Pope Paul Urges Viet Arbitration

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today urged United Nations arbitration, through neutral nations, for ending the Viet Nam war. He also endorsed President Johnson's peace offensive.

The Pope spoke at a audience for the Italian Catholic Press Association. After a brief mention of Church matters, the Pope turned to Viet Nam.

He said he had "reliable and authoritative testimony" for believing that Johnson's campaign was aimed at ending the war and honorable negotiations.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has dismissed an appeal by 16 Democratic senators for further consultation on North Vietnamese targets.

He said "it is inconceivable that we should resume bombing of North Viet Nam, simply that he is leaving the option open."

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, one of 30 congressional leaders who urged a bipartisan White House briefing Tuesday night, said he regrets an inevitable presidential decision to resume the air strikes on North Viet Nam.

Johnston renewed in a speech Friday morning his desire for peace to be restored in Viet Nam, "whenever the Viet Cong and the members of the north can finally be convinced that violence will not prevail."

Heavy Agenda Faces School Board Monday

A crowded agenda faces the board of education when it meets Monday night at 8 at Bennett Junior High School. The board will consider its monthly agenda, postponed last week because of a special negotiating session on teachers' salaries.

In addition to the regular agenda, however, the board will spend the meeting with the Manchester Education Association negotiating terms in an effort to reach accord on salaries for principals, department heads, and extra pay assignments.

These items remain unresolved, with the board rapidly approaching Feb. 4 deadline for establishing its proposed 1967 budget.

The MEA team met yesterday with Supt. of Schools William Curran in an effort to iron out these and related items prior to the board session.

Curran has called for quick agreement between the board and the union so he can establish his over-all budget which must be in the hands of the general manager by Feb. 14.

The board is on record as opposed to the principal's pay plan, which calls for a restoration of a ratio scale similar to the one in effect and deleted by the board two years ago. The department heads schedule, not yet discussed with the board, is based on a ratio plan.

Accord on the largest budget item—teachers' salaries—has troops driven by the American forces to attack and destroy the insurgents in the central coast and highlands while Washington debates whether to resume bombing the North or refrain from it to give Hanoi a further chance to talk peace terms.

Further south, in Phu Yen Province, the 11th Airborne Brigade, which experienced heavy contact Friday encountered only sporadic and scattered small arms fire. The paratroopers counted eight Viet Cong killed but a spokesman said there may have been many more.

"They (the enemy) apparently retain the ability to drug their food away," the army of the United States said.

The multiple-company Viet Cong units known to be in the neighborhood appear to have broken up into small groups trying to escape entrapment. Together with South Korean marines, the airborne brigade has killed 47, 10 by air assault, in three days.

U.S. Marines scouring outside Da Nang used tanks, searchlights, platoon patrols of about 40 men, helicopters and fire support to flush out small bands of Viet Cong. The daily battle of the seven more Viet Cong killed and five captured since Friday morning.

Heavy American attacks from the air were highlighted by a assault by 38 Air Force F100 Superfighters in the Mekong Delta, which is the only corps area policed entirely by South Vietnamese troops. An Air Force spokesman said the attacks were against Viet Cong positions about 40 miles southwest of Da Nang. Destroyed more than 100 buildings, damaged 150 and set off explosions which could have been heard or seen from dunes blowing up.

Mike Quill Dies Of Heart Attack

NEW YORK (AP) — Labor leader Michael J. Quill died of a heart attack at 85 at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 415 W. 89th St. before his arrest Quill had been hospitalized for several days with a "pipe organ" and "mispronounced" his name. His favorite sport was in the midst of a storm, sometimes whipped up by his own choler temper.

His career led him from the Irish rebellion as a teenager down into the subway tunnels out through Manhattan's rocky foundation, then up to lead the subway workers into the power. He led AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union.

Through it all, like a dyspeptic leprechaun, Quill wielded his tongue like his ever-present blackboard stick. He could charm a snake or lead the side of an opponent with his acid wit.

Death overtook the fiery labor leader Friday at the age of 85 in his 37th-floor apartment at 19 E. 72nd St.

Dr. Hyman Zuckerman, his personal physician, said Quill died at 5:40 p.m. of a coronary occlusion. He said the attack was unrelated to the illness he had suffered after his arrest in 1954.

Dr. Zuckerman said he had warned Quill to slacken his pace. "There's no doubt about that, but he worked too hard," he said. "Mike never let up."

Quill's second wife, Shirley, was at his side when he died. The last rites of the Roman Catholic Church were administered to Quill by the Rev. Donato Donnan on the church which a Quill by his name had been re-naming.

A funeral service has been tentatively set for Tuesday at St. Paul the Apostle Roman Catholic church at 415 W. 89th St.

Krebiozen Trial Argued in Halls As Jury Ponders

CHICAGO (AP) — The trial of Dr. Andrew C. Ivy and three other backers of the drug Krebiozen entered its tenth month today with the jury deliberating its verdict.

The seven women and five men who had considered for nearly 36 hours since Tuesday night have given no sign that they expect to reach a decision soon.

As they filed into an elevator to go to dinner Friday night one juror joked to a marshal: "You better be careful or we'll go on strike."

Other than orders for meals, no sounds came from the jury room. But the 10-year debate over the merits of Krebiozen as an anticancer drug raged on in the courtroom outside.

KNOWING YOUR OPPONENTS HELPS YOU CHOOSE PLAY

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

In theory, a finesse gives you an even chance to get a trick. In practice, your knowledge of the opponents may tell you that the finesse is sure to lose. If so, look for some other line of play even if it gives you far less than an even chance.

Opening lead—Jack of hearts. West led the jack of hearts. South then led the queen of clubs, hoping that East held the ace and would be unable to block the attack on dummy's queen of hearts.

There was no luck. West took the ace of clubs and led the ten of hearts, holding the trick. West led another heart, and East took the king. Now South needed the rest of the tricks. The defense returned the nine of diamonds quickly and confidently. East and South retained the normal temptation to try a finesse against the queen. Some opponents might be crafty enough to make this diamond suit from a suit headed by the king, but South knew his customers and felt sure that they did not have the king of diamonds.

Heralding Homes

STORY BY DOBBS READING PHOTOS BY STELVAN OPTARA

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Savilonis and their sons, Gary and Robert, have many interests, but most of their activities are carried on in their home at 39 E. Eldridge St. The men in the family take as much pride in the seven-room colonial as Mrs. Savilonis, its designer, does, and the house reflects their tender loving care.

A 13 x 26 foot living room is to the right of the front entrance hall. The fireplace wall is covered with wood paneling, which matches the beamed ceiling. Other walls are done in gold figured paper of colonial design. Two large multi-colored brided rugs are on the floor. They, and all the other brided rugs in the house, were made by Mrs. Savilonis and laced by her husband. He also enjoys refinishing furniture. Some pieces are old and he restores them. Others of a more modern period, he restores. Some of his handiwork is displayed in the living room and includes a cherry drop leaf table, a dough bowl and a side table.

The wall clock in the living room is thought to be about 200 years old. It was bought at an auction, all in pieces and in a basket, and put together and refinished by the Savilonis. It has wooden works and is thought to be a Terry clock.

Bricks in the living room fireplace are hand-fired and were made in Windsor. Mrs. Savilonis watched them made and picked out the colors she wanted, which range from a deep smoky red to pale pink. A black iron kettle and crane are more than 100 years old, as are the Windsor chairs, circa 1800. A handsome and unusual English gateleg table of butternut wood is in the dining room, opposite the living room. This was purchased from a friend who used it for an outdoor picnic table. Windsor chairs, circa 1900, and more modern Hitchcock chairs are around the table. The walls are papered in a calico print, predominantly red.

Very old copper pots are hung across the space between the kitchen and dining room. Shuttered doors close off the space when a more formal dining atmosphere is desired. Several pieces of rare old china are in the kitchen, including a fine Meissen, an Ironstone tureen and a covered pancake dish.

Hand-fired bricks are on the rear wall of the kitchen. Besides the usual built-in, the room has a built-in coffee grinder. The clock on the kitchen wall is not too old, but has sentimental value for the family. It came from a country school in Windsor. A close friend attended the school when the clock was on the wall.

The master bedroom on the second floor is about 26 feet long. A dressing room with two

More Snow Due In Area Tonight

Arhansas were hazardous, most of them ice coated from freezing rain which preceded the heavy snow.

Oklahoma's southeastern sections were ice and overcast with up to 4 inches of snow. North of Ardmore, some 250 cars were stopped on U.S. 77 by glass-lick road conditions in the Arkle Mountains.

The Weather Bureau warned residents of northern Mississippi and the Tennessee Valley of impending near-blizzard conditions as the storm moved northeastward. As much as 12

Students Slated For Fall Draft

MONTHLY draft calls during the Korean conflict rose to a peak of 80,000 a month. The buildup in the nation's military forces in recent months to meet demands arising from the war in Viet Nam has brought calls ranging as high as 45,000 for the draft. The January call was for 38,000 and the March call is for 33,000.

Hersey said negotiations have begun with testing agencies. He said also that the student certificate which schools now submit to reflect student standing is being revised to obtain class standing.

A spokesman said the current requirements that a youth must be taking a full-time course and must have satisfactory standing as determined by the institution will continue in effect.

With some 1.8 million college students holding 21-8 student deferments now, Hersey said last week that if he returned to use of the testing he hoped there could be one or two tests this school year and possibly two more this fall and winter. He said he had to reach his decision by around Feb. 1 in order to allow time for preparing for tests before summer.

Emphasizing he had no idea what the draft calls will be next fall, Hersey said he felt that "80,000 a month as a draft is too great for us" when asked when he thought he might be forced to draft college students.

Site of Boston Fire Called 'Combat Zone'

BOSTON (AP)—They call it Boston's combat zone and it became an icy, glass littered wasteland Friday night after a blast ripped through a 10-story building in the city center.

The area is one of bars, restaurants, hot dog and hamburger stands, discount jewelry stores and theaters showing "adult only" films.

Police keep plainclothes officers on permanent duty in the combat zone.

Fire equipment, emergency vehicles and police cars swarmed into the area after the blast at the Paramount Hotel on Boylston Street.

It quickly became a bedlam of sirens, hissing water, trampling feet and shouting. A pall of smoke swept over the scene as firemen battled to control the fire.

Police and firemen were tight lipped from the cold and every pipe water touched them turned to ice. Their hands and faces were numb.

In the first hour, nobody could say for sure that anybody was dead. But fears were voiced that 20, 40 or 100 had perished.

At least 100 clothing, shoes and five automobiles said destroyed today it is possible others are still buried in the debris.

The blast shattered windows all around and broken glass mixed with ice made footing dangerous.

The cause of the blast had not been determined, but police told onlookers it was a gas explosion and other explosions could follow.

"If God's sake don't stand close to that manhole," one policeman shouted at a man in a brown overcoat and hat. "It could blow sky high."

Officials at a savings bank stood just inside the broken front window of their bank with two policemen. The thermometer on the bank read 12 degrees and a stiff wind howled down the street.

A crowded lounge was hit hardest by the explosion and the floor dropped into the basement. Rubble-piled inferno, chunks of curbstones and sidewalk were scattered in front of the hotel. Debris fell on a car parked in front of the hotel and caved in the roof.

Income Trend Steep

NEW YORK (AP)—The U.S. population at the end of 1965 is up at 196 million, or 26 million more than at the end of 1960. In the same decade, disposable after-tax funds in the hands of American consumers increased 67 per cent. In other terms, money available for spending is gaining four times as fast as the population.

South Windsor Some School Bus Numbers Change with School Hours

Wapping and Pleasant Valley elementary schools and the Ellsworth Middle School have also been changed, starting Monday, because of a change in the various schools hours.

The changes affect pupils in all kindergarten and first grade routes serving the Wapping and Pleasant Valley elementary schools, the Ellsworth Middle School, and the Ellery Elementary School.

Kindergarten pupils who used to attend morning sessions will now be going to school in the afternoon, and vice versa.

Charges Nollod Against Youths

Traffic violation charges and charges involving illegal possession of liquor against Lawrence Jeffrey, 18, of 200 Loral St., and James Lassen, 18, of 36 Britton Rd., were nollod by New Hampshire authorities.

The two were arrested in Hanover, N.H., in July on those charges and were also questioned about a robbery in Manchester.

Yesterday, Lassen was sentenced to a term in Chamberlayne Reformatory after pleading guilty to the robbery charge. Jeffrey was found not guilty in a jury trial. The cases were heard in Superior Court at Hartford.

SAVE THE CASTLES
ROME (AP) — A nationwide campaign has been started to save the Italian peninsula's many castles from ruin and decay. The Italian Institute of Castles, a private organization founded two years ago, is behind the drive.

The first step is a complete listing of all castles in Italy. Experts estimate there are several hundred.

'Necessities' Cost Less

LONDON—The average British family spent 1,178 pounds ($3,284) last year, more than 22 pounds ($61.00) a week. But the "necessities" of everyday life—food, clothing, housing and fuel—took only half that amount. The rest went for luxuries and other services.

The figures are from a survey by the Automobile Association, which says that the cost of living is still rising.

WELLESLEY DEAN WELLESLEY, Mass. (AP) — Miss Jean V. Crawford, a faculty member at Wellesley College since 1961, will be new dean of students, she succeeded Miss Kervan G. Frisch, who retired in June.

Miss Crawford was graduated from Mount Holyoke College in 1940. She received a doctorate in chemistry from the University of Illinois in 1960.

CofC Opposes Repeal of 14B

The Manchester Chamber of Commerce has written letters to various state officials opposing the repeal of Section 14b of the Taft Hartley Act, according to Atty. William E. Fitzgerald, president of the chamber.

In the letters the chamber stated that the states should continue to have the right to govern their own affairs and to establish a right to work law if they so desired and that compulsory union membership, as a condition of employment, should not become the law of the land. The chamber also stated that labor unions should sell their benefits of membership the same as any other organization and should not fall back on legal force to maintain or enlarge its membership.

Fitzgerald said, "We as a chamber, are asking all of our members to contact their senators and representatives to express their voice in opposition to the repeal of Section 14b of the Taft Hartley Act."

Omar Picks Ferguson to Head Slate

Thomas F. Ferguson of 78 Forest St., co-publisher of The Herald, last night was elected president of Omar Shrine Club. He succeeds William Forbes.

Elected to serve with Ferguson are Russell Prentice, first vice president; Frank Sheldon, second vice president; Herbert Kingsbury, secretary; and Stanley Baldwin, treasurer.

Thomas F. Ferguson

board of directors, along with John Rig.

The annual meeting was held at Willie's Steak House, and included a visit from the newly elected potentate of Sphinx Temple, Stanley Peterson of New London. He was accompanied by two of his officers, William Seelig, oriental guide; and Frank Henderson, second ceremonial master. Sphinx Treasurer William Coates was named Divan representative to Omar.

Ferguson named Harold Barnsley, past president, as chaplain of Omar and chairman of the sick committee. Barnsley and Rig will co-chair the club's annual July visit to the Crippled Children's Hospital at Springfield.

York Strangfield, past president, was again named chairman of the Kiddies Show for the Shrine Circus in April. Jorma Nurmi is chairman for the club's June outing at the Columbia Lake cottage of Harold Newberry.

Ferguson announced the club's Ladies Night will be a dinner-dance April 16 at Ellington Ridge. His committee includes Prentice, Forbes, Baldwin, Dr. Merrill Rubinow, Harold E. Turkington and Thomas R. Graham.

Prentice and Graham are co-chairmen of the circus program for Omar.

Each of the Sphinx officers spoke, pointing out some events already on the calendar for the year, including the Potentate's Reception March 25 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, the June 4 Ceremonial in New London with four temples participating, and the Sphinx fun pilgrimage to Las Vegas, San Francisco and Hawaii in May.

Newly created Nobles were introduced during the meeting, and Ferguson pinned Forbes with his past president's pin.

Ferguson announced the next meeting of the club, site as yet unknown, will be Feb. 25 when Wayne Garland, chaplain of Friendship Lodge of Masons, will give a slide presentation on the George Washington Memorial in Washington, D.C.

'Ailing' Ben Casey Will Be Replaced

NEW YORK (AP)— Ben Casey, it appears, is sicker than many of his patients and it looks like a terminal illness. ABC will replace the series March 23 with a British import called "The Avengers."

Things look bad, too, for the network's "Jimmy Dean Show," which will depart early in April, making room for still another British-made entry, "Court-Martial."

ABC broke the news gently, although it was hardly a surprise in either case. The new shows, said an ABC spokesman, will "replace spring and summer reruns" of both programs.

It is unlikely that either show will be back next fall. "Ben Casey," in its fifth season, and the Dean hour of country-style music and comedy in its third, have been far down on the national Nielsen charts this fall and winter. In the most recent report, they were among the bottom 15 shows.

"The Avengers" has been a British television hit for four seasons and is a comedy-adventure show starring Patrick McLee who undoubtedly will be confused with Patrick McGeehan, starring in "Secret Agent" on CBS.

"Court-Martial" will be a series of episodes built around cases in the U.S. Army's judge advocate's office during World War II and will star Bradford Dillman and Peter Graves. Dillman played a similar role three seasons back in a two-part "Suspense Theatre" show on NBC.

Tina Weds Les Crane On April 3

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Tina Louise, the voluptuous costar of "Gilligan's Island," will be married April 3 to Les Crane, the undubbed two-time loser of ABC's Nightlife show.

Miss Louise reported the news at rehearsals for this week's Red Skelton show. She had just finished her lunch, which consisted of two hard-boiled eggs. She watches her weight, as did many a male observer at the rehearsal.

"We were going to get married March 20, which is the first anniversary of when we met," explained the actress, who had performed a dance in a negligee costume. "But so many of my friends will be in Europe at that time that we postponed the wedding until April."

The wedding will be the first for Miss Louise, the student of New York's Neighborhood Playhouse and Actors Studio who first achieved fame as Apollonia Von Cleon in "Lil' Abner" on Broadway. Crane was married once before.

The pair met in a modern manner — at a discotheque.

"It was at the Daisy Club last year," Miss Louise recalled. "I was coming in and he was going out. He was with Paddy Chayeksky, whom I know and adore, and Paddy introduced me to Les. Somehow they found a reason to return to the Daisy that night, and we talked until 4 a.m."

"Then I suggested they come to my house for breakfast, and we talked some more. But I must admit that I was more interested in talking to Paddy than Les."

Time changed that. Crane is one of the country's highest paid talkers, having starred twice in ABC's answer to Johnny Carson. He was putting in his second tour of duty with the late-night show while courting Tina.

Medicare Report Slated Tuesday

"Your Share in Medicare," a special report designed to answer questions on the new Medicare program, will be presented on WTEC-TV and radio at 10 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 1.

Representatives of the federal government, the state, the insurance industry and medical and hospital societies will answer many of the questions that have been raised about Medicare.

The program was prompted by reports of public confusion about applying for Medicare, the areas covered and not covered by Medicare, the question of maintaining private medical insurance and the selection of doctors and hospitals under Medicare.

Arthur Hess, director of the Social Security Administration's Division of Disability Operations, will explain what Medicare is and how it operates and State Welfare Commissioner Bernard Shapiro will tell how Medicare applies to welfare cases.

Questions regarding private medical insurance will be answered by J. F. Duplinsky, president of Connecticut Blue Cross, Inc.; Manton Eddy, senior vice president, Connecticut General Life Insurance Co., and Daniel Pettingill, vice president, group department, Aetna Life & Casualty. The state's doctors will be represented by Dr. Orvan Hess, president-elect, Connecticut State Medical Society, and the hospitals by Lewis H. Caplan, president, Connecticut Hospital Assn. Tom Eaton of WTEC will be the moderator.

Heads Newsmen

Edwin Newman, NBC News correspondent, has been elected president of the Association of Radio-Television News Analysts for 1965, succeeding Douglas Edwards of CBS News.

Other 1965 officers are: Vice President Victor Riesel, WJVD (New York) broadcaster and newspaper columnist; vice president in Washington — Bill Costello; and secretary-treasurer — Richard Hottelet.

Play, Series Give Hope To Fans of TV Culture

NEW YORK (AP)— Long ago, when television was young and viewers were unsophisticated, a lot of us believed it would start a cultural revolution.

People predicted it would bring fine theater to millions who could never get to Broadway. It would present great music to people far from opera houses and concert halls. Millions would be able to see things to which only thousands had had access before.

Certainly some of this has come to pass. We have been able to see some fine dramatic performances and to hear fine music. But that has been rare enough to generate considerable excitement when we are promised a rare treat.

CBS now has one, it announced today, coming up in early spring: Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman," with Lee J. Cobb and Mildred Dunsen playing their original roles of Willie Loman and wife in the Pulitzer Prize-winning drama of Broadway's 1949 season.

Miller will adapt the play for a two-hour broadcast Sunday, April 3. ABC is proceeding with big plans for a quality anthology series called "ABC-60" with emphasis on original dramas, musical comedies and a variety of other forms. No date for the series has been fixed and it is probable that we won't see it until next fall.

ABC announced Tuesday that Hubbell Robinson would be the ABC executive in charge of the series. Robinson was in charge of CBS programming in the golden days of "Playhouse 90."

A revival of a fine play and a projected series of high quality does not necessarily mean that television thinking has taken a new turn. It does suggest that network executives are concerned about widespread criticism of the quality and content of much of the current output.

A broken leg led to an acting career for Billy Mumy of "Lost in Space." While the leg was mending, he became a fan of a children's show on a Los Angeles station, auditioned for it after recovery, became a regular, and attracted the attention of other casting directors.

Just Lena

"Lena" an hour-long special featuring song stylist Lena Horne will be telecast Monday evening at 10 over WNEC-TV8.

As the title implies, it will be just Lena, facing the cameras alone except for the orchestra led by her husband, Lennie Hayton. There will be little scenery, no gimmicks.

The show is divided into three sections. The first, "movie songs," includes "Hello, Young Lovers" and "Somewhere." The second part, "Lena in Session" includes standards "A Fine Romance" and "Never on Sunday." Finally in "cities melody" includes a tour of America, Britain and France with songs from each.

Funnies May Become Next TV Gold Mine

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Reactions on the tube:

"Is 'Batman' sowing the seeds of his own destruction? Will the comic strips take over television?"

The television industry will be fasting in to hear the results of the "Batman" invasion, which has helped revive what has been a dreadfully dull season. Whether the influence will be for good or bad remains to be seen. But certainly the affect of the far-out ABC adventure series will be felt in future programming.

Daily Variety reports that producers are scrambling to line up rights to other comic strips. William Dozier, producer of "Batman," co-created "Green Hornet" and "Wonder Woman." Other film makers seem prepared to hop off the bandwagon and get with the comic. They might do well to look before they leap. The first chapter of "Batman" offered entertainment with their outrageous corn. But how long can audiences remain interested in pastboard characters who utter such comments as "Eddy popcorn!" and "Splendid thinking, Hobbs?"

Most long-run series have survived because they offered characters that possessed a range of human interest. "Batman" will no doubt continue to flourish as a national joke. But the copycats should proceed warily.

The 1968-69 season may well bring the biggest crop of new series in recent history. Lucille Ball is one of the latest to announce she won't be returning next year, and other veteran series leaving the networks include Jackie Gleason, Donna Reed, Ben Casey, Perry Mason and Dick Van Dyke. These changes, plus the high fatality of this season's new shows, promise a huge turnover.

The recent Roger Miller special impressed this viewer with the notion that musical shows would be more palatable in half-hour rather than hour form. Most musical hours are peddled out with meaningless dance gyrations and dull parlayage. These overlong outtings leave the viewer sated instead of wanting more, as Roger Miller did.

Coming Shows

Singer Abbe Lane joins the "Hollywood Palace" lineup tonight with host Arthur Godfrey, Sid Caesar, Corbett Monica and The Borzoinis.

Channel 24 will present Tanzania, the Quiet Revolution in its "Changing World" series tomorrow at 4 p.m.

The unchanging nature of pockets of poverty in America will be depicted in "Continuity of Despair," a three-part series on "Look Up and Live" Feb. 5, 12 and 20 from 10:30 to 11 a.m. on the CBS TV network.

Pete Parker who used to shoot "b'ar" as Davy Crockett, will be firing for real Sunday on "The American Sportsman." The new ABC series on Channel 8 will show Crockett hunting ginsu bear in British Columbia.

Jerry Lewis hosts the Sammy Davis Show Friday at 8:30 on Channels 21 and 20. Guests include Peggy Lee, Danny O'Keefe, the Skylarks, the Wake Brothers and Terry Gibbs orchestra.

"I never do a routine the same way twice," says Danny Kaye. "If I do, the orchestra, which has sat through rehearsals, is bored, and you can't expect the audience to laugh when they see the musicians sitting around with long faces."

All Animal Cast On Lassie Show

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Having already dispensed with a family, Lassie gets rid of human beings altogether next Sunday.

On the Jan. 30 show, "Lassie" will be supported by a cast of animals. That's all — animals. No cute tykes crying over the collar. No aproned housewives, not even a forest ranger. Not even a line of dialogue. The animals take over with their own barks, squeaks, chirps and grunts.

All this will be brought to you in living color over CBS by the indomitable makers of "Lassie." Those folks never seem to run out of ideas — or collie dogs. It's a badly kept secret that Lassie has been portrayed by succession of pooches, necessarily so, since the original MGM star would now be 26 years old.

Deep Snow, Shallow Water at Globe Hollow

Globe Hollow Reservoir's present below normal condition was aided by yesterday's six-inch snowfall, plus some added rain. When the snow cover melts, the runoff is expected to bring the local reservoirs closer to but not up to normal capacity.

High Court To Review Hoffa Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to a limited review of James R. Hoffa's conviction in 1964 on jury tampering charges.

In a brief order, the court said it would hear the Teamsters Union president's appeal on one question alone.

That is, "whether evidence obtained by the government by means of a secret informer in the quarters and council of a defendant during one criminal trial so violates the defendant's Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Amendment rights that suppression of such evidence is required in a subsequent trial of the same defendant on a different charge."

Hoffa asked reversal by the court of his conviction. He was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000.

Three codefendants, each sentenced to three years in prison, filed separate appeals. Their petitions to be heard also were granted, limited to the one question. The three are Thomas Ewing Parks, Larry Campbell and Ewing King.

Hoffa and the three others were tried in federal court in Chattanooga, Tenn., on charges of tampering with the jury in Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville. The Nashville trial ended in a mistrial when jurors could not agree.

In his 82-page appeal, Hoffa said his case presented 18 questions for Supreme Court consideration. The Justice Department opposed hearings for the four men.

Today's ruling means the

Very Phony

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — To show young policemen the difference between counterfeit and legal money, the Police Academy set up a display case. It contained two $100 bills, two $50s, two $20s, two $10s, two $5s and two $1s.

In each case one was counterfeit, one real.

Someone swiped the lot Sunday.

By now he will have discovered the phony bills are printed on one side only.

UN Meeting Sought To Hear Peace Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson launched a new Viet Nam peace move in the United Nations today immediately after he ordered the resumed bombing of North Vietnamese targets at the end of a 37-day pause.

Johnson told the nation and the world that he ordered resumption of bombing of military targets in North Viet Nam to save lives of U.S. South Vietnamese and allied troops fighting Communist forces in South Viet Nam. The Reds are reinforced by supplies and men sent from North Viet Nam.

On Johnson's orders, which the President himself announced, U.S. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg then called for an immediate meeting of the U.N. Security Council to hear a report on the collapse of the U.S. peace offensive and to receive a resolution for new diplomatic action.

"The end of the pause does not mean the end of our own pursuit of peace," Johnson said in his broadcast statement. He added that the resolution could "open the way to the conference table."

Johnson endorsed a weekend peace appeal from Pope Paul VI. The Pope said neutral nations under U.N. sponsorship might be able to initiate arbitration. Shortly after the President spoke, Secretary of State Dean Rusk gave a more specific endorsement to the proposal.

"A role for neutral countries to explore the possibilities of peace," Rusk told a news conference, "would be entirely agreeable and welcomed by the United States."

Rusk disclosed at the news conference that the United States had made an offer to North Viet Nam to extend the bombing halt if North Viet Nam would respond to Johnson's peace offensive with some gesture of its own.

But the only reaction from Hanoi, Rusk said, were "negative, harsh and unyielding." He declared Hanoi had rebuffed every attempt to move toward peace and that he President's "senior advisers" are having first

Bridges, Highway Hit

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The United States leased its bombers against North Viet Nam today after holding off air attacks for 37 days while vainly trying to bring the Communists to the peace table.

The first waves of U.S. Navy and Air Force planes hit bridges, ferries, barges, warehouses and storage facilities well south of the Hanoi-Haiphong industrial area. Later flights pummeled Highway No. 1, a main artery along the coast, wrecking a truck convoy and destroying a bridge, a U.S. spokesman reported.

The later attacks were centered around Vinh, on North Viet Nam's central coast. On the ground, U.S. and South Vietnamese forces stepped up their offensives against the Viet Cong, but the Communists inflicted heavy losses on a militia unit and Red guns hammered allied positions.

A U.S. Spokesman said Navy pilots claimed destruction of a bridge about 10 miles southeast of Dong Hoi and damage to the approach to the Quang Khe ferry landing about 20 miles northwest of Dong Hoi.

Bad weather prevented estimates of the damage in other raids. Spokesmen declined to say how many sorties were flown or what types of bombs were dropped.

One Navy plane was shot down as the raiders encountered heavy ground fire. But a U.S. Air Force helicopter rescued the pilot unharmed under machine gun fire. He was Lt. Cmdr. Sylvester Chumley of Lemoore, Calif.

Chumley's A4 Skyhawk jet went down about a mile off Dong Hoi. The Communists peppered the water around him for 35 minutes as he waited to be rescued.

"I'm glad to see you guys. Now, can you turn off that machine gun fire?" Chumley told his rescuers. The rescue plane was piloted by Lt. Col. Robert E. Freshwater of Canton, Ohio.

On the ground, the Viet Cong backed by regulars of the North Vietnamese forces were goaded into action by allied troops who have penetrated Communist hideouts in the central coastal plains which had not been disturbed for 15 years.

Operation Masher, the U.S. 1st Cavalry's hedge-hopping push around Bong Son, about 300 miles northeast of Saigon, was heavily engaged for the fifth straight day in a firefight the Viet Cong used as a withdrawal action.

A storm of automatic fire and mortar shelling struck a battalion of troops at 6 a.m. and lasted for an hour. A spokesman said the Viet Cong used the barrage as cover to slip out of what could have been a death trap.

Support in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's decision to resume air attacks on North Vietnamese targets brought approval from congressional leaders here today. Some expressed hope the President could continue peace efforts.

Others called for intensified military efforts to win the war quickly.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, who had advised Johnson to hold off bombing resumption, said in a statement that the President "has my sympathy and understanding and I will do my best to support him to the best of my ability."

Mansfield said "I fully appreciate the difficulty and the agony of the decision which was his — and his alone — to make."

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and another foe of the bombing resumption, said now that Johnson has made his decision "We must support our fighting men in the field."

"The wisdom of the policy may be questioned," Fulbright said, "but we must back our men in the field."

But Fulbright added: "I hope, however, that the President will allow as much room as possible to continue the search for a means of negotiating the end of the war."

House Republican Leader

Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, saying "the President had no other choice" but to resume the bombing, supported Johnson's new move to bring the conflict before the United Nations.

"I wholeheartedly support any action before the United Nations and I hope the United Nations will fulfill its role in seeking peace," Ford said.

And Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said "The President had the choice of maintaining the position that we held and of going in there and doing business. He has decided to do business."

Asst. Senate Democratic Leader Russell B. Long of Louisiana said Johnson "had no choice" but to resume bombing, adding that "The people of this

Many Tropical Features To State's Snow Storm

NEW HAVEN (AP) — A brutal winter storm that dropped most of its snow to the south swept across Connecticut Sunday, leaving 6 to 10 inches of snow in its wake.

The snow will probably be around for awhile, since the U.S. Weather Bureau at Windsor Locks expects a cold wave to move in.

Two persons died of apparent heart attacks while shoveling snow during the storm. They were William E. Rudolph, 64, and Mrs. Annabelle E. Houlley, 68, both of West Haven.

Many schools were closed today, primarily in the western, north central and northeastern portions of the state. Some others opened an hour later than usual.

The storm had several features more commonly associated with tropical storms, a weatherman said.

For one thing, the barometer dropped to a startlingly low 28.74 inches Sunday afternoon at the center of the storm passed by on its way north.

The storm also had an "eye," somewhat like a hurricane, which allowed the sun to break through in the afternoon. A rainbow was sighted in the Willimantic area. Between noon and 2 p.m. the temperature dropped 10 degrees in Hartford, from 36 to 26.

The snow was tamped down by rain and sleet Sunday morning but still averaged about 8 inches across the state, the weather bureau said.

Depths of 10 inches were common in northern and western Connecticut, while along the shore only 6 inches or so was measured.

At times it was difficult to tell whether the snow was falling or just blowing around, as gusty winds raised the state.

The winds were particularly strong along the shore, where Bridgeport reported gusts up to 50 miles an hour and an unofficial clocking of 80 miles an hour was reported at Clinton. At Block Island, at the eastern end of Long Island Sound, one gust was officially measured at 81 mph.

Tides were higher than normal, but there was no recurrence of the previous Sunday's serious flooding that drove hundreds of people from their shoreline homes in Milford, Fairfield, Norwalk and other coastal towns.

Windblown mist added to the driving snow reduced visibility to nearly zero at times along the shore. Stratford police reported that 25 traffic accidents occurred in a short space of time because people couldn't see where they were going.

Looking on the brighter side, the storm brought badly needed moisture to the drought-stricken state. The U.S. Weather Bureau which measured 6.2 inches of snow Sunday, melted it down to .96 inch of water, which brought the month's precipitation to 2.97 inches, less than half an inch below normal.

The storm also brought the total snowfall for the month to 17.5 inches at Bradley Field. Only 22 inches have fallen since winter began.

It was the second consecutive Sunday that Connecticut was hit by a major storm.

Police Probe License Fix, Payoff Deal

NEW HAVEN (AP) — State and New Haven police authorities say they have been investigating for at least a month an alleged motor vehicle operator's license fix and payoff.

They say it involves a New Haven resident who allegedly paid $1,000 to a state official for the return of his suspended operator's license.

The authorities said the man's driving license had been suspended indefinitely by the State Motor Vehicle Department after he was convicted of a speeding violation, one of over 40 motor vehicle violations he was charged with since 1968 in New Haven alone.

State's Atty. George R. Tierman, who initiated the investigation, quoted the man as saying he "had paid to get it (his license) back" when confronted by police.

The prosecutor said the man has since left for California, rendering himself unavailable for further questioning.

He said no arrest warrants have been signed at this time.

Deep Snow, Strong Wind Chill East

CHICAGO (AP) Lashed by a storm piling up deep snow whipped by violent winds, the East Coast shuddered today in the icy grip of a record-breaking cold wave extending from Florida to Maine.

The blizzard, and extreme cold in other areas, contributed to at least 72 deaths from highway accidents, fires and heart attacks in 16 states.

The severe storm swept up the coast over the weekend, leaving cold behind and virtually paralyzing travel in major cities of the populous Northeast, including the nation's capital.

Two states struck the hardest, Delaware and Virginia, declared a state of emergency. Two feet of snow fell in some parts of Virginia and National Guard units were ordered to help clear clogged highways in Delaware.

In northern and central Florida, the gigantic citrus crop was threatened by freezing temperatures.

Thousands of travelers were inconvenienced as airports in Washington, New York, Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia and Montreal were "socked in" by conditions that made take-offs and landings almost impossible on ice-caked runways.

Washington struggled under 16 inches of snow — the worst accumulation in the city in 44 years. The storm dumped 12 new inches of snow with four inches still on the ground from a storm a week ago.

Federal government and city employes in the capital were told to stay away from work in the morning except for emergencies. However, Congress was scheduled to meet.

Manchester Awarded Cleanest Town Prize

Manchester, in its first try, has been named top winner in the U.S. in the 26-000-50,000 population class in the 37th annual National Cleanest Town Achievement Award Contest, sponsored by the Clean Up, Paint Up & Fix Up Bureau of Washington, D.C.

The award was earned because of the town's year-round clean up efforts and beautification campaign, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, with assistance from the Jaycees.

The C of C had entered a scrapbook, compiled by Dr. Douglas H. Smith, chairman of its City Beautiful Committee, depicting the volunteer efforts and accomplishments of local civic groups and individuals.

Of especially noteworthy interest to the committee which made the award was the division of Manchester into six sections for the trash pickup by Boy Scouts, and the construction, by the Jaycees, of a bus shelter at Westhill Gardens, housing for the elderly.

A delegation of those responsible for Manchester's clean up program will be invited to attend an elaborate Awards Ceremony in Washington on Feb. 15, when Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will make the presentations.

Immediately following the Presentation Ceremony, a luncheon, honoring the winning cities, will be held, with Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, the main speaker. Manchester, along with all population-class winners, is also eligible for the Trigg Trophy, the national award of excellence, to be won by that city, regardless of classification, which best exemplifies the principles of the Bureau's nationwide community betterment program.
