Warning!

HARTFORD (AP)—The State Health Department has issued a warning to homeowners to take special care in preparing the stuffing for Thanksgiving turkeys.

The department said in a recent bulletin, "stuffing can be a potential cause of poisoning" because poultry stuffing containing giblets, oyster butter and raw egg is "a perfect medium for the growth of bacteria."

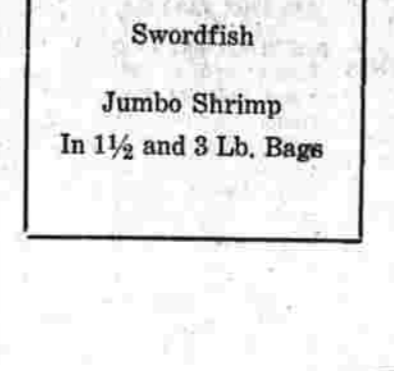

Police suggest utensils and hands be kept clean and stuffed immediately before the turkey is put in the oven.

Firemen Battle Spectacular Block-Long Fire in Akron Business District

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Firemen fought a two-story brick structure for five hours in a block-long business and apartment building today. An elderly woman was killed and two firemen were missing.

Firemen led 15 to 20 persons to safety down a stairway at the two-story brick structure. Others were lifted from upstairs windows and carried down ladders.

The roof of the building collapsed, and a fire Chief Gerald Vornatzky lapsed about 3 a.m. to 20 minutes after two policemen first saw clouds of black smoke pouring from a store room.

The building is on a main street five miles from downtown Akron and a block from the big Good-year Tire & Rubber Co. plant. It is in one of the city's oldest business sections.

The dead woman was identified as Margaret Barb, 76. She died before reaching Akron City Firemen hospital.

Firemen missing were Lawrence L. Labe and John Nish, both assigned today for 100 yards from the scene of the fire.

They were bringing people out, said Vornatzky. "They went back in, and nobody saw them again," he said.

One apartment resident, William Williams, 50, said he was awakened by someone yelling fire.

L. H. Noble, 65, retired and a resident in the building about six months, said he thought he was the last one out.

All firemen on duty and a dozen fire trucks were sent to the corner and then went back to their quarters.

The cause of the fire was not determined in the early stages. Several explosions were heard probably from paint and other volatile materials.

Policemen Don Beaufort and Glen Starbush saw the fire, ran to the fire station around the corner and then went back accompanied by several firemen and began kicking doors down.

Streets near the building were closed off, creating a morning traffic jam.

McDonnell Strike On; Gemini 7 Delay Seen

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—McDonnell Aircraft Corp. machinists established a picket line here today and space agency officials predicted possible postponement of the Dec. 4 launching of Gemini 7 if the men do not return to work this weekend.

Delay in launching the Gemini 7 spacecraft also would put off the companion Gemini 8 launching, scheduled nine days later.

"We'll arrange the work schedules so we can do those things now that don't require a great number of technicians, but I don't see how we can go through this weekend and still stay on schedule," said a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Nearly all 255 machinists working for McDonnell Aircraft Corp. here, prime contractor for the Gemini spacecraft, walked off the job today. They set up a picket line at one gate to the Cape Kennedy area.

Both NASA and McDonnell declined to say how many men would return to work.

Bolton Area Democrats Endorse Revised State Constitution

The Bolton County Democratic Association went on record last night as favoring the adoption of the revised state constitution scheduled to go before the voters on Dec. 14. It also voted disapproval of a second constitutional question affecting only the state's power of eminent domain.

The vote, on a motion offered by Stephen Lynam of Coventry, followed a description of the constitutional proposals and their background by Atty. Gen. Charles Tarpinian of Willimantic.

The association met in Bolton's Community Hall. The meeting was attended by representatives from Vernon, Hebron, Mansfield, Coventry, Andover, and Tolland, and was presided over by association president William A. DeLoach of Bolton.

Atty. Tarpinian, who was a Tolland County delegate to the Constitutional Convention, gave the reasons why he thought the proposed constitution should be rejected.

Some of the opposition points and Atty. Tarpinian's answers are as follows: 1. Some opponents object that the constitutional changes result in the reapportionment of the House of Representatives as being "rammed down the state's throat" by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Changes in the basis of representation in the House were ordered by a special panel of federal judges last year as a result of a Supreme Court ruling that all state legislators must be elected from districts of approximately equal population.

Atty. Tarpinian replies that the United States, the Supreme Court ruling that the final authority on the law of the land is the U.S. Supreme Court.

Woman's Allure Not Predicated Solely on Age

Whether or not a woman is sexy doesn't always depend on her age. That was the decision Thursday of the State Board Against Discrimination, which usually concerns itself with weightier racial matters.

After due consideration, the board decided that "young women are not sexy" is not a condition of employment. It is not strictly an age condition, although it is a condition that older women, as a class, may find more difficult to meet.

Atty. Tarpinian said he opposes the second constitutional question as a matter of government to prove necessity before taking public land. The constitution already provides protection for citizens against arbitrary taking of private land.

Atty. Tarpinian said he was at first disturbed himself by the loss of town representation in the State House of Representatives, but that study of the reasons for the change convinced him they were proper.

Sheinwold on Bridge

It is not fair to say that the bridge was built to last for forty years. The answer may lie in a bridge hand, as to the hand played last September at the European Championships.

Viet Nam Students Seek To Build Better Country

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Most of the college students in Viet Nam have never known their country at peace. They have been instrumental in bringing down two governments and they are a factor any regime has to reckon with.

Thousands of restless students staged an anti-government demonstration last August in Hue. For four successive days, about 5,000 students held meetings. They denounced the chief of state, Nguyen Van Thieu, as an incompetent and called for a return to civilian rule.

The demonstrations ended peacefully. In November 1963, students sided with Buddhists in the crisis that led to the death of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

These are the students most likely to dismiss antiwar demonstrators as being a disruptive influence whose actions had set back the war against the Viet Cong.

Friday, November 19... Henry A. Wallace was as President Johnson to accurately put it, "an original American voice."

What was wrong with him, in almost everything but in his breeding of hybrid corn seed, was that he let the gushing emotions of his great and good heart turn the functioning of his brain soft and mushy.

When this man of great good would find the world resting the simple Christian formulas for trying to deal with its enemies, and he thus found he couldn't change his own side of the world, his being rushed off into an impetuous effort to change the nature of the other side of the world, just by willing it so, or by saying and believing it was so.

Picket Line Established At The Cape

NASA officials at first stated that weekend work schedules had been established which would permit the Gemini flight to hold its Dec. 4 launch date at least until Monday. Later they modified that position.

Otherwise, the space agency said, "the overall impact is very small" on construction of the Cape Kennedy area.

Government officials said everyone appeared to be on the job, with the exception of the McDonnell machinists.

The government minimized the work stoppage effect by entering all McDonnell employees into the Cape Kennedy area through the south gate at the neighboring Merritt Island airport.

This permitted the union to picket only that gate, allowing 5,000 union construction employees and union members with other aerospace firms to go to work through other gates without crossing the picket lines.

The strike here was ordered by the International Association of Machinists' Dist. 9 in at Louis, Mo., which is locked in contract negotiations at McDonnell's main plant there.

NASA said some McDonnell technicians came to work today despite the strike, setting that work schedule to be set that way through the weekend. The technicians work on the Gemini spacecraft.

A final systems test was to start on the Gemini 7 spacecraft today and last through Saturday. New power-producing fuel cells were replaced in the spacecraft Thursday.

A decision on whether to postpone the shot for two days may be made after the fuel cells have been checked. The decision would be based on operation of the cells and would not be connected with the strike.

If Gemini 7 is delayed, the companion Gemini 6 flight also would be postponed. Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford are to be launched nine days after Gemini 7, the two space ships are to fly in formation within a few feet of one another.

Union and McDonnell negotiators met in Washington with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in an attempt to settle the strike that began last midnight.

The Washington meeting was called by Director William E. Skirvin of the Mediation Service, but he did not get back from the west coast trip in time for the start. Walter Maggioni, an assistant, sat in.

Maggioni said the White House had expressed hope for a quick settlement and other government officials had voiced a sense of urgency. A government spokesman said the prospect was for round-the-clock bargaining.

Glavin said "We'll do all our power to reach a settlement," but added it was impossible to say how long it might take.

Moving of Police Facilities From Former Rockette Police Headquarters To The Vernon Public Safety Building Scheduled To Be Completed Today

The decision to move to the safety building was made by Mayor Thomas McCusker and Director of Administration Jay Ellinger after reconsideration of a recommendation that the two departments be consolidated in the Rockville building, the former city hall. It was found this building did not meet the requirements and most of the building would not be suitable for the police and fire departments. The new building is being built on the site of the former city hall.

McCusker says he is now contemplating moving all of the administrative offices out of the Memorial Building, Park Administration Building, and the superintendent of schools, who is in need of added administrative space.

Putting all of the town offices in the Memorial Building will make for crowded conditions, however, and considerable study will have to be made before a final decision is reached.

Amulance Service — In an effort to provide 24-hour service, the Vernon ambulance corps will combine forces with the Ellington corps beginning Dec. 1.

Several weeks ago the board of representatives approved a charter schedule for the Vernon unit with 10 now being charged for residents to go to the hospital. A charge of $1 per mile will be made for greater distances.

Non-residents are now charged $20 per trip and the ambulance aide is paid $12 per hour for each hour they are actually in the vehicle.

Calls will be received at a central dispatching office at the Vernon police station, and will be transferred to the correct station.

The Vernon Young Democrats will meet tonight at 8 p.m. in the club room, Salis St., to elect officers.

The refreshment committee includes Dorothy Yenko, Anita Marcinka, Emily Rudinsky and Sylvia Le Zer.

Travelogue Chaired — The travelogue, sponsored by the Adult Evening School, and usually held Tuesday at the Franklin Park Recreation Hall, will be held Monday of next week instead.

Patrol leaders and members were introduced to the audience and usually held Tuesday at the Franklin Park Recreation Hall, will be held Monday of next week instead.

Adoption of Proposition Two, however, in changing the wording of the eminent domain provision could result in long and expensive delays in completing necessary public projects," the council said.

Archbishop Hannan had to get at least one-third of the bishops to vote with reservations to ensure consideration of his proposals by the council's drafting commission. All council documents must be approved by a two-thirds majority, thus permitting a third of the bishops to block any council action.

The acceptance vote on the religious liberty declaration cleared the way for its promulgation as a Church decree by Pope Paul VI in a public session the day before the council ends Dec. 8.

Bolton Board Will Delay Hearing On DeQuattro Zone Change

The zoning board decided last night to postpone a hearing on the DeQuattro zone change scheduled for Dec. 1 on a request for a zone change and extension on property bounded by Clark Rd., Camp Meeting Rd. and a portion of Pines Rd. John DeQuattro has requested a change from single dwelling to multiple dwelling with an increase in the amount of business zone for the property.

The hearing has been postponed because the zoning board will first refer the proposal to the planning commission and to the state highway department. The planning commission must be notified of any proposed zone changes, because Clark Rd. is state Rt. 85, zoning board members said they ought to check on the highway department's plan to widen the road, and also on the proximity of the proposed Rt. 85 relocation.

Donald Todoroff, zoning board chairman, reported that the state will proceed with the acquisition of land in patients' rooms. John Barnini of Manchester Barnini had requested a permit to build a motel behind A1a Station on Rt. 6, 644A. The plan was referred to the state highway commission, who also referred the plan to the state highway department. The plan would be partly in the right-of-way for the relocation of Rt. 6. First, the plan would be straight of Bechof Rd. when it turns an abrupt corner and becomes Brandy St.

It was Mr. Todoroff's contention that the land owned by three or four townpeople beyond the town property would be hindering the plan. Mr. Todoroff said that the town council informed him that it is up to the landowner to prove the road was a right-of-way, not up to the town to prove it.

Picket Line Established At Cape Vernon

Moving of police facilities from the new location to the old Headquarters at the Cape Vernon Public Safety Building is scheduled to be completed today.

The decision to move to the new building was made by Mayor Thomas McCusker and Director of Administration Jay Ellinger after reconsideration of a recommendation that the two departments be consolidated in the Rockville building.

The government minimized the work stoppage effect by re-entering all McDonnell employees into the Cape Kennedy area through the South Gate in the neighboring South Gate neighborhood.

The strike here was ordered by the International Association of Machinists' Dist. 9 in St. Louis, Mo., which is locked in contract negotiations at McDonnell's main plant there.

It is bargaining agent for 235 McDonnell employees here, although only about 80 are union members.

Non-residents are now charged $20 per trip and the ambulance aides are paid $2 per hour for each hour they are actually in the vehicle.

Patrol leaders and members were introduced to the audience as well as the new assistants at Franklin Park Recreation Hall.

Justice Department Works To Integrate Jury Boxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Once again the Justice Department is trying to meet the President's demand for "integration of jury boxes." It is just too early to begin discussing the possibilities, one official said, "right now what we've got to do is study the Southern jury system as it is today. And then we're faced with a whole batch of problems in coming up with legislation that will do the job without violating the Constitution."

Two years ago it was sweeping civil rights legislation. Last spring it was a law aimed at integrating the ballot to help Negroes.

And now the object is a bill aimed at having racial discrimination out of the jury box at all levels of the judicial system, from county to federal.

President Johnson ordered the department this week to come up with a measure to present to Congress "clear in its purpose and specific in its aim...to prevent injustice to Negroes at the hands of all-white juries."

High level department sources indicated Attorney General Nicholas B. Katzenbach is "drawing from scratch in his attempt to draw up a bill that will meet the President's demand."

The Justice Department has been working in several suits charging officials in Alabama counties with systematic exclusion of Negroes from juries. But further legislation that would set the limit of federal action in this field.

Under the 1964 Civil Rights Act, the government already has intervened in several suits charging officials in Alabama counties with systematic exclusion of Negroes from juries. But further legislation that would set the limit of federal action in this field.

Some of the problems with which the Justice Department's civil rights attorneys are wrestling as a basis for new legislation is the number of convictions by juries in which Negroes have been excluded.

How can the federal government constitutionally apply a law to state judicial systems in whose county juries the problems occurred by Johnson four years ago.

2. How can it prove beyond a doubt that jury lists have been drawn up systematically to insure that only whites are listed?

3. If a finding of past discrimination in a local jury system is made, what happens to persons still in prison as a result of that jury system?

4. What federal laws can have any real effect on the vast discretion of county jury commissioners?

5. Even if a few Negroes are placed on Southern juries where they have never sat before, what effect—beyond a possible hung jury—can it have in trials in communities where attitudes are hardened against Negroes?

One possibility is that Congress could establish standards for selecting prospective jurors and give the attorney general authority to initiate civil suits if these standards are not met.

The Justice Department has never used the one Reconstruction era law against jury discrimination to prosecute local jury officials.

It has begun investigations under that law and gained victory in some areas. But it is not clear how far it can go as a basis for new legislation.

And it has used the law as a basis for winning reversal of a number of convictions by juries in which Negroes have been excluded.

1. How can the federal government constitutionally apply a law to state judicial systems in whose county juries the problems occurred by Johnson four years ago.

2. How can it prove beyond a doubt that jury lists have been drawn up systematically to insure that only whites are listed?

Observers See China As U.N. Member Soon

UNREED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The 47-47 split in the General Assembly on seating Red China plus wanting support for U. S. demands that a two-thirds vote decide the issue, opened speculation today that admission of Peking will not be barred most longer.

One possibility is that Congress could establish standards for selecting prospective jurors and give the attorney general authority to initiate civil suits if these standards are not met.

Heidi DellaFera Wins DAR Award

An outstanding girl, as shown by being the only female elected to a class officer, Heidi DellaFera represents MHS as regional winner of the DAR Good Citizenship Award for 1966. Heidi was chosen jointly by the members of the faculty and the senior class.

The purpose of this award is to stress the qualities of a good citizen. Dependability, service, personality, self-control, and unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation are basic requirements.

Throughout high school Heidi has been active in the Student Council and cheerleading. She also belongs to the Current School Club and works in the school library as a library page.

Heidi has also been the recipient of the Connecticut Association of Women Deans and Girls' Nation, of Washington, D.C.

Art Students Go on Tour

Thirty-three students from Mrs. Kelson's and Miss Semmens art classes participated in an art appreciation trip on Wednesday to some of outstanding New York City museums. The group, accompanied by Mr. Leonard, left Manchester by bus at 7 a.m. and arrived in New York about four hours later.

The first museum to be toured was the Metropolitan Museum of Art where the students were particularly impressed by Rodan's "The Thinker" and a number of his other works. The next stop was the Guggenheim Museum, where a presentation by Edward Munch was on display. From 2:30 to 4 the students viewed exhibits at the Museum of Modern Art.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to free time in which the students could visit such centers of interest as Contemporary Crafts or the Museum of Primitive Art.

At 7 p.m. the group congregated again at the Museum of Modern Art for the return trip home.

Play Tonight

The doors of Bailey Auditorium will open at 7:20 this evening for the Sock & Buskin presentation of "The Tinty Book." If you've put off till tomorrow what should have been done today, the admission will cost you just a little bit more. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $1. The play which begins at 8:30, is a two-act, ten scene drama, the story of a young girl.

Phil is president of his church group and of Latin Club, a member of the Executive Student Council, and he is recipient of the Table Singers and Student Council, and was recipient of the Tinty Book Prize.

As new secretary, Bob Hamilton will be the main source of all correspondence for commencement activities. This year Bob has done a tremendous job as halfback on the football team and as co-captain of the golf team, as well as a member of the Student Council.

New Teacher

A new face seen in the math department as well as on the football field this year is Mr. Verne Burnett. He is teaching Math IV, Calculus and Algebra II and coaching Jayvee football. Mr. Burnett, after majoring in mathematics, obtained his BA and MA degrees at Trinity College of Hartford. During college he participated in various sports including swimming and baseball, while presently he has extended his interests to such outdoor sports as skiing, fishing, flying and camping.

He served 2 1/2 years in the U.S. Navy during World War II. For nine years he was a television director of professional baseball and football and various television programs in New York and Chicago. Mr. Burnett is presenting his true self showing that there is no stereotyped American.

George's courses include U.S. history, English III, CBA history, English III, CBA chemistry (all honors) and level I algebra and French. He is coach of football, hockey and baseball. It is his belief that an AFS program allows people to understand the differences between them while realizing that they have many interests in common.

It costs $750. to send a student abroad for a summer. This is represented in a country whose culture is different in many ways from our own. Give us a chance.

AFS Committee Seeking Family

The AFS is seeking a host family for next year's foreign exchange student. In order for a family to host this student, they must have a child who is a sophomore or junior in high school and a spare bed for the student. A spare room is not necessary. The family must also be interested in promoting good will and be willing to accept the responsibility of adopting another child for a year.

Any families who are interested are asked to contact Mr. Jay Stager, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Zaglio, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baxter who have had representatives to an organization held last May at Manchester High School. Since last September several additional meetings have also been held. The outcome was a statement of purpose and a constitution drawn up on Monday, Nov. 8 by Maggie Downs of East Catholic High School, John Libera of Cheney Technical High School, and Steven Easton of Manchester High School.

In addition to destroying the mutual apathy between the town and high school students, the proposed committee would also have the purpose of promoting better inter-school relations. To improve town-school

Better Relations Sought Between Schools and Town

A few students saw the need for the improvement of relations between the town government and the local high schools. Such a committee has almost become a reality through events leading up to Monday, Nov. 8.

The students involved in this committee are an organization of every 250 students in a school. The committee would meet once a month for a year. The committee would be voted by any one student from the town and high school. The committee would be represented by two thirds majority in the other student councils and strong support from faculty advisors.

The Human Relations Commission has already expressed approval of the proposed committee. All that remains for the commencement of this new experiment is the ratification by apparently enthusiastic student councils.

Legion of Honor

Sincere, amiable, thoughtful, vivacious are all adjectives which could be used to describe Robin Stachel. Her vibrant personality unobscured by participating in varied activities, making many friends, and helping others.

Robin's courses this year include English IV, French IV, college level math, U.S. History, and Gregg Note-taking. Her diligence and scholarship were rewarded by her election to the National Honor Society. Her leadership capabilities are displayed by her participation in Student Council, and her service is exemplified by being a volunteer "companion" at Mansfield Training School. Her diverse interests include the High School World, Girls' Leadership Club, AFS Committee, Current Affairs Club, and Junior GOP. Robin has also taken on the task of teaching a lively fifth grade Sunday school class.

The freshness and vitality found by the ocean hold a certain charm for Robin. Her future plans include six years of college, with the intention of becoming a social worker. She has served in the Peace Corps and then traveled the world.

In her limited spare time, Robin enjoys listening to Johnny Mathis and listening to the radio. She also enjoys walking, and sports. She is partial to the color green, beaches, apples, scooters, Mashed Potatoes, and dislikes conceived people.

Until future aspirations can be fulfilled, Robin will work at 60 Cambridge St. with her parents, a sister, a brother, a dog, Tammy, and two Siamese cats.

Students who expect to graduate with Robin will be glad to state she has earned 11 1/2 credits by the end of the 1966 semester. She is planning to be a member of a senior honorarium next year.

Candidates Chosen For Program Abroad

You arrive. There is your Hindi family waiting to greet you. You remember some scattered phrases from the language you were sent — "vegetarian," "strictly supervised life," "opportunity to learn much about the Hindu religion and village life in India." You smile, and a whole new world begins for you.

This is one of many experiences which students participating in the AFS program will have. The program offers high school and college students a chance to live in a foreign country with host families. Schools wishing to participate in the program submit two candidates to the National AFS Committee in New York, which will then select one or neither of the candidates.

Two candidates have been selected from MHS from the more than 20 applicants from the junior class. These candidates are Jill Horton and George Brannan. They were chosen by a committee composed of Mrs. Robert Beach, Mr. Robert MacMillan (both of whom have acted as hosts), Mr. Arthur Gleason, Miss Catherine Putnam and Ariene LaPenta, last summer's AFS student. Miss Putnam discussed the qualifications which were taken into consideration in making the choice: Academic record, variety of interests, health, adaptability, maturity, responsibility, personality, self-control, and unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation are basic requirements.

Throughout high school Heidi has been active in the Student Council and cheerleading. She also belongs to the Current School Club and works in the school library as a library page.

Heidi has also been the recipient of the Connecticut Association of Women Deans and Girls' Nation, of Washington, D.C.

Booters Lose To McMahon 1-0 in Finals

"You fellows played a fine game. I'm proud of everyone of you."

These were the words first expressed by Coach Dick Danelson to his disheartened soccer men as they silently walked to the bus trip home. Coached by McMahon in individual skill, Manchester fought back hard with a determination and teamwork that earned the team a great respect from friend and foe alike.

The 1-0 defeat to Norwalk finished Big Red's season with a 12-1 record — outstanding from any point of view. With veteran forward line and a OCLL title to defend, Manchester is going to be a top contender again next season.

The game tested the Indian defense with a tremendous amount of constant pressure as manifested by the fact that 26 shots were recorded by McMahon as against 10 by Manchester. However, it wasn't until 3 minutes had elapsed into the third quarter that John Solman managed a shot into the net for the only score of the game.

The strong defensive unit continually shattered seemingly certain scoring drives throughout the game. Outstanding on defense were goalie Ron Ferguson, '66; fullbacks Chet Kobliasky, '66, and Jeff Stuck, '66; and halfbacks David Brady, '66 and Bruce Hines, '66.

The Manchester High School soccer team is a proud, closely knit unit. They are proud of each other and proud of their coach and they also are proud of their school. What will next year bring? Perhaps it will be another OCLL title and even state championship.

Indian Win Indian Goal

The crowd roared as number 70 yards for a touchdown! This was Bill Palmer's most memorable moment in his three years, two of them as a varsity member, playing football at MHS.

The tall, broad-shouldered end is an excellent defensive as well as offensive player, and his name is often read in newspaper reviews of well-played games.

Bill is best known to his football ability, but he possesses a studious side seldom seen because of his modesty. One may deduce from his schedule and college level math 5 (calculus), that he loves math and clear in the end zone. The easy score was the result of a hard fought defensive play. About to be tackled in his own end zone, the Eastern quarterback threw a desperation pass which was plucked out of the air by tackle John DellaFera who took it over for a score.

With a share of the OCLL title in plain sight, a goal not accomplished since 1953, Manchester entertains a tough Windham "Thanksgiving" morning. The win will give the OCLL title. Since this is the last time the 1966 edition of the football team will be played all over the world, as lowly support is expected.

Twenty-nine Boys Participated in 'Don Carlos' at Bushnell

On Thursday night, Nov. 4, Yardi's opera, "Don Carlos," was presented at the Bushnell in Hartford by the Connecticut Opera Association. Featured in this opera were international opera stars and, in addition, 29 male members of the Manchester High School choir and band in the roles of prisoners.

Thirty-three students from Mrs. Kelson's and Miss Semmens art classes participated in an art appreciation trip on Wednesday to some of outstanding New York City museums. The group, accompanied by Mr. Leonard, left Manchester by bus at 7 a.m. and arrived in New York about four hours later.

The first museum to be toured was the Metropolitan Museum of Art where the students were particularly impressed by Rodan's "The Thinker" and a number of his other works. The next stop was the Guggenheim Museum, where a presentation by Edward Munch was on display. From 2:30 to 4 the students viewed exhibits at the Museum of Modern Art.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to free time in which the students could visit such centers of interest as Contemporary Crafts or the Museum of Primitive Art.

At 7 p.m. the group congregated again at the Museum of Modern Art for the return trip home.

Exciting Games For State Elevens

The 1965 Connecticut college football season ends Saturday on what promises to be an exciting note.

Four contests are being played, all in the state, among them THE GAME, another way of saying the Harvard-Yale confrontation at New Haven, and the civil war starting unheated and united Central Connecticut and Southern Connecticut at New Britain.

Helped by these are the Holy Cross-University of Connecticut battle at Storrs and the Montclair State-University of Bridgeport bombing at Bridgeport.

The schedule (all games start at 1:30 p.m.):

Harvard-Yale, New Haven 10:30 a.m.

SCSOCS, New Britain

Holy Cross-Conn. Storrs

Montclair-UB, Bridgeport

More than 55,000 Blues and Crimson, old and new, are expected in the Yale Bowl for the 82nd meeting of the traditional rivals. Third place in the Ivy League is the prize. Princeton best both to win the Big Three crown.

Yale is 3-3 in the league and Harvard is 5-2. Overall statistics favor the Crimson, but in the holy of holies figures often lie. Yale has more on its list of wounded.

But, in the final analysis, the outcome could hinge on who has a better day between the two quarterbacks, Yale's Watta Humphrey and Harvard's John McChaskey. The contest is being televised regionally over NBC Central Connecticut (7.0) faces its toughest test of the campaign from Southern Connecticut (6.3), which has played a rougher schedule.

To post its first perfect record, Coach Bill Lotka's lads must handoff SCOC's star half-back, Dick Noecker. The junior from Waterbury has gained 2,000 yards in the past two seasons, 1,038 yards this season.

HUNTING and FISHING Four Major Football Games Dominate Last Full Week

Others with pride, prestige and tradition the principal factors that make the fewest for at state, are Duke and North Carolina, Indiana and Purdue, Northwestern and Illinois, Oregon and Oregon State, Pitt and Penn State.

None, however, quite compares with the big four: Harvard's 3 with an 8.1 mark; the winner gets the best spot in the Cotton Bowl against an opponent to be determined.

MICHIGAN STATE — Michigan State is ranked first in the nation with a 9.0 record and has a 10-0 record in the Rose Bowl. Notre Dame is ranked fourth with a 7.1 mark and has a policy prohibiting bowing.

The winner probably will have the inside track to the national championship, determined by The Associated Press poll following the New Year's bowl games.

Michigan State's chief scout, Bert Smith, summarizes the game like this:

"They have a big, tough team with a lot of speed and power. They're much like our team — good passing and running and strong on rushing defense. I think the game will go to the winner almost certainly."

The games between Arkansas and Texas Tech, Southern California and UCLA, and Princeton and Dartmouth share top billing on a Saturday schedule regionally. Bowls, Notre Dame is ranked fourth with a 7.1 mark and has a policy prohibiting bowing.

The other regionally televised games are Missouri-Kansas, Harvard-Yale and Ohio State-Michigan.

The traditional games include Kentucky and Tennessee, each hoping for a bowl bid, and Washington-Washington State with State still technically in the running for a Rose Bowl berth with the traditional cross-over Southern California.

Salute to Christian Saturday

Salute to J. O. Christian, director of athletics at the University of Connecticut, will feature the halftime band show at Saturday's UConn-Holy Cross football game at Memorial Stadium. A special musical salute has been prepared by Alan Gillespie, director of the excellent UConn Marching Band. Christian will step down from his UConn position at the end of the academic year.

Former players and captains, including Mario Frattoni of Manchester, will observe a special section in the stands Saturday along with Christian.

Following the game, excerpts from the book "The Making of a Coach" taken during Christian's reign as head in football (1934-1949) will be shown in the field house. The book was written by Tom Gould, who was here in the 19-14 win over Princeton in a one-touchdown victory, scored nine touchdowns in leading the team scoring parade. Brown University captured the Ivy League soccer championship with a perfect 6-0 record. Ed Zaglio of Manchester and Mark DeLora of Storrs helped the Bruins triumph. Dick Giardi of East Hartford is slated to go both ways for the Hawks against UConn at Storrs, UConn will play the Hawks at Storrs, UConn will play the Hawks at Storrs, UConn will play the Hawks at Storrs.

Toughest Job in Majors for Wes Westrum

Signs One Year Pact With Mets

NEW YORK (AP)—Wes Westrum, who once was told to pass up a managerial job because it was too easy to fire him, has slipped into possibly the toughest managerial job in the majors by becoming Casey Stengel's successor with the New York Mets.

Not only does Westrum have to follow the popular Stengel but he also must overcome the task of getting the Mets out of the National League cellar, a position they have held virtually without challenge in their four years' existence.

Westrum, the Mets' interim manager since Stengel's "fractured" resignation, was named to the job last July 29, after Stengel was charged with molesting a minor league player. Stengel was fired after a 1-10 record in 1964.

Westrum, 36, is a former major league player who played for the Boston Red Sox, Philadelphia Phillies and Los Angeles Dodgers. He was a .250 hitter in 1961 and 1962.

Westrum was named manager of the San Francisco Giants' farm club in Tacoma. The former infielder (who's owner) told him it would be too easy to fire him in that job. So he stayed with the Giants as a coach.

In all, Westrum spent six seasons in the minors, then moved over to the Mets and became interim manager in his second year in 1964. He was named manager of the club in 1965.

Westrum said he was "brought up as a manager of the San Francisco Giants' farm club in Tacoma. The former infielder (who's owner) told him it would be too easy to fire him in that job. So he stayed with the Giants as a coach."

In all, Westrum spent six seasons in the minors, then moved over to the Mets and became interim manager in his second year in 1964. He was named manager of the club in 1965.

Met King Furnell Files to Run Here

Foot of Snow Grets Ski Enthusiasts

Top dog among college runners in New York collegiate ranks during the 1965 cross country season, Larry Furnell will lead six members of the St. John's University into town Thanksgiving morning to compete in the 28th annual Five Mile Road Race. Coach Steve Bacchola of the Redmen entered two teams today, bringing the entry list to 125 for the holiday trial.

Furnell, a 26-year-old army veteran, was undefeated in dual meets with St. John's during the season and then edged the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Championship to his list of conquests. Although a pre-race favorite in the ICAA Cross of snow in some areas today and efforts were being pushed to get new equipment ready for the on-rushing season.

A heavy snowfall, which centered in Vermont's Green Mountains, also swept into New Hampshire's White Mountains to provide what resort operators called an excellent early-season snow base in years I don't want to jeopardize jobs by opening too early and early Wednesday but generally the trails were being packed to preserve the base. The diminutive collegian will be high up among the finishers and certainly one of the pre-race favorites.

St. John's since Pete Close, of Manchester, graduated and went on to greater heights with the United States Olympic team. St. John's is now coached at Mt. Mansfield in Vermont. The latter, Mt. Rowe at Gilford and Spruce Knob in Jackson. They'll be joined by other teams in 1965, bringing the number of overland lifts and tramways to Main St., opposite School St.

Several established areas have added new lifts. Black Mountain in Jackson has added a double chair; Cannon Mountain in Templeton has added a double chair; Cannon Mountain in Templeton has added a double chair; Cannon Mountain in Templeton has added a double chair.

Two Races Set In Middletown

Middletown—A record entry is expected in the two races at the seventh annual J. Fred Martin cross country runs at Wesleyan University, Andrus Field, Sunday, at 2 p.m. sponsored by the Middletown Recreation Department. Targets for the day will be the 2.7 mile schoobly mark of 13:47.1 set by Ray Crothers, now of Central Connecticut State in 1960. More than 55,000 Blues and Crimson, old and new, are expected in the Yale Bowl for the 82nd meeting of the traditional rivals.

Hope for Patterson—Cassius 3-1 Favorite In Title Bout Monday

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Champion Cassius Clay has been floored three times in his professional career of 21 fights, which may offer a shred of hope for Floyd Patterson to regain the heavyweight title here next Monday.

This may seem to be utter nonsense to the 23-year-old Muhammad Ali, alias Clay, and who has been instrumental in the success of his opponent, Patterson. Clay is in the knockout of 33 fighters in 48 bouts.

Clay says he has faster legs, but I have faster hands and this is not a foot race," said Patterson.

The scene was relatively quiet in the training camps. Clay planned a public drill while Patterson said he would exercise in private. Any serious sparring presumably is completed.

Muhammad has amused his followers with a display of disdain for the ex-champion, Patterson, and he has shocked some of the purists of boxing with his clowning.

But his manager, Angelo Dundee, says:

"The only problem we had was to convince Clay not to take his opponent cheaply. You don't take heavyweight championship fights cheap."

Whatever you might think, Clay isn't taking this one that way."

Princeton Favored, Ivy Title at Stake

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—With an assist from Ron Landeck, Charlie Gogolak and a few others, Coach Dick Colman tries Saturday to duplicate the perfect-season feat of his predecessor when Princeton and Dartmouth clash for the Ivy League football championship.

The Tigers, who are 10-0 on the team with 60 points, placekicker Gogolak has accumulated 79 points in 31 consecutive games. He has 12 field goals and 14 touchdowns in 22 attempts.

Walton is the Indians' leading rusher with 280 yards, carry average of 6.3 per carry and 10 touchdowns. He has 10 touchdowns and 14 field goals in 22 attempts.

But the most versatile Dartmouth player is Ryzewicz, a sophomore who started the season as a second-string quarterback but who since has been running and pass receiving to great effect.

He has averaged 7.5 yards per carry in 230 yards, scored four touchdowns and also is the leader in kick-off returns.

Both teams are in relatively good physical condition, although Princeton will be without its star back, Bobby Wilson, and Dartmouth isn't certain how much defensive end Tom Clarke will be able to play.

Bedell is sidelined by a contusion of the kidney. Clarke is out from an injury to his right foot.

Other than the title contest, four other Ivy teams will meet and their seasons Saturday and Sunday at Columbia and Harvard at Yale. Cornell plays at Penn next Thursday.

Vikings, Bears and Browns Favored in Sunday Contests

NEW YORK (AP)—The heading them 14-10 Oct. 21 with Dutchman won't walk out this week. If the Minnesota Vikings erickson and Steve Thurlow, Baltimore 31, Philadelphia 14. Johnny Unitas may be back. Norm Van Brocklin's comments about losing the big ones the Vikings should come out for sure. Things were tough all over for the hand-picked last week, especially in the AFL, where he added through 6.2. That makes it 42-21 in the NFL, 18-14 in the AFL and 60-35 for the year. Let's try again for Sunday and game should do the job.

THANKSGIVING DAY — Minnesota 24, Green Bay 17 — The Vikings are just about out of it and the Packers trail Baltimore by one game with five to go. Absence of Tommy Mason hurts Minnesota and suggests Packers' chances will be better. Steve Spurrier, But Green Bay's offense is sick with only 18 points in last two games. Chicago 24, Detroit 14 — Rudy Dukes on a hot streak, hit for three TDs earlier in the week. Victory Lions will put heat on Rudy with great pass rush but interception has killed their attack. Terry Barr out for season and Joe Don Looney plays. Bears will miss Mike Pyle in middle line.

THANKSGIVING DAY — San Francisco 34, Los Angeles 21 — Suede Suede doing his best to hold the Rams back with rookies but John Brockington too much for Rams to handle even with Dick Bass back to help attack.

THANKSGIVING DAY — Cleveland 24, Dallas 21 — No romp for Browns. The Cowboys are tough to run against even with Jim Brown in the act.

THANKSGIVING DAY — New York 14, St. Louis 13 — It all depends on Charley Johnson, who is hurting again. Giants' Football — South vs. East, seem to have hex on Cards, 31-00 — Mt. Nebel.

Pulford Stars In Leafs' Win

If the Toronto Maple Leafs are having a hard time getting started this season, it certainly hasn't been the fault of Bob Pulford.

The veteran center in his 10th NHL season has been a steady presence in all three goals as the Leafs turned back the Canadiens in Montreal in the only game played Tuesday night.

Pulford and linemate Eddie Shack and Larry Jeffrey collected two assists, all in the third period. Gord also contributed a pair of assists.

Coach Mike Holvick of the Boston Patriots knows exactly how helpful Joe Bellino feels in being to win a berth in the playoffs. Bellino, an American Football League club, Holvick was an All-America player at Cornell College in 1942 and then went into the Navy. After World War II, he joined the Chicago Bears, playing both offense and defense. Bellino, an All-American at Navy in 1940, was released as a Naval aviator.

The Houston Astros drew a 2-1-1 record for their first season in the AFL. The Astros are the second best figure in baseball.
