Good Friday Services Churches Will Mark Christ's Crucifixion

Tomorrow, the day traditionally referred to as Good Friday, the Friday in Holy Week or as God's Friday, churches throughout the Christian world will commemorate the crucifixion and death of Christ. The day has been observed as a day of mourning, of grief and of special prayer from a very early period. In several countries and in many states, Good Friday is by law a holiday with all business being suspended and the making of hot cross buns on Good Friday is an old English custom.

The very striking office of Tenebrae, meaning darkness, is performed on Good Friday, as well as on the preceding two days. It has the peculiarity that all lights in the church have been gradually extinguished except one, this light, symbolizing the Lord's death and burial, is hid in the Roman Catholic Church, the service of the day consists of the Mass of the Presanctified, the sacred host not being consecrated but reserved from the preceding day. Communion is forbidden on the Lord's day on the cross. Good Friday except in the case of the celebrant and of sick persons. A striking part of the ceremonial of this Mass is the black covering is removed from a large crucifix which is placed before the altar. The entire congregation, commencing with the celebrant and his ministers, approach and, on their knees reverently kneel before the figure of the crucified Lord.

Civic Group Plays Well

South Windsor School Budget Cuts Backed at Hearing

In what may have been a record turnout, some 200 people attended the hearing on the school budget of $2,196,948 held at the town hall last night.

Discussion centered on whether the town could or could not afford public kindergarten. Opinions seemed to be more in the support of the town council's cut of $150,000 from the budget to hold the tax rate.

A vote was taken near the end of the public hearing with 88 residents in favor of the cut in the budget of education budget. Twenty-eight residents opposed the cut.

The vote was taken at 10:30 p.m. and many residents had left the hearing.

In opening the meeting Mayor John Egan outlined the findings that had taken place before the public hearing last night.

Mayor Egan also explained the tax structure involved in the education budget and government budget were not cut.

He said he was appalled at the possible 15-cent increase which would have been passed prior to reevaluation. Without budget cuts it might mean a 10-cent increase.

This, Mayor Egan noted, was without projecting capital needs for the town as a town hall library, two middle schools and a new high school.

He said the kindergarten proposal on Nov. 18 by the Education Committee to the town council did not fall on deaf ears. The mayor said the reason the council could not approve the full budget was because it felt the town could not afford the tax burden.

Signs emphasized that there were no school aid bills before the state legislature which would assure financial aid to the town if passed.

He noted that after negotiations with the school board a more accurate figure of $18 per pupil was used in projecting the town's share. This means an additional $64,000 to the town if the bills are passed on about June 1.

The money would then go to the school board to be distributed to the various schools and kindergartens.

Several proposals were made. One was by board member Elizabeth Anderson suggesting that the town should contribute to the bank if it is forthcoming, for capital improvements. He said this would accomplish two things: maintain the program as presented by the board of education and re-evaluate the program on a regular basis and see if it was worth the town further aid.

Rep. Warren Westbrook stated that state aid money for education may only be used for classrooms and not for other purposes.

Jobless Claims Up 8 in Week

Unemployment compensation claims filed in Manchester last week showed a slight rise of 8 over the total claims filed locally during the week ending April 5.

A total of 892 persons, including 219 from the Rockville-Vernon area, filed claims here for the week ending April 10. The slight rise, reflected in all of the state, was attributed in part to the start of a new benefit year for some claimants.

Leonard Adler, speaking in favor of the board of education budget, said the council was putting the board in the position of choosing what it doesn't want. He said the first four priorities of remedial reading teaching for the high school, elementary and high school libraries and kindergartens were placed at the top of the list to stir up the greatest controversy.

John Madden also spoke in favor of the budget. He said after serving on the Citizens Committee and listening to the reports, he felt kindergarten was something the town should have.

He compared the cost of kindergarten to the average homeowner with a pack of cigarettes a week and he hated to beguile the future generation into an education.

He asked the town council to consider the retention of public kindergartens in the board of education's budget.

Hiring Teachers Supt. Charles Warner, questioned on the feasibility of hiring kindergarten teachers in January for South Windsor to start public kindergartens, said the teachers would be hired in September.

He commented that these teachers would not wait until January for South Windsor to start public kindergartens. He said that it was necessary to hire these teachers by May 15. He added that if kindergartens should start in January they would have to be made to hire qualified teachers but a guarantee could not be given.

Rep. Westbrook stated a 20 per cent increase in the budget for kindergartens in South Windsor is ahead of other towns in the state.

He explained that the administration bill was for $18 per pupil increase in state aid, but the party bill was for $20 per pupil based on a compromise basis the state aid might be more than the $18.

Rep. Westbrook said that the South Windsor school board is in an excellent financial position and business realize this. He told the audience they must plan their state aid overall in favor of South Windsor.

Mrs. Joseph DeLano commented that remarks had been made in favor of waiting another year period in kindergartens and that this was the same answer given in 1952 when the motion was tabled.

She said, "Forty-four years later we are still waiting." She said kindergartens are not started in September of 1965 we still never get them until it becomes mandatory.

Supt. Warner commented on the question of where kindergartens would be housed. He stated that the proposed 10 rooms be leased because currently there is no space available in existing schools.

There will be three kindergarten rooms in the Ell Terry addition which is under construction and it is hoped to be completed by Christmas this year, Supt. Warner observed.

"We have been adding 14 classrooms per year in population, the kindergarten proposal was made by the board of education with leasing in mind," Supt. Warner said.

Dates Are Set For Variety Show

The Annual Variety Show put on by students of Manchester and East Cheshire High Schools is planned for May 14 and 15.

Proceeds from the show will benefit the Manchester Association for the Help of Retarded Children and the Daniel Mandeville Scholarship Fund.

Directed by Robert Vater, head of Manchester High's music department, the show will again have as masters of ceremonies James Mott and Jerry Canale.

In addition to talent from the town's two high schools, the Manchester Chapter of the Society for the Preservation of Barber Shop Quartets will appear.

Donald Wood, has been named ticket chairman and Lynn Hagan, publicity chairman. Tickets may be purchased from members of the MAEROC and students in the show.

15,000 TO GLOBE-TROT WASHINGTON — Travel authorities say 75,000 Americans will go around the world this year, 10,000 more than last year.

Fala Leading Figure At Final FDR Rites

HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt stood beside the grave, next to Brigadier General Fala, the only one of her four sons able to get back from combat.

A little dog, Fala, tugged at his leash and answered each volley with a bark.

Then a bugler sounded taps. The flag was removed from the casket and handed to the widow, who stood beside the open grave, dressed in black.

There ought to be some good bargains at the sale. The Women's Fellowship group will cater at the auction.

To add to the above going on the Gilead Congregational Church is sponsoring a rummage sale on May 8.

The little stork, Fala, seemed a solemn spectator as 10 members of the armed forces of the American Legion will hold a food and rummage sale at the Legion Hall.

Steel Union Makes Offer Of Extension

ers a token payment was not made.
Steel larks have been denied locked out of the industry's refusal to answer union demands for wages and benefits increases that would cost more than a dollar an hour over three years. Steel workers now earn about $4.40 an hour in wages and benefits.
Another condition of any extension, sources said, was that bargaining continue uninterrupted.
The union's proposal was drawn up at a series of meetings last week. It was based on two industry proposals made last week, both of which involved an extension.
Under each plan, the union would accept a three-month extension for guarantees that certain contract demands would be met.
The other calls for immediate agreement on an interim contract that could be reopened at any time, but presumably not until the union's election dispute was settled completely.

An explosion ripped through an ammunition storage area Wednesday night as Viet military forces bombed a Red Base compound in Qui Nhon. Six cases of rockets were destroyed and four helicopters, two trucks and one forklift were damaged.
A spokesman said Viet Cong saboteurs may have been responsible. Qui Nhon, 270 miles southeast of Saigon, was the site of a Viet Cong attack which killed 100 soldiers in February.
A Viet Cong battalion of 100 soldiers was killed, 41 wounded and two armored personnel carriers burned out. Five Viet Cong soldiers were reported killed.
In another attack, in Quang Tin Province, five Viet Cong soldiers were killed and seven captured. The prisoners included two battalions of government soldiers clashed with a Viet Cong force.

An explosion ripped through an ammunition storage area Wednesday night as Viet military forces bombed a Red Base compound in Qui Nhon. Six cases of rockets were destroyed and four helicopters, two trucks and one forklift were damaged.
A spokesman said Viet Cong saboteurs may have been responsible. Qui Nhon, 270 miles southeast of Saigon, was the site of a Viet Cong attack which killed 100 soldiers in February.
A Viet Cong battalion of 100 soldiers was killed, 41 wounded and two armored personnel carriers burned out. Five Viet Cong soldiers were reported killed.
In another attack, in Quang Tin Province, five Viet Cong soldiers were killed and seven captured. The prisoners included two battalions of government soldiers clashed with a Viet Cong force.

Tornadoes And Diesels

"It sounded like a bunch of diesels coming." That was the colorful, graphic description given by one of the men who saw them, of the approach of the twin tornadoes that hit the town of Dunlap, Indiana, the other day.

We have all seen the pictures of both sides of that Indiana road. And we all know just what combination of sound and terror the witness was expressing when he said afterwards: "It sounded like a bunch of diesels coming."

The interesting question now remains. Which would a community rather have, the twin tornadoes, or a bunch of diesels? Which would make more noise, stir up more dust, do more damage?

By the testimony from Indiana, the noise would be about equal, except that tornadoes are gone in a relatively few seconds, while the diesel flow on forever.

By the evidence contained in the pictures from Indiana, the amount of dust raised by a tornado and a diesel is approximately equal.

As for damage, the short term little obviously goes to the tornado. It shakes things up all at once, in one great convulsive gulp. But give the diesel time, and they might achieve the same eventual results by gentler degrees and by more subtle thumps and shakes and gradual weakening of structure, on almost any building that stands along their route.

One can imagine an even greater and more dramatic picture than the one which came from Indiana.

Given those twin tornadoes heading down that road in one direction, and "a bunch of diesels" with full smoke up heading in the other, which would hold the road?

Pills Reach Wrong Continent

Anybody who is really going to run this earth and the human race on it still has his work cut out for him.

Making things work out just the way they should work out is a procedure and a task which keeps developing complications.

Take, for an example, what birth control pills are doing for Australia.

Birth control pills, as we all know from reading frightened stories about the menace of the world's population explosion, are something we have to get more and more people to take, if we don't want to have civilization go out of business because it has too many people per square mile.

The spread of birth control pills—and practices—is one of the great urgent campaigns of our time. And the pills themselves, because they make birth control relatively easy and uncomplicated, are therefore one of the great scientific advances of our time.

All of this is very fine—except for Australia. That is a continent which has lots of square miles, but only some 11 million people. It needs all the people it can breed in order to speed up the development of its vast open spaces.

But, in the three years since birth control pills came to Australia, the birth rate in Australia has declined, from 22.5 per thousand in 1962 to 20.58 in 1964.

This means that the government has had to spend more money subsidizing immigrants in order to keep the national population growth rate from falling off to an alarming degree.

What the President's call for "unconditional" discussions with the Communists, his criticism from the peace bloc, and his hard-line have also applauded.

The reason: For all the talk of negotiations, the bombing raids continued.

In a deft display of the famed Johnson technique, the President's anti-war speech was a masterpiece of evasion.

Only Loizing, Bethel and Norwalk in Fairfield County have more industrial jobs in 1964 than they had in 1963.

There is still, however, a narrow but significant factor in the situation. It is that although neither side really wants to talk peace, each side has nevertheless drawn itself up a statement, and thus, in effect, started discussions about peace.

What compels this? The answer has to be that each side still has some convincing sense of respect for and obligation to people opinion or world opinion.

Just as President Johnson finally felt compelled to try anything to prove that he wasn't 100 per cent Gold-water, so even Hanoi, even with Communist China breathing down its back, feels itself compelled to get on the record with something that can technically be classified as a peace proposal.

It is still up to good people and good nations in between these two forces which would rather fight than talk to see that each narrow opening toward talk is kept open and enlarged by the pressure of civilization itself.

For neither Hanoi nor Vietnam risks only itself, or its own ideological or national or power politics interests. Each risks the whole world.

Connecticut Yankee

By A.H.O.

We attended the hearing of the legislative Committee on Banks for the precise purpose of trying to find out why Connecticut banks were not all equipped with automatic cameras as one possible deterrent to hold-up men, and we found out that almost everyone concerned with the situation seemed more philosophical about it than we were.

We would have been mistaken, however, if we had left the hearing that day with the impression that the Connecticut legislative session is really indifferent in its attitude for the health and welfare of its banking institutions.

Our relative indifference to what was obviously regarded as the questionable wisdom of protecting banks by hidden cameras, there was an important attention, that day, to the particular problem of one of our banks which by the testimony, found itself handicapped by gentler degrees and by more subtle thumps and shakes and gradual weakening of structure, on almost any building that stands along their route.

The case for this amendment to the general statute was presented to the committee by an attorney for the bank, who was reported to be, by residents of the community which was to be at the Capitol that day, the name of the bank.

Pennsylvania Pioneering Inflatable Rubberized Dam

By A.H.O.

MANCHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania is just steps away from starting construction on the new wonders of the penitentiary age—a polypropylene dam that can be inflated or deflated with the flick of a switch.

The 2000-foot-long will be built in the Susquehanna River near Sunbury, Pa. It will create one of the finest water-based recreation spots in Pennsylvania.

Plans call for multistage rubberized dam 7½ feet high and 12½ feet long, located three miles below the confluence of the north and west branches of the Susquehanna.

The Susquehanna rises in upland New York State and flows through the Chesapeake Bay. Among river systems east of the Mississippi, it is ranked third in hydrology, behind the St. Lawrence and the Hudson.

Operation of the dam will be controlled by a pump house on the east bank of the river where water and air can be pumped into and taken out of the fabric "bags" with the press of a button to keep the river at predetermined elevations throughout the year.

Each section of the "fabric dam" will hold up to 80,000 gallons of water and 9,000 cubic feet of air.

In the event of surprise flooding or excessive high water, the rubberized bags automatically would deflate through a syphon process.

The foundation for the dam will be anchored both to the base and to the pier. The dam foot sections and one of 175 feet. The dam will be made of a tough laminated material, composed of rubber and nylon.

One inch of this material supports 2,000 pounds of pressure.

So strong and durable is the material, dam designers feel it can withstand heavy ice jams, floating trees or houses, and even a hunter who might accidentally shoot a hole into it.

The pressure will be about 2½ to 3 pounds per square inch, so low that bullet holes would have practically no effect," McConnell says.

Plans call for the state to keep the dam at a deflated position for the spring floods, then inflate to create a pool about eight feet in depth for the summer recreation season.

MARGHERITA GUGLIELMI AS ROSINA: Connecticut Opera's "Barber Of Seville."

Inside Report

By Rowland Evans Jr. Robert D. Novak

WASHINGTON — When President Johnson finished reading a private review of last week's Viet Nam speech to a delegation of the liberal Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), his audience burst forth with spontaneous applause.

The applause was symbolic. With the President's call for "unconditional" discussions with the Communists, his criticism from the peace bloc ended.

But remarkably, after the April 7 speech in Baltimore, the hard-line hawks also applauded. The reason: For all the talk of negotiations, the bombing raids continued.

In a deft display of the famed Johnson technique, the President's anti-war speech was a masterpiece of evasion.

Only Loizing, Bethel and Norwalk in Fairfield County have more industrial jobs in 1964 than they had in 1963.

Church and McGovern were there as two persistent critics of the President's hard-line in Viet Nam. McGovern was there because he and McGovern had been tapped by CBS television to debate the President's speech immediately after he finished giving it, if any time remained.

A few hours before leaving the White House for Baltimore last Wednesday evening, Mr. Johnson summoned Church, McGovern, and hard-line Sen. Gale McGovern of Wyoming to the White House. When they arrived through a side door beyond the prying eyes of the press, each received a copy of the speech the President would give that night in Baltimore.

On finishing the speech, they were ushered into the President's Oval Office for an hour of the famous Johnson "treatment."

The President's central point: He was not a warmonger and would never become one. Every

MANCHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania is just steps away from starting construction on the new wonders of the penitentiary age—a polypropylene dam that can be inflated or deflated with the flick of a switch.

The 2000-foot-long will be built in the Susquehanna River near Sunbury, Pa. It will create one of the finest water-based recreation spots in Pennsylvania.

Plans call for multistage rubberized dam 7½ feet high and 12½ feet long, located three miles below the confluence of the north and west branches of the Susquehanna.

The Susquehanna rises in upland New York State and flows through the Chesapeake Bay. Among river systems east of the Mississippi, it is ranked third in hydrology, behind the St. Lawrence and the Hudson.

Operation of the dam will be controlled by a pump house on the east bank of the river where water and air can be pumped into and taken out of the fabric "bags" with the press of a button to keep the river at predetermined elevations throughout the year.

Each section of the "fabric dam" will hold up to 80,000 gallons of water and 9,000 cubic feet of air.

In the event of surprise flooding or excessive high water, the rubberized bags automatically would deflate through a syphon process.

The foundation for the dam will be anchored both to the base and to the pier. The dam foot sections and one of 175 feet. The dam will be made of a tough laminated material, composed of rubber and nylon.

One inch of this material supports 2,000 pounds of pressure.

So strong and durable is the material, dam designers feel it can withstand heavy ice jams, floating trees or houses, and even a hunter who might accidentally shoot a hole into it.

The pressure will be about 2½ to 3 pounds per square inch, so low that bullet holes would have practically no effect," McConnell says.

Plans call for the state to keep the dam at a deflated position for the spring floods, then inflate to create a pool about eight feet in depth for the summer recreation season.

ST. HELENA, Jersey (AP) — A hospital built by the Germans during World War II was turned into a morgue today for 38 persons killed in the crash of a British airliner Wednesday night on the Isle of Jersey.

Only the French stewardess survived after the twin-engine DC-7, trying to land in a fog, plunged into a potato field about 500 yards short of the St. Germain runway. The plane had taken off from Paris with 17 French and Italian hotel workers coming to the holiday island for Easter.

Four British residents of the Channel Islands and a crew of four.

The stewardess was reported in fair condition.

Co-Chairs Drive
Mrs. John R. Fitzgerald, 45 Battista Rd., is co-chairman in Manchester for the Channel 24 "Viewers Drive" now getting underway in more than 60 Connecticut towns.

She is a member of the League of Women Voters, secretary of the local chapter, and a former president of the Jaycee Women.

Mrs. Jay Rubinson is chairman of the drive. She is on the board of the Community Child Guidance Clinic, Capital Region Mental Health Planning Agency, and the Capital Region Regional Board of Health.

The goal for this year's campaign centers on evening operation and is $85,000.

Channel 24, the only noncommercial educational television station serving Connecticut, offers programs of entertainment, information and education for the entire family.

By supporting Channel 24 through membership, each viewer receives the monthly Program Guide and his family's continued selection of fine programs—documentaries, shows on music, art, local affairs.

Those working on the "Viewers Drive" in the Manchester area are Mrs. Douglas Roberts Jr., Mrs. William E. Beifores, Mrs. Sanel Solomon, Mrs. Lynn Smith, Mrs. Sanford J. Pepper, Mrs. Thomas Healy, Mrs. Leo Charendoff, Mrs. Robert Karas.

Peking Wars On Love Song

HONG KONG (AP) — Peking has launched a campaign to stamp out the "harmful cult" of western music in Communist China.

It is urging that love songs and other "bourgeois music" be replaced with group renditions of revolutionary songs—a sort of Sing Along with Mao.

The magazine People's Music announced the campaign under the heading "The Cult of Western Bourgeois Music Must Be Exterminated."

People's Music said a feeling had grown that "bawdy and sensual" western music was "the phenomenon" of people "despising revolutionary songs" is serious.

Vocalists complain they cannot find good revolutionary songs to sing, the magazine added, agreeing that some songs "may not necessarily be suitable for all vocalists to sing."

However, the time of a song is not the important thing, People's Music said.

"What is more important is the need to make use of the voice to give profound reflection to life and the thinking of the workers, peasants and soldiers."

It is to educate the masses, only serve the economic foundation of socialism, and drive society forward.

Criticizing works of Beethoven and the Russian classical composers, the magazine said many Chinese are fascinated and influenced by "this bourgeois cult of the west."

It held its main blast against love songs. People's Music said vocalists prefer to sing love songs rather than revolutionary songs.

South Windsor Fire Levels Tobacco Shed; Officials Investigate Cause

Blowing clouds of smoke were visible for miles last night when a tobacco shed burned on Troy Rd. and Rye St.

The fire of undetermined origin, which the shed owner, General Cigar Co., the blaze is being investigated by the State Fire Marshal's Office. Officials said the blaze was caused by a two-and-a-half-ton truck, two portable generators and other equipment stored in the shed.

The fire department used two pumps and an emergency truck to put out the blaze. South Windsor firemen were forced to lay some 2,800 feet of hose from the nearest hydrant, and were successful in keeping the fire from spreading to adjacent sheds.

The fire was reported by policeman Alfred Commodore, who was on patrol. After calling the fire department, Commodore pulled equipment from the shed and tried to put out the fire. He also helped remove the blaze.

Coverup was also overcome by enthusiastic firefighters. The blaze was treated at the scene.

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By DOBIE REIZING

Passover, which begins tomorrow at sundown, falls on Good Friday for the first time in many years. This is the beginning of one of man's oldest festivals and all through the eight-day holiday, ancient laws and customs rule mealtime. Mrs. Louis Hurwitz of 94 Conway Rd. says, "The recipes for Sweet Beet Preserve (Kingsmach), Carrot Candy (Merin), and Carrot Pudding (Timmes), are traditional at Passover time. They illustrate beautifully the skill and ingenuity that a people, largely poverty-stricken in Eastern Europe, developed to make delicious out of humble, inexpensive ingredients, together with long, patient simmering, an ingredient lacking in most modern methods. My mother, a fine traditional cook, gave me the recipes."

MRS. LOUIS S. HURWITZ

Sweet Beet Preserve (Kingsmach)
 2 pounds beets
 2 lemons
 1/2 cup blanched slivered almonds

Parboil beets, cool, skin and grate or chop fine. Add peeled, chopped lemons and sugar. Place on low heat until sugar melts. Cook uncovered about two hours. Add almonds and cook until beets appear clear and glazed, then add ginger. Cool and store in covered jars in cool, dark place. This may be used as a relish with a roast course.

Carrot Candy (Merin)
 2 pounds carrots
 2 pounds sugar
 2 navel oranges
 2 lemons
 1/2 cup walnuts

Put carrots, grate coarsely, grind unpeeled lemons and oranges, and place in large, heavy kettle with sugar, ginger and simmer about 1 1/2 hours. Uncover and cook slowly, stirring frequently, until all liquid is absorbed. About 10 minutes before the liquid evaporates add chopped nuts and ginger. Spread on wet pastry (biscuits) and let dry 24 hours. Cut in pieces and roll in granulated sugar.

Carrot Pudding (Timmes)
 2 pounds sliced carrots
 2 pounds sweet potatoes, sliced
 2 large onions, sliced
 1 1/2 pounds short ribs of beef
 1/2 cup corn syrup
 1/2 cup brown sugar
 dash pepper

Place all ingredients in tightly covered Dutch oven or roasting pan. Cook slowly for two to three hours, stirring occasionally. Remove from top of stove and place in 325-degree oven uncovered, until brown and thickened. The amount of liquid added varies with the vegetables. It is more than others. If the liquid is too thin it may be thickened. If the pudding is too dry, water may be added. This recipe freezes well.

days no leavened bread or leavened products may be eaten. Instead, matzah, unleavened bread, is used to recall the haste with which the Israelites left Egypt.

The holiday of Passover has inspired countless generations of Jews with a love and a passion for freedom. It confirms their faith in God as the Redeemer of men and nations and it strengthened their hope in the redemption of mankind from the enslavement of war, tyranny, oppression and poverty.

STATEN MARGIN MILLION
 WASHINGTON — Six states — more than ever before — went to the winner of the 1964 presidential election by more than a million votes.

New Yorkers Hit With New Taxes

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York State citizens face a 2 per cent sales tax and a 60 per cent increase in automobile registration fees to help balance the state's record new budget of more than $2.4 billion.

A breakthrough in a political deadlock that had stilled action on Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's fiscal program came Wednesday night as the Democratic-controlled legislature gave final approval to the spending and tax programs.

Members of the Republican minority, however, cast the deciding vote, because Democrats were split over a financial program — a situation that had left the state without a budget since the fiscal year began April 1.

The sales tax will take effect Aug. 1 and cover most retail purchases, with food and drugs among the exceptions. The auto registration increase starts next year.

Already in effect is a doubling of the state cigarette tax — from 8 cents to a dime a pack — enacted two weeks ago.

Republican Gov. Rockefeller immediately signed the spending and tax bills. With the cigarette measure, they were essentially the same bills he had sent to the legislature Jan. 29.

The spending and tax proposals were approved in the State Assembly and Senate from a coalition of Democrats, mostly from New York City, and Republicans.

They ended the state's fiscal crisis on the same day 70,000 state employees were scheduled to be paid and on the eve of a payment of $30 million in state aid due to school districts.

The sales-tax measure authorizes cities and counties to levy local taxes up to 3 per cent on the same items covered by the state bill.

At present, five counties and eight cities including New York City have local sales taxes, ranging from 1 to 4 per cent. New York City's 4 per cent tax will go to 5 per cent.

Cardenal Beats Yankees and Osteen Plugs Dodger Gap

Rookie Hits Hard In Angel Triumph

NEW YORK (AP)—Cardinal of Cardenal. Either way it seems to spell trouble for the New York Yankees.

The Yankees, who had trouble with 25 Cardinals from St. Louis last October, ran into considerable difficulty with one Cardinal from Los Angeles Wednesday night as they lost to the Angels 4-3.

The new Cardinal pitcher, against ace Red Sox reliever Dean Chance, the Angels' Cy Young winner, who weighed in at 160 pounds before the game and with four hits—a homer, double and two singles—during the game.

Sealing the victory from the expected double between Dean Chance and the Angels' Cy Young Award winner, and ace left-hander Willie Ford of the Yankees, Cardenal connected for his first major league homer as he led off the eighth and later started the Angels winning rally.

By that time both Chance and Ford had left.

Chance batted a little longer, going six innings before he was allowed for a pinch hitter after allowing five hits and two runs while walking an unusually high five men. Ford, meanwhile, was touched for eight hits and two runs in 5-1/3 innings.

The two runs were the first the Yankees had scored since Chance in 20 innings.

While Chance's strike of six runs against the Yankees was broken, Baltimore's Mel Pappas shut out the Chicago White Sox 6-0.

There was only one other game played in the American League, Washington whipping Boston 4-1 on Don Blasingame's key triple. The Cleveland at Kansas City and Detroit at Minnesota games were rained out.

Angels Hang On for Win Over Yanks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels play baseball much like a golfer named Joe Bonanos going into the last hole with a one-stroke lead over Jack Nicklaus.

Their fans love it, especially when Joe-pardon, the Angels hang on to win by one stroke, or run, over the New York Yankees, as they did Wednesday night, 4-3.

The American League rivalry concludes their two-game series tonight in Chavez Ravine, with New York's Mel Pappas going against the Angels' left-hander, Marcelino Lopez.

Wednesday night's affair was to the pattern of the Angels, hanging on to win by one stroke, or run, over the New York Yankees, as they did Wednesday night, 4-3.

Spahn Displays Form That Won 356 Games

NEW YORK (AP)—Warren Spahn returns to Milwaukee today to attend a reunion of the 1953 Braves. At County Stadium he is sure to run into Bobby Bragan, his former manager who said he was through.

Spahn showed a few people Wednesday in his first workout since he was traded to the Milwaukee Braves.

After doubling in the eighth, Spahn gave way to a pinch runner, the Mets tied it up 2-2. In the ninth, Spahn pitched the final out of the game.

"I missed up the big inning when the Astros beat me," Spahn said. "I was slow getting over to cover first on the ball. I was hit to second base."

Actually Spahn's hit was the second of five in the seventh inning when the Astros beat him three and took a 2-1 lead.

A ground ball by Ron Brant that had hopped past shortstop Roy McMillan accounted for two big runs.

"Sometimes you get all wrapped up in what you are going to throw a hitter," said Spahn, explaining his lardy coverage. "Momentarily you don't see where the ball goes. Then you say 'Oh, I've got to get over there.' But you're too late."

In view of Spahn's dreary 6-13 record and 5.28 earned-run average at Milwaukee last year, a man asked if he was satisfied. "Satisfied?" he replied. "I would want to win. Sure, if I could have had the 20 shutouts I would have been real happy. But satisfied? I don't know."

Spahn had no complaints about the official slow pitch rule. "I would say Casey has to try to hit it up," he reasoned. "I appreciate that he let me hit. Maybe I hit myself out of the game."

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers' ace pitcher, Hal Newhall, was hit hard by the Senators. Radatz claims to have hit him hard, and he certainly maintained his sharp edge. He certainly was not far from sharp in the seventh inning when he pitched a ball into the left field.

Radatz actually had only a fair spring training season. Then in his first effort of the regular season he was hit hard by the Senators. Horror Note As Radatz Drops Tilt

BOSTON (AP)—Hospital fears were brought back to reality Wednesday when Boston lost its first game of the 1965 American League season. They learned the hard way that a pitcher will be a long, hard struggle before he can get his act together. The Red Sox improve on their record to 1-1 after a 1-0 loss to the Senators.

Radatz actually had only a fair spring training season. Then in his first effort of the regular season he was hit hard by the Senators. Radatz claims to have hit him hard, and he certainly maintained his sharp edge. He certainly was not far from sharp in the seventh inning when he pitched a ball into the left field.

At Full Strength

With Martello and Putz back to full strength, the Boston Red Sox are looking for a better performance. The Sox are looking for a better performance.

College Performers

Don Puh, who performed for Paul Phanny's track squad at Manchester High, has distinguished himself on the track squad at Ohio University. He has added another record to his impressive career when he won the 200-yard dash in 27.5 seconds at a recent meet. This year's season opener was a 200-yard dash at the school. Puh, who is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

17 Softball Teams Sign Up For Play in Slow-Pitch

North Methodist and Colonial Ball signed 17 teams at the organizational meeting held last night, six of which are new teams. Rogers Corporation and All-Stars.

The leagues will adhere to the official slow pitch rule. "I would say Casey has to try to hit it up," he reasoned. "I appreciate that he let me hit. Maybe I hit myself out of the game."

Takes Over 'Load' From Ace Koufax

NEW YORK (AP)—Claude Osteen went eight years without a victory and five years with a losing record in the National League.

Now, in his 26th year, he's removed both stigmas.

His achievement, too, came at a time when the Los Angeles Dodgers needed an antidote for serious arm ache they have developed this spring.

Osteen, making his first appearance for the Dodgers since his acquisition from Washington last winter, pitched a two-hitter in Los Angeles 2-1 over Pittsburgh Wednesday night.

When the Dodgers obtained him in the seven-player deal that sent Frank Howard to the Senators, they hoped Osteen would be able to fill in for Johnny Podres, who had recently failed to come back from a sore-armed 1964.

But now it appears Osteen may have to take over the left-handed rotation from Sandy Koufax and his arthritic elbow.

Osteen's return to the National League and definitively, on Wednesday, he spent the first two days of his new assignment in a losing record with a 1-1 record.
