Church Distributes Food To Detroit Riot Victims

Detroit (AP) — The old area hit hardest by rioting Negro man carried a bulky bag over his bent shoulders. He worked his way to the front of the line at the church on 12th Street.

"I want some milk," he said, his hand clenching the bag as though it might escape.

The food line stretched out the door and onto the lawn. A woman in a yellow blouse and khaki trousers held a large, pink shopping bag. A boy, about 17, pulled a red wagon with an empty basket and cardboard boxes in it. Others in the line clutched cardboard boxes or brown paper bags.

"We got the idea last night," said the Rev. Robert K. Potts, chairman of the Virginia Park Rehabilitation Project which had collected food to dispense to residents of Detroit's West Side.

These were the other victims of the violence and plunder that had turned block after block of the West Side into smoking ruins and wrecked stores, gaping empty, windows shattered and smashed, shelves cleaned off or cluttered with litter and debris.

"They lived in the tenements, Mrs. Milton Jones, neatly dressed in shorts and blouse, she stood outside the church, 'Stealing, breaking into stores,' she went on, surveying the littered street.

"Innocent people are the ones that are suffering."

Sixteen-year-old Louise Collins nodded agreement.

"I saw them breaking into the cleaners Sunday," she said.

"They were colored."

Did these, the other victims, know why it all happened?

Mrs. Jones shook her head. "I have no idea."

The girl beside her said, "I don't know. But they said people didn't do what they were supposed to, like building houses."

He was ordained June 2, 1965, at Middletown for the United Church of Christ, and served as associated minister in his home church, Walden Smith, was helping hand out food. He was senior pastor of Grace Episcopal church, "we've got a lot of people here that need help and we're trying to take care of them," he said.

A Negro woman walked up. "I heard you were giving away bread and I've got five kids at home and nothing to eat," she said.

The Rev. Dr. Allison Heav of Rockville and the Rev. Dr. Truman Woodard of Windsor, both retired, have been serving as interim ministers of the church since the resignation of the former pastor, Rev. James H. Ameling, who is now serving an assistant pastorate in Rhode Island.

Coventry New Pastor Is Appointed At Second Congregational

The Rev. Robert Kenneth Bechtold will assume pastoral duties on Aug. 1 as the new pastor of the Second Congregational Church, he and his family are now making their home in the church parsonage on Grant Hill Rd., which recently was rededicated for the arrival of the new family this month.

The Rev. Mr. Bechtold, who comes to Coventry from Middletown where he served as associate minister of the First Church of Christ Congregational, received his bachelor of divinity degree from Yale University Divinity School in 1965.

He was ordained June 2, 1965, at Middletown for the United Church of Christ, and served as associated minister in his home church, Walden Smith, was helping hand out food. He was senior pastor of Grace Episcopal church, "we've got a lot of people here that need help and we're trying to take care of them," he said.

Coventry State Agriculture Queen

Miss Diane Busaglia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Camillo E. Busaglia of Silver St., has been proclaimed State Connecticut Agriculture Queen for 1967. Ceremonies took place recently at the offices of Joseph N. Gill, commissioner of the Connecticut Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources, in Hartford.

Miss Busaglia was presented with a crown and a sash, signifying her position as representative of agriculture in the state.

A committee of persons prominent in agriculture, chaired by Frank Alwood of WTCI, selected Miss Busaglia. She is 18 and graduated from Coventry High School this June as co-valedictorian. She is president of the Nathan Hale Chapter of the National Honor Society and plans to enter the University of Connecticut this fall.

The citation reads, "The American Legion, Department of Connecticut, gratefully and sincerely expresses its appreciation to Mr. Robert Bechtold, newly and distinguished service rendered the unfortunate, needy, or disabled veterans and his dependents over a period of many years as representative of the Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines Fund."

Bechtold declined re-election to this office in June after serving for the past 14 consecutive years. The local service office is required to answer calls for the town of Coventry, as well as for the towns of Andover, Bolton, Columbia, and Willington, where there are no local representatives.

Howard G. Reynolds of Eastville is assistant service officer and is responsible for the calls for the town of Mansfield.

3 Teachers Join Staff, Two Resign

The Board of Education accepted two teacher resignations, granted one leave of absence, and made three new appointments at its meeting Monday.

Resigning are Herbert P. Paul, a Manchester High School English teacher, and Mrs. Genevieve Duane, a first grade teacher at Buckley School. He was accepted a position in another school system, while Mrs. Duane is retiring, the board learned.

Michael Gates, a teacher of English and social studies at Bennett Junior High School, was granted a year's leave. He will do full-time graduate study at the University of Virginia during the 1967-68 academic year.

The three teacher appointments are as follows:

Mrs. Kathleen A. Little of Andover to teach English at Waddell School at a salary of $6,900. She earned a B.S. degree from the College of Our Lady of the Bims and has previous teaching experience in North Providence, R.I.

Miss Nancy J. Harris of South Hadley Falls, Mass., to teach elementary music at a salary of $5,750. She was graduated in June from the University of Connecticut with a B.S. degree.

Mrs. Barbara Gold of Manchester to teach Grade 1 at Buckley School. Her salary will be $5,950. A 1960 graduate of Central Connecticut State College, with a B.S. degree, she has one year's previous experience in Hartford.

Detroit Economic Cost Could Reach $1 Billion

Detroit (AP) — The cost of rioting in the three-county Detroit metropolitan area eventually could reach $1 billion, predicts Dwight Havens, president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce.

"We've got other losses which are harder to pin down — such things as the prestige loss. This will affect our convention business, and I'm sure it's already affected our recreation business. Oakland County alone (site of racially tense Pontiac which lies just north of Wayne County, where Detroit is) has more miles of waterfront than any county in the United States, they claim."

Detroit's information office says it will be several days at

Andover 2 Hearings Are Held on Zone Changes

About 25 people attended the two hearings of the Planning and Zoning Commission held Monday at the town office building.

As both hearings pertained to the use of land in the west part of town for garden apartments, most of the people in attendance were from that section.

On the petition of Ralph M. and Irene Bolles, Shady Mill Rd., to rezone from R40 to Garden Apartment Zone about five acres of the larger acreage they own, numerous pros and cons were brought out. Those opposed talked mostly of the plain appearance of such units built within the last few years.

Those in favor of the zone change spoke of the favorable tax aspect of such property, the need for such rentals for young couples and retired people, and also the advantage of having most of the five acres left free for open space.

The Bolles plan to erect one change a 28-acre plot of land on Rt. 6, between the Schaller property and Hickory Dr. on the west and the Andover Sportsmen Club on the east, from light industrial to garden apartments, a "residential" zone. The Bolles plan to erect six buildings with a total of 48 one-bedroom apartments on the site. A number of acres on Rt. 6, to the north of the buildings, would be left to open space.

Residents in the area, particularly people in Hickory Dr., spoke against the change and quoted bankers to sustain their belief that such apartments would devalue their home values.

A number of members of the Andover Sportsmen's Club for later this week. They are which owns about 130 acre adjacent to the plot of land, this, and let Lt. John L. Patrick Jr. of Wytheville, Va.

Petition Coming on Merger Johnson Will Be Asked To Help Save Railroad

GREENWICH (AP) — President Johnson will soon be urged to unite federal agencies and expedite the litigation-marred Penn-Central rail merger, tentatively set to include the bankrupt New Haven Railroad.

Communities and businessmen are being asked to sign a petition to be sent to the President. Existence of the petition was revealed Tuesday night at a public address by a New Haven officer.

Richard Joyce Smith, chairman of the New Haven's board of trustees, discussed the New Haven's increasingly gloomy survival prospects during a meeting sponsored by the Connecticut Chamber of Commerce.

After Smith's talk, Haynes B. Johnson, president of a commuter group from Connecticut's Fairfield County and the New York's Westchester County, presented the petition to approximately 100 persons at the meeting.

The commuters' group, United Communities for Railroad Action, was established about 2 years ago to support continued operation by the New Haven.

Johnson said the petition will be sent to President Johnson soon. It says there is "complete lack of cooperation, if not outright disagreement, existing among various federal agencies."

Cited by the petition are the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Department of Justice, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Post Office Department.

The railroad has been in receivership since 1961.

Efforts to include it in the proposed Penn-Central merger have hinged on how soon the merger can be effected. A massive tangle of lawsuits has been thrown up to stop or delay the merger.

According to the petition, joint action should be taken to force the trustees will be forced to discontinue service by the end of 1968.

Johnson Will Be Asked To Help Save Railroad

of this year if the Penn-Central merger is not consummated and the New Haven merged into the Penn-Central.

Smith said the petition depends on the continuation of the New Haven's passenger and freight services, the petition contends.

It urges the President "to represent to the various federal agencies so the merger can be expedited."

About 400 food stores were destroyed in the burning and looting, said Edward Deah, executive director of the Food Dealers of Greater Detroit.

Food industry spokesmen said, however, that there was ample food available and no shortage would develop unless panic buying became general.

Some stores were out of bread, milk and some kinds of meat.

Churches and other relief agencies were receiving food from such distant cities as Monroe, on the Michigan-Ohio border nearly 60 miles away, and from Marine City, about 50 miles to the northeast.

"As soon as we get the food, it goes out," said the Rev. John George of Visitation Roman Catholic church. "We've had six or seven truckloads. But it's not enough, especially the bread and milk."

Three families of riot refugees had walked into the parish where Father George was at work Monday night. Among them was a widowed mother of five. Her husband had died, apparently of a heart attack, when their house burned.

Homes for the refugees were provided by white families in northwest Detroit.

"The refugees are a probability," he said. "We know they are there. But the people are scared. They're afraid of the snipers and of the police. They are hiding somewhere, but we haven't been able to get them to come here."

The other victims were there, the hungry, homeless, the frightened people and the innocent who could only wonder why.

Hijackers Stop 1,415

NEW YORK — The 1,415 robbers from trucks in New York City in fiscal 1966 are counted for losses of $4,337,978, more than all the bank robberies in the United States that year. The 1,564 bank thefts nationwide caused losses of only $2 million.

She has grown up on her parents' 75-acre dairy farm and has been extremely active in 4-H work during the last 10 years, receiving many awards for achievements, especially in the dairy field. Her participation in 4-H judging activities and active leadership in the 4-H Club work has been especially noteworthy.

She was named Connecticut Champion Holstein Girl for 1963.

An Miss Connecticut Agriculture she will be part of the governor's party at the command performance Sept. 10 in West Springfield, Mass. She also will accompany the gubernatorial party as its cheerleader.

Obeyed Officer's Order Vietnam Hero Gets 10 Years For Shooting Cong Captive

AN KHE, South Vietnam (AP) — A U.S. Army general court-martial today convicted and sentenced to 10 years in prison a decorated sergeant on a charge of killing a Vietnamese prisoner. The sergeant testified he had acted on orders from his commanding officers.

The officers have been charged with premeditated murder and will be tried later.

Sgt. Walter Griffin, 25, of East St. Louis, Ill., also was reduced in rank to recruit and ordered to forfeit all pay and allowances. He was convicted of premeditated murder.

The prosecution contended the order to kill the prisoner, suspected of being a Viet Cong leader and called Griffin's action "a stain on the profession of arms."

"We are in Vietnam to establish a rule of law and order, not to destroy it," said the prosecutor.

Death Is 'Dying Out' As Top Court Penalty

CHICAGO (AP)—Death appears to be dying as the supreme penalty of American justice, even though most states cling to capital punishment statutes.

A survey by The Associated Press showed that 15 states have abolished the death penalty or so severely restricted its use that it almost nonexistent. Some states have not executed a criminal in decades.

Most death penalties are imposed for murder. But some states can execute for rape, kidnapping, armed robbery, treason against the state. In Oklahoma, the death penalty legally can be imposed for peddling narcotics to minors.

In Connecticut, causing death by tampering with railroad tracks or by "willfully burning any vessel or building" are crimes punishable by death. Another state can impose death for burglary of an inhabited house at night.

But death at the hands of the state is becoming a rarity and the voice of the abolitionists is louder and more frequent than that of those who favor it.

Legal executions have been abolished in Alaska, Hawaii, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Oregon, West Virginia and Wisconsin. It has been abolished with qualifications in New York and Vermont and has been on the books in Rhode Island since 1864—but never used.

The death penalty was abolished by the New York Legislature in 1965. An execution involves persons who kill policemen or kill while escaping from prison.

The Vermont Legislature repealed capital punishment laws in 1965 except in cases where a second murder is committed or a police officer is killed in the line of duty.

The Rhode Island law applies only to persons who are sentenced to life imprisonment for first-degree murder, and the later are convicted of another first-degree murder.

That specific situation has never arisen in the state.

Maryland, New Mexico and North Carolina currently are prime targets of abolitionists activity. Bills to eliminate the death penalty were introduced in recent legislative sessions. In California a major court test is being fought in the wake of legislative action.

Recurrent bills to eliminate the death penalty have been introduced in many states, but either were defeated or died in committee.

Other abolitionist attempts have been made without success in recent years in Montana, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, South Carolina, Texas, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Nevada, Arkansas, Tennessee, Utah, Idaho, Virginia, Washington, Mississippi, Nebraska, Missouri, Connecticut, New Jersey and Louisiana.

In the November 1966 election, Colorado voters defeated an abolition measure by a 2-1 margin.

Several abolition bills in Massachusetts were killed shortly after the escape from a mental institution of Albert DeSalvo, the man who calls himself the Boston strangler. Legislators cited the escape and a recent flurry of gangland killings in the Boston area.

But opponents of capital punishment continue to fight.

The abolitionists contend that the deterrent factor, the traditional argument for retaining capital punishment, is a myth.

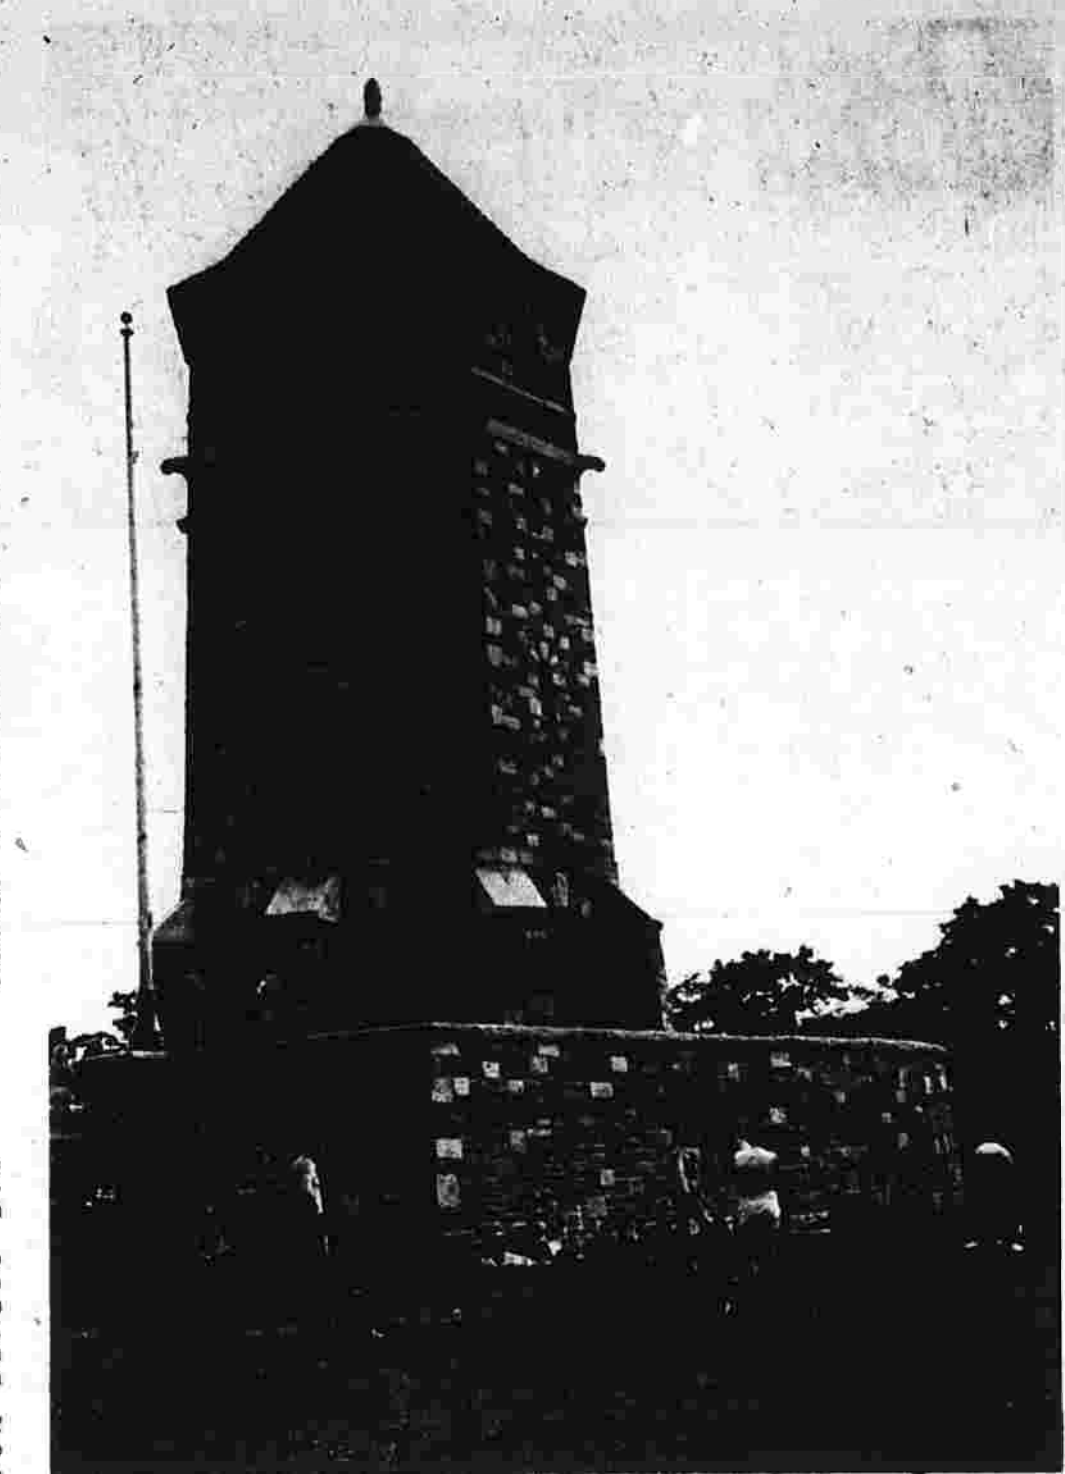

"The death penalty is related to the homicide rate in the same way an Indian rain dance is related to the production of rain," says a leading Midwest advocate of abolition.

"When the rains come they come."

Efforts to abolish the death penalty have quickened over the last decade. There is an active corps of abolitionists in nearly every state. Among the leaders are the American Civil Liberties Union and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

They point to federal statistics on all executions in the United States between 1950 and 1965. Of the 8,866 persons executed in that period, the abolitionists state, 84 per cent were non-white. Of white persons executed, they hold, the majority lacked funds to pay for an adequate defense.

Judge Upholds Billy Rose Will

NEW YORK (AP)—A judge has upheld Billy Rose's avoidance of taxes on the bulk of his estate.

Surrogate S. Samuel DiFalco ruled Tuesday that the late showman was within his rights in leaving most of his estate, estimated between $25 million and $50 million, to a foundation bearing his name.

A sister, Miriam Stern of Manhattan, had protested the will, contending that Rose's attempt to insure tax deductibility of his charitable gifts is against public policy.

DiFalco noted in his decision that the Billy Rose Foundation was established in 1953 as a trust with religious, charitable and educational purposes.

The ruling said whether or not the decedent was truly charitable or primarily concerned with avoiding taxes, it is of no concern either to this court or to the petitioner.

He will give the income from a $100,000 trust to Mrs. Stern. A Tuesday said it will expand its trustee service between Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Norfolk, Va., Hartford, Conn., and Providence, R.I.

Allegedly said 97 per cent of his flight serving Philadelphia will be for jet and prop planes when the expansion occurs.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Allegedly Airlines will begin offering four daily non-stop DC-8 jet trips between Philadelphia and Boston.

SAFE DRIVER RETIRES CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Sidney Wigfall wore out 20 taxis and never had either a traffic accident or a ticket during his nearly 50 years as a cab driver. He has just retired at 62.

A discussion on school board policy for awarding the high school yearbook photography contract, slated for the board's Monday session, was tabled until August.

Belen Nassiff, a town photographer who had sought the decision, failed to appear. A board member said he understood Nassiff would attend the next session.

Index to Change

OSLO—The Central Bureau of Statistics has persuaded some 8,000 Norwegian households to take part in a consumption study to lay the basis for revising the consumer price index. Participating households have agreed to keep track of all expenses for one month.

OIL DUMP BURNED

ASHDOD, Israel (AP)—A huge oil dump went up in flames at this lowest of Israel's harbors early today. The cause was not immediately determined.

A workman was killed and two others seriously injured as the fire got out of control. Fire engines rushed here from all the Army for $4.5 million, and one of Israel, and an air force helicopter joined in the fight.

Mathieson's Winchester-Western Division in New Haven is one of the firms being considered for the new contract.

In Colt's report to stockholders, it listed total sales of $77.3 million during the second quarter of 1967, compared to $60.3 million during the corresponding period last year. The quarterly dividend was 21 cents a share compared to 24 cents for the second quarter of 1966.

For the six months ended July 2, Colt's net earnings were $2.5 million, or $1.51 per share on sales of $46.2 million. This compared with net earnings of $2 million or 84 cents a share during the first half of 1966.

The 1967 earnings per share were adjusted to reflect a five per cent common stock dividend paid April 17.

Some 2,000 UAW members struck Colt's firearms division here on July 1, just as a two-week vacation shutdown was beginning.

Negotiations between Colt and the UAW are to resume next Tuesday in Hartford. The last talks were held in Washington and were broken off last Thursday.

Colt is the only manufacturer of the automatic M-16 rifle, which is being used in the Vietnam conflict.

However, Colt's patents and the fire got out of control. The fire got out of control. The fire got out of control.

Pope on Pilgrimage To Eastern Shrines

ISTANBUL (AP) — A Turkish pilgrim caravan of 25 men and 25 nuns, headed by Pope Paul VI, left Rome today for a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and other eastern shrines.

The Pope and his entourage will spend about 10 days in the Holy Land, including a visit to Jerusalem, the birthplace of Christ, and the site of his crucifixion and burial.

The Pope is expected to arrive in Jerusalem on July 28 and to spend several days there before continuing his journey to other eastern shrines.

The pilgrimage is the first of its kind since the Second Vatican Council, and is expected to attract a large number of pilgrims from around the world.

Barnes Attacks Ribicoff Stand On Dodd Censure

WILLIAMANTIC (AP) — A Republican state senator has criticized U.S. Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., for voting against a censure of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Sen. William L. Barnes, R-Willimantic, said he was "astonished" that Ribicoff would vote against a censure of Dodd, who he said had "betrayed the trust of his constituents."

Barnes said he would support a censure of Ribicoff if he voted against a censure of Dodd.

Events in Capital

Gl's Muzzled? — The chairman of a House subcommittee that went to South Vietnam to check complaints about the military's treatment of prisoners of war, may have muzzled his own members, according to a report in the Washington National Catholic.

The report says that the chairman, Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., read portions of several letters that charged soldiers were kept from giving the House members true information about the conditions in Vietnam.

Ichord said he was "convinced" that the soldiers were being muzzled, and that he would support a bill to allow them to speak freely.

Capital Note — "I have the utmost sympathy for any person who has never had a decent chance in life. But the fact that society has treated him badly does not give him the right to smash a store window and take what he wants, or to attack our police with animal ferocity," said Rep. Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a Reader's Digest article, calling for strong action to combat lawlessness and rioting.

Capital Footnotes — Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Antitrust subcommittee says the panel's staff has begun a probe of the auto insurance industry. Celler said he has received more than 120 complaints alleging unfair practices and discrimination in the setting of insurance rates.

McNaughton Buried — WASHINGTON (AP) — John T. McNaughton, who would have become secretary of the Navy Aug. 1, was buried Tuesday following church rites at St. John's Episcopal Church in Washington.

McNaughton, the wife Sarah and their 11-year-old son Theodore were killed July 15 in a North Carolina plane crash.

Some days before the Senate had confirmed Johnson's appointment of McNaughton to the Navy post, it was reported that Johnson occupied a front pew

Lauretano - Swanson

Miss Janet Linda Swanson and Michael John Lauretano, both of Manchester, were married Saturday in a civil ceremony performed by Raymond T. Deppa, pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church, 413 E. Center St.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Swanson Jr. of 65 Westminister Rd. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Lauretano of 413 E. Center St.

The bride wore a pink and beige print dress, designed by scooped neckline, and carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy with pink streamers.

A reception for 50 was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lauretano.

Man, Teeth Bewitched

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A Boise man and his false teeth are reputed to be in a sharp-eyed diver from the county sheriff's office.

The government has had details of the invasion but vessels of the Nigerian navy, which includes a frigate and a number of patrol boats, left Lagos at the beginning of the week.

The government also had officers of the Nigerian navy, which includes a frigate and a number of patrol boats, left Lagos at the beginning of the week.

Key Station On Network 'Goes News'

NEW YORK (AP) — Station WCBN, flagship of the CBS radio network, is changing from music and conversation to one of all-news programming.

The all-news station is broadcasting only about a half-dozen stations in the country have made the switch, and even the first has been at it for only three years.

The WCBN decision was made in hopes of retaining lost footing in the New York ratings battle, officials said.

The claim of being the first all-news station in this country is made by WJLB in Chicago, which has been on the air since 1964. The station's programming, which dumped its top 40 pop tunes format in September 1965.

WINS, New York, made the change in April 1966 and a sister station in Great Falls, Va., WJLA, followed.

Philadelphia's KW, followed last September. WVA in Arlington, Va., changed in May 1966, beaming its news to metropolitan Washington. KABC-FM in Los Angeles is another news station.

The number of other stations across the country have given new emphasis to their news coverage. Some devote the whole morning to news — the crucial hours of radio-broadcasting "news" is secondary.

The change at WCBN was pre-announced in late June when CBS named Joseph Dembo, director of CBS Radio News, as network vice president and general manager of the station.

"I'm fairly sure we can secure our standings in New York," said Dembo, 40, a veteran broadcaster at NBC and CBS. "I certainly have no illusions about becoming No. 1 in the next 12 months."

"But, there's no doubt in my mind that once we get our catches on our sales picture will improve. Our ratings will go up, and we've got some going to do," he said.

One of the first things Dembo plans to do is expand the WCBN 21-man news staff. He expects to recruit at least 15 more newsmen. He also is adding more mobile news cars and will use the station's two traffic helicopters for news.

"It's going to cost a considerable sum, but I can't say how much," he said. "You can't run a news-oriented station cheaply."

WINS reports a similar experiment to do is expand the WCBN 21-man news staff. He expects to recruit at least 15 more newsmen. He also is adding more mobile news cars and will use the station's two traffic helicopters for news.

Petitions Filed For Bankruptcy

Louis Barton also listed Peter's Saving Bank of Rockville, $4,269.63 and Fred Baldwin of Vernon, $447.04.

The petitions will be turned over to Paul Salomon, referee in bankruptcy. The Bartons are being represented by Atty. Frank Ahearn of Wapping.

Sub Completes Trail

QUINCY, Mass. (AP) — A nuclear submarine, Greenling, has successfully completed her first sea trials, General Dynamics Corp. reported Tuesday.

Heading out to sea Sunday, she struck a buoy off Hingham and suffered no damage or injuries and proceeded with her trials after a half-hour delay.

Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, in charge of the trials for the Atomic Energy Commission and the Navy, was aboard the sub.

Greenling is commanded by Cmdr. G.H.B. Shaffer of Jersey City, N.J. She was built at General Dynamics Corp. yard in Quincy, Mass.

Rep. Ichord

Viet Reaction to Rioters Let Them Come Here If They Want a Fight

SAIGON (AP) — "Let them come over here if they want to fight," said John B. Harper, 20, a white infantryman from Lore, Ohio, one of the hardest hit cities.

The rioting and violence isn't going to accompany a damn thing," said Capt. David Travis, Bonnie, and their four small children, and for his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parker. "I've got enough problems fighting a war over here without that there is a group of people that haven't been afforded the opportunity to enjoy the affluence of American society."

These were typical reactions to the racial violence in the United States expressed by combat soldiers of the 1st Infantry Division's 2nd Brigade, stationed at Di An, 15 miles north of Saigon.

"I'm distressed to see the rioting occur," said Travis, 32, a career officer who is a native of Newark, N.J.

It seems ironic that here I am in Vietnam being really actively involved in the defense and protection of the way of life that insures a standard of living matter of two or three years ago level of privileges that seem to be denied to those individuals that are home.

"It seems especially unfortunate that while in Vietnam a very large percentage of the fighting force involved in combat is Negro, at the same time you have active violence that has taken place back home by their own relatives and friends."

Although Travis is a native of Newark, his wife and children are living in East Orange, N.J. and voting.

Negro Quaker Sees Riots Inevitable in Racial Revolt

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — A Negro Quaker, whose religion historically has condemned violence and stressed peaceful reconciliation of conflicts, said today that "violence is inevitable in the revolution" to establish justice for Negro Americans.

Barrington Dunbar, a New York social worker and representative of the American Friends Service Committee to the recent Black Power conference in Newark, N.J., said the conference made clear that the present situation "demands military force."

"It demands revolutionary tactics rather than accommodation to the system that has been brutal and violent so far as the Negro is concerned," he told delegates to a world conference of Quakers.

In his report, outlined to newsmen in advance, Dunbar also predicted that the rioting would "continue all summer. You just can't control and direct a revolution in a straight line. People just don't believe that way."

Dunbar, a lean and articulate man, said that as a Quaker he opposes the violence and personally "could not participate" in such methods. But he said it serves a "useful purpose" in alerting the American people to the plight of Negroes.

"What is being done by agitators from the rooftops in Detroit is not more serious than what we're doing in Vietnam in the name of freedom and defending democracy," he said.

He said the agitators are saying, "This is the only language that white people understand," and in the tradition of Patrick Henry are demanding, "Give me liberty or death!"

Dunbar's report came as 1,300 Quaker representatives from 36 nations reviewed means for uniting and strengthening the Quaker movement, noted for its antiwar influence and humanitarian service.

Dunbar said he was "shocked and surprised at the anger" manifested at the Black Power conference. "Unless there's more willingness to share power with Negroes, our country is in for real trouble," he said.

To resolve the problem, he said, America must squarely recognize its "damnable guilt" toward a "whole race of people," and that it "has been violent to the Negro and denied the man the opportunity to be a human person."

He called for massive programs to correct the past damage done on a scale comparable to allied reconstruction efforts after World War II in devastated Germany, where Dunbar served at the time aiding former prisoners of war.

Dunbar said the American reparations in behalf of Negroes should include building of decent homes, schools and churches to eliminate the city slums.

He described the controversial Black Power concept as temporarily useful in the sense that "before Negroes can unite with others, they must first develop a positive self-image that does not rely on the influence of white people."

12th Circuit Court Cases

ROCKVILLE SESSION
Robert Riley, 21, of 5 Faith Dr., received a suspended sentence of one year in prison yesterday after pleading guilty to using a motor vehicle without the owner's permission. He was placed on a year's probation.

Riley was also sentenced to 30 days in jail for reckless driving but it was suspended. He paid $15 each for failure to obey an officer's signal and operating without a license.

The charges involved the July 3 theft of a car from the Rockville General Hospital parking lot. A chase by Vermont police brought Riley's arrest.

Robert C. Bell, 24, of Job's Hill Rd., Ellington, was given a 30-day suspended sentence after pleading guilty to causing damage to private property. He paid fines of $25 for breach of peace and $10 for being found intoxicated.

Other cases disposed of included: Peter W. Allen, 19, of Maple St., Ellington, failure to obey stop sign, $15, and unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle, $15; Michael E. Elder, 18, of 135 Benton St., failure to obey stop sign, $15; Julio K. DiBacco, 16, of 30 Foster Dr., improper left turn, $15; and Deane L. Gadwah, 17, of 90 Union St., failure to carry license, $5.

Also, Edward F. Hemphill, 43, of 88 Legion Dr., breach of peace, $20 with $15 remitted; Charles F. Holmes, 17, of 123 Union St., failure to drive in an established lane, milled; Carroll Reed, 26, of Windsorville Rd., failure to grant the right of way, $15; James M. Toman, 18, of 138 Trout Stream Dr., unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle, $15, and John J. Woodard, 25, of New Britain, driving 25 in a 20 mph zone, $15. Three speeding charges were changed to failure to obey state traffic control signs and fines of $30 each were paid. People charged were Bruce L. Anderson, 25, of New Britain, driving 25 in a 20 mph zone, $15. He was fined $15.

Events in World

5-Year Plan Approved
ROME (AP) — Parliament gave final approval Tuesday to Italy's first five-year plan, calling for investment of $56 billion, mostly in the nation's depressed south.

The plan sets guidelines for development projects of state concern and encourages private industry through subsidies and investments to follow the same guidelines.

British Minister
LONDON (AP) — Judith Hart, who has been minister of state for Commonwealth affairs since 1966, is Britain's new secretary of state for the Commonwealth.

ing Western and East European observers concluded after the summit that the two sides were far from reaching an agreement. The summit was held in Moscow, U.S.S.R., from July 15-16.

Forest Fire in Cyprus
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A forest fire raged out of control Tuesday over a large area near the Paphos district in western Cyprus.

A United Nations spokesman said the fire had started near the village of Tialia, the other of setting the fire.

Assurance for Cuba
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union assured Cuba today that it would continue providing economic and military aid to Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Soviet aid to Cuba is believed to be running about $600 million a year.

The assurance was given in a message on Cuba's National Day, the 14th anniversary of the revolution, which was held in Moscow.

U.N. troops raised the alarm and began helping to fight the fire.

Last year a serious forest fire broke out in the area after fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, and each side accused the other of setting the fire.

Romania Rebuffed
BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) — Romania's Communist party President Nicolae Ceausescu rebuffed Romanian efforts and disclosed Tuesday that he had expressed the Romanian government's hope for closer relations with the United States.

Nicolas Maurer made a speech Tuesday without mentioning his recent trip to China. Informal sources said Maurer had been talking only with Chinese Premier Chou En-lai for a brief time on his June trip.

Romania has been charting an independent course despite Soviet efforts to keep it closely allied. Maurer met with President Johnson four weeks ago and discussed Tuesday that he had expressed the Romanian government's hope for closer relations with the United States.

Gov. Wallace
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. Llewellyn Wallace continues her recovery from surgery for cancer in the familiar surroundings of Alabama's gubernatorial mansion.

The governor returned Tuesday, three weeks from the date of her departure for the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston, Tex., where her surgery was performed.

The smiling governor, looking well, but a bit thinner, told a crowd of 500 who greeted her Tuesday: "I am happy to be home. I'm feeling real good and I look forward to resuming a completely normal schedule in the near future."

Esther Pike
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Esther Pike, wife of the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, retired bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, has been granted an interlocutory divorce decree.

She appeared Tuesday before Superior Court Judge Byron Arnold at a hearing which lasted five minutes. Mrs. Pike, 48, charged mental cruelty.

Bishop Pike, 54, now theologian at the Center for Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, did not contest the suit.

The couple announced last week they would end their 25-year marriage due to "outside factors beyond the control of either."

Mrs. Pike was granted custody of their two minor children, Constance, 15, and Christopher, 17.

Jaucha Heifitz
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Violinist Jaucha Heifitz will give one of his rare appearances as a soloist to benefit the Israel Emergency Fund.

He will appear with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra in the fund-raising Hollywood Bowl concert Aug. 13.

The sponsoring Jewish Federation Council of Greater Los Angeles said Monday a nationwide fund-raising tour will begin with three concerts in the Philharmonic Hall in New York City July 29.

Herman Haskins
WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — One academic critic finds Herman Haskins a "new young talent."

His water colors are "filled with the verve of your own youth," the critics say.

Haskins, a retired meat cutter from North Adams, is 40. He began painting two years ago in a primitive style similar to that of the late Grandma Moses.

He has completed 50 paintings thus far, all scenes he remembers from his life in western Massachusetts—berry picking, a country fair, hunting, snow-boarding and maple sugar time.

Prince Claus
NJMEGEN, the Netherlands (AP) — Prince Claus, German-born husband of Princess Beatrix, set out with 14,000 other persons Tuesday on the annual four-day endurance march.

He was among the first to complete the first 30 miles—the distance required of each marcher daily. He did it in less than eight hours.

Rail Mediators Await Outcome Of Wage Talks
WASHINGTON (AP) — A special White House mediation board is letting railroad and shopcraft negotiators try to hammer out agreement at least for the moment.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., chairman of the special panel named by President Johnson last week after Congress rushed through a bill ending a two-day nationwide rail strike, said Tuesday the board will leave negotiations to the disputants until at least next Monday.

"We are hopeful that they ought to be able to do it alone," Morse said after the board met briefly with both sides in the labor conflict. It was its first meeting.

Under the new law, the board is to attempt to win a voluntary settlement. But if it can't, both sides would have to accept the board's final recommendations as binding until Jan. 1, 1969.

Some 137,000 members of six shopcraft unions, who average $2.50 an hour, have demanded a six per cent wage hike this year and five per cent next year. They also demand that a two-year agreement include 125-cent boosts each year for skilled workers, who now average $2.05 hourly.

The railroads are offering an 18-month pact that calls for an overall six per cent pay boost plus a single skills boost of five cents an hour.

Muscovites Rebel At Mini Invasion

MOSCOW (AP) — It's the foreign currency shops and the International Film Festival, Russian girls the most scantily, most gaudily clad girls ever seen on the stage of the Bolshoi Ballet.

And the Russians are taking the hard line. One old woman in Gorky Park took a switch to an American girl and lashed the backs of her bare knees.

"Around the Intourist hotels, more of just how mini the mini-istrid had become in the faded, distant West. A few brave Russians raised hems a scandalous inch above the knee.

But by spring the average dress still amply covered the usually ample Russian knee-cap. Now they're seeing the real thing—4 to 10 inches above the knee. And the psychedelic colors seem as surprising as the brevity in the drab Moscow setting.

One girl at a film festival party wore a corseted, see-through "dress" of bathing-suit proportions over a body-stocking. Even the movie stars, not to mention people from the comparatively sophisticated Soviet cultural scene, were shocked.

Less sophisticated, less worldly Muscovites are not taking this invasion calmly.

The babushka—the word means grandmother but applies to any little old Russian woman from such Communist countries as Poland and Czechoslovakia—in Gorky Park was not alone. An Australian girl and another girl were seen in a tug-of-war all the way across a meeting.

South Windsor Education Board Accepts Warner's Budget Analysis

The board of education last night accepted the budget analysis prepared by Superintendent of Schools Charles Warner for the 1967-68 school budget.

The motion was made "unanimously" and the personnel schedule is finalized, or Board member James Arnold questioned the transportation figures. Supt. Warner replied that the bus contractors have expressed their concern and the contracts will be completed prior to the opening of school in September.

The major concern is the mileage rate of $27.50 per 65 miles, Supt. Warner said.

Notice that no contract changes will be made prior to discussion by the board, the superintendent said. The bus contractors were agreeable to wait until the fall for a decision of the board rather than the June date the present contracts call for.

The acceptance of the budget analysis by the board as guidelines for accounting purposes in the new figures over a May 18 analysis show a decrease in the amount of salary allocated for the business manager due to a change in personnel for the position; an increase in teaching supplies due to adding three positions; a decrease in custodial supplies attributed to the purchasing of supplies and decreases in contractual services for non-instructional purposes.

A decrease in capital outlay instruction was realized by pre-purchase also.

Meeting on High School

The board moved to request a special meeting on Aug. 11 with the town planning and zoning commission, public building commission and the town planning consultants, Brown, Donald and Donald, on the timetable of procedures for the new high school.

The board has recommended that a new 2,000-pupil high school be ready for occupancy in September 1971.

In a list of methods and procedures timetable for the new school, prepared by board member Mrs. Jane Romney, it is noted that steps one and two call for the board to determine the need for a new school, the general geographic location of the proposed building, the approximate size of the site and facilities and the date it is needed for occupancy.

Following this action, the board must then notify the town council in writing of the need with copies to the town manager and the public building commission.

The council then, by resolution, instructs the public building commission to study and recommend suitable sites within the requested general area.

The PBC obtains the approval of the sites from the planning and zoning commission, as well as the approval of the town council.

Upon acceptance by resolution of the report of the PBC, the town council instructs the town attorney to prepare a contract for the purchase of the land.

An appropriation is granted by the town council to enable the PBC to secure preliminary cost estimates, and a referendum scheduled.

In this instance, the date of the referendum would be during the national election in November, 1968.

The board last night tabled the consideration of rules and regulations listed on the agenda when it got late.

Manchester Evening Herald South Windsor Correspondent, Ann Lyons, tel. 644-0822.

Buckley School Fencing Sought

A Constance Dr. resident appeared before the Board of Education Monday to request that a fence be erected on the east boundary of the Buckley School property.

The board said it would take the request under advisement, but pointed out that the fence should be a capital improvement item because no money in its budget is earmarked for the job.

The complaint, R.F. Paquette of Constance Dr., said the school yard constitutes a nuisance to adjoining properties because it is being used after school hours for activities like ball-playing, golf and the riding of motor scooters and horses.

Tower First Monument

CARLELE, Wyo.—Not due from Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota is Devils Tower, the first national monument established by the United States.

The 1,100-foot monument, founded in 1906, occupies a 1,000-foot-high, symmetrical rock of igneous material with almost vertical sides.

Gals Block Road Work With Guns

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Slaying within reach of their firearms, three women who resented highway construction across their land watched neighboring fields today as giant earth-moving machines moved closer.

"I'm tired of being a loser," Mrs. Guy R. Metz says. "They'll have to carry me off to jail before I let them on my land."

Mrs. Metz fired warning shots Tuesday when bulldozers threatened to uproot trees in her backyard on the southwest edge of Huntington.

"I fired three times in the air to let them know I mean business," she said. The workers, building an access road to Interstate 64, stopped short of the property line.

When construction foreman returned later that day to talk to Mrs. Metz, the woman said her daughter, Ellen, 24, an English teacher from Seattle, Wash., greeted them with a pistol and forbid them to talk to her mother. The foreman backed off.

Both mother and daughter have armed themselves with .22-caliber revolvers, Mrs. Metz said.

Mrs. L.D. Smith, a neighbor, said she talked with foremen Tuesday afternoon after running off workers earlier with an unlicensed shotgun and rifle. She said the foremen said they would start her property for a few days to permit talks between her attorney and the State Road Commission.

A misunderstanding apparently resulted from the talks. Project Supt. C. Smith said work would soon begin on Mrs. Smith's property.

"The minute they go ahead I will get my gun out again," Mrs. Smith said. "And the next time it will be loaded."

Mrs. Smith said plans call for highway construction to block the driveway to her home. It would force her husband to walk up a steep hill or steps, she said, adding that because of a recent heart attack physicians have forbidden him to exert himself.

Mrs. Metz said her backyard would be eliminated by construction and replaced with a 60-foot earthen barrier. She said the State Road Commission paid $1,200 for most of the land behind her home.

She added that an appraiser estimated the road would decrease the value of her home by 50 per cent. She also decried the loss of a playground for her 8-year-old son.

"Where will he play?" Mrs. Metz asked. "I can't make my son with bulldozers in the backyard."

"I want them to take all my land or none of it."

Annual Report

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Manchester Police Department received seven fewer complaints this year than last but the number of cases investigated and motor vehicle accidents rose, the department's annual report shows.

Sixty policemen this year investigated 3,668 of the 10,809 complaints received this year, compared to the 3,664 investigated last year.

In all, 1,284 motor vehicle accidents occurred this year on town property, and 190 on private property. Last year, police investigated 1,243 mishaps on town property and 176 on private property.

Four patrolmen joined the force this year.

Of the criminal offenses, breach of peace and intoxication were the most prevalent, the report shows. Larceny and breaking and entering appeared next on the list.

Of the $125,745 in property stolen this year, $97,584 was recovered. Last year, property valued at $103,217 was stolen and $48,896 recovered.

In all, 2,940 motor vehicle violations charges were lodged, an increase over last year of 141.

Delinquents processed 300 cases, arrested 130 persons, and referred 54 juveniles. Buys against the town included 19 and damage case 16. Persons apprehended and not prosecuted numbered 26.

Police Chief James Boardman said in the report that the department will need four more patrolmen each year for the next two or three years to give adequate police coverage to the expanding town, its population and crime rate.

In other statistics, 2,010 traffic signs and lights were maintained by the department and 12 vehicles serviced.

In the town's deputy dog warden report, the following statistics were included: Complaints investigated, 796; dogs killed and buried, 37; roaming dogs, 406; dogs returned to owners, 167; dogs sold and placed in homes, 54; cases other than dog complaints, 343.

Great Defense Aids Angels In Checking Red Sox Streak

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox were beaten at their own game of early inning scoring as their 10-game winning streak ended, but Manager Dick Williams was undaunted.

"They mapped our streak, now we have to snap theirs," Williams said after the California Angels' 4-1 victory Tuesday night.

The Angels jumped out quick with three runs in the first and two more in the second to take a big early lead—some-during the Red Sox did regularly during the last few weeks, especially after the first inning, Rigney said.

"We really played their game," California Manager Bill Rigney said.

Despite the early scoring, it was a spectacular defensive job by the California infield that made the difference.

Second baseman Bobby Knop from two brilliant plays, including a diving stop of Carl Yastrzemski's smash up the middle to check a big first inning. There were two on and none out when Knop backhanded the ball behind second base and flipped it by his gloved hand to shortstop Jim Fregosi for a force-out at second.

"If Knop didn't get that ball we might never have gotten game," California Manager Bill Rigney said.

He also cited fielding gems by Mike Andrews who went far to his right on a bunt attempt in the sixth. He also cited fielding by Fred Fregosi, who went far to his right on the first inning to turn a double play.

Three straight hits by first-inning runner Jim Fregosi, who was asked to drive by Don Mincher for a couple of minutes while trainer Buddy Levoux examined him, but he stayed in the game.

Levoux said Congiligras would be off today, but should be able to play.

All-Star shortstop Rico Petrocelli, apparently recovered from a wrist injury which bothered him for the last few weeks, appeared as a pinch hitter for Williams, who said earlier that he was hoping to use him at shortstop because he didn't want to break the streak by putting Petrocelli back into the lineup now.

"Why should I take Adair out now?" he said. "He played well in the field tonight and got a hit and a walk."

The Red Sox planned to send right-hander Darrel Brundon, 48, against left-hander George Brunet, 9-12, tonight.

Early scoring bursts as California forced a 6-2 lead before rain forced a 43-minute delay of the game in the fourth inning.

Boston kept pecking away, but the California defense plus Fred Newman's fine relief pitching over the last four innings kept the Red Sox at bay.

Mike Andrews' double plus a walk and a will pitch added up to one run in the first-inning.

White Sox Sweep Doubleheader to Increase Lead

Ken Berry Took Apple Twice Then Polished It—Real Good

NEW YORK (AP)—Ken Berry took the apple twice. The third time he polished it—real good.

He took the apple the first two games of the Chicago White Sox doubleheader with Cleveland Tuesday night.

"So I had to do something about it," Berry said.

He did—smashing a two-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning to give the White Sox a 5-2 victory. A two-run homer in the 11th gave the Sox a 6-2 victory in the opener.

The twin victories moved the American League-leading Sox two full games ahead of runner-up Boston, which lost 6-4 to three-place California.

In other AL action, Kansas City swept Washington 5-1 and 6-5 and the Baltimore-New York game was rained out after nine innings with the score tied 1-1. The Detroit-Baltimore game was washed out.

He homered with two out in the ninth.

After Kat Retter bill Robinson to end the inning, the rain started and after a half hour the game was called.

He took the apple the second time in the 10th inning of the second game of the Chicago White Sox doubleheader with Cleveland Tuesday night.

First Place at Stake In Big Legion Game

By PETE ZANARDI

This is it—the American Legion Zone Four battle comes to a showdown tonight at Recreation Park in Willimantic, Manchester, 11-5, two games up in the win column, meets Willimantic, 9-2, with a game advantage in the all important loss column, at 6 o'clock.

While the leaders battle it out, East Hartford will be idle, moving into second place one way or another.

It will be Marc Schardt for Manchester and probably left-hander Ricky Young tonight, including the 11-5 decision with Willimantic. Schardt will be seeking his sixth Zone Four win and second over Willimantic. Schardt didn't allow a hit in beating Willimantic 8-3 in the season opener.

Young, who finished up an outstanding career with Coventry High this spring, has a 2-1 record so far. He was the winner earlier when Willimantic erupted for seven runs in the ninth inning to beat Manchester 9-3 at Mt. Nebo, allowing six hits.

Willimantic that caught Manchester in regular play last summer, then best them two straight in a best of three game playoff to represent the zone in the state tourney. Manchester has a made-or-buy situation to reverse that tonight.

Things won't get any easier, however, after tonight. East Hartford will be at Mt. Nebo Friday night. Paul Senatore, 1-3 against Manchester this season, is the probable starter for East Hartford while Ray LeGace, who has a two-hitler and one-hitter in his last two starts, will go for Manchester. LeGace had a 1-0 decision to Senatore earlier this season.

Third Base Coach Gambled And Lost as Cards Nip Cubs

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Manager Leo Durocher of the Cubs agreed tonight that he had done the same thing Reiser did the night that he sent Ted Savage home in the ninth inning.

"I think they'd do the same thing over again," said Bobby Tolan, whose throw from the outfield to relay man Julian Javier helped nail Savage at the plate and preserved the Cardinals' 4-3 victory night.

The Cubs went into the ninth with a single and a walk. Ernie Banks singled to lead off the inning and Savage, pinch-hitting for Clarence Jones, was hit by a pitch. Ron Williams came in and got the first two outs.

Then Al Spangler came up with the count at 3-and-2 and threw a solid single to center. Banks scored from second and Savage steamed homeward.

Tolan tried to Javier and the second baseman turned and threw to Tim McCarver at the plate.

"Maxie told me to throw home, so I threw," Javier shrugged, as the game had its most complete possession of first place to the Cardinals. "When I turned I saw Savage turning third, so I knew I had a hot one. I wasn't surprised when he tried to go home."

Neither was McCarver, who couldn't understand what all the fuss was about. "I didn't think it was such a great play. I mean the ball was right there, there was what's the deal?"

And Pete Reiser wasn't about to have second thoughts on the call.

"We've gotten a few this year in the same situation when the ball will go for Manchester. LeGace had a 1-0 decision to Senatore earlier this season.

Despite Mantle's Long Homer Yanks Sink Back into Cellar

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle has conquered Death Valley again, but neither Mantle's New York Yankees nor the shock-up Minnesota Twins are heating anybody.

Things were a two-out ninth inning homer into the distant left center field bleachers at Yankee Stadium Tuesday night, lifting New York into a 1-1 tie with the Twins before a downpour halted the no-decision struggle.

The standoff left Minnesota with a 2-1 record, a losing streak and dropped the Yankees back into last place in the American League. The Yankees, who have lost seven of their last eight decisions, are three percentage points behind the Kansas City Athletics, who swept a doubleheader at Washington.

It was just trying to hit the ball, didn't want to make the last out," Mantle said of his 430-foot home run into the seldom-reached sector. "If I was thinking home run, it was only in the back of my mind."

It was Mantle's 19th homer of the year and the fourth of his 815 career clouts that carried him into the left-side bleachers at Stadium. Only 19 drives have cleared the fence there since the stadium opened 42 years ago. Former Yankee slugger Bill Skowron and Joe DiMaggio homered into the area three times and twice, respectively.

"I wasn't sure it was going out and I turned at first base and saw it go," Mantle said. "You don't hit too many in that place. They call it 'Death Valley' in left center, and I've had some pretty good shots caught there."

"Anybody who hits one in

Moriarty's Play 'Twice' Tonight

League-leading Mortary Moriarty pitched twice tonight as the Hartford Twilights staged "four games" at Dillon Stadium.

The Gas House and Orioles will play off the 3-3, seven-inning game of July 7. Then play a regular scheduled seven-inning contest. The action is slated to begin at 8:45.

The second game Mets and Vols play the other two games in much the same way. They will have a scoreless, eight-inning deadlock on July 10.

Struggling San Francisco Has Trouble Beating Mets

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—greeted by a high hopper of the San Francisco Giants tonight, they have difficulty beating the New York Mets with a three-run lead in the ninth.

It took Jesus Alor's bases-loaded single to undo the Mets, 5-4, in the bottom of the ninth when Jim Lincecum hit a home run.

Hard-luck hurler Gaylord Perry had allowed the Mets score was the first run off the pesky Mets got going with a National League debut.

Tom Haller walked to open the inning and was sacrificed to first base by Hal Lander, who was hit by a pitch. Steve Arlin led the bases.

Catcher John Sullivan then lined a long single to the fence in right-center, scoring Charles Linares. Then amped a line drive, Linares for 4-3 and chasing Perry from the mound.

Reliever Frank Lincecum was out for the winning hit.

Marvel Defensively at First Scott Swinging Well, Base Hits Dropping

FENWAY PARK (AP)—Boston's Scott, who likes to be called the Great Scott, was sitting on the batting cage pipe last night awaiting his turn at taking a few practice swings against the offense of George Thomas.

The park gates had opened minutes before on a sultry evening and the bleachers were working their ways over to choice seats in center field.

"I don't like to play on a night like this," Scott observed. "There's going to be too many white shirts out in these seats," he added as he pointed to the centerfield area nearest the flag pole.

Usually this area is closed off except in the case of expected capacity crowds, and a full house was expected before the night was over to greet the Red Sox on their triumphant return to Fenway Park after an all-victorious road trip. This wasn't the case, however, with only 2,877 fans showing up, far from the capacity 33,324.

At stake against the equally red-hot California Angels were only five hits and one earned run in the first six innings of the game.

One of the principal factors in the Red Sox rapid rise from rags to riches has been the play of Scott, both at bat and in the field. He's considered the finest fielding first baseman in need any proof that Steve Arlin of the American League and yet it was his huge home, it was baseball writers among them Tuesday night when the Bostonians claim he's the fastest ever to wear the big glove at the initial base.

Up among the top 10 hitters in the league, Scott said he was anxious to "get going again after a real yesterday." The Sox were leading score a 6-3 victory in the first game.

Book Problem Again With Jets' Namath

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Namath is having knee trouble again. This time it's his left instead of the right for which he underwent surgery last December.

The 460,000 star quarterback for the New York Jets of the American Football League strained a tendon below his left kneecap in the Jets' training camp at Peekskill, N.Y., Tuesday.

Dr. James Nicholas, the Jets' physician, tapped up the knee and the former Alabama All-American resumed practice.

"It does not appear to be serious, but we'll have to wait a day or two to be sure," said Dr. James Nicholas, the Jets' physician.

Coach Weeb Ewbank probably is keeping his fingers crossed. Namath is hobbling, the Jets' hopes of winning the AFL championship will be jolted.

In 1966, his second as a pro QB, the 292-pound Namath turned in the league's best performance by completing 232 of 371 passes for 3,279 yards, including 19 TD passes. He had been confident of having his best year ever in 1967. Now, a few days at least, his future appears uncertain.

The Namath incident was one of the highlights Tuesday as the pros in both leagues, the AFL and NFL, continued to drift for exhibition games.

Leslie Duncan and Kenny Graham, two of the three San Diego Chargers players, tied 4-0 each by Coach Sid Gillman for leaving camp Monday, returning to the base at Escondido. Namath was the only player who left with defensive back Duane Gettleman. He had been confident of having his best year ever in 1967. Now, a few days at least, his future appears uncertain.

The Namath incident was one of the highlights Tuesday as the pros in both leagues, the AFL and NFL, continued to drift for exhibition games.

Leslie Duncan and Kenny Graham, two of the three San Diego Chargers players, tied 4-0 each by Coach Sid Gillman for leaving camp Monday, returning to the base at Escondido. Namath was the only player who left with defensive back Duane Gettleman. He had been confident of having his best year ever in 1967. Now, a few days at least, his future appears uncertain.

Little Loop District Play Set Tonight

Trying to move a step closer to the District Eight final, the Manchester entry still alive in the League plays host to the Hasardville All-Stars tonight at Buckley Field at 8 o'clock. The game, which was postponed Tuesday night, boosting the Braves over the Reds into third place.

Hitchcock said he didn't know if the book had helped Jarvis. "I just know he's won seven out of eight since he got it. And tonight he pitched his best game of the year."

Of the book Jarvis said, "I read some of the chapters in it, especially what he had underlined. It's a book on yourself. It's supposed to make you believe in yourself."

He said the book urges a person to brush aside discouragement and build self-confidence and to think of the future instead of the past.

Jarvis was hesitant to give the book credit for his showing this season, his sophomore year in the majors. "But I can't know it," he said. "I've gotten to where I can challenge the better batters."

Although he has won consistently all season, Jarvis struggled in early games and was saved by relief work. His earned run average was high in the early season.

He said one reason for his early struggles was that he was worried about reaching out to the fans and then worried about getting past the trade deadline.

It was somewhere between the two deadlines that Hitchcock gave him the book, he said. Bill Gorra, Bill Davis and Dennis Gilha.

Strong Stars and Stripes Beat As Pan-Am Tempo Picks Up

WINNIPEG, Canada (AP)—The tempo picks up in the fifth Pan-American Games Wednesday with a strong Stars and Stripes beat.

A bag of six more gold medals for the United States looms in the first session of swimming finals as the third day of overall Pan-Am action brings yachting and fencing into the sprawling hemispheric athletic show.

With 16 sports now under way, only boxing, rowing, judo and the real big test event—track and field—remain in the wings. The track competition, which like swimming has the U.S. squad stamped an overwhelming favorite, starts Saturday and runs through the following Saturday.

Uncle Sam's youthful and powerful swimming army was primed for a likely record-smashing surge toward one-Cathy Ferguson, 18, Burbank, Calif., in the women's 200 backstroke.

The United States had Pan-Am record-breaking qualifiers Tuesday for tonight's 100-meter women's free style in Zach Zorn, 23, and Westley Unad of Buena Park, Calif., and the 200-meter women's free style in 16-year-old Pam Kruse, Pompano Beach, Fla.

Olympian Sue Goswick, 19, Tarzana, Calif., and Micki King, Ann Arbor, Mich., moved into the women's three-meter diving final as one-two leaders after Tuesday's preliminaries.

The United States also had soft touches Tuesday in women's basketball team barely held by a pair of talented collegians, Jo Jo White of Kansas and Westley Unad of Louisville, in a 116-83 crushing of feeble Colombia.

The United States also had soft touches Tuesday in women's gymnastics, sweeping the first six individual spots in compulsory exercises, and in water polo with a 14-0 swamping of Colombia.

In other team sports, the U.S. women's basketball team barely held by a pair of talented collegians, Jo Jo White of Kansas and Westley Unad of Louisville, in a 116-83 crushing of feeble Colombia.

WINNIPEG (AP)—Second meet her, that is—that she's a man and then they wonder how she became an Air Force officer.

It's a relatively new program for women—and it's great," said Micki, "I would be happy as a schoolteacher or a secretary."

"I went into officers' training after I graduated from Michigan in 1966. Now I'm doing administrative work with the ROTC detachment at Michigan."

"After work I'm able to put in four or five hours of training under my old cadet wings at Michigan, Dick Kimball."

"The Air Force is all for it. They're eager sponsor competition. As I said, they have a marvelous program and I recommend it highly to girls looking for an interesting career in interesting surroundings."
