Pope Asks UN Seek War's End

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Pope Paul VI today reaffirmed his support of the United Nations and urged as its goal "No more war, war never again."

In a speech prepared for delivery before the 117-nation General Assembly, the Pope declared: "If you wish to be brothers, let the arms fall from your hands, one cannot love while holding offensive arms."

He urged the audience of diplomats to find ways to guarantee international security "without having recourse to arms."

Pope Smiles as He Prepares to Leave Airport. Crowds Line Route of His Motorcade.

Thousands Greet Pontiff on Route

NEW YORK (AP)—Pope Paul VI, spiritual ruler of 550 million Roman Catholics came to America today as a peace pilgrim to the United Nations, and to meet with President Johnson.

The first Pope to visit the New World arrived at Kennedy Airport at 9:27 a.m. after a nine-hour jet flight of 4,280 miles from Rome.

Awaiting the pontiff were high-ranking officials of all levels of government and the church. The Alitalia Airlines jet taxied to a red carpeted welcoming ceremony.

Red velvet roping enclosed the area and a long black limousine stood waiting to take the Pope on a motorcade parade through Queens and Manhattan.

Among the spectators at the sealed-off airport and along the papal routes were big delegations of Catholic children, part of the 704,000 from 1,091 metropolitan area parochial schools which declared a holiday for the historic visit.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, the official who invited the Pope to lay his Church's plea for peace before the international body, headed the welcoming delegation.

No other aircraft were in the cool, clear sky as the big jet approached from the east for a landing. Airport activity ceased as workers and spectators watched.

With Thant were the other official greeters: Secretary of State Dean Rusk, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York.

There were former Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani, president of the U.N. General Assembly, and the four other U.S. cardinals.

The pontiff, white-robed and wearing a crimson cape and cap with gold embroidery, stepped from the plane onto the ramp at 9:30 a.m. and waved to the crowd.

He slowly descended the ramp, smiling, and shook hands with the waiting dignitaries. An excited conversation swept through spectators watching from the airport observation deck.

"There he is!" The watchers applauded and shouted as the Pope stepped onto American soil — at 9:37 a.m.

The crimson-capped cardinals joined in the applause as the Pope stepped onto the platform, donned spectacles, and with Thant at his side, began to read an arrival statement.

He spoke in English, fast and almost in a monotone. "Greetings to you, America!" the pontiff said.

"The first Pope to set foot upon your land blesses you with all his heart. He renews, as it were, the gesture of your discoverer, Christopher Columbus, when he planted the Cross of Christ in this blessed soil."

"May the cross of blessing which we now trace over your skies and your land preserve those gifts which Christ gave you and guarantee to you: peace, concord, freedom, justice — and above all the vision of from holes," a military spokesman reported. Three companies of Marines, backed by mobile artillery, swept the rice paddies and sugar cane fields 5 miles south of Da Nang but could not find the enemy force.

Maj. Gen. Lewis W. Wall, U.S. Marine commander in Viet Nam, said at least 11 Viet Cong were killed by infantry, artillery and air attack but other officers believed the toll was higher.

Another major battle appeared to be developing in South Viet Nam's southernmost province of An Xuyen, 130 miles southeast of Saigon.

Several government battalions caught up with a Viet Cong battalion but there were no reports of casualties on either side. Full-strength Viet Cong battalions run from 600 to 800 men and regular Vietnamese army battalions from 300 to 450 men at full strength.

A U.S. Air Force A1E Skyraider crashed today near Tay Ninh, 80 miles north of Saigon, out of deep tunnels. "The rats

Daley Asked To Step into School Crisis

CHICAGO (AP) — An integration group has asked Mayor Richard J. Daley to intervene in the Chicago public school crisis involving $30 millions in federal education funds.

The dispute arose Friday when the U.S. Office of Education ordered that $30 million in federal funds be withheld from Chicago public schools for failure to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, an organization of integration groups, appealed to Mayor Daley in a telegram Sunday:

"Because of an intransigent superintendent of schools and a school board hardly able to take the most feeble steps forward, segregation and inequality in Chicago's schools has brought on a crisis of catastrophic proportions with the withholding of federal funds."

"We now call upon you to enter this situation with vigor and determination to bring Chicago schools into compliance with the Civil Rights Act, and to encourage in every possible way the city's full cooperation with the U.S. Office of Education..."

Schools Supt. Benjamin C. Willis, 63, was rehired by the Chicago Board of Education in May to a four-year contract, with the stipulation that he retire on his 65th birthday in December 1968.

Integration groups contend Willis has maintained de facto segregation in the public schools.

The council, led by Albert Raby, appealed to Francis Keppel, U.S. commissioner of education, in July and asked that federal funds be withheld until the Chicago public schools are properly integrated.

The U.S. Office of Education in Washington said Friday that a preliminary investigation indicates some instances of failure in Chicago to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act. A federal spokesman added: "The Office

U.S. Cities To Receive Cuban Exiles

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The impact of a new Cuban refugee flood, anticipated here in view of President Johnson's favorable response to Fidel Castro's "let them go" offer, would be felt throughout the United States, say persons making preparations to handle the situation.

"New arrivals would rapidly be sent to cities other than Miami," said a spokesman at the Cuban Refugee Center.

The U.S. government-operated center already has resettled 82,000 exiles in 3,000 cities in the 50 states in order to relieve the exile concentration load here.

As officials braced to meet the expected influx, exiles generally were overjoyed at the President's announcement that diplomatic wheels for the migration had been set in motion.

Excitement in the exile colony was high. Manuel Artimo, who helped lead the unsuccessful 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba, sent Johnson a telegram thanking him for "opening the arms of this great nation" to the Cubans.

Artimo added, "The Danesque specter of the Red crime will be a great offering to the Statue of Liberty where you pronounced your historic words."

Among some Americans here there appeared a recurrence of some resentment that reached a climax in 1963 when the Cuban exile colony totaled 200,000. The Miami Herald reported it received many calls expressing apprehension over jobs and business opportunities in the face of another wave of refugees

Johnson Offers Asylum To Refugees from Cuba

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson set the gears of government and diplomacy in motion today to offer America's refuge to Cubans who seek to leave the Communist island of Fidel Castro.

"I declare to the people of Cuba that those who seek refuge here in America will find it," Johnson said Sunday in a wind-swept, bill-signing ceremony at the Statue of Liberty.

"The dedication of America to our traditions as an asylum for the oppressed is going to be upheld."

Johnson thus took up the challenge posed by Castro's offer to let those of his people who wish leave their homeland and go to America.

But just hours after Johnson spoke, Castro laid down a new challenge in a Havana speech, telling the U.S. President to also open the doors to permit Americans to travel to Cuba if they wish.

"Let the United States permit any citizen to come freely to Cuba," Castro shouted to a cheering audience. "Let them permit any citizen to come freely to Cuba..."

Travel of Americans to Cuba and other Communist countries now is restricted by the State Department.

Of Johnson's proposal to permit Cubans to come to America, U.S. government sources believe 50,000 to 75,000 Cubans might seize the opportunity to leave their homeland and take up refuge in the United States.

Johnson stood at one historic port of entry — choppy, white-capped New York harbor — to open the gates of another, Miami. He said the Florida city will be "a temporary stopping place for refugees as they reside in other parts of this country."

Johnson's dramatic announcement overshadowed his major mission on Liberty Island, the ceremony in which he signed a new immigration bill into law. It will erase the system of immigration quotas based on national origin. Johnson called the old system un-American.

Scores of government officials and hundreds of sight-seeing tourists thronged Liberty Island as Johnson signed the measure and passed out souvenir pens. Before the crush of pen-seekers was over, he passed out three cartons full, perhaps 300 pens.

Johnson said first priority in immigration to the United States will go to Cuban refugees who have relatives here and to political prisoners.

State Department sources estimated 30,000 to 50,000 Cubans may be in those categories.

The President announced these steps to open America's doors for Cubans who seek to join some 270,000 of their countrymen already in the United States.

—He said he has asked the State Department to seek through the Swiss government an arrangement for the movement of refugees from Cuba to Miami. The United States does not maintain diplomatic relations with Cuba.

Johnson said he wants the Swiss to seek Cuban agreement in a request to the International Red Cross Committee for assistance in processing refugee movement.

But Castro in his Havana speech rejected the idea of Red Cross aid. Castro said he was ready to begin negotiating the matter with the Swiss Embassy, which represents the U.S. government in Havana. Castro added: "The Red Cross is not necessary in this."

In New York, Johnson also: —Directed the Departments of State, Justice, and Health, Education and Welfare to make all the arrangements needed so that Cubans "who seek free-

Bus Strike Hinges on Union Vote

WETHERSFIELD (AP) — Connecticut Co. buses were still running in the Hartford, New Haven and Stamford areas today, pending a union membership vote on the company's latest contract offer.

A strike scheduled to begin at midnight Sunday was held off until the 800 union bus drivers and mechanics get a chance to hear the company proposal and vote on it.

Meetings were scheduled in the company's three divisions. The company called its proposed three-year contract a "final offer."

State and federal mediators worked with management and union officials over the weekend in an effort to head off the threatened walkout. The meetings began Sunday afternoon and went on until 2 a.m. today.

It was not immediately learned what attitude union officials were taking toward the company's "final offer." It was reported, however, that they were not optimistic about a settlement.

Election Day

It's election day in 115 Connecticut cities and towns and more than 420,000 people are eligible to cast ballots in the local contests.

Most of the communities which hold elections on the first Monday of October in odd-numbered years are small ones.

But there are also mayoral elections in Bristol and Torrington. (See Page Ten)

LBJ Wants Details, Recalls Bay of Pigs

EDITOR'S NOTE — President Johnson has always been a man for details, but his interest in the Viet Nam war is prodigious — even for him. It's the specter of the Bay of Pigs, aides say — that's why he tries to act with courage but caution.

By SAUL PETT AP Special Correspondent WASHINGTON (AP) — "After all," said Lyndon B. Johnson, "it's the only war we got."

Thus, in a comment to a member of his Cabinet, did the President recently explain his enormous interest in the day-to-day details of the war in Viet Nam.

Characteristically, Johnson has always been interested in detail; during the last election campaign, they say, he was deciding who rode in which cars in the motorcades.

But this attention to the tiny as well as the big picture in Viet Nam evidently reflects more than life-long habit. Clearly, Johnson remembers the Bay of Pigs, where lack of information and misinformation apparently led President John F. Kennedy to disaster. That specter haunts him and is likely to haunt American presidents for a long time to come, Johnson has indicated to recent visitors.

Thus, it is always a concern of the President, he says, to be certain he is getting all the information on a given situation and his advisers are posing for him "all the alternatives."

Natchez Marches Set Despite Mass. Arrests

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Inhibiting both the NAACP and the Ku Klux Klan from any action that might increase racial tensions in Natchez, city officials asked for the order.

Evers said Negroes would continue marching until the city granted their demands, which included school desegregation and the hiring of Negro policemen.

Each of the marches started from the Beulah Baptist church. None got farther than two blocks.

Police Chief J. T. Robinson met the first wave of Sunday's marchers two blocks from the church and asked them to disperse. He said: "You're parading without a permit. No permit has been asked. No permit has been issued."

A Negro minister leading the group replied: "Chief, all we would like to do is go to jail and pray for our people who have. It's our constitutional right."

Then the marchers knelt for a prayer. When they got to their

Words of the Pope

NEW YORK (AP) — Excerpts from the words of Pope Paul VI:

Departing from Rome—"In peace we ask for with a voice that has no force of arms but is invigorated by the very strength of the Prince of Peace, whose minister and representative on earth we are: We ask the heads of state as well as politicians, diplomats as well as financial and economic experts, scientists and philosophers, literary men and those of the press, for peace. All are called to lend their contribution to the great work of peace, which needs everyone in order to sink deep and ineradicable roots in our time."

To President Charles de Gaulle while flying over France—"To the noble nation of France and to this man who fulfills his destiny today with so much authority and who works for understanding and peace in Europe and in the world. We send you our excellent and to all our dear sons of France a particular papal blessing."

To Queen Elizabeth while flying over England—"We send respectful greetings to Your Majesty and invoke upon you, upon the royal family and upon the beloved people of your Kingdom, richest divine blessings of prosperity and concord."

To President Johnson by radio in flight—"We assure your excellency of our deferential respect and cordial esteem, and pray that God may support and comfort you, your family and the beloved citizens of your great nation with his choicest graces and blessings."

To newsmen aboard the flight—"The hope, or better still, the certainty, is that this step of

Martin Taking Post With Pollution Force

General Manager Richard Martin has accepted the position of executive secretary of a 10-member Water Task Force, charged with the responsibility of presenting to the 1967 State Legislature an action program for the control and elimination of water pollution.

Gov. J. D. Dempsey's office, in announcing the appointment, said that Martin will assume the state post on Nov. 18, the day on which he will retire from his town position.

The Task Force, headed by Dr. Thomas P. Malone, a vice president of the Travelers Insurance Co., a meteorologist and member of the Water Committee of the National Academy of Sciences, consists of members from industry, business, the press and water conservation groups.

In addition to Martin, Manchester will be represented by Norman C. Connolly of Tri-Compliance Dr., chairman of the Connecticut Board of Fisheries and Game.

Martin, who served as director of the State Water Resources Commission from 1962 to 1965, will have his office in the State Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Hartford.

No stranger to state appointments, Martin, in 1958, was appointed by the late Gov. Wilbur Cross to study damage caused by the destructive hurricanes of that year, and in 1959 accepted a position with the Government-

"THE WAY I HEARD IT"

by John Gruber

This is the time of year when your youngster is starting to "take lessons" either for the first time or to resume his studies of a musical instrument once again, and it's the time of year when many parents begin to wonder what a lot of money on musical instruction.

"A modern teacher introduces notes, reading, theory and technique cleverly," says a current advertisement for pianos. "Maybe often he doesn't instruct, but he'll get you to play some of them as actually against all theoretical studies, it dampens the child's enthusiasm," say they.

Probably it does, but if the youngster's enthusiasm is so easily dampened, then he shouldn't "take lessons" in the first place. The fact remains that your child has to learn to read music, just as certainly as he has to learn to read English, and it is to attain any degree of proficiency.

In my opinion, learning to read music should precede any practice on an instrument, but in a piano studio reading may be taken simultaneously with the instrument. And along with the reading lessons comes ear training.

But no, it isn't done that way in this country. Why? I don't know. My wife gives little Imogene a half-size violin, sends her to the music teacher, and announces to her neighbors, "I'm giving Imogene music lessons, but I'm not going to stand over her and make her practice. If she wants to learn, all right, but I'm not going to make her do it." Well, it will be a chore, and you might as well face it. That

MANY BRILLIANT PLAYS OCCUR IN CONVERSATION

By ALFRED SHAINWOLD

More good plays are made in conversation than in any other way. When you're talking about the right play for the next day, remember the first rule: Don't let the weather or the brilliant play.

Opening lead — Queen of hearts.

West opened the queen of hearts, declarer put up the king, and East covered with the ace. South puffed and led the queen of spades to force out the king, with the king of hearts out of the dummy. East commented at lunch the next day, "I was very tempted to lead a heart back. That would give South the contract. South knows out of the bag that the ace is in the dummy and gets her trained first. Then the king of hearts is a sure thing for her to master. But you'll do as you please, and probably won't pay a bit of attention to it," said.

In the end, Imogene will play the hand for her to master. And you'll do as you please, and probably won't pay a bit of attention to it.

As dealer, you hold: Spades, A-K-Q; Hearts, A-K-Q; Diamonds, K-Q; Clubs, K-Q.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one heart. The hand is too strong for an opening bid of one trump since it not only has a count of six points but also a 6-4 card suit. If partner responds one trump to one heart you can raise to three no-trump.

The earlier change, made at the redevelopment agency's request, reduced the amount of land the developer is required to have for each family dwelling unit on a given lot. The change, which applied to lots in the new area, was from 3,000 to 2,000 square feet per family.

The agency overruled the fact that the new, lower minimum lot size would make sure of a club trick to defeat the sun.

As it now stands, said, it is impossible to get a lower square foot requirement without using more than 15 per cent of the lot, thus violating another structure.

And, he said, because the agency is seeking a developer to take on the white rehousing project, it wants to make the residential section as commercially attractive as possible, and so would like to be able to use the less restrictive 2,000 foot lot.

The commission said that DeBeauvoir submitted a written request for information on the agency for the change in the regulations. The request must be cleared by the zoning commission as well.

DeBeauvoir also asked for changes in classification of three other sections of the zoning code. He asked:

1. How the maximum permitted height of a new residential building is computed. The regulations say the limit is two and one-half stories, but do not clearly state from where the measurement is to be taken.

According to DeBeauvoir, the problem is particularly acute in the steeply sloped developing area. Building inspector Francis McQuitty said he understood the regulations to require the measurement to be taken from the base to the roof of the building, which is a construction.

2. If the commission would consider changing its requirements for loading space for commercial buildings. DeBeauvoir said that the present requirements of one loading space for each 5,000 square feet of store is more than adequate for large structures; he suggested one loading space for each 10,000 square feet for the first 8,000.

3. If the commission would consider changing the requirement for customer parking for retail stores.

At present, DeBeauvoir said, the required parking is based on sales space; but, he said, sales space have a larger customer turnover than other types of stores, and the requirement be based on the turnover.

Foliage Trip Draws Crowd

By DOBIS BELDING

Railroad passenger service was restored for one day to Manchester yesterday afternoon, sponsored by the Branford Electric Railway Association of the town, which is celebrating the site of the old depot. About 100 people gathered at the station, which had made previous stops at Waterbury, New Britain and Hartford.

A sizable crowd was on hand to view the unusual event and the train, which was led by a diesel engine, departed at 10:30 a.m. for the trip to Stratford, Vt., and back.

The train proceeded to Williamsburg, where passengers disembarked and changed trains for the continuation of the journey. There was a festive atmosphere during the trip, with people lined the tracks, even in remote areas, to wave and cheer the train.

The fact that the foliage was more green than bright colored did not seem to detract from the occasion.

For those who could remember other trips by rail, the train was a nostalgic trip, a reminder of the public memories. For the small group it was a delightful new adventure because most of them were being taken on their first train ride.

When the travelers arrived in Stratford, they found a fleet of school buses waiting to take them to the depot. The trip, which was sponsored by the Branford Electric Railway Association, a non-profit educational institution, is a member of American Association of Museums. It sponsors the Branford Trolley Museum in East Haven.

Low Bid $726 For Two Files

The General Fireproofing Co. of Hartford is the apparent low bidder to supply the town registrar's office with two fireproof files. The company bid $726 for both files.

The Shaw-Walker Co. of Hartford bid $750, and the Remington Office System Division of Sperry Rand Inc. of Hartford bid $800.

College Costs Up

WASHINGTON — Public and private colleges and universities are spending 26 per cent more this year than in the 1961-62 school year. Current income is up by about the same percentage, but the institutions spent about $2.2 billion and received about $2.4 billion last year.

The President asked no less than 18 questions about the Bay of Pigs invasion.

"He asks questions not only for his own information, but also for the information of other people," said a source.

The men around Johnson say they are puzzled by the fact that he asks questions that are not only after long consultation and study, but also on occasions where there has been no consultation at all.

"President Johnson," says Secretary of State Dean Rusk, "spends more time consulting with his senior advisers than any president I've observed."

Events In World

London (AP)—Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith arrived in London today for critical discussions of independence for Rhodesia.

When his visit was announced last week, a Rhodesian spokesman said the talks "must be final and conclusive."

Rhodesia is a self-governing colony with political power in the hands of a white minority. The Rhodesian government has threatened to declare independence on its own if British requests to grant the colony full freedom.

The British government insists that independence must be preceded by arrangements to give the African population an increasing share of political power and responsibility.

Aden (AP)—British forces lifted the curfew at dawn today following two days of violent street fighting in the colony of Aden. Work crews began clearing rubble and debris from the streets.

The town of 90,000 returned to normal except for the presence of armed military and police troops, wreckage of cars, tanks and rocks littering the streets.

The Arab mobs burned two churches, two synagogues and wrecked more than 50 cars. Authorities reported six casualties. One Arab rioter was killed by police gunfire.

Manila, Philippines (AP)—President Diosdado Macapagal said today that provincial Governor Feliciano Leviste was grossly irresponsible in estimating that 5,000 persons died in the eruption of the Taal volcano.

Macapagal's press spokesman accused the governor of padding the figure "for political purposes." He said that "the official count as of today is only 98 dead and 97 missing."

The final figure "certainly will not be more than 500," he added.

With 15,000 people in evacuation camps, observers at the scene of the eruption of Manila said the distribution of relief supplies was a mess.

One source said relief supplies were being distributed to thousands not affected by the eruption while genuine victims deserving victims were getting nothing.

Children's Day—The annual town meeting will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Cooperative Kindergarten. Reports will be heard from town officers and special town committees.

The town will be asked whether it wishes to join the Windham Regional Planning Agency, whose area includes the towns of Ashford, Chaplin, Coventry, Hampton, Lebanon, Mansfield, Scotland, Willington and Windham. If they wish to join, they must also appropriate the necessary funds.

Reports will be asked if they wish to stipulate that the sum of $2,500, previously appropriated for the use of the school building committee, be taken from the Reserve Fund.

Included in the warning is a clause asking for an increase in the salary of the assessor's clerk, and another referring to the assessor's estimate of the expenses for the coming year including the budget for the board of education.

Voters must also authorize the assessor to borrow money for current expenses in anticipation of taxes and may hear any other business deemed proper.

Bolton Town Meeting to Consider Joining Disposal District

The question of whether or not to join the North Central Refuse Disposal District will be the main item on the agenda of the annual town meeting, which starts at 8 at the Community Hall.

Raymond Cooper, a member of the board of finance, has questioned the advisability of joining without more study what membership in the new district involves.

First Selectman Richard Morris says he is more concerned with the location of any future disposal area than with how deeply the town would be committed by an affirmative vote tonight.

Robert Deming of Vernon, a member of the new disposal district and former chairman of the Northeast Refuse Disposal District, said today that Bolton will have no more chance to vote before being committed permanently, and that he believes there will always be avenues of escape for any town.

The town will be asked, first, at the meeting tonight, to vote to withdraw from the former North Central Refuse Disposal District, and then to vote to join the new one.

Cooper has sent a letter to the selectmen suggesting that efforts be made to table action on joining the new district until the selectmen and the planning commission have time to study the new legislation, especially the disposal districts.

Cooper said that, as a member of the board of finance, he has primary objection against joining in the power given the district to fund a multimillion dollar bond issue without a public referendum.

Questioned on this possibility, Deming said that there would be one more time for the town to vote, when the by-laws of the new district were established. He said that the town would not actually have a chance to vote on district bonds, however. The by-laws are now in a rough-draft form, Deming explained, and for the most part, they are similar to the by-laws of the Northeast Refuse Disposal District.

Raymond Schaller, the owner of lots along the North end of Bolton Rd., has charged both zoning board and planning commission with "discrimination."

A letter from Schaller to Donald Tedford, zoning agent, was read at meetings of both boards last week. Tedford said he will

Bolton Town Meeting to Consider Joining Disposal District

Colton said that in Manchester this is known as "senior privilege." In Bolton it will be called "special contract," and those students who are eligible and wish to take advantage of the program will sign a contract with the school, which will be void if violated.

"The purpose of the contract," Colton stated in a description sent home to parents, "is to allow a student the greatest amount of individual freedom in his educational and school program."

Parents are responsible for transportation. Students who have filed the necessary credentials for driving to school may drive themselves, and students who live within the waiting distance established by the board of education may be transported.

In observance of National Fire Prevention Week, the Bolton Fire Department will hold an open house Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the firehouse on North Rd. Films will be shown at about 8 p.m.

Fire department officials are also planning activities at both schools.

Patrol Leaders

Patrol leaders and assistants were chosen at the last meeting of Boy Scout Troop 7.

Larry Fosse will be the leader of the patrol, assisted by Mike Clark. John Poterion will lead the Flaming Arrows, assisted by Tom Sharpley. Milton Jensen will lead the Flying Eagles, assisted by his brother David. Peter Benedict will lead the Swamp Fox Patrol, assisted by his brother Steven.

Bolton Elementary school will close early Thursday so that teachers can participate in a modern kindergarten session Friday night at the block dance sponsored by the Republican Town Committee.

The first home game of the varsity soccer team, against Cheney Tech, was rained out last Tuesday while a large portion of the younger generation got plenty of exercise Friday night at the block dance sponsored by the Republican Town Committee.

Because of the rain, the dance was held inside the Community Hall, rather than outdoors, which had the effect of cutting down the number of adults participating. Members of the dance committee, and a few bawdy parents, were in attendance. The hall was literally rocking as the future voters made lively suggestions to the best of the Tradewinds, local dance combo.

The third athletic event of the weekend was termed "delightfully successful" by a participant. Over 20 members of the Bolton Outing Club climbed Mt. Mansfield in Jeffery, N.H. Sunday. They report that the foliage is not yet at its peak, with a lot of red in evidence, but not much yellow.

Early Dismissal

Ralph Connor, principal of Bolton High School, has announced that sophomores and juniors maintaining at least a "C" average will be excused from school at the end of the next-to-the-last period, primarily for after-school jobs.

Andover Annual Town Meeting Set At Elementary School at 8

The annual town meeting will be held tonight at 8 in the elementary school. Other than hearing and accepting the town report for the 1964-65 fiscal year, the major business includes several items relating to the purchase of a new truck for the volunteer fire department, at an estimated cost of $18,000.

Appropriations recommended by the board of finance, for the voters to act on, include $700 to purchase radios for use by town officials, $600 for the conservation commission's open space program, and $2,548.13 for the regional school district.

Other business on the warrant is to authorize the board of selectmen to extend the contract to the town of Bolton for the fire department area for another year. A related item, to amend the disposal area regulations to provide for issuance of car stickers to persons permitted use of the area. This provision was in the regulations passed in the May, 1962 budget meeting, but was deleted at a special town meeting a month later for reasons unknown.

The other items on the warrant cover the adoption of a new code, and to see if the selectmen will send mail notices of all future town meetings to post office boxholders.

Some time late Friday night or early Saturday morning, the company responsible have agreed to refund the cost of the reworking. The directors are expected to meet all future town meetings to post office boxholders.

Lone Bid $10,981 For Garage Roof

The Couplin Roofing Co. of Manchester submitted the only bid today to reroof the town garage on Olect St. The bid was $10,981, slightly less than the $11,000 appropriation requested of the town directors for the work.

There is a possibility that the roof specifications may be altered to allow the contractor to start work immediately.

If the present specifications are used, there will be a six-week delay, says the roofing firm. The change would add about $40 to the bid price, raising it to $11,021.

Waterbury Needs Trees... Destruction of trees in clearing for highway construction, and the loss of barrens created in prominent areas of the city, has emphasized the value of trees in beautifying a street and a city.

Fischetti... The morning had not started yet. The streets were deserted except for a milk truck parked in front of the delicatessen.

At the moment, however, the immediate hope has to be that Sukarno can survive, perhaps a little wiser than he has been, wise enough to begin tilting his balancing maneuvers a little more definitely in the direction of democracy.

Two Borders... Two curious developments in separate quarters of the Communist world suggest a contradiction and yet a parallelism of practical Communist evolution which bears little resemblance to the evolution described by theorists.

Now Hungary, like Rumania and Bulgaria, is trying to lure Western tourists and to stimulate trade. Its relations with neighboring Austria, have eased, and the incongruousness of "Welcome to Hungary" signs at border crossings with the Iron Curtain straggling on either side has been noted.

The current differences between European communism and Asian communism stem from many causes other than the state of evolution in which they find themselves.

It strikes us that while the State Highway Department, in its program of beautifying the highways and riverbanks in Waterbury, the populace as a whole might undertake municipal tree-planting projects.

There are many ways that a Committee for Beautification of Waterbury might set up a program of planting for next year. One idea would be to encourage to buy and plant. Subcommittees might be set up to give non-expert advice on selection of trees and instructions on planting.

Building Permits
Permits issued during September show estimated construction costs totaling $166,774 covering the homes of 23 families at $12,000, eight additions and alterations at $12,000, one garage at $1,750, and three out buildings at $440, reports Samuel P. Allen of the building department.

The permit issued for the construction of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church shows an estimated cost of $137,000. The construction of the two portable classrooms erected in back of Coventry High School, show an estimated cost of $19,000.

Allen also issued permits for three electrical installations, one plumbing, eight heating, nine walls and 11 septic tanks.

Garden Prize
Mr. and Mrs. Elbert I. Carlson of Twin Hill Dr. received first prize in Coventry Garden Club's September Yard of the Month contest. Honorable mention went to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Borjman of Twin Hill Dr. and Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Berman of Cross Street.

The grand prize winner is to be announced this month.

4-H Club Activity
A number of local 4-H'ers took part in the "Learning for Living" program Saturday at the State Capitol Building, as one of the National 4-H Club Week highlights. Representing Tolland County: Natalie Hladky and Peter Hoffman of Coventry and Kacie Club, led by William Gleason, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Lawrence.

Kathy Giesecke assisted with the explanation of the meaning of 4-H Club Work, the annual 4-H report to Gov. John Dempsey was presented by David Stone, and to John J. Buda, chairman of the University of Connecticut board of Trustees, by Donald Stors.

Fierce Battle Erupts Between Viet Forces

The U.S. 11th Airborne Brigade launched a battalion-sized operation Monday against the Viet Cong in the O Son 50 miles north of Saigon. The paratroopers reported they killed seven Viet Cong and captured a cache of Bangalore torpedoes along with stores of salt, molasses and two and a half tons of rice.

The operation was preceded by air assaults and artillery fire and supported by armed helicopters. U.S. casualties were described as light.

As soon as the carrier Midway launched more than 70 sorties against suspected Viet Cong concentrations along the coast, 40 more, sunk three sampans and set off one large secondary explosion, probably of munitions or fuel.

No planes were lost, a spokesman said.

The cruiser Galveston fired 300 rounds of five-inch shells at a Viet Cong installation Sunday and destroyed 40 buildings, a spokesman said.

He reported destroyers blasted of gun emplacements, a Viet Cong shelter, trenches and structures and an assembly area.

The U.S. Air Force said its planes flew 120 sorties during the 24-hour period, dropping 250 tons of bombs, destroyed 210 buildings and damaged 124 others.

The Vietnamese air force flew 10 combat sorties.

Zachary Scott Dies of Tumor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Zachary Scott, who switched from acting to directing drama to directing room comedy in three decades as a leading man, died Sunday at the age of 51.

Death was attributed to a malignant brain tumor, detected after he complained of not feeling well last spring.

The mountaineer and dandy handsome star of stage, screen and television "simply went to sleep" about 5 p.m., said a brother-in-law, Fanning Heaton of Troy, N.C. He said Scott had been in a coma for two days.

Death came at the home of his mother, Mrs. Zachary Scott St. Hill, an Austin native, retired nurse, Aug. 9, leaving her only child under medical treatment by a physician.

It was the end of a career in which he played scores of stage parts and took roles in 34 films, mostly before he quit Hollywood in 1950 and returned to make his home in New York.

Scott was noted for characterizing his usual screen role as that of "a heel with charm." Roles are described, describing him as far from a heel in private life, liked to recall how he induced fan clubs in the 1940s to adopt war orphans and send them food and clothing.

With Scott during his final illness besides his mother were his wife, actress Ruth Purdy, and one of his daughters, Mrs. William Crawford of Brooklyn Heights, N.Y.

Chairman Smith reports the commission has unanimously approved the preparation and development for the town of Coventry, zoning regulations and zoning maps (the comprehensive program under the 701 program). Formal completion of this 701 plan is effective Oct. 1.

Copies of the zoning regulations are available at the office of Samuel P. Allen, zoning agent, in the Town Office Building, zoning maps in size 17 in by 22 in are being prepared, and a smaller map showing the village and lake area which will be available from the zoning agent about the first of the year.

Four large maps, elements of the plan of sewage for Coventry, and a set of the adopted zoning regulations have been placed on file in the town clerk's office.

The 701 Plan has been completed at a cost of $3,000 of town funds and $6,000 of federal funds, marking completion of the first step toward establishing an urban renewal and sewage program for the town, or the 702 program.

Under the 702 program, the town could receive three-fourths of the program's costs from the federal government with one-eighth absorbed by each of the state and town governments.

Formal application for aid under this program would be a request to the Housing and Home Finance Section of the Urban Renewal Agency, Region No. 1, for a representative to be sent to verify the town's eligibility.

Upon authorized eligibility, a town meeting must be called to adopt an ordinance to establish a Coventry Redevelopment Agency (CRA), consisting of electors of the town.

When established, the CRA must complete a number of steps: Establish that codes and ordinances meet requirements for federal aid; complete the comprehensive plan (this has already been done, according to the above); make a neighborhood analysis of redevelopment requirements; establish an administrative organization; determine the financial capacity of the town; plan for new housing requirements; and organize citizen participation.

The first church of the Pope passed was that of a Baptist congregation, located on Van Wyck Expressway and Liberty Avenue.

Far ahead of the tide of noise and excitement, riding toward the Pope, were several motorcyclists.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, another son, three granddaughters and a great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the St. Mary's Memorial Home, 20-24 Main Ave., Hartford, Conn.

Words of the Pope

(Continued from Page One) Our, undertaken in the sincere awareness of our humanness as well as in the confidence of divine help, will find a willing response in the hearts of men.

Over Goodenough, Labrador, he said: "For all the people of Newfoundland and particularly its fishermen, I wish you peace, prosperity and welfare."

At arrival at Kennedy Airport, New York, he said: "We come from Rome where there is located the central seat of that religious society not founded on temporal power, which is the Catholic Church."

The final item on the warm-up agenda was the Pope's address to the meeting in the "other suitable and proper" fashion.

Head constable Walter Bleicki warned drivers to be particularly alert and cautious when driving in the area.

At almost the same time, a schoolgirl with her, Tom Banks, 14, added, "I hope he does some good at the United Nations."

Pope Sets Precedent By Appearance at UN

NEW YORK (AP) — When Pope Paul VI appears before the United Nations General Assembly Monday, he enters a multiplicity of atmospheres into which he has never ventured before.

And by his act, he registers his Church's heading to a critical time of the global body's life.

Not only does it emphasize "the compelling papal presence" but also "the confidence that they have in the ability of the United Nations as an effective peacekeeping operation," says the P.I.S.T. office.

The annual reinforcement comes amid explosive conflicts in the world, and in a period when the United Nations is struggling of its own internal problems which have threatened to immobilize it.

The Pope will receive the same protocol honors extended to Britain's Queen Elizabeth II in 1967.

The Pope does not come as a spokesman for his own nation, but as a spokesman for the entire Church of Christ, says the P.I.S.T. office.

Ryan-Bristol

Miss Deborah Lee Bristol of Bolton and William F. Ryan Jr. of East Hartford exchanged wedding vows on Saturday morning at St. Christopher's Church, East Hartford.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Bristol of Watrous Rd. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Ryan of East Hartford.

The Rev. Henry J. Murphy, pastor of St. Christopher's Church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Mary Lavoie of East Hartford was the organist and soloist. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli were on the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of pearl de sole trimmed with alencon lace, designed with three-quarter length tapered sleeves, raised waistline and bell-shaped skirt terminating into a chapel-length train. Her bouffant elbow-length veil of illusion was attached to a pillow hat matching lace-trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. John B. Shephardson was the matron of honor and Miss Rebecca Bristol was the bridesmaid. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink miniature carnations accented with maroon miniature carnations.

The attendants were dressed alike in floor-length gold gowns, styled with brocade bodices featuring beauteous neckline, empire waistline and elbow-length sleeves and crepe sheath skirts accented by detachable tulle trains. They wore matching pillbox hats with circular face veils and carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations.

Neal Ryan of East Hartford served as his brother's best man. Ushers were John Shephardson of Bolton, brother-in-law of the bride, William Mount of East Hartford, Paul Landy of North Grovesdale and Edward Kenney of Middletown. George Shephardson of Bolton, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Bristol wore a pale green broadcloth dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a tan blue and silver matelasse suit with blue accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

A reception was held at Rafe's Restaurant, Gladstonebury. For a motor trip to Canaan, Mrs. Ryan wore a cranberry wool suit with brown accessories. The couple will make their home in East Hartford.

BRIDAL WEDDING

NUPITAL MASSES OK'D

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston, says nuptial masses should be permitted for couples wishing to marry on Sunday or holy days.

The prelate said Friday the nuptial Mass would be allowed in cases where it is impossible to plan the marriage on any other day.

In the past, couples were married on Sundays or holy days without a nuptial Mass.

Loew-Prentice

The Presbyterian Church of East Hartford was arranged for a tiny pillbox hat of red pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Mrs. Gary Avedition of Wethersfield was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown with a green broadcloth bodice and cream-colored skirt, accented with matching green creole with lace veil, and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Gary Avedition of Wethersfield served as best man. Ushers were Kirk Bernhardt of Elmwood, N.Y., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and John Patrick Farnely of Farmington and Miss Phyllis Fitzsimmons of Manchester.

Mrs. Prentice wore a pale pink broadcloth dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a tan blue and silver matelasse suit with blue accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, archbishop of Boston, says nuptial masses should be permitted for couples wishing to marry on Sunday or holy days.

The prelate said Friday the nuptial Mass would be allowed in cases where it is impossible to plan the marriage on any other day.

In the past, couples were married on Sundays or holy days without a nuptial Mass.

Donlon-Fowler

The marriage of Miss Janice Ann Fowler of Manchester to Thomas Joseph Donlon Jr. of East Hartford was solemnized Saturday morning at St. James' Church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert L. Carter of 227 Oak St. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joseph Donlon of East Hartford.

The Rev. Vincent J. Flynn of St. James' Church performed the double ring ceremony and was celebrant at the nuptial Mass. Mrs. Ralph MacCarone of Manchester was the organist and soloist. Bouquets of white mixed flowers banded the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of champagne lace-trimmed with scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves, empire waistline and lace-trimmed A-line skirt. Her bouffant shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations accented with pink sweetheart roses and ivy.

Mrs. Diane Major of East Hartford was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lorraine Wilson, Miss Carol Martin and Miss Salvatore Gallo, sister of the bridegroom, all of Manchester.

The attendants were identically dressed in floor-length gowns, fashioned with maroon velvet bodices featuring a scooped neckline and long sleeves and a pink crepe A-line skirt. They wore matching pink headpieces.

MRS. THOMAS JOSEPH DONLON JR.

Permits Issued for Two Industrial Park Additions

Building permits valued at $75,000 have recently been issued by the building department for two buildings to be built in an industrial area.

The Levard Co., developers, announced that they have acquired a 10,000 square-foot addition to the existing technology Corp. building on Glen Dale Rd. Value of the permit issued is set at $50,000.

A permit for a 4,000 square-foot addition to the Curvo Manufacturing Co. was issued to John Maccone, owner of the Maccone Industrial Park on Rt. 2.

The building Technology Corp. who opened business here Dec. 1, now needs to give its present building a new lease on life. The firm does contract machine and is currently under contract to the National Aviation Research Agency (NARA), making a number of nuclear rocket engines components to be used in the Apollo moon project.

The firm employs 25 people and will add more when its new machinery and plant construction is complete.

Curvo Manufacturing Co. makes machine parts and castings for aircraft parts. The firm currently has contracts with Eastern Aircraft and International Business Machines.

Dunro has been located in South Windsor since November 1964. The new building will double present working space.

Town Council Meeting

The town council will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the high school.

Due to the election, the council will not have any unfinished business on the agenda.

Items of new business are: Authorization for the town manager to purchase a new truck for the construction of a sidewalk on Graham Rd. and to take the steps necessary to notify and assess abutting property owners in conformance with town ordinance.

Also, acceptance of a deed for the Manocello Rd. project and setting the date for a public hearing for the appropriation of additional funds to the Public Works Department.

Fourteen appointments will be made by the council. They are:

Clerk of the town council (2 years); town attorney (2 years); dog warden (2 years); tree warden (2 years); town auditor (2 years); two members of the zoning board of appeals (2 years); one member of the board of library directors (4 years); one member to the board of selectmen (2 years); one member to the park and recreation committee (2 years); one member to the personnel board of appeals (2 years); one member to the personnel board of appeals (2 years).

Fire Inspections

During Fire Prevention week the town Fire Department fire prevention bureau will make courtesy safety inspections of houses in town.

13 Fire Calls For September

Town firemen responded to 13 fire calls in September, none of which were serious or caused injury.

There were six minor fires in buildings or homes, two grass fires and five motor vehicle fires.

Firemen performed six rescue and emergency operations. Last year during September there were 32 fire calls for the department. Four were of a serious and costly nature involving three homes and a business.
