Gemini Gets Green Light

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — After two frustrating delays because of a faulty autopilot system in the astronaut's Titan 2 rocket, the Gemini 12 mission today received a green light to blast off Friday on the final flight in the Gemini series. Technicians checked and rechecked a new autopilot throughout the night and pronounced it in fine working order this morning. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported all launching preparations were progressing smoothly. Favorable weather was forecast for launch time. Meanwhile, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. continued to practice key phases of their four-day flight in a spacecraft simulator and to bone up on their complex flight plan. The doubleheader Gemini 12 launching is scheduled to start at 2:08 p.m. EST Friday when an Atlas rocket bursts an Agena target. Gemini 12 is to set sail at 3:46 p.m. Lovell and Aldrin were frustrated on two earlier launching dates — Wednesday and today — by troubles with the autopilot system which is needed to steer the Titan 2 on a true course during the vital six minutes the rocket operates. The problems were associated with a secondary system which would operate automatically if the primary autopilot failed. (See Page Twenty)

Scientists Go South To Observe Eclipse

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Five planeloads of U.S. scientists are making final preparations for flights over the south Atlantic to observe a total eclipse of the sun Saturday. In a dress rehearsal Wednesday, three converted C-130 cargo jets took off from Buenos Aires and joined planes from Rio de Janeiro and Porto Alegre, Brazil, over the ocean. The plane will serve as flying laboratories Saturday. Scientists study the sun during the brief period when the moon blocks its blinding light. With cameras, photometers, infrared rays, ultraviolet light and much other equipment, the scientists plan to measure radiation, polarization, brightness, infrared bands, corona intensity and other solar data. The fleet of aircraft is only one part of the study. Rockets fired into the total eclipse path Albuquerque, N.M., and from laboratories at Los Alamos, N.M., and Livermore, Calif., will meet over the Atlantic off the Brazilian port of Rio Grande do Sul, then all five planes will wing out southeast following the total eclipse and turning due east to a point nearly south of Montevideo, Uruguay. There, they will check location against the sun and return to Buenos Aires with data, statistics and pictures that will take months to analyze. Dr. William Ogle of Los Alamos, titular chief of the air-borne scientific experiment on the mystery of solar behavior, is hoping that cloud patterns and weather will permit top results. "There are a lot of things we don't know about the sun," said

Firemen Save Window Washers

New York City firemen used an aerial ladder this morning to rescue two window washers whose scaffold had slanted dangerously, eight floors above West End St. The men, Jack Barkley, 35, and Albert Farrell, 31, said the scaffold slipped when they pressed a switch on the electric hoist which raises and lowers the platform. Blackout Parties Mark Anniversary

NEW YORK (AP) — A party to mark the anniversary of the 1965-66 power outage in New York City was held in the city's Time-Life Building. No one at the party there panicked, however. They barely looked up from their drinks. This year, everybody knew it was a joke. The party — thrown by a distilling company — was one of many observances Wednesday night marking the first anniversary of the great northeast power failure. It honored all people — such as physicians, nurses, policemen and firemen — who helped keep things running during the blackout. "That old black magic" was one of the most popular songs of the evening. Several bars and restaurants used only candles for illumination. One hotel featured a menu of black caviar, black bean soup, black bread, black Angus sirloin steak, black eyed peas, black "current" jelly, black forest cherry cake and black coffee. Wellesley College in Wellesley, Mass., featured a blackout party in one of the large dormitories of the all-female school. Wellesley girls and their dates, most of them from Harvard, gathered in the living room, lit a fire in a fireplace, and shut off the lights. They were served cider and toasted marshmallows, and no liquor is permitted on the campus. Probably more than any other year, "I feel the top candidate failed to make an impact on the voters," said Montana had been irked by Genzra's praises of Democratic Mayor Richard C. Lee of New Haven during the campaign. Although the GOP, with the help of a "page candidate," did capture one of the state's six congressional seats Tuesday, the Democrats retained all State offices by big margins, took firm control of the State House of Representatives 117-60, and added to their dominance in the Senate, where they will outnumber Republicans next year 25-11. About the only consolation for Republicans in the aftermath of this trouncing was that there's no place left to go but up. The GOP had won a reprieve of sorts in 1964, when the state legislative elections were canceled by federal court order because the General Assembly had failed to reapportion itself. Considering the size of the Johnson landslide, the GOP could easily have lost the House, as it did in the Ruliford landslide of 1966. Then, in 1965, although a minority party that had not won a gubernatorial election since 1932, the GOP had a vote equal to the Democrats in the Constitutional Convention, with the delegates split 50-50 between the major parties. Earlier this year, the GOP legislative leadership met in Stratford to plan for this year's election by proposing to outspend the Democrats, notably in areas

Non-Poison Tear Gas Used on U.S. Patrol

VC Attacks 1st Infantry In Tay Ninh

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — An ambush patrol of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division was attacked today by Viet Cong using a nonpoisonous type SAIGON South Viet of tear gas, a spokesman said. The Viet Cong attack came in Tay Ninh Province of War Zone C, a battleground area centered 35 miles northwest of Saigon, where Americans have reported more than 800 enemy dead in a week of hard fighting against the Viet Cong's 9th Division. The patrol had settled into its ambush pattern in matted swamp and jungle five miles northeast of Suoi Dau. No firefight followed and no injuries were reported. The spokesman said the Americans donned gas masks, which are standard combat equipment at the explosion of the first grenade. The troops were believed to number about 30. About 1,500 gas grenades were found among 19,000 grenades uncovered by army men sweeping an enemy regimental command and supply complex Wednesday. Ground action in the area. (See Page Four)

National GOP Advances Serious Threat to LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The rolling impact of a midterm Republican breakthrough offered a fresh threat today not only to President Johnson's legislative program but possibly to his reelection in 1968. While the GOP was surging to above-average gains in Tuesday's nonpresidential year election, it also was netting from the Democrats eight governor offices. This cemented Republican chief executives into political power bases in at least 25 states which will cast 250 electoral votes two years from now—39, in excess of the 270 needed to elect a president. Ad final ballot counts stretched out the measuring tape, it became apparent that Barle G. Wheeler, chairman of the administration had suffered a crippling, though not necessarily lasting, defeat in contests where the President had thought Democrats might do very well. The fact that Republicans will control at least half of the governorships in the next two years from Washington with Gen. Barle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, White House aide said the two Pentagon GOP column in the 1968 House aides said the two presidential contests. Voters gon leaders would be in conference with Johnson most of the day. The White House, announcing no agenda for the talks, said LBJ Ranch for the second time in five days. McNamara flew to the ranch on Wednesday with Gen. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, White House aide said, however, the military budget was not certain to figure prominently. Johnson, who now faces a battle to hold down next year's budget, issued a statement claiming "we are winning our war on waste." "I want every person in the executive branch to know that I expect them to work even harder from here on to improve upon this record. "The conflict in Viet Nam and the necessity of combating inflation at home are two paramount reasons for holding government spending to rock bottom," Johnson added. The President followed up, too, on a new law that permits Cuban refugees to become permanent residents of the United States after they've spent 10 years in the country for two years or more. LBJ Again Huddles With Defense Chiefs

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson huddled with the Joint Chiefs of Staff today to discuss the military budget for 1967. The White House, announcing no agenda for the talks, said LBJ Ranch for the second time in five days. McNamara flew to the ranch on Wednesday with Gen. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, White House aide said, however, the military budget was not certain to figure prominently. Pinney Already Under Fire After State GOP's Rout

HARTFORD (AP) — Republican State Chairman A. Searle Pinney survived the election defeat of 1965, but can he survive what has been called the "catastrophe" of 1967? A few cries for Pinney's head are already being raised in the wake of Tuesday's monumental Democratic victory and agonizing reappraisals are going on in GOP circles throughout the state. The defeated gubernatorial candidate, Clayton Gengras, is also getting a share of the criticism. Peter P. Mariani of Groton, who many thought last spring would be the party's choice for governor, compared the plight of the Connecticut GOP with Republican gains in other states and said that "the situation is more than serious. It is catastrophic." Mariani disclaimed any ambitions of becoming state chairman himself, however. Pinney, who has been chairman for five years, wasn't talking. And Gengras's role in the post-election GOP was not immediately apparent. Emma Lincoln, the GOP town chairman in New London, sounded the first public call for Pinney's ouster. Saying that "one of us has to eat crow," Mrs. Lincoln said Wednesday that Pinney "looked us out on a limb." "We worked hard for you and your hand-picked candidate lost everything," she said. A group of 17 Wallingford Republicans sent Pinney a telegram urging him to step down. But State Central Committee chairman George Graesser of Wallingford sent a telegram of his own disclaiming the statement by the 17 and promising that the town committee would discuss the matter thoroughly before taking a formal position. Meanwhile, George Haven, town chairman of New Haven, put the blame on Gengras. "I don't think it was a mistake," Gengras "did a lot of campaigning."

Brazil Students Burn U.S. Flag

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — About 100 students shouting antigovernment and anti-United States slogans burned an American flag Wednesday night at a brief demonstration against Brazil's congressional elections next week. They called the elections a farce. The students oppose the policies of President Humberto Castello Branco, whom they describe as U.S. puppets. The students argue that election rules prevent genuine popular representation through elimination of the strongest opposition candidates by pre-election challenges, and the threat of arbitrary cancellation of political rights. The demonstration was held at a ferry dock. When a loaded boat arrived from Niteroi, across the bay from Rio, the students formed a circle around their leaders, who made brief speeches and then set fire to the American flag. The rally lasted less than 10 minutes. The students dispersed before police arrived.

French Actress Drowns While Filming Scene

PARIS (AP) — A French movie actress accidentally killed her car into the Seine and drowned today during the filming of a spy movie. The actress, Patricia Viterbo, 23, backed her car into the river near the Eiffel Tower during shooting of the Pierre Zimmer film, "Judo Expert, Secret Agent." Costar Henri Garcin, 38, was in the sports car with her and managed to escape. He was hospitalized. His condition was described as not serious. Divers reached the car and pulled Miss Viterbo free. Mouth to mouth resuscitation and heart massage failed. Miss Viterbo, a tall, striking blonde, had former Dior fashion model, had most of them from Harvard, gathered in the living room, lit a fire in a fireplace, and shut off the lights. They were served cider and toasted marshmallows, and no liquor is permitted on the campus. Probably more than any other year, "I feel the top candidate failed to make an impact on the voters," said Montana had been irked by Genzra's praises of Democratic Mayor Richard C. Scranton Herman Olson and announced today by Town Counsel John P. Shea Jr. Both were signed today by John Bailey, state Democratic chairman. The requests for a recount are being delivered this afternoon and evening to town clerks in each town.
In Thursday's vote, Sweney, who has been sheriff for a total of 14 years, received 14,208 votes. Pawluk received 14,178. Both figures, though, are unofficial.
According to the law, a request for a recount may be made within three days if the margin of votes is less than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast. In this case, one-half of one percent is about 150 votes.
Pawluk has retained an attorney, Alexander Goldfarb of Hartford, to handle the legal aspects of the request for the recount.

Scranton Herman Olson and announced today by Town Counsel John P. Shea Jr. Both were signed today by John Bailey, state Democratic chairman. The requests for a recount are being delivered this afternoon and evening to town clerks in each town.
In Thursday's vote, Sweney, who has been sheriff for a total of 14 years, received 14,208 votes. Pawluk received 14,178. Both figures, though, are unofficial.
According to the law, a request for a recount may be made within three days if the margin of votes is less than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast. In this case, one-half of one percent is about 150 votes.
Pawluk has retained an attorney, Alexander Goldfarb of Hartford, to handle the legal aspects of the request for the recount.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
By ORM WEST
Veterans Day, November 11th, is remembered by middle aged and older folks as Armistice Day. It commemorates the signing of the armistice in World War I. On that ceasefire, hostilities, whistle blowing day in 1918, every one had high hopes that wars were over with the war to end all wars had ended. It didn't work out that way.

In the years since, cities, states, nations and people have changed but the problems remain much the same today as in yesterdays of the past. With God's help, maybe some day these problems can be solved so men can live in peace. Veterans Day should remind all of us of the thousands of American youth who died in conflict without having the chance to grow old. It should remind all of us that our American way of life was made possible by their total sacrifice. No one knows this better than the buddies who served with them—and survived. On Veterans Day, we honor them all—the living and the dead. . . . WATKINS-WEST FUNERAL SERVICE, 142 E. CENTER ST., 648-7186.

We think we all understand, all along, we may be cast from the heights, and to face a mechanized century feeling naked and defenseless, our fragile selves insufficient to the challenge.

They surround our imperfect selves with a welcome helmet and shield to face a mechanized century feeling naked and defenseless, our fragile selves insufficient to the challenge.

Accustomed in unarmageddon glittering from Detroit, sleek chrome trapping like jewels, fenders protectively enveloping us, the exterior gleaming in depths of anonymity, we are accustomed to advancing, framed in the windshield like a portrait, upon the world, perfumed in fumes. The engine's deep and reserved roar signals our own considerable firm.

Employed powers, and deft maneuvers through sluggish traffic suggest smart poise and grace. We style him at sporting inclinations, with a bearing of grace and poise, eyes turn to our approach, and we the vehicle form into a symbiotic attractive whole.

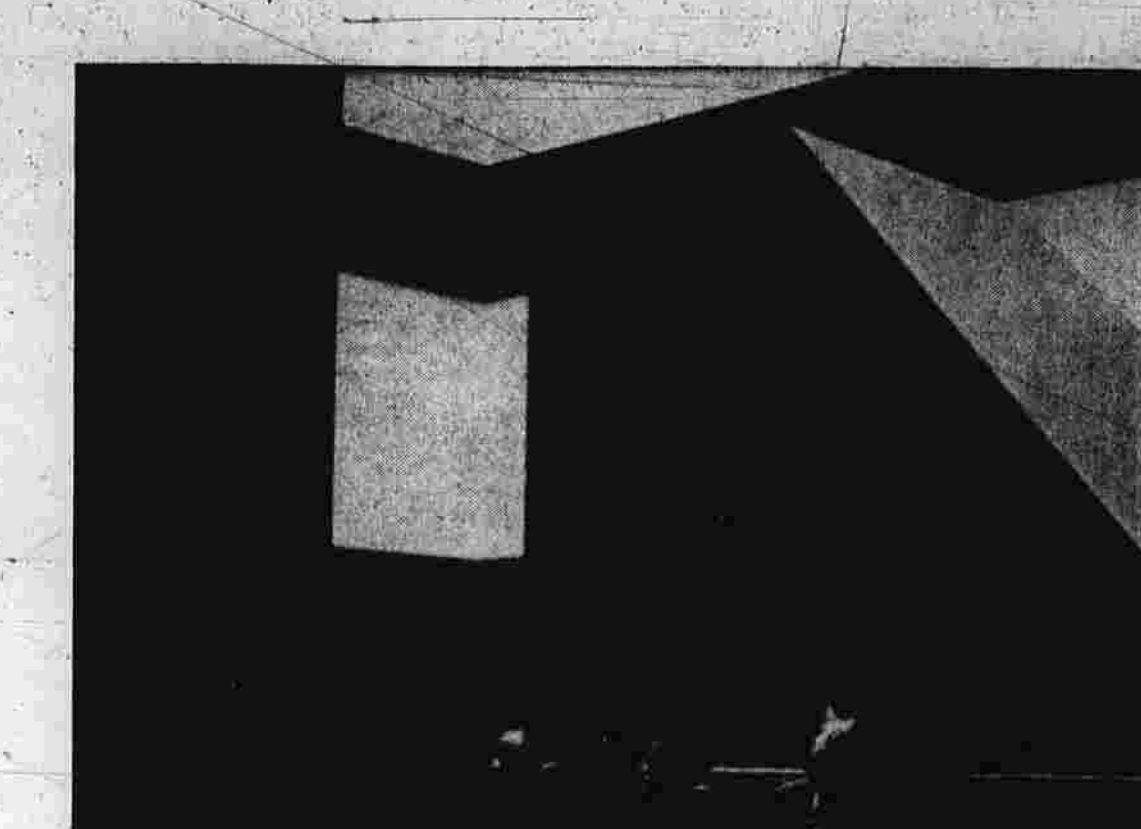

Thus arrayed, a living time becomes a rip in the seams, a darkened headlight a spot on the tie. And with a breakdown we are reduced to rage, facing the elements and the angry gods with a particularly unprepared. There must be a world of significance in the fact that seconds can reduce the fruit of the industrial revolution and the glow of a mechanical age to a luxurious, polychrome shapely junk, slightly pathetic abandoned beside a road, impersonally attended by long-haired youths in coveralls at the service station. An electric spark, probably as profound in our time as the spark from a caveman's fumbling with sticks, separates us from a low truck—and despair.

Pair of Detective Stories Are Spicing Business News

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of the most fascinating detective stories of the year have speeded business news of late. One involves an alleged international plot to blow up a bridge needed to transport copper from the landlocked African nation of Zambia, and thus drive up the red metal's price.

Brief Rocket Burn Will Brake Orbiter

PARADENA, Calif. (AP) — For moving the film — to compensate for the spacecraft's speed — was operating at the wrong speed.

Another lens system of the first craft did, however, return some of the best pictures yet of the moon's surface, and photographs in vivid detail portions of the moon's backside.

Another history-making photo was of the earth, taken just before the orbiter swept around the back of the moon. The picture shows the curved horizon of the moon, and in the background is the dark, sunlit earth.

Scientists said some extra frames of film aboard Lunar Orbiter 2 may be used to shoot the earth again.

Secretary Says Lottery Could Ease Draft Ills

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara says a national lottery would help eliminate deficiencies of the present draft system.

In an interview published in the Harvard Crimson Wednesday, McNamara called the current draft methods unsuitable.

"We draft the oldest first," he said. "It's never clear exactly what age one will be subject to the draft. This makes very difficult the planning of one's life."

McNamara said every 18-year-old should be subjected to the lottery. At age 19, a male representative, and his brother David, 18, a student, had spent 14 days in jail before Magistrate E. J. Danaher passed sentence.

But it's a delicate maneuver, they added, because too much "boots" could drop it onto the moon and not enough could let it sail past, on the wrong orbit.

Once in proper orbit around the moon, Lunar Orbiter's dual-lens camera system is programmed to photograph 13 potential landing sites for astronauts.

The photographs are meant to show details of the areas, including objects down to about the size of a car table.

The initial orbit around the moon is scheduled to range from 125 miles to 1,150 miles above the surface, scientists said.

This orbit will be maintained for one week, while scientists analyze tracking data and check out camera systems, then it will be lowered to bring orbiter within 25 miles of the surface.

From this vantage point, scientists hope to see the best cleanup pictures yet of the rough lunar surface.

Similar hopes on the first Lunar Orbiter mission last summer were dashed when the camera's lens system for taking the extreme closeup pictures failed.

Car Thief Finds Davis Trial Continues

LONDON (AP) — A thief stole Suzanne Ope's car Wednesday night without realizing that her month-old baby was asleep in a crib behind the driver's seat.

Three hours later, after hundreds of police had been alerted and alarms sounded on television, the car was found abandoned six miles away.

Baby Bartholomew was gurgling happily in his sleep.

Mrs. Ope, 27, said she left the car and baby for half an hour while she took a walk in the park with her other two children.

"The thief must have got a terrible shock when he found he had a passenger," said a police spokesman. "It looks as if he dropped everything and ran."

Mass Slaying Survivor Tells of Playing Dead

NEW HAVEN (AP) — One of the survivors of a murderous rampage in which six persons were killed told Wednesday she pretended to be dead so she could escape.

Archer J. Davis wouldn't shock her.

Mrs. Loisrice McClure, 26, whose mother was one of the victims, testified in Superior Court that when Davis pointed his carbine at her, "I fell and pretended to be dead. I fell into a pool of Mr. White's blood."

Neil White, 27, was another of the victims.

Trooper Henry P. Wolkowski said Davis reached for a pistol when the police approached.

Wolkowski said he prevented Davis from grabbing the .32 caliber Smith & Wesson handgun also found in the car, he said.

Mrs. Mary McClure, 51, Mrs. Caroline Sykes, 24, and her 5-year-old son, Michael; Miss Francine McClure, 14, daughter of Mrs. McClure; and Richard Leathers, 27.

The shooting took place at the home of Mrs. McClure's apartment. According to Miss McClure's testimony, Davis even shot the family dog when it went up to him to be petted.

Miss McClure said Davis was found for Mason's allegation that someone tried to kill him wife, Gloria Baskerville, another last weekend.

Quick Summons Issued

NEW YORK (AP) — Topless waitresses made their first public appearance in New York City Wednesday night in violation but they don't know what they have done.

Police issued the summons to protect themselves. It's a test case. That's how it started in San Francisco (where topless waitresses are very popular).

The spokesman said business doubled Wednesday night.

"The topless waitresses were brought in to increase business," he explained. "You're always looking for something new. You need a gimmick to pick them in San Francisco did it and we can do it here."

Melvin N. Thaler, an attorney for the woman owner of the club, said: "We are proceeding with the policy of topless waitresses. And I have been instructed by my client to represent her in any action by any authority to prohibit the continuation of this policy."

Miss Rooney said, "I'm glad the charge wasn't indecent exposure. Naturally, I'm a little worried about it."

Aussies Fined For Paint Toss At LBJ's Auto

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Two brothers were fined a total of $761 today for throwing paint over President Johnson's car during his ride through Melbourne Oct. 21.

John N. Langley, 21, a sales representative, and his brother David, 18, a student, had spent 14 days in jail before Magistrate E. J. Danaher passed sentence.

Mason Case Closed

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The Clark County sheriff's office has closed the investigation of comedian Jackie Mason's report that someone tried to kill him by firing three pistol shots into the bed in his hotel room.

Accounts of witnesses were contradictory, a spokesman said Wednesday, and no basis was found for Mason's allegation that someone tried to kill him wife, Gloria Baskerville, another last weekend.

Marine Corps Birthday Celebrated in Viet Nam

DA NANG, South Viet Nam. Helicopters carried the food to units on patrol.

Lt. Gen. Lewis W. Walt, commander of U.S. Marines in Viet Nam, delivered eight cakes to units in the Da Nang area. Fifty other cakes were being cut and served by generals of the 1st and 3rd Marine Divisions.

Following tradition, the generals served the first two pieces of cake to the oldest and youngest anniversary dinner of soup, broiled steak with mushrooms, potatoes, peas and corn, salad, cake and ice cream.

studded mountain south of Hue against North Vietnamese soldiers on Hill 484 several miles from the artillery positions.

Big. Gen. Lyle F. English, assistant commander of the 1st Division, unveiled a plaque which said Carroll "died as he lived, a gallant Leatherneck."

Despite the birthday celebration, the Marines made nearly 800 patrols, but there was no significant contact with the enemy, a spokesman said.

At Artillery Platoon, where 30 howitzers point north to support Marines operating below the semiautonomous zone, the tent city was named Camp J.J. Carroll in honor of a young Marine captain killed Oct. 5.

Carroll of Miami Beach, Fla., was wounded fatally while leading his troops in an attack.

Worried About Move New Representative Seeks House, School

WELLESLEY, Mass. (AP)— Mrs. Margaret M. Heckler, 35, was worried about finding a home and a school for her children when she moves to Washington to take over her duties in Congress.

A Republican, she won the 10th District Congressional seat in Tuesday's election over Democrat Patrick H. Harring.

Mrs. Heckler ran against Martin on the issue of youth. She said Congress needed

"All I want to do now is take off my shoes and rest my feet," she said. "I think I will retire for a two-day nap."

Mrs. Heckler, a lawyer as well as a housewife, bucked the displacement of state Republican leaders to run against Martin who had asked the voters for "one last term."

Martin, 52, had been a member of the U.S. House for 42 years and had been speaker twice.

The prosecution had asked two-year sentences for each defendant and fines of $30.

Memories of Hebron

A Dispute on Bricks

By SUSAN PENDLETON

In continuing the story of Hebron's early industries, White farm, and possibly others.

Hats were made by Olin Phelps before the Civil War. These were straw hats, and were probably for the southern trade.

Wooden rakes were made by Ephraim Wilcox, ancestor of the Ephraim Wilcox of later years, near Jeremy River on the old road to Colchester, up to 1850. In 1815 the Washington Manufacturing Company made was not a financial success. It was bought in 1838 by the late Phineas W. Turner, at about which time he began buying land and water-power for his silk mill, which did a thriving business following the bringing through of a railroad, known as the Airline. The later failed and the mill was destroyed by fire. There remains very little if any industry now being carried on in the town, although some outstanding men of the town still stick to farming, and that is certainly an industry.

On the same stream a paper mill was operated as early as 1810 by Daniel Burrows and son, later as a cotton mill. These mills were all destroyed by fire. In 1826 we hear of a blast furnace, deeded by Bull and Crouch to Jared and Samuel Lewis of Colchester, located at the area then known as Turnersville. The ore used was pig iron, obtained in and carted from Turnersville and Colchester, but doing the weaving of ribbons in all colors and sizes. Some women of the town made pin-money by doing what was called "picking ribbons" that is, picking off bits, perhaps with scissors, leaving the ribbons smooth and clean. Turner's range cameras were among the first failed in his industry, and

FCC Orders Realignment Of Telpak, Private Rates

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has ordered American Telephone & Telegraph Co. to bring its Telpak rates into closer alignment with the more expensive private line rates.

The FCC spokesman said that AT&T could reduce its private line rates somewhat to bring them closer to the Telpak discount rate.

But an AT&T spokesman said the private line rates, "The FCC just approved those within the last year, so you're not going to reduce them again. The only choice left is the private line rate."

AT&T first sought commission approval for Telpak service in 1961, but the FCC has kept the proposal under continual review.

The FCC had said Telpak rates discriminate against smaller private line users, in effect making them subsidize the larger users.

Eighteen firms intervened in the case under which AT&T was affirming an earlier FCC decision under which AT&T was bringing its Telpak rates into line with the private line charges.

The order affects virtually all mass communications media in the Eastern Air Lines and well as more than 1,000 large business firms.

Under the minimum Telpak rate service, called "A" charges are $15 per mile per month for 12 through Telpak, its operations voice quality circuits — or 34 would cost $47 million more each year. Eastern said its add-on cost would be about $27 million annually.

Chairman Stuart T. Saunders told AT&T began its Telpak service to compete with private Telpak "A" is a 15-circuit crowbar communications system, while "B" contains 24 lines.

Bogus Bill Raid Nets SS Agents Six 'Neighbors'

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Secret Service says almost $2 million in counterfeit $20 bills seized here were made within blocks of its office.

Agents said the "pretty fair" bills were made in the printing department of a business in downtown Atlanta.

Six persons were arrested and their baggage seized at the Atlanta airport Tuesday in what agents called the biggest bogus bill crackdown in the South.

A. B. Wenz, special agent in charge of Secret Service operations, said Wednesday the investigation was continuing, but he expected no more arrests.

Charged with possession of counterfeit currency were Norman Bergman, 38, New Orleans; Raymond Dixon, 32, Smyrna; William P. Galan, 35, Atlanta; Oreste L. Johnson, 38 and Billy W. Davis, 26, both of Marietta, Ga.; and Dewey Willard, 40, Riverdale, Ga.

Dixon and Johnson were released on $5,000 bond each. The others were held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Gemini 12 Lags Upset Timetable Of Astro-Frogs

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Men who maintain a frog farm here have been frustrated by two delays in the Gemini 12 flight.

One experiment the astronauts will carry out is to study the effect of space weightlessness on frog egg growth. They are to carry a container of freshly laid frog eggs on the four-day journey.

But the female frogs must ovulate in time with the countdown — and the two delays have upset the timetable.

Project scientists have turned to Wednesday for re-selection this year, is a third batch of frogs because the first two sets are too far along in development.

The arrest warrant charged along in development. Under the plan, the female frogs are injected with their own pituitary gland extract to induce ovulation and the eggs are stripped from the frogs six to seven hours before launch, for Derby since 1961.

Items on Display for Kiwanis Radio Auction These Kiwanians were briefly on display at Watkins Brook in the front window this week, where they are shown preparing the items for display for the Kiwanis Radio Auction to be held at the Veterans Day program on Nov. 15 and 16. The Kiwanians who have since put the display in order have removed themselves; they are, left to right, Christian Shoor of Shoor Jewelers, William Johnson of the Savings Bank of Manchester, and Richard Rothwell of the Connecticut Bank and Trust Co., who is in charge of the Radio Auction for the Kiwanis. The items, still there, are neatly arranged in the window, each labeled with the name of the store which donated it. Proceeds from the goods auctioned off go for scholarships and other worthy Kiwanis civic endeavors. (Herald photo by Flauto.)

Polish Man Awaiting Ruling On Nationality Act of 1940

WASHINGTON (AP)—Polish-born lawyer August A. Aroymyn is waiting for a ruling on his application for citizenship under the Nationality Act of 1940. Aroymyn is no longer a citizen of Poland because he claims allegiance to the United States. The reason is that while in Poland he was involved in an election for the Polish government. Aroymyn's situation is by no means unique. From 1961 through 1966, the State Department felt that U.S. citizens had lost their citizenship because they voted in foreign elections. And the same thing happened to another 428 in the first six months of this year. The State Department felt that U.S. citizens had lost their citizenship because they voted in foreign elections. Lone Political Pro Among Center-Right Reagan Aides

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ronald Reagan, California's newly elected Republican governor, has surrounded himself with a mixed band of youthful moderates and middle-aged conservatives for his assumption of power in January.

Among the most influential probably will be the new lieutenant governor, Robert Finch, generally considered a moderate.

Finch knows what can be done in the legislature and just where to compromise with the majority Democrats.

Reagan realizes Finch's value in government; that he observes political amateurs.

Reagan's first two actions pointed up the two sides of his coin.

As his executive secretary "from right arm," Reagan named Philip M. Bataglia, 51, a Los Angeles attorney and a loyal supporter of U.S. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.

Bataglia, Reagan's campaign manager, has argued with conservative Republicans who want to dump Kuchel in 1968.

Appointment of Bataglia checked Republicans who admire Kuchel, a supporter of

One of the chief homemaking interests of Mrs. Gary Cornell, 120 Delmont St. is cooking. "This interest," she says, "was influenced by my mother and two grandmothers, all wonderful cooks who enjoyed cooking."

Beaten Biscuits 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar 1/4 teaspoon baking powder 1/3 cup shortening 1/2 cup milk and water, mixed half and half

Fill flour with other dry ingredients. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse meal. Stir in liquid. Knead dough 30 seconds. Put dough through food chopper eight times using medium blade. Roll dough to one-quarter-inch thick and fold in half. Roll again to one-quarter-inch thickness. Cut out biscuits with one-inch biscuit cutter. Place ungreased, shallow pan. Fry tops with fork. Preheat oven to 350 degrees and bake biscuits 25 to 30 minutes or until lightly browned. Biscuits may be served hot or cold.

A newcomer to Manchester, Mrs. Cornell is a native of Winchester, Ky. She came to this town last June from Washington, D.C. Her husband is associate pastor of South Methodist Church.

Mrs. Cornell received a B.A. degree from Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga., and M.E.D. degree from Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C.

She is, she said, "currently enjoying the life of a homemaker," but also finds time to sing in the South Methodist Church Choir, teach a Sunday School class of three-year-olds, and do district work for the Methodist Church.

Tolland School Board Joins In Service Project

The board of education last night agreed to join the Service Center Project, and to participate with the County board of education in applying for a federal grant to establish, operate and maintain a supplementary educational center providing special services to Tolland children with other problems.

The board authorized school superintendent Robert Briarton to hire teachers for four high school programs in a motion which marked a change of policy from previous years.

The board also authorized Briarton to return when he would be in a position to discuss the idea further.

A possibility of Tolland serving the project by providing facilities for permanently handicapped children in return for other services such as psychological testing or diagnostic assistance was discussed.

No decisions could be made, however, as the project is still in the planning stages and will not be operational until funds are received from the Federal government.

Tolland considers itself ahead of other towns in the area in regards to the treatment of the perceptually handicapped child, and has maintained a limited teaching program for the past few years.

The Tolland Junior Women's Club is holding a benefit fund drive and lecture, Nov. 21, at the Tolland Junior High School to be used to train a teacher to teach the perceptually handicapped child.

Towns and cities throughout the state will be required to provide facilities for these children next fall.

The center, which would probably operate on a budget of $250,000 to $350,000 would not be able to provide all the services required by the 22 towns in the Antislavery State area, according to Tilly.

The center would not have a central housing unit for the children, but an office for administration of the services and a Central Instructional Material Center for the children.

Korea Stops Supply

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Korea says it won't be sending any additional troops to South Vietnam.

South Korean diplomats made the decision known Wednesday. They said they don't think President Johnson was referring to South Korea when he indicated at the Manila conference that South Viet Nam's allies should provide more manpower.

South Korea already has 45,000 troops in South Viet Nam, more than any other ally except the United States and South Viet Nam.

The diplomats said they did not think there was any bad feeling with the U.S. government because of the decision.

White House aides said Johnson probably won't ask any other of the allies for troops right now, in view of impending elections in Australia and New Zealand.

Cities Have Voice WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today that American cities now have a "voice in the President's Cabinet."

That voice is the year-old Department of Housing and Urban Development, Humphrey said in a speech prepared for the cornerstone laying of a building for the new department.

The one-time mayor of Minneapolis said that until the department was created, "mayors and local officials in Washington have had no place to turn — and at the same time too many plans to turn to the cities when they needed help and advice."

Humphrey predicted that the new department will help meet "on a broad, coordinated and imaginative scale, all the physical and human problems which afflict the people of the American city."

Congress provided more than $2 billion for a history book to be used to house the new Cabinet department on a redevelopment tract within site of the Capitol.

IRS Hasn't Changed WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service says you will still file your 1966 income tax return to district directors.

A new law gives the service authority to require filing of returns with regional service centers, but the service said today the new rules will be put into effect over several years, one area by area.

The switch to regional filing will enable the service to speed processing by using automatic data processing equipment installed at the several regional offices.

There ought not to be any problem on where to file, however, since the new law requires the tax instruction booklet lists the address you should use.

CAPITAL FOOTNOTES The National Association of Home Builders says few new houses will be built next year — but they'll cost more.

The Post Office Department says Belgium, Australia, Norway and the Netherlands are now using the postman's mail cart it designed 10 years ago.

The State Department says the government is checking indications that radioactive materials from an underground plutonium source in South Africa, a possible violation of the nuclear test ban treaty, may have been found.

The January draft call is 27,000 men, lowest for a full month since last summer.

19 Men Aboard Plane Missing Off Cape Cod

OTIS AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP)—An Air Force Constellation was missing today, the Air Force pending notification of next of kin. A Coast Guard spokesman said the plane left Otis at 12:35 a.m., and was last heard from by radio at 1:22 a.m. Shortly after that, ground radar contact was lost. The Coast Guard said there was no indication the plane was in trouble when contact was lost. First word of a possible crash came by radio from a small fishing vessel. A massive search was organized immediately after the fishing vessel reported seeing a plane hurtle through the fog into the rough seas. Rescue planes from Labrador and Bermuda and other Atlantic bases searched over the area seeking the lost craft. Coast Guard cutters, fishing vessels and merchant ships joined in the hunt. The searchers reported an oil slick and unidentified debris in the area where the plane was said to have crashed.

Final Gemini Space Launch Is Proceeding on Schedule

Lovell, Aldrin Set For 4-Day Adventure

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—A fiery Atlas rocket thundered into the sky Friday, pushing an Agena satellite toward orbit as a target for the Gemini 12 astronauts. The Atlas-Agena combination vaulted from a launching pad at 2:08 p.m. EST after a two-day delay and gave the last of America's two-man Gemini missions a blazing start. The Gemini 12 astronauts today prepared to rocket into orbit for a four-day adventure that will wind up the Gemini project and perhaps determine man's physical limitations in weightless space. All the news was good for the Gemini 12 mission, which was to start at 2:08 p.m. with the blazing liftoff of an Atlas rocket to boost an Agena target satellite into orbit. Lovell and Aldrin were to ride into space at 2:46 p.m. atop a Titan 2 to start the five-mile-a-second pursuit of the Agena. Troubles with an automatic pilot system in the Titan 2 forced the original Wednesday launch date to slip 48 hours. The problems were cleared up Thursday and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration flashed the go-ahead for Gemini 12 launch pad consoles and at tracking stations around the globe as technicians, their skills honed sharp by nine straight, successful launches, methodically checked out each system. While sweeping 38 times around the globe in their tiny space chariot, command pilot Lovell, veteran of last year's 14-day Gemini 7 flight, and Aldrin, making his first space trip, are to exploit lessons learned on the previous two-man Gemini flights. Major goal is to learn if man can work effectively outside an orbiting ship in a pressurized suit. Space walkers experienced their first space walk on the last of two Gemini flights and Lovell and Aldrin are to exploit lessons learned on the previous two-man Gemini flights. 4,000 More U.S. Troops Join Tay Ninh Battle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. commanders sent another brigade of 4,000 men to Tay Ninh province today as the reported enemy toll in just over a week of fighting rose to 800 dead. An estimated 25,000 or more Americans have been committed to the operation to root out the enemy from the Viet Cong stronghold 80 miles northwest of Saigon near the Cambodian border. U.S. military spokesman reported the operation, named Albatross, is "the largest U.S. action" of the Viet Nam war. Then, 102 miles southwest of Saigon. On the political front, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky announced that two more cabinet ministers were leaving his government. This brought to four the number of ministers who have resigned in weeks of dissension between civilian cabinet ministers from South Viet Nam and the natives of North Viet Nam who dominate Ky's military government. The resignations raised no immediate threat to Ky's government, Ky and the other officials of the junta held the power, and the civilians in the cabinet have a mostly advisory role. Bad weather again curtailed the air war against North Viet Nam Thursday. U.S. pilots flew most of them wives or children of military men stationed in the provincial capital of Chuong. (See Page Ten)

In Michigan Deadly Gas Escapes After Train Wreck

HOMER, Mich. (AP)—A New York Central freight heaped the truck in this southern Michigan town today, sending three tank cars filled with potentially deadly gas crashing into the base of some gasoline and fuel oil storage tanks. One of the tanks burst, spewing flaming liquid as far as a block box apparently caused the derailment of 25 of the train's cars. The train was en route from Chicago to New York. Most of the cars were refrigerated units carrying fruits and vegetables. A nearby fertilizer plant was being wet down by firemen. State police evacuated a three-block area, and nearly 1,000 of the town's 1,700 residents left their homes for safety beyond the town limits. Police used balloons to warn away the curious and to evacuate homes. Robert McCulloch, Central trainmaster from Jackson, Mich., at first identified the gas as chlorine. A spokesman for the New York Central said the tank cars carried vinyl and acetate chlorides which can, under heat, combine to produce phosgene. "A Dictionary of Science" says phosgene is a poisonous, colorless gas with a penetrating smell resembling musty hay that was widely used during World War I. It can produce nausea when inhaled and can be fatal in great quantity.
