HOLIDAY ODDS 1 IN 300 WASHINGTON — The average bank or savings and loan has a better than 1-in-300 chance of being held up, according to FBI figures.

HOLIDAY HOUSE 29 COTTAGE STREET TELEPHONE 649-2358

Planning a vacation? Like to get away about this time of year for a bit of skiing, or Florida sunshine, yet you hesitate to leave your folks all alone in Manchester? Why not give them a vacation, too, at Holiday House?

Here they will have the companionship of other senior citizens who are making Holiday House their retirement home. They visit with them during meals, and in the lounge where planned entertainment is regularly provided. They can get out to beauty salons and barber shops, libraries, churches, buses, the movies because we're just a block from Main Street. Call 649-2358 for reservations, or further information on retirement living.

Positive Stands, Rosy Future, Seen in Chamber's Activities

A rosy picture of the Rockville Area Chamber of Commerce was presented by its president, Howard Wolfanger, at the annual banquet held last night at the Ellington Ridge Country Club.

Wolfanger said that, for the first time in years, the chamber is operating without a deficit, and that debt, some several years old, will be paid off by the end of the present fiscal year.

Wolfanger noted that the chamber is quite active, with several new committees of commerce can get to be a habit one is on guard."

$216,795 Budget Asked For General Government

Requests for general government and other costs of running the town are up $20,877 over the 1965-66 budget.

The fiscal year budget was $156,518. The request for 1966-67 is for $216,795.

A large portion of the increase, however, is due to the fact that the 1965-66 fiscal year was shorter than normal as all boards and commissions pre-terminated their requests for a nine-and-one-half month period. The fiscal year began Sept. 15, 1965, and will end June 30, rather than Sept. 14, 1966, because the town has changed to a uniform fiscal year, running July 1 to June 30.

The fiscal year hangover bond issue also had a substantial effect on the increase in the town's budget requests. Interest payments on the bond amount to about $13,500, and the payment of principal to $30,000.

Other areas where an increase is in evidence, above the adjustment for pro-rating are:

- Police and recreation, $1,020
- added to regular requests for salaries and equipment for a summer recreation program for boys;
- street lighting, $481 added to regular requests for an additional 13 lights, to be placed, in the first selection's words, "in the darkest and most traveled areas";
- town garbage, an additional $1,000 for graving the pole building floor and installing toilet facilities and leach field;
- Andover dump, up $50 for purchasing identification stickers for cars;
- Welfare, up $500 because a new law requires certain minimum payments in order to get returns from the state;
- The fire department request is up because the department wants to purchase a hydrant valve for $90 and 12 ratchets made in man's attempt to overcome cancer;
- The conservation commission, new last year, has submitted its first request for $11,200;
- About the only request that is down appreciably is that for civil defense, down $244 because radios, included in the 1965-66 request, have been purchased;
- Copies of the budget requests

The nation's 713 Social Security offices are staying open until midnight tonight to receive applications. For those who could not get to these offices, the 24,000 main post offices have self-mailer forms which would protect a person's rights until the full application form could be filled out.

The insurance will pay 90 per cent of a person's doctor's bills over and above a $60 deductible.

Officials explained the reason for the deadline is that without it many people might wait until they got sick before starting their 24 month payments. This would deal a blow to the insurance program by loading it with "adverse risks," they said.

However, there has been criticism in Congress that the March 31 deadline, specified by law, is arbitrary. The billing would ask an estimation, the Republican leadership has introduced legislation to extend the date to Aug. 31.

Ribicoff Seeking Transit Subsidy For New Agency

WASHINGTON (AP) — It doesn't seem to make sense, says Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., to create a cabinet Department of Transportation while leaving mass transit subsidies to another agency.

Ribicoff spoke out Wednesday at the hearing of the subcommittee on the bill submitted by President Johnson, which would leave the subway program in the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the time being.

During testimony before the Senate Government Operations Committee, Ribicoff said that he could not understand why the bill provides that the secretaries of the two departments would conduct a joint study, and report to the President, within a year on disposition of mass transit programs.

The senator said it should be shifted to the new department immediately, rather than wait up to a year for a study report.

"Certainly the movement of people in our urban areas, Ribicoff said, "is a critical part of transportation."

The subject came up during testimony by Charles M. Hear, assistant secretary for metropolitan development in the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Hear said that his department has responsibility for urban

South Windsor Easter Seal Campaign Still $565 from Goal

Contributions to the 1966 Easter Seal campaign have South Windsor reached $702 to date—still $565 short of the goal of $1,267.

Mrs. Jean E. Shepard, campaign chairman, says her committee hopes that contributions made within the next 10 days will provide the additional funds needed for the rehabilitation program this year.

Mrs. Shepard noted that the executive board of the South Windsor Committee for Retarded Children met recently to plan its spring activities. Work on the committee's annual publication, "Opportunities," is scheduled to begin April 12. Distribution is planned during May.

May 5 has been designated the date for the Mother's Day benefit, at the home of Mrs. Carol Dowling, president of the group. All mothers of retarded children who have affiliated with the committee will receive invitations.

Approximately 15 youngsters known to the committee will be qualified to attend the Kennedy Day Camp in Manchester St. on first prize in the standard 9-A division of the eighth annual state accordion competition. The event, sponsored by the Accordion Teachers Association, was at the Stratton-Hilton Hotel in Hartford.

Response Poor To Red Cross Fund Campaign

According to the report of Mrs. Harvey Lippincott, chairman of the American Red Cross Fund Drive, the response to date has been very poor.

Herbert's quota is $500. The drive closes this week. If the quota is not met, the Red Cross swimming program may not be carried on as usual.

Last summer, more than 125 people availed themselves of the swimming program, at no charge.

Any one who has not yet been contacted to aid this cause is urged to send his donation to Mrs. Lippincott.

A check, money order or just plain cash will reach her if addressed simply to Hebron, N.H., street or number necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pimm of the Hope Valley section will hold open house Sunday in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Pimm are participants of the Rev. Douglas P. Pimm, former rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, perhaps better known as "Father Doug." The affair will be at Phelps Hall.

The Podium Players, a community group from Hebron and nearby towns, have been invited to present their spring musical production, "Guys and Dolls" at the Goodspeed Opera House in East Haddam and in East Hampton.

The Players have been presenting musical productions for 8 years, having been inaugurated in 1958, and this will be their ninth venture.

John Fernis, a University of Connecticut student, is director of the show, and Brenton Crane is musical director, assisted by Robert Jones. Susan Stark, who played in the University of Connecticut's "Carnival" is the choreographer.

Sarah, a Salvation Army lass, is played by Diane Russel of East Hampton. She has had considerable experience, both in this country and Europe. Peter Erickson of Marlborough will play opposite her.

Distribution of U.S. Department of Agriculture donated foods was held yesterday at Hebron town hall.

Records Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Government Operations subcommittee has approved a bill that would establish a federal public records law.

The so-called freedom of information measure, which now goes to the full committee, would grant any person the right of access to official records of the federal government. Information concerning national defense or foreign policy secrets, trade secrets and private business data would be exempt from the measure.

The bill also would set up standards to determine what records could or could not be made available to the public and authorize court review for claims of unjustifiable withholding.

The measure has been passed by the Senate.

To Judge Judges

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's federal judges are being asked to propose laws that deal with the problem of incompetent U.S. judges.

The laws were framed last month at a meeting of the U.S. Judicial Conference. They would set up new procedures for examining a judge's fitness. Under the proposal, if a judge was found incompetent he would be removed.

At the conference meeting, it was decided to circulate the Unemployed workers were paid $55,077 in state compensation during February from the Manchester office of the Connecticut Labor Department, for a drop of 40 per cent below the $11,063 paid out locally during the corresponding month last year.

The report, issued by Edmund Loaiselle, manager of the local office for unemployment compensation, shows also that the average weekly check for February of this year was $43.97, compared to an average weekly check of $39.61 for February 1965.

Benefits totaling $168,631 have been paid out locally for the first two months of 1966, compared to $244,590 paid out during the first two months of last year. This is a drop of 40 per cent.

On a statewide basis, the sum of $3,554,294 was paid out last month for 78,739 weeks of unemployment, with an average weekly check of $45.14.

State Must Shoulder More Of School Costs: Curtis

Supt. of Schools William H. Curtis, speaking last night before some 90 persons attending a public information session on the proposed $6 million school budget, charged that the state is not shouldering its share of the burden for school support.

The key to spiraling educational costs rests with the next two legislatures, which must find ways to broaden the tax base in order that the tax burden will not fall heavily on the shoulders of the individual taxpayer, the superintendent admonished.

"This is a very unfortunate state," Curtis said, "but the state has failed to accept its basic responsibility to provide school support."

He said broadening the tax base through increased state aid provides the only feasible answer to leveling out "the major inequities that exist in the abilities of individual towns to pay for education," Curtis told the audience in their platform. However, 10 years later, 37 of the 82 towns named education as foremost of their state's problems.

Curtis' remarks were prompted by a query from a member of the audience who wanted to know how the school board can justify its expenditures for salaries at the expense of such items as textbooks, libraries and teaching supplies, which are low by comparison to other towns in the state.

Salary raises are mandatory each year to maintain Manchester's position in the competition for new teachers, and to retain the experienced ones, Curtis replied. This year the competition has been heightened by the passage of Public Law 286, which provides salary bargaining rights for teachers.

He indicated it was these

Gamble Paying Off On Military Strength

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration took a calculated risk in deciding, at a perilous point in the Viet Nam war last summer, that it had time to build the regular armed forces gradually instead of mustering thousands of Reservists.

Top officials examined the intelligence evaluations and recommendations that:

1. The situation in Viet Nam could be stabilized without massive and swift mobilization of national resources.
2. The country would not be confronted by a second major crisis elsewhere — a threat that would tax U.S. military resources burdened by the vaulting demands of Viet Nam.

Part of the gamble involved reducing temporarily the combat effectiveness of Army divisions based in the United States and the 4th Infantry of Ft. Lewis, Wash., and the 8th Mechanized Infantry of Ft. Carson, Colo.

An earlier report of the subcommittee showed that the divisions in the United States had significant shortages of major items of equipment, Stennis said.

"Our recent investigation of the four divisions — showed that they had not undergone national security training since the Vietnam war, and that the equipment situation as far as these four divisions are concerned, is not as gratified as it is," he said.

McNamara told newsmen in Capitol Hill Wednesday the use of Army divisions for training had not endangered national security. "On the contrary, the retention of the Reserve forces as Reserve forces instead of calling them to active duty would have been significant in the United States had significant shortages of major items of equipment, Stennis said.

Book Collection Donated To Foster Memorial Shelf

The David S. Foster Memorial Library at Manchester High School has been presented a collection of history books by Mr. Bernstein, Foster's uncle, who is a teacher of history at a New York high school, presently on leave of absence and serving as a field supervisor for the Neighborhood Youth Corps in that city.

In choosing the selection, Bernstein wrote he picked "only books which I hope will be read and used by students, books which I feel sure David had read or would have liked to read."

Waging War on Fog Words, Official Succumbs to the Ill

By NEIL GIBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The latest federal official to gingerly dip his toe into the quicksand of "fog words" was Arthur M. Ross of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, who succumbed to a touch of "fog" in his five-month tenure in office.

It was almost inevitable, like a character in one of those unrelated novels now labeled as "pulp" or "trash," that Ross would succumb to the quicksand of "fog words" in his five-month tenure in office.

More "fog" (convincing) analysis, demanded Ross, the eloquent and usually plain-spoken former University of California professor, "is needed to help the public understand the economic situation."

Lawrence Klein, director of the Council of Economic Advisors, said that Ross' analysis was "convincing" and that he was "eloquent and usually plain-spoken."

Injury Notices Served on Town

Notices of injuries, both stemming from alleged sidewalk falls, have been filed with the town clerk's office by two Manchester women.

Mrs. Emma J. Brown of 60 Spruce St. claims that she fell, March 10, on a defective Pearl St. sidewalk. She is asking the town to pay the costs of a physical examination, X-rays, medication and inconvenience.

Mrs. Winifred R. Riverburg of 183 N. Elm claims that she fell Tuesday on a Summit St. sidewalk, and that she is now under the care of a physician.

2 Apple Varieties New

MANDAN, N.D. — Two new winter-hardy apple varieties are being released to fruit growers by the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture, "United States," as Ross put it.

The writing project may help the public understand the economic situation, said Ross, "is needed to help the public understand the economic situation."

Democratic Tour Set for Women

Connecticut Democratic Women will meet in Washington on April 17, to participate in the Campaign Committee for Democratic Women. Registration for the three-day event is still open.

The tour will include a morning on Capitol Hill, luncheon honoring 57 First Ladies (including Mrs. John Kennedy), dinner, and a White House reception. Further information about the conference and assistance with registration, transportation (chartered buses), and cost may be obtained from Mrs. Harry Hanft, 84 Wilson Lane, Rockville, a touring chairman.

Crews Tackling Launch Problem

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Launch crews and engineers wrestled today with problems that have caused three straight space launch postponements here, as the countdowns reached the final phases.

Two of the delays, Monday and Wednesday, involved an Atlas-Agena rocket and its Orbiting Astronomical Observatory payload. The other, on Tuesday, was an Atlas-Centaur rocket whose goal is the first double launch of a high-powered hydrogen engine in space.

College Offers Business Class

Beginning this fall, the Manchester Community College will offer a one-year clerk-typist program, President Frederick Lowe has announced.

The program will lead to a proficiency certificate and will be for those who wish to complete training for business in one year.

Students will be required to carry four 4-credit courses each semester to be awarded certificates. A fifth course may be selected with approval of college authorities.

Kirk Douglas Sees Value In Failure

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — All of his life, Kirk Douglas has believed in the cult of the champion, whose only success lies in constant victory.

Later, however, the actor confessed to having some second thoughts.

"Something happens in this quest for success. Sometimes you can lose yourself along the way," he said.

"I'd like to be able to afford the luxury of failure. You have to feel free to do what you want to do, although this is hard to attain in any field."

"But I feel most people can come pretty close to getting what they want out of life—if they are really ready to pay the price."

After acting in some 40 pictures Kirk would like to guarantee a win or lose, on becoming a screen and Broadway director.

The drive to win has been part of his nature ever since, as the son of immigrant parents from Russia, he worked his way through college.

He became a top debater, president of the student body, a champion wrestler. He chalked up only one loss.

"I really wanted to be a poet," he said. "I even went around with my shirt collar open as a Byronic poet. But I gave it up—I couldn't stand my own poetry."

After slinging back part-time hours and appearing in several Broadway plays, he did a wartime Navy hitch, then went to Hollywood and quickly became a star.

"To me, New York is the greatest city in the world because it has a kind of frightening power, an indifference to everybody except the winner that makes it awesome," Kirk said.

"From my youth I also remember the lurch of it, your ability to get lost in it."

Kirk also remembers as a chief turning point in his life an English class taught by Louise Livingstone at the high school in Amherst, N.Y.

"She exposed me to things I had never known—poetry and plays. I came from a tough part of town, she convinced me I should get an education."

"Here are a few of the things Kirk Douglas likes:

"Horseback riding, the ballet grace of pro athletes, the same and surrounded by music, peasant food of almost any country but particularly plain, quickly boiled with butter; yellow, because it's supposed to be the color of friendship; contrast, such as sunny and rainy days; big storms, because they make me think there's somebody who has really running things; the feeling of cleanliness, walking at night, swimming, sitting a long ball off the tee, reaching for something out of reach, seeing the American flag wave in a breeze."

These are his dislikes:

"Mediocrity in myself or anybody else, the taste of turnips; exercise, which I do as a form of penance; critics, because they can make me feel so good or so lousy; shopping, double-breasted suits, porous people, and those who think patting hair is corny."

"I also hate doing homework for my kids. To me, making a new movie is easier than solving problems in the new math. There's life rumbled on by me."

Two Acquitted In Slavery Trial

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A U.S. District Court judge said it was clear two defendants had violated state law, but he ordered them acquitted, for lack of evidence, on federal white slavery charges.

Judge Robert C. Zampano called a halt to a trial Wednesday, saying that the government had failed to prove its case against Robert Bradwell, 40, and Mrs. Frances Ervin, 38, both of Bridgeport.

But the trial continued for a third defendant, William Harrison of New York City. It is expected to wind up today.

In ordering acquittal of charges against Bradwell and Mrs. Ervin, Judge Zampano called their house in Bridgeport a "cesspool of sexual appetites" whose girls from out-of-state were placed as "attractive bait."

All three had been charged with violating the Mann Act, which forbids transporting women across state lines for immoral purposes.

The association said Jack Frank of Hattings, Tex., is part owner of a gin that has produced an average 10,000 bales of cotton each year for several years.

Crashes Bring Arrest, Warning

Four accidents yesterday resulted in one driver being charged with a motor vehicle violation and one driver being issued a written warning. The accidents involved both cars and trucks and resulted in one station wagon being towed away. There were no injuries, according to police.

Police report the Ross car hit the Lassen car after Lassen had slowed down and signaled for a left turn into Deet's Drive-1 at 482 Center St., about 8:45 p.m. The Ross wagon was extensively damaged and was towed away. Court date for Ross is scheduled for April 18.

A written warning for failure to drive a reasonable distance along was issued to William H. Long, 42, of Riverside, R. I., about 12:15 p.m. after his truck hit another truck at the E. Middle Tpke.-Mountain Rd. intersection, police say.

Police report the eastbound truck driven by Henry Hurst Jr., 30, of Hartford, was hit in the rear by the Long truck as Hurst was making a right turn into Mountain Rd. The Hurst truck was damaged in the right rear fender.

The Parade was the scene of a three-vehicle accident yesterday morning about 10:45 when a tractor-trailer driven by Nelson R. Goulet, 40, of West Willington, hit a parked Connecticut State Welfare car and the impact resulted in the car hitting another parked State Welfare car, according to police.

Police say the Goulet tractor, eastbound, was making a left turn into an aisle between two rows of parked cars when the accident occurred. The left rear wheels of the trailer hit the left rear side of the first parked car and pushed the car sideways into the second parked car.

Police are looking for another hit-run driver. For the second straight day a parked car has been hit by an unknown car that was driven away from the scene of the accident without the driver having made known his identity.

The rear fender and trunk of a parked car in the Empire Tool & Mfg. Co. off Stock St. was damaged sometime yesterday, police report.

Mitchell A. Slowich, 22, of Weptha, was the owner of the car. He said he was in the lot at 8 in the morning and noticed the damage when he returned at 5 p.m., according to police.

No Change Made in Idle Claims

Unemployment compensation claims filed in Manchester last week showed no change from the figures for the previous week, with 553 claims reported for both periods.

Of the total claims, 178, or 32.2 per cent, were from women, 376 were repeats and 175 were initial.

Claims filed throughout the state last week declined by the state last week declined by the bill providing for uniform nationwide Daylight Saving Time Wednesday.

Rep. Robert N. Gaimo did not vote. The measure was sent to the President for signing.

Retires
Martin E. Alvord of 3 Oakland St. retires today after 46 years with Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Hartford.

His retirement also means the eventual loss to the town of a citizen who gave to it 23 years of service to its planning and zoning agencies. The Alvord Long, 42, of Riverside, R. I., plan to build a year-round home at Barnstable on Cape Cod.

Alvord is now a member of the Town Planning Commission, and his term expires in November. He will have served 15 years on the TPC. He was appointed a member in 1949 and became its chairman in 1952.

He has also been active at the state level in planning and zoning serving as president and lesser offices of the Connecticut Federation of Planning and Zoning Agencies.

At Connecticut Mutual Life, Alvord began his career in 1920 in the accounting division. He was appointed to the official staff as supervisor of accounts in 1952, named assistant secretary in 1956 and secretary in 1960.

In 1959 he was instrumental in extending the use of tabulating equipment to include premium billing and auditing of field reports. He was largely responsible for the adoption of the state accounting system in 1954, which greatly simplified agency accounting procedures and paved the way for the electronic data processing system.

Alvord is a Manchester native, born Nov. 9, 1901, the son of William E. and Ethel M. Alvord. He followed his father's footsteps in public service, his father served eight years as a selectman.

He married the former Elizabeth Barrow of Bristol, and the couple have two children, Mrs. Raymond (Ann) Groves of Greenwich and Joel Barrow Alvord of Glastonbury.

McNamara Defends Buildup Policies
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today defended his military buildup policy "has increased our military strength," although it involves a temporary loss of combat readiness in some Army divisions converted to training.

Both for today and for the future, the program has expanded substantially the total number of trained personnel in the active and Reserve forces," McNamara said Thursday.

"It has increased our military strength and it has enhanced our ability to effectively fulfill our political commitments," he said.

"This did McNamara defend the wisdom of my recommendation of last year" on the way the buildup should be conducted.

The decision, the defense chief said, was "to meet the current troop deployment needs of South Viet Nam by an expansion of the active Army, plus an increase in the readiness of the Reserve forces, rather than by the call to active duty of those Reserve forces."

McNamara said Thursday that the four divisions are not combat ready. But at the same time, McNamara read from his letter to the Senate disclosing previously secret testimony in which the defense secretary assured a Senate group: "If an emergency occurred, we would reconstitute them, and raise them to their previous level of combat readiness. The equipment is still there."

McNamara wrote Senate: "I am confident that the four divisions will be combat ready within 30 days of the start of hostilities."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The only four complete Army divisions in the United States for training draftees and recruits. He favored instead at least a selective callup of Reservists when the buildup began.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal appeals court today sided with a lower court's back-to-work order against the railroad firemen's strike against eight major railroads.

The 2-1 decision by a panel of the Court of Appeals placed the decision for such a back-to-work order against the railroad firemen's strike against eight major railroads.

The court official said Judge Walter M. Bastian and Warren E. Burger voted to dismiss the union's appeal from the order of U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

Chief Judge David L. Bazelon dissented. The order came down two hours after a one-hour argument before the three-judge panel.

In the hearing union attorney Joseph L. Baul argued that the back-to-work order would be a "back-to-work order" and "would you be struck—and once you've been struck with a court order, the damage is irreparable. It means the end of the strike."

The court official said Judge Walter M. Bastian and Warren E. Burger voted to dismiss the union's appeal from the order of U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

Chief Judge David L. Bazelon dissented. The order came down two hours after a one-hour argument before the three-judge panel.

In the hearing union attorney Joseph L. Baul argued that the back-to-work order would be a "back-to-work order" and "would you be struck—and once you've been struck with a court order, the damage is irreparable. It means the end of the strike."

Gengras Says Cong Terrorists He'd Accept Call by GOP

HAARTFORD (AP)—Insurance executive and business owner E. Clayton Gengras says he would accept the Republican nomination for governor if the GOP wants him.

Gengras said Thursday he is ready to arrange his business and personal affairs so that he can run if nominated.

"I am planning to meet with leaders in other sections of the state," Gengras said. "I just want to meet these people and discuss the overall party future. I'm not asking for delegates or commitments."

Congress, of West Hartford, is chairman of the board of the Security Insurance Group and president of the Connecticut Co. Gengras had some major "ifs" in his statement of position. He would be willing to run, he said, "if the Republican Party can be unified on a statewide basis and if the leaders feel I can lead the party to victory."

So far in the jockeying for the nomination, Gengras has been expected and caused little concern.

Wilson Swept to Office, Labor Margin 95 Seats

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson returned triumphantly to No. 10 Downing Street today, swept back into office by a smashing election victory over Edward Heath and the Conservatives.

Computer analyses of returns from the general election Thursday predicted Wilson's victory. He would have a majority of at least 60 seats in the new House of Commons. Labor's majority in the last House was only three.

Looking fresh and vigorous despite less than four hours sleep, Wilson, 50, said he would give priority to measures to maintain the strength of the pound sterling as an international currency.

His indicated action to stabilize wages and prices and said, "We really mean business in keeping sterling strong."

The first reaction on the international exchange to Labor's victory was a sharp improvement in the pound. The London stock market opened quietly.

Vote in Belfast
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—An Irish Republican is going to the British House of Commons for the first time in 11 years.

Gerald Fitz, 39, who campaigned for the reunion of Northern Ireland with the Irish Republic, was elected Thursday in West Belfast. Unlike two Sinn Fein candidates who were seated in 1955 and refused to take them, Fitz means to make himself heard in Parliament.

Fitz, a Roman Catholic, defeated James Kilgallon of the United Unionist (Conservative) party in West Belfast by a vote of 1,000 to 700.

Fitz called for a victory for any party which showed that the people of Northern Ireland—two thirds of whom are Protestants—are beginning to take the northern issue out of politics. Unionists were elected to Northern Ireland's other 11 seats.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The only four complete Army divisions in the United States for training draftees and recruits. He favored instead at least a selective callup of Reservists when the buildup began.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal appeals court today sided with a lower court's back-to-work order against the railroad firemen's strike against eight major railroads.

The 2-1 decision by a panel of the Court of Appeals placed the decision for such a back-to-work order against the railroad firemen's strike against eight major railroads.

Easter Sales Are Up With Help of Batman

NEW YORK (AP)—Easter sales, buoyed by bright print dresses, shorter skirts, permanent pressed pants, pink jugs and Batman, are soaring throughout the nation.

In a spot survey of stores in many states, The Associated Press found merchants reporting sales up 2 to 45 per cent over 1965.

The National Retail Merchants Association said department store sales this year are expected to be up 11 per cent ahead of 1965—a record year.

A government report noted a 3 per cent gain in department store sales to $425 million the week ended March 10.

"The economy is healthier," said George W. Dowdy, executive vice president of a department store in Charlotte, N.C. (Saks Fifth Avenue Co.). "There is more money in circulation."

But at the same time, "the average price is higher," said Bill Foster, sales manager of an Austin, Tex., store (Sage Discount Store). "There is more money available and, I find, a lot of people catching up on their indebtedness and willing to buy more."

'Super LBJ' Is Hero of Corny Comic

NEW YORK (AP)—Is it a bird? Is it a plane? No, it's "Super LBJ," unveiled today in a comic book country enough to make Batman blush.

The book, called "The Great Society," caricatures President Lyndon B. Johnson as Superman, with a supporting cast based largely on characters from old comic strip and radio programs.

It has the same irreverent approach to presidential affairs as "The New Frontier Coloring Book" and "The JFK Coloring Book" which appeared during the administration of the late John F. Kennedy.

When the time came for sending U.S. Atty. Gen. J. Edgar Hoover to the penitentiary, the book's author, J. Edgar Hoover, said he was "not willing to invade. Talking about the public interest is a contempt, so go back to work."

Francis Shea, on behalf of the railroads, concurred with that's involved here in temporary restraint; the notion that it's a finding of contempt is nonsense.

Rath argued that the railroads are "hiding behind the public interest, which the defenders of the public interest—and I mean the Defense Department and the Labor Department—are not willing to invade. Talking about the public interest is a contempt, so go back to work."

The order against the railroad, announced by U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff of the District of Columbia.

A railroad spokesman said the courts, despite the union's appeal plans, were studying the possibility of asking Holtzoff for a restraining order, pending based on continuation of the strike.

The strike appeared to be a showdown in the seven-year battle between the railroad industry and the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen over the elimination of some 18,000 firemen's jobs.

"I have not given an affirmative answer, said H.E. Gilbert, union president after a three-hour meeting in which Wirtz asked him to order 8,000 strikers back to work.

Both Wirtz and Gilbert said the prospect was for the strike to continue.

Homeless Negroes Plead for Grant

WASHINGTON (AP)—When you live in a warm house and eat scheduled, said Smith, "I'm here because Washington seems to run on a different meaning than when you live in a tent with no job and little to eat."

Smith came to Washington Thursday to try to get the government to hurry up and spend a $436,000 grant from the anti-poverty program for a do-it-yourself homebuilding project for hundreds of homeless Negro families near Greenville, Miss.

"The money is going for bright ideas, lemon meringue and blue print dresses in Detroit, Mich., dresses with sleeves in Boise, Idaho, strapped shoes in Philadelphia, short skirts in Charleston, W. Va., and any thing with Batman on it."
