21st Circuit Court Cases

MANCHESTER SESSION Gerald Dodge, 46, of 78 Union St., pleaded guilty to delivering liquor to minors and was fined $50. He was arrested after he bought some beer and a screw driver mix and gave it to two youths, one of them his nephew, he said. Of the fine, $10 was remitted.

The case of Donald F. Carroll, 28, of 117 West St., charged with indecent assault, was continued to June 15 for plea. John W. Everett Jr., 28, of no certain address, pleaded not guilty to a charge of risk of injury to a minor female and the case was bound over to the next session of Superior Court, Hartford County. Everett waived a probable cause hearing which had been scheduled for yesterday.

Everett was arrested several weeks ago as a result of his alleged actions with a 14-year-old girl on South Main St. Donald Kobayashi, 18, of Bolton pleaded guilty to a substitute charge of breach of peace and was fined $35. A charge of tampering with a motor vehicle against him was noted. In a companion case, Wfma Sauer of Bolton also pleaded guilty to breach of peace and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. She and Kobayashi were arrested on May 2 Kobayashi was originally charged with larceny over $50 and under $250, when police found them on Colonial Dr. after some car parts had been taken from Pustalo's Auto Parts yard on Parker St.

Also involved were a 12 and 13-year-old boy from Bolton who were referred to juvenile authorities. Wilma Sauer was charged as being an accessory after the three youths told police she had driven them from Bolton to Manchester. Michael J. Calles, 27, of Vernon, was fined a total of $100 for speeding and operating a motor vehicle while license under suspension. Of the fine, $50 was remitted. The charges against Calles were lodged in June, 1965, and his license had been lifted out of the state for some time and only recently moved back.

Oswald Weir, 60, of 73 Pearl St., was fined $25 for driving a truck driver who had no previous offense in 42 years of driving, was arrested in Union on May 20 after he drove through a radar check on 184, Prosecutor Francis said.

Russia Ends Ties with Israel

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union informed Israel today it had decided to break diplomatic relations because of fighting in Syria and warned that unless Israel immediately halted all military actions, the Kremlin "will take sanction against Israel."

The development was reported by Tass, the official news agency. It said a note on the Soviet decision was handed to the Israeli ambassador in Moscow. The Kremlin threatened to sever ties earlier in the week unless the Israelis ceased fire in the Middle East war.

"We are packing now," the spokesman said 10 minutes after the note was handed over. "The Soviet government has warned the government of Israel that it bears all the burden of responsibility for its perjury and its glaring violation of the Security Council decisions."

The Soviet Union blames Israel for the Middle East war, immediately accusing it of aggression and saying that it refused to accept responsibility for its perjury and its glaring violation of the Security Council decisions.

The break was the second in the two-decade history of Soviet-Israeli relations. In 1952 the Soviet Embassy in Israel was bombed to protest the accusation that Jewish leaders had plotted to kill Kremlin leaders.

The not to Israel did not repeat the stiff language of a statement issued today by leaders of seven Communist countries who met secretly in Moscow.

That statement demanded that Israel withdraw its troops behind the 1949 armistice line—that is, to its boundaries as they existed before war began Monday.

Cardinal Ritter, 74, Dies in St. Louis ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Joseph Cardinal Ritter, 74, spiritual leader of half a million Roman Catholics in the archdiocese of St. Louis and an advocate of church unity, died peacefully today.

He became ill last Monday when he suffered what was called a mild heart attack. He had spent a quiet night in the hospital when he died at 4:47 a.m. when his physician, Dr. C.G. Vouras, and members of the staff at DePaul Hospital.

Funeral arrangements will be made until after eight o'clock on Monday. The group will plan the funeral.

U.S. Planes Bomb Hanoi Power Plant

SAIGON (AP)—Jet warplanes from three U.S. aircraft carriers bombed an electric Communist mortar attack airport in Hanoi today in addition to Hanoi today in addition to targets on the city outskirts. One plane was lost, U.S. spokesmen said.

The planes, from the Constellation, Ben Homme Richard and Enterprise, flew through a hail of groundfire from the defense network known as the "Iron Triangle." The Communist air force offered no battle at three raids were successful.

Head leaders reported that the Navy F-4 Phantom II aircraft also struck down in ground fighting. The pilot is missing. The Soviet news agency Tass reported from Hanoi that three U.S. planes were downed.

Danish Crown Princess Wed Before Royal Heads

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Crown Princess Margrethe married today to a Danish nobleman. The ceremony was held in the church where she was christened 27 years ago.

The princess owns a very special Danish name, Margrethe is the name of the only reigning queen in Denmark's long history. She is a queen under whose friendly leadership the country reached its greatest strength.

When the first Margrethe reigned — 1375 to 1412 — Denmark was a mighty power in the North Sea and Norway were Danish colonies. "Margrethe" rag ball-chair to both, "I will," she said when the royal chaplain, Bishop Erik Jensen, called it as he began the Lutheran ceremony, asking the groom.

Israelis Attack Syria But Also Talk of Truce

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS U.N. observers reported three Israeli air attacks today on the Syrian capital of Damascus Saturday and said Israeli troops were in the vicinity of the city.

The reports to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said, however, there were no attacks on the capital itself, as Israel and Syria kept the Middle East war going a sixth day.

Israel announced to the U.N. Security Council that Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israel's defense minister, began meeting in Jerusalem with the chief U.N. observer, Lt. Gen. Oud Bull, to arrange a cease-fire with Syria. The Israeli announcement said the meeting began at 8:15 P.M.

The Soviet Union informed Israel it had decided to break diplomatic relations because of the continued fighting and warned that unless Israel halted military actions, the Kremlin "will take sanction against Israel."

Jets Over Sea of Galilee Streak Toward Ancient Foe

DEGAMYA, Israel (AP)—Israel's oldest kibbutz watching the haze of battle hung like smog over the tranquil Sea of Galilee, where St. Peter once fished, and black plumes of smoke rose from the sun-baked hills of Syria.

Before his about faded, a mortar round crashed into the artificial ponds where the kibbutz is raising carp to process into gefilte fish.

An Arab MIG roared in Tuesday across the Sea of Galilee in a strafing attack that sent the 500 members of the kibbutz down into the shelters. One of them, a policeman, didn't make it and became Deganya's first victim of the 1967 Arab-Israeli war.

Every day since, and occasionally at night — although the Arabs have a reluctance to fight after dark — there had been shooting back and forth across the soft greenish-blue lake where Israel, Syria and Jordan crowd together in a constantly contested triple border.

While the kids in the kibbutz at Deganya sweated out the old men stood at the fence of stalling, in their bunkers and

Take Your Car to Stevenson's

This is an excellent time to be sure your car will stop in take your car to Stevenson's an emergency.

Stevenson's 400 Main St., and West done at Stevenson's. If driving conditions that are not satisfactory, if replacements are necessary ahead of you. Most of us will use only nationally known brands when we buy tires, and we use the same brands when we buy other parts. This means that only quality replacements are used in your car at all times. Does your car start as it should? Before you condemn your battery see if the trouble lies with the battery or the generator. If either of these are at fault, even a new battery would be of little use. Stevenson's Esso Station they rebulk starters and generators. They also carry a full and complete line of starters and generators. It is poor economy to drive on worn tires, especially when you can purchase fine, rugged tires at Stevenson's Esso Station at such reasonable prices. Stevenson's Esso Station is open from 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day. You should be sure you have your car checked at Stevenson's Esso Station. You will find many items of car care, including oil changes, and when they are finished you get a bonus in the form of a free car wash. You will not be charged for this service. Why not try Atlas or Goodyear? These tires are better to give many miles of car care driving at moderate prices. Few people enjoy waxing their cars, and when they are finished with the car, they are finished with the car. You will not be charged for this service. Why not try Atlas or Goodyear? # 'Time for Change' Says Griffith

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Calvin Griffith dumped Sam Mele as manager of his Minnesota Twins Friday and thrust on the shoulders of veteran minor league manager Cal Ermer the task of rallying the sputtering American League club for a run at the pennant.

"I still think this team can win the pennant," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been an accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done. Mele took his own calmly, over and over again. He was a great manager. He was a great manager. He was a great manager."

Griffith said he had been considering a change since last season, but he decided to wait until this year. He said he had been considering a change since last season, but he decided to wait until this year.

Pittsburgh's Bats Make New Sounds

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are close-mouthed about their closed door meeting Wednesday, but since then they have been making plenty of noise at bat and on the mound.

Every starter except pitcher Billy O'Dell, who pitched five innings and struck out seven batters, had at least one hit. Many Moia and Gene Luecke were hit for home runs. Billy Matlock drove in four runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly. Willie Stargell, Alley and Jerry May accounted for three each as the Pirates slugged 20 singles, one double and two triples.

Baltimore Spoils Cal Ermer's Debut

The Baltimore Orioles wasted no time teaching Cal Ermer the facts of American League life.

The Orioles, who were in a uniform only 20 minutes before the game on Friday, beat the Minnesota Twins 4-1 in the eighth inning. Ermer, who had never pitched in the majors, was hit for three runs by the Orioles in the eighth inning.

Yanks Reach .500 Plateau

NEW YORK (AP)—In days of old the New York Yankees used to sniff at little things like playing .500. Now they are happy to celebrate the occasion.

The Yankees reached the .500 mark with a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers. The Yankees had a record of 23 wins and 23 losses.

Walk to Lee Thomas

CHICAGO (AP)—It's the last of the ninth. The score is tied 5-5. The Chicago Cubs have runners on first and third with one out. Lee Thomas is coming to bat against New York Met pitcher Ron Taylor with veteran Ernie Banks at bat.

A Trend From Trends

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — If there's trend in television, Bruce Geller notes, it's a trend away from trends.

Even among Westerns — "Rawhide," "the Westerner," "Laramie," "Road West" and "Johnny Ringo" — only the durable "Gunsmoke," "Bonanza" and "Virginian" remain in production — plus fall's upcoming "High Chaparral" and "Dundee."

Medicine shows? "Medic," "Kildare," "Casey," "General Hospital," "Doctors and Nurses" have faded.

Private-detective programs like "Richard Diamond" and "Tightrope" have tiptoed away, leaving only "Mannix," a new show which Geller is producing for fall.

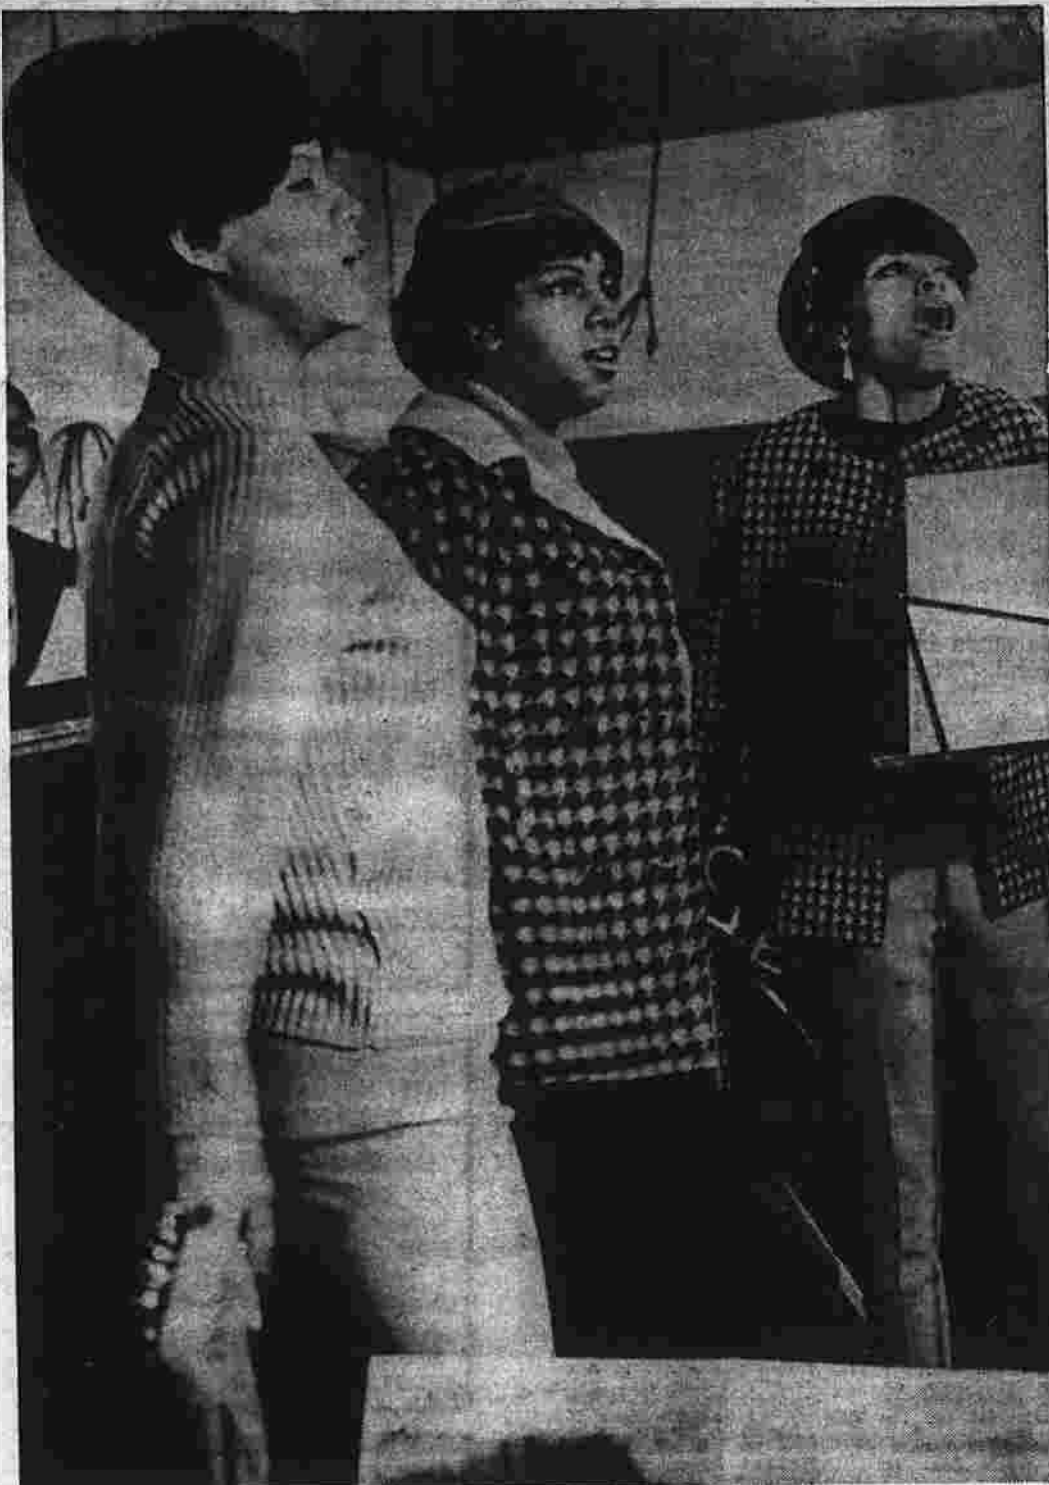

As Geller sees it, "Get Smart," starring Don Adams as a bumbling hero, sparked a recent trend to zany, unreal comedies including "Captain Nice" and "Mr. Terrific." Adams won an Emmy last Sunday, but the other two shows and their bungling supermen won't be back.

The trend-away-from-trends, says Geller, is good.

"Trends are nice for advertising agencies and sponsors. Trends allow you not to use your decision-making mind. Agencies and sponsors figure, 'If it's like 'Bonanza,' it's got to be good.'"

Geller, a swarthy, cool 36, carried off two Emmys at Sunday night's ceremonies as executive producer of "Mission: Impossible" and writer of one of its segments. The show captured awards also for best actress — Barbara Bain — and film editing, the four winning

Bill Dana Sinks a Network

LAS VEGAS, Neb. (AP) "At least I set a record. I'm the first man in history to sink an entire network."

That was rueful humor of Bill Dana as he discussed the demise of "The Las Vegas Show," which he headed for 26 programs. The two-hour nightly variety show came to an end last week when the United Network folded operations for lack of cash.

"The Las Vegas Show" was the first attraction of a proposed fourth network headed by former ABC boss Oliver Treyz. It turned out to be the last attraction as well.

"This appears to be the definite case of 'the operation was a success, but the patient died,'" said Dana in a post-mortem interview.

"I can only ascribe the failure of the enterprise to the consummate naivete on the part of the backers. The whole thing went against all principles of sound fiscal policy. Even if you open a candy store, you should have enough capitalization to last more than three or four weeks."

United Network folded after a month of operation, and its passing was lamented by those who welcomed its promise as competition to the monolithic programming of the Big Three. Dana feels the failure could have been avoided.

"If they had blown the whistle earlier, I think the whole operation could have been saved," said the comedian whose portrayal of Jose Jimenez has overshadowed his other accomplishments as writer—the Steve Allen Show—and producer—the Milton Berle show.

He argued that the Las Vegas show was perfectly sound on the basis of cost-per-thousand—a Madison Avenue term reflecting the ratio of production charges vs. the audience delivered. Audience surveys, said Dana, showed that the program was delivering an audience of 2,000,000, a respectable figure considering its estimated $180,000 weekly cost, not including telephone line charges.

"The backers made the mistake of beginning the show in the last quarter of the advertising budget cycle, when little new outlay is being made," he said. "Even so, we were beginning to pick up. After the third week, we were getting sponsorship from Colgate, Gen-

What Keeps Lucy Going?

By GENE HANDSAKER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lucille Ball wept when she received her third Emmy a week ago. Since 1951 she has had 11 Emmy nominations. Are such honors what keep her going at 55?

"Hardly," says Lucy, "or I'd have given up long ago."

Then what does continually recharge the multimillionaire comedienne and corporation president?

"The fun of continuous learning about my craft," she says. "It's been an elimination process the last seven or eight years in which I found I could come back and do without—

"Desi" — Arnaz her co-star on "I love Lucy," who sold his stock in Desilu productions to Lucy for $3 million after their marriage went on the rocks.

"Bill" — Frawley, who played chubby chum Fred Mertz for years, then switched to "My Three Sons" and later fell ill and died.

"Vivian" — Vance, Ethel Mertz, who quit to get married and live back east.

"And I cried for weeks when my writers left" — three of them, for greener or less laborious fields. I was terrified without them.

"The old standbys left, one by one, but that spurred me on. I had to rely on what I'd learned through the years, and this is a good feeling, still being able to function."

"It certainly keeps you from being dull. You add that much to your scorecard. All the time I was learning — and learning what I had learned. It's like test time at the end of the year and you say, by damn! — look what I've learned."

Lucy was slim and attractive in checked slacks and jacket after a day of filming "The Lucy Show" for fall. The challenge and learning process, she noted, are really only a continuance of her career since she was a stock girl at the same studio, then RKO.

That onetime movie sound-stage complex, including Lucy's handsome, dark-paneled office, is headquarters of the Desilu three-studio empire.

"I played in B pictures and gradually got a line here and a line there," she recalled. "Then leads in B's, then better B's."

Miss Ball said she puts in from two hours to full days "and sometimes far into the night" at her L-shaped desk as company president. Scheduled acquisition of Desilu by Gulf & Western Industries, Inc., which controls adjoining Paramount Pictures, will bring Lucy some $10 million in G&W shares and free her of most corporate duties although she'll remain as president.

"I much prefer being Lucy the actress," she said. "I've no wish to lie down and quit. I love my work."

'CRICHTON' STARS

Bill Travers and Virginia McKenna, who starred in the film, "Born Free," will have the lead roles in the "Hallmark Hall of Fame" production of "The Admirable Crichton" next season on NBC. Travers will play the title role Crichton, an English butler, while Miss McKenna, who is his wife, plays Tweeny in the adaptation of Sir James Barrie's fantasy.

The Basic Recipe: 'Person-to-Person'

NEW YORK (AP) — When next season rolls around there will be the usual spotting of new Westerns, situation comedies, variety programs, action-adventure tales in the weekly television mix. But, Jon Aarons insists, there will be a one-of-a-kind in his "Good Company" on ABC.

Aarons, coproducer of Edward R. Murrow's old "Person-to-Person," is putting together many ingredients of the old show and adding some new elements. He hopes the basic recipe will work again.

At the moment, the set-up consists of Aarons, a staff of five, three mobile units and F. Lee Bailey, the young criminal lawyer who has exploded into the nation's headlines recently.

Bailey, shooting around in his private jet plane between courtroom appearances, will drop in on the famous, the interesting and the off-beat in their homes.

In the old days, before jet planes and television tape made it possible, Murrow was anchored in a New York studio and interviewed the subjects electronically in their homes. It was live, it was achieved with the help of big crews, fancy equipment and a lot of money.

"We hope to tape our shows Friday and run the shows the next Thursday — and leave all the fluff in," Aarons said. "The perfection that television has achieved by cutting out anything untoward has resulted, I think in the loss of a lot of its charm and excitement."

"I remember some wonderful moments that would have been cut out of tape," he said. "Maybe they were not wonderful at the time. But there was Bert Lahr so nervous that he invited us to see the living room — and walked into a closet. There was the night Sid Caesar was so jittery he forgot his wife's name. And the time Mrs. Pat Weaver's zipper, on the back of her dress, broke and Pat put his arm around her waist, pulled the dress together — and neither realized they were standing in front of a mirror."

Aarons is working on his invitation list and already has acceptances from the acting Redgrave family and J. Paul Getty, the oil millionaire, plus other well-known people, whose names he prefers at this early stage to conceal.

"Some people are very cautious and want to see how the show goes before they are committed," he said. "Others see the show as an open invitation to burglars who can get a blue print of the house. Others are more daring and just decide it would be fun. "We won't be out to make news and Bailey will be a guest in the house, not a lawyer cross-examining a hostile witness. The show has only three elements — the people, their homes and Bailey."

Aarons believes that in recent years "television has lost one

But, said Dana, United Network's "tremendous undercapitalization" could not sustain the continuing costs.

The comic said he has no regrets about the venture.

"Ninety per cent of the reviews were in the good-excellent-rave category," he remarked. "The mail was fantastic—more than any I have ever received for any show. And guests like John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara said they wanted to come back. Liberace did come back to do another show.

"As for myself, I feel that I met the challenge. Nobody ever hosted a two-hour nightly variety show in television before. Now I've done it, and I'm not ashamed of the results."

Dana said he had numerous plans for his career, including a special for one of the three remaining networks.

He feels that the fitting commentary was supplied by his 81-year-old mother: "She hit the nail on the head, as only mothers can do."

In a brilliant and original bit of observation, she said to me, "Billy—that's show business."

UN Bans Advances By Israel and Syria

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council early today banned any forward military movements by Israel or Syrian forces and called for a rollback of any that may have taken place since the cease-fire between them was supposed to become effective at 12:30 p.m. EDT Saturday.

U.N. officials said the council had been called into another session at 8 p.m. today.

The 15-nation council acted unanimously on an overnight emergency meeting on Syrian charges that an Israeli armored column had advanced inside Syria in a drive to capture the Yarmuk River feeding the Jordan. Israel denied the charge.

The resolution was the fourth the council has adopted since Israel, Egypt, Jordan and Syria locked in war last Monday.

It called for full cooperation with Norwegian Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, head of the U.N. Truce Supervision Organization for Palestine, in implementing the cease-fire, "including freedom of movement and adequate communications facilities."

That provision was taken to mean Israel should give Bull back his headquarters south of Jerusalem which fell to Jordanian troops and then to Israeli troops.

Syrian Ambassador George J. Tomeh telephoned Council President Hans R. Tabor of Denmark at 5 p.m. Sunday and asked for "an urgent emergency meeting." He said he had word from Damascus that "a column of Israeli armored cars and tanks supported by military helicopters and other forces" had moved eastward and southward from Ramat.

Tomeh said Israeli paratroops had occupied Rafid Saturday three hours and 17 minutes after the cease-fire was supposed to have gone into effect. That was the time Bull got a complaint of the paratroop action from a Syrian official.

The meeting started just before 11 p.m., and Secretary-General U. Thant read a message from Bull saying U.N. observers had reported that near Jouskade village, below Rafid, a column of Israeli tanks had headed east and then south.

The key question in connection with observance of the cease-fire, Thant said, "was whether the Israeli troops were in Rafid and environs before the cease-fire hour or whether they had advanced to there after that."

Tomeh told the council the movement out of Rafid was part of a new Israeli drive "aiming at the Yarmuk River and the headwaters of the Jordan," long a source of Arab-Israeli dispute. He called it "a systematic invasion in accordance with plans fully drawn." He said it violated the cease-fire and the council should condemn the violation and call the violator back to where he started "his conquest."

Israeli Ambassador Gideon Rafael conceded there had been "a movement of some military vehicles but this movement took place within the truce lines established by the cease-fire."

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko accused Rafael of "denying the facts" that Israeli forces were violating the cease-fire and "trying with the support of Washington to enable the Israeli army to take as much as it can." He said he had information that Israeli tanks were in the area of the Yarmuk River and the headwaters of the Jordan, long a source of Arab-Israeli dispute. He called it "a systematic invasion in accordance with plans fully drawn." He said it violated the cease-fire and the council should condemn the violation and call the violator back to where he started "his conquest."

Israel Denies Charge Of Thrusts into Syria

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israel has denied Syrian charges that its tanks invaded deeper into Syria after a cease-fire but says it intends to keep some of the land it won from Syria, Egypt and Jordan in the six-day Middle East war.

Cheering crowds in the Israeli port of Elath Sunday night greeted the first Israeli freighter to enter the Gulf of Aqaba since Egypt's proclaimed blockade of the gulf led the Middle East to the brink of war.

The Jewish nation had assured reopening of the gulf by capturing Sharm el Sheikh, from which Egyptian guns overlooked the gulf entrance at the Strait of Tiran.

An Israeli army spokesman said the war against the Arabs killed 679 Israeli soldiers and wounded 2,583. Jordan has announced that 15,000 Jordanians were killed. Egypt and Syria have not announced any casualty figures.

Estimates of the number of prisoners taken by Israel, mostly Egyptian, range from 13,000 to 15,000. They still are being counted.

The U.N. Security Council, meeting past 2:30 a.m. for the second straight day, adopted a new resolution demanding that Israel and Syria avoid any forward movement of troops and withdraw any units that have crossed cease-fire lines established Saturday.

Syria said Israel moved armored units forward Sunday. Israel said its tank movements were entirely behind the cease-fire line. U.N. truce observers confirmed movement of tanks in the area.

48 Families Homeless in 'Set' Blaze

BRIDGEPORT (AP)—Authorities investigated today a fire, described as deliberately set, which made 48 families temporarily homeless.

No one was hurt in the Sunday blaze at the three-story apartment building at 1240-1250 Fairfield Ave.

Assistant Fire Chief Robert Carlson said the fire originated in the basement and spread quickly in that area of the building. Heavy smoke rose to upper hallways, forcing occupants into the street and yard.

"We aided some families in getting out of the place through heavy smoke," Carlson said.

Firemen said they have been called to the building in the past as the result of "set" fires.

Officials said newspapers, rags, rugs and barrels filled with a variety of items were ablaze in the basement when firemen responded to a telephoned alarm at about 3:25 p.m.

Collegians Coming

HARTFORD (AP)—The State Department of Education said today that more than 44 percent of this month's 35,850 graduates of public, private and parochial high schools will enter four-year colleges in the fall.

Dr. Maurice J. Ross, the department's director of research, said exact statistics are not yet available but that he number of high school graduates is slightly lower than that of last year.

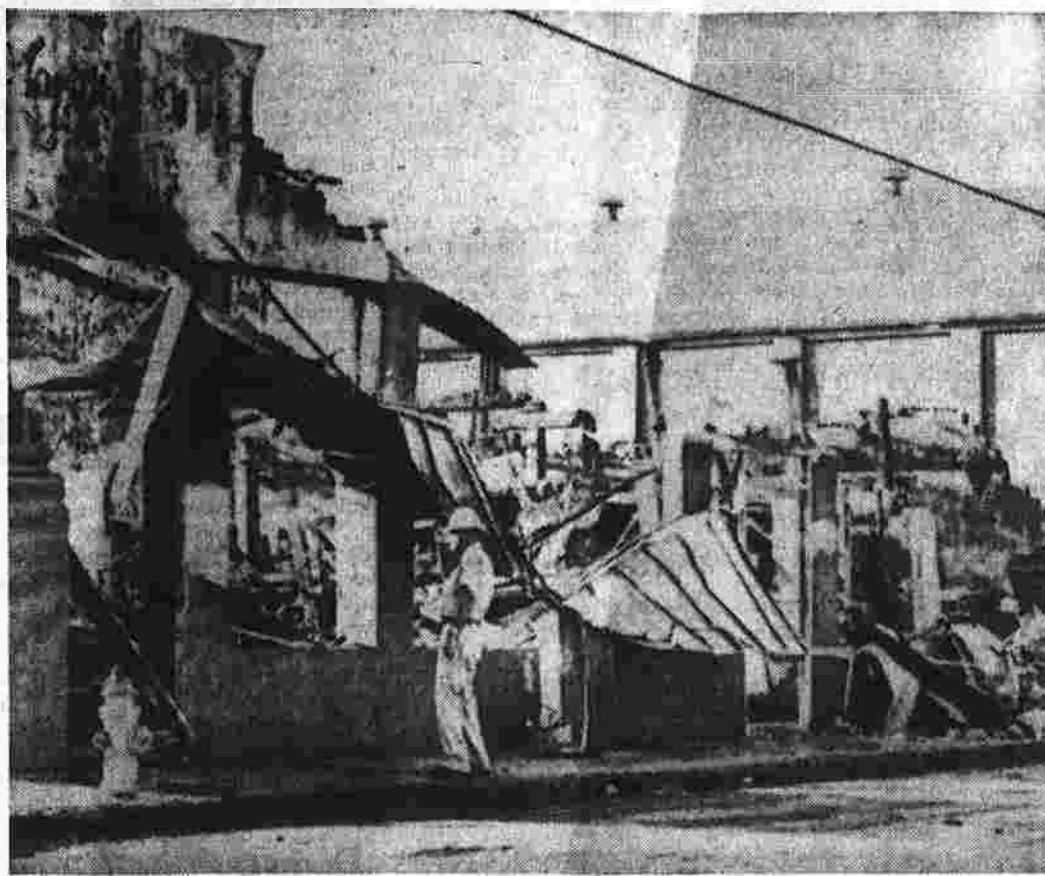

He estimated that 30,550 pupils will graduate from the state's public high schools and another part in any charge against the federal marshals." However, Harlan also noted that Savell "was actually present during the events described and had reported them almost immediately to The Associated Press office in Atlanta."

The justice said "a discrepancy" was shown between an oral account given the office and a later written dispatch. But he said it related solely to whether Walker had spoken to a group of students on campus "before or after approaching the marshals."

Harlan referred to this as a "minor discrepancy" and said:

Walker Suit Against AP Upset by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court threw out today a $500,000 libel judgment won by Edwin A. Walker against The Associated Press.

It also set aside state laws that bar interracial marriages, upheld a contempt of court decision against Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and upheld a libel judgment won by Wallace Butts against the Saturday Evening Post.

All nine judges voted to set aside the judgment, won by Walker, a former U.S. Army major general, in a Fort Worth, Tex., state court in 1964. They entered four separate opinions to state their views.

In the controlling opinion, Justice John M. Harlan said there wasn't "the slightest hint of a severe departure from accepted publishing standards" in the way The Associated Press the University of Mississippi campus at Oxford in 1962.

"We therefore conclude that Gen. Walker should not be entitled to damages from The Associated Press."

Riots swept the Mississippi campus the night of Sept. 30, occasioned by the admission of a Negro, James H. Meredith, into the university. The AP reported Oct. 2 and 3 that Walker had "Assumed command of the crowd" and had "led a charge of students against federal marshals."

Harlan said there was no evidence of "personal prejudice or incompetency" on the part of the AP's reporter, Van Savell.

Harlan noted that Walker had "denied categorically taking "Negligence, it may have been, malice, it was not."

The nub of Harlan's opinion was that The Associated Press exercised a proper "degree of care" in its dispatches.

In 1964, in the landmark New York Times libel case, the court held that a public official cannot recover damages for a libelous statement relating to the official duties unless he can prove actual malice.

The AP contended Walker should be viewed as a "public figure" in terms of the 1964 decision.

Duke Gets Award

Mood Isn't Indigo Despite Yale Blue

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Duke Ellington, one of the most creative and durable of jazz composers, donned an academic robe today to receive an honorary degree from Yale University.

Ellington's citation credited him with "an important generalization—'It Don't Mean a Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing.'"

Employing variations on the titles of several Ellington songs, the citation said: "Your musical compositions and performances have set our hearts singing, our spirits soaring and our feet tapping. We hope that today your mood is not indigo and that your 'Caravan' will continue to 'Take the A Train' in the direction of more 'Sentimental Mood.' It might be said 'You've got it good and that ain't bad!'"

The Duke was awarded a degree of Doctor of Music.

The dozen other honorary degrees conferred by Yale at its 266th commencement:

—Paul Mellon, the philanthropist who is giving Yale a huge art collection and museum to house it, Doctor of Humane Letters.

—Edwin O. Reischauer, Harvard professor and former U.S. ambassador to Japan, Doctor of Laws.

—Frederick R. Kappel, retired board chairman of American Telephone & Telegraph, Doctor of Laws.

—Historian Barbara W. Tuchman, Doctor of Humane Letters.

—Konrad Lorenz, director of the Max Planck Institute, Doctor of Laws.

—Louis Finkelstein, Chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, Doctor of Divinity.

—Physicist Chien-Shiung Wu, of Columbia University, Doctor of Science.

—Alfred Hamilton Barr Jr., Director of Collections at the Museum of Modern Art in New York City, Doctor of Fine Arts.

—Biologist George Emil Palade of Rockefeller University, Doctor of Science.

—Roman Jakobson, professor of Slavic languages and literature at Harvard University, Doctor of Humane Letters.

—Lord Fulton of Falmer, vice Chancellor of the University of Sussex, England, Doctor of Laws.

12 Injured, Sheriff Dies During Riot

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A mob of 400 Negroes, spurred to violence when a patrolman shot a Negro youth, went on a rampage in two slum areas today. They beat whites and sacked and burned an entire block of white-owned stores.

At least a dozen persons, including 10 whites, were injured. A deputy sheriff died of an apparent heart attack during the melee.

Armed with guns stolen from a smashed pawnshop, the Negroes exchanged shots with police, hurled bricks through automobile windows and went on a wild looting spree.

At daybreak, the shooting had ceased and the fires had been extinguished. Smoke from fire-damaged buildings curled over a dingy area of bars, liquor stores, pool halls and one-story business houses.

Deputy Chief A. H. Winwright said the riot erupted in the middle of a muggy night at Nebraska Avenue and Twiggs Street when a 19-year-old youth was shot and killed as he ran from a patrolman.

The officer said he shot after spotting the youth and two others running from the scene of a burglary and Negro leaders did not question that the shooting was in the line of duty.

Dodd Debate Set to Open In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate debates this week whether to censure Sen. Thomas J. Dodd for alleged financial misconduct.

The Connecticut Democrat's only announced ally in fighting the censure resolution is Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., who contends the Senate ethics committee, which recommended censure, is making a scapegoat of Dodd.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said Sunday Dodd has a legitimate complaint in saying the Senate does not have an official code of ethics by which to judge him. Javits did not, however, say how he would vote.

Long plans to propose after the debate opens Tuesday that the Senate discard the censure resolution altogether and instead ask the ethics committee to draft an ethics code. He disclosed Saturday he has sent to all senators a legal brief contending the ethics committee's investigation of Dodd doesn't support its resolution.

The six-member committee—three Democrats and three Republicans—unanimously recommended censure.

Long intends to substitute for the censure resolution one commending the ethics committee for its efforts in the probe and its attempt "to promote high standards of ethics on the part of members of the Senate," as well as calling for the drafting of the code of ethics.

News Tidbits

Two explosions rocked an ammunition plant in Kenil, N.J., this morning, killing one man and injuring three others. Ten tornadoes cut a swath through midwestern states yesterday as turbulent weather plagued parts of the country for the eighth straight day; no injuries were reported but several houses and a church were destroyed. Israel Prime Minister Eshkol emphasized today his country intends to keep some of the land gained during the six-day Middle East war. Teamster President Hoffa asked U.S. District Court today to reduce his eight-year jury tampering sentence calling it "inappropriate and harsh."

Freshmen in the Assembly

Newcomers Find Monstrous Wastes

Editors Note:
The 1967 General Assembly was noteworthy in having a high percentage of young freshmen—one of the side effects of reapportionment.

For an expression of how the freshmen reacted to their first session, The Associated Press turned to two young men who won the respect of party veterans on both sides of the aisle in the House.

Reps. Francis J. Collins, R-Brookfield, and John F. Papandrea, D-Meriden, are both 22 years old, and are in substantial agreement on the subject of what could be done to make the legislature a more effective lawmaking body.

Their article was written shortly before the end of the General Assembly session.

HARTFORD (AP)—An advantage of being freshmen in the first reapportioned Connecticut legislature is the opportunity to look at some of the traditional practices from a fresh and, we hope, an unbiased perspective.

The first matter which begs criticism is the lack of organization in framing the scope and function of the legislative committees. The undisciplined flood of bills, many duplicating each other, is almost as wasteful as the practice of having a public hearing on every measure.

Surely, in this computer age, a better method can and should be found to avoid this monstrous waste of time, money and talent.

Those Lazy, Crazy, Hazy Days of Summer Are Here

This scene, at Bolton Lake in front of the Bolton Lake House, was duplicated yesterday at every pond, lake, stream or mud-hole capable of accommodating one or more persons. The mercury went past the 90 degree mark both weekend days, and is due to pass it again today igniting a mass exodus toward cooler climes. (Herald photo by Ofiana)
