

Back to Work Congressmen Face Billion Dollar Tasks

Must Pay For War, 'Society'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress returned today and braced for some hard billion-dollar decisions: How much to pump into the war in Viet Nam and how much to further President Johnson's "great society" program at home.

The aides were sunny and a weekend chill was beginning to lift as the second session of the 90th Congress opened for business on Tuesday.

The President, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and several members of Congress began the day by attending services at the National Presbyterian church.

Johnson returned to his desk at the White House while Humphrey went to Capitol Hill to gavel in the Senate.

Johnson has a pretty good idea what Johnson will ask this year, but specifics await his State of the Union message Wednesday night.

It is then that the legislators may have a better idea how the President's peace offensive is progressing, how much money he wants immediately to finance the war — and what effect all this will have on his domestic program.

A further insight into the war may be provided by Secretary of State Dean Rusk when he before the House Foreign Affairs Committee Tuesday and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Wednesday.

On the agenda today was appointment of a select committee.

Cold Causes Six Deaths

BOSTON (AP)—The weatherman promised a breather today after a wild weekend storm blew into New England on gale-force winds, caused at least six deaths and left up to a foot of snow.

Bitter cold set in early yesterday after most of the snow had stopped and temperatures remained near zero in northern New England and in the teens elsewhere early today.

But the arctic air would give way to a rapid rise in temperature throughout New England today, the U.S. Weather Bureau at Boston said.

Ice and hard-packed snow made driving hazardous. One of the deaths attributed to the storm was that of seven-year-old Robert Plummer of Madison, Maine, stranded on a motorized sled that broke down in Smithfield during the storm.

Three companions with him survived. Sledging and plowing equipment was in operation almost continuously in all six New England states late Saturday and early Sunday.

But despite the work of high-

Transit Authority Asks Fine Against Strikers

NEW YORK (AP)—The Transit Authority took financial records into court today in resumed effort to obtain heavy fines against striking subway and bus unions. Meantime, a record number of cars and trucks poured into Manhattan.

The developments came on the 10th day of a crippling, multimillion-dollar strike as negotiators rested from an all-night bargaining session at City Hall.

Even as the weary negotiators were leaving, the rumble of converging traffic was building in Manhattan's canyons. City officials said the commuting millions, with a week's bitter experience behind them, had started earlier on this second week of the strike.

Mayor John V. Lindsay, who had summoned the parties to City Hall late Sunday, signaled the recess when he walked from the hall into freezing temperatures at 8:20 a.m., declaring: "The mediation panel has declared a recess."

He declined further comment, and indicated he would have a statement some time after noon.

Moments later, Lindsay was followed by Douglas L. MacMahon, heading the union bargaining.

India-Pakistan Pact Avoids Major Issues

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (AP)—The leaders of India and Pakistan agreed today to withdraw troops from along their inflamed frontier and work for "normal and peaceful" relations once Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who worked far into Sunday night to persuade his guests to end their week-long conference on a positive note even if they couldn't agree on any major issues.

The troop withdrawal is to take place before Feb. 25, with units on both sides pulling back to positions held prior to Aug. 5. India claims that on Aug. 5 Pakistan started sending infiltrators twice in 17 years but signed a nine-point "Tashkent Declaration" aimed at lessening tension.

Fleeing Viet Cong Duck Allied Units' KO Punch

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The largest U.S. fighting force of the Vietnamese war demolished a honeycomb of Viet Cong fortifications on the edge of the Iron Triangle 25 miles northwest of Saigon today, but the Communists ducked the knockout punch.

Most of the guerrillas kept away from the U.S. and Australian troops as they scorched the Communist stronghold on the third day of Operation Crimp.

Australians operating with the 1st Infantry Division and the 173rd Airborne Brigade uncovered a big weapons cache left by the fleeing Communists. The haul included 47 weapons, five of them crew-size, 114 grenades, 16,000 rounds of small arms ammunition, 68 heavy mortar rounds, 100 pounds of dynamite, 20 tons of rice and a large store of medical supplies.

There were more than 8,000 men in the allied force, but U.S. military spokesmen reported only light contact with the enemy, a regiment-sized force thought to be holed up in the 12 square miles of jungle and marshland.

The spokesman reported 22 Viet Cong killed, 38 captured and 269 suspects, mostly women and children detained. Allied casualties were light, they said.

Elsewhere on the ground, U.S. spokesmen reported few contacts with the enemy. But the air war in the south continued unabated with 281 strike missions against Viet Cong targets by Air Force and carrier planes. Four U.S. planes were lost in the past 24 hours.

A Marine F4B Phantom jet crashed 15 miles southwest of Da Nang because of undetermined causes. The two crewmen bailed out and were picked up by helicopter. One man was wounded.

A C-130 transport carrying fuel caught fire Sunday night after landing at Tay Ninh, 65 miles northwest of Saigon. The crew escaped unhurt but the plane was destroyed.

Other U.S. planes were lost in the past 24 hours.

Some of the tunnels and caves blasted by the U.S. and Australian troops in Operation Crimp dated back to the French Indochina fighting.

Two hundred helicopters lifted the troops into action at dawn Saturday, swarming like locusts over the jungle in the biggest display of whirlybirds of the war. Hidden Communist gunners knocked down two helicopters and mechanical trouble caused a third to crash.

Participating in the operation were units of the 1st Infantry Division, paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade and the Royal Australian Regiment.

Nation Records Fewest Births Over 14 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fewer babies were born in this country during 1965 than in any year since 1931, a Public Health Service spokesman said today.

The spokesman estimated the 1965 total was about 3.8 million. That would compare with a total of 4,027,400 in 1964 and 4,151,000 in 1963.

It became clear months ago that the declining birth rate would result in 1965 being the first year since 1933 in which births would number less than four million.

The spokesman made his estimate for the year in a projection of the figures shown in the October 1965 statistics, made public today.

These showed that during the 28 months ended in October there were an estimated 2,815,000 births, down from 4,048,000 in the preceding 12 months ended with October 1964.

The birth rate for the 28 months ended with October 1965 was 29.7 per 1,000 population, down 7 per cent from the rate of 32.3 in the preceding 12 months.

There were an estimated 315,000 live births in October, giving a birth rate of 29.3. This represented a decrease of 29,000 from the 344,000 in October 1964, when the rate was 31.3.

The monthly report on vital statistics showed that marriage rates increased during October, to 129,000 from 128,000 a year earlier, and the rate per 1,000 population rose 8.4 from 8.2.

The rate of marriages for the 18-month period ending in October shows a consistent increase for the four years for which data are available, from 8.5 for the period ending October 1960 to 9.1 for the current year," the report said.

Sharp Contrast in Hairdos

By RHEA STEWART (Herald Special Writer)

NEW YORK — Ironically, while the New York designers are talking about how soft and gentle and natural we shall be this spring, models showing their clothes to fashion editors attending the American Designer Series are 'got up' as harshly and geometrically as if assembled by some mad scientist.

The hairdo of the day is the angular chop-chop given to the world by Vidal Sassoon, whose name may be unfamiliar to some but whose handiwork once seen is never forgotten. The hair is slicked down across the forehead and over one cheek.

The rest is almost mannish except for a slight fullness at the crown and a triangle of flat hair in front of the other ear. Brunettes look more mannish than blondes in this style, but almost every model wears it.

Some do manage a little softness by making it less sleek than patent leather. The other hairstyle worn by models is so simple it's like Alice in Wonderland.

Well, you need a little contrast to make things interesting, as the lady said when she

This model, wearing a "far-out" Rudi Gernreich black wool mailot, also sports a "Sassoon" hairdo, typical of the style being shown in New York. Some models don't smoke cigars.

Action in Iron Triangle Snipers, Tunnels Slow U.S. Action

VIETNAM (AP) — A lone American spotter plane circled over a mass of Communist tunnels and Viet Cong fighters just south of the Saigon River, and a few American officers knew the mission: to collect intelligence for the biggest and most successful U.S. operation of the war in Viet Nam.

An American combat force of some 4,000 paratroopers, infantrymen and artillerymen was to converge the next morning on this bomb-scarred, triangle-shaped Communist stronghold 12 square miles.

The spotter pilot did not live to see it. A well concealed Viet Cong ambush sniped at the plane. His body was recovered by helicopter.

Just an hour before the huge operation was to begin, the Viet Cong snipers in the area were told what was happening. They were ordered to stay in their positions and wait for the Viet Cong to begin to move.

Three buses, each 30 miles apart, began to converge at midnight. The Viet Cong snipers were ordered to stay in their positions and wait for the Viet Cong to begin to move.

A long column of heavy tanks, armored personnel carriers and trucks loaded with troops of the 1st Infantry Division left the base near Saigon during the night. They headed north to the Viet Cong area.

One Communist sharpshooter with a carbine fired at the lead platoon. A bullet pierced a soldier's helmet, spun around his head and stuck in the helmet liner. The soldier was nearly scalped. With blood streaming down his face, he walked to an ambulance.

Artillery was called against the Viet Cong. The Viet Cong snipers hid in their positions and waited for the Viet Cong to begin to move.

By the end of the day some 200 women, children and old men stood trembling in their wet and muddy clothing. They waited for evacuation to a government-controlled district.

"I really feel sorry for the women and kids," said one GI. "I hope some day they'll understand what we are trying to do here."

All day snipers were heard but not seen. The few civilians that survived to have disappeared mysteriously.

Food was cooking in fireplaces. Bicycles ran about among the troops.

Then a woman was spotted rising out of a tunnel. A soldier dashed toward her and she vanished. Several other soldiers reported that civilians popped in and out of tunnels, and children's footprints led toward them.

Visitors to the Viet Cong area were told that the Viet Cong snipers were ordered to stay in their positions and wait for the Viet Cong to begin to move.

Chaput made use of private tutoring to develop his writing style and has had several articles and short stories published. His autobiography, "Not Too Dumb," was published in 1964. White, 35, became the first American to leave his spacecraft in flight, spending 21 minutes outside Gemini 4 on June 1, a native of San Antonio, Tex. Dine Speaks to Students On Retailing as a Career

Philip Dine, manager of the Retail Division of the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, will speak on "Retailing as a Career" at a special assembly for interested sophomores and juniors tomorrow morning during the X period in Bailey Auditorium of the high school.

A film, "Learning to Earn," which outlines opportunities in the merchandising field, will also be shown.

The program has been planned by Sidney Cohen, occupational coordinator for the town schools, with the help of the administration.

According to Cohen, the assembly will be a first step in selecting pupils in selecting courses in Distributive Education and Salesmanship in their programs of studies for next year.

Offers for students planning to terminate their formal education upon high school graduation, the courses will be restructured next fall after a lapse of about four years of experience. The course in salesmanship will be elective for juniors and will be prerequisite to the course in distributive education, to be taken in the senior year.

For next year only seniors who wish to participate in the program may elect to take the courses concurrently.

Seniors, selecting distributive education will have their schedules arranged so they may attend classes in the morning and hold part-time jobs in local stores during the afternoon, where they will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge of retailing techniques.

The work-study program has been approved by the Board of Commerce and the business men who will be hiring students. Cohen underscored the need by employers for graduates with practical experience in all occupations are in retailing or allied fields.

Two Area Men Appointed To City Study Committee

HARTFORD (AP)—Two Connecticut legislators were named Saturday to a study committee to study the feasibility and need for metropolitan government in Connecticut.

State Sen. Fred J. Doocy, senate president pro tempore, and Rep. J. Tyler Patterson, also announced appointments to two other groups—the Middlesex Bridge and Authority and the Committee to Study Dredging of the Connecticut River.

Doocy and Patterson were authorized by the 1965 session of the General Assembly to name 12 members each to the metropolitan study group.

Included in the appointments were John J. Shea of Manchester, and State Sen. Franklin Welles of Talcottville.

Doocy's appointments included Robert Killam, and William Glynn, both of Hartford; Robert B. Berger of Hazardville; John F. Phelan of Waterbury; Mrs. Rita Kunz of Westport; Joseph Tober, Jr., of Stamford; William Lee Miller of New Haven; Mario Mozillo of East Haven; Selma P. Tamborra of Norwich; Eugene McCabe of New Haven; State Rep. Joseph E. Backley of Ansonia and State Sen. John F. Poole, Jr., of Middletown.

Patterson named State Sen. Morgan McGuire of North Stratford; State Sen. Franklin Welles of Talcottville; State Rep. Thomas P. Dowd Jr., of Trumbull; State Rep. Hugh Jones of Guilford; State Rep. Nicholas A. Lange of West Hartford; Paul Brit of East Hartford; Martin Brooking of Hartford; Mrs. William C. Dunn of East Hartford; W. Parker Dewaley, Jr., of Ridgefield; John H. Piler of Farmington; John Q. Tison, Jr., of Hamden; and John J. Shea of Manchester.

The committee's function is to review the entire field of regional government, which involves towns joining together in a combined government.

It was directed to report a specific long-range program and a schedule of specific recommendations, with a time schedule, to the General Assembly, by Jan. 16, 1967. An appropriation of $50,000 was allocated by the Assembly to cover Commission expenses.

Doocy's appointments to the Middlesex Bridge and Port authority included John W. Bradley of Cromwell; John J. Doody of Farmington; Robert J. Mearns of Durham; and Donald L. Tsey of Middletown.

Patterson named John V. Anderson of Portland; Seward F. Hall of Clinton; Harold Strickland of Middletown; and William Wash of Middletown.

This committee is to study expediency of building a new bridge across the Connecticut River at Middletown and to report findings and recommendations to the General Assembly by next Dec. 31.

Lynd Says Hanoi Doubts Sincerity of Peace Efforts

NEW YORK (AP) — Yale Prof. Staughton Lynd, who made an unauthorized 10-day trip with two others to North Viet Nam, says conversations there convinced him "that many ingredients of an honorable solution exist."

Lynd and Thomas Hayden, a founder of the Students for a Democratic Society, joined in that statement at a news conference as they arrived at John F. Kennedy International Airport Sunday night.

They said North Viet Nam and the Communist National Liberation Front — the Viet Cong — were willing to negotiate a withdrawal of their troops from Viet Nam.

However, the statement said, they appear willing to offer the United States "considerable freedom in choosing how to demonstrate by concrete steps that this decision has been made."

The statement said the Hanoi regime doubts the sincerity of U.S. peace efforts and questions U.S. aims in South Viet Nam.

"The North Vietnamese do not trust an offer to negotiate unconditionally," it added.

"They wonder if the United States is searching for peace or mainly attempting to soften its image before the negative public opinion abroad and at home," Lynd and Hayden said.

"We are going to be sure that the United States has finally announced any plan to make South Viet Nam a military base for the United States in Southeast Asia."

"They want to know if the United States has clearly decided that Viet Nam should be united rather than partitioned," they said.

Lynd and Hayden said they talked with Premier Pham Van Dong of North Viet Nam who told them the United States had not contacted Hanoi directly nor contacted North Vietnamese ambassadors in other capitals since President Johnson spoke of knocking on any door Dec. 20.

"The ones with whom we spoke in (North) Viet Nam, it appears that the United States knocks on all doors except the door of whom it is fighting," they said.

The Premier also denied there were any North Viet Nam troops in South Viet Nam, they said.

About 80 persons at the airport met Lynd, 36, Hayden, 26, and Herbert Aptheker, 50, a theoretician for the Communist party who also made the trip.

The trio defied a State Department ban on travel to North

Draft to Press College Students

FT. STUART, Ga. (AP) — A meeting here over the weekend held varying views on how to fill higher draft quotas, but several agreed it was going to get tougher for the college student.

"We're going to have to put the screws on the students," said Tennessee Director Arnold Johnson, who will make a tour of students of good soldiers out of their schools.

He said draft needs will have to be met through a tightening of college deferments and lowering requirements. He said Tennessee ordered its first married men called up this month.

"I think we all recognize the benefits to the nation of leaving men in college as long as we can," said Lt. Gen. Edward W. Weir, Louisiana director. "We will make every effort to be sure that we are running out of manpower."

He said it is necessary to re-examine deferments for college students.

North Carolina Director William H. McCaughren said his state has been relatively tight on student classifications "and we are getting tighter."

He said his office is considering a plan to grant deferments only to students making enough hours to graduate within a normal period. "That will take care of fifth and sixth year boys in college," he said.

Alabama Director Glenn Currie and Georgia's Director Harry O. Smith, also said they favored calling all available 1Y men before college students.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hersey, director of the Selective Service, met with directors from Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Puerto Rico in the first of three regional conferences.

"This is not a decision conference," Hersey said of the closed-door session. He said a decision on increased manpower needs for Viet Nam will be made after two other regional conferences.

Chalkley, a native of Washington, D.C., was a former agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He owned an automobile agency in Carrollton, Ga., where he and the actress lived.

They were married in 1967, three years after Miss Hayward's divorce from actor John Barker. Chalkley was divorced from his first wife in 1960.

Now, workers are drawing the dead tree with critical form a government in cooperation with the report, replacing Smith's regime. However, news dispatches and reports of some said City Manager Joe Ladd political observers suggest that

Two Area Men Appointed To City Study Committee

HARTFORD (AP)—Two Connecticut legislators were named Saturday to a study committee to study the feasibility and need for metropolitan government in Connecticut.

State Sen. Fred J. Doocy, senate president pro tempore, and Rep. J. Tyler Patterson, also announced appointments to two other groups—the Middlesex Bridge and Authority and the Committee to Study Dredging of the Connecticut River.

Doocy and Patterson were authorized by the 1965 session of the General Assembly to name 12 members each to the metropolitan study group.

Included in the appointments were John J. Shea of Manchester, and State Sen. Franklin Welles of Talcottville.

Doocy's appointments included Robert Killam, and William Glynn, both of Hartford; Robert B. Berger of Hazardville; John F. Phelan of Waterbury; Mrs. Rita Kunz of Westport; Joseph Tober, Jr., of Stamford; William Lee Miller of New Haven; Mario Mozillo of East Haven; Selma P. Tamborra of Norwich; Eugene McCabe of New Haven; State Rep. Joseph E. Backley of Ansonia and State Sen. John F. Poole, Jr., of Middletown.

Patterson named State Sen. Morgan McGuire of North Stratford; State Sen. Franklin Welles of Talcottville; State Rep. Thomas P. Dowd Jr., of Trumbull; State Rep. Hugh Jones of Guilford; State Rep. Nicholas A. Lange of West Hartford; Paul Brit of East Hartford; Martin Brooking of Hartford; Mrs. William C. Dunn of East Hartford; W. Parker Dewaley, Jr., of Ridgefield; John H. Piler of Farmington; John Q. Tison, Jr., of Hamden; and John J. Shea of Manchester.

The committee's function is to review the entire field of regional government, which involves towns joining together in a combined government.

It was directed to report a specific long-range program and a schedule of specific recommendations, with a time schedule, to the General Assembly, by Jan. 16, 1967. An appropriation of $50,000 was allocated by the Assembly to cover Commission expenses.

Doocy's appointments to the Middlesex Bridge and Port authority included John W. Bradley of Cromwell; John J. Doody of Farmington; Robert J. Mearns of Durham; and Donald L. Tsey of Middletown.

Patterson named John V. Anderson of Portland; Seward F. Hall of Clinton; Harold Strickland of Middletown; and William Wash of Middletown.

This committee is to study expediency of building a new bridge across the Connecticut River at Middletown and to report findings and recommendations to the General Assembly by next Dec. 31.

Lynd Says Hanoi Doubts Sincerity of Peace Efforts

NEW YORK (AP) — Yale Prof. Staughton Lynd, who made an unauthorized 10-day trip with two others to North Viet Nam, says conversations there convinced him "that many ingredients of an honorable solution exist."

Lynd and Thomas Hayden, a founder of the Students for a Democratic Society, joined in that statement at a news conference as they arrived at John F. Kennedy International Airport Sunday night.

They said North Viet Nam and the Communist National Liberation Front — the Viet Cong — were willing to negotiate a withdrawal of their troops from Viet Nam.

However, the statement said, they appear willing to offer the United States "considerable freedom in choosing how to demonstrate by concrete steps that this decision has been made."

The statement said the Hanoi regime doubts the sincerity of U.S. peace efforts and questions U.S. aims in South Viet Nam.

"The North Vietnamese do not trust an offer to negotiate unconditionally," it added.

"They wonder if the United States is searching for peace or mainly attempting to soften its image before the negative public opinion abroad and at home," Lynd and Hayden said.

"We are going to be sure that the United States has finally announced any plan to make South Viet Nam a military base for the United States in Southeast Asia."

"They want to know if the United States has clearly decided that Viet Nam should be united rather than partitioned," they said.

Lynd and Hayden said they talked with Premier Pham Van Dong of North Viet Nam who told them the United States had not contacted Hanoi directly nor contacted North Vietnamese ambassadors in other capitals since President Johnson spoke of knocking on any door Dec. 20.

"The ones with whom we spoke in (North) Viet Nam, it appears that the United States knocks on all doors except the door of whom it is fighting," they said.

The Premier also denied there were any North Viet Nam troops in South Viet Nam, they said.

About 80 persons at the airport met Lynd, 36, Hayden, 26, and Herbert Aptheker, 50, a theoretician for the Communist party who also made the trip.

The trio defied a State Department ban on travel to North

Reagan Denies Right-Wing Label

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Ronald Reagan, in answer to suggestions he is right-wing politically, declares "my views haven't changed an awful lot since I was a Democrat."

Reagan, actor-turned-politician, is out for the Republican nomination for governor of California. He was the guest of honor at NBC-TV's "Meet the Press."

Reagan has been a Republican since 1960, when he helped Richard M. Nixon in his unsuccessful bid against the late President John F. Kennedy.

The veteran of movies and television was questioned much on the John Birch Society, whether he would or would not denounce it in his campaign.

"I think that in order to clear the air, Washington should investigate the John Birch Society," Reagan said.

"You can't kick an organization out of your party that is not in it," he said. "The John Birch Society has been a member of the John Birch Society since 1960, when it was founded."

Reagan, vociferous in his condemnation of Communists and the Ku Klux Klan, was asked why he hadn't made the same denunciations of the John Birch Society.

Reagan replied: "There is a vast difference. I'll take second to no one in my denunciation of the Communists and the Ku Klux Klan, but they are listed in the Yellow Pages. The FBI says it knows the identity of its members. The John Birch Society is a secret society."

Health Hospital, the Coast Guard and the trawler, the Coast Guard said.

'Pack off the wound with gauze or whatever type sterile bandage you have aboard, wrap it tight and apply pressure and heat.' Dr. John Ratino, spoke into the hospital radio transmitter.

Ratino said the crewmen reported that they were having a difficult time controlling the bleeding.

'They dropped anchor but the severe jarring motion of the boat in 18-foot seas and 50-mile an hour winds was making the bleeding worse, the fishermen said.

'Now take his pulse,' Ratino said. "One hundred," came back the reply. Ratino said a normal pulse rate is 70.

'Make up a sugar and water solution and administer it by mouth,' the surgeon directed. This was to help increase the blood volume and body energy.

Ratino said he also relayed instructions to the medical corpsman aboard the Aqueduct on what to do when he reached the injured men. He told the corpsman to administer an intravenous substitute-blood solution.

A hospital spokesman said the treatment-by-radio arrangement was run by doctors in off-duty hours and that the duty is rotated among staff members.
