meeting scheduled for April 8, called at the request of city residents. A petition, circulated by members of the city council, requested the action.

According to some observers, the town has often been lax in providing funds to offset highway department costs to the city.

Under the present arrangement, city taxpayers support the city's Public Works Department, which attends city roads, and the taxpayers also support the town's Highway Department, which attends all roads outside the city.

Several years ago, an agreement was reached between town and city officials whereby the town would reimburse the city for some road costs.

The present controversy arose because, with the displacement of the city and town governments by a new consolidated government, the city will not receive reimbursement during its present fiscal year.

Town officials have noted that the reason for the re-jection of the city's request is because the city and the town use different fiscal year periods.

The town, under its present fiscal year, has already reimbursed the city for its new fiscal year, which started Nov. 16.

Town fathers decline, saying it would be illegal for them to make two payments during the same fiscal year.

City fathers insist that they have not received this year's payment.

The petition for a town meeting places the decision in the hands of all town residents.

However, the board of finance must first consider the city's request for funds. If the board rejects the request, the town meeting will be merely academic since taxpayers will not be able to act.

The board of finance will meet tonight at 7 p.m. at town hall. Also on the agenda will be the matters regarding the fi-day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sandwiches will be brought.

A work night to make Christmas will be held Thursday evening at 7:30.

Trio of Satellites Helps to Map Earth

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army disclosed today it has in orbit a three-satellite earth mapping system, with two of the spacecraft circling the earth from west to east and the third traveling from pole to pole.

Two were fired into orbit early this month; the other has been circling the globe for nearly 15 months.

Together, the three small space voyagers, each equipped with a radio receiver and transmitter, are helping Army engineers pinpoint locations on earth that are widely separated by large bodies of water.

Already they have been used to pin down, with unprecedented precision, certain landmarks in Alaska and other Northern Hemisphere areas.

Data such as the system provides will help determine much more exactly than is now known, for example, the true distance between San Francisco and Honolulu, or between Denver and Honolulu, a spokesman said.

The information also is of obvious importance in selection of potential targets for remote areas, such as Red China, Soviet territorial ballistic missiles based in the Soviet Union.

The satellites are of the type known as Secor, for Sequential Collection of Orbital Reconnaissance.

The first was launched into an equatorial orbit at the Secor about 600 miles above the earth.

Irradiation May Revitalize Age-old Fishing Industry

By ARTHUR RIBBAU

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Fishing, an industry old as civilization, may be revitalized by sophisticated processes of the Atomic Energy Commission, tripling the life of the fish actually will make it cheaper.

Dr. John T. Nickerson, associate professor of nutrition at the University of Massachusetts, said fish might be more expensive in the market, but the cost of seafood, tripling the life of the fish actually will make it cheaper.

Nickerson, who worked five years on the problem, says the irradiated fish can be kept at a temperature of 31 to 32 degrees to insure preservation during transport.

The plant is described as the first of its kind in the world and developers of the irradiation process are confident that the process will be important to the industry.

"They claim it will triple the life of fresh fish, vastly expand the market for fish and increase the per capita consumption of all seafood," he said.

Gamma rays from the irradiation process, he said, are important to the industry.

WASHINGTON — Speaking at the University of Havana in mid-March, Fidel Castro... We are in favor of giving Viet Nam all the help it needs.

This is the same chance Romulo Betancourt and his political heirs have been fighting for in Venezuela... This is the kind of chance many of us would like to see developing in other hemispheres.

But it is not a chance which can be imposed, or fitted down on a people... It exists in Chile because the people there, through long and troubled political experience, had come to see a state of political intelligence and a state of political courage which brought them out, the other day, to give President Johnson's reelection the greatest and most sweeping victory in his nation's history.

The people of Chile had to learn what they wanted and how to go for it... When called upon to surrender during the Battle of the Bulge, General McArdell said, "This is a man's world. The only man's world that counts is the world of the man who is in the driver's seat."

Everything possible was done to make a bunch of economically strapped nations happy and please them... The trouble began when JFK made "American prestige abroad" a campaign issue in 1960. After his election, instead of launching it off as a campaign oratory, he began shaping American policy in a way to please "world public opinion."

It is amazing, it is not, that although we claim to be a civilized nation, and although we pride ourselves on the fact that we are among the most educated people in the world... We legislate, we crusade, we conduct campaigns, we march Washington... all in an attempt to wipe out a hatred of race which is the most insidious and most dangerous of all.

Two years ago they campaigned more reasonably, and in our opinion, more effectively, but encountered a sort of general legislative moratorium on licensing measures. This year, as they appeared before the General Law Committee, they offered one new argument... The end of the road must be reached, and it is reached when the color television sets made control over the quality and skill of repairmen more important than ever.

So the sleek, which sells for $150 at auction and $25 at dinner, was taken from the market... Today, however, that word "sport" has become a dirty word... The sleek, which sells for $150 at auction and $25 at dinner, was taken from the market.

Manchester was a one-horse town when Watkins was founded in 1874, and we were a one-horse organization... We grew up together, so we know pretty well what the Manchester folks like... and what they want to pay. We've had a long time to search out the very best to fill your needs, at the lowest prices possible.

Transcending all of this is Cuba's continuing economic stagnation. If all goes well during the next three years, Castro at best can hope to bring Cuba up to the miserable economic level he found when he seized power in 1959. That's why the U. S. bombs dropped on the 17th parallel had fall-out in Havana.

I've heard the full range of rumors and accusations that the Red Cross and I've heard straight forward, clear and complete satisfactory answers given by knowledgeable people.

State CofC Head Explains Inventory Exemption Bills

Town officials and local business representatives yesterday were briefed on proposed state legislation which would eliminate the taxation of inventories in Connecticut... The bills propose the elimination of taxes on either manufactory inventories or all inventories, and make provision for state grants to the towns in perpetuity, based on percentage payments over five or ten-year periods.

Under the 10-year plan, the percentage of the loss would be 10 per cent of the loss the first year, 20 per cent of the loss the second year, and so on... The 10-year plan would be phased in over a 10-year period.

Proposed New Seal for Manchester Vote March Halted By Smoke Bombs

Manchester will soon have a new seal, if the board of directors on Tuesday night approves the design by Town Clerk Edward Tomkowiak, with the aid of Controller Joseph Clemens and artist Philip Ulanas of 34 Crestwood Dr.

The new seal consists of a year's preparation, after a recommendation by General Manager Richard Martin that the town's present seal be replaced.

The drawing which will be considered by the board is a scroll in the center, depicting the origin of the name Manchester in 1823, and the temperature of the river to the detriment of aquatic life.

The water, after cooling the bill, will be discharged back into the river. Wildlife enthusiasts have claimed that the water, heated by the condenser, will affect the temperature of the river to the detriment of aquatic life.

The power company itself is carrying on the research, which was described by another witness at the hearing as "the most exhaustive" ever been done in this country.

White was urging residents, Richard Bowers of the committee, will affect the temperature of the river to the detriment of aquatic life.

Under the bill, the authority would stand as a public benefit corporation, which would be based on the private institution's skills.

He cited a case in which a 77-year-old widower gave his house and his late wife's estate to a 40-year-old woman who then broke their engagement.

Under present law, Goldstein is also being sued by the state for a legal reason.

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By DONALD BELDING

Mrs. Thomas C. McFarland of 532 E. Center St. says she has a personal interest in scallops and flounder, because her husband's firm does the national advertising and public relations for the New Bedford (Mass.) and Canadian scallop industries, whose combined fleets harvest 90 per cent of the scallops marketed in the country. New Bedford's second biggest lobster crop, flounder, is another popular seafood at our house. She has five recipes for Coddles St. Jacques and Flounder Fillet Roll-Ups.

"Coddles St. Jacques, or shell of St. James," she says, "refers to the scallop shell, which was the emblem or badge of early pilgrims to the shrine of St. James of Compostela. Legend has it that St. James saved a horseman and his horse from drowning, and when they emerged from the water they were covered with scallops."

Coddles St. Jacques
 1 pound medium or small scallops, chopped fine
 5 tablespoons butter
 1 cup white vermouth
 1/2 cup water
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon white pepper
 2 tablespoons flour
 1 cup light cream
 buttered soft bread crumbs
 Wash mushrooms; clean, dry and slice medium thin. Slice stems into rounds. Heat two tablespoons of butter in skillet. Add mushrooms and cook rapidly with butter, bay leaf, salt and pepper. Turn just to boil and simmer five minutes. Do not overcook. Drain and reserve one cup of broth. Quarter each scallop and reserve.

 In a clean sauceman melt the remaining butter over low heat and stir in flour. Add cup of reserved broth and cook, stirring constantly, over low heat until thickened. Add melted mushrooms and cooked scallops. Spoon into six scallop shells (or other baking shells) and sprinkle with buttered crumbs.
 Bake in 400-degree (hot) oven until bubbling hot and crumbs are golden, about 10 minutes. This recipe serves six.

Flounder Fillet Roll-Ups
 1/2 cup fine Meats loaf crumbs
 1/2 cup melted butter
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 1 can (8 ounce) broiled chopped chicken, drained
 1/4 pound raw sea scallops, chopped
 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon onion powder
 Defrost fillets if using frozen variety. Combine crumbs and melted butter. Add scallops, chopped parsley, chopped mushroom, scallops and poultry seasoning. Mix well. Spread on flounder fillets and roll up. Place close together in foil lined shallow baking dish. Bake in 375-degree oven for one-half hour. Serve with hot tomato sauce. This recipe serves six.

Six of the country's leading brain specialists gathered in Bolton yesterday to focus their intelligence and experience on the nation's third largest brain—brain stroke.

The seven-hour program was entitled "Education and Management of Patients with Occipital Cerebral Vascular Disease." The conference room of Piano's Restaurant provided the setting for the approximately 120 doctors who attended.

Grobert Gets Endorsement For Constitutional Parley

The Democratic Town Committee last night unanimously endorsed State Rep. Paul Grobert to be the 4th Senatorial District's choice as a delegate to the forthcoming State Constitutional Convention.

When the First Congressional District holds its Democratic Convention next Wednesday night at Hartford's Parma Restaurant on Sheldon St., it will choose seven delegates to the Constitutional Convention, one from each of its six Senatorial Districts, and one delegate-at-large.

The 4th Senatorial District has been realigned under proposed reapportionment plans and now consists of Manchester, with 13 delegates, Glassborough, with 4, Marlborough with 2 and East Hampton with 2.

However, East Hampton will not be represented at the First Congressional District since it is in Middlesex County and therefore in the Second Congressional District.

Atty. Grobert is virtually assured of election to the Constitutional Convention, although he may be opposed by Sheriff Donald Potter of Glassborough.

As Manchester Town Chairman Ted Cummings said last night, Glassborough and Marlborough are expected to go along with Manchester's choice, since this town will have 12 of the 13 delegates.

The 13, with two exceptions, are the same delegates who attended the 1964 Democratic State Convention.

The two exceptions, appointed last night by Cummings, are Mrs. Barbara Coleman to replace Mrs. Mary Ross, and Miss Mary Foley to replace Atty. Harold Garrity.

Mrs. Ross and Atty. Garrity have both moved from town.

The other 11 delegates are Mayor Francis J. Mahoney, State Rep. Grobert and Sheriff Cummings. Town Directors David Barry, Robert Stone and Francis Giamatti, Town Clerk Edward Tomkita, board of education chairman Mrs. Katherine Bourn, former town director Ted Powell and Atty. Richard Woodhouse, and Matt Moriarty.

William Brownell, 23, of 25 Anand St., vice president of the Young Democratic Club of Manchester, was elected to the town committee to fill a vacancy from District 1.

Brownell attends the University of Connecticut Law School and works part-time in a man-

Rockville-Vernon Coroner Finding Clears Driver

A Tolland motorist has been absolved of blame in the high-way death of a Middletown man Feb. 13 by Tolland County Coroner Herbert Hannabury.

Peter L. Ruffin, 29, was killed instantly when he was struck by a car operated by Charles W. Stanley, 48, of Anthony Rd., Tolland.

Stanley was charged with negligent homicide and evading responsibility as a result of the accident.

According to Atty. Hannabury, Stanley drove on after the accident without stopping to investigate. Hannabury said that this action was suspicious. Stanley did Hannabury observed, stop at the Vernon Police Station and reported that he thought he had struck an animal.

Ruffin, the coroner said, was returning to his stalled car after a fruitless effort to obtain gasoline. He lost his footing on an embankment along the highway, and was hit. Three other persons were walking with Ruffin.

2 Rec Centers Close Saturday

Keene Students Offer 'Macbeth'

A special adaptation of Shakespeare's Macbeth was performed by Grade 5 of the Keene St. School yesterday before parents and other grades.

The entire class participated in the production. The committee proposed an alternate of wooden overhead doors to be included in the bid.

Lawrence specified aluminum overhead doors in his plans after the bid.

Macbeth was approved unanimously.

Before meeting with Lawrence and Mason, some of the committee's restricted duties in handling construction plans for new town buildings.

Macbeth, noting the coroner said that this action was suspicious. Stanley did Hannabury observed, stop at the Vernon Police Station and reported that he thought he had struck an animal.

Nassiff Heads Building Unit, Firehouse Plans Approved

Plans for a new firehouse for Rockville-Vernon were approved by the town building committee last night.

At the same meeting, the committee elected new officers and discussed broadening its role in planning and construction of new town structures.

Peter Thorne suggested, however, that construction might be unnecessarily delayed if the building committee had to be assembled to vote on every change order.

Two other proposals were generally supported by Macbeth, Thorne and David Kahn, however.

The committee should have more say in choosing an architect, they said, and should participate more in setting construction requirements for town structures other than schools.

At present, architects are selected by the town's public works director. Until a recent charter change, the director was General Manager Richard Macbeth. The three current school additions and the firehouse were designed by Macbeth.

If the building committee were to select architects, the future projects, the charter would have to be altered.

The same was not true of the Central Firehouse or the firehouse just approved. General Manager Richard Macbeth, who was director when the three current school additions and the firehouse were designed by Macbeth.

Memory Foe Of Boredom

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is a foe of boredom. That's why over a lifetime a man's memory is his best companion. It enables him to remember good times and bad times, but not dull ones.

For some reason dull times don't stick in the memory. We forget them. Your own life hasn't been so dull if you can look back and remember when—

Bail Revoked For Man Held In Twin's Death

PARADISE, Calif. (AP) — Young millionaire Timothy W. Nicholson — free on $27,200 bond since December, on an open charge of murder in the death of his twin brother, Todd — is in jail today without bail, now accused of first degree murder.

Superior Court Judge H. Burton Noble revoked the Nicholson's bail Wednesday night and ordered him confined after Deputy Dist. Attorney Joseph Carr asked a special hearing under the court's rule of discovery.

Carr said the state has a new witness and evidence that Nicholson, 22, has threatened one prospective witness with a gun since he has been out on bail.

Carr identified the witness as Enrico Barman, a painter who had worked for Todd. Carr added, "We are informed that he (Barman) saw the defendant kick his brother in the back and tell him, 'I am going to kill you.'"

Nicholson was arrested last Dec. 7 after his brother, Todd, was found shot to death in the heart. Timothy had tripled the fortune in real estate developments through their jointly-owned Sun Investment and Development Corp. of Phoenix.

The great grandfather was the late F. Edward Bernal, president of the Pullman railroad car firm, and an uncle to E. A. Cudahy Sr., chairman of the meat-packing firm.

Most Firms Show Profit For Quarter

By SAM DAWSON AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — For every company whose profit in the early weeks of 1965 are trailing year-ago figures there are four who are making more money this year — many of them last year.

Early returns point to a record high total for 1965's first three months when the total is all in. And many companies are expected to report their biggest after-tax earnings for any first quarter.

So far, reports from 126 companies whose fiscal year starts earlier than the calendar one, and estimates by top executives of some other companies show only 24 making less than in their 1964 first quarter. Three of these were in the retail industries prominent among the gainers include rubber, food, textiles, power, appliances, farm equipment, electronics, retail, metals, chemicals. But the losses also came from some of these industries — paper, electronics, farm equipment, food store chains.

Annual reports show business as a whole had its most profitable year in 1964. After-tax profits rose to $21.7 billion, a 25% gain over 1963.

Dividend payments last year came to $14.8 billion, compared with $18 billion in 1963.

In the first two months of this year corporations paid out $2 billion in dividends, 11 per cent more than in the like 1964 period.

Among corporations already reporting first quarter earnings higher than a year ago were such well known ones as Firestone Tire & Rubber, International Harvester, J. F. Stevens, National Tea, J. C. Penney, and West Virginia Pulp & Paper.

Among those slipping below their 1964 profits are J. I. Case and Doere, Kimberly-Clark and U.S. Envelope, Continental Motors and American Photocopy Equipment.

But the gainers number such name companies as U.S. Plywood and General Foods, Borden, Carrier, Dresser Industries, Ryan Aeronautical, Fedders and Avco.

Hart Schaffter & Marx, United States Shoe, Stewart-Fraser, Michle-Cos-Dexter, Eagle-Picher, Hooker Chemical and East Corporation of America also had more profitable first quarters this year than last.

Record steel production and sales, and a real boom in the auto industry, make it all but inevitable that leading companies in these fields will have highly profitable if not record first quarters. Rising backlog of orders in the auto and machinery industry assure top production, sales and earnings.

Many appliance makers are riding a crest of customer demand. And with gross earnings thus fattened, the lower Federal income tax rates this year will help many a company executive secure his stockholdings as the coming annual meetings that get profits are indeed heartening.

Fixing Independence Hall Will Cost About $2 Million

By LEE LINDER PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It's costly to preserve and restore history. The Independence Hall, home of the world-famous Liberty Bell. Since 1960 the government has spent more than $1.2 million to keep the 225-year-old brick, Colonial building from collapsing.

And when this massive restoration is completed, perhaps by 1969, the job will have cost about $2 million.

Expensive but necessary work was done last week in Independence National Historical Park which operates and guards the hall and 15 other nearby historic structures.

Workers are restoring, for $27,400 what is called "America's most historic room" — the Assembly Room in Independence Hall.

The Continental Congress met in the room. It was here that the Declaration of Independence and the Articles of Confederation were signed, and the Constitution drafted.

Yet millions who have visited the hall have never seen the 40-foot log chamber as it actually was in 1776-78 when George Washington's Continental Congress met there.

From 1790 to 1828 it underwent numerous alterations and uses. It was a museum, then a municipal building, a national historic shrine officially in 1883.

The building was completed in 1790. The first floor as a parlor and the second as a hall for wounded American patriots.

When Pennsylvania moved its capital out of Philadelphia in 1790, the building was taken of record in the first state legislature met there in 1776.

After that, the building was used as a hall for wounded American patriots.

Shifting Influences Hinted In Collective Soviet Rule

By HENRY B. BRADSHIRE MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet leadership has shown little outward change in the six months since Nikita Khrushchev fell but there are indications of shifting influences in the new collective leadership.

The solidity and security of Khrushchev's rule are in marked contrast to the first six months after the previous "oult of personality," when Joseph Stalin died in 1953.

Then, Lavrenti Beria, head of the secret police, dropped out of the picture, followed by a coup of "personality," when Joseph Stalin died in 1953.

There is no evidence for this. There is only the background of Alexander Shelepin, even suggesting that he heads a coalition within the leadership that might some day challenge Khrushchev.

South Windsor Council Blasts Proposed Water Rate Hike

The town council last night unanimously opposed the proposed increase in the rates of the Connecticut Water Co. to increase its rates in South Windsor.

The Connecticut Water Co. proposed an increase of 30 per cent in residential, industrial and commercial rates and a 40 per cent increase in public and fire protection rates.

The town manager said this would mean a minimum increase to the town of $8,480.

Arnold Leibowitz of Birch Hill Dr. stated the increase to the average homeowner could be as much as $29.75. His water bill amounts to between $60 and $80 yearly.

Leibowitz said letters were sent to homeowners served by the Connecticut Water Co. These letters indicated that the increase would amount to a few pennies a day for every homeowner.

He said the "few pennies" suggested by the Connecticut Water Co. are another form of tax.

Leibowitz also presented comparison figures he had done on the MDC Water Co. and the Manchester Water Co.

He noted that the charge from the Manchester Water Co. for 15,000 gallons of water was $12.50. While the present charge of the Connecticut Water Co. is $40.00 for the first 5,000 gallons and 60 cents per 1,000 up to 15,000 gallons. The Connecticut Water Co. at present is a few cents higher without the increase.

He also noted that the Connecticut Water Co. rates were higher than MDC's, but MDC was tax supported.

Mayor John Egan said he had received a large number of calls on the rate increase. He condemned the increase saying "the rate increase was presented summarily without prior notice to the towns involved."

Mayor Egan said that there were frequent communications between the town and the Connecticut Water Co. and that the town should have been informed officially.

He indicated a more lengthy and concise explanation was needed. He also noted that the Connecticut Water Co. did not seem to be taking any action to reduce its rate due to the town.

Councilman James Throws noted that the Manchester Water Co. had increased its rate take care of substantial water system. He said it appeared from the PUC information that the Connecticut Water Co. was price-reaching. He said he was coming further into town. He added that the water company may want to grow and expand to current users. Throws went on record as opposing the increase.

Several residents spoke before the council in opposition to the rate increase.

A public hearing will be held by the PUC on April 12 at 10:30 a.m. at the Public Hearing Building on Capitol Ave., Hartford in Room 960A.

Mayor Egan emphasized that any member of the public might appear at the public hearing and be heard.

The council instructed the town manager and town attorney to appear before the public hearing to represent the town in opposing the rate increase.

Veterans Memorial
An article's sketch was presented to the town council of a proposed memorial for Spring Pond Park. The town council authorized the Veterans Memorial Committee to select a memorial not to exceed $3,600.

The monument as shown in the artist's sketch is of granite and stands 12 feet high, raised four feet above ground. Inscribed on the monument are the names "In Honor of Veterans of South Windsor."

Walter Umberfield said the monument would cost about $2,500. The committee was also looking into the cost of a flag pole.

Leonard Lenders, commander of the American Legion Post indicated that Legion members felt the monument shouldn't include individual names but be for all veterans of South Windsor.

He said this would eliminate a continuous cost to the town and the Legion of adding additional veterans names.

The Veterans Memorial Committee is composed of the recreation commission and five members of the American Legion.

The council discharged the War Memorial Committee which was appointed at a town meeting. Atty. Frank Ahern stated under the town charter the funds for the memorial now have lapsed into the general fund.

When the cost of the monument is determined the memorial committee will make an appropriation from the town council. Atty. Ahern noted that there is a provision in the charter for waiving bids.

Umberfield said the monument could not be obtained before mid-June, therefore the dedication services would probably be held July 4.

There will still be a formal opening ceremony of the park on Memorial Day. Original plans called for dedication services in conjunction with the Memorial Day Parade.

Post Office Report
The council approved a motion to petition the U.S. Postal Service in Boston to consolidate South Windsor's postal system.

The council authorized the town manager to send a letter to the postal service. Copies of the letter are also to be sent to the post office study committee.

Mayor Egan said the various districts in South Windsor presented a real problem and the town needs all the help it can get.

He noted that the post office

8 Million Visit Kennedy Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than eight million persons have visited the Arlington National Cemetery grave of President John F. Kennedy, and they still come at the rate of about 10,000 each weekend. The figures were given to a House Appropriations subcommittee March 19 by Secretary of the Army Stephen A. Lovell. The figures gave the subcommittee details on the more than $2 million to be spent on the permanent grave. The figures had been announced earlier. Some $200,000 will be paid by the Kennedy family for work in the immediate area of the grave, while the government is contributing $1,770,000 mostly for walks and terraces. "The family said from the beginning they would like to pay a substantial share or, indeed, all the cost of whatever would be done here," Lovell said. "The family have expressed their complete willingness to pay the whole bill. Many of us have felt, of course, that the federal government would want to pick up all of it or a substantial share of it. The family have said they would like to pick up the share of the cost that involves the area around the grave itself. That is why we are here making for the remainder," he added.

Couple Appeals Property Value

John E. McKeever and Mary E. McKeever, property owners in the North End Redevelopment Area, are appealing the value and amount of compensation placed on their property by the Manchester Redevelopment Agency.

In papers filed today with the town clerk's office, they ask the Hartford County Superior Court to appoint a referee to review the $15,800 value placed on their N. School St. property, and call the amount inadequate, and ask for a sum "greatly in excess of that figure."

The town is commanded to appear before the court during the first week in May to answer to the McKeever's application "for the proper assessment of the fair market value of the property."

Agenda Set For Board

Reclassification of town personnel and two major utility projects are on the agenda for next week's board of directors meeting.

A directors' committee will report its recommendations on the reclassification plan, proposed by General Manager Richard Martin, at the meeting. The plans have aroused some dissatisfaction among town employees.

The board will also be asked to authorize the preparation of construction plans and specifications for a cross-town sanitary sewer relief trunk line, recommended by an engineering consultant.

And to consider a water main extension to a proposed subdivision.

MCC Evaluated By State Team

An evaluating team from the Connecticut Commission on Higher Education made an evaluation of Manchester Community College yesterday preparatory to the college's being accredited to grant degrees.

Dr. Frederick Lowe, dean of the college, said today that the results of the evaluation would probably be made known on May 6 when the State Board of Education acts on the team's recommendation.

Members of the team are Dr. Mowatt Fraser, chief of the Bureau of Higher Education, State Department of Education; Dr. Joseph Palamontain, provost of Wesleyan University; and Dean Harry Bennett of Quinnipiac College.

The team interviewed members of the faculty and student body and toured the Keeney St. Nike site. A noteworthy fact that came out of the evaluation, said Dr. Lowe, was that the team, in interviewing three freshmen and three sophomores, found that all of them agreed that if it hadn't been for Manchester Community College none of them would be attending college. By state law, the college must be accredited before it can grant degrees.

Works Exhibited By Mrs. Burbank

An exhibit of 22 hooked rugs, pictures and small articles, the works of Mrs. Leola Burbank of 190 Porter St., was displayed yesterday at a tea at the home of Mrs. Harry Fraser, 192 Hartford Rd. About 50 members of a rug hooking class, which includes Mrs. Burbank, planned the event in her honor. Mrs. Fraser instructs the class.

A resident of Manchester for 40 years, Mrs. Burbank made the articles since retiring in 1959. She was bookkeeper at the former Kemp's store on Main St. for many years. Designs on the articles in the show included floral, geometrical and modern groupings. One rug was hooked on an original design by E. S. Frost, purchased about 100 years ago by Mrs. Burbank's mother. Frost was the first commercial hooked rug designer and was able to produce designs in colors, which Mrs. Burbank has followed closely in the rug. Small pieces in the exhibit included chair seats, bags, doorstops, pillows and coasters.

Mrs. Burbank makes many of her rugs as gifts, and has contributed other articles to church bazaars and other charitable events.
