U.S. Airman Held In New Spy Plot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A German-born U.S. airman has been arrested and a Soviet diplomat ordered to leave the country in the fourth major American spy case reported since July by the FBI.

Staff Sgt. Herbert William Boeckenhaupt, 23, was seized Monday by FBI agents at March Air Force Base in Riverside, Calif. He was arraigned here on a charge of conspiring to commit espionage to deliver to a Soviet diplomat "information relating to the national defense of the United States."

Boeckenhaupt, who lived in Superior, Wis., with his family since immigrating to the United States in 1948, pleaded innocent. He was ordered held on $50,000 bail.

ALEKSEY MALININ

After the FBI announced the sergeant's arrest, the State Department asked Aleksey R. Malinin, commercial counsel at the Soviet Embassy in Washington, to leave the country as soon as possible.

Boeckenhaupt, stationed at the Pentagon from April 1964 to August 1965, allegedly met secretly with Malinin in June 1965 and April 1966. He had enlisted in the Air Force in 1960 at the age of 17.

The FBI did not disclose whether any money was involved in the alleged meetings, nor whether any information was actually passed.

Agents also refused to say what Boeckenhaupt's duties were at the Pentagon, although he was a communications repairman at March.

The FBI said Boeckenhaupt met with Malinin in June 1965, in an Arlington, Va., suburb where Malinin questioned the serviceman about his duties at the Pentagon.

Brush Fire Raging in California

BYLMAR, Calif. (AP)—Police began evacuating patients at a county hospital and nearby residents today as a brush fire roared out of control in tinder-dry terrain amid hot, dry weather.

There were 600 patients at Olive View Hospital and 450 at a nearby Veterans Administration Hospital.

Both hospitals had been blanketed with smoke before evacuation began. Ambulances, jail buses and trucks were sent to both hospitals for evacuation purposes.

Police told residents in the vicinity of Almetz and Varner streets to move out as flames approached within 50 yards.

The fire which erupted at 5:20 a.m. in the San Gabriel Mountains of Angeles National Forest was whipped by winds sometimes gusting over 50 miles an hour.

The fire also threatened an Army Nike missile base atop Los Pinos, where 100 men ringed the mountain to try to keep the flames away.

There were 500 men on the fire lines from the U.S. Forest Service, Los Angeles County and city.

October Ends Wetter, Sunnier Than Average

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP)—October 1966 was both wetter and sunnier than average, the U.S. Weather Bureau said in its monthly weather summary.

It was the second month in a row of above-normal rainfall, with the total of 4.28 inches 1.06 inches over the average. The September total was 2.4 inches above average.

At October's end, the state's precipitation total for the year was still 1.74 inches below average, however.

There was sunshine during 61 per cent of the daylight hours in October, compared to the average of 50 per cent, the weatherman said.

Most of the October rain fell on the 1st and on the 19th and 20th.

The warmest day was the 9th, when the mercury hit 80 degrees at Bradley International Airport. The coldest reading was 23 degrees Monday morning, a record low for the 31st.

Humphrey Acclaims Subs and Democrats

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A visit by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey highlighted Monday's political activities in Connecticut. The campaign entered its final week today.

Humphrey made a speech in Groton, while Gov. John Dempsey stumped New Haven urging labor to get out the vote and his Republican opponent, Clayton Gengras, visited Stamford.

The vice president spoke in praise of submarines and Democrats at the dedication of a new engineering building at Electric Boat, birthplace of more nuclear subs than any other shipyard.

A crowd of about 3,000, many of them shipyard workers, listened as Humphrey recalled that his wife, Muriel, had christened the atomic sub Will Rogers at Groton last June.

"The Will Rogers is now our ship and we will follow her fortunes in the years to come with a deep personal interest," he said. Humphrey remarked in passing that Will Rogers himself had been a Democrat.

Casualty List Uncertain

South Celebrates Despite VC Shells

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The Viet Cong unleashed an artillery bombardment on the center of Saigon today in a spectacular but unsuccessful attempt to disrupt South Viet Nam's National Day observances.

Six Vietnamese and one American were known dead. Conflicting reports listed up to six more killed but these reports could not be verified. The one American known dead was a Navy officer.

At least 30 Vietnamese and five Americans were wounded in the bombardment, the first time the Viet Cong shelled the capital with mortar and recoilless rifle fire.

The Viet Cong hurled 24 round of 75mm recoilless rifle fire in and around the parade route, U. S. military headquarters said. Vietnamese authorities reported mortar shells also struck during the shelling.

The bombardment hit Saigon's Roman Catholic cathedral, a Catholic school, the John F. Kennedy Square, the Saigon central market and the French-built Grall Hospital, the biggest in the capital.

The bombardment, first of its kind by the Viet Cong against Saigon, failed to interrupt the massive parade marking the third anniversary of the overthrow of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

For two hours and 20 minutes, soldiers of the South Vietnamese armed forces and the six nations allied with them paraded before tens of thousands and leading Vietnamese and foreign dignitaries.

U. S. military headquarters said the shelling came from a point 3 1/2 miles southeast of Saigon near An Khanh Ka. Six U. S. gunship helicopters closed in on the area and artillery spotter planes were aloft. A ground force of allied troops also swept the area but the Viet Cong gunners apparently escaped.

U. S. headquarters announced that three Viet Cong were captured near the parade grounds on Kennedy Square. A

Holidays Meet

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—When the witches rode in Charlotte on their brooms for Halloween, they met up with Kris Kringle's advance agents.

The black-clad old ladies in pinnacle hats found Christmas ornaments attached to a number of mid-town lightpoles.

A spokesman for the fire department, which puts up the Christmas lights and ornaments for the Downtown Association and Chamber of Commerce, said an early start is necessary because the decorations must be in place for the annual parade Thanksgiving Day.

Uncovered Dino Prints Are Coated

ROCKY HILL (AP)—After more than two months of painstaking work to uncover the recently discovered Rocky Hill dinosaur tracks, scientists today were busily burying them again.

The prints are being covered with a water-repellant and bedded down under a heavy layer of sawdust to protect them against the ravages of winter. Although they have survived millions of years, the prints were safely underground until a bulldozer operator uncovered them in August. The problem now is to keep them from cracking from exposure to the elements.

The first step in the winterizing process, which began Monday, is to daub a thick water-repellant into the tracks. They are then covered with vinyl sheeting. On top of this goes a thick bed of sawdust and more vinyl sheet. Over all, to keep everything in place, will be old tires.

Airport Manager

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP)—Herbert A. Freisner of South Glastonbury was named provisional manager today for Bradley International Airport.

The 43-year-old former fighter pilot was appointed by the State Department of Aeronautics. He fills the vacancy caused by the death of William Connor, who was manager for 10 years.

The State Personnel Department will hold competitive examinations for the permanent post.

Thief Picked Wrong Home; Lion Waited

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—The burglar who cut through a screen to get into Michael Fair's home probably didn't know about Kamou, the watch lioness who was lounging alone inside.

The intruder scooped up $200 worth of guns, a radio, record player and clothing.

"Then I think Kamou scared him," Fair told police Monday. "He left the back door open and also the gate."

The barking of his dog aroused H.D. Hedgpeh, and he went outside to see his five-pound Chihuahua attacking Kamou, a 140-pounder. The dog was sent rolling with a slap of the lioness' paw.

Hedgpeh said, "There was the lion staring at me, its eyes shining in the dark."

Soon after, police had leashed the lioness. They took her to a veterinary hospital, but it lacked proper facilities for an 11-month-old lion, so they allowed Fair to take her home with a warning to keep his pet behind doors.

Electrical Union Goes on Strike At Westinghouse

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An electrical workers union struck the giant Westinghouse Electric Corp. today, idling thousands of employees.

Officials of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, called the strike after the collapse of negotiations for a new national contract. The old pact expired at midnight Monday.

The IBEW represents 14,000 workers at Westinghouse, the nation's second largest electrical products manufacturer.

IBEW pickets appeared at the huge East Pittsburgh works and about 7,000 members of other unions refused to enter the plant. The company maintained a skeleton force.

Also shut down was the Youngwood, Pa., plant employing 2,800 persons, most of them IBEW members.

Elsewhere, the strike was felt mainly at small manufacturing and repair facilities.

Federal mediators met with both sides for 3 1/2 hours Monday before the talks broke off. Mediators said "each side remained adamant," but added that they would attempt to meet with the parties to effect an early settlement. However, no further talks were scheduled.

The union said it represents 14,000 workers at more than 60 plants.

The company said the IBEW represents workers at only 46 plants and that negotiations here directly affect only about

$100,000 Shovel, His and Her Tubs

NEW YORK (AP)—If you're dreaming of a white Christmas, Santa can take care of it for you — with no snow to shovel — for $100,000.

That's the price tag on a backyard ski slope suggested this year by Neiman-Marcus, the Dallas department store with Texas-sized ideas for Christmas.

The slope may be just the thing — if your back yard is 121 feet long and 26 feet wide. It has a plastic surface that skis like snow, but there is nothing to shovel.

The ski slope is only one gift idea from the millions of Christmas catalogs now in the mails. Sears, Roebuck & Co. sent out 12 million, Montgomery Ward & Co. six million, Creative Playthings three million.

Victim of a prankster who dropped a pumpkin onto the Connecticut Turnpike in Westport was Miss Miriam McElroy, 25, of Stamford.

The pumpkin broke the windshield of an eastbound car driven by Miss Christine Turner, 24, of Stamford, and Miss McElroy was cut by fragments of the glass.

State police said a serious accident might have occurred if the pumpkin had hit the driver's side of the windshield.

Soviets' Brezhnev Makes Peace Appeal

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev appealed today for international cooperation for peace. He made only a brief attack on U. S. action in Viet Nam and omitted the usual mention of Communist terms for ending the war.

This seemed significant to some observers in Moscow because of recent unconfirmed reports that the Soviet leadership is getting a way to end the Vietnamese war.

Brezhnev spoke in Tbilisi, capital of Soviet Georgia. His speech was televised.

Brezhnev accused the United States of "criminal aggression in Viet Nam." But he did not elaborate on this as major Soviet speakers usually have done in past months. Instead the general secretary of the Soviet Communist party criticized Red China's Communist party and its government leaders for refusing to join with Soviet bloc countries in aid to North Viet Nam.

The Soviet Union "will further render all-round aid and support to struggling Viet Nam," Brezhnev declared.

"We are firmly convinced," he said, "that cooperation in the interests of peace and international security is also possible with those Western governments and political and public figures who look soberly on the

Praises Work Of Troops on Border Duty

CAMP STANLEY, Korea (AP)—"Keep your chin up and your chest out—we are proud of you and I came here to tell you so," President Johnson today told American troops confronting the Communists in Korea.

The President traveled by train and helicopter into the rugged South Korean countryside to pay tribute to Korean and American troops guarding the 151-mile border with Communist North Korea.

Speaking earnestly and in a low voice Johnson in an off-the-cuff speech told the troops 20 miles south of the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea they were "doing a mighty good job" of protecting freedom in the United States and many parts of the world. He said no matter what they may read about anti-Viet Nam demonstrators or draft card burners, the great bulk of Americans are like them — standing up for freedom.

"If we can only ever learn to do our jobs as politicians as well as you are doing yours as soldiers," the President declared, "we'll eliminate wars — we won't need soldiers."

"The good Lord willing and with your help, we are going to make this a peaceful world."

Johnson began his second day in South Korea with an hour's meeting with President Chung Hee Park. They discussed Viet Nam, where South Korea has 45,000 troops, and Park's request for more U.S. funds to equip troops to replace them at home.

After their talk, Johnson and Park drove through cheering, flag-waving crowds to take a special train for a 19-mile ride to the headquarters of the 26th Korean Infantry Division and nearby U.S. Camp Stanley.

At the Korean camp Johnson conferred U.S. Silver Star medals on three South Korean heroes of the Viet Nam war: He presented one to the widow of Maj. Lee In-ho, who was killed when he threw himself on a Viet Cong grenade to shield his men. Mrs. Lee nodded her head as Johnson shook her hand, then burst into tears and buried her face in her white mourning dress after she returned to her seat.

After watching Korean experts at karate smash stacks of tiles with their bare fists, the President took a helicopter to Camp Stanley, where 5,000 U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine troops had been brought

FALLOUT OVER U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government weather scientists estimated today a high-flying radioactive cloud from Red China's latest nuclear blast already is passing over a wide area of the United States. But both they and spokesmen for the Public Health Service said comparatively little of the debris is expected to appear as fallout in the United States, and they said it should present no significant health hazard.

Schizophrenia At The Polls?
 The trouble voters of the United States are going to have making up their own final minds next Tuesday will be as nothing to the confusion and anxiety which will find themselves in after the election, trying to decide what issue did how much in which race.

The particular race which would seem to have everything in the way of a wide variety of possible reasons for whatever the result turns out to be is that for the United States Senate in Illinois.

Republican Charles H. Percy, the young Republican challenger, is being conceded a lead in the polls, over Senator Paul Douglas.

Republican Percy, who is what used to be called an Eisenhower moderate when Eisenhower himself remembered what he was, was maneuvered into his nomination by ultra conservative Illinois Republicans who wanted to get him defeated and buried once and for all.

Now he is threatening to turn the right wing plot against himself into a victory which may propel him front and center in the national picture.

But if Percy wins, how shall the credit be distributed? How much to his youth, against Douglas' old age? How much to his expressed belief that we have involved ourselves too deeply and too recklessly in Vietnam as against Douglas' hawk like backing of President Johnson? How much to the supposed presence of "backlash" which opposes Douglas because of his straight liberal record on all civil rights issues?

How much to the support Percy himself wins among liberal and among Negro voters with his resolute refusal to court this backlash and his fine pronouncement that "we must above all be the party of justice and freedom in the field of civil rights and civil liberties. We must see in every man the work and genius of God?"

The Percy-Douglas race is not the only one next Tuesday in which there will be such a cross-current of issues that the post-election analysts are going to have a rather hard time of it deciding just what was at work in the minds of the voters—for or against war in Vietnam, for or against racial progress, for or against the current image of that man in the White House. In fact, the chances seem very good the results next Tuesday will have to come out a hodgepodge, in which so many trends and judgments have been in position to cancel each other out nobody can be quite sure which way the country has spoken. In fact, we would not be surprised if there were a few million attacks of schizophrenia in the voting booths Tuesday.

Napalm Can Be Beautiful?
 There are some theorists who express their concern over the war in Vietnam by asking themselves, and us, what war is doing to the American people back home. Not what it is doing to our own fighting men, not what it is doing to the enemy, but what it is doing to Americans who are thousands of miles from it.

The question they raise is that of whether or not the war in Vietnam, with its violence, cruelties and savageries being reported in words and on screens as no war has ever been reported before, is brutalizing us civilian Americans at home.

It is an interesting question, which may keep our sociologists busy for a long time, interviewing, correlating, computing, until they think they have a verdict.

Meanwhile, it should be easy for any individual to conduct his or her own test.

The other day some American infantrymen set an ambush for the Vietcong and, when some people walked into the ambush area, opened fire, killing eight innocent villagers, and wounding seven others, men, women and children.

Did this, when you read it or heard it, stir and trouble you a little less than the last report of death by mistake in Vietnam?

three to one than you experienced over the last casualty list?

Do the South Vietnamese civilians in the wrong ambush, or the 64 Americans dead, seem a little less real as individuals and something more of just another statistic?

Do such figures make you wish, more strongly than before, that this thing could be over because it is mad and regrettable as it is in the way to get on with the war, and the only way to get it over? Can you conceive that napalm can be beautiful?

Score yourself and save the answer for the sociologists, whether or not we Americans at home are becoming more brutalized because of what goes on over in Vietnam.

One Of The Kennedy Charms
 One of the most important of the Kennedy charms is an occasional talent for speaking common sense truth which other politicians are foolish enough to ignore, and to speak it in a matter-of-factly and timely enough to consider out of bounds.

Or, to put it this way we are viewing this charm at this specific moment, there is a certain Kennedy talent for saying things which are particularly pleasing to writers of editorials.

The late John F. Kennedy first commended himself to this page when, as a Senator, he delivered a studious, well-deliberated, but hard-hitting speech in which he came to the conclusion that France ought to get out of Algeria. The State Department was so shocked by this it had its representatives in Paris apologize to the French government of the time; it was widely considered a very risky thing for a United States Senator to have done. Some people said it was the kind of thing that could halt the Kennedy national career before it got going.

John F. Kennedy's response to this reception was to make the same speech again, several months later, strengthening what he had said and recommended in the first place.

Not many months later, Charles de Gaulle was in power in France, brought in to deal with the Algerian crisis, and he was deciding upon, and beginning to execute, a plan for taking the French out of Algeria, which then became the act of high statesmanship by which the problem was solved.

Writers of editorials are beginning to find a similar comfort in Senator Robert Kennedy. The other day, in this space, we held forth on the folly of the "miniature armaments race" now flaring up among our Good Neighbors to the South.

Over the weekend, up at Portland, Maine, Senator Kennedy, in the midst of some political barnstorming, introduced a more serious note when he proposed that the United States, for its part, stop selling "unnecessary arms" to its good neighbors, on the ground that these good neighbors engaging in little armaments races are "wasting their own resources and depriving the poor people" of such nations as our refusal to sell arms to them by going to some other supplier, the Senator said, then we should "take account of the strangest fact of life in national politics today is that G. Menen (Soapy) Williams, Mr. Democrat of Michigan for 18 years, is running no better than even for the U. S. Senate and may be trailing a little."

Williams, founder of the modern Michigan Democratic Party, and six times governor (1948-1961), a few months ago was considered a sure winner in his comeback attempt against Republican Robert Griffin. Appointed by Gov. George Romney to a senate vacancy earlier this year, Griffin began with his own polls showing that only one of four Michigan voters had even heard of him. Now, Griffin is considered a slight favorite.

If Williams loses, the ramifications will be wide. The coastal effect of Romney (a sure winner for a third term as governor) will be demonstrated. Pading national political influence of Michigan-based Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers and Williams' political patron, will drop another notch. Control of the once monolithic Michigan Democratic Party will be the object of fiercer struggles.

But whether Williams wins or loses, the senate campaign here has had a poignant last hurrah quality. It really is the story of how quickly a party and a candidate can decline.

But the party as well as the candidate has declined, in energy and imagination. Registration in vital Wayne County (Detroit), the Democratic stronghold, is down. During Williams' recent tour of the Upper Peninsula, the party turned out embarrassingly tiny crowds.

Indeed, Michigan's Democratic Party is not the party that Williams left in 1961 when he went to Washington as an assistant secretary of state. The brilliant Neal Staebler, former state chairman and Williams' closest adviser, has been shuffled offstage. In his place, leadership is in the hands of a tight little circle of labor leaders headed by state AFL-CIO President Gus Scholle.

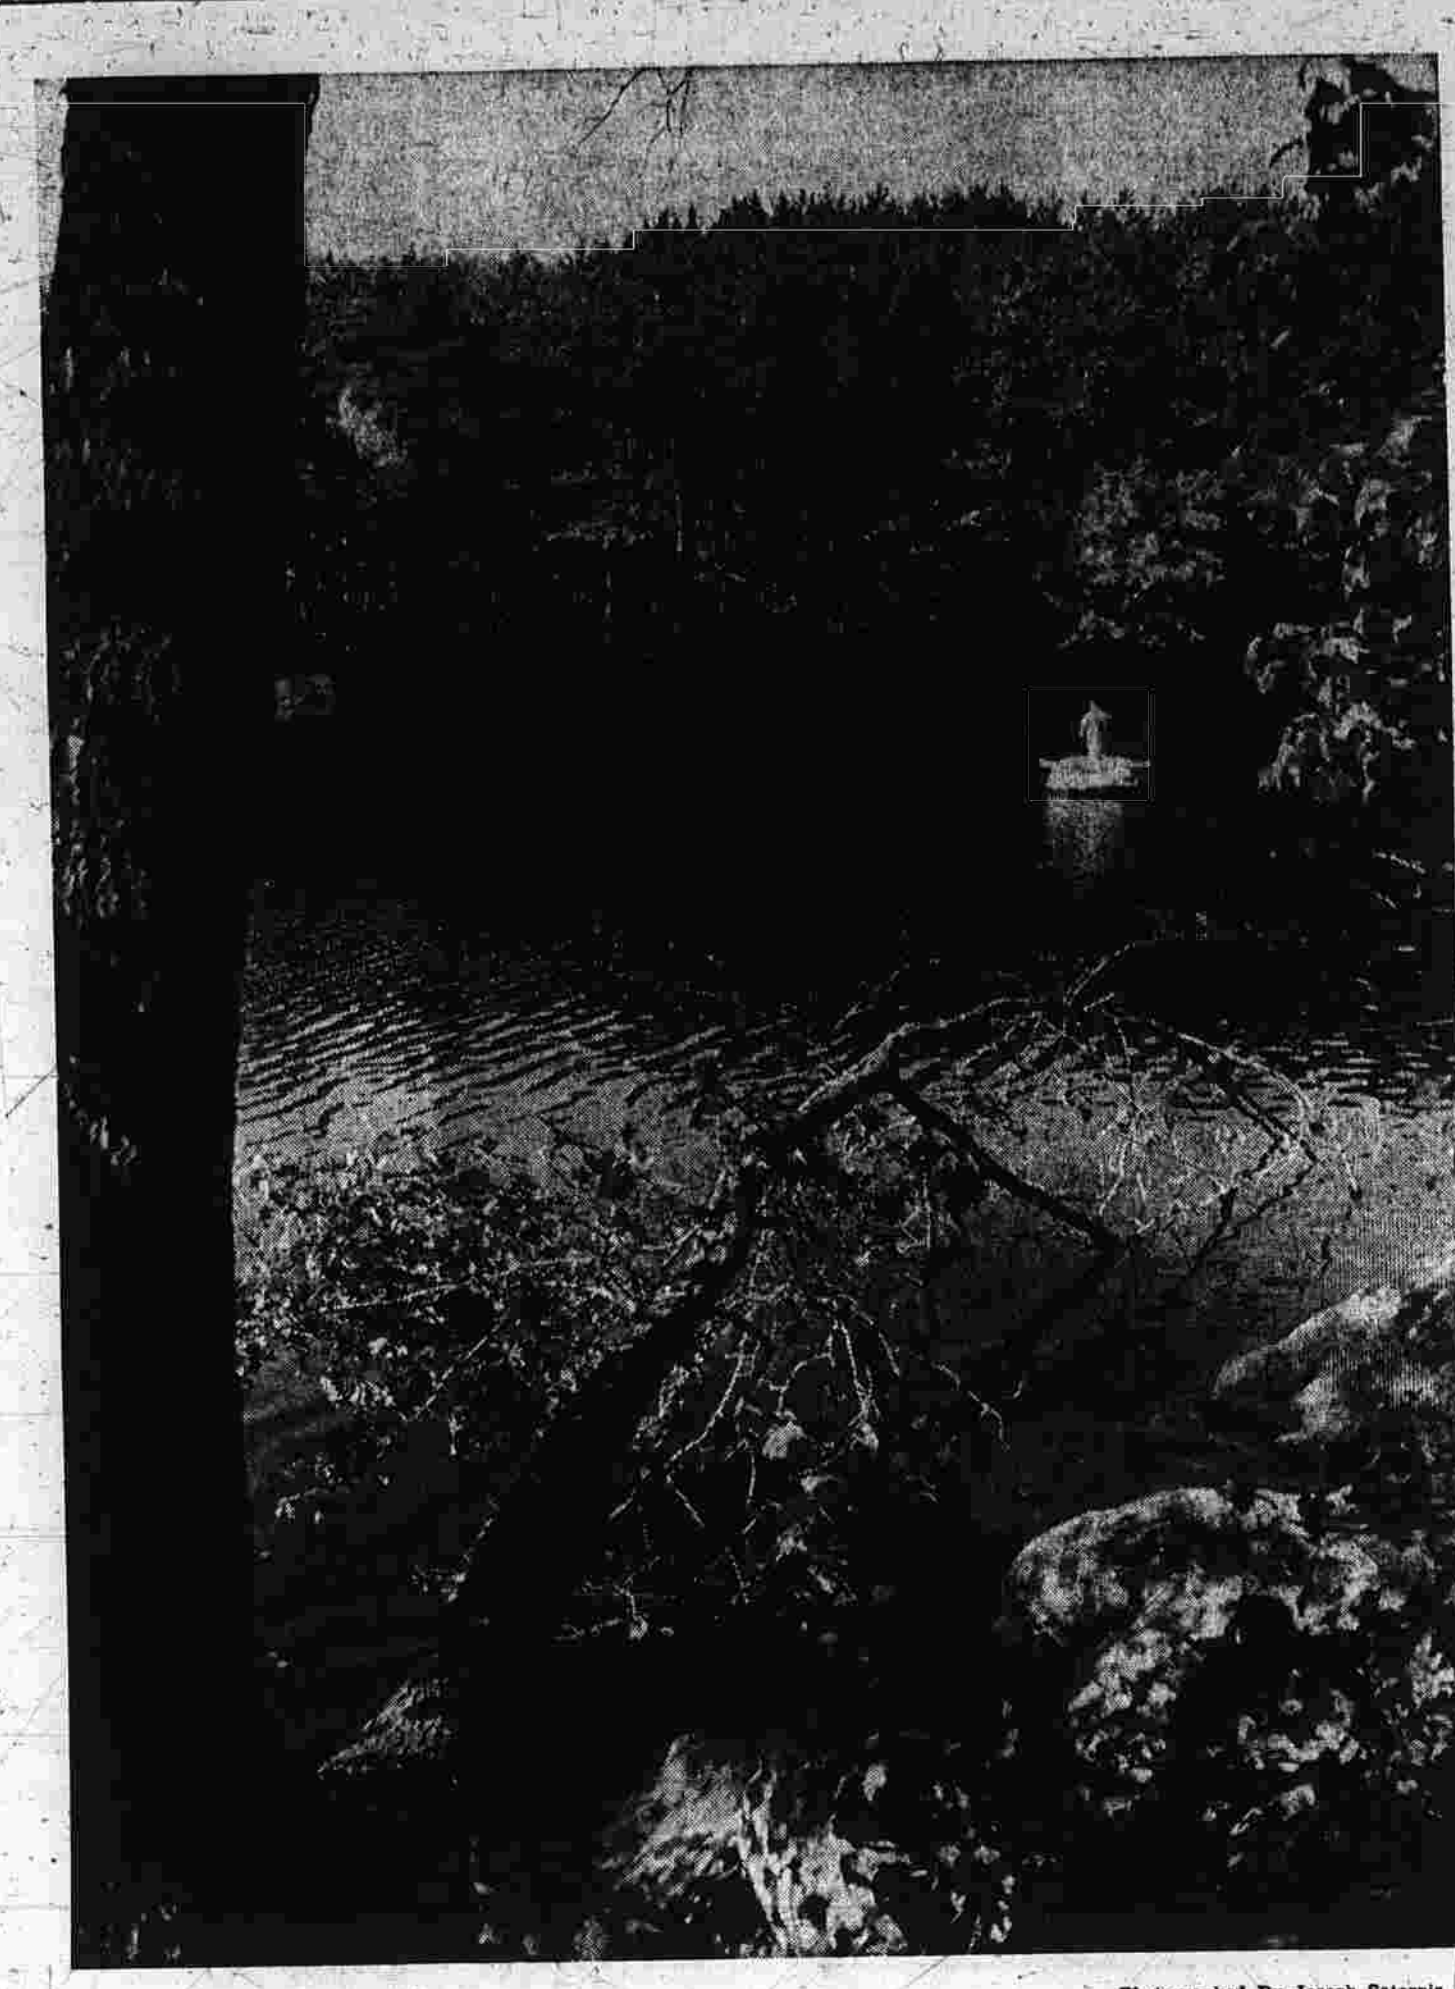

Under Scholle, Michigan's Democrats failed to understand Romney's popularity with the

"Save Your Tears?"
 Years ago I heard of a little glass jar in which women used to catch and save their tears. It sounds like a weird and useless custom. Saving tears? Who wants them?

In a different way some people of our own day save their tears until they meet the right person—then, look out for the gusher! Frequently this happens to ministers and frequently ministers do this to others.

It was said of Joseph, "Behold, the dreamer cometh." It is said of you, "Behold the whiner cometh!" How true this is! Some whine all the time: "Nothing is right." "This is wrong." "Why don't people do more for me?" "I don't like this." "That's terrible!" What a symphony (or cacophony?) of whining!

Prayer: O God forgive my self-centeredness; help me to play the man at least for today. In the name of Jesus whose tears were as drops of blood in the garden. Amen.

Connecticut Yankee

By A.H.O.

In politics, as in other fields of human endeavor and observation, it is the particular mark and particular distinction of the expert that he can be spectacularly wrong. There is nothing like an expert for being blind to something that subsequent developments make seem obvious.

So when, a week before the Connecticut election, all we "experts" probably agree on the verdict that the campaign of the Republican challenger has failed to establish the prospect that he can win, our judgment should be taken with the proverbial grain of challenge.

There are a few things we may be blind to.

This may, in the first place, be one of those years when nobody is going to "win" an election, when the real question to be asked should be that of who is going to lose it.

There are several potential factors which, in this kind of election, may deserve more weight than any observer's analysis is giving them.

There may be a confluence of world and national issues—including both the war in Vietnam and inflation at home—around the 1966 image of President Lyndon Johnson. The nature of that 1966 image is vastly different from that of the same man in the 1964 election.

To the question of whether or not the voters think individual policies and decisions have been right, there has been added considerable voter negativism about the way these policies and decisions are made and explained to the people. There may be an anti-Johnson undercurrent stronger than surface currents against war or inflation.

There may, for another potential undercurrent, be an accumulation of feeling about certain of the more unpleasant developments in Connecticut political news since the last state election—the legislative probe of state insurance commissions, the Washington probe of Senator Dodd's affairs, the still unanswered probe of license restoration corruption here in Connecticut, the campaign discrediting concerning the Frasnelli taxes.

There could, conceivably, be another undercurrent which labor vote in Connecticut. Periodically, usually in some election when the Democrats seem to be taking it too much for granted, the labor vote decreases to catch and save their tears.

Finally, there could be at work one of the most alien but damaging undercurrents of all, that of time itself. The present cycle of Democratic power began with the election of 1954, which was 12 years ago. Some voters, adding a prospective four more years, may find that a very long time.

So, if one wishes, one can pay no attention to the experts, and say that some of these undercurrents may still prove powerful enough to make this a real campaign down to the wire, and that the Republican challenger may, therefore, be doing better than anybody knows.

Cook for Congress

Political 'Happening' State's Wildest Rally

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A rally which must have been unique in the history of American political cook parties took place Monday night in a windowless back room of a shop in downtown New Haven.

Billed as "an event of national importance" it featured dancing, singing, and a wide assortment of individuals who could not possibly be described in 25 words or less.

The event was staged by supporters of Robert Cook, a Yale sociology professor running for Congress in Connecticut's Third District on a platform opposing U.S. involvement in Viet Nam and seeking stronger anti-poverty programs.

Sponsors of the rally referred to it as a "happening," which they said was "an attempt to apply new techniques" in the theater to a political campaign.

The first "new technique" encountered by people entering "The Exot," the place where the rally was held, was an attractive girl in a cowboy suit who escorted patrons inside by holding a pair of cap pistols to their backs.

Once inside, the patron was introduced to Cook, who was standing in a corner shaking hands as he glanced nervously about him.

A number of unusual activities followed for the patron's attention after he had met the candidate.

On a small stage were three good-looking, long-haired girls improvising a chorus line. The most voluptuous of the three had a sticker which said "Give the USO" pasted to her backside.

World War II films showing men in gas masks, children mutilated by Nazis, and Hitler himself ranting, raving, and rolling his eyes, were being projected on a wall. The background music included German marching songs played at an ear-shattering volume.

A young man dressed as a monk sat in a corner sucking the thumb, oblivious to the fact that a million eyes had been pin-pointing around the hall, had just leaped over his head.

The audience, which was near-silent, gurgled, screamed, and yelped as the cook broke the pin-cast, was made up of Yale students, beatnik-type girls, campus hangers-on and rolling sandals, two middle-aged ladies wearing "Cook for Congress" buttons, and a sailor who had feasted on a movie house.

The rest of the people in the room wandered about screaming, laughing, kissing, and shouting.

Arriving a few minutes before the "happening" happened, the patron was handed a small trick or treat bag filled with confetti, five sugar cubes, half a violet croquet and a "message." The messages ranged from "Cook for Congress" to "Play Hopscotch by Chanting 'Play Play Play'."

A young man wearing inconspicuously into a microphone signaled the end of the preliminary dancing, the monk stopped sucking his thumb, and the audience settled itself on the floor around the main stage.

A wooden platform about 10 feet square, only a few inches off the floor.

A blaring, racy rendition of "Yanks Doodle" sounded from the loudspeakers and a bevy of girls, one playing an accordion, entered and dispersed the American flags, marched into the hall. The audience, as if rehearsed, got up and followed them.

A scent of incense permeated the air as three long-haired girls in black dresses entered and dispersed the American flags, marched into the hall. The audience, as if rehearsed, got up and followed them.

Democrats Sure to Control Both Legislative Branches

BOSTON (AP)—About the only sure thing in Massachusetts politics this year is that Democrats again will control both branches of the legislature when the votes are counted Nov. 8.

Democrats have controlled the state Senate since 1962 and this year go into the election with a 27-13 margin. In the House, Democrats have held sway since 1962 and have a better than 51 majority this year.

Contending in that district are Rep. John D. Barrow, R-Goshen, and Wallace J. Fuchalski, a Northampton Democrat.

There now are 106 Democratic representatives, 88 Republicans, 1 Independent and 4 vacancies.

A total of 65 Democrats will be elected to the House without opposition and only 16 Republicans have no opponent.

That means there are 159 contests tested seats and Democrats have to pick up only 26 of those to gain a 121 majority in the House. It is expected that Democrats easily will win a total of 100 to 110 House seats to give them another 2-1 majority.

In some of the districts listed above as uncontested, Republicans will run "slicker" or write-in candidates. But any success these candidates might achieve would be minimal in affecting the House's party balance.

Democratic Sen. Philibert P. Pellegri of Arlington, James J. Long of Woburn and Francis X. McCann of Cambridge may have trouble with their Republican opponents.

In the 1st Hampden District, Donald Ryan, a Springfield Democrat, and Theodore W. Sanford, a Springfield Republican, are vying to succeed Sen. Stanley J. Zarod, D-Springfield, who resigned.

On the Republican side, Sen. John J. Parker of Taunton and William D. Weeks of Cohasset are the only incumbents without opposition. The third unopposed Republican is William L. Sullivan, son of U.S. Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass. Young Saltonstall is running for the Essex District seat relinquished by Sen. Philip A. Graham, R-Hampden, who became a turnpike commissioner.

Republican senators who have Democratic opposition to their re-election bids are Harold H. J. Clisby of New Bedford, Allan F. Jones of Barnstable, George D. Hammond of Westfield, Fred Lamson of Malden, James DeNormande of Lincoln, William I. Randall of Framingham, John M. Quinlan of Dover, Leslie B. Cutler of Needham and Oliver F. Ames of Boston.

The 31st seat, held by Republican Charles A. Bisbee of Cheshire, is up for grabs with Bisbee's resignation for a post as associate commissioner of the Department of Public Works.

Leaves Collection

The Town Highway Department, which has been busy in its leaf sweeping operation, has amended its schedule. All streets scheduled for sweeping today will be swept tomorrow. Those streets scheduled for sweeping tomorrow will be swept on Thursday. Friday will be utilized as a make-up day for streets which were not swept on Tuesday.

Homeowners are requested to rake their leaves to the edge of the sidewalk and not onto the street.

Tomorrow's streets are: Starkweather St., Phelps Rd., Doane St., Oakwood Rd., Auburn Rd., Avondale Rd., Robin Rd., Bowdoin St., Princeton St., Tanner St., Hester St., Harvard Rd., Welleley Rd., Green St., White St. to Woodbridge St.

MISAC Sets Busing Panel

In its issue of Oct. 28, Time Magazine's education section discusses several integration busing programs around the country, among them the Hartford program in which Manchester is participating.

"The results so far, add up to a remarkable bridge of the worlds of two kinds of children," says Time, going on to list the names of the children from Hartford, Boston, Rochester, Los Angeles and Cincinnati who are participating in the program.

How the local experiment, "Project Concern," is working out in Manchester will be the subject of a panel being held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at St. James' School.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Manchester Interfaith Social Action Council, and will bring together several educationalists concerned with beginning and operating the program here. The public is invited.

Panelists will include Isador Wolf, Green School principal and coordinator for Manchester's interfaith program; Deven Andrews, an educational aide and member of the Hartford supportive team; Mrs. Gloria Samuels, a supportive teacher from Hartford; Mrs. Doris Schimmel, kindergarten teacher at Waddell School; Mrs. Patricia Guay, Grade 3 teacher at Green; and Mrs. Bana Bacon, Grade 5 teacher at Highland Park.

All of the panelists participated in the West Hartford summer workshop during which they established policies for Manchester and worked out details of the program.

Wolf will make a factual presentation about the program; team members will comment and answer questions.

Also present will be Mrs. Nancy Cary of MISAC who is coordinating the volunteer emergency mother program for the Hartford children.

O'Brien from Brian

The surname O'Brien is derived from Brian, the Christian name of the greatest medieval king of Ireland. Usually known as Brian Boru, he was killed in a battle in 1014.

CAMPAIGN GETS BOOST

KIAMESSA LAKE, N.Y. (AP)—The Executive Council of the New York State AFL-CIO has appropriated $10,000 to start a campaign to unionize the state's farm workers.

12 Students Receive Awards In Halloween Paint Contest

Twelve students from town high and Joanne Slossberg and Wendy Morrison, also of Illing Junior High, were awarded for winning entries they submitted in the annual Halloween Window Painting Contest. The contest was sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association of the Chamber of Commerce and the Town Record.

First place, Michelle Began and Helen Mader of St. James' Parish, Division of the Chamber of Commerce and the Town Record.

Second place, Marjorie Johns and Meredith Cowan of Illing Junior High, posted at 8 p.m. in Ketchikan.

Third place, David P. Pagan and David Blanchard of St. James' parish, posted at 8 p.m. in Ketchikan.

Honorable mention went to Elizabeth Thurston and Donna Moriarty of St. James' and Pamela Murawski and Ann Granger, also of St. James'.

The difficulties of people with fixed incomes frequently increase as the state and some other sacrifices in order to subsidize the living cost goes up.

All too often, however, people on fixed incomes have to abandon their dreams of a lifetime, sell their homes and make other sacrifices in order to subsidize the living cost goes up.

"What I strongly advocate is that the state make it possible for towns to grant its deserving retired citizens substantial property tax exemptions. There is nothing really new and radical about the idea. A grateful federal government has already done the same thing for its veterans."

Church Canvass Slated Sunday

Conciliar Lutheran Church will have its Every Member Visitation Sunday afternoon. The church is inviting all members to participate to secure pledges for the proposed 1967 budget of the church. Team members will be held today and tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Ketchikan.

Members of the congregation are reminded to be at home for the church's Every Member Visitation Sunday.

As his co-workers look on, Paul J. Quish, center, smiles his thanks for the gold watch and sweater presented him yesterday afternoon at a tea held by the teachers and staff of Bennett Junior High School. George Bradley, principal, to Quish's left, made the presentation. Quish has retired from the school system after serving eight years as custodian of Bennett's Franklin Building. He played the plater's trade for many years before being employed in the schools. He and his wife, who was a guest at the tea, live at 37 Lila St. (Herald photo by Patricia.)

LMT to Give Extra Showing Of 'Mr. Roberts'

The Little Theater of Manchester (LTM) has announced that an additional performance of "Mr. Roberts," besides those already publicized, has been scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 16 at 8:30 p.m. at Illing Junior High School Auditorium. It will be sponsored by Charter Oak Lodge of Stratford. Tickets and further information on the Nov. 16 performance may be obtained from Ben Shankman at Leonard's Shoe Store, Main St.

Ernest Cirilo, director of "Mr. Roberts," has also directed "Death of a Salesman" and "Streets of New York" for LTM. He is a graduate of the University of Connecticut School of Drama and has directed more than 60 shows in central Connecticut.

Huge tongues of flame leap across mountains in Sylmar, Calif., 25 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Firemen kept the blaze confined yesterday but a freak burst of wind swept flames back on a group of firemen, killing 10 of 25.

10 Veteran Firemen Die Battling Flames

SYLMAR, Calif. (AP) — A Service spokesman Don Porter swept 1,900 acres. In Ventura, a 300-acre blaze burned through an oil tank farm, with- out damaging structures. In the Santa Susana Mountains west of the Angeles crest fire, two firemen died Tuesday night in a brush fire in Griffith Park, Los Angeles.

More Cash To Replace Old Schools

HARTFORD (AP) — The State Board of Education backed a proposal today to grant a 50 per cent increase in state school building aid to cities and towns that replace older schools.

The proposed legislation to the General Assembly, especially would help cities since it would aid in the cost of acquiring land for new schools.

Meriden Fire

MERIDEN (AP) — Only the walls of the Hall Box Co. factory remained today after a two-alarm fire gutted the 3½-story frame building.

The fire apparently began in a stairwell around 10 o'clock Tuesday night and roared through the old structure before firemen could get it under control.

LBJ Asleep But 30 Miles From Attack

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — North Korean troops ambushed and killed six American soldiers and one South Korean below the armistice line before dawn today while President and Mrs. Johnson slept 30 miles away.

The incident was the gravest involving Americans since the Korean War ended in 1953. It occurred eight hours before Johnson left Korea for the United States, but there was no indication that the President was advised of the ambush.

In Anchorage, Alaska, the traveling White House said President Johnson has asked for a complete report on the incident from Gen. Charles H. Beneset, commander of the U.S. 8th Army in Korea and of the United Nations Command there.

The President met with Beneset Tuesday when he visited American and South Korean troops during his stay in South Korea.

There was one survivor, an American, from the U.S. 2nd Infantry Division patrol. Wounded by a grenade but reported in good condition, he said the attackers wore North Korean army uniforms.

A spokesman for the U.S. 8th Army said the attack occurred under full moon and the firing was heard at the patrol's base camp. A motorized patrol was sent out to investigate and found the bodies and the wounded man.

The spokesman said there was evidence that the patrol returned the Communist fire which was ambushed. He described the clash as "quite a good engagement."

Erhard's Party Presses for Him To Resign Post

BONN, Germany (AP) — Top leaders of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's party demanded today to press for his resignation, in- formed sources reported.

When he would be ready to resign was not made clear. Erhard spoke at a closed-door meeting of Christian Democratic party chiefs in Paris.

Erhard's resignation would be a condition of his resignation that he take part in the formation of a new government.

Erhard was meeting with his cabinet to work out of the tax increases which brought the resignation of four Free Democratic party ministers last week and set off the crisis that led to demands for his resignation.

The cabinet now includes only members of his own party.

The 1967 budget has a hole in it estimated at $75 million to a billion. At least $40 million of this is needed to fulfill promises to buy arms in the United States.

Whether higher taxes can be approved is uncertain. The Free Democrats have said they will not vote for them and without the Free Democrats, Erhard has no majority in Parliament.

Londoner Arrested, Linked to U.S. Spy

William Cecil Mulvena, 47, was arrested in Los Angeles on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage with Aiksey Yermakov, an assistant commercial counselor at the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

The FBI said Boeckenhaupt wrote a letter in May to an address in England and received a reply in September. It cited this as an "overt act" substantiating charges of espionage.

London newspapers said the letter was to an "explosive contact" and was intercepted by British security agents who tipped off the FBI.

British security men were reported convinced that the London contact was used as a clearing house for information leaked out of the United States and other parts of the non-Communist world.

The diplomat was believed to be involved with Boeckenhaupt now living in the British capital. There were predictions that Scotland Yard may soon arrest this other man, who was thought not to have diplomatic immunity.

In Los Angeles, the FBI was reported to have secured a conviction could bring a jail sentence of up to 10 years.

Erhard's Party Presses for Him To Resign Post

BONN, Germany (AP) — Top leaders of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's party demanded today to press for his resignation, in- formed sources reported.

When he would be ready to resign was not made clear. Erhard spoke at a closed-door meeting of Christian Democratic party chiefs in Paris.

Erhard's resignation would be a condition of his resignation that he take part in the formation of a new government.

Erhard was meeting with his cabinet to work out of the tax increases which brought the resignation of four Free Democratic party ministers last week and set off the crisis that led to demands for his resignation.

The cabinet now includes only members of his own party.

The 1967 budget has a hole in it estimated at $75 million to a billion. At least $40 million of this is needed to fulfill promises to buy arms in the United States.

Whether higher taxes can be approved is uncertain. The Free Democrats have said they will not vote for them and without the Free Democrats, Erhard has no majority in Parliament.

Londoner Arrested, Linked to U.S. Spy

William Cecil Mulvena, 47, was arrested in Los Angeles on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage with Aiksey Yermakov, an assistant commercial counselor at the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

The FBI said Boeckenhaupt wrote a letter in May to an address in England and received a reply in September. It cited this as an "overt act" substantiating charges of espionage.

London newspapers said the letter was to an "explosive contact" and was intercepted by British security agents who tipped off the FBI.

British security men were reported convinced that the London contact was used as a clearing house for information leaked out of the United States and other parts of the non-Communist world.

The diplomat was believed to be involved with Boeckenhaupt now living in the British capital. There were predictions that Scotland Yard may soon arrest this other man, who was thought not to have diplomatic immunity.

In Los Angeles, the FBI was reported to have secured a conviction could bring a jail sentence of up to 10 years.
