Pension Board Will Submit Budget Request of $211,000 The Town Pension Board voted unanimously yesterday to submit a request for a budget of $211,000 to General Manager Robert Wates. This figure includes an additional cost of $51,000 for proposed amendments to the town pension ordinance. Last year, a budget of $110,000 was granted. The Pension Board, after a request of $108,000 was submitted. Members of the Pension Board also voted to request $4,000 for administrative fees. This is a 100 per cent increase from the request of $3,000 last year. Several weeks ago, an additional $2,000 was granted above this $3,000 figure, for the current budget. The Town Pension Board, in its meeting held at the Municipal Building yesterday afternoon, discussed a meeting with town employees which is scheduled for the afternoon of Feb. 14 at the Benson School. Board members said this would be an informational type meeting to let town employees know about the proposed changes in the pension ordinance. The meeting, they emphasized, is strictly informational and is not being held to hear suggestions on any changes from the employees. Members agreed that, after the meeting with town employees, they may schedule another meeting of the Pension Board to make further changes on the changes made. The amendments in the town pension ordinance discussed, which added the $51,000 to the budget request, will be dealt with in the program of the town treasurer and registrars of voters, and permanent retirement benefits for policemen, and an improved disability payments program. Board member Frederick W. Geyer anticipated discussion at the meeting with town employees of the amendment on permanent part-time employee benefits. He said that with the change, a part-time, 20-hour person can now get the same benefit by putting in a minimum amount into the fund where a full-time employee must contribute much more to be eligible for the same benefit. New Amendment Fills Gaps in Constitution WASHINGTON (AP) — Two amendments to the U.S. Constitution have been plugged with the ratification of an amendment dealing with presidential disability and vacancy in the vice presidency. The 25th Amendment was ratified Friday when Nevada became the 38th state to give its approval. Congress submitted the amendment to the states in 1965, after the Senate and House each approved it by the required two-thirds majority. Nevada's action completed ratification by the required three-fourths of the 50 states. Minnesota had become the 37th state earlier Friday. For a time it was thought Minnesota would ratify the amendment, but North Dakota officials ruled their state's approval, Thursday, was not valid. The amendment became a part of the Constitution immediately, although a formal proclamation of ratification will be made later by the administrator of the General Services Administration. The last previous amendment was adopted Jan. 31, 1964. The last previous amendment was adopted Jan. 31, 1964. The last previous amendment was adopted Jan. 31, 1964.

Saigon Carnival City, Long War Is Ignored SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — War-weary Saigon has turned into a carnival town this week as nearly three million citizens celebrate the lunar new year. Everyone from government officials to street vendors appear to have a string of firecrackers to pop, a broad smile on their faces and a good wish for anyone they encounter. To Americans the holiday known as Tet resembles a Christmas celebration with Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas thrown in. Vietnam's celebration of the lunar new year, proclaimed by the ancient Chinese calendar, is the biggest celebration of the year. At 12:01 a.m. Thursday, the Year of the Goat was greeted with pandemonium. Throughout the country millions of firecrackers welcomed the Goat and ushered out the Year of the Horse. The officially recognized celebration lasts three days, but planning starts at least a month ahead and many towns still have a week of parties. Brink's Gang Member Admits Part in Holdup WALPOLE, Mass. AP — For the first time, one of the men imprisoned for life for the $1,218,218 robbery of the Boston office of Brink's Express 17 years ago has admitted guilt in the robbery. The admission came from James J. Jimma Fabery, 67, during his testimony before the State Parole Board. The board was acting on the petitions of Fabery and of Adolph J. J. Maffie for commutations of their life terms. Fabery wouldn't say he got out of the prison, but he said he was not sharing the blame. But Chairman Joseph P. McCormack told Fabery that it was important that he be heard. He said he would admit to a parole petition to admit he had done wrong. "I'm guilty," Fabery said. (See Page Six)

Cold Justice SCOTTSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Circuit Judge Joe P. Clark granted a change of venue on an auto damage suit Friday because it was too cold in the Allen County courthouse. The courthouse furnace wasn't working properly, so Judge Clark held court in the Farmers National Bank building. A few pacifists carried banners.

Kosygin Receives Rousing Welcome GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — This Scottish industrial city gave Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin a rousing welcome today despite police fears of a student demonstration. Students from Glasgow's two universities turned out in crowds to greet the Soviet premier and his entourage. Authorities warned the students that any incidents during Kosygin's visit would be severely punished. One official said police feared the students might try to kidnap the premier and hold him for ransom, as they did a Danish soccer player, Kaj Johnsen, earlier this week. Pacifists of the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament waved their banners, some in Russian, but otherwise caused no disturbance. Some banners appeared as much aimed at the United States as at the Soviet Union. Kosygin hardly glanced at them, apparently more intent on shaking as many hands as possible before entering City Hall. The Scots gave the welcome a nationalistic flavor. There were no Soviet flags or British Union Jacks flying around Glasgow Square — only Scotland's blue and white cross of St. Andrew. Throughout the ceremony bagpipers of the Glasgow police (See Page Thirteen)

Space Running Out Stricter Requirement For Arlington Burial WASHINGTON (AP) — Arlington National Cemetery is temporarily running out of burial space, so the Pentagon is imposing stricter eligibility requirements. Only active duty and retired career servicemen, plus Medal of Honor winners and high government officials can be buried at Arlington effective next week, an announcement Friday. That means virtually all non-career veterans will be barred from the famed cemetery on the Potomac River from Washington. The cemetery includes the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the grave of President John F. Kennedy. It was the burial site early last week of Apollo astronaut Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grisson and Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee. One veteran group, the American Veterans of World War II (navy), said it would ask the President and Congress to reconsider the move by the Army, which administers the cemetery. The Pentagon said the policy change does not apply to the other 47 active national cemeteries. The Pentagon said it plans to add about 60,000 more graves sites adjacent to Arlington beginning in December 1968. But only 6,000 sites remain to be available — less than a year's requirements at the current rate of more than 7,000 burials annually. Non-career veterans and their dependents, who now will be barred, made up about half last year's burials. The Pentagon said the Vietnam war accounting session last year and "has not been a major factor" in the space shortage. The Pentagon said the new policy "does not affect previous commitments to eligible survivors" of persons already buried there. It said the Golden Gate Cemetery in San Francisco, Calif., and the Ft. Harrison, Va., National Cemetery are expected to be "made inactive" this year because of lack of space. But additional space is planned later for many veterans and cemeteries at Beverly, N.J., and Ft. Rosecrans, Calif. The latter two used up their commitments several years ago. New Haven investors, their objections were expected to draw other plan to establish or out of the hearings to take down the National Cemetery System. Thirty-two of the existing national cemeteries have no grave sites available. (See Page Six)

New Proposal Submitted for RR Revamping NEW YORK (AP) — A new reorganization plan for the bankrupt New Haven Railroad has been submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission by a group of New Haven bondholders represented by Chicago investment brokers. The alternate plan was unveiled here Friday at what was to have been a private back-grounding session but was filled with the ICC in Washington, D.C. The ICC, which set inclusion of the New Haven in the pending Penn-Central Railroad merger, has been conducting hearings on such an incorporation. Bondholders have objected to the sale price, despite trustee assurances that despite price cutbacks the plan would produce up to $25 million for New Haven investors. Their objections were expected to draw other plan to establish or out of the hearings to take down the National Cemetery System. Thirty-two of the existing national cemeteries have no grave sites available. (See Page Six)

Held to but two points in the final quarter against Platt, Manchester exploded for 24 tallies in the first chapter last night and opened it to 48-18 by intermission.

It marks Hyde's fourth tournament team in the six years he's led the Indians. Ten Red and White members scored at least a hoop, Kelly, who wound up with 16 points, Mike Outout (12), Tommy Rice (11), Tim Coughlin (11) and Joe Amso (12) all reaching double figures. Business Bodies

ERRATIC BUILDING YEAR The four "Ms" of construction—materials, manpower, machinery and money, had an erratic year in 1966 and each managed to cause headaches for builders, according to the Engineering News-Record, a McGraw-Hill publication.

According to the News-Record, demand for homebuilding materials fell off considerably for lumber, clay products, and asphalt roofing. Aluminum and steel products, though, made gains.

In manpower, contractors employed a record number of workers and the booming construction employment produced a manpower problem.

Equipment makers had another good year in 1966, according to the publication, but they may not quite match their booming 1966 sales figures this year. Tight money, federal cutbacks and the prospect of a moderate decline in construction contracts should reduce new orders in 1967 by five to seven per cent. Demand for new equipment rose to record highs in the first half of 1966, but restrictions forced orders steadily down from mid-summer on.

P&W FACTORY MANAGER

Donald Nigro of Windsor has been promoted to factory manager at Pratt and Whitney Aircraft. He was formerly assistant factory manager, and succeeds John L. Buncie, who is on leave of absence.

As factory manager Nigro will be responsible for all of Pratt and Whitney Aircraft's Connecticut factory operations, which include production plants at East Hartford, New Haven, Southington, Middletown and supervision of more than 25,000 production employees.

Nigro joined the United Aircraft Corporation division following his graduation from Syracuse University with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. In 1953 he was awarded a fellowship in the Sloan Fellowship Program for Executive Development and received a master of science degree in industrial management following a year's study at MIT. He also has completed other postgraduate courses at Trinity College and the University of Connecticut.

PLAN SERVICE ADS

The Keith Agency, 197 N. Main St. will run a series of public-service ads in The Herald, discussing such questions on housing as: Should a house be sold after the children are grown? If so, where should the parents live? What are the major factors in buying or selling a home?

These will be only a few of the many questions discussed on home ownership in the weeks to come.

According to Stillman Keith, to most families the house they live in is a very important part of their lives. It is by far the biggest single purchase most men make in a lifetime and since it is a continuous source of concern, the ads will cover a multitude of topics which should prove informative and helpful to the home owner, Keith said.

PHOLON RE-ELECTED

Atty. Herbert A. Phelon Jr. of the law firm Buyer and Phelon, was re-elected director of the Connecticut Attorneys' Title Guaranty Fund, Inc. at a recent annual stockholders and directors meeting held in New Haven.

The corporation, which has administrative offices in Bloomfield, was created by a special act of the 1965 Connecticut General Assembly and is entirely controlled and managed by Connecticut attorneys.

The corporation reports that in its first nine months of operation it has issued mortgage and owner title insurance policies for over $22,600,000 of coverage.

According to Stillman Keith, to most families the house they live in is a very important part of their lives. It is by far the biggest single purchase most men make in a lifetime and since it is a continuous source of concern, the ads will cover a multitude of topics which should prove informative and helpful to the home owner, Keith said.

Bob Hope Shines in Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Hope's annual Christmas show, broadcast by NBC in mid-January, as usual ran away with the Nielsen ratings for the period. It was far ahead of the perennial champion, "Bonanza" and pulled the second largest audience of the season, beaten only by ABC's broadcast of the "Bridge on the River Kwai" in September.

The Nielsen ratings are more than simple popularity contests. They translate into dollars and cents. In a study published in the current issue of the trade magazine "Broadcasting," it is estimated that the cost of a minute of commercial time on the Hope special cost the advertiser $85,000. Cost of a minute on "Bonanza" is $55,000, the magazine said.

Among regularly scheduled programs, the most expensive for the advertiser is CBS's "The Lucy Show," which the magazine figured costs $65,500 per minute. The Red Skelton Show and Ed Sullivan's hour cost $82,000 and $81,000 respectively. "Beverly Hillbillies" is pegged at $57,900.

Generally, the higher the Nielsen rating, the more the commercial traffic bears. On the other end of the scale, ABC's "Green Hornet" and NBC's "Laredo" each receive $27,000 per minute — less than half the rewards of the winners' circle.

Daytime charges for commercial time are much lower but the magazine said the minute cost of CBS's "As the World Turns," the most popular soap opera, is $14,000. It drops to $3,800 for ABC's "Dark Shadows."

The study was based on statistics provided by Broadcast Advertisers Reports, a weekly service to the industry.

In the new national Nielsen ratings covering the two weeks ending Jan. 22, it appeared viewers were busily sampling the wares of the networks' second season. CBS's "Mr. Terrific" and NBC's "Dragnet" wound up among the top 20 shows, and ABC's "The Invaders" was not far behind.

CBS moved "Mission Impossible" ahead a half-hour on Saturday nights and it promptly picked up a couple of rating points — at least two million

Thomas Returns After All

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Danny Thomas, a performer who said two years ago he would spread himself thin in future television appearances, will next season be starring in a weekly hour-long show.

This is spreading himself thin? Thomas admitted the turnabout, but said he couldn't help himself.

"It was such a tremendous compliment that I couldn't resist," he said.

The same thing happened once before. After seven seasons with his half-hour comedy series, Thomas wanted nothing more than to quit. But a General Foods bigwig made such an impassioned plea for Danny to remain on the air — and capped his supplication with a rare, two-year contract — that he acquiesced.

Recently NBC made a similar pitch, offering him all kinds of benefits, fringe and otherwise, to head "The Danny Thomas Hour" in the 1967-68 season. He gave in.

Thomas might lose his usual good humor if you suggest it is a comeback.

"I never left television," he insists. "I've been doing five specials a year, plus guest shots. My family show has never left the air, and now it will be all over in CBS syndication."

The comedian has vowed that he would never return in another situation comedy. He did $45 of the half-hours, and very nearly lost his identity as Danny Thomas. People continually asked him, "May I have your autograph, Mr. Williams?"

extra viewers — in Jackie Gleason's wake. ABC's "Love on a Rooftop" changed to a new day and time period, and gained three points, but change did not seem to help "The Phyllis Diller Show."

Top 10 shows in the period were Hope's Christmas show, CBS's rerun of "Cinderella," NBC's "Bonanza," CBS's "Andy Griffith Show," "Lucy Show," Friday Night Movie, Jackie Gleason Show, Ed Sullivan Show, and "Hogan's Heroes." In the averages, CBS emerged the winner with 21.6, followed by NBC with 20.2 and ABC 17.8. Recommended tonight: "Alaska," CBS, 7:30-8:20 EST, special by the National Geographic Society about a trip through our northernmost state.

'MISS TEEN'

The second annual "Miss Teen International Pageant" will be televised on ABC March 25. Teen-age girls from 11 countries will take part. Noel Harrison and Sally Field will serve as hosts.

Andy's Family Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Andy Griffith has found a producer who wants him to make family movies. For that reason he will quit weekly television after his eighth season.

In recent years the film industry allowed Walt Disney to maintain a virtual monopoly in the production of movies for the entire family. Now it appears that the Disney Studio will be facing competition.

Between rehearsals for his CBS special for Feb. 21, Griffith disclosed that next season will be the last for "The Andy Griffith Show," despite the series' continued high ratings.

"I'll continue to do specials — three in three years," he said. "But I won't be doin' the series because I gotta make pictures for Universal, and I can't do both."

"The reason I'm doin' pictures is because Lew Wasserman asked me. He said he wanted to make family movies, and he wanted me to be in 'em."

"Now, nobody ever asked me to make a bunch of pictures before. It was always me askin' if I could make a picture for them. It's much better the other way."

Wasserman, head man of the MCA parent of Universal, apparently figures Griffith is a natural to capture the vast, largely overlooked family audience. The studio has made a mint with films starring Andy's longtime sidekick, Don Knotts — who appears on this special, along with Tennessee Ernie Ford.

"I figure for the first film I'll play a similar kind of man to what I play on television," Griffith remarked. "He wouldn't be a sheriff, but the same kind of fellow, basically."

"I'd do one by myself, then one with Don. If they're smart, they'll put us together all the time, because we do well as a team. I'd like to do all kinds of roles, even a heavy. I think I'd be a pretty good heavy and Don

Next Year, Maybe, No Tongue in Cheek

NEW YORK (AP) — As the current television season creeps along to its spring windup, the networks are building the entertainment schedules for next season.

Experts are picking over an assortment of pilot programs, short sample films and outlines hunting for new shows to replace the 20 to 30 year-end dropouts of the three networks. A few shows are set, some others are tentatively penciled in time spots. Salesmen are looking for sponsors.

It appears that the tongue-in-cheek super-agents, the comic strip spin-offs and the nighttime serials have outlived their usefulness. Next season we will see, almost without a doubt, the return of the old-fashioned private eye and an assortment of police and special agent stories, played straight. The emphasis is on comedy for the half-hour shows, action-adventure for the hour-long series.

Success of animal series like "Daktari" and "Flipper" obviously has impressed producers. There are six more available, including two about elephant boys in India and two about game wardens with sons.

There are six or seven science fiction series available, including one about a fellow frozen in ice for 100 years who comes back into action.

There are two comedies about bigamy, one involving a man with two wives and the other about a woman with two husbands.

There is the usual assortment of westerns — seven new ones.

Among the familiar faces and names awaiting an invitation to return to the weekly grind are Phil Silvers, Raymond Burr, Jerry Van Dyke, Eve Arden, Joan Blondell, Bill Bixby, Jack Kelly, Robert Reed, and even Sonny Tufts. Danny Thomas and Carol Burnett are already signed up definitely by, respectively, NBC and CBS.

ABC will probably have the most new shows, and has 28 projects to choose among. NBC has 22, and CBS, 21. About one out of three series will make it to the screens.

ABC will show film of the Clay-Terrell heavyweight fight on its Saturday afternoon "Wide World of Sports."

Jackie Gleason's Feb. 25 CBS show will celebrate his birthday — he will be 51 the next day.

"INVESTIGATION" DATES

NBC has announced it will televise the Peter Wells drama, "The Investigation," on April 14 and also on April 16. The first showing, on a Friday, will be from 9:30 to 11 p.m. The second showing, on a Sunday, will be at 3:30 p.m. NBC said the two showings would allow a larger audience to view the play, which recently closed on Broadway. The play uses actual testimony from the trials of Nazis who worked in the Auschwitz concentration camp.

BOGART STUDY

ABC will present an hour-long study of the late actor Humphrey Bogart on April 23. The program, titled "Bogart," will be narrated by Richard Burton. The program will present excerpts from his movies and film segments, involving his friends, that have not been shown before.

NEW TITLE

"A Time for Laughter: A Look at Negro Humor in America" is the new title for Harry Belafonte's presentation on "ABC Stage 67" on April 6. It was originally titled "One Hundred Years of Laughter."

BENNY SHOW

Jack Benny will appear in another hour-long comedy program next season, NBC has announced. Benny did one show in 1965 and another Dec. 1 of last year for NBC. He ended his weekly series in 1965, and now does only occasional guest appearances on television.

BRANDO MOVIE

NBC will televise the movie, "The Ugly American," March 7. The movie will start at 8:30 p.m., a half-hour earlier than usual. Marlon Brando stars as the U.S. ambassador.

DRUG CASE CONTINUED

CHICAGO (AP) — The narcotics court case of Nelson Algren, author of "The Man With the Golden Arm," has been continued until March 10. Algren, 57, whose book tells of the struggles of a narcotics addict, appeared with two other men in court in Chicago Wednesday. He was silent during the two-minute proceeding. The three men are charged with possessing marijuana, and are free on $1,000 bond.

Nichelle Nichols appears on NBC's "Star Trek" Thursdays from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Thomas Returns

The new series lineup calls for him to star in four specials such as those he has done for the past two years, plus two variety shows which will accent new talent. The bulk of the season will be stories, comedy or drama; there will be 16, and Thomas will play the lead in two.

"I will be performing the function that I do best — being a story teller," he explained. "I will introduce the story, carry it along, and perhaps play a small role." One of the stories is called "Make More Room for Daddy;" it will be the Williams family revisited.
