Zoners Okay 6 Requests, Cabs Denied

The Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) last night approved six variance requests but denied a seventh request from Peter Van Straten to operate a taxi business at 150 Westford Road, Oakland St. in Residence Zone A.

A variance request from Eugene Gluzard to convert an office into an apartment at 108 Main St. in Residence Zone C, was withdrawn without prejudice.

The board denied Van Straten's request in executive session, after hearing lengthy arguments before during a public hearing by Atty. John P. Mrozek and John J. O'Connor.

Atty. Mrozek represented Van Straten at 330 Vermont St., and John Howard, owner of the building in which Van Straten proposes to house his five operating taxicabs.

Howard formerly conducted in Room 201 of the building.

Atty. O'Connor, making his fourth appearance before the board in opposition to zoning requests during the past few years from persons to conduct businesses in the building, represented Mrs. Helen V. Palanaka of 133 N. School St. and Atty. O'Connor told the board that Mrs. Palanaka and other residents living in the property are opposed to Van Straten's request.

The building has been a "source of complaint in the past several years," he said.

The lawyer argued that the building is in residence Zone A and to operate a business there is "an undue burden on the adjoining property owners."

He said the residents have complained to the town inspector during past years because of disabled vehicles on the property and repairs work going on into the night.

Also opposing the request was Alphonse P. Laska, president of Mrs. J. Laska of 139 Oakland St. and Mrs. Laska, who lives opposite the property, Laska said, "you representability to the majority, not to the individual."

The board also received a letter from a resident of 108 Main St. in Residence Zone C, which asked the board to deny the request.

Atty. Mrozek, arguing for his clients, said the building, even though it is in a Residence Zone, is "economically useless" unless it can be used commercially.

The lawyer pointed out the Howard is paying taxes on the building but is not receiving any revenue.

Atty. Mrozek argued that Howard in 1962 to store trucks on the property with a restriction against any building.

Several applications have been filed since then to remove the restriction but all were denied.

The six requests, approved without any opposition last night are:

1. A variance request from James McCooe to divide an existing lot into two lots at 113 Bissell St. in Residence Zone II. A dwelling is on the lot now. McCooe proposes to build a single-family dwelling on the other half.

McCooe was represented by Atty. Eugene T. Kelly.

2. Percy White, a variance to divide a lot into two lots, south of 29 Buckland St. in Rural Residence Zone One. One lot is below minimum requirements for area and frontage. White proposed to build a one-family dwelling on it. The other lot is within regulations and contains an existing two-family dwelling.

White was represented by Atty. David Wichman of the Clergy, Walsh, O'Connell & Co. law firm.

3. Moriarty Bros. Inc., a special exception to store 50 new pairs of 410 Broad St. in Business Zone II. The area is west of Broad St., south of St. James Cemetery.

Matthew M. Moriarty and his son, Matthew M. Moriarty Jr., spoke in favor of the request.

4. Bonola J. Gronda, a variance to build an addition to his dwelling at 185 Locust St. in Residence Zone A.

The addition will be to the rear of and flush with the existing dwelling, 7 feet 8 inches above the existing foundation. Regulations required a 10-foot setback and the dwelling was built before the regulation went into effect.

Gronda represented himself.

Alan Adams Hartzfield, a special variance to build an attached garage to his home at 20 Pledge Dr. in Residence Zone A.A. The garage will be closer to the rear line than regulations permit.

5. R. D. Thulin, a variance to erect an addition to his dwelling at 61 Bruce Rd. in Residence Zone A.A. The addition will be closer to the side line than regulations permit.

Vernon Youth Held In a Break At Hospital

A local youth was arrested last night as he was coming down the fire escape of the Memorial Building in Rockville Center. He was charged with two counts of breaking and entering with criminal intent, police said today.

Ralph E. Myers, 17, of 9 Robert Rd. was discovered coming down the escape by Patrolmen John Marshall, John Stoddard and Cyril Banks, Marshall, on regular patrol, noted movement inside the town building about 8:30 p.m. and called in support.

A first meeting of the police and Myers, police said, escaped from the three patrolmen at the scene although he was partially handcuffed. State Trooper David Hutchinson of Stafford Springs caught Myers last night. Myers appeared in Rockville Circuit Court 12 this morning where bond was set at $1,000. He was held to it and was taken to Tolland County Jail.

He is scheduled for arraignment in the circuit court again May 23.

Police saw no sign of Myers in the large three-story building and said they suspected the youth hid in the building during the day and stayed after closing. Nothing was found missing or damaged so far.

Junior Women Banquet

The annual banquet of the Vernon Junior Women's Club was held last week at the Ellington Ridge Country Club.

Recently elected officers were installed by Mrs. Hugh Collins, president of the club, and the Federation of Women's Clubs.

Members of the club included Mrs. J. W. Bur-16, 1962 at the Holy Name of Jesus Church, South Deepfield, Mass., and have lived in Manchester all their married life. Mrs. Burgess is the former Miss Sophie Puchalski of Winsted, Conn. Club, Rockville.

About 200 friends and relatives of the family attended St. John's Polish National Catholic Church Sunday afternoon at the event which was given under the auspices of the club. Mrs. Beverly Burger, a student at the University of Connecticut, was the toastmaster and Mrs. J. W. Bur-16 was the emcee.

The banquet was held at the Ellington Ridge Country Club and was attended by Mrs. Burgess and her husband, a member of the club, and Mrs. J. W. Bur-16, who has been employed for 23 years at the club. Mrs. Burgess is a member of the club and Mrs. J. W. Bur-16 is a member of the club.

The couple was married May 16, 1962 at the Holy Name of Jesus Church, South Deepfield, Mass., and have lived in Manchester all their married life.

Andover Lake Case To Start Tomorrow

Civil court action is scheduled to begin tomorrow to settle four-year-old charges of trespassing and discrimination involving a Negro minister and the Andover Lake Property Owners Association (ALPOA).

The case was filed in Hartford Superior Courtroom No. 10.

Several applications have been filed since then to remove the restriction but all were denied.

The six requests, approved without any opposition last night are:

1. A variance request from James McCooe to divide an existing lot into two lots at 113 Bissell St. in Residence Zone II. A dwelling is on the lot now. McCooe proposes to build a single-family dwelling on the other half.

High Court Rescinds Flaherty Case Ruling

The state supreme court today said a judge in Tolland County Superior Court erred last year in granting a writ of habeas corpus to Atty. Leo E. Flaherty Jr. of Vernon.

The writ had been sought on behalf of a state prison convict who contended that he could not talk with Atty. Flaherty without being overheard by prison guards. His meetings with the attorney were held in the visiting room of the Somers prison in the presence of two guards.

The convict is Anthony J. Sala of Bridgeport, who was convicted in 1961 on a charge of taking part in a disturbance at the Cheshire Reformatory. He is scheduled to be released Aug. 4. Flaherty had been appointed to represent him in habeas corpus proceedings last year.

When the prison refused to engage in a private conversation with Sala, Flaherty sought a writ of habeas corpus to allow him to talk with Sala privately with his client.

The habeas corpus action was approved in a decision by Judge John P. Laiselle of Tolland County Superior Court last year. The Supreme Court said today Judge Laiselle "concluded that the habeas corpus action was a proper remedy to enforce that right."

The Supreme Court noted that Sala was given "an opportunity to converse privately in a room without the presence of any other person who could overhear the conversation."

The Supreme Court justices agreed that the "right to consult with one's counsel includes the right to consult without being overheard."

But a habeas corpus action, it ruled, is not the proper remedy.

The Supreme Court defined a writ of habeas corpus as one available to a person restrained of his liberty who desires a hearing to determine the legality of his detention.

But Atty. Flaherty, the Supreme Court said, "is attacking the legality of prison regulation rather than the validity or interpretation of a court judgment."

"Since the regulation does not involve the legality of Sala's detention, the court said, its validity cannot properly be reviewed by habeas corpus, and the (Supreme Court) was in error in deciding otherwise."

Three Elected By County VFW

Three past commanders of the American-Swedish Post of the VFW were recently elected officers of the VFW Hartford-Tolland Counties Council, De-16, 1962 at the Holy Name of Jesus Church, South Deepfield, Mass., and have lived in Manchester all their married life. ### Chanting Chinese Throng Forces Court Adjournment

HONG KONG (AP) — Hundreds of Chinese today thronged a Hong Kong court today to adjourn the trial of a Communist leader arrested in last week's Communist riots.

British colonial officials put 20,000 police and troops on alert after the Chinese government accused them of "massacring" Chinese in quelling three days of rioting that stemmed from the release of Chinese prisoners of war in Vietnam.

Peking's note to the British government in London demanded the release of nearly 400 Chinese arrested during the rioting in a Kowloon industrial district.

British authorities in London have no immediate comment on the release of the prisoners.

About 80 Chinese spectators crowded into an small courtroom where most of those arrested on a trial today. The crowd chanted from Mao's works while 200 Chinese men, some wearing the red caps of the Chinese government, began patrolling the area.

Peking's note also charged that Britain was allowing the United States to use Hong Kong as a base for its forces in the Vietnam war. This led Hong Kong officials to speculate that China's real aim might be to force Britain to bar U.S. warships, transport and cargo planes and U.S. servicemen from Hong Kong, a favorite leave port for U.S. forces in the Far East.

Those attending from Concorde, are the Rev. Joseph E. Lathrop, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, and Miss Barbara E. Baker of 54 Deepwood Dr., by delegate from Manchester, and Rev. C. Henry Anderson, pastor of the Rev. Eric J. Down Synod of 40 Lorne St., by delegate, and C. Arthur Hoagland, of Stephen St.

In addition to demanding the release of those arrested, Peking's note to London demanded punishment for those responsible for the "massacring" and "use," apologies and compensation.

Hebron Town Hearing Is Planned On Public Nursing Service

A public hearing on public health nursing service will be held by the Hebron Elementary School. The Public Health Advisory Committee believes that the residents of Hebron should be informed of several facts prior to the hearing. The following is taken from a letter from the State Department of Health, received by the local advisory committee:

"Public Health Nursing today, as in the past, reflects the health trends of the times. What is happening nationwide on a state-wide basis is of significance to a town like Hebron, as well as to other towns in Connecticut. Some of the problems and trends are:

1. Health Legislation—The recent legislation called Medicare and Medicaid is influencing both the quantity and quality of P.H.N. services in many areas. In Hebron, eligible recipients of this service are generally coming to the attention of the P.H.N. service. What is happening nationwide on a state-wide basis is of significance to a town like Hebron, as well as to other towns in Connecticut. Some of the problems and trends are:

2. The need for Home Health Services to all age groups—Many communities are reviewing their town expenditures for health services and asking whether they are getting the most service from their taxes. Where does Hebron stand?

3. The shortage of nurses—More thought needs to be given to how nursing service is being used in communities. Nursing services, such as tuberculosis, maternal and child health, and school health which are once special services are becoming part of comprehensive public health nursing which is available from the TOTAL family. The general PHN program eliminates costly duplication of services and provides more continuity of care.

4. The costliness of community health services—Today's broad concept of community health requires a great deal of ingenuity in putting together a smaller community to provide quality public health services at a lower cost. Sharing of overhead costs and professional and non-professional services means less cost to the individual town. What are the possibilities for Hebron?

5. The answers to all of these questions and the future of public health nursing service in Hebron, can only be answered by the voters and the town officials who act as trustees for the people."

The Connecticut State Department of Health held a well-attended hearing on the subject Friday, with Dr. Brewer, pediatrician from Manchester in charge.

Twenty-two children from Hebron attended the conference. Mrs. Marjorie Porter, tel. 228-7118, were 18 physical examiners.

Clemente Slams Three Home Runs But Perez Beats Him to Punch

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates were marking time until Roberto Clemente's next trip to the plate.

Cincinnati's Tony Perez got there first, leaving Clemente with a night to remember — and an empty feeling.

Perez' run-scoring double in the 10th inning gave the National League-leading Reds an 8-7 victory over the Pirates — and nullified the biggest single-game score of Clemente's career.

The Pittsburgh superstar drove in all of his team's runs with three towering homers and a double, moving into the league lead in both batting and run production.

"This is the biggest day I ever had in a game that I wish I never hit," he said. "I've never hit three homers in a game before. I wish I had hit 10."

Clemente, whose batting average soared to .300 while his RBI mark jumped to 24, sooted a home run off the bat in the bottom of the ninth and Perez' fourth hit — a booming drive to center field off reliever Juan Pizarro in the 10th — knocked in the winning run.

While Cincinnati moved three games ahead of the second-place Pirates, the Houston Astros ended a five-game tailspin by edging Los Angeles 5-3 on an error and a double in the 10th inning.

Ernie Banks' three-run homer and two singles by Lee Thomas and Billy Williams carried the Chicago Cubs to a 9-8 victory over San Francisco in an afternoon game. New York and Atlanta were named co-winners of the day.

Kansas City trimmed California 5-2 in the American League and Detroit and Washington — were postponed because of rain.

Morgan and retired the next two batters before walking Rusty Staub intentionally to get at a pronouncement.

Clemente lashed two-run homers off Mill Pappas in the first and fifth innings, sending Pittsburgh ahead 4-0, then doubled two runs across in the seventh before slumping his sixth homer of the year in the ninth.

The Reds scored three runs in the sixth, knocking out Pirates starter Bob Veale, and added two more in the seventh on Perez' two-run double and a RBI single by May.

Perez singled before May's tying homer in the ninth, then delivered the winning hit with two on in the 10th.

AS-ANGELS— Kansas City extended its winning string to four games as Bert Campaneris ignited two scoring rallies with singles and rookie Tony Pierce pitched one hit relief over the final 2 1/2 innings, preserving John (Blue Moon) Odom's first victory.

Offered Wrestling Contract in New York Mike Epstein Goes Home To Public Relations Job

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mike Epstein, a talented baseball player with an offer to become a professional wrestler, heads home today for a public relations job.

The Baltimore Orioles thought the 24-year-old slugger had unlimited potential in baseball.

So did other clubs, who sought to bring him to Baltimore.

So did Epstein, who thought he was ready this season for the major leagues and balked at being ordered back to Rochester of the International League on a 24-hour recall.

Harry Dalton, the Orioles' director of player personnel, said Monday the club expected big things from Epstein in the future and would trade him this season "only if he could improve our major league club to outstanding caliber."

Dalton said he sympathized with Epstein's desire to play in the major leagues now, but added, "We cannot operate our ball club to satisfy his wants alone."

But Dalton did say Epstein might be traded early next season if he had not yet made the Baltimore club.

Epstein said he offered to give up a guarantee of $25,000 to return to Baltimore for a one-year and $100,000-a-year contract to become a public relations man.

Epstein acknowledged receipt of the offer and said, "You never know," but he checked into the club's front office.

Dalton at the time was with the team in Boston, and Epstein was completing a visit with relatives in New York.

"The Baltimore club is not so rich in talent that it can afford to trade players because in any one year it does not have a regular position for them to play," the statement said.

"There are quite a few players in our organization, both at major and minor league level, for the Orioles, but could be regulars on other big league clubs."

All team managers are asked to turn in their complete rosters at this time.

Opening doubleheaders are slated Sunday afternoon at Detroit, Wednesday at Rochester, and Monday at New York.

Pending further word from Epstein, the Rochester team will place him on the suspended list, and halt payment on his salary, estimated at about $9,000 for the 1967 season.

White Epstein was in New York, he was offered a wrestling contract by promoter Wilbur Long, and he would be traded to the West Coast.

ERCC Hosts Bruins Beef Up Front Line Trade for Esposito, Hodge

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Bruins, weary of seeing small forwards added bunched around, boosted their front line by trading defenseman Phil Esposito and Fred Stanfield from the Chicago Black Hawks to the Bruins.

The Bruins finished last in the NHL last season. Chicago won the championship, but was eliminated by Toronto in the Stanley Cup semifinals.

Esposito, who packs 187 pounds on a 6-foot frame, tied for seventh among the NHL's top scorers the past season. He also had 40 assists for 106 points while playing on a line with Bobby Hull and Chico Maki.

Hodge, who is 23 next month, is a bulky 200-pound winger who scored 62 goals in his first year of junior hockey at St. Catherine's. In limited action with the Bruins, he had 10 goals and 25 assists last season.

"We gained needed strength up front as well as size," NHL Commissioner Clarence Campbell said after the trade.

"He never had much opportunity to prove himself with Chicago," Schmidt said. "He was a promising, tough, young defenseman, but we had to give up something to get what we wanted."

Batter Walked on Ball Four and Balk

Talk about unusual baseball plays, and rulings, here's one that happened in a recent Texas game. There were runners on first and second base, one out and three and two count on the batter. The pitcher balked.

What's your ruling?

If you answered, a balk, and if you were right, you are a better baseball player than most. The current issue of Sport quotes Lin as answering: "If it takes Lin-plus-each to make the deal, it's even out on the call!"

The ball is dead, and each runner shall advance one base without liability to be put out unless the batter reaches first on a hit, an error, a base on balls, a hit batter, or otherwise. All other runners advance at least one base, in which case the play proceeds without reference to the balk.

Three Rounds to Tell Story

Batter Walked on Ball Four and Balk

NEW YORK (AP)—The first three rounds are expected to tell the story tonight when Nigeria's Dick Tiger defends his light-heavyweight title in a return 15-round bout with ex-champion Jose Torres at Madison Square Garden.

"If Torres doesn't knock him out or soften him up in the first three rounds then I don't think he'll win," Roger Rosen said today.

"You better root for me," Torres said to Rosen. "We'll do national television. New York's business men I'm gonna knock him out within 10 rounds."

Torres is the No. 1 contender from Anacosta, Mont. He has been promoted a shot at the title and real excitement. The expected smaller crowd.

"I've been waiting so long for a fight that I'm feeling my legs," Torres said. "I'll hit a leg and be almost hit me for crushing him," says Torres. "I'll hit a leg and be almost hit me for crushing him," says Torres.

Torres is a 9-3 favorite to regain the title. The 175-pound division crown he lost to the 27-year-old Tiger on a unanimous decision in 15 rounds at the Garden last Dec. 11.

The general opinion among the boxing experts agreed with Rosen's ball schedule have been printed and will be distributed to all interested in the program. ## Damascus Following Plan

BALTIMORE (AP)—A television viewer in California watched one Tom Rolfe performance by finishing third in the 1967 National Amateur Steeplechase. He went out the back favored May 4, but trailed John Galbreath's Proud and Barb's Delight, both of whom were in the 1:31 mile breakers.

Trainer Frank Whiteley Jr. is following the same selection plan with Damascus as he did with Tom Rolfe two years ago. He'll do his training at Laurel race course, 28 miles away, track over a few hours before the $150,000-added race and be back home before dark.

If Damascus can duplicate Tom Rolfe's 1965 performance, there will be no faulting Whiteley's plan. Tom Rolfe finished in a run off with the Precedent boys that will eventually force her to have an operation.

Another Try For Cassius

Major League Leaders

HOUSTON (AP)—A federal judge was to hold a hearing today on new motions by lawyers for Cassius Clay to delay the boxer's trial on criminal charges of draft evasion and to open Selective Service files for use in preparing his defense.

Lawyers Hayden Covington of New York and Quinn Hodges of Houston filed motions Monday in federal district court in Houston and before a panel of the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals sitting in Jacksonville, Fla.

The Jacksonville petition sought a delay of Clay's June 8 trial in Houston in the criminal indictment against him until the civil suit Clay brought against his draft board is settled before the Appeals Court in its October sitting. Hodges said Monday the petition had been denied.

The Houston motions seek a continuance of the trial from June 5, alleging that it is "physically and humanly impossible" for the lawyers to make ready by that date.

Clay's defense will be based in part upon an allegation that draft boards are weighted with white members and exclude Negroes.

On April 28 in Houston, he adopted hometown, the boxer refused to take the Army oath as a draftee. He claimed military exemption as Muhammad Ali, Muslim minister. Within hours he was stripped of his world heavyweight title and on May 8, a federal grand jury in Houston returned the indictment against him.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A setback for a Roosevelt and victories for the mayors of Philadelphia and Denver highlighted local elections held in several states Tuesday.

"The Roosevelt name is no longer magic" claimed Jay Demer, 37, who forced Mayor Elliott Roosevelt of Miami Beach, Fla., into a runoff in Roosevelt's bid for re-election as mayor.

Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, received an unofficial tally of 7,422 votes or 40.7 per cent of the ballots cast, which means he will face Demer in the runoff.

Roosevelt, 54, first won the office two years ago on the support of the Democratic organization but

Rookie Slain as 600 Officers Flush Negro College Snipers

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—While-helmeted police, firing as they ran, stormed a men's dormitory at Texas Southern University today and halted student snipers who created a 10-man's land on campus. A rookie patrolman was killed and two officers and a student wounded.

Police took 48 men students to jail and worked to discover who had fired the shot which killed Lewis R. Kuba, 25, who graduated from the Police Academy a month ago. Kuba was shot between the eyes in the first assault wave against the dormitory which sheltered the snipers' nest.

Kuba died about 7 1/2 hours after he was shot. Four hours and 3,000 police bullets after the first pouring of gunfire and the explosion of four crudely made fire bombs, officers secured the dormitory. They smashed down doors in their search for weapons and suspects. One student, one sniper and one rifle were shot.

FBI Links Carmichael, Red Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has told a congressional committee that Stokely Carmichael has been in frequent contact with the leader of a Chinese Communist-oriented organization.

Hoover's appraisal of Carmichael, a leader of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) — was given last February at a closed session of a House Appropriations subcommittee. The committee made it public this week.

Hoover said Carmichael, "in espousing his philosophy of 'black power' has been in frequent contact with Max Stanford, field chairman of the Revolutionary Action Movement, a highly-secret, all-Negro, Marxist-Leninist Chinese Communist-oriented organization which advocates guerrilla warfare to attain its goal."

Hoover said Carmichael has given Stanford "assistance and guidance in forming a Black Panther party in New York City."

For years, Hoover said, "it has been Communist policy to charge police brutality in a calculated campaign to discredit law enforcement and to accentuate racial issues. The riots and disorders of the past three years clearly highlight the success of this Communist smear campaign in popularizing the cry of police brutality to the point where it has been accepted by many individuals having no affiliation with or sympathy for the Communist movement."

Hoover also reported that Cuban delegates to the United Nations have been buying military equipment from surplus stores in this country.

Gagarin also denied reports that Komarov was in trouble before the fatal crash. He said the landing and other systems worked normally.

Gagarin repeated the official explanation that trouble in the spacecraft's parachute system caused the fatal crash.

He offered no new details on the crash and no explanation for why Komarov did not eject himself.

The flight of a new ship of the Soyuz type will be possible only when all circumstances of the accident of the first ship are completely investigated, and new tests carried out," Gagarin said.

"How much all of us would like to believe that Volodya Komarov is alive and see him smiling," Gagarin said, "but you have to face the truth."

Observers noted that the Soviet press would not have taken pains to deny the rumor that Komarov was found alive if it were true.
