The Associated Press... But he thought that "all of us and all of you who have so sincerely and honestly dedicated ourselves to the cause of the United Nations Charter should do some heart-searching."

1945, the prospect of regional security organizations was made the fly and the flaw in the original United Nations Charter, so today the O.A.S. has become the sharp symbol of whether we are going to center the world's chance of law and survival on the United Nations, or disperse it to any number of lesser regional organizations, which can never rise very far above the old anarchy of individual nationalities.

Of Life, Of Death

Memorial Day is usually the most beautiful holiday of the year. It comes on a date when the promise of the new season is at its unspoken peak.

It comes for a world which is usually just through with its spring cleaning, and not yet into its summer dust and sludge. The signs of life are at full tide; the buds are looting their first flights; the fruits are set; the seeds, in the normal year, have germinated; the golf game has begun to find its groove; the family has moved outdoors; to arrive at this point on the calendar and in the season seems adequate justification for the process of living.

But Secretary General Thant's gentle reminders should not be necessary for any realist looking at today's world. For 20 atomic years the chess has been simple: unite in one system of enough world law to ban and enforce the law against aggression, or try the formula of nuclear anarchy.

But we must be able to see and choose, now and then, some degree of push or restraint which is required to keep things from going so far in the wrong direction there would be no chance left.

Where Success Would Be Danger

It would be strange indeed if the chief executive and administrative officer of the United Nations should not see and question the challenge to that world orge-

When 12,033 Fall

Only the purported exactness of the figure, we are sure, made us pause in our perusal of the news the other day long enough to find out that the 12,033 human beings mentioned happened to be human beings who had lost their lives in that cyclone over in Pakistan on May 12.

By JOAN CROSBY
NEW YORK—(NEA)—Sally Ann Howes has just had the shock of her young life! She accepted jobs as hostess-entertainer for two upcoming beauty pageants on CBS television, Miss U.S.A., set for June 2 and Miss Universe, scheduled for July 24, "and I thought," the beautiful English star smiled, "I'm getting all this money for nothing. Well, it's not so. It's the most technically difficult show I have ever been connected with."

"You should see my script, it's this high"—and she spread her hands a foot apart—"and there are several endings for everything in case the judges take longer to decide than expected or someone faints. And I have to wear one of those earpieces, so that I can hear instructions. I would much rather have someone hand me a note, so I could read it on camera and relay the information. With that earpiece, I'm afraid people will think I am deaf."

Changed Image
Sally Ann reports that for the first time, there will be different sets for the bathing suit and evening gown parades, and professional entertainment from her and Pat Boone.

Happy, humorous, friendly Sally Ann recently left the cast of the Broadway musical "What Makes Sammy Run?" after appearing in it for a year. "I immediately did everything possible to change my 'Sammy' image. I cut my hair, splurged on clothes, some of which I haven't worn yet, and changed my make-up. I decided I had been much too pink."

Looks to Retirement
Married to producer-composer Richard Adler, Sally Ann hopes to retire and be just Mrs. Adler in a few years. "But nobody believes me when I say this. In about 10 years, I wouldn't mind retiring. I don't want to see myself as an aging actress trying to make the adjustment to mother roles. I suppose I have this feeling because I saw my father (English musical comedy star Bobby Howes) making the adjustment. It's fine to say now that I will give myself 10 years, but we never can predict how we will feel when the time comes. I don't know how well I will have fulfilled my needs by then."

Space Fever Rises

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—The three major television networks, once again, are gripped with space fever, a competitive disease requiring each sufferer to try to outdo the others in covering the journeys of the astronauts.

The four-day Gemini shot is scheduled for next Thursday morning and the television audience will receive its briefings earlier in special programs of all networks. NBC's "G-T4 Preview" will come on Tuesday night (9-10 EDT) while CBS' "Gemini Preview" follows on Wednesday night (8-8:30 EDT) as does ABC's "Preview" on its "Newscope" program (10:30-11).

On launch day, all networks will start their coverage at 7 a.m., about two hours before the planned take-off. It is expected that all of the networks will stay with the story at least until 11 a.m., and longer if circumstances warrant. ABC, for instance, does not know—and will not—whether it will stay on the story for one orbit or three before returning to regular programming.

As usual, basic coverage of the launching is a prestige operation by the three networks, with each assigning its top news staff men to reporting the running story and filling in the dull moments with assorted interviews and demonstrations. NBC will show the takeoff in color.

Once the Gemini-Titan mission is whirling around the globe, all networks plan hourly reports on its progress, plus more thorough updating during all news programs. In addition, each network will have a 15-minute special program nightly from 11:15 to 11:50 (EDT).

Once the rocket and its payload has moved out of sight of the cameras, the story ceases to be one that can be covered visually. It can then be followed just as well by radio—and the nation's radio stations will be covering the flight with the same concentration that television will give it.

Viewers will have to wait until some time after Monday morning's planned splashdown to see any space pictures including film of Maj. Edward H. White, if he attempts a walk in space. Unlike the Soviet spaceship, the Gemini capsule is not equipped with television cameras.

For the first time, a TV pool representative will be permitted to travel in the rescue helicopter when it goes to the astronauts after the splashdown, so recovery pictures will be received sooner than before.

Holiday weekend TV programming will be highlighted by film of the controversial Linton-Clay fight on ABC's "Wide World of Sports" program Saturday (6-6 p.m. EDT). On Sunday afternoon (4-5) there will be the American premiere of Gian-Carlo Menotti's new opera, "Martin's Lie" on CBS.

Comedian Louis Nye is co-host next week on "ABC's Nightlife" 11:15 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Events In State

Sailor Facing Murder Charge

NEW LONDON (AP)—Eldridge V. Felder, 29, a sailor on the nuclear submarine Casimir Pulaski, was scheduled for arraignment today in Circuit Court on a murder charge. Police arrested Felder early Sunday. They said he pulled a pistol and shot Thomas Patterson, 29, of New London in the head following an argument. A medical examiner said Patterson was struck with one bullet over the left eye. Patterson, married and the father of eight children, was a native of Savannah, Ga. His wife said he recently retired from the Navy and was working as a machinist at the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp. at Groton. Felder's home was in Birmingham, Ala., police said. They said he is a quartermaster 2-c on the polaris-missile submarine.

Faces NAACP Pickets

MERIDEN (AP)—Mayor William T. Shea may be the object of picketing by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People unless he activates a Human Rights Commission that he suggested. In a letter to Shea Saturday, the NAACP said its members would picket City Hall Friday unless members were appointed to the commission by then. The commission was created at Shea's suggestion by the city council a year ago.

Wreckage Not Sub

PARIS (AP)—The French Navy Ministry said today that the wreckage found by a diver at Long Island Sound could not be the ill-fated French submarine Surcouf.

Commenting on reports from Hartford, Conn., that a marine salvage expert had found the Surcouf wreckage, the ministry said that the French submarine had been lost off Panama, not Long Island.

Sees Crime Rise

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—"Crime in this country is increasing at an astounding rate," said Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach today at a University of Bridgeport audience.

Speaking at commencement exercises at the university Sunday, Katzenbach said two aspects of the growth in the crime rate "bother me" most.

Luci Graduates, LBJ Is Speaker

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson told what he called the "youngest generation today believes in debate on the national policies in time of danger, but he said he would proceed on the course he believes is right, regardless of criticism. The President hit this central theme in a commencement address to the graduating class at the National Cathedral School for Girls. His daughter, Luci, 17, was one of the graduates at the private school. Johnson in his prepared address told young Americans to use their talents to help in the struggle of the world's poor to create a better life. He said this is a moral commitment. (See Page Eight)

Poor Drivers Blamed For Road Death Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—Traffic deaths for a three-day Memorial Day holiday have pushed to a record high for the second year in a row and the National Safety Council said the blame rests "largely on incompetent and irresponsible driving." "More and more must be done to improve the nation's driving skills," said Howard Pyle, council president. Pyle said reports on highway traffic accidents throughout the weekend showed that mistakes in driving judgment posed the major problem. He said this record bears out the findings in a recent nationwide drivers test in which a very high percentage of the participants failed to qualify as safe drivers. Several multiple-death accidents helped swell the national total to 490, for the period from 8 p.m. local time Friday to Monday midnight. The old record of 481 traffic fatalities was set in 1964. Three spectacular auto smashups in the area of Needles, Calif., snuffed out 16 lives. A head-on collision on a desert highway near Needles, Saturday killed six and left an 11-year-old girl the only survivor. An almost identical smashup to the High Sierra foothills Sunday near Lone Pine took five

Five Area People Accident Victims

Five persons from this area lost their lives in highway accidents over the three-day Memorial Day weekend. Three Manchester residents were killed Saturday in a crash on the Wilbur Cross Highway in East Hartford. An Amston youth died Sunday from injuries he received a few hours earlier when his car struck a tree on Rt. 85 in Hebron and split in two and a young Rockville man was killed Sunday when his car struck a telephone pole on Orcuttville Rd. in Stafford. They were among 11 persons killed in holiday road mishaps in Connecticut. The Manchester victims were Mrs. Olive M. Ray, 43, of 33 Lyness St., her 14-year-old son, Thomas, and Mrs. Maria Sheer, 61, of 187 Spring St. The Amston youth was Paul Lunt, 18, and the Rockville man was Jack E. Pirtel, 20, of 9 Walnut St. The East Hartford accident occurred when an eastbound trailer truck crossed the esplanade east of the Forbes St. exit forcing one westbound auto off the road and hitting two others. Mrs. Ray was driving one of the cars hit. She and her son died in the wreckage. Her body was pinned in the car for three hours. Mrs. Sheer was thrown out

No Ties, No Dinner

GRANBY (AP)—Granby's selectmen have rejected an invitation to a formal dinner. They and other town officials in the vicinity of Bradley Field were invited by the 905th Troop Carrier Group to attend an awards banquet June 12 at Stewart Air Force Base in Newburgh, N.Y. The selectmen said two members of the board would attend, but when official invitations were received, they contained the notation the dinner will be "black tie." The original Granby delegates said they did not have formal dinner dress. A quick canvass revealed none of the selectmen owned dinner jackets. Since "no one had a thing to wear," the selectmen declined the invitation with regrets.

Party Chiefs In Harmony On Two Bills

HARTFORD (AP)—The inevitable task of reaching bi-partisan compromises on major bills began on a hopeful note Monday as leaders of both parties agreed on an omnibus court bill and a measure strengthening the state Civil Rights commission. The leaders had already been in substantial agreement on the court measure and had expressed accord on the principles of the civil rights commission measure. They indicated that they would begin work today on a compromise capital bonding program. And House Speaker J. Tyler Patterson said Republicans would have "something to say" today about measures to aid the bankrupt New Haven Railroad. Patterson said the only major aspect of the omnibus court bill that had not already been worked out by Monday was establishment of a "chain of command" in the state's court system. Republicans and Democrats differed in their civil rights commission measures as to how the commission should go about obtaining injunctions to prevent the sale or rental of housing in cases of alleged discrimination. Under the agreement reached Monday, any three of the 11 commissioners would be able to seek an injunction from a circuit court judge. If the judge granted the injunction, the case would come under the jurisdiction of the court. Patterson said the leaders have not yet decided how a landowner would be able to appeal a ruling against him in a housing discrimination case. He said that although further negotiations were needed on this point, "I don't think there's any great problem about this legislation."

The omnibus court bill, which has already been introduced in the General Assembly, calls for the appointment of 11 new judges. One of the new judges would be a sixth State Supreme Court Justice who would also be chief administrator of the entire state judicial system. Under the agreement the chief administrator, who would be under the general jurisdiction of the chief justice, would appoint the chief judge of the Circuit Court for a two-year term. Patterson said that although

Dempsey Reveals Plan For Aiding New Haven

U.S. Planes Blast Viet Arms Base

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Air Force and Navy planes hammered the Ho An ammunition depot, roads, ferries, patrol boats and bridges in six separate raids on North Viet Nam today. Two Navy F-8 Crusader jets were lost. The pilot of one crashed to death. The other was rescued at sea. South of the border, a Viet Cong band ambushed a government convoy in the central highlands and two U.S. Army advisers were reported killed and a third wounded. The Red guerrillas struck the convoy on the Pleiku-Le Thanh Road, 220 miles north of Saigon and about 100 miles southwest of the Quang Ngai Province area where an estimated 600 Viet Cong and more than 500 government troops were casualties in heavy fighting at the weekend. Two Americans, a captain and a sergeant, had been killed in that fighting. Today's losses increased the toll of American combat dead in Viet Nam to 396. A military spokesman said at least six Americans were wounded in scattered ground and air actions during the past two days. One of the Navy Crusaders was shot down by antiaircraft fire during a 10-plane attack on the railroad yard at Vinh, about 160 miles south of Hanoi. The pilot bailed out over the sea, a spokesman said, and was picked up in good condition about 10 minutes later by a rescue plane. The fatal crash occurred while four Skyhawk jets, flying with four Skyhawk jets, were attacking the Dong Phong Tuong Highway Bridge 70 miles south of Hanoi. U.S. officials here said the

Explosion Rocks Japanese Mine, 200 Entombed

TOKYO (AP)—A gas explosion rocked the Yamano coal mine on Japan's southern island of Kyushu today. Nine hours later more than 200 persons remained entombed. Japanese news reports said 24 bodies had been recovered. The National Police Agency had reported two dead. Police on the scene had not yet established an official death count. Revising earlier figures, the police said 552 persons were inside the mine's No. 1 pit when the blast ripped through it at 12:40 p.m. The agency said 290 persons escaped uninjured, and another 21 injured were brought out. Five were hurt seriously. Police said the blast occurred 196 feet from the pit entrance. Rescue workers cautiously

Detailed Exams For Astronauts

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II, their physical conditions honed to a fine edge for their four-day space spectacular, were given detailed examinations today by their doctor. The doctor already has said McDivitt is in better shape than many football players, and White a shade sharper than his partner. Of White, who plans to emerge from the spacecraft during flight 135 miles above the earth, the doctor said: "He is in tip-top shape. He could run the mile, fight a 10-round boxing match, swim 10 miles. You name it, he can do it." The medical examinations began right after breakfast and were to continue into early afternoon. They were necessary to provide data for comparison with that gathered during and after the flight of the Gemini 4. The countdown begins Wednesday for a Thursday morning launch of the two-man spacecraft on the nation's longest and most spectacular space journey yet. Christopher C. Kraft, Project Gemini director, planned an all-afternoon session with the astronauts, their doctor, the people who have bailed the spacecraft and its Titan 2 booster rocket.

Special Fund From Taxes Is Planned

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. John N. Dempsey announced today an administration program for providing financial aid to the New Haven Railroad on a continuing basis. Under the plan, one-fifth of the public service taxes collected annually would be set aside for a special fund. These taxes amounted to about $22.4 million for the last fiscal year, which means that some $4 million to $5 million a year would be available to aid the railroad. State Finance Commissioner George Conkling said part or all of this amount could be used if necessary to finance bonding up to a maximum of some $80 million. But Conkling said this was unlikely to happen unless the state was to buy or refurbish railroad equipment, in which case, he said, the purchases would be made in the name of the state. The cash or the bonding authority would be made available to the Connecticut Transportation Authority through the State Bonding Commission. The administration's new program is incorporated in a bill ready to be submitted to the General Assembly. It was presented to the leaders of both parties last Friday by the governor, but Republican leaders asked for time to study the proposals over the long Memorial Day Holiday weekend. House Speaker J. Tyler Patterson said the Republicans will have to think the bill over some more before taking a position. One thing that worries them at the moment, he said, is the "substantial delegation of power to an administrative agency." Patterson said Republicans also will have to weigh the proposal to earmark a portion of public service taxes for railroad aid. By a large margin, he said, these taxes come from utility companies such as the telephone company. A more logical source for taxes to aid the railroad, he said, might be highway taxes. It is generally conceded that construction of the superhighways has played a major role in bringing the railroad to its present condition, he said. Under the existing law, the CTA has the power to issue up to $5 million in bonds to aid the railroad. It has also, $1 million in cash. If the new bill is enacted, these authorizations and allocations would be repealed and the CTA would operate under the new program. This would allow the State Bond Commission, on request of the CTA, to authorize the necessary bonds or expenditures. (See Page Thirteen)

Bulletins

APPOINTMENT APPROVED WASHINGTON (AP)—The first Negro woman to be named as a U.S. ambassador won quick approval today from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Agreement by the Senate as a whole was taken for granted. As one senator observed, Mrs. Patricia Roberts Harris, Washington, D.C., found the questioning as easy as when, in 1960, she finished first in her class at the George Washington University Law School.

MOMO STAYS MUM CHICAGO (AP)—Moms Salvatore Giancana, reputed chief of the Chicago crime syndicate, refused today to answer questions before a federal grand jury—and he headed for jail to stay until he is ready to talk. Only an hour earlier, Giancana had agreed to comply with Judge William J. Campbell's order to answer "completely, fully and truthfully" all questions put to him by the grand jury.

PROBE CHECK THEFT BOSTON (AP)—State police investigated today the theft of $305,000 in checks from the right of ways division of the State Department of Public Works. A spokesman for the department said the checks were signed and made out to individuals as payments for land taken by the DEP. There were 84 checks, the largest for $132,000. The state treasurer was notified by the DEP and asked to stop payment on the checks.

Foulds, 83, Dead; Drowning Victim

William Foulds, 83, 123 Boulder Rd., chairman of the board of the Colonial Board Co., and the son of the co-founder of the original Lydall & Foulds Paper Co., died in a drowning accident near his vacation home at Old Forge, N. Y., Sunday. Foulds' body was found Sunday afternoon floating under an overturned boat in which he had gone fishing earlier in the day. Mrs. Foulds had asked a neighbor to look for her husband when he did not return on time from his fishing. The Herkimer (N.Y.) County coroner issued the accidental drowning verdict Monday. The Fouldses had gone to their home at Fourth Lake, Old Forge, on May 20, for a vacation. They had planned to return this week. Foulds was born and raised in Manchester, the son of William Foulds Sr. and Carrie Straw Foulds, both deceased. The senior Foulds had come to the United States from Great Britain in the 19th Century, and was a merchant in Manchester before organizing Lydall & Foulds in 1887. After attending Manchester schools, Foulds went to Morgan Lake School, a military academy in New York, and then joined Lydall & Foulds as a sales representative. The Colonial Board Co., a sister company to Lydall & Foulds, was formed in 1913. Foulds' father was president of both firms, and Foulds soon became secretary and assistant treasurer. When the senior Foulds died in 1941, Foulds became president. (See Page Thirteen)
