Locally nine inches were reported—six yesterday and three more last night and this morning. Herald Chief Photographer Sylvian Ofiara took the above photo on Keeney Street.

State Shoreline Hit Hard by Storm

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Whipped by gale winds, the waters of Long Island Sound invaded Connecticut's shoreline during Sunday's winter storm while up to 12 inches of snow fell in the northern hills.

From East Haven to Stamford, wind-lashed tides drove shore residents from their homes and inundated coastal roads.

Milford and Fairfield appeared to be hardest hit. Some 100 homes in Milford had to be evacuated and the Red Cross was caring for the evacuees at Point Beach School.

In Fairfield the Civil Defense DUCK, an amphibious vehicle, was used to get people out of their beleaguered homes.

The waves broke across Fairfield Beach at several points, covering Fairfield Beach Road with sand as well as water.

Streets in Fairfield's Pine Creek section were under two to three feet of water at one point.

More sand drifts covered Pequot Avenue at Southport Beach, making the street impassable.

Power failures in the flooded areas aggravated the problems of residents and their rescuers.

One Norwalk resident said he had not seen the tide rise so high since the hurricane of 1955.

Several streets in Stamford were closed off and about 20 Stamford families were evacuated.

Most flights in and out of Bradley Field were canceled during the day, and it was the same story at New York City airports.

This stepped up the New Haven Railroad's business so much that an extra train was put on the New York-Boston run. On others there was standing room only.

Power failures on the Stamford-New York leg forced many trains to use their diesel engines instead of electricity.

The storm did have its consequences, however, for youngsters who had been waiting for nearly a month to try out their Christmas sleds.

And in Hartford, police used one of the oldest search techniques in the books to track down a purse-snatching suspect.

They tracked him through the snow.

Elsewhere in New England, the storm left three dead, knocked out power and smothered transportation.

The snowstorm, described by the U.S. Weather Bureau at Boston as a "real nor'easter" by far the worst storm of the winter, "was driven on gale-force winds clocked as high as 70 miles per hour on Cape Cod.

Tides four feet above normal and fierce breaking waves pounded at the shoreline all along the New England coast throughout the day Sunday.

Highway travel was endangered by the thick blinding gusts of snow and the drifting. The Maine Turnpike was closed for several hours, and several other major highways were blocked off for shorter periods.

The Weather Bureau said the storm would linger on into tonight with gale warnings remaining posted along the coast and light snow or snow flurries continuing into the afternoon in some areas.

Gale Force Winds

Snow and freezing rain whipped by gale-force winds battered Eastern sections of the nation from Arkansas to New England Saturday night and Sunday.

At least 12 persons died of heart attacks, attributed to shoveling snow or pushing stalled cars.

With an overnight freeze, many areas seemed likely to have snowdrifts around for a while, but under mostly clearing skies.

The Eastern seaboard's first big storm of the winter caused coastal flooding, power failures and hazardous highways.

The storm hampered plane and bus transportation. Railroad trains got through.

Town Takes First Storm In Its Stride

The first substantial snowstorm of the season dumped nine inches of snow on Manchester in a 25-hour period, according to a report by Ernest Turek, superintendent of the town highway department.

The storm, well-publicized and predicted in advance, started at about 5 a.m. Sunday and ended, except for very light flurries, at 6 this morning.

Turek said that six inches of the snow fell yesterday, and the other three inches this morning.

The town water department, which measures only water content, reported an equivalent of 35 inches of rainfall.

The storm, mixed at times with sleet and rain, posed no unusual problems for the highway department, which had its forces alerted and on standby orders at midnight, Saturday.

When the storm started, the crews went to a prearranged sanding and snow-clearing operation, concentrating first on church areas and main roads.

$568 Each

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson wants the government to spend $568.36 for each man, woman and child in the country in the year starting July 1.

That's what the President's proposed $112.8-billion budget comes to on a per capita basis, using the Census Bureau's estimate that the population on Jan. 1, 1967—the middle of the fiscal year—will be 198,549,600.

By the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1967, the public debt will total $321.7 billion, Johnson said. Based on a fiscal year end population estimate of 199,845,000, that comes to $1,609.74 per person.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two crosses flamed almost simultaneously in Baltimore, Md., late Sunday night, one on the lawn of a Roman Catholic church and another near the city's police headquarters.

The cross burnings came a few hours after Lawrence Cardinal Shehan of Baltimore and Negro Protestant ministers participated in Maryland's first ecumenical worship service elsewhere in the city at a theater.

One cross was burned on the lawn of the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen, and the other blazed in front of War Memorial Plaza, adjacent to the Baltimore Police Department headquarters in the heart of the city. The plaza was the scene of a hearing on an open occupancy bill Jan. 18.

Cardinal Shehan, who argued for the bill, was loudly booed at the hearing. The bill, which would have banned discrimination in the sale or rental of property, was rejected 18-8 by the City Council.

France Recalls Envoy; Morocco Denies Charges

PARIS (AP) — Relations between France and Morocco deteriorated further today. King Hassan II rejected French charges that his interior minister masterminded the abduction in Paris of Moroccan opposition leader Mehdi Ben Barka, and France recalled its ambassador to Morocco.

Moroccan sources in Rabat, the Moroccan capital, predicted that President Charles de Gaulle might break relations with France's former North African protectorate.

As French Ambassador Robert Gillet prepared to leave Rabat, sources in the Moroccan capital said Prince Moulay Ali, the Moroccan envoy to Paris, also would be called home.

In a note to the Moroccan government, the French said an investigation "makes it appear that the Moroccan minister of interior organized the kidnapping of Ben Barka and that the Moroccan minister of interior and several of his direct

State Share Of Budget $2.6 Billion

HARTFORD (AP)—The $112.8 billion federal budget prepared by President Johnson would cost Connecticut taxpayers approximately $2.6 billion in federal taxes, the president of the Connecticut State Chamber of Commerce said today.

The Connecticut share of the total revenue needed for the spending program, Anthony E. Wallace said, "represents an amount approximating $910 for each man, woman and child in the state."

Connecticut taxpayers normally provide 2.29 per cent of the revenue needed to pay for federal budgets, Wallace said. The estimates of the taxes facing the state in the Johnson budget were made by applying this yardstick, he said.

Attacks Delay

BRIDGEPORT (AP) — Judge Rodney S. Eliason said today that prosecutors in the Bridgeport's Circuit Court are asking for too many delays and continuances.

The prosecutors, he said from the bench, "are not doing their homework."

Eliason made the criticism during a negligent homicide case in which the defense asked for a dismissal on grounds that the state had failed to proceed with prosecution since last November.

Some Reservations Seen in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress received President Johnson's $112.8-billion budget today with reservations about the effect on domestic programs, of any large-scale expansion of the Viet Nam war.

Both Democrats and Republicans predicted the President's $67.15-billion defense budget will go virtually unopposed, but that his promise to come back for more money and new taxes if the conflict gets hotter will ignite a drive to curtail spending at home.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield forecast that "Barring a flareup in the situation in Viet Nam, the overall budget total is likely to be cut somewhat."

Mansfield said Johnson will get anything he needs to fight the war. Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, dean of Republican senators, agreed and said "Events in Viet Nam will determine what Congress finally does about the budget."

Sen. Spenner L. Holland, D-Fla., said he was "pleased that the President has come face-to-face with the financial aspects of the Viet Nam war. The $12.7-billion supplemental request and the $60-billion new defense budget begin to show the people the tremendous costs of this undeclared war.

"These costs will go higher and people should begin to think about and understand them," Spenner said.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said "As of now, it would seem obvious that the funds requested for (the Viet Nam) conflict are minimal and would have to be increased." Jackson is a member of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy and the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations panels.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said the budget "appears to be designed for deception and the levels of spending which it pro-

Few Changes in Tax Returns

EDITOR'S Note—There have been no major changes in the federal income tax requirements, but basic things must be kept in mind as always. Here, in the first of five special articles, is a discussion of some principal points.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Your 1965 income tax return must be in on or before April 15. There have been a few changes but none basic.

The tax on 1965 income is a little lower than the previous year's which, in turn, was lower than the year before. The reason is a tax cut spread over two years. No further cut is in sight. There's a 25 penny for fail-

May Seek More for Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson sent to Congress today a $112.8-billion budget, by far the biggest in history, with a notice that he may come back for more money and new taxes if the war in Viet Nam gets hotter.

He warned also that the military build-up, on top of an expected 7 per cent upsurge in national output, will "raise the threat of price instability" as the booming economy nears full employment.

This inflationary risk makes necessary "some moderate restraint through tax policy," Johnson said. He asked quick approval of the $4.8-billion step-up of income, corporate and excise taxes already sent to Congress.

These revenues, plus the tax collections generated by an unprecedented sixth straight year of economic growth, Johnson said, will provide $111 billion of receipts in fiscal 1967 and bring the budget within $1.8 billion of a balance.

That would be the "smallest deficit in seven years — and it can be achieved, Johnson said, even with a net increase of $2.1 billion in spending for his "Great Society" programs of education, health, housing and manpower development.

Inflation need not be the price of social progress; nor should it be a cost of defending freedom," Johnson told Congress.

His blueprint for taxing and spending in the government year starting next July 2 had these further highlights:

Defense — Outlays for over-all defense-related spending will soar to $60.5 billion, up more than $10 billion from last year and nearly $4 billion from this year. Besides building muscles for Viet Nam, the Pentagon will start a second $400-million nuclear-powered aircraft carrier and begin procurement of the Minuteman III, an advanced intercontinental missile.

For $87.15 billion, the President believes the United States

Official Truce Ends

Major Escalation Unlikely in Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is understood to have no intention of escalating the Vietnamese war at this time, despite the apparent failure of his world-wide peace offensive.

The President's decision on the resumption of the bombing of targets in North Viet Nam is expected this week. Any major new broadening of the war, such as bombing Hanoi, is considered unlikely.

Officials said, however, that the new look at policy and strategy now getting under way at the White House could possibly lead to changes in the President's thinking.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Sunday night the decision on renewed bombing is still to be made. He refused to say what he favored or predict what course Johnson would choose.

The President is caught between advocates of totally contradictory proposals. Many foreign governments, some members of Congress, some officials in the administration favor prolonging the pause. Others, including military leaders, and top American officials in Saigon would like to start pounding North Viet Nam again quickly.

Rusk said Johnson is taking all elements of the situation into consideration, including the fact that "we must do all we can to assure the safety of our own and allied forces" fighting the Communists in South Viet Nam.

Some military planners are reported to have put up proposals that the United States not only start bombing again but change the restrictions which checked all last year in order to allow attacks on Hanoi, the cap-

Mont Blanc Tragedy Jet Hits Mountain, 119 Feared Killed

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — who was en route to Vienna, An Air India jetliner with 117 passengers reported aboard crashed into snow-covered Mont Blanc today and the French police said no survivors could be found.

The gendarmes headquarters here at the foot of Western Europe's highest mountain said a helicopter landed at the crash scene but no one was found alive.

The plane, on a flight from India to New York, crashed at a point called La Tournette, about 1,300 feet below the peak on the Chamoniex side. It was preparing to land at Geneva.

The French police said it would be impossible to send a hand party up the 15,781-foot mountain at this season. The bodies were to be brought down by helicopter.

Air India said the Boeing 747 jet carried 106 passengers — eight of them bound for New York — and a crew of 11.

The airline said one of the passengers was the chairman of India's Atomic Energy Commission, Dr. Homi J. Bhabha, 57.

Officials at Geneva's Cointrin Airport said Capt. J.T. D'Souza, the plane captain, received a green light for landing after reporting his position four miles from Mont Blanc.

D'Souza was copilot on Pope Paul VI's flight from Rome to Bombay last year, and a veteran of 48 years on the Bombay-New York run.

D'Souza reported his instruments were in perfect working order and that he was approaching Mont Blanc in an altitude of 18,000 feet — a safe margin over the peak.

The Vernon Post Office is planning to inaugurate rural delivery to residents along a new route, and to change the delivery route number of some on some streets where mail is already delivered.

Postmaster Donald L. Cummings is asking persons who live on the streets where delivery is to be started to complete name and address slips for the post office and to seek instructions on how to properly install their mail boxes.

The streets where rural delivery routes are to be established are Huntington Dr., Collier Dr., Ludwig Dr., Irene Dr., Patricia Dr., Claire Rd., Forestwood Rd., Pinecrest Lane, Discovery Rd., Evergreen Rd., and Ostow Dr.

Residents of Vernon Dr., Everett Dr. and Miriam Dr. will be on RD 4 instead of RD 3, when the new system is installed. This will be notified of the date of the change by the post office.

Residents of Vernon Dr., Everett Dr. and Miriam Dr. will be on RD 4, again upon notification by the post office.

Residents of Vernon Dr., Everett Dr. and Miriam Dr. will be on RD 3 as their delivery route, as the changes are yet to be made.

Postmaster Cummings is urging residents to use their slip cards, and their home number, as assigned by the town planning commission, in their addresses.

US Officials At Autopsy Of Tourist

MOBOW (AP) — A U.S. Embassy doctor and a consular officer went today to a Soviet medical inquiry into the death of Newcomb Mott.

An autopsy also was to be performed on the body of the 27-year-old American tourist. The Russian said he cut his throat last Thursday night while being taken by train from a Murmansk jail to a labor camp.

The Soviet book company representative from Sheffield, Mass., was serving an 18-month sentence for entering the Soviet Union illegally. A democracy appeal was pending and he would have been eligible for parole on June 4.

The embassy said it was reserving judgment on the nature of the death until it obtained more information.

In Sheffield, Mass., Mott's mother said: "I think the Russians killed him."

His father, Howard S. Mott, said: "The Russian captors either murdered Newcomb or drove him to suicide by psychological pressure."

Also on tonight's agenda is a discussion of the hiring of additional social workers in the school system.
