JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—A Soviet fishing vessel—the second to be accused this month of violating U.S. rights in Alaskan waters—was being towed toward Kodiak today by a Coast Guard cutter.

Capt. Robert Emerson, commander of the Coast Guard station at Kodiak, said the Soviet skipper refused to follow the cutter's orders to stop at the vessel was taken, under tow. If the Soviet changes his mind and proceeds under his own power the vessel could arrive by late afternoon. The tow would take nearly two days.

The 178-foot trawler, SRM 8-407, was boarded south of the Shumagin Islands Wednesday after a Coast Guard aircraft had engaged it in "hot pursuit" of the vessel for 19 miles.

The Coast Guard said the aircraft, on routine law-enforcement patrol, spotted the trawler fishing 5.5 miles east of Seal Cape in the Shumagin, a violation of the U.S. 12-mile exclusive fisheries zone which went into effect March 17.

The aircraft signaled the ship to heave-to and await arrival of a government ship. Instead, the trawler picked up her fishing gear and headed toward international waters. The "Storis" of children 12 years of age and younger. Adults can't get in unless accompanied by a child.

The event has occurred annually since except for a period from 1941 to April 6, 1953. The egg rollings were suspended in 1941 because of World War II, even though the United States was not then directly involved, and were not permitted again until the first year of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

Annual Egg Roll Slated Monday At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The traditional Easter egg rolling will take place on the White House grounds Monday.

Gates will be open from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. for admission of children 12 years of age and younger. Adults can't get in unless accompanied by a child.

Accuse U.S. of Kidnaping Koreans Demand Defector's Return

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—North Korea accused the U.S. command today of kidnaping a Communist newsmen who was detected at this truce village, demanded his immediate release and the U.S. military police to return him to the U.S. Army.

Col. George F. Elsenhower, secretary of the U.S. command, rejected the Red demand and said that Lee So-hyun, 4, vice president of the official North Korean Central News Agency, had defected to South Korea of his own initiative.

"The choice of an individual to decide where to live is a basic right of the peoples in all free nations," Charlton told North Korean Col. Han Chuk-kyong, the U.S. command.

Lee fled from the armistice commission hut Wednesday in a view of about 50 Communist guards and newsmen jumped into the waiting car.

Thomson said two Communist guards tried to force their way into the car, but they were blocked by U.S. Army troops.

Col. Han retorted that the guards fired because it was an "abnormal" situation in which a Communist newsmen was being abducted.

Reserve Rules To Tighten for Draft-Age Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—Draft-age men soon will have a tougher time getting into Reserve and National Guard units.

The Defense Department, acting on instructions from President Johnson, ordered Wednesday that beginning May 1, Reserve units must give enlistment priority to men below 24 years of age.

Volunteers other than those in the younger group—ages 17 to 24—are to be accepted only if needed to fill specific unit vacancies.

Defense officials emphasized, however, that all reservists in good standing are deferred from the draft and the new policy won't affect them.

Defense officials don't know how many future Reserve enlistments will come from the younger group. But one guess would be a majority.

Week's Viet Loss Highest of War

SAIGON (AP)—The ever-mounting cost of the Vietnam war was underscored today by the announcement of record American and Communist casualties last week while both sides increased in total strength.

Communist mortar barrages accounted for much of the rising U.S. casualties, and more of these were reported Wednesday and today in two sensitive war spots.

Red mortar shells rained down on U.S. positions just below the demilitarized zone separating North and South Vietnam and along the Cambodian border where the biggest U.S. jungle sweep of the war is under way.

The U.S. command also disclosed that 18 such ground sweeps are now being conducted, an indication that a high level of casualties can be expected to continue.

The U.S. command said that 2,670 Communist soldiers were killed last week while 211 Americans were killed and 1,874 were wounded.

At the same time, U.S. troop strength in the country grew to 427,000 men, while U.S. intelligence estimates Communist numbers at 286,000 men, increases of 4,000 on each side. The Communists increased their numbers despite the loss of 19,500 dead—the equivalent of eight full regiments—since the first of the year.

The U.S. command drew attention to the Red mortar attacks as "a tactic the enemy is favoring increasingly." An official summary said "this trend shows both increasing incidents and intensity."

Milk Still Available Despite Withholding

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Farmers Organization or cottage cheese.

The organization said New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller called him Wednesday to advise him of the proposed union, which Dempsey said he has directed finance commissioner George J. Conaling to discuss and Latin America.

The NFO is seeking to add two cents a quart to the price farmers receive, now generally 8 to 10 cents a quart.

The NFO concentrated its drive on 25 states from Idaho eastward to New York. But little, if any, action has been reported in five of them: Connecticut, an organization of producers in the Chicago region.

Repercussions Seen in Voting Booths Farmers' Unrest Nears Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rebellious farmers spill milk on pastures and streets, marking a price struggle escalation many persons believe is reaching a crisis with repercussions from rural voting booths to big city supermarkets.

The milk holding and dumping initiated in 26 states is the most dramatic expression of what farmers and their representatives in Congress describe as deep unrest over declining prices, rising costs—and the seemingly greener pasture on the city side of the fence.

A march by 100 farmers on the New Jersey state house in Trenton, dynamiting of a milk truck in Tennessee, vandalism spilling to stored milk in Minnesota—these were among developments Wednesday as the week-long National Farmers Organization campaign to boost milk prices heightened in intensity.

More demonstrations, boycotts and strikes are expected, said a Midwest congressman. "He wants to be part of the 'punch' society."

With farm prices adding for six consecutive months, farmers charge they are being short-changed in a booming economy.

Opponents of declining power at the polls, some farmers argue the administration simply is using its support tools to tamp down prices and the favor of irate consumers.

Farmer Cyril Bahagier of Bavaria, Kan., figures it adds up to this: "There are fewer farmers, more votes among consumers, so policies favor consumers."

Many farm leaders feel the same way. At a recent conference in Washington, one after another rose to complain about prices for wheat, feed grains, milk and other dairy products, beef cattle, rice. Many felt the government could do more to bolster prices if it wanted to.

Democrats and Republicans agree the situation foresees a battle for the administration, a trouble in Congress and a key conflict in the 1968 presidential campaign.

Recalling past election rivalry in fringe halls and corn fields, Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., observed: "I think a politician who goes around the country now telling farmers they never had it so good will be regarded."

There is no agreement on the depth and scope of the farm problem. Some contend it is a temporary matter of overproduction.

Zinc Paste Wares Fill Fume Plant

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—Chemical fumes filled the Ware Chemical Corp. plant today, forcing the evacuation of a dozen persons. One fireman was overcome.

Asst. Fire Chief John P. Gleason said a preliminary investigation showed that the fumes originated in four pallets of zinc oxide paste.

Firemen donned oxygen masks, carried 10 pallets of the paste into a yard and wet them down with spray nozzles in an effort to neutralize the fumes. Gleason said the pallet of paste, used for curing rubber, were stored in the building. For some undetermined reason, he said, a chemical reaction was created in the paste, sending fumes through the plant.

Lower Bus Fares Canary Bird Takes Flight

HARTFORD (AP)—The Connecticut Co. announced today plans to reduce its bus fares for retired persons over the age of 65.

E. Clayton Gengras, company president, said an application was filed with the State Public Utilities Commission.

If approved, the plan would be put into effect on the company's routes in New Haven, Hartford and Stamford for a six-month trial.

Canary Bird, a new commercial communications satellite intended to link four continents, soared through a preliminary transfer orbit today en route to a fixed outpost high above the Atlantic Ocean.

The Communications Satellite Corp. payload initially will be used to expand communications between North America and Europe. Next year, when Dempsey said he has directed finance commissioner George J. Conaling to discuss and Latin America.

Eternal Security Program State Man's Rosaries Known Around World

NEW HAVEN (AP)—His hobby is advertising a program for "Eternal Security."

Former President Eisenhower, the late Gary Cooper and Mao Tse-tung have each received his product—a string of rosary beads.

John C. Kelley, 46, a retired New Haven railroad dispatcher, designed his unique rosaries and began producing them in the early 1960s. Today, after about 25 years of making thousands of the beads, he personally mails out 75 to his home-made rosaries each year.

The beads, which were patented in 1964, are of varying colors and are carved in different shapes for use by blind persons.

But the rosaries aren't designed just for people who are physically impaired, Kelley says. "I feel that, as God did for all mankind, he set up a pattern which shows that we all have to be helped in our lives."

The death of his father, in 1940 just a few days after his uncle died, prompted Kelley to begin making the rosaries as an encouragement to others who are saddened or troubled. His father, Joseph E. Kelley, a former assistant fire chief in New Haven, died while fighting a fire.

Spring Weather Becomes Reality After Late Snow

NEW YORK (AP)—Gentle springtime became a reality in most of the nation today. Sunny skies and hot breezes predominated. Temperatures in the broad midlands were expected to reach the 50s clear to the Canadian border.

The jury of the rainstorms on the Texas plains and along the Northern Pacific coast abated, and the Northeast's instant snowmelt of Wednesday lasted into Friday.

The sudden snowstorm Wednesday left as much as a foot of snow in parts of the Northeast, and New York City received 10 inches. There was seven inches less there this morning.

Crashing thunderstorms lashed sections of the southern Plains of Texas Wednesday night, hurling heavy hail and rain across the state's northwestern section.

Up to four inches of rain fell on Spade, Tex., during a storm that left the ground covered with about three inches of hail. Up to 2½ inches of rain fell in Anton, Tex.

Tornadoes snaked along the Texas-New Mexico border, then dissipated harmlessly.

New England's third storm in 15 days left a major dent in the Bulletin

4 States and 3 Railroads Fight NHRR Price Hike

NEW YORK (AP) — Attorneys for four state governments and three railroads are together trying to demolish the case of New Haven had proposed buying new freight cars apparently at a higher price in the proposed sale of the bankrupt railroad.

All are attempting to shake the testimony of William Weyer, an expert on railroad equipment, who faced a fourth day on the witness stand today at a Central acquisition of the New Interstate Commerce Commission hearing.

Weyer was called upon by the Interstate Commerce Commission through a series of affidavits and exhibits that the New York Central Railroad is the price agreed upon by its bankruptcy trustees in a sale to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Weyer's ranking in this field prompted the Interstate Commerce Commission to call him to testify for the states dependent on the New Haven's passenger and freight services.

Weyer is not suggesting what the price for the New Haven should be. He evidently feels it should be somewhat more than a package of cash and securities agreed upon by negotiators and currently valued at $140 million.

Lawyers for the New Haven and the proposed Penn Central questioned him since Monday.

Late Wednesday, the grilling came from Walker J. Myskowski, attorney for New York, Rhode Island and Massachusetts awaiting their turn to hit him.

Myskowski scored a hit on the bondholders' freightly figures when he drew from a "bookkeeping" book that figures do not reflect allowance for discontinuation of state tax forgiveness to the New Haven.

Weyer said he was aware that such state aid might be withdrawn if passenger service were abandoned. He said he had not instructed aides to take that into account, because it involved undeterminable factors.

More land in the western United States was settled during the last three decades of the century than in the nation's entire earlier history.

Bay State Man Recording Western Union Melodies

BOSTON (AP) — The voice of a husky six-foot former construction worker may arrive in your mail box.

John Gorman of Whitman, Mass., sings the greetings on Western Union telegrams. Grams, plastic records delivered in greeting cards to salute birthdays, anniversaries and other occasions.

Gorman, in a sense, replaces the singing telegram that "went to war." After World War II, singing telegrams were "delivered" only by telephone until the Melody Gram debuted last November.

Gorman auditioned for "melody man" honors and was chosen over about 40 others, partly because of his diction.

His wide-ranging tenor - baritone voice is partly "do-it-yourself" trained, said Gorman, but his last vocal coach, with a philosophy of "make the best of what you have," worked on his diction.

"Because of my range," he said, "my other coaches wanted me to go into the opera field." But, he said he did not have the time to learn a foreign language, "and it is imperative to me that I understand every word I sing."

His favorite singer is Frank Sinatra, "primarily because he takes great care to deliver the message and the song." His favorite music is the popular ballad.

Gorman went into construction work — roofing, carpentry and masonry — after graduating from Avon, Mass., High School in 1944.

Brutality, Poor Care Found In Detention Home Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — A Bronx grand jury reports that it has found brutality, aggressive homosexuality, overcrowding and poor care in an eight-month investigation of a city-supported detention home for boys and girls.

The investigation was of Youth House, Inc., a charitable organization charged with the detention of boys 7 through 18 and girls 7 through 16.

In the report handed up Wednesday to Bronx Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Savino, the grand jury said that children charged with such minor offenses as truancy were frequently mixed with youths addicted to narcotics or guilty of serious crimes.

The report said sadistic inmates, serving as counselors, used their positions to sexually abuse other inmates.

The grand jury called for a wide range of reforms and questioned whether the police are "extremely tender years"—7 to 10—should be detained at all in Youth House facilities.

The report stressed the lack of medical facilities. It said that a girl "delivered her own baby on the steps of her arrival at Youth House."

The grand jury reported "an increase in the number of assaults and an increase in attacks on children by aggressive homosexuals" because of the lack of supervision.

Youth House operates four facilities in the city, but the grand jury said that the city is financing them entirely by city budget appropriations.

The grand jury investigation followed the death of 14-year-old Robert Greer on April 19, 1966, after he had been subjected to "abuse" by a 15-year-old inmate.

Farmers' Unrest Nearing Crisis

Two farm peace down and make the consumer and the housewife happy. The farmer is entitled to a fair price for his products.

Others see a crisis — with the only solution higher prices in the market place, sure to bring down the wrath of the housewife.

The solution, he adds, won't be found in new laws. "It isn't a matter of legislation any more. The farmer's situation isn't going to improve until the city dweller realizes he has to pay enough for his food to give the farmer a decent living wage."

McGovern sketches the reasons behind farm unrest this way: "It is because tens of thousands of farmers are still going broke every year or closing out before going completely broke."

But there are these statistics: The farm income in 1966 was the lowest since 1954. The average farmer's income was one-third less than the nonfarmer's.

But Republican Rep. Robert J. Dole of Kansas says, "The only crisis in the farm belt is a political crisis for the Democrats. The farmers have been living with this situation for a last two or three years. They'll have a chance to express themselves in 1968 and the Democrats are in trouble."

Mayor Says Public Works Same as Before Merger

Mayor Thomas McCluskey today answered charges made earlier this week by John D. Daigle, Republican candidate for representative from District One.

The Daigle charges concerned snow removal and the public works department headed by Andrew Triandis.

The Democratic mayor said he ordered the public works department to run the same as before consolidation, particularly in the area of snow plowing and removal which he agreed with all were equal to or better than any community.

But Triandis "would deviate from the previous system, John D. Daigle had to be desired in the final result," the mayor said.

The delays in snow removal were "unwarranted" because of the cut from the present budget of equipment needed to keep the trucks in top condition, he said.

Clay Finishes Off Last on List

Folley Out in Seven, Bonavona Next Foe?

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight Cassius Clay has finished off the last of a list of fighters who could be called—with kindness—contenders with his seventh-round knockout of Zora Folley.

Argentina's Oscar Bonavona will be the next sacrificial lamb for the superfast, invincible champion. The match will be in Tokyo, May 27, unless Clay's still has been dazed, he is expected to appear for a May Army induction April 11 in the ring.

Folley, the 34-year-old, No. 1 contender, was knocked out when the supremely confident Clay, or Muhammad Ali as he prefers, decided he wanted to pull the trigger on Wednesday night.

The end came at 1:48 of the seventh round from a chopping right to the jaw. Another right dropped the blood-spitting veteran for nine in the fourth round.

These were the highlights of a bout that became one-sided when Clay decided the time had become ripe to open up in the third round. Before that he danced around the ring, virtually concealing the first two rounds to the plodding, methodical challenger.

Bonavona, a 24-year-old, crude, muscular swinger, who was virtually blanked in 10 rounds by Folley several months ago in Madison Square Garden. His greatest defensive skill is blocking left jab.

Wilt Puts on One Man Show To Even Series with Royals

CINCINNATI (AP)—The series-opening upset in Italy and the zone adjustment Wednesday's only playoff game, against some defense is to move obvious with the first play going to the basket. At that point we knew what we were in for," Coach Jack McMahon of the Cincinnati Royals said quietly.

Clay heeded the warning. He was not carrying him. "I was a better fighter than Sonny Liston, or Floyd Patterson or Ernie Terrell," he said. "I was slick, tricky and a good boxer."

All-New England Selection For Walker and Bialosuknia

BOSTON (AP)—All-America Jimmy Walker of Providence and sharpshooting Wes Bialosuknia of Connecticut were runners-up in a tournament in dominating the 1967 All-New England Major College Basketball Team announced today by The Associated Press.

Walker, who led the nation with a 30-point average, was named for top honors. Bialosuknia, All-New England as a sophomore, moved into the top berth for a first team berth in 1966.

Wilt Chamberlain, a 6-foot-8 midget for Boston College, was voted all-New England for a second straight year after helping the Eagles to the finals of the NCAA Eastern Regional playoffs.

Joining Walker, Bialosuknia and Walters were Boston College junior Steve Adelman and Ed Sludoff, a 6-foot-7 sensation as a Holy Cross sophomore.

One Worry at a Time For Dayton's Mentor

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Dayton Flyers are coming to Louisville to play for the NCAA basketball title, but they're trying to take the whole thing in stride.

"It's always been our policy to worry about the game coming up before worrying about the next one," said Dayton's successful coach, Don Donohue, who is in the NCAA playoffs for the third straight year.

"We'll play everybody in the tournament the same way we went through the season," he added. "There's not time to change anything anyway."

Dayton and the three other teams competing for the NCAA title, UCLA, North Carolina and Houston, arrive today and will hold hour-long workouts in Freedom Hall, site of this year's tournament.

Dayton is the most surprising entry in the championship field, having advanced over sixth-ranked Western Kentucky and Southeastern Conference champion Tennessee, but Donohue says the Flyers planned it that way.

"We were hoping to go to the NCAA playoffs again," Donohue said. "We're an independent."

Grand Sights for Orioles Fans

Grapefruit League with Earl Yost

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankly speaking they were grand sights for Baltimore fans—those two balls soaring over the fence at Sarasota, Fla.

They were the first home runs of the exhibition season for Frank Robinson and they came on consecutive times at bat Wednesday in the Orioles' 4-1, dominating victory over Chicago.

Robinson, who has been quietly rounding into shape since undergoing knee surgery during the off season, only played four innings, but it was long enough to give opposing American League pitchers an early start toward a good case of the jitters.

Chicago tied the game at 4-4 on rookie Bill Voss' two-run single in the eighth, and then Baltimore won it on two wild pitches by Danny Lazar and Dave Johnson's single.

Two players St. Louis is counting heavily on had a big day in the Cardinals' 7-2 victory over the New York Mets at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Roger Maris got three singles and a double and scored four times, and Orlando Cepeda collected a single, double and triple for two runs.

Law is in camp but age and arm misdeeds have reduced his effectiveness although he won an dozen games last year.

Gay Brewer Leads Field At Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—Defending champion Gay Brewer leads a field of 144 pros into the $75,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament today on the 6,419-yard, par-72 Fancola Country Club course.

Top money in the 12-hole tournament is $18,000.

Tour tournament winners for 1967 in the field are two-time winner Julius Boros (Phoenix Open and Citrus Open), Bob Goody (San Diego Open), Jack Nicklaus (Bing Crosby National), Dan Sikes (Jacksonville Open) and Doug Sanders (Doral Open).

Sanders is returning to the scene of the tournament in which he blew his chances last year of becoming the first-year Pensacola winner.

The Cedarhurst, Ga., native was disqualified after 36-holes last year for failure to sign his score card. At the time, Sanders had shaved 14 strokes off par for a 130 and a four-stroke lead over Brewer.

Missing from the field are Arnold Palmer, Tom Niepor and Billy Casper, last year's past Pensacola winner.

Brewer deviated a late surge by Bruce Duvall last year to win by three strokes. It was Brewer's lone victory of the year and sparked him to a $75,000 year, his best since turning professional.

Frank Beard was low pro today at 64 in a pro-am event, collecting $30 for his side under-par performance.
