Viet Nam Veterans Fight Final Battle

D ZONE, South Viet Nam (AP)—In the dense jungle of D Zone, a Viet Cong stronghold where even the noonday sun barely sneaks its rays through the thick brush, a bomb crater was filled with wounded American soldiers.

These men of the 173rd Airborne Brigade had known this would be their last battle; their year in Viet Nam was nearly over.

During the sleepless Saturday night, as artillery and air strikes shook the earth, they talked about home 8,000 miles away. B Company's commander, Capt. Romie L. Brownlee, 29, of Odessa, Tex., told about seeing his wife Nancy, now living in Casper, Wyo. in Hawaii last March 25.

"But there's still a lot of jungle between my wife and me," he said.

In a foxhole, a 19-year-old private told a buddy: "The one thing I really dream about is SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Viet Nam's military government executed a war profiteer today and sentenced a former official to death for embezzling $104,000 in public funds.

Ta Vinh, 34, a wealthy businessman of Chinese descent, was tied at dawn to an execution stake in the Saigon market place while a battalion of Vietnamese paratroopers sealed the area to prevent any interference from the city's large Chinese population.

Later in the day, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's special anti-corruption tribunal pronounced the death sentence on Dang Cao Sach, 52, 150 miles northeast of Saigon, for embezzlement going back to 1956 to cover gambling debts and extravagant living. Sach, father of six, pleaded guilty and asked for leniency.

Ky, who attended the opening session of Vinh's trial, has promised to wage an unrelenting war against widespread graft and price manipulation that has contributed to the country's inflation.

Vinh, a father of eight, was convicted of "economic sabotage." The charges against the import-export firm manager included hoarding, speculation, illegal transfer of funds and bribery. The government rejected appeals for clemency.

Vinh's wife, weeping and shouting in English, Chinese and Vietnamese, appeared at the square with seven of her children to plead for her husband's life. National police kept her behind the barred wire from sight of the execution as the bullets from the 10-man army firing squad tore into Vinh's chest.

While the political effect of the execution remained unclear, a different problem for the government appeared to be simmering down. Shops reopened in Da Nang this morning after two days of peaceful demonstrations there protesting the dismissal of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi as commander of the army's 1st Corps.

Thi, 45, a potential rival to Ky, was fired last Thursday by the rest of the ruling military directorate. He had been virtual overlord of the country's five northernmost provinces. Downtown stores in Da Nang closed for five hours Sunday in a general strike organized by Thi's supporters in the coastal garrison town 280 miles north-east of Saigon.

Ship of Sleep

DOVER, England (AP)—Seven students set sail across the English Channel for France today on an old iron bedstead complete with brass knobs.

They hoped to reach Calais in about six hours. The bedstead, purchased at a rummage sale for seven cents, is lashed to a number of empty oil drums. The craft is powered by two outboard motors.

One of the students from the Hatfield College of Technology in Hertfordshire is a girl, Sue Sperring, 18.

Weather conditions at sailing time were good—no wind and a calm sea.

Irwin Asks Meeting on N.Y.C. Tax

NORWALK (AP)—Congressman Donald J. Irwin, D-Conn., has asked Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York to meet with him and other area congressmen to discuss the impact of New York City's proposed income tax on commuters.

Irwin made the request in a letter to the New York mayor. The Connecticut congressman, who represents thousands of commuters in the state's Fourth District, said he believes that commuters are "being asked to pay more than their fair share." Irwin noted that when commuters from Connecticut and New Jersey "found themselves paying New York's state income tax for the first time, they were not only paying as much as New York residents but more."

Men Exchange Blood Cells in Fight for Lives

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Two men with the same type of cancer calmly took the second step — an exchange of white blood cells today — in their experimental fight for life.

A spokesman at Roswell Park Memorial Institute said Robert F. Allen of Tucson, Ariz., and Harry T. Griffith of Plourtown, Pa., "were eager and ready to go."

The men face death from osteogenic sarcoma, a bone cancer.

Allen, 29, and Griffith, 63, exchanged portions of cancer tissue in a rare transplant operation performed 10 days ago by Dr. Sigmond H. Nadler and a team of surgeons at the institute, the state's cancer research and treatment center.

Nadler hoped that through the exchange of white blood cells each man would develop a resistance to the transplanted cancer tissue. The resistance then would build up against the original cancer through a daily

Army Coup in Indonesia Foiled Plot Against U.S.

SINGAPORE (AP)—The army takeover in Indonesia reportedly foiled a plot by Foreign Minister Subandrio to attack the U.S. Embassy in Jakarta, sources in Singapore said today. The sources said Subandrio had urged pro-Communist forces to launch the attack in retaliation for student raids last week on Chinese Communist offices in Jakarta.

The U.S. Embassy burned all its secret documents when it learned of the plans for goons supporting Subandrio to seize documents and burn the embassy, the sources said.

Subandrio, who is also first deputy premier, wanted such an attack to show Peking that he and his followers were still a vital force in Indonesia, the informants added.

Reports reaching Singapore said 20 of Subandrio's intelligence agents exchanged shots last Saturday with paratroopers and military police sent to arrest them. Two agents were shot, the reports said.

The agents were members of an internal spy network Subandrio used to keep watch on Indonesia's military and political organizations, the reports said. Arms and explosives were reportedly found in the office of the spy network.

The three-day-old government of army chief Lt. Gen. Suharto was believed holding Subandrio and President Sukarno under house arrest at Sukarno's Merdeka Palace in Jakarta, two Japanese newsmen in Jakarta reported. Travelers from Indonesia said in Singapore that 16 Cabinet ministers had been arrested, along with a number of other leading politicians and agents of Subandrio's spy network.

Subandrio, whose removal had been demanded by student demonstrations, may go on trial before a special military tribunal that has been probing the attempted coup last October, the sources said. After the coup was crushed, Suharto led a bloody purge of the Communists, who were accused of masterminding the plot.

The travelers said Suharto seems to be firmly in control. They reported groups were dancing and singing in the streets of Jakarta celebrating the army takeover. Province

Castro Ready For Break with Peking Regime

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said today Cuba is prepared for a break in diplomatic relations with Communist China, which he accused of "launching an imperialist-type campaign against Cuba."

He also denied rumors of growing internal opposition to his Communist government. In an angry, 4½-hour speech Castro said Peking apparently was trying to provoke a break in relations by carrying out a "new campaign of calumny" and continuing its "economic

Firing Set For 10 a.m. Wednesday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The rendezvous and space walk flight of the Gemini 8 astronauts was postponed today for 24 hours—until Wednesday—when leaks were discovered in an Atlas rocket and in a spacecraft circuit of the spacecraft.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the trouble was discovered during checks that were to precede the final countdown.

The astronauts, Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott, will use the extra time to further review their flight plan, the space agency reported.

They had been reported confident as the launch date neared for their historic trip. The Atlas is to launch an Agena satellite into space as a target for the astronauts to chase and hitch on to.

The Atlas leak was discovered when liquid oxygen was found to have leaked into a helium sphere used to pressurize the fuel tanks.

The spacecraft leak was in a space suit circuit which is to separate moisture from recirculated cabin air during the three-day flight.

The space agency said technicians expected to have the problems solved in time for a Wednesday launching.

The launch times for the tricky space doubleheader will remain the same on Wednesday. The Atlas-Agena is to blast off at 10 a.m. to propel the 26-foot-long Agena into a planned 180-mile-high orbit around the earth.

Armstrong and Scott are to blast off at 11:41 a.m., catch up with the Agena on Gemini 8's fourth orbit 5½ hours later and link up with it an hour later.

Early Wednesday morning, Scott is to become a human sa-

Two Leading Firms Hike Cigarette Price

NEW YORK (AP)—Some cigarette manufacturers raised prices today. Others were studying the move.

The increase of 40 cents per 1,000 cigarettes was expected to be reflected in a one-cent boost in the cost of a pack. The American Tobacco Co. initiated the increase, Philip Morris, Inc., followed.

American Tobacco's raise applied to Lucky Strike regulars and filters, Tareyton, Carlton, Waterford, Half and Half, Montclair and Pall Mall nonfilters. An exception was Pall Mall filters on which the price was reduced $2.80 per 1,000.

Philip Morris raised prices on Marlboro, Philip Morris filters, Parliament filter, Paxton, Alpine, Galaxy and Philip Morris regular. The price of Benson and Hedges was cut $2.80 per 1,000.

The companies made no statement on the reasons for the price changes. In the past, whenever prices have been raised by the American Tobacco Co. or R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., the nation's two largest cigarette manufacturers, the other manufacturers have followed.

The influence of the two companies was demonstrated last April when the Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Co., Philip Morris, Inc., and P. Lorillard Co. raised their prices, but neither the R.J. Reynolds nor American Tobacco went along. By June, all four of the smaller companies had rescinded the April price increase.

TV Ratings Drop Even at the Zoo

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bronx Zoo gorillas are bored with television.

A television set was obtained last year to pacify the cranky apes. Westerns and teen-age dance shows reportedly soothed the savage beasts.

But, says Joseph A. Davis Jr., the zoo's curator of mammals, "we don't have the setup anymore. It didn't work well enough. They would watch it for a while and get disinterested in that, too."

Besides, the set was the only one at the zoo and humans wanted to watch it. Entertaining apes poses problems, especially in winter when they're confined indoors. "The smarter the animal, the easier it is for him to get bored," said Davis. "Apes are, by and large, the hardest to keep entertained."

When the television experiment flopped, other diversions were tried. Sugar cane stalks were given the apes—until one heaved a five-pound stalk at a young girl.

Football and basketballs were chewed up. Baseball bats were ruled out. Automobile tires proved the most durable toys.

All this bouncing around hasn't helped romance among the primates. Davis is trying to get Pili-Pili, an 8-year-old male, and Sumalli, a 7-year-old female, interested in each other. But, he said in an interview, it's no wonder they're failures as mates — "she's scared to death of him."

The next trick was to put some of the animals together and let them entertain each other. Davis found that if four gorillas or four orangutans were put together, they got along quite well. This summer he plans to put six gorillas together in roommates.

Wheat for India

Speedy American Methods Stalled at End of Journey

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Completing a journey half way around the world, an American freighter tied up at Alexandria Dock in Bombay with thousands of tons of golden Midwestern wheat to feed India's hungry millions.

Long black suction tubes bearing the handclasp sign of the U.S. aid program snaked down into the ship's holds. Engines made in Wisconsin started with a roar and the grain began pouring into a dockside warehouse.

It was an example of 20th Century America delivering the goods — harnessing the scientific wonder of its farms to the world's best transportation system in a campaign against famine in India.

At the discharge end of the suction tubes, the fast-moving 20th Century ran smack into the 18th Century, faltered, slowed an all but stopped.

On the receiving end were Indian longshoremen wielding tin pans and burlap bags. They stooped, laboriously scooped, warehouse—that lacked pots, traps or other rodent preventives.

Each time the bags were moved, grain seeped from the seams, and one or two split open.

No provision had been made for distributing the wheat, although the Phalodi area was affected as the most seriously

Government officials said they were at work organizing a half dozen or so ration shops in the outlying villages. First they had to find a merchant in each village who would agree to handle the wheat, sell it at the prescribed rate and settle for the decreed profit.

Rail shipment, normally the most feasible method of moving large quantities overland, is limited in India. Lightweight rails prevent maximum loading of available freight cars or fast movement of trains.

At Phalodi, an oasis city at the end of the northern railway some 40 miles to inland desert in Rajasthan State, six freight cars brought some 400 tons of American wheat which had been unloaded at the Gulf of Kutch 450 miles south.

The cars spent one day on the siding. When unloading started it took two days for barefoot laborers to haul the bags of wheat onto the platform. Crows flew down and thrust their beaks into the bags, gobbling grain.

On the fourth morning, two-wheel carts pulled by pairs of Brahma bulls lined up and the bags were loaded, nine bags to a cart. Then they were carted about four blocks to a lease warehouse—that lacked pots, traps or other rodent preventives. Each time the bags were moved, grain seeped from the seams, and one or two split open.

No provision had been made for distributing the wheat, although the Phalodi area was affected as the most seriously

After reaching its Indian goal via the most modern transportation methods, wheat for India is unloaded by hand from railroad cars then delivered by slow-moving oxcart to the waiting Indians, thus combining the transportation methods of two centuries. (AP Photofax)

Weekend Accidents Kill Eight in State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An automobile accident on the Connecticut Turnpike Sunday and five in Bridgeport Saturday took the lives of eight people in Connecticut accidents over the weekend.

The fire started in a third floor attic bedroom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lovar, and before it was extinguished had taken the lives of two of their sons, John, 28, and Donald, 21, fire officials reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovar and six other sons and daughters escaped with minor injuries. Fire officials said the blaze apparently was started by a discarded cigarette.

The Turnpike accident in Fairfield killed Lawrence B. Guss, 24, of Springfield, and Theo M. Williams, 29, of Brooklyn, N.Y.

State police said a car driven by Guss smashed into a steel signpost on the highway divider.

Hartford Man To Be Arraigned In Murder Case

HARTFORD (AP)—A 29-year-old Hartford man was scheduled to be arraigned in Circuit Court today on charge of murder in connection with a fatal shooting witnessed by two policemen Saturday.

Jackson Davis Jr., was charged with the slaying of Amos Knowlin, 21, outside Knowlin's apartment at 128 Bedford St.

Police had been sent to the address to stop a fight at Knowlin's apartment.

A birthday party was being held for Knowlin, and police said they quizzed the affair, but decided to stop a fight at Knowlin's apartment.

Police said Davis, who lives at 127 Bedford St., had been in the party earlier, and while they sat in their cruiser he returned and met Knowlin out in the street.

Police said Davis told them that Knowlin had been reaching for a knife.

Davis was held without bond after Knowlin died at McCook Hospital shortly after the shooting.

Retreat Slated By 4 Parishes

Women of four Manchester parishes will participate in a weekend retreat April 1 to 3 at Our Lady of Calvary Retreat House, Farmington. The Rev. James Anthony Wiley, vicar of the Holy Family Monastery, West Hartford, will conduct the retreat.

The group will leave Manchester in private cars Friday, April 1 at 5 p.m., and return Sunday afternoon. Transportation will be furnished if necessary.

A new addition at the Retreat House has made 42 private rooms available. Those wishing private rooms are reminded to make early reservations with Mrs. John Scheppenburg, Mrs. R. Hagstrom and Mrs. Jack Carr, all of St. James Parish; Mrs. Rose Schworer, Mrs. Primo Amadio and Mrs. Joseph Donovan, all of St. Bridget's Parish; Mrs. Victor Squadrilo and Mrs. Vernon Hauschild, both of St. Bartholomew's Parish and Mrs. Vincent Porter, Mrs. John Tierney and Mrs. James Mulready, all of the Church of the Assumption.

"THE WAY I HEARD IT"

by John Gruber

My esteemed friend and colleague on The Herald, Dr. Colman, asked me this question the other day, about the production of "Aida" last Friday night. "If the public was delighted, why not let it go at that? Why look for faults, if the people who love it get their money's worth. After all, most of them go purely for entertainment."

I know there are a great many of you who feel the same way about me and my reviews, so I'll try to explain my position. I don't go to the opera to be entertained; I go to see if I can find something to praise. I don't go to see if I can find something to praise. I don't go to see if I can find something to praise.

UConn's Best Sheinwold on Bridge By Chicago

By JOHN GRUBER

Not in a long time have I heard as much about the musical program as that offered yesterday afternoon at Jorgensen Auditorium by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. This was away from the best offering of the season, which has included two other symphony orchestras from abroad.

Jean Martinon chose a most interesting program, and the orchestra played it magnificently well. It opened with Brahms' "Tragic Overture," certainly the best of the lot ever heard. Academic Festival Overture by the same composer which comes to mind as a striking contrast to the one heard yesterday.

Mr. Martinon understood the correlation of the word "tragic" in its Greek meaning and gave us an interpretation of it which was as convincing as any I have encountered in 27 productions. Moreover, he didn't have to use up his breath so quickly as if he sang concerto. He was, however, a great sense of inexorable and faithful progression.

We were to hear a contrasting tragedy in the music of Schubert's Fourth Symphony, known as the "Tragic." I haven't heard in many years. How welcome it was to renew an old acquaintance, and what a rare opportunity for those present to hear this work so rarely programmed.

Schubert's work is not so profound as he is credited with. It could it will have been since the composer was only 19 when he wrote it. Mr. Martinon realized the difference and there was no attempt to read more into it than he put there by his author. To me, at least, the reading reflected in the music.

"There is no music in the life that sounds with idiot laughter only; there is not a string attuned to mirth, but has its chord in melancholy."

It was beautiful as played, and one was reminded of Sir George Gounod's eulogy of Schubert. "There never was a man like him, and there will never be another."

After the intermission, we had a 20th century work for contrast, with a most unwieldy title. It was Frank Martin's "Concerto for Violin and Orchestra," Symphonically. Performed in the Tanglewood Festival Orchestra. Premiered in Boston by the Boston Symphony. It was one of the most widely known compositions, at least in this country, and it was a great pleasure to hear it.

You know this to be the case, for I told you that it was produced at Hart College of Music, weeks in advance of the actual performance. I listened to what music had been recorded from it, and I read the libretto in the original German, from which I translated a resume of the plot, published in this column.

So I go to musical offerings produced by the University of Connecticut, and I am never again surprised to agree with me all the time. I try to be honest and objective in judging as well as in possible from the composer's point of view. And I don't forget that I've been on the receiving end of professional criticism, too.

Actually, I know the performers. I think I read the program and heard the manager of several top-notch opera stars tell some one else "Even when I hear, I know some of my singers, I have to agree he's right about it," which was most generous of him.

The performers have still a further obligation to the public. Whether it be opera or symphony, both ventures operate in a loss. It is the manager's job to see that the public feels it gets its money's worth; it should get about 50 per cent more than its money's worth for that's about their proportionate share. The rest is made up by philanthropic donors.

Presumably these donors make up the deficit in the interests of art, not entertainment, otherwise they would be looking for a better way to spend their money. The donors need an objective evaluation to know if their money is being wisely used.

My job is to see that people who are interested in the arts are not misled. I shall always be far more critical than the average attendant at a musical event.

That answers your question, Sol?

POLICEMAN A SUICIDE

Vernon New School and Pool Slated for Discussion

School construction will be the main item on the agenda of the Vernon Board of Education tonight's meeting of the Vernon Board of Education. Construction of a new elementary school and a proposal to build a swimming pool at Rockville High School will be considered.

The town's Permanent Building Committee (PBC) will ask for an indication of the site for the new school, as well as other specifications including the size of the structure.

The PBC will recommend that the school be built in the Center Rd. Vernon area. They indicate that this location would be suitable for a school which could walk to school, thus reducing the town's transportation costs.

The elementary school was recommended last year by Dr. Raymond H. Rasmussen, based on his estimate of school population. The estimates have proven accurate in past years.

Dr. Rasmussen has argued that the school be built for use in Sept. 1967, in order to prevent overcrowding of schools in present school facilities.

The board, concerned that if the school were built in 1967 there would be many vacant classrooms, approved the proposal to build the school in the Center Rd. area, which would push the completion date up one year to 1968.

The problem was presented to the board of representatives who agreed on the 1968 date.

The high school addition Building Committee has recommended construction of a swimming pool at Rockville High School.

The proposal has been considered before. However, the increased need for recreational facilities, especially in the new section of town, has come under greater discussion recently.

One consideration is the overcrowded conditions encountered at the Horwitz Memorial Pool at Henry Park. The pool is not enclosed, and is used only during warm weather. An enclosed pool could be used all year round by students and as a recreational facility.

The board's Personnel Committee will present a proposal to increase the pay of substitute teachers and teachers giving home instruction.

The teachers presently get $10 per day for the first 10 days, then $15 a day thereafter. Substitutes for home bound pupils receive $5.00 per hour plus transportation expense.

The pay hike proposed are for $18 a day for the first 10 days, then $20 a day. Home tutoring would pay 15 per hour including transportation.

The board will hear a plea by members of the high school rifle club who are in search of a home. The club has about 65 members who meet at Camp Hill at the West St. Army until the facilities were torn out for expansion.

The club's rifle team of about 10 members practice in Manchester, but other club members have no place to shoot.

Also on tonight's agenda is a report on a transportation problem at Bee Mountain. Parents there successfully petitioned the state board of education for school buses for their children.

Previously the Vernon school board had rejected the plan. The state board had ruled that because of safety hazards, the children were entitled to transportation.

However, action is being taken to eliminate the hazards, and the board is expected to hear that buses will not be required. The town has 30 days to comply with the edict of the state board.

Hear Talk on Handicapped Dr. Philip Shapiro, West Hartford opthalmist, met recently with a number of Vernon educators to discuss identification and education of perceptually handicapped children. The meeting was for dancing from 7 to 9 p.m. and was arranged by Mrs. E. J. Squires, Bombay or what you will call the copy. Dr. Shapiro is an Abnuz, social worker for Peter Cordera, 181 Eldridge St.

Hebron Grand List Is Up $3,329, Error Found

The revised grand list stands at $9,366,900, according to figures released by the Board of Tax Review. This is an increase of $3,329 over the list compiled by the assessor.

The increase was accounted for by a clerical error called to the attention of the Board of Tax Review by the assessor.

Four appeals were received, three of which were denied. Drainage Plans Required The board of selection has adopted a board policy a requirement of drainage plans from any person, firm or corporation making application for a permit to excavate any town lot or driveway or other purpose; or for permission to remove any property line marker or portion thereof bounding any town property where it appears that such removal will do damage; or to do anything which may interrupt, hinder or divert the movement of water in any watercourse or drain on town property or at any place where the town of Hebron has drainage rights.

Building Requirements Changed The Zoning and Planning Commission voted to approve the request of 60-acre owner, Thomas Truchinski of New Britain Saturday, on charges of using interstate communication to transmit wagering information.

Federal authorities said Truchinski, of 61 Arch St., had with 200,000 tons of rice this year. Peiking said he was lying. It is said and humiliating. Castro said, "that in the midst of the battle that our people are waging against imperialism we have to, at the same time, distrust our energies to reply to those whom we considered our sincere allies."

Speaking at Havana University ceremonies commemorating a 1967 student attempt to assassinate former President Fulgenio Batista, Castro said his revolutionary regime has created "a great climate of security and a great climate of confidence."

He said a number of officials have been arrested on charges of high living. A sweeping investigation is under way to determine the "extent of this problem," he said.

Castro said any claims that his regime was under great internal pressures were lies created by "North American imperialism."

Castro Ready For Break With Peiking Regime

Castro said he was ready to take out of the country trucks, cars and other large equipment belonging to Peiking's representatives in Cuba.

The deterioration in relations between Havana and Peiking became known Jan. 2 when Castro accused China of reneging on an agreement to supply Cuba with 200,000 tons of rice this year. Peiking said he was lying. It is said and humiliating. Castro said, "that in the midst of the battle that our people are waging against imperialism we have to, at the same time, distrust our energies to reply to those whom we considered our sincere allies."

Medicare Will Not Pay For All Your Health Care Expense. New Blue Cross 65 Is Specially Designed To Cover Services Not Paid By Medicare.

Here Is What Blue Cross Covers:

BENEFITS IN A HOSPITAL

- Medicare does not pay the first $40 of hospital stay. Blue Cross 65 will pay this $40 charge.
- Medicare provides a benefit period of 90 days, but from 61st to 90th day you pay $10 per day toward semi-private room. Blue Cross 65 will pay this $10 charge from the 61st through 90th day.
- Medicare benefits in a hospital end after the 90th day. Blue Cross 65 gives you 30 extra days of benefits and pays full charges for semi-private room and all hospital Special Services such as X-ray, drugs, operating room, laboratory services, oxygen, etc.
- Medicare, with rare exceptions, does not pay for services outside the United States. Blue Cross 65 will cover full cost of hospital semi-private room and all hospital Special Services for a 30-day benefit period anywhere in the world.

CARE IN APPROVED NURSING HOME

5. Beginning January 1, 1967, Medicare will cover in full the first 20 days of care in a chronic or convalescent home or hospital extended care unit, but for the next 80 days you pay $5 per day. Blue Cross 65 will pay this $5 charge during the 80-day period.

NOTES: Benefits above are for each spell of illness. No limit to number of admissions in calendar year, but readmission to hospital or extended care unit within 60 days following date of discharge is the same spell of illness.

DRUGS

6. Medicare does not cover the cost of drugs or medicine outside a hospital. Blue Cross 65 will pay for your prescription drugs for 120 days after discharge from a hospital as follows: You pay the first $25 and Blue Cross will pay 80% of the balance up to a maximum of $500.

OUTPATIENT AND EMERGENCY CARE IN A HOSPITAL

7. Medicare does not cover the first $20 of charges for diagnostic services in hospital outpatient department. Blue Cross 65 will pay this $20.

After the initial $20 deductible charge in Item No. 7 above, you pay 20% of charges for diagnostic services on an outpatient basis for a period of 20 days.

Blue Cross 65 will pay the 20% not covered by Medicare.

Medicare Part A does not cover treatment in the hospital emergency room.

Blue Cross 65 will pay the charge for emergency room care for accidents and serious and sudden illness when you receive treatment within 72 hours.

Medicare Part A does not cover hospital services incidental to out-patient surgery.

Blue Cross 65 will cover these services during the initial visit to the hospital.

You Get This Added Protection At Lowest Possible Cost:

Individual $4.50 per month Husband and Wife $9.00 per month (Dues to be paid quarterly)

Chaplin, Sophia, Brando Ignore Royal Film Show

LONDON (AP) — Charlie Chaplin, Sophia Loren and Marlon Brando turned down invitations to tonight's royal film show, where the stars meet Queen Elizabeth II.

Vivian Cox, organizer of the royal performance, said "I don't regard this as a snub to the queen. It is the fact that Brando and Sophia Loren at the last minute were described by one of the producers as a 'cloud of embarrassment.'"

Invitations to the annual royal film show are always highly prized by stage and film stars.

Chaplin, who is producing and directing a movie in London, said he was "honored and surprised" to be asked to attend a ceremony at the stage presentation of the royal film show. But he turned down the invitation because he said he is filming from early morning until late at night.

Chaplin, who has been ill with influenza for the past week and shooting on the movie was suspended last Monday when he went home ill. He returned to work today.

Mrs. Loren and Brando are the stars of the Chaplin film. Miss Loren, after accepting an invitation to tonight's show, said her film commitments would not allow her to appear.

Of Brando's absence, Cox said, "I have not heard his name and I don't know anyone who has."

A friend of Brando said: "He has a shooting schedule of 85 days on this film and until Chaplin's illness they were shooting from early morning until late at night practically every day of the week. Now that his schedule has been delayed because of Chaplin's illness and presumably they'll be working even later to try to catch up."

The event is in aid of the Campaign for the Deaf and the Bénévolent Fund.

Two Selectmen Competing For Townsfolk's Problems

Tolland residents having problems involving the town board are being presented in writing either at a board of selectmen's meeting or by mail to the board, according to First Selectman 2, Vernon Stokess, 0; Carmack Zangli.

Minority selectman Stuart Danforth's says that he will hold office hours at the town hall on the second and fourth, Saturday, of each month, from 10 a.m. to noon, to hear of the problems of town residents, and report to the selectmen at a regular meeting.

Danforth, a Democrat, has been at odds with Zangli and Selectman Frank Kalas, both Republicans, over Danforth's involvement in selectmen's duties.

First Selectman Carmack Zangli also says that he has not been presented a list of dates for a meeting with Danforth to go over town records, Danforth also said at Friday night's Democratic Town Committee meeting that he had submitted such a list, but that it had been disregarded by Zangli.

High School Records - The high school building committee reports the work on the new high school is progressing well, in spite of unfavorable weather during the winter.

Some of the heating units in the school are wired and in operation. The average masonry walls are 75 per cent complete and the kitchen plumbing has been roughed in.

Two accidents occurred yesterday on a slippery Rt. 32, according to State Police. Francis E. Roderick, 38, of Norwich, was charged with failure to drive on both sides of an accident on Rt. 32 Sunday morning, when his car skidded on a slippery patch of ice.

Pessimism Grips Negotiations for Boston's Press

BOSTON (AP)—The chief federal mediator says the strike against Boston newspapers now entering its second week could last longer than the 114-day New York strike of 1962 and 1963.

William Rose of Washington, state negotiator "are depressed and pessimistic."

Rose contrasted the Boston situation with the New York situation, where the publishers presented a unified front and the various unions were represented through a unity committee.

Rose said the Boston situation was more complicated because of the large number of unions involved and the fact that the publishers were not united.

Chimney Falls Wrong Direction With Expertise

NEW BRITAIN (AP)—Demolition experts were on the job, but when the 175-foot concrete chimney crashed to the ground Sunday night it fell in the wrong direction.

Instead of falling harmlessly northeast it fell due east across the New Haven Railroad tracks, now used only by freight trains.

A truck belonging to the Jones Demolition Co. was smashed by the chimney and the crash caused the gates to fall at two key grade crossings in the city.

"First time it ever happened this way to me," said Kurt Laaser, a demolition expert who was the subcontractor on the job.

The chimney was razed to clear the ground in a redevelopment area owned by the city.

Wright Will Retire End of School Year

Russell A. Wright, 34 years head of the business education department at Manchester High School, has notified the board of education that he intends to retire from teaching in June.

Wright has headed the MIS business department since coming here in the fall of 1932 from Leicestershire, Mass., where he had a similar position for seven years.

Under his guidance, the department has expanded from one typing room with equipment to serve 30 pupils to four typing rooms and 155 typewriters. Bookkeeping courses have been increased from 14 to 33.

A long-time member and past president of the Manchester Rotary Club, Wright has earned his 20-year perfect attendance record.

The father of three grown children, he lives with his wife at 102 Green Rd. in North Fort. He is a member of the State Board of Education's business education advisory board.

Men Exchange Blood Cells in Fight for Lives

One pint of blood is removed from each patient through a vein in the leg. The blood, placed in a plastic bag, is spun at about 20,000 revolutions per minute for 30 minutes.

The red blood cells and plasma, or blood cells, are returned to the man from whom they were taken. The white blood cells are exchanged in Griffith and Lediker.

The process, known as leukopheresis, requires one to two hours. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9.

Mrs. Catherine G. Bunce, 63, of 109 Pine St., died yesterday morning at the Memorial Hospital, Newington, after a long illness.

Mrs. Margaret J. Maternal, 60, of 174 Spruce St., died yesterday morning at the Memorial Hospital, Newington, after a long illness.
