Hebron Candlelight Service Set By Congregational Church

The annual Candlelight service will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in the Hebron Congregational Church. Charles Ferguson of Coventry will be organist and viola soloist will be William Leary.

The program will consist of instrumental music, carols and passages from the Bible about the Nativity.

Disc Jockey to appear: Joel Cash, of radio station WDRC, will be the disc jockey at the Christmas Eve party coquette this evening at Phelps Hall on Rt. 80.

Along with Cash, there will be a guest band from the station to furnish music for the evening.

Young people of high school age through 21 are invited to attend with a special invitation to those who do not attend college for the holidays. An admission charge of 90 cents will be made to defray expenses and will be sold.

The program has been arranged by Mrs. Barbara Wythe, Dr. Benton Critchfield and Mrs. Marjorie Montandon. The hall was made available by the St. Peter's Church.

It is planned that if this is successful, other such evenings will be planned in the future.

School Population 557

Ray Gardner reported the enrollment as of Nov. 30 was 557 at the elementary school. On Nov. 21, the first "case conference" was held on a family which had qualified under the program under Title 1 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The teacher of the child, the school nurse, the supervisor, the developmental examiner and the principal met to discuss the diagnostic work done on each child. The group meeting to share information was termed highly successful.

The Hebron Elementary School has been cooperating with the regional district which includes the town of Hampton, Chaplin and Southbury in the program of visiting

Plant Expanding

TERRYVILLE (AP)—The Iseli Swiss Screw Machine Co. announced today it will build a new plant in Williamsport, Pa., to meet what it calls an increasing demand for its products.

The company manufactures precision parts for watches, missiles, cameras, electronic equipment and other instruments.

The announcement said investment in the land, building and equipment for the plant is expected to amount to about $1 million in the initial phase of operation in the first year, estimated employment at about 150.

Bold Economic Reform Soon in Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—A sweeping economic reform which would allow citizens to judge to be one of the boldest in the Soviet orbit is just around the corner in Czechoslovakia, according to a potential benefits and hardships.

More realistic pricing, work incentives and greater autonomy for the managers of state-owned enterprises are among features of the new system, which will be introduced after the economy suffered an outright slump in 1963.

Things may get worse for a time during the transition to the new system before they improve. Lower living standards, layoffs and even shortages of necessities may be in store for a time.

The first stage of a vast revision of wholesale prices takes effect Jan. 1. The revision is to make prices reflect market conditions and give managers the yardstick to find out how plants can operate profitably.

Wholesale prices are to be increased by an overall average of 20 per cent, with turnover tax to be adjusted accordingly. Rumors are prevalent that a lot of retail prices will go up in the weeks of the wholesale hike. It is difficult to see how this can be avoided in the long run if the reform is to be meaningful.

Party officials insist that any increases will be offset by reductions of other prices, leaving the overall retail price level unchanged.

Eventually, most of the prices are to be based on supply and demand with only those of a few basic production materials and food staples to remain frozen centrally. The process will be spread over several years to soften the impact.

Jan. 1 also marks the beginning of devaluing which puts an end to the equally weighted system of Stalinist times. In the past, anyone who worked harder than the others in his factory just caused an increase of the working course. In the future, hard work is to pay off.

The new reform guarantees only the best of the state-

Tires, Chemicals Suppliers File Bids with Town

Bids were received today from four Manchester suppliers for furnishing the town with its tire and tube needs to the end of 1967. The bids, based on discounts from list prices, will be studied before a contract is awarded.

Manchester-Nichols Tire Co. offered a 10 per cent plus an added five per cent discount on Goodyear tires. Cole Motors offered a 50 per cent discount on Metallon tires, manufactured by the Mohawk Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio. Seymour Auto Stores offered a 50 plus five per cent discount on tubes, but none from list prices on tires, both named Scott and manufactured by the McCrary Tire and Rubber Co. of Indiana, Pa. And Calder of Manchester offered discounts, varying from 10 per cent to 50 per cent, on Road King tires, manufactured by the Dayton (Ohio) Tire and Rubber Co.

Bids were received yesterday opening today on a variety of contracts for the town of Manchester. The bids, which were received by the town's engineering department, include contracts for the water and sewerage departments.

WATCH THE FRENCH TEAM IN WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When the 1967 world championships are held next May in France, we must watch out for the French team, which will be representing Europe. It was no accident that they won the European championship in Warsaw last September, as we can see by examining a hand from the match between France and England.

Opening lead—ten of spades. East's opening bid was the "weak notrump", much favored in England. West's opening lead was pretty normal, but it gave South a chance to lead.

South took the king of hearts, led a heart to the ace and ruffed a heart. This cleared K-4-3. What do you say?

Answers: Pass. In most bidding systems this hand is not a bid. It would be an opening bid, if you were third hand, after two passes, you might open with a trump from dummy. East could step up with the ace of trumps and take one trump from dummy. East could step up with the ace of trumps and take one trump from dummy.

Another famous feature of Chester is a chandler in the Grosvenor House Hotel, which is a fine example of a 17th century house. It is situated in the second floor, down through the ceiling of the hotel lobby, and was constructed of wood and stone and marble, wrought steel and stained glass windows.

From Edinburgh we took a picture in Chester but we did see its fine 14th century castle, and had a little better luck on the other end of the city. The weather cleared as we headed south and we visited the cathedral with three apses. The cathedral was the birthplace of Dr. Johnson in 1709.

By the time we reached St. Giles Cathedral in the mile with its lantern tower, was built about 1486 and contains the graves and monuments of many famous Scots, and the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier" of the Order of the Knights of the Thistle.

Other famous buildings on the mile include the 16th century home of John Knox; St. 70s, and we visited all the places associated with the Queen Mary, Queen of Scots, and the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier" of the Order of the Knights of the Thistle.

Edinburgh Impresses, Villages Appealing

Edinburgh is an impressive city, especially at night, when the castle, high on a hill overlooking the city, is lighted and stands out against the dark sky. Its walls protect in their entire circuit of two miles. The Romans gave Chester its street plan, its most distinctive architectural feature. In however, the Rows, they consist of a double tier of shops, one at ground level and the other at first floor level, each provided with a footway, the upper one being set back over the second story of the buildings. ### LBJ Returns To Ranch For Yule Season

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson has returned to his Texas ranch for the Christmas holidays.

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, flew here Friday night. Mrs. Johnson is scheduled to appear at a Christmas bazaar sale at Johnson City today. She planned to contribute bread and preserves made at the LBJ ranch.

Earlier Friday, Johnson visited former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, recuperating from a gallbladder operation at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Johnson said he and Eisenhower conferred about "one or two things I am going to do." He did not elaborate.

"I think he's on the rapid road to recovery," Johnson said of Eisenhower, adding that the five-star general was in good spirits, alert and very interested in "what is happening in the affairs I deal with."

Earlier leaving for Texas, Johnson conferred at the White House with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and other officials, including Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Events in the World

Some Welcomes
BREKIN (AP) — President Johnson will get the same warm welcomes President John F. Kennedy did in 1963 if he visits West Berlin, Heinrich Albert, the city's mayor, says.

Asked about reports of a possible Johnson tour to Europe next spring, Albert told a newspaperman Friday night: "I personally would be very glad. I do not believe it would be a real German visit if he did not come to Berlin."

"I believe the Berliners would give the kind of memorable welcome that we experienced with his predecessor."

On his visit to this Communist-ruled city three years ago, he was greeted by cheers and he delighted the crowd by saying: "I am a Berliner."

Johnson visited the city in 1961, when he was vice president.

Break Thwarted At Luncheonette

A break and an attempted break were investigated by police yesterday night when a group of about 15 persons took place about the same time and both on Green Rd.

Someone broke into Sam's Luncheonette, but dropped their key as they made a quick exit after being surprised by someone, police say.

Police say coins in a cigar box were found on the floor. The money came from pinball machines and the jukebox which had been pried open. Items which intruders had carried for taking but which were left behind were a box of tissues, a pack of cigarettes, a coin and a portable radio.

Police say glass on the front door had been smashed to gain entry, and exit was made through the back door which was still open when police arrived.

At Wallace's Food Store police said they had been called to an attempt was made to enter the store from the rear door, but police say, and the act appeared to have taken place during the same time that Sam's Luncheonette was entered.

Body Recovered

MONTREAL (AP) — Divers recovered a second body early today from the coastal freighter Cabot, which sank last Friday while taking on cargo in Montreal harbor.

The body was found in the cabin of the vessel's second officer, Gerhard Leblond of Cap Sable, who says he was aboard the ship when it sank.

Admission for adults will be 75 cents.

Dr. Allison Hesse, interim pastor of the Second Congregational Church, will be the officiant at the 11 a.m. service at the church.

Nation Demands Spending Curbs

NEW YORK (AP) — A new breed of criminal lawyer, master of most any lawyer will do, is still open when police arrived.

Long, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and assistant Democratic leader, said Vietnam war costs may produce a $20 billion deficit next fiscal year unless Johnson raises taxes or sharply cuts nondefense spending. He said he hopes a tax increase can be avoided.

Mahon said the "bulletin" in the next Congress will be in the House and Senate Appropriations Committees. The committee's recommendations generally are followed by Congress.

Water Board to Discuss Regional Sewage Disposal

HARTFORD (AP) — A frequently incommensurate proposal to discourage municipal water treatment plants, building many small local sewage disposal plants will be considered Monday by the Water Resources Commission.

The proposal, contained in a report by the commission, is to plan the smaller plants are planned without consideration of how wastes discharged into the waterways they enter, or how regional plants could be used.

Increased costs associated with the new proposal could be offset by new and improved federal and state grants for pollution control, the report said.

Replacing Butter with Guns

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
 AP Special Correspondent

The Soviet Union's gun-butter budget posture has become a political strategy for Moscow.

The budget, reflecting for 1967 the highest rate of military spending in a decade, indicates a substantial hardening of attitudes toward the United States and rearmament of some of the more critical tactics of the Cold War in a revolutionary situation.

There are several causes.

First — According to information from Moscow, the Kremlin is planning to increase its military spending in U.S. government, as if fearing that the United States will intervene anywhere in the world in a revolutionary situation.

Second — Official Soviet, the events in China, upon which Moscow has placed its bet, are seen as the real future of Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Third — The United States is far ahead in experience with guerrilla war, as well as in the development of new weapons, nuclear tactics and strategy, new deployment and logistical techniques and the like, learned from such developments as Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

Coventry Town Bands and Choirs Set Music Festival Monday

The Coventry school system's bands and choir invite the public to attend their "Christmas Festival of Music" at 8 p.m. Monday in the Coventry High school gymnasium.

This year, the festival will consist of many different musical organizations throughout the school system and feature a variety of musical folkies which will provide a most interesting evening for all Coventry residents, both young and old.

The performing groups will include different levels of elementary school choirs and a high school choir. On the instrumental level, the audience will be able to view the entire program from the all-new fourth grade Tonette Band up through the elementary Junior High. Also for this year, smaller instrumental ensembles will be introduced from the elementary to high school level.

Carl J. Salina, director of instrumental music; Ronald P. Hodge, high school choir director, and Denise Nagy, elementary choir, will direct their respective groups during the program.

Admission for adults will be 75 cents.

Dr. Allison Hesse, interim pastor of the Second Congregational Church, will be the officiant at the 11 a.m. service at the church.

Baby Sitter Service Has Come to Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow which announced the new service, said it has received many calls from parents who want to get their first baby sitter service next year.

Parents in the Soviet capital now have to rely on relatives or friends if they want to go out with the children at home. The custom of neighboring girls working as baby sitters is little known here.

With the organization set up, a telephone call will solve the problem. A sister will come to play until parents get back.

This is only one of several innovations aimed at making Moscow life easier.

Starting next year the Moscow will be able to call for a planned to play at a wedding party.

An interior decorator to give advice on improving the appearance of the family apartment.

A student to tutor a child having trouble with school work.

A dressmaker to alter clothing to conform to the newest style.

Someone to look after the flowers and pets while the family is on vacation.

A cook to prepare food for parties.

A nurse to care for sick relatives.

A small jazz orchestra for private dances.

Leasing, rigs and keys already have been great success.

Added Incentive for Joe Namath

Television Death Watch For Dallas and Buffalo

Buffalo Fans Hopeful Jets Can Top Pats

NEW YORK (AP)—For Boston, the American Football League's Eastern Division title was at stake today in its game with the New York Jets.

But for the Jets, Joe Namath, at stake was the following:

—A weekend in Buffalo.

—A free lunch with quarterback Jack Kemp of the Buffalo Bills.

—A haircut by Kemp's barber.

A pressbox seat for the Buffalo-Kansas City AFL championship game.

A Buffalo radio station offered all that to Namath but with one catch — the Jets had to beat the Patriots, thereby dropping them into a tie with Buffalo for first place in the East.

The Bills then could win the title Sunday by defeating Denver.

Even if he did his part in trying to win that Bill collection, Namath had to help help from the Jets' defense.

For it was up to those 11 players to stop the Patriots' one-man offensive, Jim Nance.

Nance needed 120 yards against New York to become the second player in pro football to gain 1,000 yards on the ground, and indications were good that he could do it.

Nance is amassing a total of 1,380 yards, Nance has gained more than 100 each in seven of the last eight games, and he's averaged 15.5 yards a game through the season.

"He's not the whole ball club," Boston coach Mike Holovak said. "The defense is there, but it's been a big help. He's helped me since 1961. He's helped the defense. I don't think you can write down return team fall."

The action climaxed a somewhat hectic week in the Illinois athletic picture.

Last Monday, head football coach Pete Elliott was expected to be named athletic director. However, the resignation of Doug Mills following last month following a weight room team at the same time.

Dr. Henry reported that he had resigned with respect to grant-in-aid assistance to athletes had been brought to his attention.

"Dr. Henry believes that he is in possession of all facts," said Elliott, who is the athletic director of the University of Illinois.

Conference Commissioner Bill Reed announced Friday night an investigation was launched following a report to the Big Ten office by Dr. Henry, president of the University of Illinois.

Reed reported that he had resigned with respect to grant-in-aid assistance to athletes had been brought to his attention.

"Dr. Henry believes that he is in possession of all facts," said Elliott, who is the athletic director of the University of Illinois.

Lou Saban to Return From Top to Bottom

NEW YORK (AP)—Lou Saban, on top of the American Football League when he left, is returning—at the bottom.

There can be little left to conquer in professional football, Saban said on the second day of this year when he left the Buffalo Bills after coaching them to two consecutive AFL championships.

The day after he left the Bills, Saban agreed to a four-year contract to coach at the University of Maryland.

The school announced his resignation Friday and he returned to the Denver Broncos, in last place in the AFL's Western Division, said Saban. Saban had coached the Denver Broncos for two years, and he was named to the Kansas job and Vince Gibson was given the job of starting Kansas State on the right road after two winless seasons.

The Broncos would not disclose the salary that helped draw the ex-year-old Saban back to pro football, but owner Gerald H. Phillips said it puts him on the upper levels of pro football coaches.

Following his property at Buffalo, Saban found out again what it was like to have a boss as Maryland finished with a 4-4 record. He might not find the Broncos much different — at least not at first.

In other coaching developments, Bill Dooley, an assistant at Georgia, turned down the head job at Mississippi State and then was reported to be especially on defense.

Bluebonnet Seen as Low Scoring Tilt

HOUSTON (AP)—Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught and Texas Coach Darrell Royal took their teams to the Bluebonnet Bowl today and expected a low-scoring game.

The weatherman predicted clear to partly cloudy skies, a temperature of about 55, and northerly winds 8 to 10 miles an hour — a forecast that helped assure a big crowd in Rice Stadium for the seventh edition of the charity classic.

The national telecast of the game over ABC was blacked out in the Houston area. Kickoff was scheduled for 2:30 p.m. EST.

The host teams at one of the strongest-finishing college teams in the country, but in the game news conference, each coach was appreciative of the other team's talents.

"I expect it will be a low-scoring game," Royal said. "You can't look at the facts and expect to run up a lot of statistics on a team like Mississippi."

Mississippi is a one-touchdown favorite going into the game, and Royal told the newsman Friday, "You have to have a lot of respect for them — especially on defense."

Grant-In Assistance to Stars Brought to Light by Big Ten

CHICAGO (AP)—Alleged irregularities in the University of Illinois' football program have resulted in a full-scale investigation by the Big Ten Conference.

Conference Commissioner Bill Reed announced Friday night an investigation was launched following a report to the Big Ten office by Dr. Henry, president of the University of Illinois.

Reed reported that he had resigned with respect to grant-in-aid assistance to athletes had been brought to his attention.

"Dr. Henry believes that he is in possession of all facts," said Elliott, who is the athletic director of the University of Illinois.

Handlebar Mustache Davidson Just Easy Going Grid Assassin

OAKLAND, Calif. (NBA)—Davidson is a football "foolish," he says, of those Volkswagen bugs so fast they can't make room.

Once a week during the football season, Ben Davidson gives his handlebar mustache a twist and goes out to play the role of a "foolish" for the Oakland Raiders.

Ben hasn't tied any horses to the railroad track but he has intimidated most of the quarterbacks in the American Football League.

His nickname is "The Tree." It is an excellent description. Davidson is 6-8, 280-pounds.

It is natural for people who have seen Ben rush a quarterback to think of him as a man of violence, a man who exists to destroy. That is the way the public eye like to picture him.

The picture isn't accurate, though. Easy Going Davidson is, by his own admission, one of the "easier going" players in professional football.

John Ooms' Nets Two Swim Places

John Ooms, eight-year-old youngster from Manchester, came in second in the 25-yard freestyle swim and third in the backstroke at the recent 12th annual Greater Hartford indoor swimming championships.

John, who is registered in the Manchester recreation and park department swim program, was encouraged to participate by his instructor, Mrs. Anne Rothwell, who says he has great potential.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ooms, of Birch Mountain Rd.

Head of Travel

"Arouse these people don't think too much about a beard or a mustache," Ben said. "Beckley, you know, is just a few miles away. I think people wonder if I'm a beak. If I am, I'm the highest paid beak in around."

Ben's fondness for mustaches and beards comes from his dislike of shaving. His fondness for travel dates back to his youth in East Los Angeles. "My father used to take me to the national parks on camping trips," Ben said.

Then during his stay at the University of Washington, Ben majored in geography, earning his degree in 1961.

"One of the things I like about football," Ben said, "is the opportunity it gives me to travel. When I was with the Washington Redskins in 1961-1962, I drove across the country going through Canada and returning by way of Spain. That was a great experience."

Ben said, "I have a good time and I'm very much into it."

Standouts with Springfield in the American Hockey League this season have been rugged defenseman Dave Amadio, left, and center Charlie Williams, right. Amadio is regarded to be one of the toughest and surest tacklers in the coliseum at 8 o'clock.

Weaver Bools Debut Of Indians, Romps

By PETE ZANARDI

Hartford. The Beavers dominating every facet of the game, save spirit, 35-8. Weaver High spoiled Manchester High's basketball debut, 72-40, last night in it became apparent early that the combination of Ben Matthews, Jeff Newkirk and Wayne Jones was just too much for the consecutive defeat for the Beavers getting his first win with only two seconds gone. The Beavers had nine tallies before Manchester got on the board, taking a 18-1 first turn lead, then held the Red and White to a single basket in the second quarter.

It was a runaway in another sense as well, the second half only requiring 12 minutes of action getting a bit rough on the small Weaver floor, yet a limited number of whistles sounded.

"The locals should be in their class Tuesday when they return home for the O'Connell opener with Coach High of West Hartford. Conrad was edged by Platt last night 66-65.

"I'm not completely dissatisfied with this team," Coach Phil Hyde said. "You have some things that need to be worked out here, they fought all the way."

"It was Weaver's height advantage that was the key to the victory. I'd guess that maybe a third of their shooting came from their rebounding and play under the basket."

The Beavers controlled both ends of the court. Matthews and Newkirk were effective in the rebounding department.

Conrad had 30 points and Newkirk 12 for Coach Frank Scelzo's club which saw 10 players get on the floor. Weaver shot 40 percent in the first half, 45 percent in the second.

The Indians did manage to make a game of it in the second half, running about even with the host club which kept the starting five active into the final minutes.

Matthews scored 28 points, Newkirk 12, Jones 10, Conrad 8, and Hyde 6. Hyde had 10 rebounds and 10 assists.

Notes from the Little Black Book

Bill Bracken of Manchester, captain of the Milford Academy cross country team during the past season, was named by his teammates as the most outstanding barrier. Bracken was the recipient of a trophy. Each league bowler at the Holiday Lanes has received a trophy — a Christmas present from the management, a ticket good for one free game to the bowling. Amy Perky, assistant manager, reports this has been a practice of the Holiday Lanes the past few years.

Here in There

UConn sports publicist Joe Solley reports admission is free to all UConn home hockey week-end games. The pucksters will be in January at Storrs against an instant with Parilli's team. # Lyman Five Scores Win Over Cheney Leading from whistle to whistle, Lyman dominated over Cheney Tech, 52-37, last night at the Cheney gym. It was the second consecutive defeat for the Rangers after winning the opener against Ella Tech a week ago. The Lyman crew had 11 players in the scoring column, led by Bud Randall's 23 points with Coach McCall adding 12 more. The visitors outscored Cheney from the floor 24-23 and from the line, 14-11.

Mike Chmielinski continued to pour down 16 points for the home team while Allan Cox contributed 12 tallies. Chmielinski continues to be impressive each time out for the Rangers.

It was a battle of the unbeatens, with East polishing off its fourth straight triumph. Aquinas won on a 18-game winning streak. Once their players were riding an 18-game winning streak, Coach Don Burns remarked, "Then we had a two-point lead over Aquinas with five seconds left, and we were riding an 18-game winning streak. # Dramatic Overtime Win Fashioned by East Five

By RICH DYER

Hollywood thrillers took a back seat to basketball last night—at least for a moment—as the East Five won a dramatic overtime win over the Bruins.

Aggressive Play

Bullets Win Under Magic Eye of Shue

The Baltimore Bullets, under Coach Gene Shue, have won as many games in the past 11 days as they did in the first 81 days of the season.

The Bulls trimmed Detroit 121-113 Friday night for their third straight National Basketball Association victory and won in six games since Shue was named coach Dec. 5.

In other games, Philadelphia won its 28th straight home game, tying a league record in beating St. Louis 124-118, and Chicago's Cincinnati, 129-120.

Fresh Career for Old Gaffer

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Tiger, the old gaffer who appeared all washed up eight months ago, today had a fresh career ahead of him as light heavyweight champion of the world at age 37.

Tiger's first fighting business ahead for the valiant ring warrior from Nigeria probably will be a return bout with Joe Torrea, the 30-year-old New York Yorker he upset and dethroned Friday night on a popular and unanimous 15-round decision at Madison Square Garden.

They are Miss Mary Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pierce of 18 Bowers St., and Miss Janet Conner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner of 19 Virginia Rd.

Police Report Minor Crashes

Two minor accidents were reported to the police yesterday. About 6:30 yesterday evening a car driven by Richard A. Collis, 19, of East Hartford hit a car driven by Philip Bloom, 69, of 579 Center St. Police say the Bloom vehicle was proceeding east on W. Center St. and attempted to turn left into Henderson Rd. in face of the oncoming Collis car.

Yesterday morning shortly before 8, a car driven by Milton Coslit, 17, of 73 Pine St. hit the rear of a car driven by Jacquelyn M. Stasko of 65 Durant St. Police say the Stasko car passed a parked truck on Brookfield St. and had to stop in the traffic lane for other cars. The Coslit vehicle also passed the truck, saw the Stasko vehicle in front of it but it was too late to avoid hitting it, police say.

NEW COLONIAL DIRECTOR

Clifton M. Bockstoce was recently elected to the board of directors with the Colonial Co. to fill the unexpired term of the late William Holman.

Bockstoce, a Haverford College and Harvard Business School graduate, joined Putnam, Clifton M. Bockstoce.

Coffin & Burr in 1962 after 27 years as Operations Manager of the Eastern Division of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. He is a partner of the investment firm and is in charge of their Payroll Investment Services.

Bockstoce is also a director of XTRA, Inc., of Boston and the Dime Savings Bank of Hartford. He serves as a trustee of the Wadsworth Athenaeum, Bushnell Memorial Hall and the Institute of Living.

PROMOTED AT AM CAM

Robert M. Morton of 109 N. Elm St. has been named assistant treasurer with the American Cam Co. of Farmington.

Morton joined AmCam in January 1965 as its office manager. Previously, he was employed as office manager and chief accountant of a tool and die company in Bloomfield.

Born in Scranton, Pa., he graduated from the University of Scranton, and served with the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. He is married to the former Celeste Reese of Scranton and the Morton's have two children, Nancy, a senior at Manchester High School, and David, a freshman at the University of Connecticut.

American Cam Co. was organized in 1947. The company manufactures cams and tools for automatic screw machines and special precision cams for a wide variety of machinery, including business equipment, computers, aircraft and missiles.

WINS MILLION STAMPS

Mrs. Everett R. Kennedy of 87 Phelps Rd. recently won one million Top Value stamps in Popular Markets Top Value "Barrel of Fun" sweepstakes. Mrs. Kennedy took second prize in the sweepstakes contest, and said she and her husband would probably take a long-awaited trip to Ireland with the winnings.

First prize was a 1967 Chevrolet Camaro which went to G. J. Gregory of Hartford.

The sweepstakes was a fill-out-the-coupon type of promotion, and no purchase was necessary to enter.

FIRST HARTFORD GAINS

First Hartford Realty Corp., a nationally known real estate development company, recently reported record income and a sharp increase in earnings for the six months ended Sept. 30.

Stanley M. Ozimek, service manager at Moriarty Bros., Inc., left, and Thomas N. Carpenter, shop foreman, center, receive awards from Charles Churchill, representative of Lincoln-Mercury from Springfield, Mass. for their effective handling of Lincoln Continental service problems. Moriarty Bros. ranks first in New England, and fifth in the eastern region, in the Continental Service Satisfaction program. The awards were presented during the Moriarty Bros. annual Christmas party held recently at Willie's Steak House. (Herald photo by Sateris.)

Neil H. Ellis, president, said income for the six months rose to a record $1,244,885 from $939,059 for the same period last year. Earnings before depreciation and amortization increased to $305,519, or 52 cents a share, up from $243,811 or 41 cents a share a year earlier.

EMPLOYEE HONORED

Miss Mary Wenzler, who has been associated with the Schultz Beauty Salons for 37 years, was recently honored at a luncheon at the Hotel America in Hartford with 10 other employees who have worked for over 25 years with the salons.

William Schultz and George Daniels, co-owners of Schultz Beauty Salons gave Miss Wenzler a gold watch.

BRIEFS

Joseph E. Elliott of Chester, son of Mrs. James Elliott of 20 Chestnut St. has opened an antique shop in a new location in Chester, Connecticut. The shop is located in an old blacksmith's shop at Ordway's Mill in the town. Elliott is a native of Manchester.

Frank J. Dirrigl, manager of the W. T. Grant store at 815 Main St. recently announced record sales for Grant's stores for the month ended Nov. 30. Sales for the Grant's chain were up over 12 per cent, rising over $10 million dollars compared with the $84,531,263 in sales for November of last year. This is the 20th consecutive month in which the national general merchandise retail store chain has achieved record sales.

Kaman Aircraft Corp. has again made cost-of-living pay increases of three cents an hour, effective Dec. 5 for its hourly employees. Comparable increases have been made in pay scales of salaried personnel. The company gave its people a three per cent general increase in January.

Western Union has recently introduced a new service, Perfume-by-Wire. Perfume can be ordered by wire and delivered coast-to-coast in the short time it takes for a telegram to arrive. The perfume is delivered with the sender's personal message on a specially designed telegram blank. The service went into effect Dec. 12.

Police Arrests Renewal Bids Due Jan. 8

Ray A. Miller, 22, of 195 Spruce St. was charged with reckless driving yesterday afternoon.

Miller was the driver of a car which hit a utility pole on W. Center St. near Bremen Rd., on Dec. 3, police report. Miller and three passengers in the vehicle were taken to Manchester Memorial Hospital after the accident, and police say Miller just recently got out of the hospital.

He is scheduled to appear in court on Jan. 9.

Bids will be opened Jan. 8 for the demolition of approximately 70 structures in the North End Renewal area, to make room for the construction of a shopping center, garden apartments, office buildings, light manufacturing facilities and, possibly, a new 8th District Firehouse.

The bids will be opened at 11 a.m. in the 386 Main St. offices of the Manchester Redevelopment Agency.

The $2 million renewal project is being financed by a federal grant, plus state and local contributions. The town's share is $120,000 in funds, plus an equal amount in provided facilities, such as Robertson Park.

The structures to be demolished are on Depot Sq., N. Main St., N. School St., Mintz Court and Nelson Pl.

Their clearance will permit the installation of new utilities plus the relocation of N. Main St. from N. School St. to Oakland St.

The structures to be demolished include 43 buildings, 15 garages, 6 sheds, and 6 oil storage tanks.

Bid specifications call for the demolition of 8 to 10 structures in January, about 5 in February and the rest in ensuing months to November.

Grange Parcel Sold to Annulli

Frederick C. Annulli, owner of the Hartford Rd. "Dairy Queen," has purchased a 1.14-acre parcel from the Manchester Grange for relocating his operation when the state takes his present property for Rt. 6 relocation. The purchase price was approximately $26,000.

The new parcel, on Hartford Rd., opposite and just west of Wadwell Rd., will house a new type of "Dairy Queen," a drive-in, featuring charcoal broiled foods.

Annulli said today that his business, like others on Hartford Rd., is about a year away from closing. He said that he will start construction on his new building in the fall of next year.

The Grange had owned the parcel for several years, with the thought of building a Grange Hall. However, that proposal was abandoned, and the organization meets in Orange Hall.

BENCH WARRANT ISSUED

NEW LONDON (AP) — Superior Court Judge Joseph E. Klau issued a bench warrant Friday charging Mrs. Antoinette Foster with first-degree murder of her Navy officer husband.

Judge Klau scheduled a grand jury session for Jan. 3.

Mrs. Foster, a 35-year-old organist and piano teacher, has been held since Nov. 13 on a murder charge in the fatal shooting of her husband, Lt. Cmdr. John B. Foster, in their New London home.

Foster was on assignment in the Pentagon and visited home weekdays.

Counsel Sums Up In Vennard Case

going into his cellar, and getting a hammer.

The prosecutor said: "The state doesn't need to show a motive, just that a crime has been committed. There is no element of provocation, nothing to suggest that Mrs. Vennard tried to ward off the blows or there was any struggle."

I believe that if there is sufficient time to form intent and premeditation, that's all the law requires."

Atty. Stoughton told the court that "not every mental disease relieves the defendant from what he's done. He may have a mental disease which affects his judgment, and he may not."

Pointing out testimony from two Hartford psychiatrists who examined Vennard after the alleged murder, Atty. Stoughton said that "a schizophrenic may function in his job and life and be able to distinguish between right and wrong. We're concerned with defendant's capacity on June 9."

Atty. Stoughton reminded the jury that no witnesses were present at the time of the alleged murder. "There were only two people there June 9, and one of them is dead now."

The prosecutor also showed the jury photographs taken in the Manchester police station the night of June 9 which showed Vennard covering his face with both hands.

"He certainly was aware of what he was doing then," Atty. Stoughton said.

Vennard, 23, is charged with first degree murder in the June 9 hammer death of his mother, Mae Vennard.

The trial will resume in Hartford Superior Court at 10 a.m. Tuesday when Judge Arthur H. Healey will instruct the jury as to the law and the possible verdicts.

They are: First degree murder, punishable by either death or life imprisonment without possibility of parole; second degree, punishable by life imprisonment; manslaughter; maximum imprisonment 15 years; acquittal; not guilty by reason of insanity.

If the jury finds first degree murder, it must decide also which of the two sentences, death or life imprisonment, will be imposed.

The defense rested its case at one o'clock yesterday afternoon after Atty. Gryk questioned his last defense witness, Vennard's father, Alfred. The state offered no rebuttal.

Nearly 80 state and defense witnesses, including psychiatrists, psychologists, school teachers, police officers, and Vennard's acquaintances, testified during the trial.

Choirs to Sing By Candlelight

The South Methodist Church Choirs will present their annual Candlelight Service in the church sanctuary tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.

The Chancel Choir, Youth Fellowship and the Bell Choirs will be under the direction of Jack B. Grove, church organist and choir director. Mrs. Albert Kaibeleich will direct the Junior and Wesley Choirs, in the traditional evening of Christmas music. The Rev. Dr. J. Manley Shaw the Rev. Mr. Richard W. Dupee and the Rev. Mr. Gary S. Cornell will also participate in the service. There will be a free will offering taken during the evening.

At 7 p.m., Frederick Rogers, carillonist, will present a carillon concert of traditional Christmas Carols. The public is invited to attend both of these events.

Prior to the Candlelight Service, families of South Church will meet at 5:45 p.m. in Cooper Hall for a box supper. Members are reminded to bring gifts, with wrapping paper and ribbon attached, to the supper for the Mansfield State Training Center.

IMPROVEMENTS DUE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency has approved $83,846 for improvements at two Connecticut airports for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Bridgeport Municipal Airport will receive $62,076 and Danbury Municipal Airport $21,772.

Does TV A Capote Memory Tip the Unstable?

NEW YORK (AP) — One reaction to this week's NBC broadcast of "The Doomsday Flight" presents a perennial television dilemma. The show was a routine thriller about a bomb planted by a madman on an airliner.

Three airlines reported that after the broadcast they received anonymous bomb threats. It would be difficult to prove that the program stimulated the threats, but TV programs have had strange effects on some viewers.

Several years ago, for instance, doctors discovered what someone called the "Gunsmoke syndrome." It seemed that many fans of Westerns were trying to outdraw the TV Matt Dillons and a lot of fumbler's accidentally shot themselves in the foot.

It has been written many times that too many TV shows provide a blueprint of crimes for the impressionable or sick-minded. After all these seasons, even a beginner must know about telltale fingerprints but he also must have gotten the message that, in television anyway, crime doesn't pay.

Even so, it seems to this viewer that many programs, including "The FBI" and "Felony Squad," which had the blessings of law enforcement agencies, frequently show criminal acts in too much detail. And it seems that the criminals often are caught by one stroke of official good luck.

Action and excitement are the basic ingredients of so many TV programs, from Westerns to cops-and-robbers, it would be difficult if not impossible to turn out many programs that would appeal to large audiences if all action had to be weighed against the possibility that some deranged person might be stimulated to try to copy them.

DISNEY TRIBUTE

NBC planned to go ahead with Sunday night's scheduled broadcast of the Walt Disney hour despite Thursday's death of its celebrated producer-host.

The program, showing the sights of Disneyland, contains more commentary than usual by the quiet-mannered man who created Mickey Mouse.

It is expected that the program will open with a brief tribute to Disney. It was reported that efforts are being made to have the tribute spoken by David Sarnoff, board chairman of NBC's parent Radio Corporation of America or "someone of equal stature."

THOMAS RETURNING

Danny Thomas, it was officially confirmed Thursday, will return to weekly television, with an hour show next season. Thomas quit his long-playing situation comedy three years ago when it was in the top 10. He can fill the new program as he chooses with dramatic shows, musicals, comedy or whatever.

During the past two seasons his variety specials have pleased the public.

LESLIE CARON REPLACED

Diane Cilento has replaced Leslie Caron in the planned two-hour version of "Dial M for Murder." Lawrence Harvey and Hugh O'Brien will also appear in it. Miss Cilento was in the movie "Tom Jones."

TV Movies a Chancy Venture

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Much has been written about how the movie companies supply movies to television. Less publicized is the fact that television is also providing features for theaters.

This is nothing new. The film companies tried to cash in on the immense success of stars and programs in the new medium. Only one was a success. "Dragnet" was expanded to feature length and it grossed $5 million, a whopping figure in 1954.

Other efforts failed. Warner Bros. starred Milton Berle, then Mr. Television, in "Always Leave Them Laughing," but he didn't. Features were made of "Our Miss Brooks," "The Lone Ranger," "The Goldbergs," etc., all with scant success.

Lucille Ball and Desi Arnez scored in "The Long, Long Trailer" at the peak of their television fame, though they did not play their "I Love Lucy" roles. Another film with the pair, "Forever Darling," was a failure.

Now the studios are taking another flier at mining film subjects from television. The most successful venture has been MGM's conversion of segments of "The Man From U.N.C.L.E." into big-screen attractions. The popularity of stars Robert Vaughn and David McCallum has helped push the features to greater income than some of the studio's regular movies.

20th Century-Fox followed suit

Highlights

"Mr. Magoo's Christmas Carol" will be rebroadcast tonight on CBS 7:30-8:30. With Jim Backus as the voice of Mr. Magoo, the program offers a cartoon version of Dickens' "Christmas Carol".... Anna Moffo is a guest on Perry Como's Christmas program Monday 9-10 p.m. on NBC.... Bing Crosby and Danny Kaye star in "White Christmas" tonight 9-11:30 on NBC.... Chad Mitchell and Judy Collins sing folk songs in "Tell It on the Mountain" Sunday on CBS 10-10:30 a.m.

"Christmas with Lorne Greene," a half-hour program of song, will be shown tonight at 8:30...Bradford Dillman stars in the movie, "Francis of Assisi," Sunday 9-11 p.m. on ABC....The noted actor Maurice Evans plays in the villain on ABC's "Batman" Wednesday and Thursday 7:30-8 p.m.

CBS ON EXPEDITION

An eightman expedition to the North Pole over the Polar Icecap, the first such expedition in 58 years, will be accompanied by CBS News when it embarks next spring. CBS is planning a documentary of the trip, and filmed reports will be made on the "CBS Evening News" and other CBS news programs.

Nor did Universal score impressively with its feature, "Munsters Go Home," filmed after the series had been canceled. Columbia aimed its cartoon feature, "The Man Called Flintstone," at the kiddie market with middling results.

Columbia is also releasing "Rings Around the World," starring Don Ameche and a string of European circus acts. Sound familiar?

Yes, it's gleaned from the show Ameche did on NBC.

With rare exceptions, these movies seldom score a bonanza at the nation's theaters. But they help fill the bottom half of double features. Theater men find feature products so scarce nowadays, they'll consider anything—even if it has played on television.

Tom Wolfe, the chronicler of the pop world, appears Tuesday at 8 p.m. on Channel 24 to talk about "Art as Religion."

Unsurprise Guests

NEW YORK (AP) — "To Tell the Truth," a pleasant guessing game that has been around CBS for a decade, ran head-on Monday night into a problem that plagues all shows featuring guests.

Contestants in the first segment of the show's first return to prime time, were a man who claims he was taken aboard a flying saucer and two impostors.

"Humph," sniffed a viewing companion who keeps an eye on daytime television. "The real one is on the end there. I saw him — and his wife — on Art Linkletter's show the other day."

Good guests with interesting stories to tell are likely to move among television game shows and radio talk shows the way Jane Morgan and Mickey Rooney travel the television variety show circuit.

Under normal circumstance, the guessing game is a mildly diverting half hour, but Monday night, in an effort to build in some extra star power, they changed the usual format.

Bette Davis, the guest star, and two women who could do pretty good imitations of her distinctive speaking voice were concealed behind an awkward arrangement of curtain that not only confused the panel but the living room spectators as well.

The game show now precedes "I've Got a Secret," another vintage panel show involving guessing. This one had excellent ratings when it was in an early evening spot but suffered a sharp drop from among the top 20 shows to close to the bottom of the list after it was moved to the end of the Monday night schedule.

Monday night's fun and games involved a 12-year-old girl who could type 97 words a minute, a 19-year-old girl who is a Kansas County treasurer and Victor Borge doing some electrical magic involving a bunch of pretty girls. None of the goings on seemed gripping enough to deter a viewer thinking of getting a good night's sleep.
