Columbia Selectmen Still Disagree Over Choice of Secretary

Joseph Segda, Democratic selectman before an executive session to discuss welfare cases, had been present at the Oct. 20 meeting of the Columbia selectmen. He had presented his plan to the state to give examinations to possible secretarial appointees.

Segda said, "I thought we were at a deadlock and this would be a way out. How would you fellows (Republicans) selectmen Edward Fox and Vincent Sledzieski) have felt about this?"

Fox said he thought this was more than necessary for the job. "We aren't looking for an executive secretary," he said. "The selectmen have been at odds over the selection of a secretary and the appointment of a town council."

At an executive meeting, Segda said he wished to appoint a secretary to replace Mrs. Harriet Lyman, who he did not feel the town should be without.

Segda said he was not sure if he would be able to get the selectmen to agree to his plan. He said he would be glad to accept the minutes of the Oct. 20 meeting, saying, "I for at the post office."

During that meeting, Fox and Segda appointed Mrs. Edna M. Lyman as secretary and Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hutchinson as clerk. In other business Friday night, Segda read a letter from Mrs. Erminia Lyman, newly elected tax collector, inviting the selectman to visit her office at her home on Card Hill Rd.

In other business Friday night, Segda read a letter from Mrs. Erminia Lyman, newly elected tax collector, inviting the selectman to visit her office at her home on Card Hill Rd. She said she needs a calculator and a safe. Fox reported he had visited a business machine firm that Mrs. Lyman had purchased. He said she should see the machine before it is purchased. Either a new safe or a second hand one will be bought after Fox and Segda look into the possibilities.

On questions relating to the purchase of a portable dog pound, Mrs. Harriet Lyman said 40 per cent of the dog license money stays in town. The fund cannot be used for anything other than dog pounds, and quite a sizeable amount has been built up. If possible, Walter Robinson, dog warden, will be present at the next meeting to discuss the matter further.

Mrs. Lyman asked to be allowed to speak on press reports of earlier meetings, with which she and her father, Clair Robinson, former first selectman, disagreed. Specifically, she said, "It was a news article purporting to be a report of the Oct. 15 selectmen's meeting."

She took exception to a statement that "Mr. Segda declared that he had the privilege of picking his own secretary, and that former first selectman Robinson had named his daughter, Mrs. Francis Lyman, as secretary without consulting the board."

When she asked Segda if he had made the statement, he nodded to the tape recorder on which the statement could be heard.

She said, "For the record, Mr. Robinson has been contacted and stated emphatically that my employment was the decision of the board and not his alone."

Mrs. Lyman also said other statements from Segda "are just not true."

She referred to the fact that Segda said he had asked her for records, and she denied that he had.

"There are no record books with the exception of the checkbook and some files and these are the secretary's workbooks and you did not ask me to give you these," she said.

She was asked if the selectmen has the right to employ a secretary and she said, "Of course he does. He has to sign all the checks which are made out in the name of the town. The books of course have to read them to his own satisfaction. This is not the point. The news release said Joe had asked me to give him the books and I say he never lived nor many other things."

Paul Merrick, chairman of the Democratic town committee, asked Mrs. Lyman, "Did you say that Mr. Segda did cut last week total 15, more than a conversion with you and that twice the number reported you cannot recall the previous words? I believe it would be words to give to five cases, German measles him the opportunity to rights from 14 to 16, and a Health fully recall his own conversation - 13 to 15 cases, the State Department reported Monday.

The town's participation in the 106 cases, step through from 41 ambulance service, to 44 cases and gonorrhea from 29 bills were discussed by 48 to 29 cases.

Hecklers Force Alabama Sheriff To Quit Stage

PARADISE, Calif. (AP) — "It's good to be here," was about all the sheriff of Dallas County, Ala., was able to say before hecklers caused him to stalk angrily from the stage.

Sheriff Jim Clark tried to address an audience of about 800 Monday night at a school auditorium in suburban Pasadena.

He appeared at the invitation of the Los Angeles chapter of the White Citizens' Council after a court effort to silence him failed.

The raucous audience was more effective. Clark tried sarcasm. "I've never been here before in my life. You have treated me badly," he said.

The crowd, a mixture of Negroes and whites, jeered and sang Democratic songs. The crowd, a mixture of Negroes and whites, jeered and sang Democratic songs.

"These things wouldn't happen in Selma," the Alabama peace officer said. "People are given a chance to talk — even Martin Luther King."

Roderic Duff, president of the sponsoring group, asked the speaker to return to the town council.

When he left Duff presented him with a black pistol belt engraved with the motto, "Courage, Strength, Wisdom."

Cried a heckler to Clark: "Put it around your neck."

A local Congress of Racial Equality official earlier had walked out to enjoin Clark from speaking because of the clear racial overtones of his remarks.

Superior Court Judge Harold F. Collins rejected the request, saying, "We must provide a forum for unpopular causes."

Persons expecting to receive large parcels are asked to advise the carrier whether the parcels are to be left outside the box, whether the carrier will be met by the recipient or if the parcels will be called for at the post office.

Destroying Fire Very Unlikely On U.S. Liners

WASHINGTON (AP) — A fire of the type which destroyed the Yarmouth Castle would be highly unlikely on a U.S. liner, a Coast Guard officer said today.

"It would almost say that it couldn't happen," Adm. Charles P. Murphy, head of the Coast Guard's Office of Maritime Safety, said in an interview.

Murphy said fire aboard vessels of the type used by U.S. lines could be contained easily because these vessels are constructed under safety standards inaugurated in 1958.

The Yarmouth Castle, which burned and sank early Saturday with a loss of 82 lives while on a run from Miami to Nassau, was built in 1927. The Panamanian liner, formerly an American flag ship, began its service between Boston and Nova Scotia.

In 1958 the government required that all passenger ships be constructed with incombustible materials. That ruling did not affect ships built before then.

All U.S. liners now in service were built since 1958. The Coast Guard conducts periodic inspections of U.S. ships. It has detailed examinations made of ships from countries that are signatories to the international convention on safety of ships at sea.

The convention provides that all liners must be constructed of safe materials. This standard is applied to existing ships as far as practicable.

"When this was put into effect," Murphy said, "it would have been impractical to require rebuilding of a ship with a wooden superstructure. So we required 'sprinkler' systems in these ships."

Coast Guard examinations of foreign ships usually consist of a check to determine whether the vessel carries a safety certificate from its own government, and a brief inspection of obvious safety factors such as lifeboats and life preservers.

Murphy said improvements have been made in safety standards over the years and that new regulations under the international convention will go into effect in January.

The town has awarded a contract to W. G. McNally and Sons of Manchester for constructing an addition to the Olcott St. dog pound.

McNally, with a price of $10,770, was the only bidder on Nov. 1 and, in fact, was the only one to submit a bid on two combined occasions. At the previous bid opening, on Oct. 22, no bids were received.

The addition will hold 14 kennels and will include an outside run of 14 by 4 feet.

McNally has promised completion of the project within 180 days of the contract award.

Bolton PBC Requests $6,000 For New School Plans

The public building commission (PBC) voted unanimously at a meeting last night to send to the selectmen a preliminary plan for a new elementary school, requesting $6,000 for preliminary plans and site feasibility studies.

The PBC request is broken down into $3,000 for preliminary plans and $3,000 for site feasibility studies and engineering fees. These figures are based on $30,000, the PBC's rough estimate of the cost of the proposed school.

This cost figure was arrived at by estimating that the school, with all its core facilities, would run to 18,000 square feet. Multiplying this by $15 a square foot, which is the cost given by a local architect for elementary school construction, gives $270,000 as the cost of the building.

There has been no site picked for the proposed school, which is to have seven classrooms initially and which is to be expanded to 20 classrooms. The board of education has requested that the school be located near the present elementary school if feasible, and that a school be purchased for a third elementary school to be built sometime in the same area.

As a second choice, the board of education has suggested that the PBC look into a site on the Junior-senior high school property, far removed from the secondary school building.

The PBC site committee, Charles Lathrop and Herbert Johnson, reported at the meeting last night that they had looked over both areas. They were instructed to continue their investigations.

Based on present enrollment and class size, the existing elementary school will be one room short next fall. The superintendent has requested that the new building be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1966, but it is generally agreed that the target date is 1967.

The PBC requested $3,000 last month for preliminary plans for renovations and an addition to the Notch Rd. school. No action has been taken on the request.

The PBC read a letter from the board of directors requesting that the priorities of immediate school building needs. Number one on the list is the new elementary school, followed by the renovations and an addition to the Notch Rd. school. The school board also asked for cost estimates on renovations to the Notch Rd. school without an all-purpose room addition. This is the priority list, and it is a cafeteria-study hall area addition to the junior-senior high school. The board of education also requested cost estimates on a cafeteria-auditorium at the high school.

Since there are as yet no educational specifications for the proposed high school addition, the PBC took no action. The PBC has 1965 applications for the new school and the elementary school renovations for some time.

The selectmen at their meeting last night set Nov. 29 as the date for a town meeting to accept three roads and to appropriate money for the expense of floating the bond issue to finance part of the year to the uniform fiscal change.

The town will be asked to accept Shady Lane, off Converse Rd., and Laurwood and Rosewood. Mrs. in Lawrence Flann's Birch Mountain development.

Benson is B&M president, McInnis a former president, and Glacy a former vice president. In addition, Henry Murray of New Haven, Conn., president of International Railway Equipment Corp., was given an 18-month sentence and a $5,000 fine. International Railway also was fined $2,000.

Last month, a federal court jury found all four guilty of charges they split $71,000 in kickbacks. The indictment indicated 10 B&M passenger coaches were sold to International for $200,000. The kickbacks were made over four days later for $425,000.

High Salary Scale Proposed by MEA

The Manchester Education Association last night presented school board members with its initial formal contract proposal, advocating starting teacher salaries for the coming year from $900 to $1,700 above current levels. An across-the-board increase of $100 for the current year was also requested.

The nine-member MEA negotiating team, in its second confrontation with the board, proposed that beginning teachers in the school system be paid $9,000 if they have a bachelor's degree, $8,500 if a master's degree and $7,950 a P.H.D.

The current salary schedule lists $2,900 as the starting rate for teachers with a bachelor's degree and $6,600 for those with a master's degree. The schedule has no designation for P.H.D.'s but those with a sixth year of education are paid a minimum of $8,250.

The maximum salary range is similarly ambitiously fashioned. The accumulated range that the starting salaries be incremented in twelve steps to a maximum level of $11,400 for teachers with still only a bachelor's degree, $12,000 for a master's degree, and $12,600 for a P.H.D.

Still A Vote For Reform
A majority of voters in New Haven, Conn., has been proving that he never was "soft on Communism." About a year ago, in a famous speech at Amherst, he produced a piece of passionate reasoning proving that no great nation had the right to try to be moral in its power dealing with wicked realities like Communism.

Tax Rate Set at 22 Mills To Cover 10-Month Budget

A majority vote of last night's town meeting approved a tax rate of 22 mills for the fiscal year marking the town's conversion to the uniform fiscal year. Budgets totaling $865,822 were approved for a 10-month period between Sept. 1965 and ending June 30, 1966. The town will borrow $460,000 under bond lease for part of this year's costs to be repaid over a 15-year period. The $345,822 balance will be raised by taxation.

The meeting rejected a possible 25 tax mill rate to cover $1,000,000 in teacher salaries to be paid in July and August of next year. The vote was 33 for the lower rate and 25 in favor of financing the $100,000 of the teacher's salaries, contracted from Sept. 1, 1965, through June 30, 1966, within the 10-month budget. It was brought out at the meeting that, even though the teachers' contracts commit personal services to June 30, such contracts also stipulate that the 10-month service be payable over a 12-month period.

The board of finance had recommended the $100,000 so-called "holdover" in an effort to hold the tax rate as low as possible for local taxpayers during the conversion period. This $100,000 will be included in the 12-month budget of the uniform fiscal year starting July 1, 1966, instead of the appropriated in the current budget.

Accounting authorities had warned that the holdover plan may be illegal. The meeting enacted an ordinance authorizing the board of selectmen and treasurer to act on behalf of the town in issuing the bonds in the amount of $500,000; approving the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co. as the certifying and paying agent, and naming the firm of Roy, Berry and Howard as bond counsel.

The meeting voted the uniform fiscal year to start July 1, 1966, and that tax payments in the future be on a two installment payment plan: the first on July 1, 1966, and the second on Jan. 1, 1967; tax payments due and payable each subsequent year on July 1 and Jan. 1. All taxes assessed on motor vehicles and any tax less than $50 are due on July 1 in each year.

Under the conversion to the uniform fiscal year, the town also set the second Monday of each May as the date when annual budgets are to be approved for the fiscal year starting the next July 1.

The breakdown of the total budget approved is: Selectmen, $274,319; board of education, $346,208; board of welfare, $5,000; and bonded indebtedness, $198,241, for a total of $1,423,766.

The board of finance estimated general revenue at $427,944 and the grand list at $26,000.

Coaches' Corner

By DAVE WIGGIN
Manchester

A good second half effort was the difference in our 20-7 victory over Bristol Eastern last Saturday. The coaching staff is very proud of the way our kids rebounded and do not once ever say this team quit when it is behind. They have proven they can come back and are never out of a ball game until the final gun is sounded. Offensively, we've been going the third period, but once we did the whole complexion of the game changed. Bob Hamilton had a great day and ran better than he has for two or three games. His running kept us in the game and it seemed only justice that he be the one to throw the winning touchdown pass. In Bill Pohl we have a boy who once fired a tremendous shot in the air to inspiration to the rest of the club. He is a vicious runner and really knocked people down in crucial situations.

Defensively, Don Hubbard had a great day. He was on over the field making tackle after tackle and was the backbone of our defense in that second half. I was especially pleased with our secondary which held Eastern to six completions out of 20 attempts. They picked off five passes and did an outstanding job. Bill Weaver again had a good game. Filling in for Mark Heller, he won't enter the game at safety and did not allow a single completion. He knocked our quarterback and allowed Mike the time needed to hit his receiver.

Looking forward to our Thanksgiving game, I would say that we must play our very best game of the year in order to beat South Catholic. (Action begins at 11 o'clock). South has beaten Fenwick and North-West Catholic, two of the four teams we have lost to. They have a real good runner in Ray Smith, who must be contained. Bud Slattery, their passer, is effective when given time. This week we will concentrate on our offensive running and passing game and concentrate next Monday and Tuesday to prepare for our final tilt. We have been getting better in the past two games simply because we have not been waiting and letting things happen but making them happen by playing aggressive football. This is the time to come up with that one great big team effort and we will be playing our 11 toughest, hardest hitting ball players come Turkeyday.

He was expected to die within a few days. The hospital reported his condition remained critical. Rickey was struck while making a speech accepting membership in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

Notre Dame Set to Test No. 1 Eleven

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan State, rolling along week after week as the nation's No. 1 college football team, faces its biggest challenge in a decade Saturday against the undefeated, undefeated Notre Dame. The game is one of three big ones on tap this weekend involving two members of the Top Ten and each of national importance. They are Notre Dame-Michigan State, Arkansas-Texas Tech and Southern California-UCLA.

Michigan State, returned as the nation's No. 1 team in the regular season. Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters today, is 9-0 for Michigan State and 1-1 for Notre Dame. Michigan State's victory over the Spartans beat Notre Dame in their last game of the season, the national championship is almost assured.

But Notre Dame, ranked fourth in the country and '71, also has national championship possibilities and possibly could vault to No. 1 spot with a decisive victory over Michigan State. Michigan State whipped Indiana 27-0 and Notre Dame took a 17-0 lead in the second quarter. Michigan State's offense is led by quarterback Archie Manning, 17, for 17, Mike did a wonderful job and moved the offense. John Mackey, who led some heavy running as well as Joe Robbie, who became a tremendous receiver to the rest of the club. He is a vicious runner and really knocked people down in crucial situations.

Coach Could No Longer Stand Frustrations of Losing Year

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL (AP) — Norm Van Brocklin, whose all-conference drive to win made it seemingly impossible for him to accept defeat, decided Monday that he could no longer stand the frustrations of losing.

He told the Minnesota Vikings he was quitting immediately as head coach, with five games of the National Football League season remaining. The Vikings tried today to talk him out of it, but it was regarded as a less than 50-50 chance that they would have any success.

The Chicago Tribune reported today that Van Brocklin accepted General Manager Jim Finks to come to his home at midnight Monday after earlier refusing to meet with club officials.

In a dispatch from Minnesota, the Tribune said Finks and Van Brocklin had conferred early today but both were unavailable for comment.

The paper disclosed that "an old football associate of Van Brocklin told the Tribune the coach had reconsidered his action and was ready to resume charge of the Viking driftdogs."

The volcanic Dutchman, who was one of professional football's greatest quarterbacks for 12 years with the Los Angeles Rams and Philadelphia Eagles, said Sunday's 41-21 Viking loss to Baltimore "was the last straw."

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Will Jim Brown stay in football as a coach? Maybe? "I've had thoughts about many jobs," Brown said. "I'm keeping an open mind. If anyone shows interest in me as a coach I certainly would consider the opportunity."

The Cleveland Browns' fullback who received a standing ovation at the weekly touchdown club luncheon Monday, has said he plans to play through the 1966 season, then retire.

Asked if he wanted to go out on top, Brown answered, "I guess everybody feels that way. There are a lot of things I'm involved with. I'd like to win a title this year and again next year, then retire."

The Browns stand a good chance of winning the Eastern Conference championship this season and defend their National Football League title. The Browns (7-2) has a two-game edge over the St. Louis Cardinals (6-4).

Brown, who holds nine of the NFL rushing records and is second in four others, said at the weekly club luncheon Monday that he would play for the championship.

"I'm a free ball player able to utilize all my abilities," he said. "I like to catch the football. I'm being used as a receiver. I'm able to talk to coaching staff. I'm able to coach."

Brown has been an unofficial tutor on the Browns' line this season with line coach Eric Heiser.

If the Browns do win the conference, he would bring experience on Oltie's part as a receiver. Heiser tried to hit an iron rebar through the West end zone.

Harry Jacobs, Yale frosh receiver, substituted for Carmen Casper, who was wrapped up in getting ready for Harvard, and predicted a real donnybrook.

The 243 isn't a Dartmouth record, however. The 1914 team piled up 369 points in nine games.

The council also took a show-down vote on its controversial declaration deploring all non-section stress conjugal love in marriage as an element important to the world but as a physical expression of mutual love between husband and wife. The document affirms that teaching on birth control leaves the way open for changes in that teaching.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Members of a teen-age rocket club in Jacksonville have built a missile they say will travel 1,200 miles an hour and soar to 60,000 feet. "The trouble is, they can't prove it," said the deputy commander of a government rocket missile site. So far though, they have received no encouragement. "I can't see why, within this whole nation, we can't get somebody to help us," said Dave Witte, 18, president of the Morgan Amateur Rocket Society. Witte says the group needs a range with a radius of at least 10 miles "because we have a destructive device" in event of a malfunction. It has launched 40 smaller rockets on a site south of here. He said the deputy commander of a government rocket missile site. So far though, they have received no encouragement.
