

Mortars Hit 2 Companies Marines Take Heavy Losses

SAIGON (AP)—North Vietnamese troops have inflicted heavy casualties on two U.S. Marine companies and hammered at positions of long-range American guns south of the demilitarized zone with intensive mortar barrages, U.S. spokesmen announced today.

The official report estimated the Communists fired 1,000 mortar shells at Marines during a day-long battle Tuesday about 10 miles south of the buffer territory that separates North and South Vietnam.

Evidently seeking to interrupt the shelling of North Vietnam across the zone, the Communists lobbed 476 81mm mortar shells at the positions of some self-propped 170mm guns that had been moved to within two miles of the zone.

A spokesman said there was no damage to the big guns, which can fire shells up to 20 miles, and that American casualties were light.

In the Zone C theater adjoining the Cambodian frontier, American planes and artillery killed more than 150 Viet Cong after the Communists badly mauled a company of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, the U.S. military command reported.

The six-hour battle Tuesday was the biggest to date in the week-old Operation Junction City, a 45,000-man U.S. squeeze on the Communist jungle stronghold. The company of 178 American infantrymen suffered heavy casualties.

In another Zone C sector, Viet Cong loosed tear gas against an American company to cover their retreat after a short fight. A spokesman said the Americans donned gas masks and suffered no casualties.

A company of the 4th Marine Regiment was the first unit to be hard hit in the fight below the demilitarized zone. Officers said it was bested by a force estimated at two battalions of North Vietnamese regulars, perhaps 1,000 men, at Cam Lo, nine miles west of the Marine command post at Dong Ha.

A company of the 3rd Marine Regiment suffered heavy casualties in moving to reinforce their beleaguered comrades. Artillery and gunship helicopters helped to even the fight.

Captive Says Cong Morale At New Low

PHUOC THANH, South Vietnam (AP)—A North Vietnamese lieutenant captured by Korean troops said today the faith of the lunar new year truce to produce peace negotiations has put "Viet Cong morale at an all-time low."

"Night and day the Viet Cong long for peace," said Lt. Truong Hiep, a platoon leader with the 3rd Company, 88th "Independence" Battalion, a Viet Cong main-force element. "They had high hopes for negotiation. Now they know they cannot win without direct help from Russia or Red China," he said.

The lieutenant was interviewed through an interpreter at the wire-enclosed stockade of the Korean Tiger Division here in the central highlands 200 miles northeast of Saigon. A Korean private captured him this week with a karate blow. The lieutenant was attempting to fire his German Walther pistol.

"Did you or Marie ever entertain men at the (Northfield Rd.) Coventry home where Mrs. Turcotte was living?"

"No, we did not," she replied. Atty. Piepler also asked if she and her sister entertained workmen who were building the Northfield Rd. dwelling project in Coventry.

Mrs. O'Leary answered they did not. Mrs. O'Leary testified that she and Mrs. Turcotte and their children used to bring soft drinks to the workmen about once a week.

Mrs. O'Leary told the court that her sister told her "certain things" but never said anything about other men.

She testified further, however, that her sister told her early in September that she had been seeing O'Leary.

Mrs. O'Leary was with her sister and Chambers at the Gale Inn for about an hour and a half. Asked by Atty. Piepler about how they acted there, Mrs. O'Leary testified "they were having a good time."

"Did you see any display of affection?" Atty. Piepler asked. "No, I did not," said Mrs. O'Leary.

Hausman Addresses GOP Committee

Hausman Named State GOP Chief

By SOL R. COHEN
Howard E. Hausman of New Britain, a 60-year-old bachelor attorney and GOP state legislative commissioner, is the new Republican state chairman.

He was chosen by acclamation last night by the 72-member Republican State Central Committee, meeting at DePasquale's Restaurant, Newington.

Thus ended a 2½ month search for a successor to A. Serre Finney of Brookfield, who announced his resignation on Nov. 15, and who made it official, by stepping down at exactly 8:55 last night.

And, at 9:10, George T. LaBonne of Glastonbury, Hausman's only contender for the seat, dramatically removed his name from consideration and released his backers from their commitments.

LaBonne's first words were, "The moment of truth has arrived." He continued, "It is obvious to me that any kind of a vote tonight would cause problems to our party. Therefore, I release all commitments of the people who have pledged their votes to me."

He called for "unity in our party" and urged, "Let us fight the Democrats for a change."

LaBonne said, "I have been assured by Howard Hausman that no deals were made by him or by his people, and I accept his word."

He thanked the committee members for considering him and said, "I realize what a great honor it has been for me to reach this position—something I never expected."

"I don't believe I'm a loser under those conditions," he added, "for, if I had to be defeated, it was a wonderful way to lose a battle."

"And now," he urged, "let us leave this room with less scars than when we entered."

Hausman, reading from a prepared speech, distributed to newsmen before he spoke, declared, "I am overwhelmed by my election as your state chairman."

He said, "If I have learned anything in the past few months, it is that there is a deep longing within the Republican Party for unity—for an end to factionalism—this is my goal and from this time forward, there are no factions, as far as I am concerned."

He called on the state central committee members "to build a better party organization than we have ever had—an organization good enough to do the job and win elections."

Chou Gets Full Power To Halt Mao's Purge

Must Also Help Restore China Trade

HONG KONG (AP)—The Hong Kong Star reported today that Mao Tse-tung has given Premier Chou En-lai full executive powers to stop Mao's cultural revolution purge and restore China's economy.

The Star said its report came from "its own sources inside China" but did not identify them further.

The Star's report coincided with an announcement by the Hong Kong government that Red China's exports to Hong Kong, its biggest market, dropped more than $2.2 million in January. Trade circles blamed the upheaval caused by Mao's purge and predicted Chinese exports would drop still further.

The Star, an English-language tabloid published and edited by Australians, also said Defense Minister Lin Biao had disagreed with Mao over several aspects of the purge.

Lin Piao is believed by many Western observers in Hong Kong to be the guiding power behind Mao, but the Star quoted its sources as saying Lin believed Mao had gone too far in five specific cases or areas.

The purge punishment of army chief of staff Lo Jui-ching was, in Lin's opinion, too harsh. Earlier reports from China indicate that Lo was expelled from his job, publicly humiliated, and then arrested.

Doctor Confirms Luci Expecting, Date Is Secret

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Luci Johnson Nugent will give birth to President Johnson's first grandchild in a giant maternity ward taking up the top floor of an Austin hospital.

An Austin doctor, who asked that his name not be disclosed, gave the first medical confirmation of Luci's pregnancy Tuesday.

The doctor said the top floor of Holy Cross Hospital will be reserved for Mrs. Nugent and visitors.

The White House and the Patrick J. Nugents, however, maintained their silence on the prospects for a presidential grandchild.

The Secret Service will guard the special fifth-floor maternity setup, the doctor said, adding that an agent will be assigned to the baby at birth.

The doctor said the identity of the baby is secret.

Celebrated Powell Case Coming to End in House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House decides today whether to strip the last vestiges of congressional power from its most controversial figure, Adam Clayton Powell.

Members of the select committee which recommended the Harlem Democrat be seated with a stiff censure, a $40,000 assessment against his future pay and loss of all seniority expressed confidence the House will approve their proposal, which has support from nearly all Republican and Democratic leaders.

But vociferous members of both parties who want Powell removed from Congress promised to try to block the committee's proposal, and a tangled parliamentary path awaits the House resolution before its likely approval later in the day.

Although many different possibilities exist, some form of censure seems the most likely result if the committee's censure resolution fails. The debate could end in a couple of hours or drag on into the evening.

Powell wasn't expected to appear for the debate. At last word he was at his fishing retreat on the Bahamian Isle of Bimini, along with his secretary Corrine A. Huff.

The resolution also would remove Miss Huff, a former beauty contest winner, from a $19,000-a-year job on Powell's office payroll.

Barricades were made ready in the halls of Congress for the large crowd expected for the debate. Plans were made to clear the visitors' galleries every 10 minutes.

Police decreed that no one but employes and persons with gallery cards could go upstairs to the House floor and gallery.

Although police said they knew of no plans for large numbers of Powell's supporters to appear, one said "we want to be ready in case anything happens."

3rd Motion Considered Hoffa Grand Jury In Session Again

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A federal grand jury, first empaneled in December, 1965, to investigate charges stemming from Teamsters President James Hoffa's third motion for a new jury-tampering trial, reconvened today.

The grand jury went back into session as U.S. District Judge Frank Wilson considered a fourth such motion, filed less than 24 hours earlier, aimed at avoiding an eight-year prison term which Wilson imposed on Hoffa.

Wilson termed the charges "patent perjury" and the grand jury was convened to investigate them, Hoffa's appeal before the U.S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

Since the grand jury was convened, it widened the scope of its probe last May 24 to include racketeering and organized crime.

Bobby Kennedy Bars Publication Of His Speeches

NEW YORK (AP)—The dispute between the Kennedy family and Harper & Row publishers over the book, "The Death of a President," apparently prompted Sen. Robert F. Kennedy to halt publication of a book containing the senator's major speeches, it was learned today.

An announcement of publication of the senator's book, "New Problems, New Proposals," appeared in Harper & Row's winter catalogue last November.

But Tuesday, Evan Thomas, vice president of Harper & Row, said the 150-year-old publishing house decided to drop the book from the winter schedule.

"The first indication that there would be a delay came last December when the senator failed to send us the introduction to the book," said Thomas. "We sent some inquiries to Washington, but received no reply."

"He got a reply to everything he sent," a Kennedy aide said. "If he didn't it was simply because the senator didn't have time. Some material was not (See Page Fourteen)

Indicted in Negro's Death 12 Surrender in Dixie

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—Twelve men, one of them a Mississippi Ku Klux Klan chief, quietly surrendered to federal authorities today on conspiracy charges stemming from the 1966 fire bomb death of a Negro leader here.

The 12 men, who were released under $5,000 bond each by a U.S. commissioner, were indicted by a federal grand jury at Jackson Monday.

The indictment charged they conspired to "intimidate, threaten and coerce Vernon Ferdinand Dahmer Sr., on account of his race and color for urging and aiding other Negro citizens to vote."

It charged that 10 of the men "by setting fire to and burning the house and grocery store" of Dahmer, and "by firing guns at that time and place" attempted to intimidate, threaten and coerce Dahmer.

Dahmer died in a hospital after gun-firing raiders had set his house on fire in early morning darkness. His family escaped, although one child was badly burned.

One of the 12 men indicted, Sam Bowers Jr., was among the 19 persons named by the same grand jury as being involved in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss., in 1964. Bowers and 17 others appeared before a U.S. commissioner in Meridian Tuesday and were released under $5,000 bonds.

Bowers has been identified by the FBI as the imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—the most violent and clandestine of the Klans.

In addition to Bowers, a coin machine distributor at nearby Laurel, those indicted in the Dahmer case and freed on bond today are:

Henry Edward DeBostel, Laurel.

Howard Travis Giles, Millisville.

Mordecai Hamilton Sr., Hattiesburg.

Charles Lamar Lowe, of near Laurel.

Clifton Eudell Lowe, near Laurel.

Melvin Bennett Martin, Laurel.

Emanuel Benjamin Moss, Laurel.

Deavours Nix, Laurel.

Charles Richard Noble, Laurel.

Billy Roy Pitta, Laurel.

Cecil Victor Sessum, Jellisonville.

Except for Hamilton, those indicted live in Jones County, just east of here. All 12 were among the 15 persons previously indicted in the case. The new indictments were called for because of the doubtful legality of the earlier grand jury's composition.

Noble and Hamilton were named only in the first count of the indictment.

German Court Bars Claim Anna Is Really Anastasia

HAMBURG, Germany (AP) — The Hamburg Superior Court has rejected the claim of 86-year-old Anna Anderson that she is Grand Duchess Anastasia, youngest daughter of the late Russian czar.

Mrs. Anderson's lawyer announced the decision would be appealed to the West German state's Supreme Court. It will be her last chance for legal recognition.

It was the third postwar setback for the mysterious woman whose claim first became known in 1920 when she was rescued from a suicide attempt in the Landersee Canal in Berlin.

The Hamburg court, which has been taking testimony over a period of three years, rejected Mrs. Anderson's appeal against a 1961 decision.

The court then ruled that Mrs. Anderson had failed to prove her identity as the grand-duchess but also that her opponent, Princess Barbara, had failed to prove that Mrs. Anderson was a Polish peasant named Franziska Schanzkowsky.

Mrs. Anderson has yet to enter a court in all the years of litigation and was not present for the decision today. She remained at her home in Unterlengenhardt, in the Black Forest, where she lives a secluded life, admitting only a few visitors.

Among the more frequent guests is Prince Friedrich Ernst of Saxe-Altenburg, the champion of her cause. She deals with a manner satisfactory to German legal principles that she is the grand duchess.

He said the court was not able at this time to give a detailed analysis of its decision. He said the court had announced its decision and received Mrs. Anderson's appeal today.

Mrs. Anderson's attorney, Hans-Joachim Wollmann, said the court decision, even without the detailed opinion, is vulnerable but also that her opponent, Princess Barbara, had failed to prove that Mrs. Anderson was a Polish peasant named Franziska Schanzkowsky.

Mrs. Anderson claims that she was injured — not killed — by the firing squad which massacred the czar and his family at Ekaterinburg and that loyal followers of the czar cared for her wounds and smuggled her out of Russia.

The present case began with a prewar petition that she be recognized as heiress to the Romanoff property instead of the Duchess of Mecklenburg, who is a grandniece of the last czar.

Through all the years of court hearings, hundreds of witnesses have testified for and against Mrs. Anderson. Scientists, doctors, nobility of all grades, servants and court attendants have told in great detail about Anastasia and Mrs. Anderson.

In spite of all the evidence, no court has found conclusive proof that Mrs. Anderson is or is not Anastasia.

Many Will Wait, Few Will Receive Invitation in the Mail For Year's Top Wedding

CHICAGO (AP) — Many some with brown hair and green eyes were hoping today to receive one of the cream-colored, engraved, by Tiffany stiletto to 1967's wedding of the year.

Some 2,000 invitations to the April 1 wedding of Sharon Percy and John D. Rockefeller IV are in the mail.

Not since Loel Johnson and Patrick Nugent announced their engagement has a young couple's marital plans aroused so much interest.

Like the President's daughter, Sharon has expressed the hope that she and her fiancé will be treated "just like any other couple."

Her wish is unlikely to be granted as was Lacy's. "Instead of his and hers seats at the wedding, they'll have to have Democratic and Republican," one of Sharon's friends said when the engagement was announced Nov. 26.

Rockefeller, 29, nephew of Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, recently was elected to the West Virginia Legislature as a Democrat.

Sharon, 21, whose father, Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois, is mentioned as a possible Republican contender for the presidency, says she has become a Democrat since her engagement.

"Love takes precedence over politics," her father commented one-story red-brick house in a when told of the switch.

A slender, wide-eyed, extravert with long, wheat-colored hair, Sharon presents striking contrast to Rockefeller, 6-foot-8½ inches tall and darkly hand-

Rockefeller has no set marriage service, the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer will be used. An organ and choir will furnish music.

A reception immediately after the wedding will be held in the Noyes Hall, a student center resembling an English Tudor manor house, across the street from the chapel.

One hundred guests have been invited to the traditional rehearsal dinner on the wedding eve given by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller III, in the Arts Club.

The couple will honeymoon in Hong Kong and Japan, where Rockefeller studied and taught for three years.

They will live in the $75,000, Charleston, W. Va., suburb which Rockefeller has spent $25,000 remodeling.

A married couple will serve as housekeeper and caretaker on the 16-acre estate.

South Windsor PTA Council Sets Program On Children with Problems

A program entitled, "What's Happening About Children with Emotional Problems in South Windsor" will be presented tonight at the high school at 8 p.m.

The program, sponsored by the PTA Council, will bring together a team of experts who are presently working in the field of education including Gabrielle Simcha, director of the state program for children with emotional problems.

Local panelists will be Charles L. Warner, superintendent of schools; Arthur Hotink, principal of the Wapping School; John Castle, teacher of emotionally disturbed children at the Wapping School; Mrs. Dolores Chisland, psychological examiner for the school system; and Dr. Steven Vogel, consulting psychologist.

By law, a program for these exceptional children must be included in local school systems by September 1967. South Windsor initiated a program last fall for these children.

How emotionally disturbed children are identified and the steps necessary before a child is placed in class catering to this individual problem will be discussed.

All interested citizens are invited to attend the meeting.

Town Council Additions

Terms of new business added to the agenda for tonight's town council meeting include: Resignation of Herman Gold, the church hall. The Italian Swiss Colony Wine Co. will sponsor a tree warden and the appointment of an elected constable to replace Constable Gerascio.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the high school library.

ABA Sex Meeting

The soiree board of appeals will meet tomorrow night at 8 to consider the following applications:

Albert B. Myer, c/o Edwin Lassman, Esq., 37 Lewis St., Hartford, requests a variance to allow a coin operated auto wash on premises at 200 Burnham St., South Windsor. This is an I zone.

Knights of Columbus, Council 2778, c/o Atty. John M. Casey, 1724 Ellington Rd., Wapping, re-

The Tobacco Valley Chapter for the 1967-68 school year Jeffrey Small; Robert Gulligan, John Ferruolo, Stephen Aldrich and Paul Blau. The pack is currently working on the theme for March "Handyman," and preparing for the April Firewood Derby.

The group meets the third Friday of each month at the Avery St. School at 7:30 p.m.

As for the Republican Party's other problems, financial and organizational, plus their solution, as proposed in the report of the Interim Planning (Screening) Committee, he said: "Let's not try to solve all our problems in one evening."

These problems and their possible solutions, he said, will be the major items of business at the March meeting of the state central committee.

Hausman's name was placed in nomination by Donald J. Zelander of Naugatuck. Seconding speeches were made by Mrs. Cate Poole of New Britain, Prescott S. Bush Jr. of Greenwich, Donald F. Zelman of Stamford, and Peter P. Mariani of Groton. Mariani called Hausman "Mr. Republican of the State of Connecticut — the man who can bring together all factions of the party."

Mariani had combined with Ed May of Wetherfield and with GOP leaders from most sections of the state, in backing Hausman. LaBonne had the support of the Pimney-Altop-Gergras faction.

Many political observers say that it was Pimney's, publicly announced backing which lost the election for LaBonne.

LaBonne, on Jan. 26, had been picked as a compromise candidate by the screening committee and was almost a shoo-in for the job. The next day, Pimney announced publicly that he would back him, and the show of compromise went out of the window. Divergent GOP factions from throughout the state jumped on Hausman's bandwagon, and they made it stick.

Pimney, in his farewell speech last night, said "My 14 years of years of excitement and challenge—years of great fund-raising and mental change in the political structure of the state. It has been the most exciting period of my life and I hope I have contributed something to the well-being of our party."

He said he would be glad to harbor no grudges and hold

Will Be 'Favorite Son' Reagan Seeks to Block Romney from State Race

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan bid for more national political exposure today, determined to keep Michigan Gov. George Romney or anyone else out of California's 1968 Republican presidential primary.

The freshman GOP governor told newsmen Tuesday he intends to enter the June primary himself, as a favorite son presidential candidate but not as an actual contender for the presidency. He said he preferred that Romney and other potential contenders stay out of his state, water.

"Reagan's goal: Party unity and to assure the nation's most populous state a policy-making convention at next year's national convention."

Reagan made the statement as he began preparing for some new well publicized political events out.

In Washington, including a fundraising dinner tonight at which Romney also will speak.

Next week Reagan flies to Washington again for a speech at the Gridiron Club dinner and meetings with congressmen. He'll share the Gridiron platform with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

California's Republicans apparently were trying to avoid a repeat of the 1964 California primary brawl between New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and former U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"There wouldn't be any point in nominating a favorite son if the primary was going to result in voice at next year's national convention."

Reagan said he didn't personally ask Romney to keep his forces to keep their man well publicized political events out.

Volunteers Given Training In Pre-Schooler Eye Tests

A day-long orientation and training session for more than 60 volunteers who will staff Manchester's first vision screening program for pre-school children was held yesterday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Temple Beth Shalom.

The session was to acquaint workers with the mechanics of operating the free screenings which will be carried on the week of March 13 at the testing centers at the West side Recreational Building, Temple Beth and St. Bridget's School.

Eligible to take the eye tests will be all Manchester children three to five years old. There are 1,600 local youngsters in this age group. The schedule of testing will be announced later.

The purpose of the screenings will be to detect a condition correctible in young children termed amblyopia, and popularly known as "lazy eye blindness."

"The condition, which affects about two per cent of all youngsters in one in which an eye that appears healthy actually has low or poor vision which cannot be remedied by glasses. Because amblyopia is not readily discernable, because it causes no pain, and because young children are not aware how well they should see, it is often not detected either by the child's parents or the child himself."

By the age of six, when the eye has matured or "learned" to see at its optimum, amblyopia no longer responds readily to correction, done by patching the defective eye.

Knowing this, eye specialists have become increasingly concerned that all youngsters receive vision screenings about the age of four—the age most susceptible to correction.

The vision screenings have become increasingly frequent throughout Connecticut as the result of backing for many programs by the Connecticut Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Officials at the society carried out yesterday's training session and will oversee the upcoming screening program in Manchester.

Heading yesterday's session were Mrs. Ruby M. Hopkins, executive director for the society; and Mrs. Marjorie Overbaugh, R.N., a CEPB field consultant.

The trainees, who will help direct the children to the procedures, as well as aiding in the testing at the three centers are members of the Junior Century Club, which has volunteered its services.

The Manchester Public Health Nursing Association, under its executive director, Mrs. Claire Anderson, and the public school nurses, headed by Mrs. Mary Bliditch, have assumed responsibility for carrying out the program.

14,000 Patients Must Pay Michigan Nursing Homes To Defy State Rate Scale

DETROIT (AP) — About 14,000 Michigan patients are the state department of social services threatened with loss or higher charges for nursing home care in Michigan because of a dispute between independent nursing homes and the state. The state's 461 nursing homes have a total of 22,000 beds. Michigan Nursing Home Association, representing state independent nursing homes, says more than 200 of the nursing homes, with the state's 461 nursing homes have a total of 22,000 beds. Canada's Birth Rate Slows

Up in Canada, they are solving one of the world's most urgent and distressing problems, and what is the result? Jubilation? Congratulations from the rest of the world?

Not at all. The result is worry, investigation, and beliefs that it is a matter of time before research and planning to see if the solution of the problem can be undone.

The problem to which we refer is that of the world's approaching population glut. How do we avoid that fate which finds us destined to wind up, after a few more breeding generations, with a world of 10 billion people?

In Canada, although Canada doesn't have for sure just why it happened, there is an answer.

There were 56,000 fewer babies born in Canada last year than in 1966, even though the number of marriages, in Canada, is on the way up.

Sociologists examining this statistic are fairly sure that it is not a result of the famous "pill." The pill, says one professor, "is a method, not the motive, for the decline in the birth rate."

Most professional guesses, as to the motivation, run to the idea that young Canadian parents are now affluent and are not so sure of the future.

They are not so sure of the future because they are enjoying the fruits of the earth's surface and a daily diet of synthetic seaweed?

Perhaps more than any expert we can solicit, the best prophet of what is going to happen is the way people feel in their homes. Sometimes a statistic fails, they began saving a little more, as if they felt some kind of day coming.

He Named The Century

Hillier, who even among those who extol his memory, remain a controversial figure. People will be both proud of his name and to whether the name of his century is really worth the trouble.

Most professional guesses, as to the motivation, run to the idea that young Canadian parents are now affluent and are not so sure of the future.

Inside Report

WASHINGTON — In a private, unpublished letter to a small group of insurance underwriters, Rep. Wilbur Mills of Arkansas, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, all but jettisoned President Johnson's proposal for a Social Security benefits cut of 20 per cent.

He did not flatly rule out the possibility of going over the full distance with Mr. Johnson. But his closed-door speech Feb. 14 at the Marriott Hotel here left no doubt among those who heard him that Mills intends to trim the Johnson package severely.

Several days before the event, a round-robin letter complaining of the projected stopper was about to be sent to President Johnson—and released to the press. Of second thought, it was decided not to send the letter but instead to get word to Johnson through the press.

Accordingly, telephone calls went to half a dozen White House assistants, but not to the president's secretary. That Watson a right-wing Texas Democrat wouldn't be interested in the rising anger of the liberals.

But at the White House, nothing happened as a result of the telephone calls. Finally, a member of the Democratic Study Group put in a call to Watson. Within five minutes, he had Watson on the line. Grasping the political significance of the liberals' anger, Watson immediately alerted the President's security adviser, Walt W. Rostow.

Only Ramon Navarro Left Of Screen's Latin Lovers

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Once there were three Latin lovers of the screen. Now only one remains: Ramon Navarro.

Navarro, gray-haired but still handsome, left no doubt that he favored his own era in films over the present one.

"It was just talking about the other night with a friend," he remarked. "We were discussing the old days in Hollywood, and I said that it is too bad there is no plunger left in movies any more. They're not trying in the studios any more; everything is in too much of a hurry."

"Nowadays you have all-star casts. They throw four or five or more players into a cast, because not one of them is a big enough draw to attract an audience. That means the script must have two or three different stories going, and the plot gets divided and distorted."

Navarro said he hates television, but seldom attends a movie. "I wish I was my time," he reasons.

He is not alone in his feelings. Many actors and actresses of the past have expressed their dissatisfaction with the current state of the film industry.

Family Doubleplay

Tom Clark Leaving Court; Son Named Atty. General

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nomination of Ramsey Clark as attorney general will give President Johnson a Supreme Court vacancy to fill — the result of a unique family double-play.

After Johnson promoted Clark to the vacancy Tuesday, Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, the nominee's father, said he'll retire by midyear to avoid any conflict of interest.

Early Senate approval of the younger Clark's appointment is anticipated. Three senators heartily endorsed the nomination, with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy D-Mass., calling it "one of the finest any president has ever made."

Justice Clark, 73-year-old veteran of the high court bench, said he'll review the court's docket "for any possible conflict of interests that arise during the remainder of the term" and then decide when to retire. The court term is scheduled to end in June.

The justice's retirement would give Johnson his second Supreme Court appointment. Clark was appointed by President Harry S. Truman.

Ramsey Clark, 39, has been acting attorney general since last October when Nicholas Katzenbach resigned to become undersecretary of state.

He'll go before the Senate Judiciary committee Thursday for what is expected to be a brief re-examination of his qualifications. He previously received committee and Senate approval for appointments as assistant attorney general and deputy attorney general.

Clark conducted an informal news conference following announcement of his nomination with the same deference — all most shyness — that has marked his conduct in public office.

He greeted newsmen at the door of his fourth floor Justice Department office, accepting congratulations with a smile. When the newsmen were assembled, Clark headed for his desk, but then decided on a favorite corner near a window: "I always sit in this corner. Bow ties do not feel safer here," he explained.

During the four and a half months he was acting attorney general, Clark remained in his going to wear bow ties, do not wear such loud ones.

But Tom Clark, in some ways a prototype Texan, standing over 6 feet tall, glibly and with a Southern drawl, still likes low ties.

He is the fifth oldest of the nine judges, third in seniority and the last of President Harry S. Truman's three appointments of the line of fire in the wire-tap controversy between Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, even though technically Clark is Hoover's boss.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Tom C. Clark's retirement by midyear will remove from the Supreme Court a generally conservative jurist who sometimes swung to the liberal side — especially with his neckties.

Clark, 67, said Tuesday he will retire by the end of the current court term in order to avoid any conflict resulting from the appointment of his son, Ramsey, as attorney general.

They did have humorous conflict once: When the elder Clark was attorney general, Ramsey left an unsigned typewritten note in a suggestion box that said: "You ought not to wear bow ties. Bow ties do not give you the dignity which is attached to the office of attorney general. And if you are

Mod Dressed Girl's Body Found in N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP) — The body of an attractive young brunette dressed in mod style was found sprawled in a gutter in the Wall Street financial district Tuesday night.

Police today were still trying to identify her and were seeking clues in the case. They said it appeared that rape or attempted rape was involved.

Dr. Elliott Gross, assistant medical examiner, ruled the death an apparent murder. He said a preliminary examination of the body indicated death may have been due to strangulation.

Police said the woman apparently had been thrown from a car. Police said she was about 5 feet 6 inches tall and weighed about 130 pounds. She was between 19 and 25 years old, police said.

The spot where her body was found, on Front Street between Wall and Pine Streets in the financial district, is crowded during office hours but virtually deserted at night.

LONDON (AP) — Despite noteworthy support from sympathetic males, the London Stock Exchange has repulsed a feminist attempt to breach its portals.

Chairman Martin Wilkinson told the exchange's 3,400 members Tuesday that admission should not be refused because of sex alone and the vote maintaining the exchange as an all-male preserve brought some degree of consolation to women.

Although the proposal failed, to get the necessary three-quarters majority, 56 per cent voted for women and 46 per cent against. Just over 2,000 of the members voted.

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda charged today that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency has used American exchange students in the Soviet Union for espionage work.

The CIA "would like to replace the lofty cause of cultural and scientific exchange with the dirty cause of espionage," said a long article in the Soviet Communist party paper.

"Of course, Pravda said, 'far from all American scientists and students who arrive in the Soviet Union are professional agents of U.S. intelligence or are 'volunteers' who look upon themselves the fulfillment of espionage functions."

"But one has to take into consideration that the CIA tries by any means to involve in espionage work as many American students studying in the Soviet Union as possible."

Poles, Czechs Sign Anti-German Treaty

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The issue was forced by Miss Muriel Bailey, a 46-year-old businesswoman who applied for membership.

The usual arguments were heard, including no suitable vacancy to fill — the result of a unique family double-play.

It was the first of a group of such treaties expected this month with which Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany are forging a new Communist sub-bloc dedicated to perpetuating the division of Germany.

The Polish-Czechoslovakia pact declared both nations present frontiers inviolable and said Hitler's 1938 Munich agreement against Czechoslovakia was made with the threat of force and was never valid.

The treaty said the two nations would provide each other "all assistance including military" in the event of an attack by West German "militarist and re-ventist forces" or any of their allies.

Finance Board Asks Talks On School-Owned Buses

The board of finance will write the board of education asking for an audience to discuss the financial aspects of the school's owning their own buses.

The finance board earlier suggested that the school look into the matter. The superintendent is scheduled to make a report of his findings at the April school board meeting.

The bus contract, now with the Negro company, is also due to come up for bid.

In the meantime a member of the board of finance has been making a study of the town's owning its own school buses.

A thorough preliminary study of Andover has been made, and these figures will be presented to the board.

Andover reports considerable savings in the area of taxes, insurance fees and registration fees, among other things. The Andover school system owns five buses, according to the study.

The board of finance will also look into the Glastonbury school's program and into the cost of leasing buses before appearing before the board of education.

The board of finance met last night and will meet again in a week or so to interview more auditors and take action on some tabbed items.

Kindergarten Bills Get Wide Support

HARTFORD (AP)—Bills to require communities in the state to provide kindergartens for their children were vigorously supported at a public hearing Tuesday.

The hearing, conducted by the General Assembly's Education Committee, a spokesman for the State Board of Education said about 4,500 youngsters in 20 communities in the state do not have access to public school kindergartens.

"Kindergarten is neither a full nor a baby-sitting service," said W. D. Thomas of the Education Board of Education, another speaker.

Children in one of the 20 communities in the state which have no public school kindergartens, a child who might be kindergarten is being educationally handicapped, several speakers said.

Both the Republican and Democratic parties are committed in their party platforms to mandatory kindergartens, according to a spokesman for the Connecticut Education Association.

Others who spoke in favor of the bills included representatives of the Connecticut League of Women Voters, the Connecticut Parent-Teachers Association, the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents, and the State Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

Others who spoke included one to allow parochial and other non-profit private schools to receive the state health, safety and welfare benefits at public expense as children attending public schools.

Health and nursing services, psychological services, visiting teacher services, speech and hearing remedial services and others are included in the bill.

Sen. William S. Verrier, D-Waterbury, said his bill is aimed at correcting "discrimination" between public and private school pupils.

Rep. John E. Papandreas, D-Meriden, said a bill he has drafted would establish courses in marriage education in Connecticut's high schools.

He said the course would emphasize the economic and social aspects of marriage and help prepare young people for it.

Rep. Otha N. Brown Jr., D-Norwalk, said a bill he has introduced would require that textbooks used in public schools "fairly represent" the accomplishments and history of racial and cultural minorities.

Health Cuts Assailed

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. John Dempsey's cut in the State Health Department's proposed budget were assailed Tuesday at a public hearing conducted by the Legislature's Appropriations Committee.

The department had asked for budget appropriations for $23 additional workers; the governor allowed for 25 in his budget.

State Health Commissioner Franklin M. Foote had asked for $7.1 million for the next two years for his department. The governor decreased that to $6.9 million.

Spokesmen for the nursing profession asked for more money for nursing scholarships.

"What looks like a modest increase in the budget, $7.8 million over the current biennium, actually means that we're standing still," said Mrs. Gertrude Norcross of the Connecticut Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Population increases and car costs account for much of the budget increase, she said.

Volunteer Service
Mrs. Ronald Verrier of 35 Millard Rd., left, president of Manchester Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, is presenting a service pin to Mrs. Elizabeth Flano of Birch Mt. Rd., Bolton. The presentation was made yesterday afternoon at an Awards Tea at the Doctors' Dining Room at the hospital. Mrs. Flano received the award for serving 506 hours as a volunteer.

Historical Unit Sees Film, Has Show-Tell Presentation

The Manchester Historical Society divided its meeting into two parts last night at Junior High School. A film on Colonial Williamsburg, entitled "Colonial Naturalist," was shown before members of the association gave a "Show and Tell" presentation.

The film, rented from Colonial Williamsburg, Va., where it was made, showed the birds and native animals of Virginia. A thread narrative drawn from the life of Mark Cateby, who sketched in color and wrote a natural history of the area as the eighteenth century, was shown. The settings provided by the company of Williamsburg, as one proposed that she check its antecedents. The shape, the costumes, gave authenticity as "Colonel William Byrd" pointed out to "Cateby" such aspects as a rye style by Beth Thomas of Plymouth.

War Brought Names

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—The Civil War influenced the naming of some Florida villages. White Springs, on the Suwannee River, was once known as Rebel's Refuge. And the railroad hamlet of Sandy Ford became Station Five because its women's sewing circle, making garments for the Confederate Army, shipped them in cartons marked "From Station Five"—the railroad station was the fifth from the capital.

12th Circuit Court Cases

ROCKVILLE SESSION

A teenager charged with six counts of larceny over $15, breaking and entering, and possession of stolen goods was given a sentence of indefinite length at the Cheshire Reformatory yesterday morning by Judge Stanley Yeskowitz.

Leonard Douglas, 18, of Elm St. had been "bucking society" too long, the judge said as he pronounced the sentence. Douglas has been in court several times in the past.

The charges involved cars broken into.

In a companion case, Joseph Bluschedl, 27, of Harvard Tpke., charged with eight counts of larceny and breaking and entering, had his case continued because his lawyer, Stephen E. Kitcham, was not present.

Whether the eight-year-old brother of Curtis Jones Sr. of Egypt Road, Ellington was hunting or roaming when trapped by Joseph Laberman, Ellington dog warden, was the question posed as Jones was presented on charges with allowing a dog to roam.

Laberman said he caught the pup in a baited trap on the property of one of Jones' neighbors on Jan. 31. Jones admitted the trapped dog was but tried to convince the judge the dog was allowed to roam as training for hunting.

Judge Yeskowitz explained to Jones he was not in control of the dog when it was trapped and a complaint against the dog was lodged. Jones was found guilty and fined $5.

James T. Donnelly, 38, of Springfield, Mass. posted $500 bond for court appearance late of March on a charge of non-support. He was arrested by Vernon Police Monday on a warrant issued by the 12th Circuit Court.

Other dispositions were: Francis C. Alesvra Jr. 18, of Abington Road, Hazardville, breach of peace, $10; Dale E. Babb, 17, Rt. 30, failure to obey traffic rules, $25 with probation; Robert Chisick of Rockville, 18, failure to give the right of way to an overtaking vehicle, $10.

Also tried: Kohrs of Waterbury, speeding, $36; William Heints Jr., 17, of Metcal Rd., 20, failure to stop at a red light, $18; Joseph Swider III, 17, of Chicopee, Mass., in companion matter in the case of Gallison, unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle, $10 and improper passing, $15; Robert W. Wright, 24, of West Hartford, failure to grant one half the highway, $21.

Father-Son Team in Pinafore at Bailey Auditorium

W. J. Godfrey Gourley of 72 Cooper Hill St. will play Sir Joseph Porter, first lord of the Admiralty, and his son, Peter, as the two leads in the musical comedy production "HMS Pinafore" which will be presented Friday and Saturday at Bailey Auditorium, Manchester High School. "Trial by Jury" is also on the play bill. Curtain time each evening is 8:30. A preliminary matinee at 2:30 will also be presented. Proceeds of the shows will be donated to the Swimming Pool Fund of the Handicapped. Tickets may be obtained at the door. (Herald photo by Ottara)

Piano Students To Give Recitals To Give Benefits

Mrs. Karen W. Pearl and Mrs. Louise Recknagel, both of Warner Piano, Organ and Vocal Studio, announce the first in a series of midseason recitals Sunday, at 3:30 p.m. at the chapel of South Methodist Church. The event is open to parents, friends and interested persons.

Interest earned on GI life insurance dividends left on deposit with the VA must be reported on tax returns since it is classified as earned income and not a benefit. Wierzbicki said. But both proceeds of GI policy have risen from about $1 billion in 1953 to $38 billion a year today. About half of this outlay comes from the federal government.

Other VA benefits which are not taxable are educational and training allowances, subsistence payments to disabled veterans in vocational rehabilitation training, compensation and pension payments, grants to veterans for so-called "wheelchair" homes and motor vehicles, and all benefits to families of deceased veterans.

Woman Injured In Car Mishap

Ellen S. Livingston of 784 E. Middle Tpke. was taken to Manchester Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon after she was driving southbound on the wet road surface on Greenwood St. near St. Paul Dr. yesterday morning and crashed into a parked car owned by Thomas J. Quinn of 124 Greenwood Dr., police report.

She was treated at the hospital emergency room for a fractured forearm and a fractured knee and discharged, a hospital official said.

Both the parked vehicle and the Livingston car had to be towed away. The Livingston vehicle had extensive front end damage, police say. They said the woman received a written warning for operating a motor vehicle too fast for road conditions.

Police investigated three other accidents yesterday, one involving single cars, two of which took place at exit 92 of Rt. 35.

A car driven by Marc R. Girard, 23, of 30 Essex St. skidded on the snow at the intersection of E. Elm St. and struck a guard rail, police say. Minor damage was reported to the Girard vehicle.

At 7 a.m., a car driven by Joseph Goldberg, 53, of Hartford and the slippery pavement and hit the guard rail.

Teens to Hold Benefit Dance

The Teen Center will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. at the center. Proceeds will be donated to the Manchester Association for the Help of Retarded Children (MARC). Music will be provided by "The Victrolas." The event is open to all Manchester young people, and those who attend high school in town.

Last year Teen Center donated to the Manchester Association for the Help of Retarded Children $200 which was raised at a benefit dance.

MARC was chosen as the recipient this year by the Teen Center because of its work with mentally retarded children and young people, and its two major projects, Bunco Center and the Sheltered Workshop.

School Board Sets Pay Plan for Nurses

A pay schedule ranging from $4,000 to $6,200 for school nurses was approved by the board of education last night. The salary schedule will be in 11 steps with an increment between steps of $200 except for the first and last steps which will have a $300 increase.

The nurses had requested a schedule of $4,500 to $6,300. An additional $1 per day for each day worked by the nurses was approved as a car allowance for personal care usage. At present this allowance is based on eight cents per mile.

A motion was also made that the board recommend that nurses' salaries be adjusted annually in accordance with the cost of living index and that each nurse be issued a yearly annual salary agreement. The motion was defeated.

Superintendent of schools Charles Warner presented the four nurses and said he had asked them to appear in the school on nursing duties in the coming year. Mrs. Majorie Files, school nurse at the high school, commented that South Windsor has been on a low level of the salary scale for some time.

Draft Dodging Community Growing Fast in Canada

TORONTO (AP) — Scott, who he wants to be known, was a 23-year-old film editor in the United States. Last fall, a week after he received his draft notice, he decided to evade military service by coming to Canada.

He said he is among the growing number of Americans who are dodging their presence in Canada. He has sparked excitement in parliament. Canada has no draft.

Scott unites some draft-evaders in Canada. It is not a pacifist. He is a Communist. He is a Communist. He is a Communist. He is a Communist.

Tollard Grand List Hike $1,798,390 After Review Board Paring

Tollard's net taxable grand list stands at $21,428,945, according to revised figures released by the Board of Tax Review. This is a $1,798,390 increase over last year's $19,630,555.

The board deducted $5,995 from figures of the board of assessors from several sections in which taxpayers presented their grievance on property assessments.

Construction Approved of the board, noted that he had received a letter from Donald Everole, chairman of the public hearing commission, informing the board that the music room at their homes or in the case of an emergency to the hospital.

Everole requested that Supt. Warner call Mayor James J. Barrett, Jr. and inform him of the proposed budget. Supt. Warner commented that copies of the proposed budget had been distributed to members of the press. PTA approved, this would interest citizens organizations. A copy of the budget was mailed to Bar-boro on the number of this week.

Club Speaker

State Supreme Court Justice Charles S. House of 180 Westland St. will speak Friday at 2 p.m. at a meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club in the Federation Room at Center Congregational Church. His topic is "The Connecticut Court System." Mrs. A. F. Mariani is hostess for the meeting, which is open to members and friends. A native of Manchester, Justice House graduated from Manchester College and Harvard Law School. He served as assistant prosecuting attorney of Manchester, deputy judge and prosecuting attorney of the Town Court; a member of Manchester board of education and its continuing for many years; and a member of the charter revision committee of this town. He has served in the Connecticut assembly both as representative and as senator, and is a former assistant state attorney at Hartford, Conn. Justice House was appointed to the Supreme Court of Errors while serving as chief justice of the State Superior Court in April 1965, and had been a member of that court since July of 1963, upon appointment by former Gov. John Lodge. He was sworn in as a justice of the Supreme Court of Errors July 1, 1966.

Half Dollars Seen Again, Supply Tight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Half dollars are beginning to circulate again but the Treasury Department said today it still is wary to declare an end to the shortage. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Robert A. Wallace said in a report today that the coins are beginning to appear in relatively light supply for the rest of the year. But "we keep up current production to meet the shortage should end gradually." Current production is at a normal rate of 100 million pieces each month. Wallace said he has informal reports that the coins are coming into circulation at an increasing pace with each passing month. The Treasury last year declared the coins shoddy for pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters. The shortage of halves is related not only to the basic coin shortage which plagued the country in recent years but also to the image of the late President John F. Kennedy which appears on them. Wallace said once people realize the Kennedy halves will be the coin of the realm for at least 20 years the coins will begin circulating more freely.

Area Weather

WINDSOR LOCKS (AP) — Cold weather has returned to Connecticut once again with brisk northerly winds. The disturbance which brought snow early Tuesday now lies far to the north of Connecticut. But the strong circulation around it, coupled with the circulation around an area of high pressure over the western Great Lakes, will produce northwest winds of 10 to 25 mph with high clouds today. Overnight skies were mostly fair. The wind kept temperatures from falling to extreme cold levels, although readings did fall into the teens in most sections. With considerable sunshine today the cold wind will keep temperatures from rising above the mid and upper 20s. The center of the high pressure system will pass over Connecticut today. Five Day Forecast: Temperatures in Connecticut Thursday through Monday are expected to average above normal. Daytime highs averaging low to mid 40s and overnight lows averaging upper 20s and low 30s. Gradual warming trend during first half of period, turning colder toward the end of the period. Precipitation may total 1/2 to 1 inch water equivalent occurring as rain about Saturday.

Pride and Joy of Wampum Develops More Than Passing Interest in Money

Allen Holding Out for $100,000 Contract

NEW YORK (AP)—When a guy grows up in Wampum, Pa., it's only natural that he develops more than a passing interest in money.

And when he hits 21, he's got to make a few bucks. He's got to make a few bucks in 116 runs, the interest becomes intense.

So Allen is prepared to spend this summer selling automobiles instead of holding baseball bats. The Philadelphia Phillies fill his pockets with cash.

Specifically, Allen is asking for $100,000, which is considerably more than the $25,000 he figures he can make in the summer. But Allen is not a second team player. He did not receive any second team votes in the A.A. voting for the 1967 All-American team which was announced Tuesday.

Allen, a native New Yorker who has lived up to all the way predictions made when he was still in high school, received 215 of 290 total cast. Far behind in second place was Jim Walker of Providence with 48.

"Allen, who also?," was the comment of many voters who cast their ballots for the Westley Ursell of Louisville's Missouri Valley Conference champion, who third with eight votes. Gene Haszine of Western Kentucky, Ron Widby of Tennessee and Bob Lloyd of Rutgers tied for fourth with four votes each.

Bob Verge of Idaho, Bridgford Welch of Idaho, Dan DeLuca of New Mexico, and Larry Miller of North Carolina, Don May of Dayton, Sam Williams of Iowa, and Lucius Allen of UCLA topped the honorable mentions which included Allen, Williams and more the voting for the All-American by 200 sports writers and broadcasters, 18 of whom then did not participate in the selection.

about this year's contract and the $100,000 figure when he was second base after.

Mill Pappas, who is holding out for more money from the Reds, was criticized by a former teammate Tuesday.

Jim O'Toole, traded by Cincinnati to the Chicago White Sox, backed up changes by Joe Nuxhall that Pappas has failed to give 100 per cent last season.

O'Toole, who was dealt for outfielder Floyd Robinson, said Pappas picked his spots.

"He would be ready when we faced the Mets or some other second division club," said O'Toole. "But when the Cardinals came along, he would turn up with a headache. Pappas has a work ethic, but he never put out more than 60 per cent last season," said O'Toole.

Pappas has 12-11, O'Toole 6-7 and Nuxhall 6-4 for the seventh-place Reds.

Another holdout, Rocky Colavito of the Cleveland Indians, expects to play by General. "From what I hear," said owner Horace Stoneham, "John is in pretty good shape. I hope he is doing some throwing and keeping his arm loose."

It's a cinch Stoneham isn't thinking of the pivot throw from the short last summer. He missed 24 games with a lame shoulder.

"That's all a player has got to do," said Stoneham. "If he's seriously hurt so I couldn't play, what would I have? Nothing."

Allen, who made $42,000 last year, decided to ask for six figures this season. He likes the security that kind of money provides.

"If Quinn comes up with the $100,000, he can have Allen in camp. But I'll take more money than that to get Jim Marshall into the San Francisco Giants uniform."

Juan is managing and playing second base for a softball team. He has native Dominican Republic and the last time he was in touch with the Giants, he said, "I'm 100 and Cuba Fenney said 'no.'"

Marichal says he won't budge until Fenney meets his price but the Giants don't seem overly concerned.

"From what I hear," said owner Horace Stoneham, "John is in pretty good shape. I hope he is doing some throwing and keeping his arm loose."

Player of Year Laurels to Lew

NEW YORK (AP)—Low Alcinder, UCLA's super sophomore named today as the college basketball Player of the Year by The Associated Press.

The 6-foot-11, 200-pounder, who averaged 20.4 points and 11.2 rebounds a game, led the Bruins to a 27-1 record and a national championship.

Alcinder, a native New Yorker who has lived up to all the way predictions made when he was still in high school, received 215 of 290 total cast. Far behind in second place was Jim Walker of Providence with 48.

Notes from the Little League Book
Pity the poor major league baseball players. Player representatives agreed to press for a shorter season—which is logical—and a minimum salary of $12,000. . . . Pick tonight is Holy Cross over UConn and Boston College is a heavy choice to oust UConn in the NCAA Regional Tournament April 11 at Rhode Island.

Poverty, Health, Weather, Bagels Gay City in CL

Hard times for the state's war veterans are being fought by Connecticut Life Magazine, included in Saturday's Herald. As the price of the Vietnam conflict rises, the battle against war at home is being fought on sheltered veterans. Connecticut's supervisory director Joseph Dyer suggests new tactics for the 15 generals in the field, as the nation moves to aid its disadvantaged citizens.

Oil War Ends, Syria Reopens Iraq Pipelines

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Syria called off its oil war with the Western-owned Iraq Petroleum Company today and agreed to reopen pipelines from Iraq to the Mediterranean.

News Tidbits

Newly State Rusk says government elections in South Vietnam may be held in early 1968.

Under the agreement, the IFC will pay increased transit rates as of Jan. 1, 1968 for oil pumped across Syria territory.

A company spokesman said orders were sent immediately to start work on the pipelines and that oil from Kirkuk, in northern Iraq, would start flowing again within a few days.

Oil circles here said the new agreement was a breakthrough by Syria, which failed to rally general support from its Arab neighbors for its stand.

The Damascus regime had also faced pleas from Iraq to release its stranglehold on the Iraqi economy.

The IFC here said it had signed the agreement for higher royalties after Syria.
