Air Cavalry Surprise Cong In Spot 'Snatch' Missions

BONG SON PLAIN, Vietnam—Because the idea is to move in quickly and capture people, the 1st Brigade of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division of recently calls them snatch missions.

Working with field forces of the South Vietnamese national police, the troopers conduct an average of two such missions a day in this coastal area 300 miles northeast of Saigon.

They move in with swift air operations that are designed to catch Viet Cong or North Vietnamese regulars who try to mingle with the peasants in the fields or people in hamlets and villages.

The Communists figure they won't be subject to an all-out shooting assault if they blend themselves with the people, and the snatch missions are designed to counter this strategy.

Here is what it is like on a typical mission with the 1st Battalion, 12th Cavalry.

LT. Col. Lloyd R. Rhiddlehoover of Hot Springs, Ark., the battalion commander, and Maj. Frederick E. Ordway of Chevy Chase, Md., crank up their command helicopter and fly over hostile territory looking for likely objectives. Back at the base, six helicopters with a platoon of cavalrymen stand by for orders.

"When we see a lot of people in the open fields working, we swoop down on them," Rhiddlehoover said. "I first select a target area by throwing smoke grenades, then helicopters land down and corral them right where they are, men, women and children."

The national police then interrogate them and weed out the suspects. We get a lot of intelligence from the ones we round up. When the police get one, it snowballs. They make them talk.

"One of the Viet Cong we picked up gave us information that he knew where there were about 30 other Viet Cong. The next day we went in to police up the area. We picked up eight

Troop 27
During the second week at Lake of Isles Scout Reservation, Troop 27 completed the following advancements and received the following awards:

Working with the scout teams are two scout ships, little bubble-topped helicopters that fly just above the ground chasing Viet Cong suspects who try to run.

Two of the veteran pilots for this duty are WO Steven J. Roster, 20, Healthsburg, Calif., and WO Gerald T. Daniels, 22, New Orleans, La. They get so low that Daniels once knocked down a Viet Cong with the kid in his chopper when the VC tried to fire at him.

We try different times of the day," Ordway said. "Morning is the best time to hit. At times when they see us fly low, they're getting smarter all the time. One time one was dressed as a woman to try to keep from getting caught."

They're sort of stunned for the first three minutes. This is when the scout ships come in, they swoop down low on the target and try to round them up, just like cattle. They move them toward the center of the rest of the people and then the troops go in and grab them."

Felix G. Salas of Aguana, Guam, another veteran of many of the missions, said: "We catch them by surprise all the time."

"We pick up a lot of suspects and a lot of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese that mix with the people," he added. They've got to live and eat with the people. They fish and harvest rice. This is when we come in on top of them."

There is no advance planning for any of the missions. The battalion commander or his executive officer make the decision to move while flying and looking around.

State Committee Seeks to Create Port Authority

HARTFORD (AP)—A special committee looking into the possibility of creating a Connecticut port authority plans to inspect the New York Port Authority as one of its first actions.

State Sen. William B. Stanley, D-Norwich, said at the committee's first meeting Tuesday that he would get in touch with Austin Tobin, director of the New York agency, to set up a visit.

Two non-legislative members of the nine-member committee—Vivien Kellems of East Haddam and C. Russell Feldman of Stamford—indicated they wanted a port authority in Connecticut as soon as possible.

Stanley was named chairman of the group. Other legislative members are Sens. John P. Janowski, D-New London, and Jacob P. Rudolf, R-Norwalk, and Reps. Richard C. Martin, D-New London, Lillian Erb, R-Croton, and Anthony M. Clarione, D-New Haven.

Ralph Stein of Westbrook is the other member. A pound of uncoked cornmeal yields about 3 cups.

Months of 1967 was reported to be the New Haven Railroad—almost $6 million greater than the deficit for the same period a year ago.

The seven-month deficit was more than $2 million higher than that for the entire 12 months of 1966. The railroad said its deficit for all of 1966 was $11,245,023.

Trustees of the bankrupt railroad said the deficit for July was $2,728,294, as compared with a $211,265 deficit for the same month a year ago.

The January-through-July deficit in 1966 was $7,628,819.

Rejects 'Coercion'
WATERBURY (AP)—A group of civil rights leaders made an unexpected appearance at Mayor Frederick Falomha's office Tuesday, requesting a written statement that would give housing top priority with any federal urban renewal or redevelopment funds.

The group, consisting of about 16 to 20 persons, left after Falomha told them he would not be coerced into producing such a written statement immediately.

Boswell Trowers, a longtime civil rights leader, told the mayor the group wanted to have the city committed in writing to the policy of scattered housing with the first federal grant money that comes into Waterbury.

Drowns in Pond
BETHEL (AP)—A 12-year-old boy drowned Tuesday night in Sympson Pond.

Police said the boy, Thomas Hixbee, apparently fell from a small plastic boat in which he had been riding with two companions.

His body was recovered about an hour later by Bethel Fire Chief Clyde Flinger in about eight to ten feet of water.

Hixbee's address was listed as 88 South St., Bethel.

Congress Eyes LBJ On Viet Policy Shift

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is keeping Congress in the dark on the possibility of a change in U.S. policy after Sunday's elections in South Vietnam.

"These elections will disclose the South Vietnamese will have the ability and the will to make some dramatic move shortly after the new government is chosen."

Speculation ranges from a possible reopening of the Vietnam issue before the United Nations, with an accompanying suspension of bombing in the North, to a signal to Saigon to undertake independent negotiations with the Viet Cong.

But Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Tuesday there was no discussion of a Vietnam war when Democratic congressional leaders conferred with the President at the White House Monday night.

Meeting took place only a few hours after Mansfield led a demonstration of support in the Senate for any presidential move that might be made to stir up U.N. debate on means to negotiate the conflict.

Mansfield's move again was rebuffed by U.N. Secretary General U Thant, whose earlier stance that the United Nations can't help settle the war because North Vietnam and Red China have no seats in the world body was reaffirmed by a U.N. spokesman Tuesday.

The Democratic leader said he hopes if chief of state Nguyen Van Thieu is elected president he will carry out a campaign promise to invite peace negotiations with the Viet Cong.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he had heard no intimations the elections will alter American policies. He added that whatever happens he does not expect the President to stop the bombing while Dirksen, a supporter of Johnson's war course, said he had no word the President is planning any U.N. move.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., earlier urged postponing Red China for maintenance and

Tolland Voter Total Is at 2,816

The corrected voting lists of the town show a total of 2,816 registered voters. Independents lead with 991 voters, followed by Republicans with 90 and Democrats with 88.

The lists were corrected and brought up to date yesterday by registrars of voters Mrs. Ruth Lajman and Mrs. John Burakas.

A total of 107 names were removed from the Oct. 15, 1966 list because death or moving from town, and 141 new names were added.

Three men escaped injury when the helicopter in which they were traveling crashed shortly after takeoff.

The men, all United Aircraft Corp. employees, took off Tuesday from the firm's Hamilton Standard Division here, rose 50 feet in the 'copter, which then came down with a thump and tipped over.

Aboard were William R. Robbins of West Hartford and William S. Diefenderfer of Waterbury, both corporate vice-presidents, and Walter H. Albert of Columbia, the pilot.

Japanese Eat Seaweeds

OSAKA, JAPAN — Thousands of kinds of seaweed have been identified, but only about a dozen are used commercially. Seaweeds as food are not popular in the United States, but in Japan they are eaten as regularly as Americans eat tomatoes and lettuce.

One more voter-making session remains before Election Day Oct. 2. A day long session will be held Sept. 9 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Campaign Going 'Normally' Says Viet Civilian Candidate

SAIGON (AP) — South Viet- because intimidating the cam- paign's leading civilian candidate for president today he is satisfied that the campaign is going "normally" and that "pressures and intimidations of the local authorities against our campaign workers have been reduced."

"In the past two weeks," for- mer Premier Tran Van Huong told his final campaign news conference, "the electoral cam- paign has unfolded normally in spite of too great a discrepancy between the means available to strengthen the means available to the Thieu and Ky is being eroded. Thieu and Ky are still consid- ered the best bets to win in the voting Sunday, but victory for Huong said the improvement in the campaign atmosphere does not mean that the coming election will be entirely honest, serve as premier if Thieu and the group as adviser, coordina- tor and escort officer.

U.S. and South Vietnamese sources said, meanwhile, that captured documents and intel- ligence reports show a coun- trywide plan by the Viet Cong to sabotage the election.

If the election fails, one doc- ument said, it would provide "momentum to force a new political crisis."

The plans call for propaganda meetings in villages and ham- lets to warn people not to vote, training of youths to handle ex- plosives "which can be placed in polling places," destroying public buildings, and assassinat- ing government personnel and kidnapping civilians to get their identity and voting cards for Viet Cong workers to use.

In one province east of Sal- gon, the sources said, the Viet Cong plans to ambush voters on their way to the polls, attack polling places and seize the bal- lot boxes.

President Johnson's panel of observers was due in Saigon late today. Two new members were added to it—Dr. Edward L. R. Elson, pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington, and Ed Monroe of Seattle, Wash., president of the National Association of Coun- ties—and Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, accompanied

Escapee From Hartford Jail Seized in N.Y.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — An escapee from the Hartford, Conn., State Jail has been ar- rested in New York City.

Rhode Island state police alerted authorities that the man was on a train due in New York at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday.

New York police arrested Stephen A. Hazard, 34, of Matus- nuck, R.I., who had escaped Thursday night.

Tuesday morning, a woman in Charleston told police her home had been burglarized and police found part of a uniform from the Hartford jail.

In Westerly, police learned that a man answering Hazard's description boarded a train for New York.

He was awaiting trial in Hart- ford on a charge of possessing burglar tools.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way

"You CAN take it with you," said the owner of this one-car garage yesterday, pictured on Center St. near Alexander St. as he moved the structure from its old location on Park St. to a new one in Coventry. And, it may well be the answer to the parking problem — just drive your car into your garage, get to your destination, and go about your business. This 12 by 20 garage is mounted on a dump truck. The operator drove in, when it was on Park St., tilted the entire structure with the truck's hydraulic lift, then anchored it to the truck body. Voilà! A do-it-yourself mobile garage. This method is not recommended for every-day use. (Herald photo by Saterlin.)

Arab Statesmen Scurrying To Preserve Summit Unity

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and Sudan's Premier Mohamed Mahgoub made frantic efforts today to prevent the Arab summit conference from foundering in a storm of bickering and boycott. Mahgoub met until the early hours with Syrian Foreign Minister Ibrahim Makhou, whose delegation stayed out of the opening session Tuesday night. With them was Algerian Foreign Minister Abdel Aziz Bouteflika, whom Mahgoub enlisted to persuade the Syrians to remain in Khartoum. Conference sources said Makhou told the Sudanese premier he had been unable to contact Syrian Chief of State Nouruddin Anani for instructions and so had stayed away. Nasser also urged the Syrian delegate to try again to reach Anani for instructions to take part in the meeting. Makhou postponed a flight home today but conference sources said he again took no part when the summit conference met for its first full working session. The Syrian ambassador to Sudan told newsmen the Syrian delegation would take no part in the conference and would fly home Thursday. Only eight of the 18 Arab heads of state are participating in what was to have been the first full top-level Arab meeting since 1965. However, all but Syrian President Nasser and Sudan's Premier Mohamed Mahgoub made frantic efforts today to prevent the Arab summit conference from foundering in a storm of bickering and boycott.

There was no confirmation in Khartoum of a report from Washington in the New York Times that Nasser has apparently felled a plot to overthrow him by arresting about 150 senior Egyptian officers, including some of his closest followers. Quoting diplomatic sources in the U.S. capital, the Times said the central figure in the report was Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer, Nasser's closest friend for the last 15 years and his designated successor until last June 9, when he was forced to resign as the scapegoat for Egypt's defeat in the war with Israel. Diplomatic sources said reports from Cairo indicated that Amer was placed under house arrest Friday night and scores of other arrests were carried out, apparently by the Egyptian Ministry of Interior, through the night and during Saturday, the Times said. AMBULANCE FOR DOG PHOENIX, ARIZ. Pro Athletes Have New Status, Survey Shows

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Professional athletes, hucksters and peddlers gained in social status in the 1960s, but many more occupations lost ground in the 10-year period, two sociologists said today. Dr. Charles B. Nam of Florida State University and Dr. Mary C. Powers of Fordham University reported to the American Sociological Association that professional athletes scored higher on the status ladder because of a higher income. The research team compared educational and income levels of people in 460 occupations as shown in 1960 and 1950 census figures with that of the labor force in general and assigned a rating for each occupation. The sociologists found that 48 occupations rose in status in the decade and 88 declined. They said hucksters and peddlers gained status because of a sharp increase in educational level. In a group listing those who were drivers, self-employed proprietors of retail eating and drinking firms, messengers and office boys, operatives in business and repair services, housekeepers and farm foremen. Another group with sharply declining status included cashiers and bank tellers, recreation and group workers, guards, watchmen, doorkeepers and gardeners. They said a group upgraded by automation included tailors, bakers, upholsterers and laborers in several industries.

Style Show Set By Emblem Club

The Manchester Emblem Club will sponsor the first fashion show of the Carriage House Boutique on Oak St., Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 8 p.m. at Willow Brook House. Mrs. Lauretta Savionis, owner of the Carriage House Boutique, will do the hair and wig styles for the show, and Mrs. John Malone will be commentator. Mrs. John Pusticelli of 22 Hackmatack St. is chairman of the event. Anyone wishing to attend may obtain tickets from Mrs. Alfred Ponticelli of 30 McKee St., Mrs. Paul Buehler of 120 Autumn St. or Mrs. Charles Ponticelli. The resolutions cover a wide range of subjects including best-of subjects including best-of training and problems of urban development to stem civil disorders, such as equal opportunity in jobs, housing, education and recreation. Gov. Roger D. Branigan of Indiana said Tuesday he thought there was widespread discrimination in the judicial and parole systems. "We've got to convince these kids they're not outcasts and pariahs," he said in an interview explaining his call for equal treatment in sentence and parole practices. "We can't have these underprivileged youths thinking there is a double standard of justice."

Kerner Expected to Head Midwest Governors Group

OSAGE BEACH, Mo. (AP) — Gov. Otto Kerner, Illinois Democrat, is expected to be elected chairman of the Midwest Governors Conference at its 11th annual session. He would succeed Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio Republican. Gov. Nils A. Bos, South Dakota Republican, is expected to be elected vice chairman succeeding Rhodes. Rhodes said the only business scheduled today is action on resolutions and election of officers. At a news conference, Gov. Robert Doherty, Kansas Democrat, said a recent Junior Chamber of Commerce poll in Kansas showed Romney ahead of both former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and California Gov. Ronald Reagan for the GOP nomination. Gov. Roger D. Branigan of Indiana, hurt by the Vietnam war, could not carry Kansas in 1966 in the absence of a Democratic landslide which he did not foresee. 54-Story Skyscraper Due in N.Y. Jet Threat Spurs Biafra Peace Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — Another skyscraper is soon to go up in Rockefeller Center, the city's largest privately owned office-building complex. The 54-story masonry-and-glass tower will be 700 feet high and contain 1.8 million square feet of rentable space. It will bring to 15 the number of buildings in the cluster that will then cover 18 acres of midtown Manhattan. When completed, the new building will almost completely take up the 58,000-square-foot site now occupied by two three- and five-story buildings housing mainly small shops and restaurants. The announcement of the new structure was made Tuesday by Rockefeller Center Properties and Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, which will be the principal owner. Gov. Roger D. Scientist Sees Seaweed As Radiation Protection

KINGSTON, R.I. (AP) — A woman scientist reports that a chemical found in seaweed may provide protection for persons against radioactive fallout. Dr. D. Waldron-Edwards of McGill University told a symposium at the University of Rhode Island Tuesday that tests have shown the tasteless chemical, sodium alginate, can absorb strontium-90 like a sponge. The idea, she said, would be to put the seaweed chemical in food of persons who might be exposed to other food containing strontium, one of the most feared components from nuclear fallout. Strontium-90 is rated a potential health hazard because, if absorbed in excessive amounts in the body by food intake, it could cause bone cancer or leukemia. Dr. Waldron-Edwards said the seaweed chemical while it is still in the intestinal tract. She said tests in England and Canada on animals and a few human volunteers have shown that up to 80 per cent of strontium could be eliminated harmlessly from the body if the seaweed chemical were eaten at the same time. She added, however, that recent tests on rats have shown that up to 28 per cent of the substance can be removed from the body by the seaweed chemical even after it has reached the potential health hazard because, if absorbed in excessive amounts in the body by food intake, it could cause bone cancer or leukemia. Nixon to Enter Four Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's new campaign chief indicates the former vice president will enter at least four state primaries next year in his bid for the Republican presidential nomination. Plans are under way, Henry Bellmon told a Tuesday news conference, to set up Nixon for President committee soon in "the crucial primary states of Nebraska, New Hampshire and Oregon." Such a committee already is at work in Wisconsin, which also has a presidential primary. Bellmon, the ex-governor of Oklahoma who recently succeeded Dr. Gaylord Farkas as Sen. Dick Cheney's national chairman of Nixon for President, said he expected Nixon to announce his candidacy early next year. He tabbed Nixon the GOP front-runner to date and cast Michigan Gov. George Romney in the runner-up role. Bellmon met with Nixon and urban rioting would be major campaign issues, adding: "America needs a leader who can find the road to an honorable peace in Asia. Richard Nixon is that man." Reports that conservative Sen. Roman Hruska, R-Nebr., may be a favorite son candidate in his state's primary, Bellmon said: "I'm sure there's not going to be any head-knocking between Mr. Nixon and Sen. Hruska." Bellmon, expected to attempt to unseat Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., in next year's election, said his chairmanship of the Nixon committee "will enable me to be an even stronger candidate."

Thai Based Pilots Out of Limelight

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — "But the Navy goes out and in the dimly lit, night-club-style officers' club at Korat Air Force Base hangs a bell which every pilot flying over North Vietnam has an ambition to ring."

"You'd think we weren't in the war," grumbles the morale officer of the fighter and bomber pilots as he looks at the exclusive 100-mission club.

He can relax. No more briefings. No more flak. No more missions. He has finished his tour. He's going home.

Many pilots don't live to ring the bell. He has finished his tour. He's going home.

These are six other bases in Thailand similar to Korat where the pilots have similar customs and face similar dangers.

But the names of the bases—Utapao, Takhli, Udorn, Nakhon Phanom—are unlikely to become household words and be talked about for decades in the Vietnam war.

A tight security ban on news reporting from the bases has kept the 40,000 Air Force men in Thailand of the satisfaction of seeing their part in the war recognized publicly.

The United States has lost more than 600 aircraft over North Vietnam. Over half came from Thai bases. More than 400 North and South Vietnamese F-4s have been shot down over these, too, came from Thai bases.

But the exploits of the pilots, apart from summaries given out at daily briefings in Saigon, are barely noticeable in accounts of the war.

"We're not glory hunters," said one Air Force pilot. "But it's hard to see when we're shot."

"We go out day after day at the height of defended targets and no one says anything—unless it is 'Stop the bombing.'" or colonels in their late 30s or early 40s.

The younger pilots are about 25. The more missions they fly the older they look.

"These pilots are a lot more mature than they were in World War II or even the Korean war," said one veteran colonel.

"It takes two years to train an F-4 pilot for combat."

"They have a lot more talent than the last generation."

"They're better trained too. They don't fly into hills on their bombing runs."

STUDENTS FORAGE FOOD

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Four University of Michigan students, members of a national resources seminar, spent a month "living off the land" as a classroom experiment.

Their professor, Dr. John F. Kolara, called it "a lesson in survival."

Diets packed with fish, game, and wild onions, wild asparagus, cattail roots and dandelion leaves with an occasional frog as a delicacy. John shed eight pounds, while the other three lost five.

Top Civilian Candidate May Seek to Halt Bombs

SAIGON (AP) — Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, the front-running military candidate for president in Sunday's elections, said today that if elected he may try to halt the bombing of North Vietnam for more than a one-week pause in air strikes unless Hanoi indicated it would reciprocate.

A longer pause would depend on a favorable response from Hanoi and on agreement from the United States. Thieu stressed in a talk with newsmen after a campaign speech to more than 10,000 Vietnamese troops.

Artillery roaring in the background and jets from nearby Tan Son Nhut airbase sometimes drowned out Thieu and civilian candidates as they spoke to the soldiers in the biggest political rally so far.

Thieu told the troops: "We are ready to negotiate. The problem is whether North Vietnam will accept it. It is up to voters scattered over the country, the survey indicated."

He told newsmen later that if 40 per cent of all voters have any elected," I will talk to North Vietnam on the campaign issues and day," said a civilian vice presidential candidate, Phan Quang Dan, with a gesture toward the towns of fatigue-clad South Vietnamese troops.

The delegation of 22 Americans named by President Johnson to observe the elections arrived in Saigon today.

"I know we all look forward to this experience," said Henry Cabot Lodge, "Part of the plan is to see as much as possible."

Lodge, two-time ambassador to South Vietnam and now a serving envoy for Johnson, is accompanying the group as guide and adviser.

Freed Vietnam Press Fieri in Campaign

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese newspapermen are celebrating their freedom, but frequently acting more hostile than light to the election.

When political censorship was lifted last month, few editors were ready to accept the decree of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky at face value. As the candidates themselves grew bolder, however, the press followed suit.

Now the newspapers have surpassed the politicians and the reader is getting a healthy political diet. The U.S. presence is no longer sacrosanct.

One independent daily said the Americans were treating the Vietnamese like a bunch of children. A presidential aspirant, has been called a traitor in print. Lesser though similarly emphatic labels have been applied to all his civilian rivals for the presidency.

Such free-wheeling treatment is not universal in Saigon's 38 daily newspapers published in Vietnamese, Chinese, French or English. But it is widespread enough to have made candidates of all stripes wince.

Since the newspapers represent practically all brands of opinion save Communism or outright neutralism, they have lashed out at everyone.

Thieu and his vice-presidential running mate, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, were stung daily.

A wide range of newspapers — many two- and four-sheet dailies with more enthusiasm than money — have printed charges that Ky and Thieu are using their government positions to put pressure on provincial officials.

The honesty of the election machinery has become the overriding issue so far as the newspapers are concerned.

"Provincial officials are breaking their backs to support Thieu and Ky," one daily charged. "Obviously they are doing this to strengthen their own positions with their bosses."

Although the papers have borrowed the words "hawk" and "dove" from the American

Director Talks Of Bible League

The Rev. Ernest R. Bradley of Lowell, Mass., New England director of the Bible Study League of America, Inc., will be guest preacher Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Church of the Nazarenes. The service is open to the public.

The guest preacher, who has been a pastor of New England Churches for 21 years, will speak about the work of the League. In his duties with the League, he works with chaplains in prisons and reformatories to provide Bible study programs for the inmates. This service is also provided for patients in hospitals and sanitariums.

The program, "The English Bible, a Valuable Contribution to History and Literature," will also be used by churches, civic and fraternal groups, and high schools and colleges as an elective course in history and literature.

Another scholarly group has founded a British Journal of American Studies, to be published twice yearly.

3,500 Teachers in Florida Set to Resign in Dispute

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The first classroom showdown on Florida's educational spending problems developed today as Pinellas County teachers set to resign.

The state's fifth largest, opened the new school year with half of its 3,500 teachers preparing to resign before dark.

Members of the Pinellas Classroom Teachers Association, which claims to represent about 90 per cent of the county's teachers, signed resignations Tuesday night to become effective at 5 p.m. today.

Whitney B. Newcomb Jr., vice president of the association, said 1,600 resignations were submitted Tuesday and "we expect more today."

In Clearwater, the county seat, school Supt. Thomas A. Southard said he would "remain hopeful as long as we have one minute left."

"We will utilize every means that we know to replace these

Oral Argument To Be Allowed For State GI

WASHINGTON (AP) — The attorney for a Connecticut soldier sentenced to five years in prison has been granted permission to present oral arguments before a board of review.

Rep. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., said Tuesday that the Army board would consider the sentence of Pvt. Kenneth M. Rouellier of Waterbury on Sept. 7 in Falls Church, Va.

The 19-year-old youth was convicted by a court martial of the Jordan river, Arab politics. There is evidence that Jordan quit on the west bank, Changan said most of these review cases required written briefs.

The congressman has questioned the severity of Rouellier's sentence because of what he termed "extenuating circumstances." The youth did not mention that he had been drafted by the Army when he had been drafted by the Navy for unsuitability.

Jordan in Suspense State, But Better Than Predicted

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Jordan is in a state of suspense, one official describes it, but it is better condition than many have expected.

The Middle East war and no riots in the Middle East war.

It faces crushing problems: It loses its richest land and its crossings are easy and frequent. It has 200,000 refugees to feed and house.

And if it becomes clear that the Jordanian army is not to stir up trouble.

Amman radio now broadcasts only proclamations of support for the king and protests against the Israeli occupation of the territory occupied by Israel.

An Arab resistance campaign, Jordanian officials and Western diplomats here say there is no intention and point out: Not

Events in World

Mines in Korea
SEOUL (AP) — Mines were leveled planted by North Koreans in the American sector of the Korean demilitarized zone near Panmunjom exploded under two troops Tuesday killing three American soldiers and wounding five, reliable American sources report.

The mine blasts brought U.S. casualties on Korea's western front to eight killed and 37 wounded this month.

For the first time since 1948, however, Jordan and Israel are openly holding conversations. Daily at the Alensby Bridge against the Israeli occupation of the territory on the west bank, said a Western diplomat.

"It is the minimum support a country could offer its citizens in an occupied zone. For every declaration from a ladies' organization in Ramallah, there is a broadside from Moshe Dayan or others about keeping the west bank, or making Gaza part of the territory.

Seto in Washington
TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan will call on President Johnson to strengthen efforts to bring about peace in Vietnam when he visits Washington in November, Chief Cabinet Secretary Toshio Kuroda told newsmen today.

Sato is scheduled to visit the United States in late September, including South Vietnam, beginning in late September. This will be followed by the visit to Mexico City — Some 7 million Mexican citizens pay income taxes now. As recently as 1961, only 700,000 were reached by income-tax collectors.

Woman Soldier Dies in London

LONDON (AP) — Dame Helen Gwynne-Vaughan, Britain's top woman soldier in World War I, died Saturday at the age of 86, it was announced today.

Dame Helen headed the department of botany at the University of London for 20 years when she was not soldiering and was the author of several books on fungi.

During World War I she commanded in succession both the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps and the new Women's Royal Air Force and in World War II headed the Auxiliary Territorial Service until her retirement in 1941.

King George V made her a Dame of the British Empire, the feminine equivalent of knighthood, in 1919.

Her husband, Prof. D. T. Gwynne-Vaughan, died in 1935.

A pound of uncooked rice yields about 2 1/2 cups — enough servings for eight, after cooking.

Aluetian Seal Protected

PRIBILOF ISLANDS, Alaska (AP) — The Aluetian seal, the home of the northern fur seal, which for generations has been the object of wanton hunt, is protected by the United States, U.N. trusteeship system.

Canada forbids the slaughter of male seals and restricts the annual harvest for pelts, oil and seal blubber.

The seal is protected by the United States, U.N. trusteeship system.

Just Peace in Viet

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP) — Pope Paul VI said today that the situation in Vietnam can still be saved by a just peace.

He called on "the responsible party, whoever it may be," to understand "that if all is irretrievably lost with war, all can be saved by peace."

He said this peace should be built day by day in search of the order desired by God that brings a more perfect justice among men.

The Pope addressed a group of Roman Catholic pilgrims of South Vietnam on their way to the Shrine of Fatima in Portugal.

He told his ruling Nationalist party's annual South-West African congress that "the time is now opportune" for his government to take steps to ensure the future unity of the two countries.

Former trust continued to defy U.N. demands that South Africa peace in Vietnam when he visits U.N. Secretary Toshio Kuroda told newsmen today.

Sato is scheduled to visit the United States in late September, including South Vietnam, beginning in late September. This will be followed by the visit to Mexico City — Some 7 million Mexican citizens pay income taxes now. As recently as 1961, only 700,000 were reached by income-tax collectors.

'GI Ticket' Seen Certain To Win Vietnam Election

most of this vote because the government structure that Thieu and Ky control spreads its roots deep into the population that the civilian candidates cannot hope to match its influence.

In the rural areas, where the government has a tight rein on the villages and hamlets under its control, registration for the elections has gone up. In the cities it has declined since the last election.

In Saigon only 176,000 voters have registered out of 600,000 eligible. Although 60 per cent of the population of Vietnam is regarded as rural, 80 per cent of the registered voters are from the countryside.

The low city registration will reduce the vote for the civilian candidates.

Voters say the overriding election issue is peace, an end to the war that has split Vietnam and caused the death of more than a million people in the past five years. There is only one problem in Vietnam, said an appliance store owner in Hue, "and that is the war."

"I am for the man who will try to achieve peace," said a Roman Catholic priest in Da Nang, "and it must come very soon for our society is disintegrating. We need schools and we need teachers. The young people are not good. They are rebelling. They are very wild."

"The first job of government must be to end the war," said a Saigon housewife with two sons in the army. "I want a new president, not the present leaders. I don't know which one yet."

"A maximum would be better to bring peace," said an auto mechanic in Nha Trang. "We have suffered for many years, the fighting must be stopped. All costs are going up. I am becoming poorer every day."

"The war and high prices—these concern me most," said a teacher in My Tho. "One goes and in hand with the other. The war goes on, the cost of living goes up. War is worse. We must stop both. None of the candidates seem to know how. They avoid the issues."

A wealthy Chinese businessman in the Saigon suburb of Cholon says he'll vote for Thieu and Ky, "not because I like either of them, but because we have to preserve the status quo. Vietnam has had one political upheaval after another. The best keeps rocking. None of the civilians can offer any more of the leveling influence."

This point of view is expressed frequently, particularly by the middle class in Saigon. An apartment-house owner comments: "Mr. Huong is a fine and noble man. However, 24 million voters for Gen. Thieu because another change won't help the economy of the war."

The military elite also will get many votes from people who have not heard of the other candidates, like the militiaman in My Tho who said: "The only candidate I know is Gen. Ky. So I will vote for him."

Another militiaman at an outpost on Route 4, the main highway in the delta, pointed to the only election poster on his section of the highway. "Thieu and Ky—and said: 'I will vote for them. Are there other candidates?'"

A man sitting on a street corner in Saigon under a billboard covered with posters for the candidates said he would vote "for Gen. Ky. He's the only man running."

In Tan An, 30 miles south of Saigon, two women shoppers said they were voting for Ky. Asked which Ky—Ha Thuc Ky is one of the presidential candidates—one woman replied: "I don't know his first name. He's the young man with a mustache."

"Me and my fellow officers will vote for the Thieu-Ky ticket because this will keep the country in strong hands," said a captain in the logistics division of the Vietnamese armed forces.

"My wife, however, wants to vote for Phan Khanh Sui because he is an old man with silver hair and she respects distinguished old age."

"Only the military leaders will fight the Viet Cong," said a sergeant in the coastal town of Ho An. "The civilian candidates talk about peace but they don't say how we can achieve it. Thieu and Ky are determined to win against the enemy but they need time to get results."

"Thieu and Ky have to win," said an air force officer. "Simply because no one but a military president could operate under the present governmental structure. If a civilian won, the provincial, district and village chiefs would be fired and new ones appointed. Then the local military wouldn't work with them. Security would fall apart, the war might break wide open."

"I'll vote for Thieu and Ky" said an anti-Buddhist banker. "But the idea of a democracy is ridiculous in Vietnam. We have to have a dictatorship. There's no other way to survive this trouble."

A Saigon law student said he expressed the views of many students: "I'm not aggressive. All the other candidates are old men. This is a young country. It has to move fast. Who else can do it?"

Presidential candidate Huong

own advancement, no one else's. We're supposed to vote for Thieu and Ky, but I will vote for Huong. And I know lots of others who will, too, but no one will say so."

A young woman educated in an American university said indignantly of Ky: "He is always saying one thing one day and something else the next. You never know what to expect. He acts like a playboy—look how he spends his time in nightclubs. I'll vote for Huong—he has age and wisdom and is looking for a prominent government official said: "Ky has made us look foolish. He's interested in his 45-year-old Saigon dock worker.

"It would be difficult for a military president to negotiate with the North."

A Can Tho university student said: "I was born in the delta and I've seen what war is and how the military loot the people. I'll vote for Huong because I trust him. Lots of students will vote for Huong."

Many interviewed said the elections would make no difference to the war effort. "Ky and Thieu will win, but what is the good?" said a middle-aged employee in the Ministry of Public Works. "When they get power, they forget the people."

A bar girl in the beach resort of Vung Tau said: "Ky will win, but does it really matter? He comes to vacation here often. So do others. Whoever is in power, the war will go on—and so will the taking advantage of the poor."

About four per cent of those interviewed said even though they had registered, they would either put a blank ballot in the box or not vote at all.

"The whole thing is disgusting and an insult," said an interpreter for the Joint U.S. Public Affairs Office who is a refugee from North Vietnam. "There is not much anyone can do around here, an individual that is, to protest about things. But I can refuse to vote and that's exactly what I will do."

Few people appear genuinely enthusiastic about the election. But some consider it a start in the right direction.

"It may not be perfect but it's a beginning," said an official in the government's public administration division.

POLICE RUN COUNTRY?

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—"If the police of this country could run it for about two years then it would be safe to walk in the streets and walk in the parks," former Alabama Gov. George Wallace said Tuesday.

Wallace spoke to the national delegates of the Fraternal Order of Police. He received two standing ovations from the 1,000 delegates.

Mark Dr., Coventry was charged at 10 p.m. yesterday with intoxication.

Police said Fontaine was in an intoxicated condition at a Manchester High School dance.

Craig A. Patton, 18, of 113 Lakeside Circle, Coventry was charged at 9:38 p.m. yesterday with speeding. Police charge he was driving his car at a fast speed at Adams and Center Streets.

Weyland A. Kochin, 22, of 298 Oak St. was charged at 11:30 p.m. yesterday with breach of peace. Police said the arrest stems from a disturbance at his home.

All are scheduled to appear in Manchester Circuit 12 Sept. 18.

Algeria Nationalizes U.S. Oil Subsidiaries

ALGIERS (AP)—The Algerian government has nationalized its oil subsidiaries in Algeria, the account said.

The nationalization was ordered by the Algerian government, which is the parent of the national oil company, Sonatrach. The nationalization covers the Algerian share of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and the Sococyp national oil distribution company held by Mobil Oil Co. of New York, the U.S. oil giant.

The report said nationalization means the Algerians will take over Esso's 17.8 per cent share and Mobil's 6 per cent share in the Algeria refining company, giving the government 23.8 per cent.

The report said nationalization does not affect the foreign oil-producing firms to whom about 22 producing companies. However, students enrolled in Capital West community college here were Negroes.

One official, Theodore Powell, said he was "not at all satisfied with the recruiting techniques." Powell is executive director of the regional community college board.

Rural Kitchens Electric

WASHINGTON—Nearly 40 per cent of the homes in rural areas have electric ranges, according to the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. This compares with 42 per cent for the entire nation. More than 80 per cent of farm homes have freezers, compared with the 24.2 per cent national average.

Weird Near-Funeral In Rockwell Image

their headquarters in Arlington, Va., to ponder what to do with a sniper outside a coin laundry last Friday.

Turner said he talked to newsmen Tuesday night, and the Arlington funeral home to which the body was returned refused to say if it were still there.

Turner said the Nazis may apply for burial in a military cemetery but added the request "will be considered in light of today's events. The Department of the Army will require specific assurance the activities will be in accordance with its regulations." The Pentagon said Tuesday night no new request had been received.

The lovely sunny day in this old town in Virginia's rolling countryside—where Lee once held his Gettysburg campaign and hundreds of Yankees and Rebels fell in battle—was packed with absurdities.

"The funeral was nearly over before the scheduled Army hearse carrying Mr. Turner's body arrived. Its whistle blaring, horn honking, and engine roaring, it crossed the tracks into the cemetery parking area."

"The hearse arrived from the Pentagon by helicopter, nimbly vaulted over a fence and strode martially to the cemetery headquarters. Later, he talked calmly with newsmen as the Nazis held their ground. Suddenly the air seemed filled with Army helicopters. 'I guess we may have some soldiers,' he said in mock surprise.

Soon the peaceful streets of Chulpsop here Army hearse carrying Mr. Turner's body arrived. Its whistle blaring, horn honking, and engine roaring, it crossed the tracks into the cemetery parking area."

Soon the peaceful streets of Chulpsop here Army hearse carrying Mr. Turner's body arrived. Its whistle blaring, horn honking, and engine roaring, it crossed the tracks into the cemetery parking area."

Gen. Turner casually returned the salute of an Army private first class. Moments later, he learned Pfc. George Dewitt was wearing a black arm band of mourning and had come to pay his respects "to my real commander in chief."

Soon the MPs arrested Dewitt for allegedly being AWOL from Ft. Gordon, Ga.

An angry young woman in an ex-member of the party, white, who described herself as a nurse, said she was waiting for the quiet Oklahoma Protestant, in turn, a Communist, a Jew and a "nigger-lover."

Turner smiled politely from under his trim mustache and lighted his cigar.

"A Nazi who kept shouting 'but I'm a security guard' threatened the Associated Press newsmen who was pushing in front of him to hear Turner address the Nazi leader.

"I'll break your back," the "guard" screamed many times.

There was a riot in which Matt Koehl, who proclaims himself Rockwell's successor, emerged from the throng from where he had sat most of the day to confront Turner across the circle of newsmen and cameras.

Turner's electric bulbhorn would not work. But Koehl was just eight feet away anyway, and Turner told him in his amplified voice that the Nazis had 15 minutes to bury Rockwell without bringing their Nazi paraphernalia into the cemetery.

Koehl refused "to allow the body to be buried against the express wishes of Commander Rockwell."

He said: "I will remain in charge of the body."

Turner replied, "That's your problem."

When the 15 minutes were up, Turner announced his last order of the day, a Justice of peace of Culpeper County told everyone to go home, and everybody did.

Board Backs $94,000 For Police Building

The Board of Directors reached only two conclusions last night regarding requests totaling $1,738,860 for Capital Improvements — that the $94,000 request for improvements in the Police Station is valid and will be accepted, but that the others need more study.

The $94,000 Police Station use which the town will receive request is for replacing the heating system, for air-conditioning the building, and for installing a sprinkler system. It was the consensus of the directors last night that the building, valued at $200,000 needs the renovations and additions. The town rents out the second floor to the State of Connecticut at Court 12 use.

The directors met informally at the West Side Rec last night to discuss all Capital Improvement requests. On hand, to answer questions pertaining to an $875,660 request from the school board, were assistant Superintendent of Schools Ronald Scott and Schools Business Manager Douglas Pierce.

Of the $875,660 total, $504,000 is for improving the heating system at Bennett Junior High School and $80,000 is for improving the heating system at Nathan Hale School. Both figures include the installation of a new boiler.

Director William Schaller read an inspection report from the Hartford Steam Boiler Co. which stated that the Nathan Hale School boiler is only 14 years old and in good shape. The report said that the boiler didn't need to be replaced and that the school's heating system could be improved with some repairs.

The report stated that the 90-year-old boiler at Bennett, also is in good shape. It recommended improvements to the heating and distributive systems.

Scott and Pierce said that they were caught with surprise by the reports. Recommendations for the Bennett heating system has been made by an engineering firm. Recommendations for Nathan Hale were drafted by Superintendent of Schools William Curtis.

Final decisions on the two heating systems, the directors agreed, must await a conference by town and school officials with a representative of the Hartford Steam Boiler Co. and with qualified heating engineers.

Directors Anthony Pietrantonio and John Garstide chided the school board and school officials for their hesitancy in not insisting upon minor repairs and for waiting until they grow to major repairs.

The two directors cited the poor condition of the Manchester Green School restrooms. An $8,300 item for improvements there is part of the overall school request for capital improvements.

Pietrantonio said that he couldn't understand why the requests weren't included in the school board's regular budget. He said that the Manchester Green School condition has existed for many years and that it was brought to the attention of school officials, year after year.

Scott and Pierce were asked to produce new figures in an effort to cut the $875,660 Capital Improvement request to a more acceptable figure. They promised to do so.

However, Director Francis Mahoney said later, "I have the feeling they will come back with the same figures. If they cut one place, they will add somewhere else."

Mahoney pledged the cooperation of the Democratic minority in coming up with a figure below the requested one, and yet sufficient to accomplish all priority repairs and renovations.

The board members agreed to ask Town Counsel John Shea for a legal opinion relative to a bond issue for school improvements. The board wants to know whether it may specify how the funds may be spent, as a check on school officials who, they say, channel the money into many areas.

The board reached no decision yesterday on other requests $96,000 for renovations at the West Side Rec, $45,000 for air-conditioning Mary Cheney Library, and $60,000 for air-conditioning the Municipal Building.

Mahoney asked the board not to make a hasty decision on spending $60,000 at the West Side Rec, "considering how little use it is getting."

12th Circuit Court Cases

EAST HARTFORD SESSION

A 30-day suspended sentence was given Joseph Simons, 44, of no certain address in the East Hartford session of Circuit Court 12 this morning.

Simons was arrested yesterday in Vernon and charged with intoxication, larceny and resisting arrest. Vernon police said the charges involved the theft of a pair of trousers from a local store.

Simons was held over night until presented this morning. He was fined $20 for intoxication, the larceny charge was nolle prossed and the jail sentence was for resisting arrest.

MOON ENGINE FIRES ON LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP)

The engine which will lift two U.S. astronauts off the moon and take them back to a mother Earth for the return to earth has passed its rehearsal firing for its first mission in space.

The ascent engine of the lunar module was fired Tuesday in a static test stand 18 miles east of Las Cruces, and National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials said preliminary data indicated the test was a success.

Those funds were voted by the State Assembly several weeks after the town budget was adopted.

On hand, to answer questions pertaining to an $875,660 request from the school board, were assistant Superintendent of Schools Ronald Scott and Schools Business Manager Douglas Pierce.

Ford Renews Attack On LBJ, McNamara

BOSTON (AP) — House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., today renewed his attack on President Johnson and Secretary of Defense McNamara for their conduct of the Vietnam War.

"In recent days we have seen what amounts to an administration propaganda campaign on our chances for success in Vietnam—it is obviously aimed at countering a rising wave of frustration among the American people," Ford told 3,000 delegates to the American Legion's 48th annual national convention.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday told the same group the U.S. is making "steady progress" in the war.

The correct formula is "succeed or get out," Ford said. He charged the administration with following a policy of "gradualism...too little, too late."

Ford called for a stepped-up air war, and asked the crowd to "renew the military discipline of defeat."

Ford repeated his charge that McNamara's "military strategy" has failed to meet the military challenge.

"I call upon the South Vietnamese soldier to engage in the military challenge," Ford said.

The Legionnaires interrupted Rusk six times in his Tuesday defense of the Administration's Vietnam policy.

Rusk accused Communist China of being the guiding force behind North Vietnam's actions in the war.

Bolton Rally and Dance on Sept. 9

Planned by GOP Committee

The Republican Town Committee will sponsor a rally and dance Sept. 9 at the Community Hall from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Candidates for the local October elections are expected to attend. Music will be by the Checkmates. Soda, ice coffee and cake will be free.

As an added attraction, a mystery auction will be held.

of their election officials," he wrote. "This work is far from a routine job but requires a complete knowledge of and absolute faithfulness to the rules."

He urged the selection to consider "equitable" compensation. "But more important than this matter is a situation that should be called to the attention of every patriotic citizen of Bolton," Ahearn continued in his letter. "Election rules call for the display of the American flag. I was shocked and dismayed to discover that the only flag available at the Community Hall is a dusty, obsolete flag, yellowed with age. It has only 48 stars on it."

Noting that both the 48th and 50th states entered the union in 1850, and hoping that "the condition of our town's flag doesn't reflect the condition of our town government," Ahearn asked for a replacement to bring the town up to date.

The high school office requests that any students in Grades 7 through 12 new to the town who will be attending school and have not registered with Lewis Morgan, guidance director, at the high school tomorrow or Friday so that their programs can be ready for the first day of school, Sept. 7.

Registrations are still being taken at the elementary school. Parents of new students who have not registered prior to the first day of school are to report to the elementary school stay for repairs and rest and recreation for her crew.

The departure was delayed 36 hours because of unfinished repairs. Winter trailed almost 100 miles from the start, indicating early he failed to shake the liberal label Williams pinned on him while attacking the Johnson administration in Washington and being "Kennedy-Johnson man" backed Winter.

The election hinged on two points from the outset: Whether Negro vote would solidify behind Winter after splitting in the first primary, and whether Williams could get the 25,000 votes of white supremacist Jimmy Swan, the No. 3 man in the first primary.

Winter, a north Mississippi lawyer from Grenada, had led in almost every county in the north half of the state, but Williams cut into his strength early in the night, then added most of the Swan counties.

The Negro vote apparently split again. The conservative surge also carried Charles Sullivan, 45-year-old Clarksdale lawyer, to victory of almost 12,000 votes in the lieutenant governor's race over state Rep. Roy L. McNeill, a newcomer to state-level politics.

Sullivan was the 1960 presidential nominee of the arch-conservative Constitution party of Texas. He was among the unpledged Democrats who voted for Mississippi who voted for Virginia Sen. Harry F. Byrd Sr. in the 1956 election.

Throughout his campaign, Williams capitalized on his presidential bid in 1964 as an example of his fighting opposition to liberal trends.

Winter, a lawyer from Raymond in central Mississippi, lost an arm in a World War II plane crash.

Winter tried to combat the liberal charges by attacking the Johnson administration to lead the second primary campaign, but made little headway. His campaign was based largely on a program to improve schools, roads and welfare programs.

Charles Evers, state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, estimated 100,000 of the approximately 350,000 registered Negroes voted.

Negroes were 45 the runoff for sheriff in four counties: Clarksdale, Jefferson and Williams, Mississippi, and Marshall in north Mississippi.

"We tried and we lost," Evers said. "They (the whites) won't have it by themselves anymore. Every time they run they're going to have to beat one of us."

He attributed the loss at least partly to a lot of Negroes (who) just still don't believe the Negro can do the job like the white man.

Police Rescue Negroes from Milwaukee Mob

Firemen were kept out of the area for 15 minutes while police sought a sniper. None was found.

Negroes, who clustered on the street corner near the burning building, denied they were any sniper or mole and insisted police did all the shooting.

They said that police fired tear gas canisters into the building—a claim Miller denied.

No one was injured and no arrests were reported at the fire. No description was obtained of the occupants of the auto, police said.

Milwaukee, with a Negro population of 86,000, has only six Negro families living on the South Side, a traditionally conservative community of factories, small businesses and lower middle class homes.

About 88 per cent of the city's Negroes live in the Inner Core, a belt of largely dilapidated houses stretching toward the northwest from the center city.

Crash Brings Evasion Count

Roland J. Chamberland, 37, of Glastonbury, was charged at 10 p.m. yesterday with evading responsibility as a result of a parking lot car crash in the parking lot at King's Department Store in the Parkside, police reported.

Judith A. Waldheim of East Hartford complained to police that she discovered her car damaged when she returned from shopping.

She discovered a note on her windshield, which a motorist had written, telling her the license number of the car that hit hers, police said.

Chamberland was taken into custody at his job. He was released under a no bail compact, pending appearance in Manchester Circuit Court 12 Sept. 18.

Another crash occurred about 2:45 p.m. yesterday on Roland Tpke., west of Dunning St.

Police said a car driven by Thomas W. Rea Jr., 35, of 40 Deane St., backed up and hit another car operated by Ronald G. Kramer, 28, of North Windham.

No injuries were reported.

Mississippi Voters Bury Negro Hopes

Winter, head bowed but trying to smile, conceded shortly before midnight, congratulating Williams and pledging "my cooperation in all his endeavors to bring the state back to the state of 1964."

Returns from 1967 of the 2,124 precincts gave Williams 348,771 votes and Winter 294,109. Winter trailed almost 100 miles from the start, indicating early he failed to shake the liberal label Williams pinned on him while attacking the Johnson administration in Washington and being "Kennedy-Johnson man" backed Winter.

Chamberland was taken into custody at his job. He was released under a no bail compact, pending appearance in Manchester Circuit Court 12 Sept. 18.

Another crash occurred about 2:45 p.m. yesterday on Roland Tpke., west of Dunning St.

Police said a car driven by Thomas W. Rea Jr., 35, of 40 Deane St., backed up and hit another car operated by Ronald G. Kramer, 28, of North Windham.

No injuries were reported.

Bolton Rally and Dance on Sept. 9

Planned by GOP Committee

The Republican Town Committee will sponsor a rally and dance Sept. 9 at the Community Hall from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Candidates for the local October elections are expected to attend. Music will be by the Checkmates. Soda, ice coffee and cake will be free.

As an added attraction, a mystery auction will be held.

of their election officials," he wrote. "This work is far from a routine job but requires a complete knowledge of and absolute faithfulness to the rules."

He urged the selection to consider "equitable" compensation. "But more important than this matter is a situation that should be called to the attention of every patriotic citizen of Bolton," Ahearn continued in his letter. "Election rules call for the display of the American flag. I was shocked and dismayed to discover that the only flag available at the Community Hall is a dusty, obsolete flag, yellowed with age. It has only 48 stars on it."

Noting that both the 48th and 50th states entered the union in 1850,

Hal Boyle
A Tale of
To Riches
From Rugs

NEW YORK (AP)—Tired of hearing about men who went from rags to riches?

Listen, then, to the tale of Edward Fields, who has made riches from rugs.

Now one of the world's largest custom carpet manufacturers—his clientele ranges from the Shah of Iran to Mickey Mantle—Fields was launched on his path to fortune by a $500-wedding gift and a fortune-teller's tip.

Eddie has made a rug shaped like a piano for Liberace. Eddie made the carpet for "Air Force One," the plane in which Lyndon B. Johnson stood when he took his first presidential oath.

Eddie made the huge oval carpet of the United States in the Diplomatic Room at the White House.

Eddie has also made rugs or tapestries for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D. N. Y., Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, the Vanderbilts, the Astors, Mary Martin, John Steinbeck, Prince Rainier of Monaco and Milton Berle.

In 1935 Eddie was 21 and pocket poor after five years of selling carpets for other firms. Then his brother, band leader Shop Fields, gave him $500 as a wedding present.

"I decided to use it to start my own firm," said Eddie. How was business? In two syllables it was "lousy." It was still bad in 1944 when Fields went to a night club in Hollywood to forget his troubles for the evening.

"A fortuneteller in the club told me that a man with the initials 'J.B.' would come into my life and change it," he recalled.

Soon after that Fields met an elderly Viennese, Joseph Blumfeld, who had invented a hand-held rug making machine. Eddie bought the gadget from Blumfeld under an arrangement that guaranteed him lifetime royalties and then set about improving it.

"That machine, nicknamed 'the magic needle,' began to stitch a pattern of wealth for Fields.

Eddie now has 260 of the machines, each of which, he says, can turn out as much work in a day as 10 Japanese hand workers. In a year, although he keeps production figures secret, he claims they enable him to manufacture as much yardage as the entire carpeting industry of Persia at its peak.

"I never have patented my magic needles, because it would simply make it that much easier for competitors to steal the secret," he said. "But they are checked out individually by my workmen, and at night I keep them locked in a steel and concrete vault. Only my son and I have keys to the vault."

But no machine by itself could explain Eddie's success. Showmanship runs in his family. Another brother, Freddie Fields, runs a talent agency which handles such entertainment notables as Barbara Streisand, Peter Sellers, Rock Hudson, and Phil Silvers. And Eddie is an outstanding showman himself.

The budding, fastidiously dressed manufacturer moves in fashionable society and top business circles, knows most of his famous customers on a first-name basis.

They pay without winning prices that range from $50 to $20,000 for a carpet. Fields keeps a stock of 100,000 spools of wool, several thousand basic designs, and prides himself that no two of the 10,000 rugs he creates each year are exactly alike.

For the right fee he is equally willing to stitch a leopard-spotted bedroom carpet for a movie star or, if anyone should order it, a giant wall hanging depicting "Custer's Last Stand" in 15 colors.

This is his success formula: "Make an art out of your business, and a business out of your art—learn everything about it, and live it 24 hours a day."

South Windsor Zoning Board Hearing Scheduled for Sept. 7

The zoning board of appeals will hold a public hearing Sept. 7 at the Wapping Elementary School, Ayers Rd., to consider the following applications:

Paul R. and Yolande B. Martin, 545 Foster St., Wapping, request a variance to allow construction closer to the sidewalk than permitted on their premises. This is an R-2 rural zone. Lewis Delano, 3 Brook St., Wapping, requests a temporary and conditional permit to keep a pony on his premises. This is an A-20 zone.

Charles Desks, 503 Rye St., South Windsor, requests a variance to allow construction closer to the sidewalk than permitted on his premises. This is an A-20 zone.

Jean Laune, 44 Henry St., Manchester, requests variance to allow construction of four dwellings closer to the rear property line than permitted on premises known as Lots 2, 3, 4 and 9 Orchard Heights, Avery St., Wapping. This is an A-20 zone.

Corbin Kirkpatrick, 44 Peachtree Lane, South Windsor, requests a variance to allow construction closer to the sidewalk than permitted on his premises. This is an A-20 zone.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. A copy of each application on file in the building inspector's office in the town hall.

At this week's meeting of the zoning board of appeals, a temporary and conditional permit for the display of fireworks on the night of Sept. 18, was granted as requested by the Republican Town Committee.

The permit was granted subject to safety precautions and provisions that there be police and fire protection on the night of the spectacle.

"He has played politics with the war and he has played politics with the peace," charged the mother of three teen-agers and wife of an electronics executive, Charles Black. Mrs. Black said she had not favored anyone for the job and would remain entirely neutral in the contest.

The district has a 68 per cent Democratic vote and is the seat of the idiom of California politics, with 44 per cent Republican and 56 per cent Democratic. It is a safe GOP district. It varies from rich suburbs in Hillsborough, through a large middle-class commuter population, to the steel mills of south Francisco.

The special primary will be held Nov. 14. No single candidate wins a majority of votes cast, the top Democrat and Republican will compete in a final on Dec. 12.

Jack Nicklaus Leading at Westchester

Seven Under Par Round Highlights

RYE, N. Y. (AP) — Arnold Palmer was shaking his head in mock horror.

"I'm never going to play with him again," Palmer said, pointing an accusing finger at the bulky figure of Jack Nicklaus.

"Every time I do he shoots a 65. It's ridiculous. He was putting like a madman."

But that was Tuesday, just a few minutes after Nicklaus, in the same tournament with Palmer and dazzling Doug Sanders, had carved out a seven-under-par 65 and taken command of the $250,000 Westchester Classic Golf Tournament with a 54 hole total of 201—an awesome 15 under par.

Palmer didn't know at that time that he is once again paired with Nicklaus in today's final round of the tournament that three times was delayed by rain.

Nicklaus held a three-stroke lead over the trio of Gary Player, who led the South African who has won all the world's major professional tournaments, who had three strokes in today's final round of the tournament that three times was delayed by rain.

Ferris Wins Medal Setting Swim Mark

TOKYO (AP) — John Ferris of the United States won the gold medal for the men's 200-meter butterfly in a world record time of 2:06.0 at the World University Games Wednesday night. This shattered the listed record of 2:06.6 set in the same indoor pool during the 1964 Tokyo Olympics by Kevin Berry of Australia.

Golf's Baby Brigade Set In Amateur

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Fumiko Hayashi, wife of the Japanese Prime Minister, Kishi, captured women's high diving event.

The silver medal went to another American, Carl Roble, of Drexel Hill, Pa., who clocked 2:09.1 after battling Ferris stroke-for-stroke through most of the race. Roble clocked a fast 56.6 at the 100-meter mark.

The bronze medal went to Shigehiko Yamamoto of Japan, who finished in 2:11 states added another gold medal in the swimming and diving competition as Lesley Bush of Princeton, N.J., captured women's high diving event.

The 18-year-old Indiana University coed, who is the Olympic and Pan-American platform diving champion, beat out nine other competitors with 228.90 points.

Cynthia Goyette of Detroit won the gold medal in the women's 100-meter butterfly in 1:39.9.

The Best—Helping Stan Hilinski Jr. check his winning score in the recent annual Club Championship Golf Tournament is Gay Knapp, left, runner-up, Hilinski carded a 220 score for the 54-hole event to best Knapp by five strokes in getting his second Elkins Ridge title. He is also the club king at Manchester, an honor he's won four times.

Oil Kills 100,000 Birds

LONDON — Tankers spooked so much oil along the coast of Great Britain that a bad winter season will kill 100,000 water birds, whose feathers are fouled by oil.

New Doubles Kings Think of Pro Future

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — I'm sure that nothing like what John Newcombe and Tony Roche, Australia's newly crowned U.S. National Doubles champions, are thinking about the pro tennis future, but they're not rushing to join the pro-for-pay ranks.

Newcombe, who has won the Wimbledon Australian and French Championships, is expected to be a prime target of the pros who beguilingly tempt him to leave the amateur ranks.

America's Cup

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Selection of the 12-meter yacht Intrepid to defend the America's Cup against the Australian challenger, Dame Pattie, brings together two of the world's foremost 12-meter skippers in a rematch of their exciting 1962 duel for the "old mug."

The best-of-7 competition gets underway Sept. 12.

The 21-year-old Long Beach, Calif., housewife and Miss America, who has won the U.S. Women's Doubles in 1965, is expected to be a prime target of the pros who beguilingly tempt her to leave the amateur ranks.

Defense Bills' Strong Point With One Rookie as Starter

BLAISELL, N.Y. (AP) — Coach Joe Collier of the Buffalo Bills has created one of his defensive line, but he didn't count on the two holes created in his offensive line.

Collier opened up the defensive hole by trading end Tom Day to San Diego for running back Keith Lincoln. He did it because he wanted greater depth in the backfield and he felt Remi Prudhomme could play in for Day and do a good job.

He lost some offensive line depth, however, when guard Billy Shaw and right tackle Crockett, both starters in 1966, were injured. Shaw tore ligaments in his right leg in the team's first scrimmage and Crockett did the same thing in the team's first exhibition game.

Shaw is expected back for the second half of the season, but Crockett is lost for the year.

Collier filled Crockett's spot with less trouble than he took care of Shaw's. The Bills had acquired receiver Art Powell in a four-player, three-draft-choice trade with Oakland, and he stepped right into the job.

'Blood Bath' Predicted Savage Fighting In Central China

HONG KONG (AP)—Savage fighting was reported today in Wuhan, central China's largest industrial complex where the forces of party Chairman Mao "the great helmsman" are clashing with the nation's power struggle. Other reports told of people fleeing cities of Szechwan Province in western China to avoid battles between Mao's supporters and foes. Travelers from Canton said a blood bath was expected in that southern metropolis. It was impossible to evaluate all these reports, but they indicated that the struggle between Mao and supporters of his chief opponent, President Liu Shao-chi, may be rising in violence. The report of renewed fighting in Wuhan, the Yangtze River complex of Hankow, Hangyang and Wuchang in Hubei Province, came from the Maoist provincial radio itself. While the broadcast gave no details of the fighting, it demanded that Maoist leaders take effective action to halt the struggle. Peking claimed August 12 that leaders loyal to Mao had been put in power in Wuhan. Chinese Nationalist intelligence sources in Formosa said, rivers and air transportation in Szechwan Province had been paralyzed by the fighting between Mao's backers and the commander of the Chengtu military district, and Chang Shih-kai, a senior official of the local administrative district in the Yangtze river valley. Travelers from Canton said anti-Maoists there were openly boasting that they "would bathe Canton in the blood of Red Guards," the teen-agers Mao entrusted with spearheading his struggle against Liu's backers. The various travelers had conflicting stories about the role of the Red army in Canton. One (See Page Thirteen)

Milwaukee Police Scatter Protesters

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Protesters and two were injured in a riot today as police scattered a group of demonstrators outside the Milwaukee County Courthouse. The demonstrators, who were protesting the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, were chanting "Black Power" and "Black Liberation." The demonstrators said they held an indoor rally to protest the burning of a Roman Catholic church. At least 50 persons were arrested and two were injured in the riot. ## Local Tax Collection Nears Federal Figure

WASHINGTON (AP)—In state and local services were offered on. Officers said more revenue, either from state taxes or a federal share, would be needed. Expanded use of state income tax is being studied. The subcommittee has (See Page Ten)

Effectiveness Of Yemen Peace Is Questioned

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP)—Doubt was cast today on the effectiveness of a Yemen peace pact reached by Egypt and Saudi Arabia because they did not consult the warring Yemeni republicans and royalist factions. This came as the Arab summit meeting held the first talk of a "political solution" with Israel. Summit sources said the pact reached by Egypt and Saudi Arabia in a closed session took a toll of 24 injuries and at least one death. The pact was signed in the city of Jeddah. ## State Vandalism Costs Increasing

HARTFORD (AP)—Vandals cause damage running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in Connecticut. They destroy furniture in homes, break school windows, smash equipment at construction sites, wreck automobiles, deface highway signs and rip pictures in museums. Vandals are causing the taxpayers nearly $100,000 a year in damage to state parks and forests. Some people think vandalism has become a new form of social protest because it has accompanied recent racial violence. Others blame its current manifestations on rising juvenile delinquency because most often vandals are young people. Many people believe vandalism is increasing and probably is partly because of the population growth, possible for other reasons. (See Page Ten)

Every Available Man Fighting Forest Fires

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Fires exploded in the thick timber stands of western Oregon's Cascades today, opening a new front in the Northwest's three-week fight in what is considered the area's worst fire season in recent history. The U.S. Forest Service said today every available man and machine was being used to fight the fires. ## New Front Is Opened In Oregon

The fires in the Willamette National Forest set voraciously through the pineless trees, roaring fire near the Canadian line in the North Idaho Panhandle. In the same general area crews were watching the Sandstone Mountain fire against the possibility shifting winds might send flames back toward the small resort community of Coon. The town was not immediately threatened today after firefighters were thrown up Wednesday and the Idaho National Guard was alerted to prepare to evacuate the town's 220 residents. (See Page Ten)

Five Charged In Death of Union Boss

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Warrants were issued today charging five men with murder and conspiracy in the Aug. 17 slaying of a Teamsters Local 107 shop steward. Among those named in the warrants was Francis J. Sheeran, a Local 107 business agent who resigned earlier this week to accept appointment as president of a newly formed local in Wilmington, Del. Philadelphia District attorney's detectives had raided Sheeran's Dress Hill apartment last week searching for what they said was evidence in the gun battle slaying outside Local 107's Delaware River waterfront headquarters. ## UAW Urges Conclave To Boost Strike Fund

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers' National Council at Ford, General Motors and Chrysler recommended today that it call for a special UAW convention to help to keep up the union's strike fund. Identical resolutions passed at separate meetings of the council called for the convention in the event of the Big Three automakers is struck when contracts expire at midnight next Wednesday. The action led to heightened speculation that General Motors would be the target company. It's also a matter of money. ## Maze of Cardboard Is a 'Now' Church

NEW YORK (AP)—Cardboard boxes piled high, hundreds of them, row on row, circling, zig-zagging, dead ends exist. Painted and plastered with sense and nonsense. Is it a warehouse? A trap? No, it's a kind of "house of prayer," says the pretty nun in charge, Sister Lenore Navarro. It's also a maze, a web of aisles, blossomed with the sights, anxieties and hopes of the time. The strange meditation room was set up here at an international Congress on Religion, Architecture and the Visual Arts, giving a hint of the changing attitudes on what makes an appropriate devotional atmosphere today—a "now" church. It's an odd place, many provocative but unpenetrated with faith. You get a life-like sense of disorientation as you wander through those cardboard corridors, also of a throbbing, innate vitality. "COME ALIVE" blares a splash of red letters, arching across a barricade of boxes. "GET WITH THE ACTION" is a sign. And then the scenery dissolves into a crowded panorama of faces, troubles, questions, enthusiasms, hopes. "I'm not meant to last, constant with our changing world," said Sister Lenore. "In a sense, it's what church people are talking about." (See Page Ten)

Just a Quiet Little Dinner for 22,000

Some 22,000 persons ate their way through an old-fashioned baked bean supper, sponsored by the Boston Rotary Club, on historic Boston Common last evening. Seventeen thousand pounds of beans were put on the fire in preparation for the mammoth downtown meal. Baked beans, brown bread and butter, ham, potato salad, apple pie, cheddar cheese, hot coffee and milk made up the menu.

Pre-election Terrorism Continuing in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP)—Communist guerrillas dotted South Vietnam today with pre-election assaults and terror attacks today, shelling a fourth provincial capital in as many days and kidnapping 39 men in another village. With Sunday's presidential election only three days off, officials warned that worse Red violence was expected. American officials were alerted to prepare to evacuate the town's 220 residents. ## Tropical Storm Losing 'Punch'

Storm Arlene suddenly weakened today as she churned harmlessly in the eastern Atlantic, far from land. The National Hurricane Center at Miami said the storm's top winds had dwindled to 50 miles per hour and had become disorganized. At 12 noon EDT, Arlene was located more than 2,000 miles east of Miami at latitude 25.9 north longitude 49.5 west. The storm was reported moving to the northeast at about 17 miles per hour. Earlier forecasters had predicted Arlene would become the season's first hurricane before midnight. The hurricane center said Arlene is expected to move more (See Page Ten)
