

Supreme Court Delays Huge Railroad Merger

Wants Check On Fate of Small Lines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court held up the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads today. Justice Tom C. Clark, announcing the 5-4 decision, said the merger should be delayed until the Interstate Commerce Commission determines the fate of smaller railroads. Clark made it clear the court was not passing on the validity of the merger, the biggest corporate union in the history of American business. Justice Clark noted that the bankrupt New Haven Railroad, the sixth largest in the Northeast and the largest in New England, would be controlled by the merged company. The ICC had ordered the Pennsylvania and the Central to absorb the New Haven when they merged. Details of the absorption are being worked on by the commission. The carrier had asked early action by the Supreme Court on the Penn-Central merger itself. Delay had been requested by the Justice Department and by nine other railroads.

Split Tanker Pours More Oil Toward Beaches

Huge seas during the night wrenched the giant American tanker, Torrey Canyon in two and left it at this 40-degree angle today. The split caused more of its cargo of heavy oil to spill toward the beaches of southwest England. A fleet of tugs is spraying detergent on the oil trying to sink it. Britons call the floating oil slick "the greatest peacetime disaster to hit the West Country."

Easter Pilgrims Shiver

More Interest in Johnsons Than White House Egg Roll

WASHINGTON (AP)—Children romped on the White House lawn today as the first family continued the traditional Easter Monday egg-rolling. But there seemed less interest in egg rolling than in whether President and Mrs. Johnson would return from Camp David, Md., in time to greet the children and their parents. The chances looked slim. The Johnsons have not revealed when they would return to the White House from their weekend at the presidential retreat at Camp David. By mid morning nearly 3,000 children and adults had been admitted to the south lawn at the White House. Grounds keepers had already installed protective fencing around trees, shrubs and flowers in the south gardens. Very few youngsters followed the ground rules for the egg-rolling contest. According to a tradition which dates back to the administration of President James Madison, children are to roll or throw the eggs—either hard boiled or uncooked—which they have brought from home. But many of the children, apparently expected the White House to provide the eggs, came empty handed. First waiting to enter the White House grounds was George Destefano and his family of Clark, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. Destefano and their 11-year-old son, George Jr., waited more than 90 minutes before White House guards opened the gates to hundreds of visitors. A giant papier mache figure of Peter Rabbit stood on the White House south lawn. Sunshine appearing through a hazy sky and temperatures in the fifties encouraged the sizable attendance. Although President Madison is credited with starting the egg-rolling tradition, it was not (See Page Eight)

Ex-Selectman Gets Apology from Dodd

CHESHIRE, Conn. (AP)—A former Democratic selectman, now a Republican, says he has received an explanation and an apology—and $70 back—from Sen. Thomas P. Dodd. The ex-selectman, John Drew, sent the $70 to the Democratic senator from Connecticut last week. Dodd, during his testimony before the Senate ethics committee in Washington, had mentioned among his extra expenses $70 for luncheon for a Medal of Honor winner from Connecticut. The committee hearing dealt with Dodd's financial affairs. Drew, angered by Dodd's remarks, which apparently referred to Marine Capt. H. Curtis Barnum of Cheshire but did not mention the Medal of Honor winner by name, sent Dodd $70 and said he found the senator's remarks "in bad taste." Drew said he received the $70 from Dodd Saturday, along with a letter in which the senator (See Page Nineteen)

Gotham Banks Reduce Prime Interest Rates

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's third largest bank, First National City Bank of New York, reduced its prime interest rate to 5 1/2 per cent from 5 3/4 per cent today. Other large New York banks which had been charging 5 3/4 per cent promptly followed suit. Shortly after First National City's terse announcement, Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co., Bankers Trust Co., Irving Trust Co. and Chemical Bank New York Trust Co.—all among the nation's largest—announced they were also reducing their prime rates. The prime rate is the interest banks charge their biggest and most credit-worthy customers. The reductions are effective immediately. The move by the New York banks was expected to be followed by other large banks across the nation. (See Page Nineteen)

Viet Pacification To Be Revamped

SAIGON (AP)—A major overhaul of the American effort to aid pacification of the Vietnamese countryside was under way today to further trim duplication and lack of coordination. Some Vietnamese sources voiced concern over reported eagerness in Washington for quick results. The latest program to win over the peasantry to the government side is showing signs of progress after a series of defeats, and the sources said, it could be damaged fatally by pressure for speed and rapid expansion. The final form of the new American command structure in pacification is still being worked out in Washington, U.S. officials said. Sources said Robert W. Komer, a special assistant to President Johnson, will replace outgoing Deputy Ambassador William Porter as head of the civilian part of the pacification program. Komer has recently been concentrating on pacification problems. Porter's nominal replacement in the embassy is Eugene Locke, a Texas oil man who was ambassador to Pakistan. Whether Locke will have a pacification role is not clear here. That probably will be announced after the current talks in Washington involving most of the new men in the top U.S. civilian slots in Saigon. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is being replaced by Ellsworth Bunker. (See Page Eight)

A Short Look at New York's Easter Fashions

These Easter Paraders, near St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, put their emphasis on mini-skirts, rather than the tradition of the day—hats. The temperature was in the 50s and police estimated over 200,000 took part in the fashion procession—but only a few in mini-skirts. (AP Photofax)

Hundreds of people stood around New York's Central Park yesterday—not doing anything, just standing around. It was part of a huge "be-in," not a protest and no planned program. The most noticeable activity was a spasmodic "ring-around-the-rosie." (AP Photofax)

College Revelers End Holiday Fling

NEW YORK (AP)—Youth had its fling over the Easter weekend, mainly at several East and Gulf Coast resorts, to climax their holiday vacations. But it wasn't all rioting and arrests as the mood set at a West Coast "Love-In" and a Manhattan "Be-In." Police heaved sighs of relief Sunday as more than 40,000 college students headed back to classes, leaving some beaches strewn with beer cans and other debris. At Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the bulk of 30,000 college boys and girls began a mass exodus to various campuses. There were 500 in the young army of revelers arrested for drunkenness, rowdiness, loitering and interfering with police activities from Thursday through Sunday. Early Sunday, 16 youths were arrested by Fort Lauderdale police after they pelted officers with firecrackers. A van taking them to jail burst into flames but the driver quickly opened the door and averted serious injury. The visiting young people at Daytona Beach, Fla., found that local authorities eliminated sex-related picketing with a ban on beer-drinking on the beach. At Biloxi, Miss., an Easter Sunday rain put a damper on the rollicking activities of some 10,000 college students. "It seems to have taken the cool out of them," a Biloxi policeman said. Before the rain, however, 36 youths had been arrested on such charges as disorderly conduct, destroying property, drunken driving, interfering with highway traffic and indecent exposure. Police Chief Louis Rosetti said, "It's a mess. They've been breaking windshields of cars, tearing up lawn chairs, and tearing down piers to build bonfires." On Saturday, police cleared the beach of beer-swilling students as Rosetti announced: "We're not letting them camp on the beach." At Ocean Drive Beach, S.C., several hundred college and high school students began riot-

Too Late! Fred Zeller Freed After Nine Months

ONEONTA, N.Y. (AP)—Three-year-old Willie Cornell excitedly urged his sleepy mother to come see the Easter bunny early yesterday. Mrs. Cornell arrived too late. The bunny she had been awakened to see already had eaten the crocuses she was growing near the house. SOMERS (AP)—Fred Zeller, former state comptroller and onetime Republican candidate for governor of Connecticut has been released after serving nine months in prison for embezzling $28,000 from his church. Zeller, a 57-year-old resident of Stonington, walked out of the state prison last Monday it was learned today. The state parole board and the prison refused to disclose his whereabouts. Zeller, who served for 14 years as state comptroller, longer than any other man in Connecticut's history pleaded guilty May 23, 1966, to a charge of embezzling from the First Baptist Church of Stonington Borough. He had served as treasurer of the church for many years. He was released from prison after nine months, when he became eligible for parole on his sentence of one to three years.

Trawler Saved By Cargo Shift, 4 Men Missing

THORSHAVN, Faroe Islands (AP)—In a risky maneuver, the 22-man crew of the Danish trawler Nolsroy Pall managed to shift cargo by hand and ward off disaster today in a raging Atlantic storm. But four crewmen who left the ship in a rubber raft were missing. The 312-ton trawler was out of danger and headed for Thorshavn under her own power, accompanied by a West German trawler, the Danish naval command said. She had sent out distress signals Sunday night after she began to list in heavy seas. Despite the high seas the crew decided to risk opening the hatches and undertake the task of shifting the salt cargo to put the trawler on even keel. Directing the operation was the trawler's captain, Ludvig Rysgaard, 38. A Danish navy spokesman said the maneuver had succeeded. But despite a "big air-sea search the four missing crewmen were not sighted. They had boarded a raft when the trawler appeared in danger of sinking. American and British planes participated in the search. Bound for Greenland, the trawler was reported 150 miles west of its home port of Thorshavn, capital of the Faroe Islands. The islands between Iceland and the Shetland Islands north of Britain belong to Denmark and have about 30,000 residents, largely fishermen and sheep herders.

Guilty Plea Murder Charge

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A 33-year-old woman pleaded guilty today in U.S. District Court to embezzlement of about $100,000 from the Connecticut National Bank in Bridgeport. The plea was entered by Theresa DiGirolamo, an assistant branch manager of the bank. She is alleged to have made the embezzlements from Jan. 1, 1961, through July 31, 1966, while an employee at the bank's East Main Street branch. Miss DiGirolamo, a 35-year employee of the bank, waived a grand jury hearing and pleaded guilty to the embezzlement charge. NFO Pickets Show Up at Dairy Plants

CHICAGO (AP)—Dairy farmer pickets appeared outside some dairy plants today as the National Farmers Organization strove to dramatize its 25-state effort to raise producers' prices by withholding milk from the market. Indianapolis processing plants were targets of some NFO members. Similar picketing occurred in other cities. But demonstrations appeared ineffective except in Tennessee where members of the Teamsters Union, refusing to touch dairy products, shut off the flow of milk to homes and stores "a much of the state." NFO picketing was reported in Sedalia and Kansas City, Mo. J. W. McKinney, state NFO president for Indiana, said of the Indianapolis picketing, "Local groups asked to do it, and we told them to go ahead so long as they did it legally." As the 13th day of the boycott began, the NFO claimed a ma-

No U.S. Apologies For Viet: Humphrey

GENEVA (AP)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey likened the American fighting in Vietnam today to the U.S. evasions in Berlin and Korea and told U.S. representatives in Geneva "we have nothing to apologize for." Humphrey injected Vietnam and European criticism of U.S. policy in Asia into a 45-minute talk to personnel of the American mission here on the first day of a two-week West European tour. "This is a peace administration," Humphrey declared, "but a peace with honor administration." In Vietnam, Humphrey said, the United States is carrying out three objectives of the U.N. Charter: To suppress aggression, promote self-determination and assist in nation building. "We have not some pax Americana in mind," he said. "We have no desire to be the world's policeman." But he contended the United States had a commitment to Vietnam and "if we waver" on commitments "there will be no peace." Humphrey compared criticism of President Johnson's Southeast Asia policy with attacks on Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman for their efforts to quarantine aggression. "If you think the situation is tough in Vietnam, remember it was at other times," he said. He said few supported Tru-

Man's conduct of the Korean War and added: "It's a strange thing when the leader is under assault some of the troops evaporate."

Humphrey's pep talk to the mission staff was obviously aimed at countering the constant criticism that Americans read and hear in Europe. He said Americans have a right to ask their allies denouncing the U.S. role in Vietnam; "What is more important here than there?" Humphrey arrived with an argument that he is expected to carry to other capitals in Europe—the urgent need for a treaty to curtail the spread of nuclear weapons. The vice president said during a brief airport ceremony at the first stop on his two-week European tour that the negotiations for a nonproliferation treaty are "life-and-death issues." The vice president is making the first extended swing through Western Europe by a top administration official since the late President John F. Kennedy's 1963 trip. He will discuss a variety of problems with foreign leaders and U.S. officials in six countries. Humphrey's mission comes at a time of some friction in U.S.-European relations, partly due to U.S. efforts to seek agreement with the Soviet Union in such areas as nuclear nonproliferation. "THE WAY I HEARD IT"

by John Gruber

Mozart's opera "Don Giovanni" is the next and final offering of the season by the Connecticut Opera Association, which opens its season on April 13 at the Bushnell. There are other performances for students, but the one on the 13th is the one which you will likely be concerned about.

Some years ago Mr. Pandolfi offered Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" and in general the audience was somewhat bewildered by it so that it was not an altogether popular success. "Don Giovanni" presents some similar problems, so I intend to point out some of the "places where you may go astray."

To begin with, Mozart opera is a different breed from the conventional Italian opera of the romantic period. Written as a comedy, it does not have much action, and the music which may seem disarmingly simple is, in fact, deceptively complicated in spots.

It is a long opera, largely because of the Don's stately air. He boasted that he wrote it in less than two weeks (he said liberally from the "place" by Bertini) and it is evident that he spent little or no time editing or tightening his script. There were eleven scenes for the first performance in 1787, and the second added two more for the Vienna premiere in 1788. If all the Mozart music is presented, performing time is nearly four and a half hours.

Actually, this is a very dramatic opera. I talked with Mr. Pandolfi who tells me that this performance will be in nine scenes grouped in two acts, with only one intermission. It should be all over about 11:30, but an exact timing is impossible since one cannot guess the amount of time the applause will consume.

The opera is very expensive to produce and represents the highest bargain of the season in terms of cost against admission. There is the matter of scenery and costumes, but these are large cast which must all be good.

One soprano usually suffices for an opera: Don Giovanni needs three. One bass is likewise usually enough; again Don Giovanni has three. And there are all big parts, all thoroughly well cast for this production. There is a tenor who must sing beautifully, although his part is rather small, and a baritone who also has a slight part, but has to be nearly equal par with the three basses.

Board of Selectmen Set Special Meeting on Friday

The Board of Selectmen has announced a special town meeting for this coming Friday at 8 p.m. to be held in the Elementary school. The bond issue for the school addition, alternative for the Planning and zoning Commission, adoption of the state's Base Building Code, and added payments to the assessors for special services make up the major business in the nine item warning.

The bond issue is set up for $200,000. Some $300,000, the original sum, as the $350,000 was covered by temporary borrowing in this fiscal year. The bonds will most likely be amortized over a 15-year period. Consideration had been given to a 20-year period with average annual payments of $30,000.

The lower annual payment would represent about one mill on the present $6,000,000 grand list. However, it was reported that a more favorable interest rate for the 15-year plan seemed to offer the advantage of a lower school debt expense for the next five to ten years.

The payment on the principal of $6,000,000 a year on the 1955 elementary school bond issue will be completed in the 1973-74 fiscal year. The $300,000 annual payments on the 1957 Rham bond issue, however, will continue to be paid through the fiscal year. Even though some school debt for new construction may be incurred in the intervening years relief from these two old bond issues will amount to about six mills in total. Increased federal and state aid to education could bring such relief much sooner.

Other items in the warning relate to financing within the fire department. The assessment item has to do with work to be done in "preparation of the equipment necessary to obtain the approval of the Tax Commission to eliminate the listing of real estate." This change would be a highly popular one especially to those unfortunate who forget the fire tax lists by Nov. 1 and thus incur the 10 per cent penalty for late filing.

The Don himself is a villain with a keen sense of humor and more than a dash of philosophy, brilliant and irresponsible. This is a "confession" character whom Siepi makes believable, whereas the famous "Papa" was always lost in the role, despite his reputation as a lover. He took the role seriously, whereas Leporello is a typical "buffo" and Flaggio should be marvelous in the role. The only difficulty I foresee is that one point he changes clothes with the Don, and since Flaggio weighs about 100 pounds more than Siepi it will be difficult to believe anyone could be confused by the ease with which the plot goes.

Carlo Moretto will conduct. I have a hunch he will be a shade heavy-handed for Mozart in tone, but he will keep the tempo up, something which is absolutely necessary if the opera is to be regarded as a comedy.

It will unquestionably be a sellout. Get your tickets early or you won't get any.

CHARGED IN FATALITY

WILLINGTON (AP) — A 22-year-old Whitman, Mass., driver has been charged with negligent homicide in the traffic death of a young child on R.L. 54.

He claims that on March 6, while driving home from classes at Manchester Community College, his car hit a pole on Parker St. He reports that the front and rear right tires went flat and that the two tire rims were bent completely out of shape.

State police said that the left front of Arnone's car collided with the oncoming Donnelly passenger vehicle on the highway. According to a police report, none of the other four passengers riding with Donnelly were injured.

Donnelly's car was damaged to the extent that it was towed to the garage of Donnelly's father, David P. Donnelly of Whitman. State police said that the left front of Arnone's car collided with the oncoming Donnelly passenger vehicle on the highway. UNUSUAL DISCARD OUTRAGES KILTZBERG. By ALFRED SHELMOLD. "Certain people should never be allowed in the same room as a deck of cards," said the Old Kiltzberg in a voice trembling with emotion. "I have watched bridge players for 80 years, and I am not sure that a play is had except to drive me away from the table."

Opening lead—ace of diamonds. The old gentleman had watched just two tricks of the hand shown today, and then he had walked out of the next room of his club to state his complaint. He gave him something medicinal with a twist of lemon peel and he told us about the hand.

Tolland New Programs Hike Budget for Teachers

A detailed look at the 1967-68 budget category of the proposed board of education budget discloses plans for several new programs and the continued expansion of others.

The instructional budget shows an increase of $206,084 over last year's $281,888, primarily due to teacher salary increases.

Salary negotiations resulted in above teacher salary range of $2,000 in 1967-68, compared to $2,000 to $3,000 for the 1966-67 year.

Proposed budget appropriations will finance the town's first high school program and the first public kindergarten. New teachers must be hired for each, including seven high school instructors and five kindergarten teachers.

A second guidance counselor will be hired to meet expanded needs of the school program. The salary will be partially reimbursed by the state over the next two years. The town will receive $4,000 the first year, $5,000 the second year and $2,000 the third.

A teacher for perceptually handicapped children will be hired to assist in the program for an expanded program to begin in September, approximately 100 children are expected to be included in the program at the end of the year, according to School Superintendent Robert Branton.

Tolland has been considered a leader in the state in providing for perceptually handicapped children (those with special learning difficulties). A limited teaching program has been conducted for the last few years in the home of Mrs. Paul Meyer.

The program has been aided by the Tolland Junior Women's Club as a club project for the last two years. A $500 scholarship for a teacher to the special courses toward accreditation in teaching handicapped children was provided this year. A bill passed in the last session of the legislature requires schools throughout the state to provide programs for these children.

The local program will provide instruction based on the need of the child. The child will be kept in classes with the other children "a good part of the day" according to Branton, so he won't feel different from the other children.

Expanded Programs Started This year will be continued and some will be expanded.

The "in-between" grades, 2½ and 2½, will be continued. These special classes, which are designed to give special instructional opportunities to the students enrolled, rather than merely repeating a grade. The classes have proven popular with the parents of those enrolled and the board of education has received several complimentary letters on the program.

An evaluation of the program will be presented at the April meeting of the board of education by Meadowbrook School principal Donald Parker, guidance director Andrew Winans and the teachers involved.

The reading, art and music programs also will be expanded. Particular attention will be given to the required reading and study skills course being required in the freshman year at the high school. The course will utilize facilities of the reading laboratory housed in the high school.

An additional reading instructor also will be sought for junior high and high school students.

The art program will be expanded to provide creative art work in various media to more students through employment of a second art teacher. The program now is limited to the instruction of art appreciation on the junior high level and advising regular classroom teachers on art instruction.

The music program will be

Hebron Town Meeting Wednesday To Weigh 2 Ordinances

The town meeting of Hebron will have two ordinances to weigh Wednesday night.

The first ordinance is a request for additional funds for snow removal. Because of last winter's storm, only twelve people attended the meeting, and it was postponed until this week.

Another of the meetings that has fallen victim to the spring snow is the PTA Youth Night, which was postponed. It will be held Thursday at the elementary school at 7:30 p.m. At that time, the program will be presented by Cub Scouts, Brownies and Girl Scouts of Hebron. There will be no business meeting.

Cubmaster Howard Lam will be in charge of Cub Pack #24, which is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Carabiner, Police said she backed her car from a driveway into a tree driven by Dave Anderson, 17, also of West Willington.

No injuries were reported. The women are scheduled to appear in Manchester Circuit Court 11 April 21.

The town meeting will be held Wednesday night at 8 p.m. at the elementary school to consider two ordinances.

The first proposed ordinance is to regulate the building of driveways or other appendages upon town high-ways in Hebron. According to a statement released by Planning Director Ralph C. Boyington, the driveway ordinance would provide the town through its selectmen (who are responsible for the town highways under state law), direct means of controlling the rapidly increasing construction of new private driveways within the limits of right-of-way of the town.

"Surely, we taxpayers of Hebron need to have positive control of these areas where property damage, bodily injury, or loss of life, is our liability, if they have been neglected," said the selectmen at the meeting.

The proposed ordinance would require getting a permit from the board of selectmen before a driveway is built. Other parts of the ordinance require that a cultivator be used in the driveway or other approach or ditch must be installed as deemed necessary by the board and agent, the holder of the permit would be responsible for any damage done to the driveway and a penalty, not to exceed $200, would be levied for violation.

"Tickets have been distributed throughout the state," he added, "and we're hoping for a sellout."

The performance, featuring the world-famous Count Basie and his Orchestra, will be held on Monday night only at Manchester High School, Bailey Auditorium, Thursday, April 6 at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the event, which is sponsored by the Manchester Association for the Help of Retarded Children, will be used to operate the Bunce Center for pre-school youngsters and the Manchester Sheltered Workshop, an occupational training center for adult retardates.

Tickets are available locally at the Lane Guitar and Music Center, 111½ Center St.; Liggett-Drummond, 100 Parkside; Holiday Lane, 30 Spencer St.; and Ray Bell's Music Shop, 101½ Main St.

Approximately 200 persons are patrons for the event. Their names will be printed in a special issue of the local journal sponsored by local merchants, to be distributed at the show.

Columbia Town Provides Dog Warden With Truck in Place of Car

Selectmen at a recent meeting voted to buy a second-hand panel truck for Walter Kokoszki dog warden, to be used for picking up and transporting dogs.

Kokoszki had raised the question at an earlier meeting, indicating that he no longer wished to use his own car, a new one for such duties.

The town built a modern dog pound on Kokoszki's property last year with funds in the "dog account," and it was Kokoszki's contention that as the pound is owned by the town, the truck, water and flame damage and three downed dogs and several cats, should also be purchased by the town and housed on its property.

Remaining funds in the dog pound account will be used to buy and insure the vehicle.

The board also voted to expand the duties of Clarence Grant, road foreman for the town.

Zoning and planning regulations require that streets in housing developments be constructed by the developer. Grant will inspect work accomplished in order to see it meets the required specifications of a subdivision.

A request was made regarding the care of the Freeman's Field which is used for a Little League baseball field. The man who mows the lawn green with the Recreation Council paying for the work done.

The question arose on insurance coverage on the lawn's mowing cover if it were to be used anywhere other than the town property. The insurance agent will be contacted before a decision is made.

EXPECTANT MOTHERS AND BABIES NEED VITAMINS

Medical authorities and public health agencies are in agreement about the need of vitamins supplements for expectant mothers. They also state that babies should take special vitamin supplements to help their growing bodies. These vitamins are one of the reasons for reducing infant mortality.

But the proper dosage and formulae required are so important that a physician should be the only one to choose which ones expectant mothers and infants should take. Therefore, physicians specify the particular dosage and brands they believe will help most. We carry them in stock and advise you to take no other.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

U.S. Awaits Alaska Receipt Of Russian Poacher's Fine

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—U.S. authorities are awaiting payment of a $10,000 fine assessed against the captain of a Soviet fishing vessel seized in U.S. territorial waters. The vessel, the Kuznetsov, 29 of Vladivostok, was convicted Saturday of violating U.S. fishing waters and was jailed when it was unable to pay the fine. The prosecutor, U.S. Atty. Richard McVigh, said he expected the fine to be paid today and when it is he will ask the Coast Guard to return the vessel to its owner. The vessel was seized last Wednesday off Alaska's Shumagin Islands within the nation's newly set 12-mile fisheries zone. The 17-foot ship and its cargo of shrimp was towed by the Coast Guard cutter Storis to Kodiak but was released Saturday. However, had it not returned to the Soviet fishing fleet, until Sunday afternoon when the Storis escorted the trawler 12 miles outside the U.S. fishing zone. This was the second Soviet ship seized this month for fishing in U.S. waters. The first was on March 3 inside Alaska's three-mile limit, and the skipper, Nikolai Zernov, was fined $3,000 and freed. The fine was paid two weeks later. Coast Guard Cmdr. George W. Harty Jr., captain of the Storis, said 14 other Soviet fishing vessels were in the area where Kuznetsov's trawler was turned loose. When Kuznetsov appeared before U.S. Dist. Judge James von der Heydt Saturday, he said through an interpreter, "I ask you to consider that the Soviet government respects the sovereignty of the United States

Hearings Slated By Town Boards

The next two weeks will be made up of those Manchester electors who have been demanding more public participation at meetings of town agencies and boards. Tonight, the Board of Education is conducting a public hearing at Wadwell School to permit the public to question it on any subject within its jurisdiction.

On Thursday, the Charter Revision will hold a public hearing in the Municipal Building to solicit suggestions on changes to the town's 20-year-old charter.

Sunday, at Wadwell School, the newly formed Manchester Taxpayers Protective Association will conduct a public meeting also at Wadwell School, to explain its aims and its procedure and to present speakers from state towns with similar organizations.

One week from tomorrow, the Board of Directors will hold its regular meeting, when the public will have two turns to speak.

And, a week from Wednesday, the board will conduct a public hearing at Tilling Junior High School to air the management's tentative 1967-68 town budget.

Miss Coleman has been a public hearing at Tilling Junior High School to air the management's tentative 1967-68 town budget.

She is vice chairman of the Manchester Democratic Town Committee, is a former town selectman, is a former president of the Manchester Business and Professional Women's Club, was the first secretary of the Guild of Our Lady of St. Bartholomew's Parish, and has been long active in the Manchester Community Players.

Members who have shown an interest are asked to attend. The meeting is open to learners, beginners and professional members. The meeting is in the rooms of the College, now the University of Manchester Community Players.

Selectmen Candidates Pay Scale, Tax Stand Are Assailed

The candidates for mayor in the April 4 town elections took swipes at each other's party today in the last full week of campaigning.

John Grant, Republican, spoke of the need for leadership and better pay scale methods while Peter Humphry, Democrat, said Grant does not "think before speaking" and repeated his tax cut pledge.

"The Democratic Party, after careful analysis of all information fully available to the public took a firm pledge to reduce taxes," Humphry said.

But Grant, Humphry said, made this statement on March 15: "We are not going to be foolish enough to promise a tax cut," and then last Friday said the Republicans will "hold the line" at its present level at the tax line.

Humphry said Grant's "lack of experience is now apparent."

Grant, a Republican candidate for mayor, cited the present Democratic mayor's handling of the pay scales of classified service workers in town as an example of where leadership is sorely needed.

The town charter, Grant said, provides for setting up the scales.

"Within two full years behind them, the administration" has failed to provide the scales, he said.

"This is a concrete substantiation for the charge by Representative Tom Carruthers, that the Mayor has a time and time again, exhibited complete disregard for the mandates of our adopted charter in favor of his own dubious methods," Grant said.

"Within two weeks after assuming office, I pledge to the taxpayers of Vernon that I will submit to the Board of Representatives a standard, systematic schedule of pay for each class of positions in the classified service of the Town," Grant declared.

The schedule will give the employees "force of effect" and will end the "annual rehash" of the pay figures, he said.

Youth Injured In Car Crash

A New York teen-ager escaped severe injury this morning when he fell asleep at the wheel of his car which careened off the right side of the Wilbur Cross Highway, leveled about 20 fence posts, and smashed into a bridge abutment, state police reported.

The car was demolished, police said.

The driver, Richard Sullivan, 18, of Syracuse was taken by Vernon Fire Dept. ambulance to Rockville General Hospital where he was treated for cuts, police said.

Sullivan, charged with failure to drive in the established lane, is scheduled to appear in Manchester Circuit Court 12 March 24.

Ralph Hart knows...

Vodka's growth—from zero to 10% of the liquor market in 15 years—has left the industry breathless. Heublein's Smirnoff Vodka started it all, is still the leader. Ralph Hart explains why: "Smirnoff's success was given its first impetus by newspaper advertising. For two years our advertising appeared in newspapers only and newspapers still claim the largest share of our budget because we know newspaper advertising works."

McDowell Near-Perfect Over Cubs

Hurls Six Innings, Allows Single Walk

NEW YORK (AP)—The verdict on Sam McDowell may not be final for a couple of months yet, but the Chicago Cubs think they see the jury coming in.

McDowell, of course, is the fireballing Cleveland left-hander who was supposed to make the Yankees' Friday Ford was the best of course. He ran into arm trouble last year and had a mediocre season.

The Senators-Pirates game was called off at Pompano Beach, Fla., after four hours of the major-league baseball season's first had been played. McDowell went six innings against the Cubs at Scottsdale, Ariz., and will see how good a pitcher he is on such a hot day as this.

Tom McCraw's single with the bases loaded in the 10th gave the White Sox their win at St. Petersburg, Fla. Ron Swoboda earned runs in the eighth inning and added another in the ninth, then withdrew a Chicago challenge and was 4-5.

Jim Kaat gave up five hits in seven innings in the Minnesota triumph at Orlando, Fla. Rico Petrocelli homered for the lone lead.

The Cubs' run scored in the eighth inning, but they were out of the game in the ninth.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Pitching was one of the ingredients that carried the Baltimore Orioles to a surprise four-game sweep of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 World Series.

There are plenty of pitchers in camp but three of the so-called big four, Jim Palmer, Bob Gibson and Steve Carlton, all have come up with a series of ailments.

How far is Epstein from being a major leaguer? Epstein and Powell are both big enough to frighten any pitcher, just by their size.

Trade Bait With the Orioles' starting pitcher a major question mark, would Epstein possibly be used in a trade?

It's a little too early to say anything like that, Bauer said. His list of names mentioned by a lot of teams.

Frank Robinson, Snyder, Curt Blewett and Paul Blair for the Orioles, who must be in a minor league record, 30 homers and 338 average with Stockton in 1966 and 20 homers and a .300 batting mark with Rochester last season.

Epstein is a front baseman. So is Doug Powell, the tactically inclined incumbent at the position.

What about Epstein? "I don't know yet," Bauer explained to a circle of writers from distant points.
