The Weather

Cloudy with rain later tonight, low 55-60; cloudy, cooler, with rain tomorrow, high in upper 60s.

Mass Evacuation From Beach Areas

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Alma, leaving a trail of at least 45 dead in three nations, howled onward today to another landfall in the Florida panhandle.

Residents of the panhandle beaches, who went to sleep last night in the belief they were safe from Alma, awoke today to find themselves next in line to receive the hammer blows of her wind and rain.

The wall of the eye, around which the hurricane's top winds of 110 miles an hour raged, moved across the coast near Apalachicola, a city of 2,000 population, about 11 a.m. EDT.

As the hurricane whirled up the Gulf of Mexico just offshore, heavy rain fell across the beaches in the storm's wake, but did not reach the dangerous proportions that had been feared.

At St. Petersburg, where Alma came closest to the mainland, water running three to five feet above normal inundated beach roads and closed roads and bridges connecting a chain of offshore resort islands.

The predicted lists of seven to 10 feet above normal winds have wreaked havoc along great stretches of beach.

Two persons lay dead behind the storm's eye, which in Cuba was prevented, by the evacuation of 112,754 persons from danger zones in Havana Province.

Crops wiped out included 18,000 acres of bananas, 18,000 acres of pineapples and 10,000 acres of fruit trees—a serious blow in the food-rattled Cuban nation. Wind-blown downed tobacco stores from which the tobacco had been removed.

The Communist party reported 12 killed and 78 injured, in her infancy over Honduras. Alma left 30 dead in flood waters.

Greater loss of life in Cuba was prevented, by the evacuation of 112,754 persons from danger zones in Havana Province.

KANE BURNETT MATTER IF YOU MAKE THE PLAY

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Thirty years ago Ely Culbertson dramatically called a certain bridge play "The Coup Without a Name." Modern writers prefer to call it "The Reverse Coup" because it cuts communications between the two opponents. Call it what you like, so long as you make the play when it is needed.

Opening lead—king of clubs. West opens the bag of clubs, and East signals with the nine. West slowly decides against leading another club. Instead, he shifts to his singleton diamond.

If declarer returns a trump, West takes the ace of trumps and leads the ten of clubs to East's ace. East then returns a diamond, and West's ruff defeats the contract.

This pretty defense gives great joy to all except two players at the table. Still, South should make his contract in spite of the clever shift to diamonds.

South must cut communications between East and West. If East returns the king of clubs, West must not lead the ace of diamonds, but rather the king of hearts from dummy. An immediate ruff instead of ruffing, and West must win the trick.

This maneuver gives West a trick with the ace of hearts last.

Vote Enrollment

The Manchester registrars of voters will conduct an enrollment session tomorrow, from 8 to 8 p.m. in their offices in the Municipal Building.

The purpose of the session is to permit unaffiliated voters to register with a party of their choice, and to permit those who are not registered with a party to switch.

Tomorrow's enrollment session is not to be confused with a vote-making session. The latter is conducted on the first Wednesday of each month in the town clerk's office.

Tennis Racket Novel

PARIS—Rene Lacoste, once the world's No. 1 tennis player, has invented a racket made of chrome-plated tubing and stainless-steel wire with standard gut or nylon stringing. It is now on sale experimentally in some Paris shops.

After exceeding this little coup by all except two players at the table. Still, South should make his contract in spite of the clever shift to diamonds.

OEO Council Backs Foster Grandparents

Manchester's Council on Economic Opportunity adopted a resolution at last night's meeting endorsing the town's Foster Grandparent program, recently funded for $28,791 through an Office of Economic Opportunity grant.

The adoption followed a report on the program, which had been approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Council Chairman Jay R. Stager said four persons have already been hired as a result of local publicity.

The program's grant of $28,791 is expected in a few days.

Manchester's program, which will be coupled with the Thames Valley Project of Norwich, will be coordinated by council member W. J. Godfrey Goulet.

Plans call for the hiring of 15 men and women, 60 or older, who need additional income. They will be paid $1.58 an hour to work 15 hours a week with 20 Manchester retarded children. The program will be staffed by a project director from Norwich; a supervisor, who will help select and train grandfathers, at a salary of $3,600 for 50 weeks; a secretary who will work one day each week for $700 a year, and a consultant.

Norman Fendell, director of Manchester's Sheltered Workshop program, will serve as consultant to the grandfathers program at a salary of $2,000 a year.

Mrs. Joan R. McElravy, supervisor, has asked clergyman to inform their congregations about the program to spur new applications.

Council member Goulet pointed out that grandfathers hired for the program will not serve as baby sitters but will counsel the children.

Stager predicted the new program will "contribute to the growth of the retarded and the work."

In other business, the council supported by contributions has all endorsed, in principle, Manchester's third Head Start program.

No details of the new proposal were available because Head

Police Aid To Disband

The 50-member Manchester Police Benevolent Aid Association in existence since 1925, last night voted to disband.

Raymond Peck, its president, said today that the action was taken because the association has been inactive in recent years, due to the substitution of job benefits for its former function.

The vote to disband was unanimous, with over 75 percent of the members voting.

The association's assets of over $60,000, mostly invested in stocks and bonds administered by the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co., will be liquidated and will be divided equally among the members.

Before the advent of insurance to the members, the association paid part of the income for patronage who were pointed out that grandfathers hired for the program will not serve as baby sitters but will counsel the children.

Dollar, Pound Sterling Both Incur New Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — The British pound sterling is taking another drubbing just when the American balance of payments is running deeper into the red.

Both of these financial problems have flared up periodically since World War II. And both the dollar and the pound have been able to survive without too deep a scar. In fact, world monetary managers have worked out treatments that staunch the wounds.

But having both of the world's leading currencies under pressure at the same time — and particularly at this time of international uncertainty — could be more than just a passing worry.

The British pound is under selling pressure because Britain's economy is plagued by a shipping strike when the nation already was making little headway in its attempt to narrow its trade gap.

Britain's imports top its exports. And British production costs have been sending prices up and making their products less competitive in world markets.

The American balance of payments deficit is mounting just now because the Viet Nam war is siphoning off dollars at a time when U.S. exports are climbing slowly and U.S. imports are

Dairy Month Milk Prices Heading Up

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the 30th annual dairy month, and milk production is down and prices are up — and likely to head higher.

Butter production is running 15 per cent lower than last year, and prices are up. So are cheese prices.

Ice cream costs 5 cents more a gallon than it did a year ago. Coffee is cheaper — down 2 cents a pound for regular and 12 cents for a 6-ounce jar of instant.

The nation's housewives soon may feel the effects of the great plains drought, which coupled with cold weather, has held back the wheat crop, pushing up prices.

General Mills Inc. and Pillsbury Co. plan to raise the price of flour about 10 cents for a 26-pound bag by the end of the month.

Later, prices of cookies, crackers and other bakery products may go up. Bread already is higher — the result of increased costs for labor, shortening and packaging, as well as flour.

The weather also has slowed other crops.

Show Cause Ruling Issued in UAC Case

HARTFORD (AP) — United Aircraft Corp. has been ordered to show cause in Hartford Federal Court why an injunction should not be issued forcing the company to recognize and bargain with two locals of the International Association of Machinists.

Federal Judge T. Emmet Clarke issued the order after the injunction was requested Wednesday by the National Labor Relations Board.

The injunction petition requests an order blocking UAC officials from failing to recognize Lodge 1768 and 748 of the I.A.M. an exclusive collective bargaining representatives of employees at Pratt and Whitney and Hamilton standard divisions of UAC.

The injunction petition also requests orders barring UAC officials from failing to bargain collectively in good faith with the two lodges, and stopping the company from unilaterally changing the wages hours and other terms of employment from the terms prevailing just prior to UAC's withdrawal of union recognition last March.

Other orders would restrain UAC from "interfering with or coercing employees in the exercise of their rights to self-organization."

Splasher Fined

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The post-ogled girl who demonstrated at the parade of Man war was fined the equivalent of $6.72 today on a charge of offensive behavior.

Madie Jensen, 21, a typist, was also placed under a $100 good-behavior bond for 12 months.

The girl daubed herself with red paint Wednesday and attracted the leaders of the marching Australian soldiers and airmen who had just returned from Viet Nam. Red paint still matted some of her long brown hair when she appeared in court.

She told Magistrate B. Eiley: "I felt it was my personal responsibility to do something about Viet Nam."

Julie Andrews

ROME (AP) — Leaders of the Italian film industry have changed the wages hours and other terms of employment from the terms prevailing just prior to UAC's withdrawal of union recognition last March.

Other orders would restrain UAC from "interfering with or coercing employees in the exercise of their rights to self-organization."

Long Changeover

DETROIT (AP) — Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corp. plans to close 15 assembly plants for longer-than-normal changeover periods this summer.

Company officials refused further details, but industry observers say they believe it would mean production cuts amounting to some 10,000 units.

Other cars and truck assemblies were expected to be shut down about a month. Chevrolet shutdowns are expected to last about two months.

Coughlin Ahead of Time, Cardinal Cushing States

ROTAL OAK, Mich. (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, said today the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, famed radio priest of the '30s, "was a man decades ahead of his time."

"Before clergy marched for disenfranchised and dispossessed, he marched," the prelate said in a speech prepared for delivery at Father Coughlin's golden jubilee of his ordination.

"Before priests and pastors lobbied openly for racialist social legislation, he beset the Congress with the voice of the people," Cardinal Cushing said. "I submit that our jubilarian had made his commitment to the poor of America long before 'anti-poverty' became the popular word of the social planners."

The Cardinal was unable to deliver the speech in person because of poor health. He has been hospitalized in Boston since last Saturday. His speech was read for him by the Right Rev. Francis J. Lally, editor of the Pilot, official weekly publication of the Boston archdiocese.

"In a sense, Father Coughlin was the giant of his generation since last Saturday. His speech was read for him by the Right Rev. Francis J. Lally, editor of the Pilot, official weekly publication of the Boston archdiocese.

"Cardinal Cushing said Father Coughlin "from time to time" made errors of judgment and committed excesses in oratorical expression, "but never was slammied into a tree,

Robinson Hurt In Auto Crash

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Veteran actor Edward G. Robinson, 72, was in good condition today in Mount Sinai Hospital after an auto accident.

Robinson underwent surgery Wednesday night for rupture of abdominal blood vessels, causing internal hemorrhaging. The 4½-hour operation stopped the bleeding, doctors said.

He is expected to be discharged in about two weeks, doctors said.

Robinson told police he apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his car, and it jumped a curb, careened across four lanes and slammed into a tree,

Blazing A Trail: One would think to read the New York Times editorial this morning, that that great newspaper has neither opinion nor information in the great state of California.

Thus the New York Times is barking at the wrong state when it chides the voters of California for registering, in their Democratic primary, an alarmingly large vote for Samuel W. Torrey, Mayor of Los Angeles.

Having failed completely, in these two instances, to understand the California voter, the Times then proceeds to its final dubious speculation. It concludes that since Governor Brown is "not a glamorous or exciting figure, he may be at some initial disadvantage in a campaign against Mr. Reagan, who is not much less in fact than an accomplished performer.

When the bad bug comes within range of one of these odors, he can't restrain himself from leaping joy. He even, in his own way, makes a joyous sound about it.

The Army scientists have learned to record and amplify the sound. They have a capsule in which the bed bug can be carried about the jungle, telling which patch of jungle contains human beings to be napalmed or bombed or gassed.

Understand that, just as Vietnam is being made the experimental laboratory for every other possible technique of war, it will eventually give our Army's bed bugs a workout.

If there has been some initial, temporary reticence about going into the field with the latest possible techniques for discovery, we supposed it stems from a reluctance to put back into war one of the combatant non-combatants we spent two and a half years in the berserk, upside down political gymnastics, and its deliberate voting for its bad men instead of its good guys, is blurring a trail.

Europe Has Waited 21 Years: The fact that there was almost instant surface unity among the big powers in the NATO meeting at Brussels, to the effect they did not want to accept the proposal made by Denmark, does not alter in the least the soundness of Christian Science Monitor Correspondent Joseph C. Harnisch's judgment, which is that the Danish proposal represents the real big wish of the European states meeting at Brussels.

The proposal submitted by Denmark was for a security conference between the members of NATO and the members of the Warsaw Pact. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said, no time trying to torpedo this. And France joined him, probably not for his reasons, but for its own, which perhaps envisage President de Gaulle as the great breaker down of alliances and Iron Curtain, on his forthcoming trip to Moscow.

The United States and France were joined by West Germany, which said its business of building bridges for the Rest should be left to individual countries. That was apparently enough to shoot Denmark's proposal down, dead as a formal proposal.

But from the same atmosphere in which this was happening, Correspondent Harnisch was reporting as follows: "The great West European project which brings a gleam to West European eyes is to explore the way toward a settlement with Russia. The emphasis is no longer on keeping Russia out of Europe but on finding a better and happier relationship with Russia."

"The lively question is whether the best way of tearing down the Iron Curtain is by a Charles de Gaulle or a NATO committee. Either way, the purpose is to get rid of the Iron Curtain on the theory that now is the time.

"There is irony," concludes Harnisch, "in the fact that the organization which was built to keep Russia out of Europe is now regarded by its European members as perhaps still valuable because it might be useful in getting a reconciliation with Russia."

One begins to understand, from such reports, just what it has been which has so disturbed Washington about President de Gaulle's willingness to treat NATO as if it were something less than the permanent order for the millennium of Europe. What it all boils down to is that Washington may have to revise its own assumption that it had Europe backed away into some formula which, no matter how unattractive it might be, would somehow be made permanent.

Washington may even have to begin to think about how to make, at last, the peace that belongs to World War II, which ended, remember, 21 years ago.

And, if they can ever manage to share among themselves and together some of the individual bits of wisdom they manage in their separations, Washington, Paris and Moscow had all better begin getting ready to promote and accept something all three of them have in common: the need for a new definition of Europe.

That the voters of California actually do, the devil-may-care kind of thing to take into the voting booth with them does get into the booth in California, and reaches up and pulls the lever.

Thus the New York Times is barking at the wrong state when it chides the voters of California for registering, in their Democratic primary, an alarmingly large vote for Samuel W. Torrey, Mayor of Los Angeles.

GOWN FOR A 1904 CHENEY BRIDE

Inside Report

Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak

WASHINGTON—As the last of some 2,600 delegates to the massive White House Conference on Civil Rights left here last Friday (June 3), top Administration officials heaved a sigh of relief.

The relief stemmed not from positive accomplishments of the conference but from the mere fact that two days of discussion at the Sheraton-Park Hotel passed without an explosion.

Indeed, the Administration's approach to the long-planned conference was greeted with a mixture of surprise and admiration.

But disaster was averted at the cost of blandness, and an absence of dynamism, often approaching boredom. That two days passed peacefully but unproductively is in a sense typical of both the gap between the government and Negro activists and of the deteriorating Negro protest.

Understand that, just as Vietnam is being made the experimental laboratory for every other possible technique of war, it will eventually give our Army's bed bugs a workout.

Rest should be left to individual countries. That was apparently enough to shoot Denmark's proposal down, dead as a formal proposal.

But from the same atmosphere in which this was happening, Correspondent Harnisch was reporting as follows: "The great West European project which brings a gleam to West European eyes is to explore the way toward a settlement with Russia. The emphasis is no longer on keeping Russia out of Europe but on finding a better and happier relationship with Russia."

FOR THIS JUNE WEDDING we turn back the calendar to June 1904 and the high society wedding of Sara Otis Amory and Frank Dexter Cheney, in Chicago. The bride's gown, now in the costume collection of the Wadsworth Atheneum, focused on the great fashion trend of the day toward the soft look. The fabric was white "chiffon cloth" lined with white satin; both worn at the Cheney silk.

as irrelevant if full debate were permitted. He was turned down. Moreover, conference leaders expended an inordinate energy in stopping clumsy attempts by CORE's McKelissick to inject the issue of integration into the banquet session of the conference out of the realistic fear that he would allegedly invoke opposition to Viet Nam."

But in avoiding a Viet Nam debate, Administration officials frustrated debate about almost everything. The result was presented not only by extremists such as Floyd McKelissick and CORE's McKelissick but by moderate civil rights leaders who cooperate with the Administration.

For instance, Joseph Rauh of the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) pleaded the necessity to open up the conference to full debate. Though a critic of Mr. Johnson's Viet Nam policy, Rauh promised to oppose any Viet Nam resolution.

Understand that, just as Vietnam is being made the experimental laboratory for every other possible technique of war, it will eventually give our Army's bed bugs a workout.

If there has been some initial, temporary reticence about going into the field with the latest possible techniques for discovery, we supposed it stems from a reluctance to put back into war one of the combatant non-combatants we spent two and a half years in the berserk, upside down political gymnastics, and its deliberate voting for its bad men instead of its good guys, is blurring a trail.

Europe Has Waited 21 Years: The fact that there was almost instant surface unity among the big powers in the NATO meeting at Brussels, to the effect they did not want to accept the proposal made by Denmark, does not alter in the least the soundness of Christian Science Monitor Correspondent Joseph C. Harnisch's judgment, which is that the Danish proposal represents the real big wish of the European states meeting at Brussels.

The proposal submitted by Denmark was for a security conference between the members of NATO and the members of the Warsaw Pact. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said, no time trying to torpedo this. And France joined him, probably not for his reasons, but for its own, which perhaps envisage President de Gaulle as the great breaker down of alliances and Iron Curtain, on his forthcoming trip to Moscow.

The United States and France were joined by West Germany, which said its business of building bridges for the

"The lively question is whether the best way of tearing down the Iron Curtain is by a Charles de Gaulle or a NATO committee. Either way, the purpose is to get rid of the Iron Curtain on the theory that now is the time.

Republican State Chairman Beardsley Finney was responsible for setting his party out on a course of trying to get a presidential nomination on a party nominee. For what happened subsequently, no one must be held responsible.

It was not in the end, matter of the drive put on by E. Clayton Gengras and his quickly found friends and supporters.

Nevertheless, when the moment for decision came, it was a matter of Finney's standing on Gengras the honor of trying to pin defeat on the Democratic ticket.

With such a backdrop, the modest accomplishments of the conference are satisfying to Administration officials. The department is spending to aid the Negro, and the Negro has received the blessing of the conference and general approval across the country.

After we show you the Accutron® timepiece, you may never buy a watch from us again. We've got Bulova's electronic timepieces. And it can be guaranteed accurate within a minute a month! No watch that we know about can come near this. We don't call Accutron® a watch because it doesn't have any of the mechanical parts that make a watch slow or fast. Instead it has a little battery which sends power through transistors and a circuit to operate a tiny tuning fork. This tuning fork splits each second into 360 equal parts, and is why an Accutron timepiece keeps virtually perfect time. (The balance wheel in your watch splits a second into only 5 parts.) Of course, the Government is usually ahead of us in these matters. It already is using Accutron movements in satellites and in manned space craft, and handing out Accutron timepieces to astronauts, to wear on their wrists. You can see a large number of Accutron models when you come in. There's the Astronaut (the one the Government bought for the astronauts). Four Towns Study Bus Plan Contract. A proposed contract on the school busing plan has been received by Hartford and four suburban towns. The four towns include Manchester, South Windsor, Farmington and West Hartford, all of which have agreed in principle to participate in the plan. Under the busing plan, a two-year experiment, disadvantaged Hartford pupils, mainly Negroes, would be bused to classes in the suburbs. The proposed contract, called "A Basis for Contractual Relationships" with Hartford, will be set up for approval by boards of education in Hartford and the four towns. Manchester Supt. of Schools William H. Curtis has confirmed that the document is slated to be discussed here at Monday's special meeting of the local board of education. The contract proposal was hammered out in three meetings of the Hartford Board of Education representatives over the past few weeks since the busing plan was given tentative approval. West Hartford is reported to have discussed the proposal last night. South Windsor will continue at Tuesday. According to Curtis, all school boards involved in the busing plan have agreed to the provisions in the contract and then hold another joint meeting to see if further revisions are needed as possible. The busing program is slated to start in September for some 253 Hartford elementary pupils, but its actual beginning will depend on whether all communities involved are satisfied that conditions they have laid down for participation have been met. The specific points of agreement reached to date are as follows: 1. Participating boards of education are in no way committed to the plan or any contractual arrangements beyond the 1967-68 school year. 2. Participation in the study by cooperating boards of education in no way indicates an official belief in a regional or metropolitan education system. 3. The right to withdraw from the study is a privilege maintained by each participating board of education. Intention of withdrawal must be presented to the Connecticut State Department of Education thirty days prior to the actual date of withdrawal. 4. Each participating board of education reserves the right to withdraw from the program any student who, in the judgment of the superintendent of schools, poses a severe problem which cannot be solved in any other way. 5. The City of Hartford reserves the right to retain in its schools pupils who are not educationally suited for this particular project. 6. If white pupils are identified in the random procedures used in the selection process, these pupils will participate in the study. 7. In no instance will the addition of Hartford pupils cause a board of education of any participating community to exceed the number stated in its policy on class size. 8. A parent or guardian of "transported" children from the City of Hartford must give written consent for the 1966-67 school year as "vacant space" was the basis for determining the number of project students and State grants for buildings are being paid to the "receiving" suburban town. The formula for this concept would be as follows: Amount budgeted by a town for its elementary school children for the 1966-67 school year, less special costs for handicapped classes, less transportation, less payments on building bond issues (principal and interest), divided by the number of elementary school children for the 1966-67 school year, plus a 5 per cent contingency, equals the per pupil or tuition charge for project children in any one town. In instances where a one-half day session is being provided, a one-half per pupil or tuition charge will be made. This definition is further clarified by the following factors: a. A contingency figure of 5 per cent will be added to average estimated costs to insure that true actual per-pupil or tuition costs are achieved. b. Special costs for "special classes" where reimbursement is enlarged by the State "Handicapped Children's Statute," will not be included in the amount budgeted by a local town for the 1966-67 school year. c. Furthermore, in instances where kindergartens are operated on a one-half day basis, the cost-per-pupil grant or tuition cost will be one-half of that provided for an elementary school child. d. Bonding costs (principal and interest) will not be included in the amount budgeted by the local town for the 1966-67 school year as "vacant space" was the basis for determining the number of project students and State grants for buildings are being paid to the "receiving" suburban town. The formula for this concept would be as follows: Amount budgeted by a town for its elementary school children for the 1966-67 school year, less special costs for handicapped classes, less transportation, less payments on building bond issues (principal and interest), divided by the number of elementary school children for the 1966-67 school year, plus a 5 per cent contingency, equals the per pupil or tuition charge for project children in any one town. In instances where a one-half day session is being provided, a one-half per pupil or tuition charge will be made.

Mayor Opens Caldor, Shoppers Take Over. By ANTHONY CHEMASHI. With a snip of the scissors, Mayor Francis J. Mahoney today opened Caldor, the town's newest discount department store. Several hundred shoppers turned out for the opening ceremonies at 9:30 a.m. An hour later, arriving shoppers were circling the 600-car parking lot in their cars looking for space. The 90,000 square feet store is located at the new Burr's Corner Shopping Center on Toland Tpk. and Exit 93 of the Wilbur Cross Pkwy. The ribbon-cutting ceremony was held immediately inside the store's main entrance. A platform of dark-suited store officials stood about some getting ready for photographers, others getting out of the photographers' range. Taking part in the cutting of a blue ribbon were Mayor Mahoney, Raymond Cross, the store manager, Carl Berner, Caldor president; Charles Schrier and Robert Burnham, co-developers, and W. Clifford Mason, town fire chief. During the ceremony the store doors remained closed, and shoppers pressed to the glass outside waiting for the go sign. With the ribbon cut and a cheer, the doors were opened and shoppers streamed through with no-nonsense expressions now town dignitaries and past Caldor officials and scattered among the store's 67 departments. Before a photographer had jumped off a row of shopping carts, shoppers were pulling them out from under him, and roaming the store. Pretty blue-smoked selections suddenly came to life and store officials smiled and smiled. Business appeared brisk in the store's outdoor furniture department, and steerable members quickly appeared in the men's and women's departments. A traffic jam rapidly developed around the courtyard where girls were being distributed to first-day shoppers. Shoppers continued pouring in all morning and store officials were confident it would continue all day. Several Manchester policemen were assigned to handle traffic in the shopping center parking lot. Store openings always have a gay atmosphere and Caldor's was no exception. Officials more than all other causes computed inside the store; shop-

Minor Damages As Cars Crash. Two cars collided with minor damage at the Center last night. Police mid Dennis D. Shea, 24, of 424 W. Middle Turnpike, and Joseph C. NEW YORK — In 1960, cardiovascular diseases accounted for 20 per cent of all deaths in the United States; today they are a gay atmosphere and Caldor's responsible for 54.5 per cent — was no exception. Top Scholars Named At East Catholic

During the second Awards Night ceremonies of East Catholic High School last night in the auditorium, 83 seniors in the Class of 1966 were named recipients of scholarships totaling more than $90,000. In addition, the ten top scholars in the class were announced and presented by the Rev. Charles E. Shaw, principal.

12th Circuit Court Cases

The school's practice of naming the top senior scholars rather than a valedictorian and salutatorian was upheld by the 12th Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of East Catholic High School. The court ruled that the school's practice was not discriminatory.

MANCHESTER HERSON Charles Hicking III, 27, of 161 Center St. was fined $10 on a substitute charge of trespassing. He was originally charged with injury to public property.

A second count of trespassing against him was noted. The charge came as a result of his being involved with several other youths in the setting up of a club house in a vacant railroad freight house on Elm St. East.

The cases of the other youths involved were transferred to Juvenile Court, but Hicking was not acceptable since he had also the charge of injury to public property against him.

James Daley, 46, 20 certain Ave., Hartford, was fined $25 on a charge of driving a motor vehicle without a license and without a license to operate a motor vehicle.

Daley, who last week received a suspended sentence for driving a motor vehicle without a license, was arrested early this morning and charged with the same offense after he tried to lift the arrestee's officer.

The worst forest fire of the year was a September blaze in the town of Westford, which cost $3.4 million. Forest fires as a whole, however, caused much less damage in 1965 than in the year before.

On Nov. 1, Westford High School suffered a $2.5 million fire loss; two weeks previously, on Oct. 17, Beth El Temple in Springfield burned with damage of $62,000.

NEW HAMPTON POST NEW COMPUTER SYSTEM The expanding computer program at Yale University has brought creation of a new post, director of university computation, and Karen L. Kane, property named to the position.

Reemier joined the Yale staff in 1964 to develop use of computers in the university's central administration.

Cartwright issued after the closed meeting said four matters were reviewed:

"1. The progress made under the demonstration grant for the West End computer service into New York City and the long-haul interim plan.

"2. The financial status of the railroad today and the outlook for the rest of 1966 and the prospects for 1967.

"3. The probable timetable for take-over by the Penn Central.

"4. The pattern of future negotiations to cure the dual situation—first, the long-range permanent solution pursuant to the directives of the governors, and secondly, the interim period prior to take-over by the Penn Central."

The statement said those who participated in the conference adjourned subject to call.

The meeting appeared to strengthen private and union support for the takeover of the railroad by the Penn Central.

Atty. King asked Zanghi if any previous selection had keys to the "E" room and Zanghi replied that he had offered keys to former selection when he had first taken office about 12 years ago, but "neither one had wanted one." He has not offered any since then, he said. (The former selection was Democrat Simon Lahrman and present Selectionman Frank Kolas.)

Atty. King asked Zanghi if the selection had ever passed a resolution granting the first selection sole custody of the town records, to which Zanghi replied they had on May 17, by a majority vote of the board.

Judge Lohaus interjected that he could "bet who voted for it." A copy of the resolution was introduced as Exhibit 1.

Zanghi and Kolas approved the motion at the meeting and Danforth opposed it.

When asked to explain how he viewed the responsibilities of his office as first selection in relation to the other selection, Zanghi explained he felt the board should view the selection for the good of the town, and should discuss the town business in executive session, "in front of the news media."

He said the board of selection have never had a complete meeting since the new board took office Oct. 4, because Danforth will not agree to an executive session. Other reasons he cited for the uncompleted meetings were that the board always get "involved" and the door to the room remains locked. Zanghi said the town treasurer's records which he has in his office, and two for town records in the treasurer's office, are locked and contain information on welfare cases and other valuable records. The remaining town file is unlocked and contains such items as town correspondence and permits. It is not locked.

Atty. Lavitt referred to correspondence and a petition regarding the town records which he had in his office, and said that he had no objection to the installation of crosswalks under the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and that the department was going to install the crosswalks a couple of months after the petition had been sent to the board of selection. He said he does not feel he is entitled to examine papers on the table unless they are presented to him.

Property Loss In Major Fires At $12 Million

BOSTON (AP)—Major fires in 1965 caused $12 million in property damage in the United States, the National Fire Protection Association said today. The total was up about 4 percent from 1964, the association said, and represented damage from only 402 of the nation's 2.4 million fires. Each of the 402 major blazes caused property damage of a quarter million dollars or more.

Losses from fires of all types in 1965 totaled $1.76 billion. The year's most expensive fire occurred at a missile trucking station at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., and amounted to $4.4 million. A fire at a Zayre store in a shopping center at Columbia Heights, Minn., Oct. 9 cost $2.4 million.

Almost a third of the major fires of 1965 hit industrial plants. The $183 million industrial loss by fire for the year was up 16 percent from 1964. Large losses were decreased slightly, although one blaze at a Zayre Shopping Center at Columbia Heights, Minn., Oct. 9 cost $2.4 million.

On Nov. 1, Westford High School suffered a $2.5 million fire loss; two weeks previously, on Oct. 17, Beth El Temple in Springfield burned with damage of $62,000.

Zanghi Defends Records Policy; Court Decision Seen Next Week

Whether the board of selection must change its ways to allow Selectionman Stuart Danforth to have access to town records will be decided by Tolland County Superior Court next week.

Danforth, the lone Democrat on the board, has brought a writ of mandamus against First Selectionman Carmelo Zanghi, a Republican, to win access to the records.

The two met with their attorney in Tolland County Superior Court Tuesday to air the case before Judge Alva Lohaus.

The report of the two-year-old clearing house showed the year's worst fire in both churches and schools occurred in Manchester.

On Nov. 1, Westford High School suffered a $2.5 million fire loss; two weeks previously, on Oct. 17, Beth El Temple in Springfield burned with damage of $62,000.

Surprise Marriage Between AFL-NFL Ends Bitter Six-Year Battle

Pro Merger Plan to Produce 26-Team League

NEW YORK (AP) — The National and American football leagues have linked hands in a merger plan that will produce a 26-team league and end an era that turned college gladiator boys into instant millionaires.

The marriage between the 15-team NFL and the nine-team AFL took place at a hastily called ceremony Wednesday that ended their bitter six-year battle and, at the same time, set this year's college crop standing at the altar.

"It looks like I graduated just in time," said Joe Namath, New York Jets' $400,000 quarterback and the original instant millionaire.

"I think large contracts will be harder to come by for everybody without the competition between the leagues."

"I guess you'd have to say I just got in under the wire," said Mike Garrett, the Houston Oilers' star running back, who signed for a reported $100,000 with the Kansas City Chiefs. "It's sure lucky."

"I tell you one thing," added Namath. "I'm really looking forward to the merger. The NFL and AFL will hold their separate title games before meeting in the world championship game."

"That was one of the key items in the plan announced Wednesday that eventually will expand the new league to 26 teams in 25 cities by 1970, under the supervision of Pete Rozelle, now the NFL commissioner.

The major points, besides the championship game, on which the two leagues reached agreement were:

- All existing franchises will be retained and no franchises will be transferred from their present locations.
- Until 1970 when all existing contracts expire and all existing schedules in drawn up, the two leagues will continue to operate separately.
- While the leagues still are operating individually, they will not be permitted to engage in inter-league trading of players.
- Two new franchises for a total of 26 will be added no later than 1968, one in each league, and two more teams will be added as soon as practical after the 44-year-old NFL.
- And both leagues cut off the multi-million dollar war for playing talent, ended the escalating raising battle and insured themselves of additional revenue through the championship game meeting.

While solving most problems the plan did, however, leave two big questions unanswered — Who would be the most franchising would be the new franchise holders.

There were no concrete answers but it appeared that the leading franchise contenders were New Orleans, Seattle, and Cleveland.

Davis was not available for comment but it was considered doubtful that he would take a position in the new alignment.

Friends predicted that he would not formally meet until 1970, his is the top man starting immediately.

Also up in the air was the question of whether the merger would be voided under the terms of the agreement which stipulates that there can be no inter-league trades before 1970.

Rozelle also made a distinction between the case of the soccer-style NFL and the AFL and quarterback Roman Gabriel.

Gogol played out his option with the AFL's Buffalo Bills and signed with the NFL's New York Giants. Gabriel, a member of the Los Angeles Rams, is reported to have signed a contract with the AFL's Oakland Raiders to begin play in 1967.

Rozelle said, "The Gogol contract has been duly approved. It will not be affected by the merger." As for the Gabriel case, Rozelle said, "Since this would involve a case that would have to be studied, I am commissioner of both leagues — as of right now," he would be voided under the terms of the agreement which stipulates that there can be no inter-league trades before 1970.

Asked why the AFL had to pay the NFL, Rozelle said, "A portion of its must go to the New York Giants and San Francisco stars for encroachment on their territorial agreements. We did the same for Washington when we moved a franchise into Baltimore."

Rozelle was making reference to the fact that the Giants and AFL's New York Jets and the Oilers and AFL's Oakland Raiders share the same market.

In addition, Rozelle said, "Our owners felt that in organizing and joining with AFL teams, we were adding value to the league."

Rozelle also left no doubt that any player contract signed with a rival league for 1967 might bring antitrust action from the Justice Department which said in Washington that it would take a "close look" at the plan. Rozelle said he did not think there would be any problem.

"We have talked with Senator Hart, D-N.Y., and Rep. Celler, D-N.Y., who are chairman of the Judiciary committees in their respective houses," Rozelle pointed out.

"I feel this realignment serves the public interest and makes it more of a business," Rozelle also established firmly that although the two leagues will not formally meet until 1970, he is the top man starting immediately.

Aaron's Appetite Improves

And So Does Batting Average

NEW YORK (AP) — Hank Aaron's appetite is improved — and so is his home run hitting.

The Milwaukee Braves star, who says a minor internal operation in the off-season enabled him to gain weight, continued to hit by hitting a pair, one with the bases loaded, as the Braves beat the New York Mets 7-6.

Aaron, who now has a major league leading 20 homers and 48 runs batted in, made his sixth home run in the eighth inning of last season and five above his normal playing weight.

With the added weight, the perennial all-star is admittedly off to the fastest start of his career. His highest homer (44) and RBI (182) totals were in 1957, the year he was named Most Valuable Player.

Detroit Tigers Making Noise

With Big Gun Al Kaline Hitting

NEW YORK (AP) — The pennant-hungry Detroit Tigers are making more noise in the American League race for the pennant with big gun Al Kaline, taking a firm hold on the plate.

Kaline, who was in a Baltimore grade school in 1946 when Hank Greenberg, then Detroit's best player, was in the same school, was named the American League's most valuable player in 1954.

Kaline, who underwent surgery for a foot malfunction last year, is now back and is hitting .290 in 14 games.

The other AL games were Detroit (4-2) at New York Yankees 2-1, Baltimore (4-2) at New York Yankees 2-1, Chicago (4-2) at New York Yankees 2-1, Minnesota (4-2) at New York Yankees 2-1, Houston (4-2) at New York Yankees 2-1.

Colby Defeated

By Northeastern

BOSTON (AP) — Two upset entries from the Greater Boston Interscholastic League squared today at the site of the NCAA District I baseball play-off.

Northeastern met Boston College at Fenway Park for a berth in the college world series which opens at Fenway Park next Tuesday.

Northeastern was a surprise 4-4 victor over pre-tourney favorite Colby Wednesday in the rain-delayed first round game.

Northeastern carried a record of 17-1 into the finale against Colby. Colby finished with a 21-11 mark.

"The teams then have the right to switch dates around (the switch must be approved by the league office). That's why you'll sometimes see a team in a certain city for just one game. But we never schedule one-game series. There are always two or three games in the early season night game, for instance, and switch it to a certain city for just one game (Memorial Day or Labor Day). By doing this, they feel they can get more out of the date."

"Another thing we never do is manipulate the schedule to help the clubs as much as possible. We're just trying to provide excellent facilities for white perch (on sandworms) and white catfish (on minnows)."

White perch are also hitting well in the lower Hammonasset River.

Shad making continues to run below the levels of the past two years. Low water levels may make the river a little less attractive to the white perch.

No-Hitter Eliminates Eagles, 4-0

Jim Fecto Of Gilbert Does Trick

Sideline until another season in East Catholic High's baseball team following Jim Fecto's perfect pitching performance yesterday afternoon at Bristol's Mundy Field. The strong-armed Gilbert High of Westchester eliminated the Eagles from the Class B tournament.

Fecto struck out nine batters as he paced his third-rated club into the semifinals. He pitched a no-hitter in the first three innings, working his way out of three and two count situations with his best pitch. He faced only 21 batters, East failing to get a single base runner.

Fourteen Gilbert players pitched in the game. Fecto, a senior, was the star. He was charged with the loss although he did not surrender a run. The game was over in the first inning. Secret to NL Scheduling, All in Fleig's 'Formula'

CINCINNATI (NEA) — The National League very innocently lists Fred Fleig as secretary.

Fleig wishes his job were that simple. Fleig is the Supervisor of the National League schedule.

He has been doing this for the last 13 years. His next job will be to run the league because no one is more adept at handling complaints than Fred Fleig.

After the Memorial Day weekend, most of the complaints on Fleig's desk were aimed at the schedule.

Three teams — the Phillies, American League's Washington country trips after playing Sunday afternoon games on the West Coast.

The Mets and Phillies, after early-morning arrivals in New York, struggled through a doubleheader with the Yankees (1:05 p.m.) at Shea Stadium while the Dodgers had a 7 p.m. game at Atlanta.

"There's always some grumbling," Fleig said. "But I've spoken on the phone and tried to tell them our side. Most of them understand."

"You have to take so many things into account," Fleig said, "like holidays, Sundays, the best draws in the league. This year, they opened at home with the swing team, Chicago. It's the best draw in the league. We'll get them with another geographical section during the opening week next year. We try to spread these things out evenly each year."

"We work a year ahead on the schedule. By the middle of September we're ready to submit the first draft for the new season to the league."

"The teams then have the right to switch dates around (the switch must be approved by the league office). That's why you'll sometimes see a team in a certain city for just one game. Gosger's Homers in Vain

14th One-Run Defeat

DETROIT (AP) — The old baseball adage about the team winning the one-run game winning the pennant is holding very true for the Boston Red Sox — but in reverse.

The Red Sox remain mired in the American League cellar after dropping their 14th one-run game Wednesday night.

Boston played with the Tigers in the power department, outting the Tigers three home runs to two, but the lucky runs that have plagued the Red Sox all season again went to the opposition.

Red Sox nemesis Dave Winfield, who has a 9.3 lifetime mark against Boston, was the hero in the eighth when he hit a home run off Boston ace Jim Lonergan.

Lonergan pitched well in the eighth when he hit a home run off Boston ace Jim Lonergan.

McDowell Stops Yankee Rally

Shoestring Catch Saves Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — A shoestring catch by Jim Landis in right field stifled a ninth inning rally by the New York Yankees and sent the New Yorkers down to a 2-1 defeat by the first place Cleveland Indians Wednesday night.

The defeat left the Yankees in a tie with Minnesota for sixth place with 22 victories against 26 defeats, 8 1/2 games back of the Indians.

Mickey Mantle started the Yankees ninth with a single to left. The rally was headed by a double by Mantle to score the tying run. But Landis, who had entered the game at the start of the inning as a defensive measure, came up with his sensational catch and almost doubled the Yankees.

McDowell then got Joe Peplone on a fly to short center and induced Elton Howard to loft a 2-2 fly to Landis for the final out to preserve the victory.

Cleveland scored in the second on a double by Max Alvis and a run by Max Alvis. The Indians got the tying run on a double by Max Alvis and a run by Max Alvis.

The Yankees scored in the eighth on Kalina's second home run. Jim Northrup opened the 11th with a single and ranced to third when Joe Moyer pitched Don McMahon's throw to Willie Horton's punt. Bill Wertz then got the tying run.
