Robbers Get $2,000 from Bowl Lanes

WINDHAM (AP)—Safe-crackers who held a gun on a janitor for nearly four hours while looting a bowling alley of some $2,000 apparently had not expected to find anybody in the building, state police said today.

The incident occurred early Sunday at the Will Bowl on Route 6 outside Willimantic. The janitor, Lawrence Slyman, told state police he was working in a rest room less than an hour after closing time when a slightly built masked man carrying a gun surprised him.

For more than three hours, state police said, Slyman was forced to lie behind a counter while the gunman stood guard over him.

The janitor said he could hear at least one other man whispering from time to time, he said. State police said most of the loot, approximately $1,450, was in a safe, which was ripped open. The men also took about $500 from the soda fountain, they said.

They got in by prying a metal screen off an exhaust duct on the roof and dropping to one of the alleys, state police said. If they had realized someone was inside, state police said, the men probably would have forced their way in by some more direct means.

7 Boys in Custody

MERIDEN (AP)—The number of inmates still missing from the Connecticut School for Boys fell to four today after a weekend in which 11 ran off.

Norman K. Morgan, superintendent of the institution for juvenile delinquents, said he learned this morning that one youth had been picked up in Bridgeport and another in Stamford.

Five other boys had been taken in custody earlier.

Ribicoff Fights Bridge

NEW LONDON (AP)—Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., sees nothing good in proposals to put a bridge across Long Island Sound from Long Island to Connecticut.

Ribicoff said Sunday he was "bitterly opposed to, and will do my utmost to fight, any bridge linking the Connecticut and New York shorelines."

The senator's anti-bridge remarks came during a talk at a Communion breakfast sponsored by the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

UFO Reports Spread to Wider Area

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan's weird, blinking lights apparently have extended their appearances into Ohio and Wisconsin. The reports of sightings, limited for nearly two weeks to southern Michigan, came from some 100 miles north in Michigan's "thumb" district, across Lake Michigan at Green Bay, Wis., and south near Toledo and Dayton, Ohio.

As before, there was no full explanation. So far, the only authoritative analysis has been the swamp-gas theory advanced Friday by a Northwestern University astrophysicist concerning two sightings in southern Michigan.

The scientist, Dr. J. Allen Hynek, who also is an Air Force special consultant, has gotten arguments from those who reported seeing the mysterious flying objects.

An Ohio highway patrolman R. D. Landversicht said Sunday he saw a strange light approaching Wright Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton. He reportedly photographed the lights and the Air Force develops the films today.

Court Ruling Opens Rights Death Cases

Judd Urges Pat Stand On China

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Rep. Walter H. Judd called today for stepped-up bombings of North Viet Nam to reduce Ho Chi Minh's "capacity to kill South Vietnamese people."

In testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, he also urged continued isolation as well as containment of Red China.

Judd said that to recognize Communist China and drop opposition to its admission to the United Nations, as previous witnesses have proposed, would give it "a smashing and wholly unnecessary victory" from which all free Asia would suffer.

Judd called for the bombing of "war plants, power plants, oil tanks" and whatever is important to North Viet Nam's prosecution of the war.

"Why not openly announce to North Viet Nam and the world a list of military targets that are going to be destroyed sometime in the next few weeks or months?" he asked. He said that Ho Chi Minh, the North Viet Nam leader, could get his people out of those plants and away from the areas.

"We don't want to kill North Vietnamese people," Judd said. "We want only to reduce his capacity to kill South Vietnamese people. There would be criticism. But the cheers in our country and around the world for such action would make the jeers sound pretty feeble."

"Why haven't we done these things? Because an almost hysterical fear has been built up that, among other things, it might lead to war with Red China," Judd said.

Judd testified at the urging of Republicans on the committee to counter previous testimony. Judd, a Republican who represented Minnesota in Congress for 20 years, is a former missionary in China and now a Washington writer, radio commentator and lecturer.

Other scheduled witnesses were Prof. George Taylor of the University of Washington and Prof. David Rowe of Yale University, whose presence also was urged by Republicans.

Taylor, director of the university's Far Eastern and Russian Institute, said that contrary to some testimony that "it is 'fucking that is trying to isolate us.'"

"The terms she has announced for taking a seat in the United Nations are so outrageous that they must have been designed to show her contempt for that organization," Taylor said.

Judd testified that Communist governments and their fronts "are waging war against free peoples worldwide" with South Viet Nam at the moment "the hot-test spot, the test case for us."

"The stake is not Viet Nam; it is the world," Judd said.

Deavours Nix, identified by the FBI as a KKK leader, is escorted by Federal agents after his arrest in a civil rights fatality case.

13 Klansmen Held in Slaying

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—FBI agents arrested 13 men early today and pressed an intensive search for another on charges growing out of the fire bomb slaying of a Negro civil rights worker here Jan. 10.

The agents began the roundup at 8 a.m. and by 7:12 a.m. announced that 12 were in custody in Mississippi and a 13th in Houston, Tex. A search was being made for Sam Holloway Bowers Jr., imperial wizard of the Mississippi Klan. Mississippi Highway Patrol investigators assisted in the search.

Those arrested were taken to Laurel, Miss., for fingerprinting and will be taken before U.S. Commissioner Jack Pittman in Hattiesburg later.

The 14 are charged with civil rights law violations stemming from the slaying of Vernon F. Dahmer, 38. Dahmer's home and store were burned and he died from burns after returning fire on his attackers.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said all 14 men are members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi.

Besides Bowers, he said, they include Cecil V. Sessum, 30, of Ellisville, exalted cyclops of the Jones County Klavern; and Howard T. Giles, 37, former exalted cyclops of the Ellisville Klavern.

The FBI complaint against the men indicated at least one had admitted taking part in the alleged conspiracy.

Dahmer was a past president of the Forrest County branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He and his family were awakened by gunfire about 2 a.m. Jan. 10 and found their home and nearby store engulfed in flames.

He died later in the day in a hospital. His wife and 10-year-old daughter suffered burns.

Charles Evers, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, expressed

Reds Arrive For Opening Of Confab

MOSCOW (AP)—Communist delegations from around the world made pilgrimages in the rain to Lenin's tomb today as Moscow prepared for the opening of the Soviet Communist party's 23rd congress.

Delegations from more than 40 foreign countries and 5,000 Soviet delegates to the congress thronged the hotels, trudged through museums and went window-shopping.

More foreign delegations were arriving constantly. Only the Communist parties of Albania, New Zealand and Japan have joined the Chinese Communists in boycotting the meeting. Delegates have arrived from North Viet Nam and North Korea, which once sided with Peking in the dispute with Moscow but now take a more neutral position.

The congress, first since 1961, opens Tuesday in the modernistic Palace of Congresses in the Kremlin.

The chief scheduled business is adoption of directives for the Soviet Union's 1966-70 economic development plan. The unannounced business that is expected to attract the most attention will be comment by the party first secretary, Leonid I. Brezhnev, on his predecessors, Joseph Stalin and Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Communist sources say Brezhnev will mention them both as

Mrs. Johnson presents a bouquet of roses as she and President Johnson welcome India's prime minister, Mrs. Indira Gandhi, on the White House grounds.

President Welcomes India's Mrs. Gandhi

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson welcomed India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi today as a good and gracious friend and gave assurances that the United States will back her efforts to solve India's great problems.

In a White House welcoming ceremony, Mrs. Gandhi responded that India and the United States "should not take each other for granted or allow relations to drift."

"Together," she said, "we can make the world a better place in which to live."

Mrs. Gandhi flew to Washington by helicopter from the restored Colonial capital of Williamsburg, Va., where she had spent a quiet night.

The weather was clear, bright and in the mid-30s when the limousine bearing the 48-year-old widow, who leads the world's largest democracy, arrived at the White House.

Johnson, wearing a blue topcoat and Mrs. Johnson in an ivory white wool coat and hat to match, welcomed the Indian leader.

Indonesia Names Its New Cabinet

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A quiet general, a respected sultan and a shrewd politician emerged today as the key men in Indonesia's new Cabinet.

President Sukarno, standing under an ornate crystal chandelier at his palace, Sunday night announced formation of the new government after a week of tough bargaining.

The key men are Lt. Gen. Suharto, who took over the government March 11 after violent student demonstrations against pro-Communists in the previous government; the Sultan of Jogjakarta, Hamengku Buwono IX, and Adam Malik, who headed Murba, an anti-Communist Socialist organization which was banned in 1965.

Lt. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, the former defense minister whose ouster by Sukarno last month set off the student demonstrations, was given the rank of minister and named deputy commander of Kogan, the command in charge of the "crush Malaysia" campaign.

What part he will play in the Cabinet was not clear.

There was no appreciable reduction in the size of the government. The previous lineup of 100 ministers, handpicked by Sukarno, was replaced by an inner cabinet of six deputy premiers, 34 ministers and 39 deputy ministers—a total of 79. Sukarno remains the head of the Cabinet.

"What was intended to be a tiger has given birth to an elephant," the Indonesian Herald commented.

Students from Jakarta and Bandung were reported, planning to demonstrate Tuesday against the new government. The students are dissatisfied because of the number of familiar political faces still in the government and the size of the Cabinet. They also want speedy action to resolve the nation's acute economic crisis.

Suharto in a broadcast appealed to the people to give the Cabinet an opportunity to function. He said the new government in "the first stage and the maximum we can achieve at

Two Findings Noted In Cancer Research

NEW DRUG
PITTSBURGH (AP)—A scientist reported today development of a two-faced, Jekyll-and-Hyde type of cancer-fighting drug which apparently becomes evil only when it hits cancer cells.

It's a new and seemingly safer version of the cancer-attacking nitrogen-mustard drugs that are chemical cousins of skin-blistering poison gases used on World War I battlefields.

The new drug—so far used only in animals but with promising results—has been dubbed a "stingless mustard," in that it attacks cancer cells like conventional mustards, but apparently lacks their unwanted "sting" for normal cells.

Dr. Ziron O. Papanastasiou of Arthur D. Little, Inc., Cambridge, Mass., told about it in a report prepared for the 151st national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

He said the synthetic compound—called ADL-45—has shown high activity against a wide variety of experimental animal tumors, especially against two types of leukemia cells. Further testing is under way, looking towards the possibility of trials in humans, he said.

But he declared in an interview supplementing his technical report that "I am only very cautiously optimistic" about whether it will be useful against human malignancy.

"It is difficult to tell, at this

NEW TECHNIQUE
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A strange difference in the energy system of one fast-growing cancer is being exploited to help its victims, a University of Southern California doctor said today.

The cancer is melanoma, sometimes called black cancer. It seems to rely on the oxygen-carrying potential of an essential chemical helper called tyrosinase, said Dr. Harry B. Demopoulos, a SC pathologist.

By two methods, he has tried to cut down on the amount of this vital chemical available to the tumor, and it has resulted in shrinking cancers in some 80 per cent of his patients.

It requires, however, a stringent diet to eliminate a basic amino acid that is found in the protein of meat, milk, eggs and other foods. In fact, patients are often reduced to eating a powder-like combination of selected materials, plus certain fruits and vegetables.

In an alternative method, a drug is used to pull copper out of the system, further cutting down on the chemical energy available to the tumor. Demopoulos told the American Cancer Society's eighth annual Science Writer's Seminar.

The treatment has several drawbacks. The diet is difficult and unpleasant. It takes two months of the drug treatment to bring the copper out of the system—a relatively long period when the patient is suffering from such a wild growing cancer.

Turks Name Replacement For Gursel

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Parliament declared the office of president vacant today and chose Gen. Cevdet Sunay, 66, to fill the post.

Sunay, a political moderate who resigned as chief of the armed forces general staff and retired from the army in anticipation of his selection, replaces President Cemal Gursel.

He is the fifth president in 1923, the fourth general to hold the post.

He was elected by secret ballot in a joint session of Parliament after Gursel heard a medical report prepared by 38 doctors saying Gursel is mentally and physically incapable of resuming his duties. He is suffering from arteriosclerosis and thrombosis and has been in a coma for 49 days after a series of strokes. He was brought home Saturday from Washington, where he had been under treatment at Walter Reed Hospital. Doctors said there was no hope for his recovery.

Sunay is the mold of most of his predecessors in the presidency, beginning with Mustafa Kemal Ataturk. There has been

Dog Finds Soccer Cup

LONDON (AP)—A barge-man's mongrel dog named Pickles was the hero of the soccer world today after nosing out the stolen World Soccer Cup in a garden in South London.

"He'll eat caviar for a week," said Pickles' owner, David Corbett, 26.

"It was just taking Pickles for his Sunday evening walk," Corbett reported.

"We came out of the house into the garden and I was just about to put the lead on him when I noticed he was sniffing at something on the path."

"I looked down and saw a bundle. I picked it up and saw it was wrapped in newspaper."

"I tore the bottom off and saw a black base. I tore the top off and saw gold and words 'Brazil 1962.'"

"I took it back indoors to show my wife Jeanne. I couldn't believe it for a few moments. Then I got in the car and drove to the police station."

"This has saved our honor in the eyes of the world," said Joe

Trip to Altar Called Man's Happiest Journey

BENKLEY, Calif. (AP) — riages produce old-maid daughters to bleats from harassed husbands, that trip down the aisle into wedlock is the happiest journey ever, a psychiatrist affirms.

Dr. Genevieve Knupfer added, despite the bachelor's gallant playboy image, chances are he's really a lonely, doubting, rejected wretch.

Old maids, Dr. Knupfer's survey indicates, seem to get along just fine.

"Because of the greater freedom of choice men have in the marriage market," she said, "I conducted a survey among 786 adults of at least 25 years of age who are married or had never been married. Her findings: Married men scored highest in happiness, job satisfaction and high spirits, scoring one and four times more likely than single men to feel lonely and depressed.

Bachelors, in contrast, were more likely to be dissatisfied and out of step with the world. They were three times more likely to say they were unhappy, and four times more likely than single women to be dissatisfied with their jobs.

Dr. Knupfer said her studies also showed single men were more likely to have had childhood difficulties, were likely to have lived with only one parent, and were more likely to be single women, conversely, seem to have enjoyed the happiest childhood of all four categories. Dr. Knupfer said, adding that the old saying "happy mar-

Busing Plan Before Board

The board of education tonight will consider a State Department of Education proposal to share in a plan for busing some 300 Hartford elementary school pupils into Manchester and three other suburban towns this fall as an effort to thwart de facto segregation.

The board will meet at 8 p.m. Under the proposal, revealed in part last week by Dr. William J. Sanders, state commissioner of education, Negro and Puerto Rican children from schools in Hartford's North End would be placed in elementary classes through grade 6 in four suburban towns, including Manchester.

The plan was approved Thursday by the Hartford Board of Education, but has yet to be discussed by the towns, which reportedly include West Hartford, Farmington and East Granby, in addition to Manchester.

If it receives the towns' endorsement, the plan would amount to a two-year experiment at an estimated cost of $200,000, half of which would be borne by the federal government. The city of Hartford would contribute about $85,000, the remainder coming from the state.

Local board members who have attended preliminary state-level discussions have included Mrs. Katherine Bourne, chairman; Beldon Schaffer, Dr. Walter Schardt and Atty. Thomas Bailey.

While the board last month went on record as favoring such a plan, following talks with the Hartford board, it decided to take a "wait and see" attitude, pending some concrete proposition either from Hartford or state authorities.

Bourne, Schaffer and Dr. Schardt have stated that they would support a busing plan only if it could be accomplished at no cost to Manchester.

In other business tonight, the board will learn about the status of the proposed Manchester School Youth Project, a federally financed study of youth, from Raymond Rogers, Manchester High School principal and a member of the study committee.

Other reports will be heard on plans for Operation Head Start, which recently received federal approval; and on the data processing feasibility study being conducted in cooperation with the town.

UFO Reports Spread to Wider Area

Several observers said they felt the explanation was inadequate. Sheriff Douglas Harvey of Western County (Amherst) said Hypek had been burned.

The story is told in "Stride in the Vamps," an excellent piece of character delineation, in which the author, Hypek, describes some of the burning at the stake. We learn also that the author was once an infant in the flames, and that the scene ends with a fine dust of ash.

The lights over Wisconsin, Michigan and Ohio were described as "glowing green," "red and white," "bright, red high beams" and "traveling at a high rate of speed."

In Washington, Rep. Gerald R. Ford, Michigan, called for a congressional investigation of the reports, stating many Michigan residents feel the incident is not a hoax.

Speaking on the radio-televised program "Face the Nation" Ford said: "Bring out the witnesses. Bring out the facts. Bring out the names of the witnesses. Bring out the names of the witnesses. Bring out the names of the witnesses."

MILLION-DOLLAR GRANT TURNS UP VITAL CLUE

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

With the haircuts the boys wear it's not safe to rely on old-fashioned ways of telling them apart. Fortunately, a witness government gave me a large grant to investigate this problem, and I have discovered that some can tell the boys from the girls by the way they bid certain bridge hands.

Opening lead—Seven of Diamonds to make his report. Friday day to make his report. Friday day to make his report.

"There's no doubt about it: Friday's hand was bid by girls. You can tell by the fact that they got to six spades. South took the jack of diamonds and thought about the first trump play. There was no question about it: the girls trumped each hand on questions when they discovered a 4-4 fit. Actually, a weak 4-4 trump suit is sometimes no bargain.

The right hand of man would bid six notrump, which South can make whenever West has the queen of spades. South may well go down even if West has the queen of spades.

Daily Question: What do you hold: Spades, K-Q-J; Hearts, K-Q-J; Diamonds, A-Q; Clubs, 10-9-8-7. What do you say? Answer: Bid 1 NT. This shows you have a very masculine type of hand with balanced distribution and strength in at least three suits.

German Politics

BERLIN (AP) — Two West German political leaders cautiously indicated over the weekend they are willing to participate in public discussions with Communist East German political chief Willy Brandt said representatives of all parties in East and West Germany should be free to hold public discussions in any part of Germany on the future of the divided country.

Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, commented on the latest public exchange of proposals between his party and the East German Communist Party. He rejected a Communist proposal that the discussions be limited to these two parties. Brandt also said no one should be persecuted for attending such talks.

Erich Mende, deputy chancellor and leader of the Free Democrats in the West German coalition government, said his party was prepared to participate in talks in East Germany should not be labeled "anti-Communists" on their return to West Germany.

Burma to Oust Missionaries

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The Burmese government has asked all foreign missionaries who came to the country after independence in 1948 to leave by the end of the year.

The order affects Roman Catholic, Baptist and Anglican missionaries throughout the country.

The hardest hit are the Catholics with 232 scheduled to leave.

Some 20 Baptists with their wives and children and three Anglicans are also affected.

The French are the largest group of Catholic missionaries. Other Catholics are Irish, Italian, German and American.

A Catholic spokesman said there are more than 400 Catholic missionaries in the country. He said there was no indication how long the rest would be allowed to stay.

The first group of missionaries will start leaving in April. The departure of the rest will spread out until December.

Men in Burma Carry Shan Bag

RANGOON—A familiar air in Burma is the "shan bag," something like the purse carried by Bostonians wearing a shan bag in place of pocket.

Since Burma men usually wear a shirt like "pa-shan" (short-sleeved), they usually carry a shan bag in place of pocket.

It's made of knitted wool and comes in colorful tribal designs; sometimes it's decorated with silver.

Bolton Petition Asks School Board Exercise Budgetary Caution

Robert Treat will go to tonight's board of education meeting with a petition signed by more than 100 townsmen opposing a possible six and one-half mill rise in the tax levy to cover school costs next year.

The board is holding a special meeting at 8 in the high school library to review the petition. At the meeting, the board will be asked to exercise budgetary caution in the tax levy for 1967.

The petition was directed to the board of education, but the board is not the final authority on the tax rate. The town manager, Robert Treat, says, because he has expressed concern at both meetings about the rising cost of education, especially for residents on low incomes who must pay taxes out of their savings, this is a lot different from a normal increase in the tax rate. He said that the increase in the tax rate will be detrimental to the town.

The petition quotes Mrs. Harold Anderson, chairman of the Services for the Elderly, who says that in 1960, about six per cent of the total population was 65 or over.

The statement also claims that Bolton has the highest per capita income in the state, and that, out of 69 towns east of the river, only Lyme pays more.

The signers say they believe that "household income, class and added facilities and all this should be carefully weighed in the present tax rate."

"The common sense practice of supplying proven needs as we can afford them, within the statutory limitations, should be the yard stick by which we measure our commitments," the statement reads. "The petitioners are not asking for more than the emotional approach of doing everything for our citizens which we can afford to do."

The statement assures Treat that the signers "are not asking for as long as you continue to represent us with a realistic approach to school financing."

The meeting tonight has been called at the request of board chairman, Walter Wood.

all lies with the child, gradually being driven out by the advance of the years. So perhaps, when something that seems a second childhood comes along, it is the return of real wisdom.

What does a slightly old fellow like Konrad Adenauer, only 90 years old, tell himself when, suddenly, he finds himself reverting some of the opinions of his mature lifetime? Does he himself trust the new Adenauer? Which, in his own mind, is the real Adenauer? Some Adenauer, at any rate, stood up the other day, delivering a farewell address to his Christian Democratic party, and made everybody wonder what kind of Adenauer it really was.

Suddenly, he made public confession of his own belief that Soviet Russia has now "entered the ranks of the peoples that want peace." He said he had been impressed, as indeed some others were at the time, by the way Russia intervened to get a truce conference and a truce settlement in the conflict between India and Pakistan. He said the new Adenauer, or the real old Adenauer, that he knew he was using "bold words."

Perhaps he felt especially bold, the old champion of relentless show of Western strength against Russia, when he talked about what World War II, with German soldiers and guns as the agent, had done to Russia. He spoke of 15 million Soviet citizens killed in that war, with another 6 million seriously wounded. German soldiers, he said, had taken his bewildered audience, what sufferings they had inflicted on the Russians in World War II.

Second childhood? Or sanity and truth at last?

Probably Adenauer himself can't quite tell. When you get toward the end of your public work, you sometimes have a desire to speak more freely than before. Sometimes you may find yourself unable to resist having a little fun with the followers who have labored for you for so many years. Sometimes it may seem to you that you are about to speak the truth for the first time in your whole career. Sometimes it may seem to you that you are consistent in his own apostasy from himself. But more often he is to be found, the next time he speaks, back to his own traditional orthodox. Coming up from Adenauer before too very long, we should expect, some remark unmistakably back in the old comfortable, dead and cold was grove.

Wakening the Weiss Tax Line?

General Manager Robert Weiss is certainly not responsible for what the chairman of one of the local political party town committees says at a meeting of such committee.

Nor should it be assumed that General Manager Weiss would ever consider or himself automatically bound by such a statement.

The statement in question would be very important if it were to be taken seriously, because it would turn General Manager Weiss' effort to inaugurate a bold the tax rate line in Manchester into an elaborate and not very subtle burlesque of the real thing.

General Manager Weiss has set his own budget and tax rate goal, in this his first year of responsibility in Manchester, as one of holding the tax rate frozen by limiting increases in town appropriations to amounts made possible by the near five per cent growth in the town's grand list.

"This is a relatively simple proposition, made, one is sure, in complete good faith."

The good faith, and the simple common sense, too, would be blasted right out of it, however, if we were to take seriously the statement of the chairman of the town committee, a political leader talking to his town committee.

"The words of the town chairman which would make a cruel joke out of the policy of the town's chief executive and administrative official were those words which concerned the fact that a periodic revaluation of the town grand list is now under way."

The town chairman was quoted on this matter as predicting that whichever party wins the local election this October "will experience a windfall from revaluation, not experienced in many years, and one which will permit the party in power to take care of all town needs."

The town chairman was quoted as estimating that the revaluation, when it is completed, may add the equivalent of two and one half to three mills in what he called "new money" to the town's resources.

What the town chairman was talking about, obviously enough, was the possibility that whoever is running the town after next October can raise the tax rate two and a half to three mills without being caught doing it, without having to change the actual tax rate figure.

Surely, General Manager Weiss, in outlining his plan to hold the line policy, has been talking of a policy which would attempt to hold the tax rate line in a real and actual, and not in a fictional sense.

When the new grand list prepared by the revaluators is in, everybody will be able to say how much of an increase it is over the present grand list. Any increase greater than the five per cent annual increase found in this year's grand list on which the new budget and tax rate are to be based would be an arbitrary revaluation increase rather than any natural growth increase.

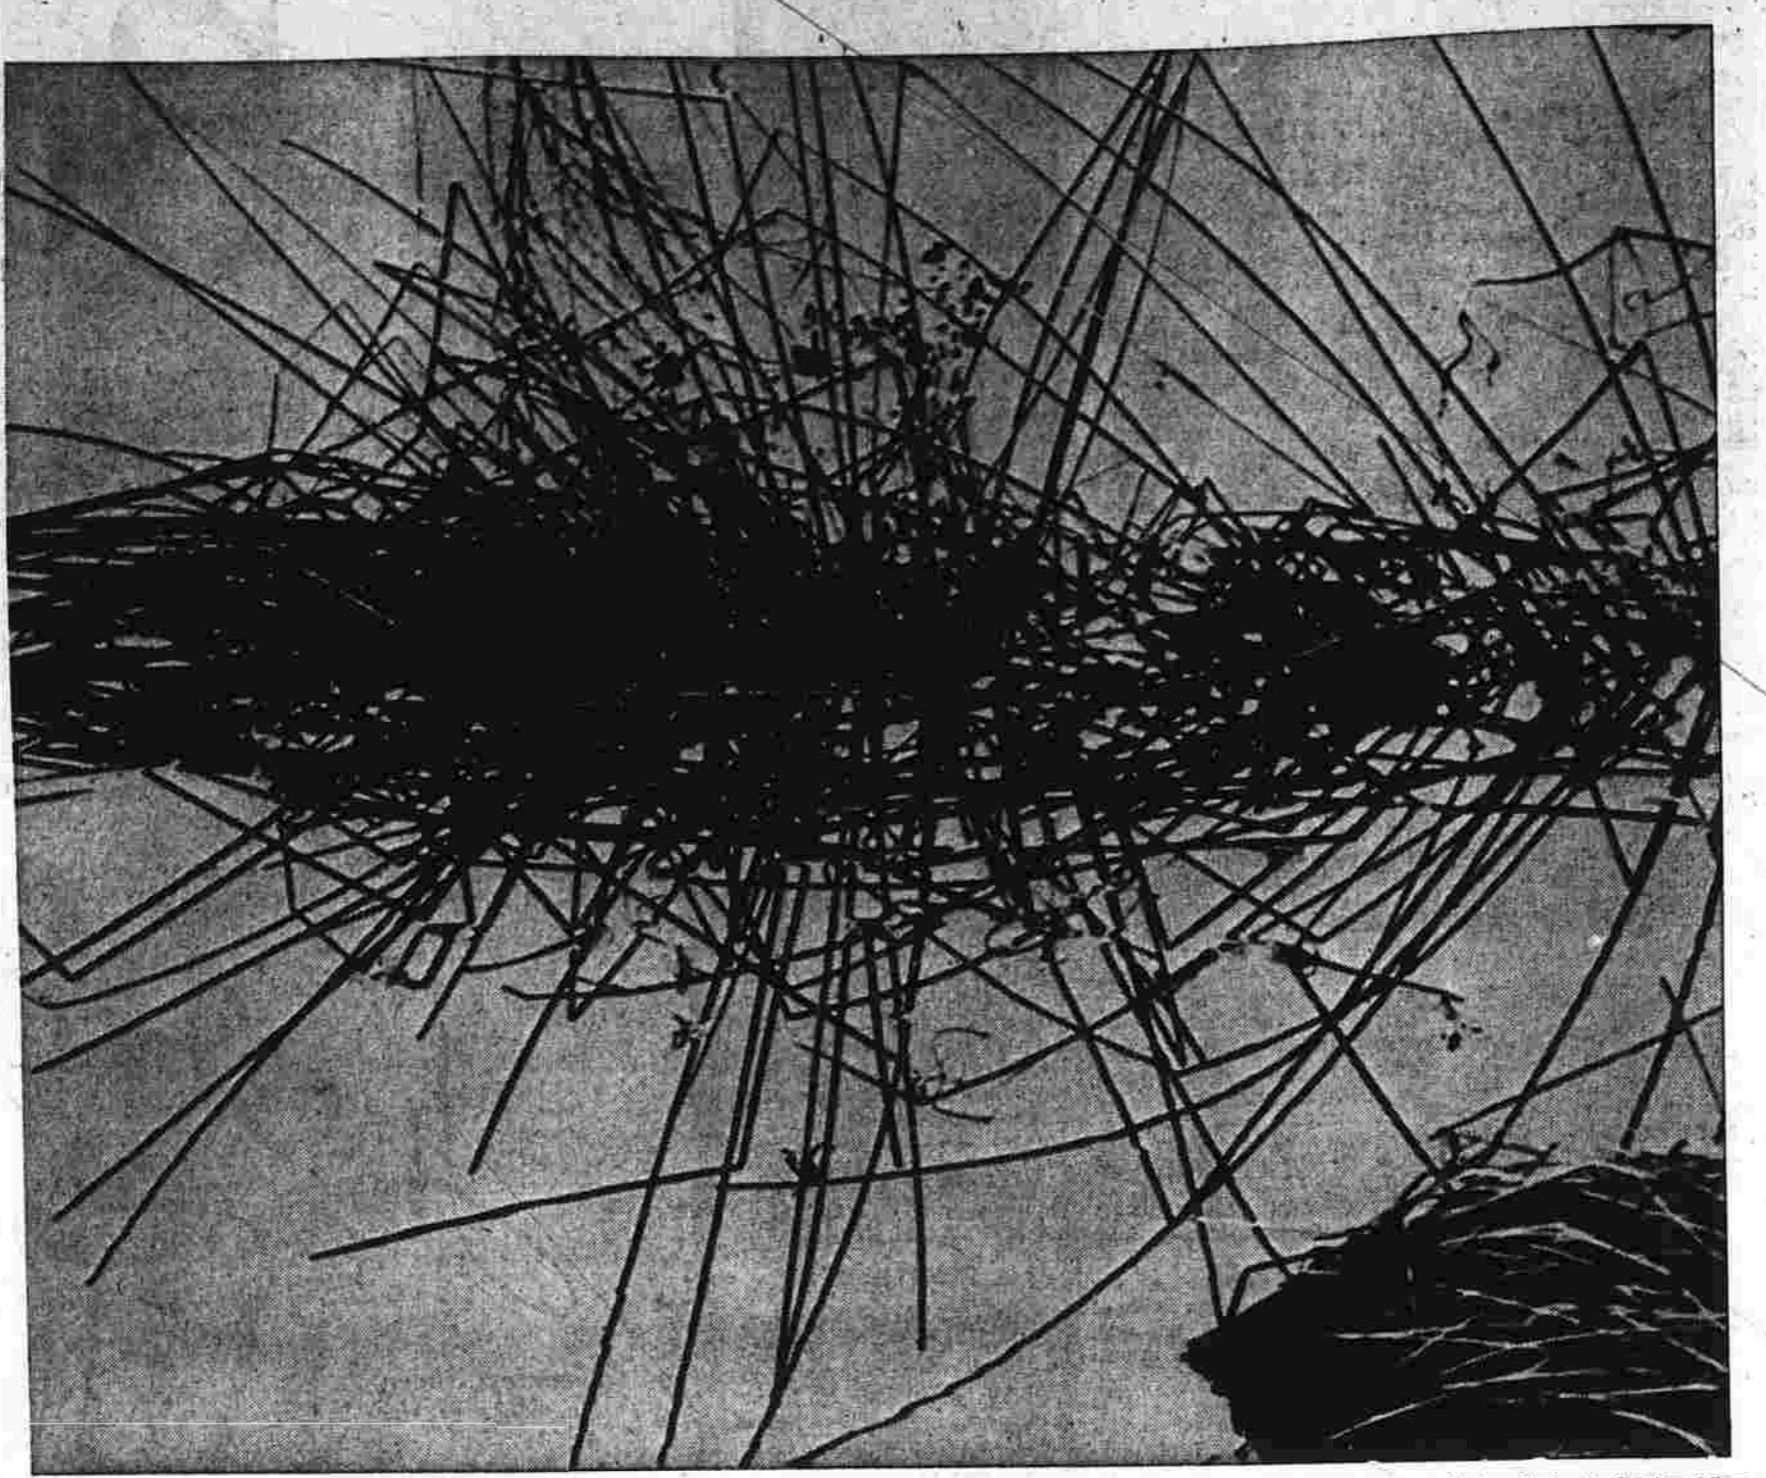

It will be very easy to calculate, at that time, what the adjustment in the old tax rate figure should be to bring it in line with the new revaluation grand list.

If, for instance, the revaluation grand list should go up 20 per cent, then the tax rate figure, in order to remain the same actual tax rate, would have to go down by 20 per cent.

It is the oldest dodge in the techniques of political management of tax rates to try to use the revaluation of grand lists to disguise an actual increase in the real tax rate people are to pay. Discussing such a pleasant but deceitful prospect is perhaps within the province and license of a meeting of a town committee.

But we don't think it needs to be said that such a practice would hardly be tolerable for an administrator anxious, as General Manager Weiss so obviously seems to be anxious, to deal honestly and soundly with the problems and the people of Manchester.

Which Is the Real Adenauer? One never knows, when one comes toward one's senility, whether the new outlook which may then develop will be illusion or wisdom. There is some opinion that the greatest human wisdom of Congressman Craig Homer, Republican, is putting the hexes on all who resist us in Vietnam. Congressman Homer is the most powerful man in the country, enough advantage of the ignorance and superstition of the enemy.

And if we used the right tactics, he thought, we could "create a sense of awe, anxiety, wretchedness and distress in the minds of the North Vietnamese people to induce an intense general anxiety to speak more freely than before. Sometimes you may find yourself unable to resist having a little fun with the followers who have labored for you for so many years. Sometimes it may seem to you that you are about to speak the truth for the first time in your whole career. Sometimes it may seem to you that you are consistent in his own apostasy from himself. Coming up from Adenauer before too very long, we should expect, some remark unmistakably back in the old comfortable, dead and cold was grove.

NEW YORK, March 28— "Knowing your relationship with Slings" Rudolph Halley, the counsel for the Kefauver crime committee, started to say to Virginia Hill, "Bugsy" she said, "I didn't know any Bugsy." Then, real nice, she said, "I always called him Ben."

She was the original gangster's girl friend, and she put on one of the great shows that day. Up at the committee table, an old fool of a Senator from New Hampshire, Charles Tobey, had a railroad clerk's eyeglasses pulled down over his face. Tobey said it was to keep the television lights out of his eyes. But Virginia Hill told the judge that she could see Tobey eyeing her from under the shade. "I think he got problems that got nothing to do with any United States Senate," she said.

I was looking for her the same way Tobey was in the back of the Federal Courtroom in Foley Square, and I had words all night long, not precisely the announced purpose of Congressman Homer's recommendation.

We are providing the Vietnamese people television news, we want them to share our way of life.

But the result may still be something quite close to what Congressman Homer had in mind: a sense of awe, anxiety, wretchedness and distress. . . . to create an intense general anxiety. . . . And it can indeed be doubted that we would ever have exploited to the full the potential ignorance and superstition of the enemy if we had held our television perpetually in reserve.

No Place Like Home

It sounds like a fairy tale. A poor New York family with three little girls is forced to leave their miserable apartment condemned as unsafe. For a few days they are given temporary shelter in a sham hotel, then compelled to move again. They cannot find a dwelling in the ill-paid father can afford.

Suddenly a fairy godmother appears. Well, not really one of these storybook characters but one just as good— someone from the city's Economic Opportunity Committee, with authority to put the family in decent quarters at city expense until permanent homes can be found for them.

A Thought for Today

I Believe God!

Have you heard that God is dead?

In recent issues of news magazines, considerable space has been given to a group called the "God-is-dead movement." It seems to be the opinion of this group that the entire idea of God as a living Person is no longer credible, not relevant to our times. And if God does not exist, then in all decency, we should have a funeral service and bury the concept of God.

There is nothing new about the attempt to eliminate God from the minds and hearts of men. Individuals and groups have tried this for years. Nietzsche, an atheist, years ago published the statement: "God is dead! (signed) Nietzsche." But the undeniable answer to that came in the form of another statement: "Nietzsche is dead! (signed) God." And I leave it with you. There is no doubt about the fact: Nietzsche is dead!

When he went to Atlantic City, N.J., last month to make a foreign policy speech, he invited the New Jersey Congressional delegation for the ride. Instead of talking foreign policy, however, he surprised the delegation with an old-fashioned display of Johnsonian arm-twisting on real supplements.

Furthermore, when the Executive Committee of the National A.A.A. of Real Estate Boards called on the White House in February, it got the same treatment. The realtors told him they were backing an old-fashioned money bill. The President replied promptly: "It's one thing to support it, but entirely different to work for it. Now, he continued, go up to Capitol Hill and work!

He did 30 days for it. This was in 1951, when working was not hard because it didn't mean much anything. It seems, of course, like this was only two or three years ago. But when Virginia Hill committed suicide in Switzerland the other day, the papers wrote about her as if she were far back in the past. Whenever it was, two years ago or 15 years ago, it was real good.

There was one day in the summer of 1951 when I was at Fire Island and I got caught in a thunder storm. My clothes were soaked and when we got to the car in Bay Shore I took everything off, right to the skin, and wrapped myself in a big Indian blanket. When we got to work at night that night, my clothes were still wet. I had them in the car and came into the sports department with the Indian blanket. The Indian blanket was thick enough for a chief. By ten o'clock, I was hot to keep on. I let it drop and I sat there in my skin. The sports department was across the street from the sports department. I was sitting at the desk in the sports department with the baseball box scores in front of me when the door opened and a woman came in. She was wearing a dress and a hat. She had a picture of her daughter who was going to get married and she was about to say something when she saw me sitting there in my skin. She ran out, I thought it was a great remark to make the next day when I heard that she didn't want me to come to the wedding.

Inside Report

From California, took a poll last summer on rent supplement. The results showed that 75 per cent of the respondents were against the idea, while only 28 per cent were in favor of it.

Thus, it may seem surprising that Mr. Johnson is putting so much on the line for rent supplements. There are three fundamental reasons.

First, the President hates to be beaten, and he's already been beaten once on the issue. The second reason is more basic. If the House turns down this new program of the Great Society, it could have a major psychological effect on the rest of this election-year session. One argument now being heard in the classrooms is that the middle of a war is no time to launch a new housing program. If rent supplements are beaten on that ground, other Great Society programs will suffer.

South Windsor Two New Subdivisions Okayed by Plan Board

Two subdivisions with a total of 26 house lots have been approved by the planning and zoning commission.

A 17-lot subdivision to be located between Newers and Graham Rds. was granted final approval with the stipulation that sidewalks be installed in a portion of the area. The walks will not be required along the dead-end street included in the subdivisions but will be on one side of a street leading to Graham Rd.

The Orchard Hill PTA will hold a father-child dinner on May 3 at the school cafeteria, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. For further information, Mrs. Laura Katz, of the Wapping Community Church, may be contacted.

The intermediate choir will rehearse Wednesday from 7 to 8 p.m., and the church choir at 8 p.m., at the church.

The missions committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Billie Schick, 401 S. Main St., at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The church council will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

St. Peter's Note
Volunteers are needed for the monthly mailing of the parish newsletter at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, tomorrow at 10 a.m.

The special town meeting held Friday night at the elementary school was attended by about 35 citizens and passed with a unanimous vote all items in the warning. John P. Phelps was moderator.

The Rental Housing Code and the Garden Apartment Housing Code came in for many questions. The answers by members of the Planning and Zoning Commission and their attorney were evidently very satisfactory as no negative votes came forth.

The Garden Apartments also produced much discussion and many questions which were answered by the same spokesman. The health and safety factors were described as the major reason why the codes should be enacted. The codes do not apply to units now rented but would apply to new units and units were made over.

Another action taken was the adoption of an ordinance for the building where a driveway will come out to join School Rd. The first section will be the demolition of the existing building. The second section will be the construction of a new building. The third section will be the construction of a new building. The fourth section will be the construction of a new building.

Final approval has also been granted for a nine-lot subdivision on Lawrence Rd. Sidewalks are not being required in this subdivision because the area is remote and the likelihood of a school or another pedestrian generator being built nearby is not great, the commission said.

Drainage pipes and catch basins must be installed on Lawrence Rd., however, to replace the drainage ditch that is there.

The zoning commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. April 5 at the high school to consider a request for a change from R Rural to A-20 Zone for eight acres of land between Graham and Newers Rds. The property is south of the 17-lot subdivision already approved and, if okayed, the streets will join those in the other subdivision.

Zoning Appeals
The zoning board of appeals will meet April 27 at 8 p.m. at the Wapping Elementary School to consider the following applications:

Paul and Diane LaFrance, 208 Pleasant Valley Rd., a variance for a convalescent home; Robert and Helen Hancock, 117 Main St., a variance for an addition to an existing garage closer to the sidewalk than permitted; this is an A-20 zone.

Joan R. Boykin, Strong Rd., a variance for a lot having less than the required 175 feet frontage and less than 40,000 square feet. This property is bounded approximately north by land of Younka, east and south by Samski and west by Strong Rd., and is an R Rural zone.

Norman M. Peterson, 440 Denning St., Wapping, a temporary and conditional permit for housing of migrant workers. This is an AA-30 zone.

Russell Macintosh, 421 Abby Rd., Wapping, a variance to park a travel trailer. This is an A-20 zone.

Morgan J. Bradley, 423 Chapel Rd., a variance for construction of a greenhouse on his land. This is an RC zone.

Bernard Lukhart, 250 Smith St., Wapping, a variance for a building lot with less than the required frontage. This is an R Rural zone.

John Mattox, 49 Palmer Dr., Wapping, a variance to park a travel trailer. This is an AA-30 zone.

Gerber Scientific Instrument Co., a variance for a sign larger than permitted at 88 Gerber Rd. This is an IX zone.

East Hartford Jaycee, a temporary and conditional permit for a one-day circus on June 23 at the northeast corner of John Fitch Blvd. and Newberry Rd. This is an I zone.

Scholarship Drive
The South Windsor College Scholarship Organization is soliciting funds from business and professional people, and from residents during a house-to-house drive to be conducted by high school students the first weekend in April.

Any town resident who is a high school graduate or will be graduating this year and who has been accepted at an institution of higher learning is eligible for a scholarship.

There are several students in college this year sharing $1,000 awarded in 1965. The awards are made primarily on the basis of scholarship and the needs of the individual. Applications may be obtained from Information, Mrs. Laura Katz, of the Wapping Community Church, may be contacted.

Final approval has also been granted for a nine-lot subdivision on Lawrence Rd. Sidewalks are not being required in this subdivision because the area is remote and the likelihood of a school or another pedestrian generator being built nearby is not great, the commission said.

Drainage pipes and catch basins must be installed on Lawrence Rd., however, to replace the drainage ditch that is there.

The zoning commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. April 5 at the high school to consider a request for a change from R Rural to A-20 Zone for eight acres of land between Graham and Newers Rds. The property is south of the 17-lot subdivision already approved and, if okayed, the streets will join those in the other subdivision.

Zoning Appeals
The zoning board of appeals will meet April 27 at 8 p.m. at the Wapping Elementary School to consider the following applications:

Paul and Diane LaFrance, 208 Pleasant Valley Rd., a variance for a convalescent home; Robert and Helen Hancock, 117 Main St., a variance for an addition to an existing garage closer to the sidewalk than permitted; this is an A-20 zone.

Joan R. Boykin, Strong Rd., a variance for a lot having less than the required 175 feet frontage and less than 40,000 square feet. This property is bounded approximately north by land of Younka, east and south by Samski and west by Strong Rd., and is an R Rural zone.

Epileptic Takes Antirabies Shots

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A wounded Viet Nam war veteran, bitten by a dog 30 days ago, has had two dangerous antirabies shots and physicians now give him a good chance of surviving.

Maj. David L. Mead, 29, said he felt no serious ill effects after his second daily stomach injection Sunday.

Mead has a form of epilepsy as a result of a brain injury from a wound two years ago. He made a critical decision Saturday to go ahead with the inoculations. Doctors had warned him that the treatment of his epilepsy might aggravate his epilepsy and cause a fatal seizure.

His wife Beverly said, "He's pretty weak but doing better than we expected. He's very strong minded and I'm sure he'll overcome it."

Mead was bitten on the left hand while pulling a collar away from a group of children. The dog ran away and has not been found for rabies observation.

186 Firms Open

BELFAST, Northern Ireland — About 8,000 Irishmen leave this art of the British Empire each year. Declines in the linen and shipbuilding industries are chiefly responsible. Determined efforts to reverse Northern Ireland's economic decline have led to the creation since 1945 of 186 new companies, many of them with U.S. and British capital.

PROTEST DICTATORSHIP
QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Brutal demonstrations against Ecuador's military government continued over the weekend and at least three persons died. Workers, students and teachers' organizations formed a united front Sunday and called for a general strike "until the dictatorship is brought down."

Admired Trotters

WASHINGTON — A Smithsonian Institution exhibit celebrates the 19th century trotting horse, prized for its qualities of speed and stamina. The American-bred trotter and his driver were the "most acclaimed sports heroes in Victorian America," says a student in the exhibit.

Doctors had warned him that the treatment of his epilepsy might aggravate his epilepsy and cause a fatal seizure.

Rates To Hold Through 1966 Never Before - So Much In Value From Your Blue Cross Membership

Last year, Connecticut Blue Cross provided greater value for its membership dollar than ever before. And more Connecticut people experienced the security of knowing Blue Cross was there to help pay the bill when hospital care became necessary. Here is a report on Blue Cross during 1965:

Reimbursement For Care
Reimbursements to hospitals for care rendered to Connecticut Blue Cross members reached a record one-year high of $58,011,233 in 1965, an increase of $4,267,510 over benefits paid in 1964.

Result: Operating Loss Of $4,050,514
This record payment, plus Blue Cross operating expense, resulted in an operating loss of $4,050,514. Additional income of $1,359,746 from investments of the Blue Cross reserve fund helped to reduce the loss to a net operating deficit of $2,690,768.

The operating loss in 1965 was the second in a row for Blue Cross. In 1964 Blue Cross had an operating loss of $2.7 million.

Projections On Mark
The losses have not come as a surprise. In fact, they are very close to the projections made three years ago when it was anticipated that by 1965 Blue Cross would pay out approximately $4,000,000 more for members' hospital care than it would receive in premium income.

Reason: Cost Of Care Up
The modern hospital of today has become a community health center, providing a vast range of care 24 hours a day, every day of the year. New drugs, new techniques, new equipment and new services all contribute to better health care than ever before. This expansion to meet the needs and demands of a growing population costs money.

Total hospital charges increased an average of 7.0% in 1965, as contrasted to a 6.1% increase in 1964 and 5.4% in 1963.

These increases tend to increase the size of the average hospital bill, and thus the amounts Blue Cross pays to hospitals. Example: During 1965 Blue Cross paid more than 7,500 hospital bills of $1,000 or more. This is in contrast to Blue Cross payments of 6,500 bills over $1,000 during 1964 and 5,000 in 1963.

Of the 7,500 big bills during 1965, approximately 1,150 were $2,000 or more while 100 were $4,000 or more.

Reserves: The Stabilizer
The 1965 deficit was offset by drawing the needed money from the Blue Cross reserve fund. This illustrates the importance of adequate reserves. A sound reserve fund gives Blue Cross the financial stability to carry rates over a period of three to six years — as opposed to the necessity of adjusting rates every year.

An example: Even though Blue Cross paid out more for hospital care in 1965 than it received in premium income (and faces another deficit in 1966), by the end of 1966, rates will have held without increase for almost 6 1/2 years, a record that speaks for itself.

Expense: Under 5%
Despite the rising costs of virtually everything, the ratio of Blue Cross operating expense to premium income was only 4.4 cents. This responsible management of Blue Cross funds means that you and your family continue to receive greater value for your Blue Cross membership dollar.

Membership: An Increase
Every year, more people choose Blue Cross to provide protection against the unexpected cost of hospital care. During the past year 28,243 new members enrolled in Connecticut Blue Cross, increasing total membership to a new high of 1,394,516 members or approximately 50% of the state's total population.

Today's Team —
New York Yankees

PORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — "All we have to do is improve physically," Johnny Keane of the New York Yankees said as he watched his hopefuls go through the paces at Fort Lauderdale Stadium. "All we need are normal years out of our regulars to wind up on top again."

After watching the Mickey Mantle-less Yankees for a week, one feels a fair appraisal of the club can't be made at this time. With Mantle in the lineup, the New Yorkers would be a vastly different club.

With Mantle out of action although he's in uniform daily, most attention is being focused on rookies Bobby Murcer, Horace Clarke and Roy White, all listed infielders.

The 19-year-old Murcer has drawn the biggest raw notices. Considered one of the brightest prospects in the Yankee organization a year ago, he was expected to join the club in getting training, play a little more polish and then be sent down to a farm club for more seasoning.

When Tony Kubek suddenly retired, the Yankees had a hole to plug at shortstop.

Veteran Amaro, a fan-favorite fielder but a light-hitter who acquired from Philadelphia. Amaro was tickled for a starting role when the season started with Murcer being used in spring games to pick up a little experience.

"No one has been able to get that little devil out yet," Keane said of Murcer, a good looking, good looking, former shortstop line. Keane, a former shortstop himself, said, "I know what Amaro is going against. He's great in the field. — rookie and veteran — but

Two Homers Help Yanks Defeat Reds

NEW YORK (AP) — With all his other anticipated troubles, New York Yankee Manager Johnny Keane wasn't exactly in the market for one more. So Tommy Tresh set his mind at ease.

Tresh was one of the few Yankees who got through 1965 intact — both physically and artistically. In the year the Yankees finished sixth, Tresh led the club in almost every offensive department — home runs (23) to home runs (26).

So, in what must be considered a rebuilding year, Tresh figured to be one of the few players about whom Keane wouldn't have to worry on Sunday though, the young outfielder had been causing some trouble in his first start, Yankee's Fort Lauderdale, Fla., training camp.

Tresh had been struggling along at a .182 pace with just three runs batted in in 12 games. He was relaxed in his first three swings against Cincinnati Sunday.

Then, in the eighth inning, with New York trailing 2-1, Tresh whacked his first home run. That one came off the right side against lefty Billy Hunter. An inning later, right-handed Don Zanni was serving when Tresh, hitting lefty, whopped his second homer, a grand slammer, giving New York a 6-1 lead. The Yankees went on to win 7-6 in 11 innings.

The Yankee game was one of three that went extra innings. The others, the New York Mets shaded Philadelphia 5-4 in 12, the Chicago White Sox edged Cleveland 11-8 in 11, and the St. Louis Cardinals edged Baltimore 4-3, Washington led Kansas City 5-3, St. Louis topped Houston 5-1, Boston whipped Minnesota 5-1, and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged Cincinnati 4-3 and Atlanta defeated Baltimore 4-2, Washington led Kansas City 5-3, St. Louis topped Houston 5-1, Boston whipped Minnesota 5-1, and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged Cincinnati 4-3 and Atlanta defeated Baltimore 4-2.

White great faith is being put in the three first-year men. It was the Mantle, Roger Maris and Elston Howard who will have to carry the heavy load.

"Last year, our main job was to get the club in shape. We had a stand pat year. This year we found that we had building problems, due to injuries and Kubek's retirement," Keane observed.

"Getting our pitching straightened out looks like our biggest problem. It was dropped from the staff until we leave Florida. Keane concluded before posting the lineup on the dugout wall. New York has a serious problem in this department with only Mel Stottlemyre and White Ford expendables.

When Mantle returns to full strength, he will be a picture worth watching, one way or another. Mantle is the big man.

Sanders Going for Masters

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Winning $12,500 first prize in golf tournaments is pleasant, but there's bigger money to be made and Doug Sanders is after it.

His immediate goal is winning the Master at Augusta April 10.

"I'm seriously going to try to win one of the four major tournaments this year," he said after pocketing first money in the $82,000 Greater Jacksonville Open Sunday.

His manager, Mike McCormick of Cleveland — who also handles business for Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and a few other big name golfers — told Sanders he could make a great deal more that occasion as he walked from endorsement to endorsement.

This year he won the Bob Hope Greater Jacksonville Open with a record 27.1. He beat the 28 mark set by Ben Weaver, a year ago when the hole was 14 feet short of the hole, but he sank the put and collected $12,500 while Brewer had to settle for $7,500.

Gary Player finished third with 27.7 for third and $5,000. Tommy Bolt and Frank Beard tied for fourth at 27.8 and won $4,000 each. Weaver was six strokes better than a year ago but his 27.9 was good only for sixth place along with Tony Lema and Ed Sessa.

Sports Night

Youngsters (and their date) from throughout the community are expected to attend the Rec Department sports night program to be held tonight at 8:15 at the West Side Rec Center, 1000 W. 10th St.

Hal Goodenough, good will ambassador for the New York Mets, will be the main speaker. Movies of the Mets and the Boston Celtics will be shown and awards will be made to winners in several contests held during the winter season at the East Side and West Side Rec Centers.

The public is invited.

Softball Meeting

Teams interested in playing in the Recreation Department's new softball league this season are invited to a meeting Monday (April 4) at 7 p.m. at the East Side Rec Center, School 5.

Plans for the coming season, including the opening date, regulations for play and dates of scheduled games, will be discussed.

Representative of each interested team should plan to attend. This season World War II veterans are invited.

He quit after nine, too excited to play any more — and who can blame him?

Law of Averages Wins for Red Sox

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — Only three of 15 exhibition — the law of averages finally games, drew home early today, came to the rescue of the Boston Red Sox. They've beaten the Minnesota Twins.

They outplayed and rookie Mike Andrews cracked homers in a five-run sixth inning Sunday as the Red Sox snapped an eight-game losing streak by defeating the Twins 5-1 in a seven-inning exhibition before a crowd of 5,000 at Ponce, Fla.

The uprising ended the Red Sox to salvaging the finale of the weekend series with the Twins. University of Connecticut field-housed while Amon cancelled the games en route to the Class C meet at Yale Saturday.

The Red Sox sent nine men Wilson 3 1/2, Waterford 1 1/2, and to hit in their big inning. On Angliario cracked his sixth homer. It was a different story in the training session, and later Sunday, a double, Andrew, a complete young shortstop, drove in three runs.

Clay, Chualo Title Go 'Flight of the Century'

TORONTO (AP) — The motors are billing tomorrow's Cassius Clay-Chualo bout as the "Flight of the Century," but boxing experts are just passing the time of day, waiting for something to happen in the negotiations.

"I can't explain Jim Bouton's failures," Johnny Keane retorted. The former hard-working right-handed pitcher has fast ball, and most of all, his confidence. No longer does his cap and uniform have any significance. "I would like to see a big difference, he added.

"Detroit," Johnny Keane of the Yankees claims, "looks like a real good club. Baltimore, too, and Chicago, with a lot of speed. The New York Yankees are a better bet. 'Lon' Clinton and Bobby Murcer are around to make a big difference, he added.

"I hope that's not a new fix," center Zelman Bealy of St. Louis said after the Hawks took a 2-0 lead over Baltimore Sunday in the Western Division manager game by beating the Bulls for the second straight time in Baltimore, 106-100. The teams met again Saturday for a third game Wednesday night.

"For a while, it looked like the Celtics might chalk one up for good as they took the 48-38 lead with seven minutes remaining.

But the Royals fought back to go ahead 105-101. Then after Sam Jones tied it on a pair of field goals, Happy Hairston came off the bench with 51 seconds left to make six free throws and seal the victory.

Robertson and Jerry Lucas paced Cincinnati with 27 points each, and Hairston added 21. Draft got 38 points from John Havlicek.

Player-coach Richie Guerin, who is retiring as a player after the playoffs, went the entire 48 minutes for the second consecutive time and turned in another fine performance, leading the Hawks past the injury-plagued Bulls.

Walt Lutz started 30-8, Guerin sank two foul shots and a field goal to start the Hawks' scoring. Bill Bridges added 23 points, and Tom Hawkins scored Baltimore 12-1. Then with the Hawks leading 97-96, the Bulls' Jerry West and Wilkens sank field goals to put the game out of reach.

Clay and Chualo met for the first time at Baltimore before the playoffs.

Clay, 26, has won 23 points, had eight assists and grabbed 11 rebounds. Bill Bridges added 23 points, and Tom Hawkins scored Baltimore 12-1.

"We're not dead yet," said Boston coach Red Auerbach. "It might have been speaking for Baltimore, as well. Both the Bulls and the Hawks were away from home when the playoffs continue next Wednesday.

Royals Win Over Celts In Bay State

BOSTON (AP) — Home, sweet home — not in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

"I hope that's not a new fix," center Zelman Bealy of St. Louis said after the Hawks took a 2-0 lead over Baltimore Sunday in the Western Division manager game by beating the Bulls for the second straight time in Baltimore, 106-100. The teams met again Saturday for a third game Wednesday night.

"For a while, it looked like the Celtics might chalk one up for good as they took the 48-38 lead with seven minutes remaining.

But the Royals fought back to go ahead 105-101. Then after Sam Jones tied it on a pair of field goals, Happy Hairston came off the bench with 51 seconds left to make six free throws and seal the victory.

Robertson and Jerry Lucas paced Cincinnati with 27 points each, and Hairston added 21. Draft got 38 points from John Havlicek.

Player-coach Richie Guerin, who is retiring as a player after the playoffs, went the entire 48 minutes for the second consecutive time and turned in another fine performance, leading the Hawks past the injury-plagued Bulls.

Walt Lutz started 30-8, Guerin sank two foul shots and a field goal to start the Hawks' scoring. Bill Bridges added 23 points, and Tom Hawkins scored Baltimore 12-1. Then with the Hawks leading 97-96, the Bulls' Jerry West and Wilkens sank field goals to put the game out of reach.

Clay and Chualo met for the first time at Baltimore before the playoffs.

Clay, 26, has won 23 points, had eight assists and grabbed 11 rebounds. Bill Bridges added 23 points, and Tom Hawkins scored Baltimore 12-1.

"We're not dead yet," said Boston coach Red Auerbach. "It might have been speaking for Baltimore, as well. Both the Bulls and the Hawks were away from home when the playoffs continue next Wednesday.

SHOT HAIR

"Everybody said, 'Oh, well, Nancy was a 2 in 1 in the morning.' They didn't know I was up till 5."

Quay has worn well since she appeared on Wimbledon's sacred center court in light-titting white panes with white lace ruffe across the bottom.

She is about 20 pounds slimmer, her hair is close-cropped instead of in braids, reddish instead of coal black and she butts with homes and ben made.

She is now tennis instructor at the swank Lake Racquet Club in the San Francisco Bay area. She is the wife of a former player in the United States and the National Indoor championship in 1948.

Grand Jury to Hear Clay-Terrell 'Facts'

CHICAGO (AP) — Government investigators of reports that gangsters tried to muscle Clay and Terrell out of the Chicago boxing business, will be heard by a grand jury today.

The action was triggered by Bernie Glickman, a former Terrell associate, who has been in protective custody since informing the FBI that he had been beaten in his apartment Saturday night by a mobster (Milwaukee Phil Alderfer).

The inquiry will be handled by Edward V. Hanrahan, U.S. attorney; David Schippers, of the Justice Department's organized crime unit; and Sam Batar, an assistant U.S. attorney.

Government attorneys last Saturday revealed the attack against Glickman and a purported death threat against Terrell. Terrell failed to fight Clay in New York City, a government attorney said the death threat was made indirectly, through associates.

The reported report against Glickman stemmed from gangster insistence that the bout be held in New York City, but he, however, refused Terrell a license because of his associations with Glickman.

Fords 1-2-3 at Sebring

SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — But Dan Gurney of Costa America's top sports car driver, Calif., and Jerry Grant of Tex., facing a wide-open road to Kent, Wash., drove even faster today, leaving the engine of their Ford Mustangs roaring as they headed for the Le Mans, France, and yards from the finish with Gurney in the lead.

"This is what the Italian auto motive genius, Enzo Ferrari, calls the French circuit where because it had covered the annual 24-hour speed fight of the course late in the race, fastest and guttiest machines had the brutal arena of road racing pushed it to the line and under the hood. Ferrari's big hope, a sleek red Ford Mustang driven by Mike Ford across the finish line in 1-2-3 Parkers of England and Bob Bondurant of California, limped into the 24-hour Continental Hotel after giving the bigger Ford a fierce fight.

As the dangerous race neared its end, a German Porsche racer, exiled with a Ferrari, hurried through a fence and slashed into a group of spectators, leaving four dead and four others injured.

Time Runs Short For Black Hawks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tina and the Montreal Canadiens are running out on Chicago's frustrated Black Hawks.

The Hawks, only National Hockey League club which has never won the regular season title, fell four points behind in their stretch race with league-leading Montreal Sunday night when they were tied 1-1 by the Detroit Red Wings at the Detroit Olympia.

The Canadiens, meanwhile, rolled to a 3-1 victory over Boston that shot them within range of their seventh title in the last 10 years. Montreal and Chicago each have three games left, including a head-to-head meeting Saturday night on the Canadiens' ice.

In Sunday night's other game, Toronto whipped the New York Rangers 5-1 and climbed within three points of the second-place Black Hawks.

U.S. Gals Outski European Team

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — The American women outskied the Europeans in the Sun Valley Challenge Cup ski races Sunday.

Wendy Allen of San Gabriel, Calif., won the event, a giant slalom race, in 1:24.86.

John H. Smith, a 41-year-old skier from Idaho, was fourth in 1:26.40. Jean Gaudert of McCall, Idaho, was fifth in 1:26.95. Boba Forman of Bishop, Calif., with eighth in 1:28.19 and Suzanne Clifton of San Pedro was 10th in 1:29.80.

The favorite, Marzielle Clifton of France, missed a gate and was disqualified.

Austria's Traudi Hecher was second in 1:26.47 and Heidi Simmerman was third in 1:26.88.

U.S. Alpine Ski Coach Bob Beattie was much more pleased with the women's team in the Challenge Cup race. And the girls were probably much more determined after their showing in the giant slalom at the team event in McCall on Friday.

Beattie said he expected them to do better in that race.

And they did in the Challenge Cup race. Miss Allen won it, Miss Hannah was fourth and Miss Saubert fifth.

Not 'Sweet' in NBA

BOSTON (AP) — Home, sweet home — not in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

"The home-court edge doesn't mean as much in the playoffs," Coach Jack McMahon said Sunday after his Celtics beat the Royals in Boston, 113-107, and took a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five Eastern Division semifinal. Boston won its game 132-125 Saturday night in Detroit.

3-Year-Olds In Spotlight

The 3-year-olds take over the spotlight in thoroughbred racing this week with the $100,000 Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park and the $60,000 Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park.

Backpacker, the 2-year-old champion of 1965 and the early favorite, has been declared out of the Florida Derby because of a quarter-crack in a right hoof. Nevertheless, the Saturday race at 1 1/4 miles is expected to produce some good prospects for the Kentucky Derby in May.

Mike Ford's Kausal King looms the likely favorite of his impressive victory in the Fountain of Youth Stakes last Wednesday.

Impressive, who may become Mike Ford's Kentucky Derby contender, was beaten by Backpacker at Aqueduct last Saturday.

Hear about the midget who took up golf? He bought his first club, small balls — everything in miniature. On his first round, hitting toward the four-om, ahead, he shouted, "Two!"

Jim Pagliaroni's 17-homer run in 1965 was the best one season total by a catcher in the long history of the Pittsburgh club. The previous high was 15, hit by Bill Balked in 1945.

China Rejects Bid For Thaw with U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Red China today rejected American overtures for closer contacts between the two countries and said it would not change its hostile policy toward China and refuse to pull out its armed forces from Taiwan (Formosa) and the Taiwan Strait.

The People's Daily accused the United States of "feigning eagerness" to improve relations with China as a maneuver in preparation for a new assault.

"Obsessed with the idea of widening the war in Viet Nam," it said, "the Johnson administration is sliding down the path of aggression."

The premier said it might be possible to elect a National Assembly early next year, about six or seven months after the scheduled, but he warned that the government but for the survival of Viet Nam.

The hard-pressed premier made stern statements at a meeting with a group of foreign newsmen as a parade demonstration by 1,000 students in Saigon added more anti-Americanism to the boiling political pot.

The students cheered and banged their desks at the Misshel-led rally as a parade of speakers charged Ky's military regime with puppet-like subservience to the United States.

They also called for peace in Viet Nam.

In an effort to curb the continuing unrest, Ky held talks with five Buddhist leaders Monday night. What he told them was not disclosed.

Foreign newsmen who met with Ky during the day said he was "confused" under the leadership of the army's 1st Corps area. Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh, Thieu's Buddhist political agent, said on the protest among demands for a recently elected government.

Ky told the newsmen he had removed seven junior officers in the 1st Corps for taking part in antigovernment demonstrations. The premier said it might be possible to elect a National Assembly early next year, about six or seven months after the scheduled, but he warned that the government but for the survival of Viet Nam.

Police Pressing Hunt In Florida Kidnaping

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—In a flurry of new, secret activity, police intensified today their hunt for a massive hunt for kidnaped Daniel Goldman as the price on the youth's head doubled to $50,000.

After hours of waiting for a telephone call from the kidnaper, four officers left the 16-year-old victim's home this morning carrying a bulging brown leather briefcase.

"They sped off in an unmarked car. But there was no comment from investigators on whether the gunman who abducted the boy at gunpoint from his home had made a promised but apparently long-delayed contact."

"The kidnaper slipped into the home of Mrs. Goldman, Mrs. Goldman through an unlocked patio door early Monday, bound the parents with yellow plastic cord and forced their only child to leave in his own white car, old victim's home this morning carrying a bulging brown leather briefcase."
