The Senate censured Dodd June 23 for conduct "which is contrary to accepted morals, derogates from the public trust expected of a senator, and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute."

This was based on a finding by the Senate ethics committee that Dodd had converted to his personal benefit at least $115.

SAIGON (AP)-The aircraft carrier Forrestal, ravaged by flames and bomb blasts Saturday, limped into Subic Bay in the Philippines today and another fire broke out as she prepared to dock.

It was only a flash fire, nothing like the holocaust that left 76 of the crew dead, 69 missing and presumed dead, and 64 injured on the 76,000-ton carrier. Knocked out of action in the aerial war in Vietnam, the Forrestal was replaced in the Gulf

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)-U.N. Secretary-General U Thant had disputed directly the u.s. version of its fight in Vietnam. He says it is against a nationalist independence movement, not against Communist aggression.

Thant chose an international forum of Quakers, long-time advocates of peace, for his strongest criticism yet of the U.S. military action. "It is nationalism, and not

More Go to Church To Pray for Peace

An above average attendance for this season of the year was reported at Manchester churches yesterday, a day proclaimed by President Johnson to be set aside for "a day of prayer for peace in our land."

The sanctuary of St. Mary's Episcopal Church was filled for a special morning service where peoples of all faiths were invited to participate and join in public prayer "for the serious national situation."

Some of the curse would be lifted from slums; poverty itself would lose some of its hopelessness; every material and legal and economic problem we face, along division lines which have connotation of race, class, and economic status, would diminish in size and be half-healed by faith and hope if we Americans had things right and clear inside ourselves. Perhaps it is the remorseless logic of the actual facts in Vietnam itself,those facts which are proving, year by year and month by month, to be exactly what those unpleasant characters who originally warned against our open-ended involvement in Vietnam predicted they would have to be.

Or perhaps it is that the arrival of other wars-the war in the Near East -the war in the cities of America-has made the war in Vietnam somehow seem less of an American necessity. For whatever reason or combination of reasons, the grounding of the erstwhile American hawks continues. A few days ago it was Democratic Senator Frank Lausche of Ohio, perhaps the one man in the entire Senate of whom President Johnson once felt most sure on the issue of his policy in Vietnam.

The other day, in the wake of a new Senate speech by Republican John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, in which that established dove repeated the plea for a negotiation-seeking halt in the bombing of North Vietnam, there were two more weakenings of the kind of support President Johnson has hitherto depend-Senator Clifford Case of New Jersey, year white America reacted to a summer of Negro violence by defeating the important integrated housing provisions of the Civil Rights Bill, by swinging to the Right in the mid-term elections, and y adding a national hostility towards the Poverty Programme to the obstacles already raised for it by the competing demands of a war economy. This year Negroes in Detroit, Newark, and a dozen other cities have reacted against the reaction. The occasions for rioting may differ: the cause is a deep and justifi able despair about the speed of progress

Detroit is particularly tragic for those who believe integration to be the only solution to racial problems. In Detroit integration in industry is well advanced. Since the war tens of thousands of Negroes have left the poverty of the South and found well-paid jobs in its car plants. A progressive labour leader, Mr. Walter Reuther, of the Automobile Workers, has demonstrated that not all American unions are fortresses of big-

This month's riots have another les son. It is that violence is now begetting violence to a point where the methods policemen use to maintain public order are the sparking points of chaos. The United States has always been a violent society in the days of the frontier and of prohibition, in the arenas of politics, labour relations, and civil rights, and in liquor and gambling. But has the time not come to abandon the citizen's constitutional right to bear arms? This is the right which gave the guns to assaskilled about a score of people in Texas last year. The widespread public use of firearms, produces, in turn, trigger-happy attempting to escape from the scene of riots. The pictures of a Negro youth's body containing 39 bullet holes can have

The conference on Black Power in Newark at the weekend will not have helped either. The call from there is ultimately a segregationist one-Negro anks, businesses, schools, universities political parties, para-military organizations; even a partitioned United States (as paradoxical as its title), containing separate-but equal?-black and white nations. The constant rejection which American Negroes have suffered makes this retreat into the ghetto by the younger more militant leaders understandable. Mr. Stokely Carmichael has defended it thus: "There's nothing wrong with living in a black ghetto if you're free from oppression. It won't be apartheid, because we won't say white people can't come in." The case is that should make the best of it by creating their own institutions. The reasoning is comprehensible, but it is reactionary, a backlash, a doctrine tern of spontaneous violence which will also delay that progress. Though it may be a cold doctrine to preach to a people which has been oppressed for more than two centuries, the principles which ought to govern international affairs are not irrelevant to inter-racial relations: Negotiation is right and violence is wrong. But white Americans should acknowledge at last that unless they go far more than half way to meet the Negroes, then more and more violence

THE MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

AND HOW IT CAN WORK FOR YOU

The plan or idea of Multiple Listing did not originate

It was adopted from plans in operation in other Boards country wide. The plan is simple. Instead of you, as the seller, effecting an open contract with several listing Realtors, a uniform Board Listing Contract is used. An goes to the Realtor, one copy is retained by you and the third copy goes immediately to the Board office.

The Realtor forwards to the Board Secretary a typed copy of your listing, giving all pertinent data together with a glossy print of a picture of your property—these are combined into one sheet for easy reference and within a matter of days after you have signed the contract, your listing is broadcast to over 50 Realtors and Salespeople.

What is more important to you, is the fact that your listing is going into active offices, into the hands of men who are paying dues each year to belong to an organiza-tion whereby they can receive the listing of your property

THE MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE is the best

It is as simple as that.

and be of service to you.

original and two copies of the contract are made and signed by you, the seller and by the Realtor. The original

We Serve Our Community MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE OF MANCHESTER

ONLY ONE COMMISSION

There is only one commission paid. The Listing Realton and the selling Realtor divide the commission for the sale of your property according to rules approved by the Realtors of the Board.

You as the seller, pay no more for the sale of your property through the Multiple Listing Service than you would pay the individual Realtor.

IF YOU WANT TO BUY

There is no need for you to contact a number of individual brokers to find exactly what you want. Just CALL THE REALTOR OF YOUR CHOICE. Through

MLS he has at his fingertips all of the homes multiple listed by all the members of the Multiple Listing Service of Manchester . . . together with all pertinent data and a picture of the property.

'Pony Boys' Arrive Safely at Expo

Two Massachusetts "pony boys" Jeff Wittemore, 9, (left) and brother Tony, 11, arrived at Expo 67 yesterday after a 350-mile trip from Boston in their pony cart. They carried no money and depended on friends, relatives and new found sympathizers for food and lodging. Their family joined them in Montreal for a tour of the World's Fair. (AP Photofax)
