That was Atty. John L. Gerardo's quip Saturday at Bushnell Memorial as GOP gubernatorial candidate E. Clayton Gengras showed off his wife and 10 children (one hidden at right) when he came on stage to accept the nomination. Gerardo, the candidate for lieutenant governor and father of four sons, also alluded to Thomas Mayers, the party's nomination for comptroller, who's the dad of nine. (Herald photo by Ofiara)

Office Papers Barred As Dodd Case Evidence

Senate Probe Open Behind Closed Doors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate ethics committee hearing misconduct charges against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., barred as evidence today copies of over 4,000 documents removed from his office. The six-member, bipartisan committee began its closed hearings without announcing who the first witnesses would be. Newsmen and television cameras jammed the corridor outside the hearing room.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., the committee chairman, said in an opening statement many allegations that have appeared in the press about the case were based on over 4,000 papers removed from Dodd's office files without authorization.

"Although the committee has not completely gone into the facts surrounding the source of these papers," Stennis said, "the committee feels that the copies of such papers are sufficiently stigmatized so as to preclude their use as evidence here."

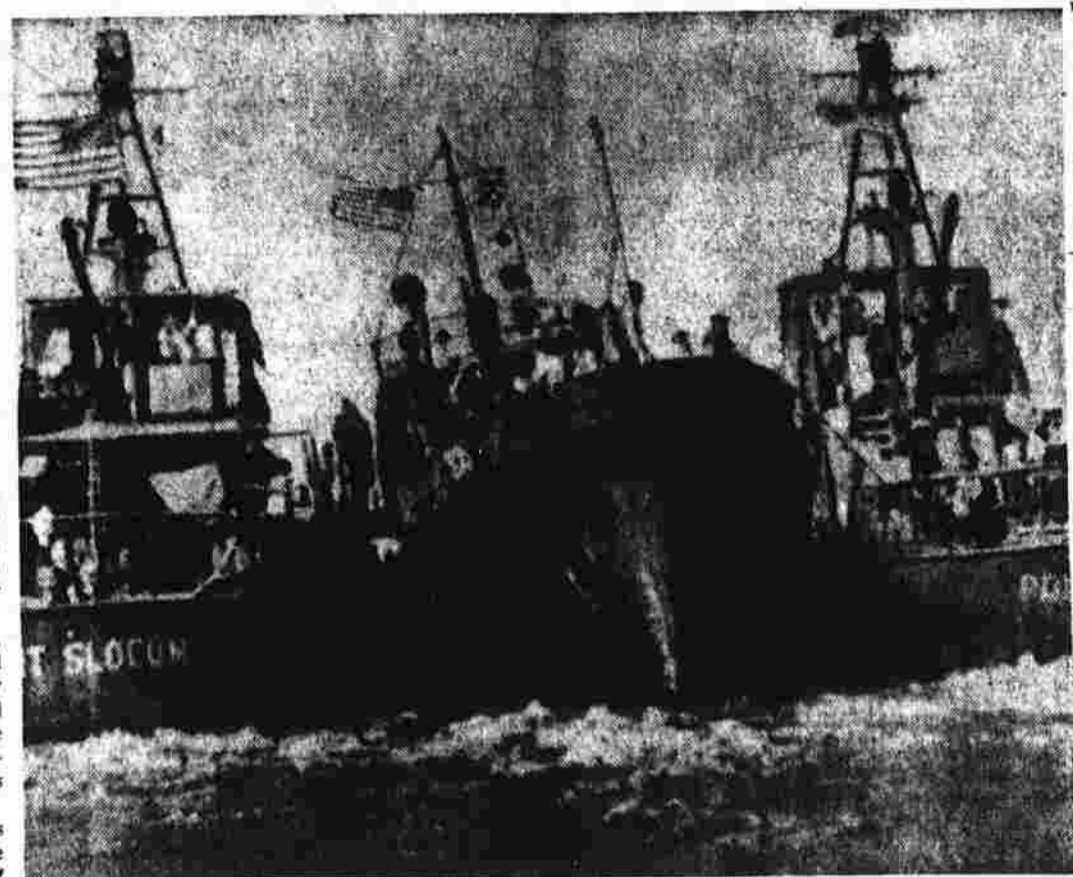

"The committee wishes to make it clear all papers offered to the current hearings were voluntarily given to the committee by Sen. Dodd," Stennis added in the opening statement released to newsmen.

Dodd, who has charged that thousands of documents were stolen from his files and supplied to columnist Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson, went into the hearing room before some of the committee members arrived.

He reminded reporters that he had asked for the hearings and said "I'm glad they are under way."

Also present at the hearing was James P. Boyd Jr., former administrative assistant to Dodd. Lawyers for Pearson and Anderson have said that Boyd acted under a compelling legal obligation in removing documents from Dodd's office and turning them over to the columnists.

Stennis said the committee's initial hearings will deal with Dodd's relationship with Julius Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm and a registered agent for West German business interests. Stennis said he hoped

Verriker Asks State Check on Phone Monitors

WATERBURY (AP)—State Sen. William J. Verriker, D-Waterbury, asked the State Public Utilities Commission today to determine whether telephone calls are being monitored in Connecticut by any telephone company.

Such an "invasion of privacy is commercially immoral," Verriker said in a letter to PUC Chairman Eugene S. Loughlin. Verriker said he was making the inquiry because of news re-

Government Noose Tightens on Hue

SALGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's troops tightened their hold on Hue today and sealed off the hospital room where the leader of the northern Buddhist revolt continued his antigovernment, anti-American stay for a 16th day.

While the rebellion led by militant monk Thich Tri Quang appeared to lose more ground, Ky's military regime pushed ahead toward promised civilian elections Sept. 11 on a wave of confidence voiced by Ky as he began his second year in office.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu signed a decree setting the election date and providing

Dissension Absent

State GOP Has Unified 'New Look'

HARTFORD (AP)—The "new look" in Connecticut Republicanism, along with a liberal, urban-oriented legislative program, includes an element which was impressively evident at the state convention—unity.

Time was when the GOP convention was the liveliest show in town. But contention, dissension and competition were conspicuously absent this year.

They weren't in State Chairman A. Searle Pinney's script, and the convention followed the script. The most liberal platform the GOP has ever drafted was adopted without a murmur of disagreement.

A plank explicitly repudiating the John Birch Society was amended — to make it more inclusive. Clayton Gengras, a newcomer to politics who made sizeable contributions to the Democratic Party as recently as last winter, was endorsed by acclamation as the gubernatorial candidate.

Former State Chairman Edwin H. May Jr. of Waterbury, an old rival of Pinney for control of the party organization, made a pitch for unity.

State Sen. Peter P. Mariani of Groton, who was crushed when Gengras got Pinney's endorsement two months ago, also put in an appearance.

There were no audible grumblings from the conservative wing of the GOP, whose political philosophy has been pretty thoroughly rejected by Pinney.

In short, the convention could not have gone more smoothly if it had been run by John M. Bailey — the state and national Democratic chairman.

Pinney, who has resolutely steered the GOP to the left since the LBJ landslide of 1964, was re-elected at a State Central Committee meeting following the convention.

The hefty, cigar-smoking Danbury lawyer proved he could achieve an impressive show of party unity. Whether he can lead the GOP to victory over the Democrats — whether this

Visiting Central Asia

Too Many Photo Subjects

Editor's Note: Mrs. Rhea Tally Stewart of 179 Boulder Rd., recently returned from a tour of Iran and Afghanistan. The following is the first of six articles she has written for The Herald about her experiences there. Others will be published on succeeding days.

STORY AND PHOTOS BY RHEA STEWART

Before I decided to visit Afghanistan, I couldn't have told you where it was. But here I was in Central Asia, just east of Iran in the country through which camel caravans used to bring silks from Cathay to the West. Our party of six came from Tehran, the capital of what was once called Persia, to Kabul, the capital of Afghanistan, via Ariana Airlines, the national airline of Afghanistan.

From the first minute of our drive in an American station wagon from the airport to the Kabul Hotel, I knew what would be my chief problem in Afghanistan: How to refrain from photographing every single Afghan. Each man strolling along the road or working in the fields was a picture; puffy turban with the end hanging down the back, striped coat thrown over a costume of gathered pants and long shirt. Here and there came the walking lampshades that were women covered in "chaderis." And the faces and figures were striking; Afghans are tall strong people with hand-features meant for a sculptor, and except for the occasional Mongolian countenances that showed Genghis Khan passed

Gerardo's Remarks Delight Delegates

By SOL R. COHEN

It remained for JOHN GERARDO, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, to break the boredom and apathy of Saturday's GOP Convention session, and bring delight and easy laughter to the delegates.

Gerardo brought the house down with his opening remarks. "It just happened to be in the building."

"This meeting," he said, "has become less and less a convention, and more and more a contest for father of the year." The six GOP candidates, between them, have 29 children. Gengras has ten; Myers nine; Gerardo four; Patterson three; Graham two; and Mrs. Shulman one.

Gerardo, in accepting his nomination, said, "For the first time in years, we're a party not divided—it's almost like we are the Young Republicans."

E. Clayton Gengras, the nominee for governor, when he stepped to the microphones, acknowledged the applause with, "How sweet it is."

Reading from a prepared text, projected on a tele-promp-

One by one, he called on Republicans, Democrats and Independents to "Join the battle, to switch, and to help us carry the message."

Reading from his speech, which he had rehearsed at 7 that morning in an empty Bushnell, Gerardo said "The campaign needs new faces, new ideas, new excitement, new energy and new spirit."

When he called on Democrats to switch, one voice in the auditorium shouted "yes."

There were two demonstrations—one of 17 minutes for Gengras, and obviously staged — another of five minutes for

Confessions Rule Not Retroactive

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Supreme Court today barred retroactive application of its new rules limiting trial use of confessions.

With the decision, written by Chief Justice Earl Warren, the court affirmed the first-degree Jersey man awaiting execution in the 1966 slaying of a Camden merchant.

Justices Hugo L. Black and William O. Douglas dissenting, saying the New Jersey men, Sylvester Johnson and Stanley Cassidy, were entitled to the constitutional protection spelled out by the court last Monday and in another landmark ruling in 1964. Warren wrote that the strict limit on use of confessions, set down by the court in its 5-4 decision last Monday, "applies only to cases in which the trial began" after that date. Further, he said the 1964 Escobedo ruling, in which the Supreme Court extended the right to counsel for the first time to suspects undergoing police questioning, "affects only those cases in which

Sampling OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that police taking a blood sample from an objecting motorist who is suspected of being intoxicated does not violate the federal Constitution.

Justice William J. Brennan delivered the 5-4 ruling. Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices Hugo L. Black, William O. Douglas and Abe Fortas dissented. Brennan in upholding the tests said they are reasonable, and commented that blood samples for testing are "a highly effective means of determining the degree to which a person is under the influence of alcohol." He concluded his 15-page opinion with this statement: "That we today hold that the Constitution does not forbid the states minor intrusions into an individual's body under string-

Ed Wynn Dies

Comedian-Actor Victim of Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"During his last three months, he wouldn't let his three young granddaughters come to see him. His appearance had changed, and he couldn't talk. He wanted them to remember him as the roly-poly funny man."

This was a son's remembrance of Ed Wynn, the great comedian-actor who died in his sleep Sunday at 79, a victim of cancer.

The son, actor Keenan Wynn, said his father had been in failing health for a year, although he remained active until a few months ago. Earlier this year, he appeared on Red Skelton's television show, made a candy commercial and played a role in Walt Disney's "The Gnomobile."

"In March dad went to Washington for the American Park-son's Disease Association, his favorite charity," Keenan said. "He did 11 shows in two days. When he came home from that trip, he began to show the results of the cancer."

The elder Wynn had been operated on for a tumor in his neck, and the tumor was found to be malignant. He spent the last three months in his Wilshire Boulevard apartment. He was visited there Saturday night by Keenan and his wife and Keenan's sons, Tracy and Ned.

"Dad had the Dodger game going on the radio," said Keenan, "and he was excited because his boy, Sandy Koufax, brought in another victory. He couldn't talk, but he held up his fingers indicating the score, 3 to 1."

He died at 7:45 the next morning.

MAINE VOTE LIGHT

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Voting in Maine's highly contested primary election was reported moderate to heavy today in the state's largest city. First reports indicated that all of Portland's precincts expected a heavy turnout. Republicans are deciding whether to stake their party's November hopes again on Gov. John H. Reed or switch to his opponent, State Rep. James S. Erwin, who says "seven years is enough" for one man.

Hebron Recreation Land Offered; Street Changes Protested

The Hebron Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a public hearing June 28 at 8 p.m. in the town office building, to consider the following requests: The re-subdivision of Elizabeth Heights (Forest Park) subdivision, including the abandonment of Birch Dr., Maple Dr., and approximately 1,500 feet of Elizabeth Dr. including also the dropping of a number of lots from the subdivision plan which London Park, the owner of the development, has indicated would be offered to the town as a gift for a future community recreation area.

Another request, by Karl H. Lamb of West St., seeks approval of lots 7, 8, and 9 on a map previously approved by the commission, and for permanent permission for Thomas Sullivan of Hebron to divide property on Wall Street into three lots.

Protest Change

The commission has also received a protest from the residents of Laura Dr. in London Park in regard to the possible change of the street name by the commission. Mrs. Marilyn F. Lasow, circulator of the petition, said she has 24 signatures which she has presented to the commission. She said she has 100 per cent of the residents of the street named.

The commission has been considering changing the name of either Laura Dr. or Laurel Rd. at Amston Lake because of confusion in the similarity in names. This is a problem which the first department has to deal with. The two streets are situated at opposite ends of the town.

Such an error in posting the location of the first department may result in a very serious problem.

The commission is also considering the renaming those particular streets. It is particularly with regard to the re-naming of Rt. 85; Old Road Rd., Old Gilead Rd., Mar-

Airman John F. Ahlberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Ahlberg of 39 Spruce St. has been assigned to McConnell AFB, Kan., after completing basic training at the University of Arizona and in Mexico.

Huntington, a 1963 Manchester High School graduate, will leave for Venezuela tomorrow with other volunteers where Huntington attended Wesleyan College in Buckhamton, N.Y., for two years and this year studied at the University of Hartford.

At Wesleyan, he was a member of the Young Republicans and played varsity soccer. He was majoring in political science and English.

He plans to return to college after completing his two-year Peace Corps hitch.

During his training, he studied Spanish, Latin American history and culture, United States history and world affairs. He also had three weeks of field training in Mexico working with youth organizations.

SINGER SELECTED WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — A tenor from Hartford, Conn., is one of six young opera singers selected as semi-finalists in the 1966 Worcester Music Festival's annual competition.

Sidney P. Johnson, 22, of 200 Bloomfield Ave., Hartford, was named a semi-finalist Saturday. The finals will be held Sept. 29, at Clark University in Worcester, with the winner getting $1,500 in cash and a chance to sing with the Detroit Symphony.

The social committee of Junior Century Club will meet tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Calhoun, 123 White St.

Some will work with various Venezuelan youth organizations such as the YMCA, Boys Town and Boy Scouts. They will be assigned primarily to urban slum areas, but four will start pilot projects in rural towns.

Others will start a new type of Peace Corps program by working in four regional rehabilitation centers and in the Orthopedic Hospital in Caracas where they will care for patients and train Venezuelans in physical and occupational therapy.

Hostesses for the event were Miss Marilyn Werner, daughter of the honored guests; Miss Anne M. E. Johnson and Miss Edith Johnson, Mrs. Werner's sisters; and another of her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Herman V. Johnson, who made and decorated a three-tiered wedding cake.

Both Manchester natives, the couple was married June 21, 1941, at Emanuel Lutheran Church. The Rev. T. A. Gustafson performed the ceremony.

Most of the original wedding party attended the anniversary celebration.

Mrs. Werner was the former Ruth Johnson. Besides Miss Marilyn Werner, the couple has another daughter, Miss Marcia.

The guests of honor received many gifts of silver and money.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT VITAMINS—They are not a food and have no caloric values. But they are absolutely essential to healthy living. They are the "spark," which causes the body to properly perform some of its functions.

CAN YOU GET ENOUGH IN YOUR FOOD?
Yes, you can—if—and it's a big if, because you must eat an ample variety of different foods, which include sufficient fruits and vegetables. This is not easy, for cooking destroys some of the vitamins and the older fruits and vegetables become, more of their vitamin content is lost.

MODERN LIVING LOWERS VITAMIN INTAKE
A recent medical survey disclosed that large numbers of teen-agers had poor health because of vitamin loss from eating improper food. Too many were getting hurried snacks instead of complete meals. Many adults do the same.

A MULTIVITAMIN PREVENTS A DEFICIENCY—You can insure against a lack of any of the necessary vitamins by taking a reliable, high quality vitamin capsule or preparation daily.

CAN VITAMINS CURE DISEASE?
Physicians frequently prescribe large doses of a particular vitamin to help certain ailments. But no one should take such treatments without a physician's advice. For example, large amounts of Vitamin D can cause harm.

WE CAN ANSWER VITAMIN QUESTIONS
Pharmacists are taught their uses, proper dosage and how to protect their potency. We have dependable vitamins which can prevent any harmful vitamin deficiency.
