And it has seemed to us that one of the great gains of the discussion of the day, this is an issue which calls for some yielding all around. It calls, too, for more than one kind of tolerance—not only tolerance for races, but tolerance for those arguments and positions we find hard to understand, like the wouldbe compulsion of our more zealous angels, or the sanctimony with which some of the bitterest defenders of the privilege of hate and discrimination sometimes manage to cloak themselves. It is an issue which calls for, and which has received, in Manchester, as elsewhere, the kind of courage in which decent people stand up for what they think should be the right thing for Man-

When Sheriff Petrie is deserted by the townsfolk, his faithful wife, Laura, yolunteers to sing and dence for Bed Man Bridy at Miss Sally's Salcon. Dick Van Dyke stars, with Mary Tyler Moore, Rose Marie, Morey Ameterdam, Richard Descon, Larry Mathews and Onel Reiner. Allan Melvin appears as a gun salesman. Van Dyke's three oldest children, Chris, 16, Barry, 15, and Stacy, 11, appear briefly. The series' story consultants, Bill Persicy and Sam Denoff, who also wrote the script, have bit roles. Two other teams of writers for the series, Garry Marshall and Jerry Belson, and Dale McRaven and Carl Kleinschmitt, appear as endras in a saloon scene.

Test of Drivers Is on Tuesday

CBS will broadcast a new test of driving ability Tuesday from 10 to 11 p.m. The 1986 National Drivers Test" will be presented exactly one year from the date of last year's driver's test. It was rebroadcast just before the Labor Day holiday.

The new test will again reereste common collision situations and hazardous road conditions and examine motorists on their knowledge of different driving conditions and func-tion and repair of their cars. More than 30 questions will be

A sampling of those who took last year's test the first time it was broadcast showed that 42 per cent flunked.
