Our Chance to Atone

The Christian Science Monitor, commenting on the news that Juan Bosch has finally accepted the nomination for President from the Dominican Revolutionary Party, says that "the United States now has an opportunity to purge itself of the bad name it got through its precipitous rejection of the Dominican Republic last year."

We can "purge" ourselves, the Monitor continues, by doing our best to make sure the election is free and fair, to be truly free, and to demonstrate to everybody that the "United States is in fact willing to do its utmost to allow Dominicans a free choice—even if that choice is Mr. Bosch."

Mr. Bosch once was president of the Dominican Republic—a president the United States had supported and whom it had defended when a military junta chased him out of the office to which he had been duly elected. It was only when Mr. Bosch, in his turn, tried to displace the military junta which had ousted the president from him that the United States felt called upon to act—to keep Mr. Bosch from succeeding in his bid for the presidency.

Subsequently, and strangely enough, Mr. Bosch has had the unkind things to say about the United States. In fact, there was a period in which he was refusing to run for president in the United States because he believed that the United States was too closely allied with the right-wing military factions of his country to allow him to win and his election would be a mere formality.

Freedom of Academic Degrees. We suppose some of the professors at the University of Rochester, when they heard that Richard Nixon was going to be a commencement speaker at that university, were a little bit uneasy.

It would be a strange interpretation of academic freedom, for which Mr. Nixon himself has shown disapproving little respect in the past, if it should ever be determined that an educational institution could not bestow an honorary degree on an individual with whom any majority of its own faculty members happened to disagree.

Connecticut Yankee

By A.H.O.

We really have to work at our own cynicism, to keep it from becoming a default. If we don't, it is likely to disappear and leave us victims to all kinds of soft ideas and persuasions.

Maybe it was just the other day, when the department, and its commissioner, one Attilo R. Frassinelli, revealed that it had been maintaining a surveillance on restaurant menus and detecting a number of offenses in terminology.

What? No Brakes? General Motors could much better have saved the money it spent investigating Ralph Nader, and used it to buy advertising space to promote his book instead of bad. And the result would have been about the same—some added publicity.

What's the deal with such crusaders as let them have their head, give them their tastes of fame and prominence, please them with the attention which is their way to fortune, and then depend on them to keep reaching just a little bit farther, day by day, disclosure by disclosure, until they are in a position to keep the wheel of fame and fortune turning faster and faster.

Leading Slugger in Majors One-Time Batboy Lefebvre

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Drysdale went twice as far as Sandy Koufax, but neither has gone as far as Jim Lefebvre.

A batboy for the Los Angeles Dodgers seven times ago, posting second base and the Rookie of the Year in the National League last year, Lefebvre has gone right to the top this year as the leading slugger in the majors.

The 25-year-old switch-hitter pulled Drysdale out of the box Friday night by slamming his fourth homer in three games, three-run shot in the eighth inning that carried the world champion to a 4-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

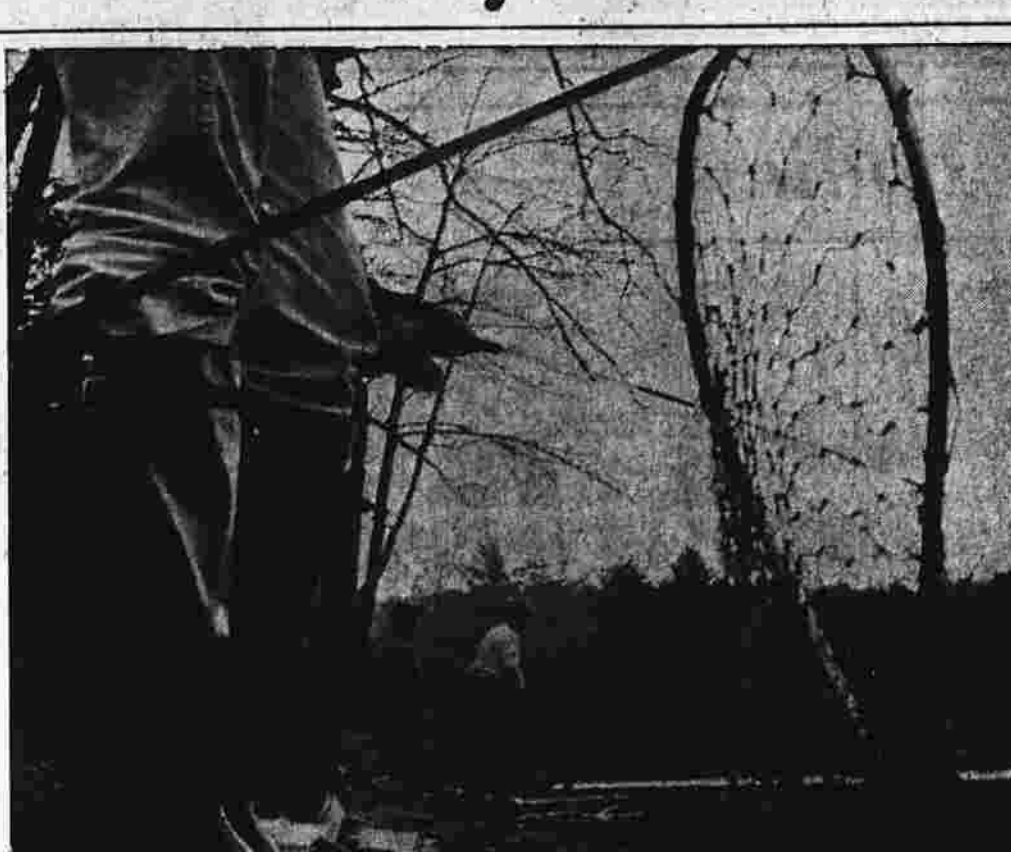

Lefebvre, who hit two homers Thursday night, now leads the majors in left field, with eight, and has compiled a .467 batting average by connecting for seven hits in 15 at-bats.

He has collected all but one of the Dodgers' homers this season, and already has accumulated more than 100 hits. Lefebvre has hit last year when he batted .200.

Drysdale, meanwhile, made his first start of the season after his 32-day holdout, and proved an effective Stan Koufax. Where Koufax surrendered five runs in three innings Wednesday night, Drysdale pitched over Pittsburgh at Forbes Field for eight hits — all singles — and only two runs.

Another holdout, San Francisco's Bob Shaw, went 3-13 in his first start, and Drysdale and Koufax to the victory circle by getting credit for the triumph as the Giants whipped Houston 6-2.

Roger Kuzo became the major league's biggest comebacker in his second victory as Philadelphia edged Cincinnati 4-3. Kuzo continued his mastery over Pittsburgh at Forbes Field by subduing the Pirates 9-2, and by subduing the Pirates 9-2, and by subduing the Pirates 9-2, and by subduing the Pirates 9-2.

Drysdale (right) pulled Don Drysdale out of the box Friday night by slamming his fourth homer in three games, three-run shot in the eighth inning that carried the world champion to a 4-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Rockville Wins No. 2 To Remain Unbeaten

Still unbeaten on the baseball trail is Rockville High, a surprising 4-0 winner over Southington High yesterday, and still winless in the young season is Ellington High. This has been a lost weekend for the Knights, as they lost to the Braves 4-1, and to the Braves 4-1, and to the Braves 4-1.

Smith now boasts three straight wins. Rockville's victory over Southington was the team's first since its opening game against Southington. The senior didn't start, coming on in the fourth when Bob Wilson faltered and the score tied at 2-2.

Facing the Ram attack was John Seabury with three hits and two RBIs.

Two runs in the fifth and another in the sixth led to an early lead, but the Braves tied it up in the seventh. The Braves tied it up in the seventh. The Braves tied it up in the seventh.

Diet Frequent Problem For Baseball Runners

BOSTON (AP)—Diet is a frequent problem for touring athletes but the Japanese contingent on hand for the Boston Athletic Association marathon is experiencing any difficulty.

The Japanese team is staying with a native Japanese, Mrs. Mary Takeda, who is more than willing to go out her way to find the particular cravings of her visitors.

Mrs. Takeda says she hasn't had a single request for her way of finding particular foods.

"I like American food," said the annual venture out of the Japanese baseball team. "Last night I gave them a steak dinner," she said. "To them, it was like chicken for them. They also like greens and salads, lettuce and tomatoes."

Moe Segar's three RBIs pace winners with winning pitch.

Brewer Setting Fast Pace In Las Vegas Golf Tourney

Dallas, held a two-stroke lead over the nearest challenger, third round of the $100,000 tournament of Champions to play today, but the mystery of this golf show was the absence of the tournament's star, a 34-year-old Wisconsin, from McKinney, Tex., 71-70.

Kentuckian who plays out of the front end in his bid to win the tournament for the second straight year, with 74-70, 144, a score he shared with Lionel Hebert.

Jack Nicklaus, the pre-tournament favorite, was eight strokes back of Brewer, and so were Gary Player and Joe Chamberlain. Nicklaus and Player had scores of 78-71-147 and Campbell had 78-71-147.

Deadlocked at 148 were Bruce Crampton, Frank Beard and PGA champion Dave Marr, while Doug Sanders and Bobby Nichols occupied the 145 berth.

As for the intriguing part of the tournament, 36 holes of play only six were under par 144. A year ago, there were an even more. This time, only three have broken 70. Last year the figure was 12.

Mets Looked Great For Eight Innings

NEW YORK (AP)—For eight glorious innings the amazing New York Mets looked like a ball club. Cleon Jones, a rookie right fielder, was being fitted for a hero's halo on an eighth-inning homer and a game-saving throw. It seemed the Mets finally were going to win an opener.

Then it happened.

A double by Joe Torre, a single by Tommie Agee, a walk by the same Mr. Jones and a squeeze bunt by Denis Menke.

Atlanta scored two in the ninth, brought off a last gasp three-run homer by Tommie Agee, the Braves' first of the season.

The 32.818 fans folded up their beds and went home. The Mets' purple bed horns under their arms and, stole away from the Mets' locker room and turnout in the five-year Met history.

"I figured it was worth a shot," said Torre. "He was the first time he worked. He wouldn't hear his coach. We put it on all spring, and this was the first time he worked. He was a perfect pitch. It was a fast ball right up here," said Menke, putting his hand across his chest.

"I had it in the back of my mind," said Jack Fitzer, Mets' losing pitcher. "But I really didn't think they'd give me a chance to pitch. I thought I had a chance to pitch."

Menke's throw was a fraction of a second late, but it got past catcher Jerry Grote anyway.

"I was a little bit off on the throw," said Westrum in the clubhouse. "But we had a few more chances to win."

On a sign from catcher Torre, Denny Lemond, who was on the mound and threw to shortstop Sandy Alomar, the largest crowd since the Mets' opening day with only room to spare.

Peterson Stops All but Frank Robinson

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Robinson and the Baltimore Orioles fans have a friend in Fritz Peterson.

Except Peterson pitched for the New York Yankees and in his major league debut Friday he stopped the Orioles 2-0 on six hits.

Still the 24-year-old left hander was better off than he was in his first game as a Yankee and the fans' welfare.

"I thought that one was going out," Peterson said. "I'm lucky the wind was blowing. Anyway, he got me, and I pitched. At the crowd. That's what they came out to see. I didn't give it to him, but as long as it didn't hurt me, I'm glad he got it."

Peterson expressed much the same sentiment before his first game to his roommate, rookie shortstop Bobby Murcer.

"I told Murcer that I would like to win 10-1, and that I wouldn't mind if Frank got a home run," Peterson said.

Victory of the season after three losses and his spot in New York's starting rotation.

"I pitched about a fine as I can as a pitcher," Yankee Manager Johnny Keane said. "Control is the key to pitching, and he has it. They can't wait on him because he gets the ball over."

He got Robinson on a short fly and Powell on a grounder, preserving the Yankees' first victory of the season after three losses and his spot in New York's starting rotation.

Yanks Finally Get Unwound Thanks to Rookie Southpaw

IN THE AMERICAN League, Detroit whipped Washington 7-3. The Yankees' scoreless three runs off Wally Bunker Hulse, who pitched for the Yankees in his first game, and scored on Cleo Boyer's double, and Joe Pepitone homered in the seventh.

DETROIT CONTINUED its fourth victory without a loss after Dick McAuliffe hit a grand slam home run in the fourth inning. Al Kaline connected for a homer and a double to the Tigers' attack.

CALIFORNIA handed defending champion Minnesota its first defeat after three victories. A two-homer by rookie Rick Barlow and a four-run outburst in the sixth inning that put the game beyond the Twins' reach. Minnesota committed an error on Duke Sims' pop to short center.

Finals are listed Sunday afternoon, April 24, at the Parkade.

Squeeze Play Sets Up Win, Rider Ends Central Streak

The old squeeze play never of a 2-4 score as Ron Mohr worked better than he did at a 2-run homer in the eighth inning at New Britain.

It was the second round-tripper set up by Gene Reilly, who served up the gopher ball to Rick Laiting with nobody on base and the third inning.

It was the Blue Devil's first regular season loss after three wins and drove the length of the season at Bridgeport. The Purple Knights downed Plymouth State 6-1 as Bob McManratt scored the winning run. Bridgeport is now 4-4 on the season.

On today's schedule: Rider at Bridgeport, Conn. Guard at Massachusetts; Hartford at Lowell Tech; Bridgeport State at New Haven (doubleheader); Marbury State at New York Maritime; Newark State at Quilimpe; Springfield State at Sacred Heart (doubleheader); Trinity at Plymouth; Wesleyan at Bowdoin and Yale at Army.

Playoff Finals Start Sunday Lakers Down Hawks, Oppose Celtics Next

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Lakers rallied to score an uphill 180-121 victory over the St. Louis Hawks Friday night and win the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

The win puts the Lakers in a playoff, beginning Sunday, with the eastern champion Boston Celtics to decide the NBA championship.

Fritz West with 35 points and Elgin Baylor with 33 led a fine Laker comeback which proved too much for a determined group of Hawks.

St. Louis scoring was led by Cliff Hagan, who closed out the Hawks with 24 points and 11 rebounds. Hagan and Caldwell hit the court to the score 54-45.

But Hagan and Lemmie Wilkens hit on field goals, and St. Louis left the court at intermission leading 56-37.

The Los Angeles started in front in the third period, but Baylor and LaRusso scoring, Hazard teamed up with Hagan and Caldwell to tie the game. Baylor on two layups to give the Lakers a 79-70 advantage.

In the final minutes of the third period, no more than a point separated the teams, and Caldwell hit on a 15-foot jumper to tie the game at 84-84. Baylor on free throw to put St. Louis into a 91-81 tie.

No Defense

CLEVELAND (AP)—Manager Billy Herman is going to talk a little longer to convince Boston Red Sox fans that winter baseball has improved the team's defense.

Boston was sailing along in the season as far as the sixth inning Friday when the Indians came up with six runs in three innings, and Herman's defense was exposed.

The loss was the third in a row for the Red Sox who again today in another attempt to gain their first victory.

Fire Razes Vernon House Under Construction

Fire leveled a house under construction at Irene Dr. and Wilshire Rd. about noon yesterday. The blaze was apparently started by a plumber's torch.

According to Fire Chief Joseph Duffin, the fire started in insulation on the first floor and spread to the second floor and the ceiling before it was noticed. The plumber attempted to pull down the burning insulation, but without avail.

By the time firemen from Vernon's three fire companies arrived, it was too late to save the house; the window and door openings in the building admitted a draft that helped sustain the fire.

The blaze also started several small grassfires in the area. Firemen from Ellington and Tolland were on stand-by at the Vernon firehouses while the town's equipment was out.

Chief Duffin met last night with the contractor, Tantillo Brothers, to determine the exact cause of the blaze.

About Town

Polish Women's Alliance, Group 246, will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Polish American Club on Clinton St.

Friendship Circle of the Salvation Army will meet Monday at 7:45 p.m. for a work night at the church. Hostesses are Mrs. Tony Simard and Mrs. Maynard Clough.

The Polish American Club will meet tomorrow at 1 p.m. at 106 Clinton St. Refreshments will be served.

The Town Conservation Commission has scheduled a meeting for Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the 8th District Firehouse, Main and Hilliard Sts. It will discuss the mechanics of filing a preliminary application for federal and state funds for Case Mt. acquisition.

Mrs. Betty Schuetz of 145 Park St. and Mrs. Hilda Nielson of Hartford returned home yesterday from a cruise to Bermuda. Both women are employed at the Aetna Life and Casualty Co., Hartford.

The Rev. William Cole, missionary to Thailand, will be the speaker Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at a missionary meeting at the Community Y, 79 N. Main St., sponsored by the United Pentecostal Church. The meeting is open to the public.

The Central Connecticut and Western Massachusetts Tool, Die and Precision Machining Association will meet Monday at the Hotel America, Hartford. Frank Bauer, business and financial editor of the Hartford Times, will speak. Dinner will be served at 7:15 p.m. after a reception at 6:30.

Three Manchester residents are class agents in the 1966 Bryant College (Providence, R. I.) alumni annual giving program. They are Miss Carol Verberg, 26 Virginia Rd.; Paul O. Lewis, 20 Concord Rd.; and William Skoneski, 48 Edward St.

Army Second Lt. Henry J. Judd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Judd of 66 Foley St. recently completed the Infantry School airborne course at Ft. Benning, Ga. He is a 1959 graduate of Manchester High School and attended Milwaukee (Wis.) School of Engineering.

Intermarriage Panel Subject

A panel discussion on "Intermarriage" will be held Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at a meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom at the Temple.

Panelists are Rabbi Stanley Kessler of Temple Beth El, West Hartford; Rev. Nathaniel Lauriat of the Unitarian Church, Hartford; and Dr. Ruby Jo Reeves Kennedy, head of the sociology department of Connecticut College for Women, New London. Atty. Philip Bayler will serve as moderator.

Mrs. Jack Goldberg is chairman of the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Cars Damaged In Accident

The Main St.—E. Middle Tpke. intersection was the scene of a two car accident yesterday afternoon about 2:30 that is still under investigation by the police department.

A car owned by the Motor Lease Corp. of Farmington, driven by Richard E. Wemmell, 47, of Hillside Trailer Park, Bolton, received left rear damage after an accident involving another car that received right front damage, driven by James B. Greenwood, 68, of 28 Essex St., according to police.

Duplicate Bridge

Town Officials Attend Bank's Finance Forum

Mayor Francis Mahoney and General Manager Robert Weiss will head a delegation of 14 town officials and employees who will attend the Connecticut Bank and Trust Company's 14th Annual Forum on Municipal Finance, to be held Thursday at the Hotel Statler, Hartford.

The others of the delegation are: Town Directors Raymond Ellis, Frank Stamler and Robert Stone; Joseph Clementino, town controller; Thomas Moore, accountant; Atty. Irving Aronson, town counsel.

Also, Walter Leclerc, town treasurer; Mrs. Helen Hudson, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Katherine Winkler, an employee in the treasurer's office; Joseph Tamsky, town planning director;

Open House

There will be an Open House at Keeney, Highland Park and Robertson Schools tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 4. All townspeople are invited.

The event is being held by the board of education to give the public a chance to view the recently completed renovations, additions and expanded facilities and equipment at the schools.

Teachers, pupils and board members will serve as hosts and guides, and all areas of the buildings will be open for inspection.

Mrs. Dorothy Kenny, secretary to the general manager; and Edward Rybczyk, executive director of the Manchester Redevelopment Agency.

The forum, to be attended by over 600 state and local officials, will begin at 2:45 p.m., and will be followed by a social hour at 5:30 and by dinner in the Statler Ballroom at 6:30.

The group will be welcomed by Pomeroy Day, president of the host bank, and by Hartford Mayor George B. Kinsella.

Highlights of the forum will be talks by New Haven Mayor Richard C. Lee, by former Rhode Island Governor Dennis J. Roberts, and by Walter H. Tyler, chairman of the Municipal Bond Rating Committee of the Standard and Poor's Corporation.

Bennet Unit Taps Dvorak

Herman Dvorak of 208 Mountain Rd. last night was elected and installed president of the Bennet Junior High School P.T.S.O. for the 1966-67 school year.

Other newly elected officers are Mrs. David Kahn, first vice president, and Mrs. Edward Glennie, secretary. Mrs. Eugene Montany was re-elected second vice president, and Roderick MacLean was re-elected treasurer. Mrs. Robert Franklin was named refreshment chairman, and Mrs. Clifford Hansen chairman of the bookstamping committee. The installation was conducted by Mrs. Franklin, as outgoing secretary.

After the business meeting, the P.T.S.O. was entertained by the annual student Talent Show, sponsored by the Student Council and directed by Leo Diana, faculty advisor. Robert Herdic was master of ceremonies. The variety show began with selections by the Bennet dance band, including an original selection by Samuel Macaluso, a music teacher, and the director of the band. Singing acts included selections by Edwin Stearns; Iga Pamps; Laura Zaglio; Mark Ahlness and Chris Clarke; Lorraine Castagna; Burt Jones; Diana Fontana; Michele Twerdy and Sandra Cole; Lynn Derrick and Joyce Cerkin; Sue Jacobson and Linda Johnston. Dance acts were presented by Nancy Riley and Nancy Desrosiers; Janice Bonham; Wendy McKinney and Christine Twomey; Carol Scata and Nancy Quaglio and Barbara Harrison and Joann Booth, with Miss Riley and Miss Desrosiers.

An exhibition of baton twirling was presented by Laurie Lambert and Vivian Parkman, and a drama skit by ninth graders Gail Price, Dorene DeCormier, and Harry Jenkins. Several selections were sung by the seventh grade Choralists, a chorus of 50 voices directed by music teacher P. Melvin Lumpkin, with Carl Osier, student conductor. The program concluded with selections by the Rivals, a rock and roll group of ninth graders including Stephen Neill, Dean LaCoe, Stephen Montany and Philip Clandaniel.

Piano accompanists were Jeanne Demko, Caroline Johnson, and Douglas Eichman who also played a solo.

'Oscar' Production Makes Many Enemies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "It's a nice job," Joe Pasternak observed ruefully, "for making enemies."

It seemed an unlikely statement from Pasternak, the friendly, Hungarian-born producer who has made sunny musicals with well-fed songstresses from Deanna Durbin ("Three Smart Girls") to Ann-Margret ("Made in Paris"). He was referring to his extra-curricular post as producer of the Academy Award telecast.

"I was out of my mind to accept the job last year," he said. "Then I agreed to do it again this year. What was I thinking of!"

After his exercise in Hollywood hyperbole, he admitted that the assignment was a challenging and sometimes satisfying one. Especially if the show comes off well, as it did last year.

Marshall Set For Role in UN Special

NEW YORK—(NEA)—For a man whose greatest activity during the long run in The Defenders was pacing in front of a jury box, E.G. Marshall's return to television is a frantic affair.

As a government agent on the trail of a narcotics ring in The Poppy Is Also a Flower, AUN special set for ABC-TV Friday, E.G. jumps on and off trains, is beaten up by Angie Dickinson, Anthony Quayle and Harold Sakata (also known as Oddjob in "Goldfinger") and generally behaves with a lot of derring-do and a minimum of derring-don't.

The show, which has a large, illustrious cast including Trevor Howard, Omar Sharif, Rita Hayworth, Stephen Boyd, Princess Grace of Monaco, etc. was filmed in Nice and Egypt. Carried away by the exotic locales and the overpowering direction of Terence Young (who directed "From Russia With Love" and "Thunderball"), E.G. performed most of the stunts himself.

(See Page Four)

"I think Monday night's show will be just as good," said the producer. "We'll have a few surprises, but there's not much you can do that is different. Any major change in the presentation requires a vote of the board of directors, so we're stuck with the same format."

"Within that framework, I think the Oscarcast is a good show. The main thing we try to do is present an entertaining program while preserving the dignity of the organization. Bob Hope is great for that purpose."

Hope will again be conducting the festivities next Monday at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, and he will be joined by 40 other top names. Included are all of last year's acting winners: Julie Andrews, Rex Harrison, Lila Kedrova and Peter Ustinov.

Booking the stars is one of Pasternak's chief headaches.

"The stars themselves are not much trouble," he said. "It's the people around them who give me the trouble — agents, press agents, managers, etc. They want to be sure their clients give only the important awards."

Casting singers for the nominated songs is the area where the producer fears that he creates enemies. He turned down one big name because the singer had been featured on re-

(See Page Two)

OSCAR NOMINEES—Here the nominees for the best performances by an actor and actress this year. Starting with Rod Steiger (No. 1) named for "The Pawnbroker," are: Lee Marvin, "Cat Ballou"; Richard Burton, "The Spy Who Came in from the Cold"; Oskar Werner, "Ship of Fools"; Laurence Olivier, "Othello"; Julie Christie, "Darling"; Samantha Eggar, "The Collector"; Elizabeth Hartman, "A Patch of Blue"; Simone Signoret, "Ship of Fools"; Julie Andrews, "Sound of Music." The annual Oscar presentations will be held Monday, televised over Channel 8, starting at 10 p.m.

MICKIE FINN'S OPENS—The television version anyway, Thursday night at 9:30 on Channels 22 and 30. The show's set is a duplication of the San Francisco nightclub of the same name. Dixieland music is the featured commodity. "Mickie" is shown above, with some of the band members.

12th Season For Welk Show

"The Lawrence Welk Show," a still-growing national viewing habit which began in 1955, will enter its 12th year on the ABC-TV Network in the fall, again telecast in color Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

The series, originally brought on as a summer replacement, has through the years established itself as consistently one of the most popular musical entertainments on television.

Under the baton of Maestro Welk, the program features music in the celebrated Champagne Music style and a family of performers who have gathered individual fame with viewers. Many of Welk's Champagne Music Makers became regulars on the program as a result of viewer response to guest appearances and a good deal of the music played on the program reflects the requests of the Welk audience. The show receives a weekly average of 5,000 pieces of mail.

Joining Lost Shows Might Reduce Waste

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Oh, the waste of it all! No fewer than 48 television series are shuffling off the networks this season, a record.

This throws hundreds of actors out of work and corporations into panic — three big studios suffered a total loss of 17 series. Millions of dollars are lost, since many series fail to show a profit on the first run. They need a few years of production and reruns to break even.

Is there a solution to this waste? There is, and it is offered by that astute observer of the television scene, Caroline Thomas.

Miss Thomas is 7, and she was upset to learn that two of her favorite shows, "Gidget" and "The Patty Duke Show" are going off the air.

"Why can't Gidget move in with Patty Duke?" she suggested.

A brilliant suggestion. Shows could be spared the ax by combining with others for double the viewing enjoyment. Or triple, since Tammy would be an ideal companion for Patty and Gidget.

Ben Casey and Dr. Kildare could go into practice together. The Addams family could take up residence with the Munsters, or vice versa, and scare the dickens out of each other.

A combination of the Loner, Jesse James, the Man from Shenandoah and the chaps from "Branded" and "Rawhide" could wipe the Ponderosa off the map.

There isn't a case that could

Many New Features For Sunday Movies

During the 1966-67 season, ABC-TV's weekly "Sunday Night Movie", in its fifth year will offer one of the most exciting lavish packages of up-to-date films ever seen on television.

Running the gamut of strong human emotion, from historic romance to bright musical comedy to tense dramatic action and adventure the well-delineated package of new-to-TV films will present a glittering roster of the brightest names in film-land.

Among the films—mostly in color—to be presented will be: "The V.I.P.'s", with Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton, "The Prize", with Paul Newman, Elke Sommer; "Bus Stop", with Marilyn Monroe, Don Murray; "High Society", with Frank Sinatra, Grace Kelly, Bing Crosby; "Of Human Bondage", with Kim Novak, Laurence Harvey; "The Young Lions", with Marlon Brando, Montgomery Clift; "Ulysses", with Kirk Douglas, Anthony Quinn; "Can Can", with Frank Sinatra, Shirley Maclaine; "Jumbo", with Doris Day, Stephen Boyd; "Kissing Cousins", with Elvis Presley; "King Solomon's Mines", with Deborah Kerr, Stewart Granger; "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse", with Glenn Ford, Ingrid Thulin; and "Agent 8 1/2", with Dirk Bogarde, Robert Morley.

The films will again be presented in the well-established 9 p.m. Sunday time period.

NBC to Present British Shows

A series of six full-hour musical-variety programs taped in color at London's famous Palladium and featuring outstanding American entertainers as emcees will begin in May on the NBC-television Network.

Comedian Jonathan Winters, "Bonanza" star Lorne Greene, and singer Kate Smith will emcee three of the programs. The other three hosts as well as the dates and time periods of broadcast will be announced later.

"Jonathan Winters at the London Palladium" is scheduled to be the first program in the series.

Among the guests appearing in the Jonathan Winters-emceed show are Michael Bentine, comedian; Frank Field, popular English singer; Millicent Martin, dancer; the Twenty Tiller Girls (similar to America's famous Rockettes); Robert Harbin, magician; the Schaller Brothers, an American trampoline act; and Neville King, ventriloquist.

Marshall

"I did a lot of damn fool stuff I would never do in Hollywood, because Young, who is probably older and heavier than I, would perform the stunt and then say 'Do it like that, E. G.' He had me jumping on and off freight trains. I'm terrified of trains rushing past me, and there was all that noise and he said to me, after we finally got the scene, 'There was a wonderful expression of terror in your eyes.' I wasn't acting."

E. G., currently touring the United States in "This Winter's Hobby," a play which will open on Broadway in September, does not miss filming The Defenders.

"It was like being in prison. I served my sentence and now I can dig up some of that loot I stole," he smiled. He added that he figured he would be forgotten eventually, by fans and the people he worked with. "Then I met a script girl who used to work on the show and she didn't know me. I thought, 'It's already happened.'"
