GM Joins Chrysler's Price Hike

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors today became the second auto company to boost prices of its 1968 cars as it announced the new line would carry sticker prices averaging $110 higher than a year ago.

For the second year in a row, General Motors—giant of the auto industry—came up with a price increase smaller than that posted by a major competitor.

Chrysler last week led off the industry price parade by disclosing its 1968 cars would average $133 or 4.6 per cent above 1967 price tags.

Ford and American Motors have not listed new prices yet. GM's cost analysts figured its price increase at 3.6 per cent over 1967 prices.

Sticker prices include federal excise taxes and dealer handling charges but not freight or local taxes.

GM said its higher price tags "recognize current material prices and payroll costs." It made no mention of possible increases in its labor costs as a result of current negotiations with the United Auto Workers.

It marked the second year in a row that GM came in with lower price increases after a major competitor had announced its new sticker prices.

GM said that $61 of the $110 increase in sticker prices reflected costs of two items, optional in 1967 models but standard in the new cars in compliance with federal law.

These are the exhaust emission control device, designed to cut down on auto exhaust pollution, and center seat belts.

Nixon Steps Up Campaign Pace; Popularity Rises

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is stepping up the pace of his campaign for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination which his aides believe he is virtually sure to win.

Their optimism was bolstered Sunday by a Los Angeles Times poll which showed him running far ahead of Gov. Ronald Reagan and all other contenders in Nixon's former home state of California. Nixon had 28 per cent of that state's GOP voters with 11 per cent for Reagan.

Nixon said in an Associated Press interview, "I have to be dramatically effective in the primaries. If I can't demonstrate the ability to win, I've had it."

Fighting for those victories, Nixon has set up campaign organizations in four states which have presidential primaries. His staff members think he's sure to win in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and Nebraska, but may have a hard time in Oregon.

Despite the new organizations, sponsored by the

2-Year Pact Approved By Detroit Teachers

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit teachers today ratified a proposed new two-year contract, signaling an end to a strike that has kept Detroit's public school doors closed to some 300,000 pupils for two weeks.

The unofficial ratification tally was 3,546-374 in favor of acceptance of an agreement worked out in an all-night bargaining session.

The proposal called for an $80 across-the-board annual increase for two years and a 38-week school year.

The present school year is 40 weeks, and the teachers had demanded that it be cut to 38 weeks.

Peter Grylls, chairman of the board's financial committee, told newsmen the package would cost $9.35 million a year. "It's a little early to make a final decision on where the money is coming from," he said.

Grylls said the board would depend on the state to make up what otherwise will be an $8

Tug-of-War Over

Britain Surrenders Russian Scientist

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Vladimir K. Tkachenko, 25—central figure in a British-Soviet tug-of-war—was returned to the Russians today, apparently on his own free will.

Britain earlier had charged he was drugged and kidnaped by Russians Saturday. British police pulled him off a Moscow-bound airliner.

Looking dazed, the young physicist was hurried into the Soviet Embassy past a crowd of reporters and photographers, who were not given a chance to question the scientist.

In surrendering Tkachenko to his countrymen, the British government said: "In accordance with medical advice and his own wishes now freely expressed, he is going to the Soviet Embassy."

British secret service agents and police plucked Tkachenko off a Soviet airliner on Saturday and, with Soviet officials protesting, rushed him to a secret hiding place.

ALL-NIGHT SESSION

NEW YORK (AP)—An all-night bargaining session ended today with a terse "no settlement" announcement, less than two hours before the nation's largest public school system opened to a second week of a crippling teachers strike.

Vincent D. McDonnell, chairman of the State Mediation Board, said the talks would resume at 6 p.m. in the dispute, which kept most of the city's 1.1 million public school children out of classes last week.

8 Killed, Over 70 Injured; Train Rolls Off Cog Railway

Full Probe By State PUC Is Ordered

MT. WASHINGTON, N. H. (AP)—Eight persons were killed and more than 70 injured Sunday when a train fell off the cog railway on Mt. Washington and landed in a gorge.

One passenger said the mountain excursion train had broken free and rolled down about 500 feet before it reeled off the cog railway and crashed.

Gov. John W. King, who rushed to the scene, ordered "a full scale investigation" by the state Public Utilities Commission. He said it would begin today.

It took rescue workers using a flat bed railway car about four hours to bring the dead and injured to the base of the mountain. The number of persons on the train could not be determined immediately.

The accident happened about one-third of the way down the 3 1/2 miles of track along the west side of the 8,288-foot mountain in the center of the Presidential Range of the White Mountains.

The descent is usually made at four miles an hour with the locomotive in front of the one passenger car backing down.

A passenger, Bertrand Crockett, 32, of Thornton said that when the train reached the first switch Sunday "the locomotive began to shake and just fell off the road."

Car Too Full, Says Survivor Of Train Wreck

MT. WASHINGTON, N.H. (AP)—"The car was packed to the gills. I didn't like the feel of it as we came down the hill.

There was too much weight on it. All the seats were full and the center aisle was full.

"Everybody knew what was happening. It was panic. People were screaming."

That's the way Army Pfc. Harry Roemisch, 23, of Hinckley, Ohio, today described the ill-fated ride on the Mt. Washington Cog Railway which Sunday took the lives of eight persons and left at least 74 injured.

Roemisch and his wife Paula, 19, were vacationing at the White Mountain resort before he has to report to Ft. Lewis, Wash., and ships off to Korea.

He has finished duty at Ft. Devens, Mass.

Roemisch suffered a bruised back and his wife a bruised knee.

"We hit the siding and it threw the engine off. It rolled off the track and we kept going down the hill," he recalled.

"People were trying to kick out the windows—everyone

Putnam Girl Crash Victim

MT. WASHINGTON, N.H. (AP)—A 15-year-old Putnam girl was among the eight persons killed in the Cog Railway crash yesterday.

She was identified as Beverly Richmond, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Richmond.

Her brother, John, 12, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Gothreau of Castletown, Fla., formerly of Putnam, were among those hurt in the mishap.

Others from Connecticut reported injured in the accident were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bertelli of Haddam, and Greta Schoppe, 33, of Bridgeport.

Beulah Aims Near Texas; Doria Drifts

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Killer Hurricane Beulah turned slightly toward this tip-of-Texas town early today and gained new force on a slow northwesterly march across the boiling Gulf of Mexico.

The Weather Bureau at New Orleans said the big storm was slowing down somewhat in the warm Gulf waters and was expected to take a turn tonight to a more northwesterly direction.

It was still too early to tell if Beulah would continue on to the coast of Texas. A slight early

Editor Says LBJ Scuttled Promising Peace Talks

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—An American journalist who visited Hanoi says a promising chance for peace talks on the war in Vietnam was personally scuttled by President Johnson.

Harry S. Ashmore, Pulitzer Prize-winning former editor of the Arkansas Gazette, visited Hanoi last January with Editor William C. Baggs of the Miami, Fla., News.

Ashmore said he and Baggs visited with Ho Chi Minh for two hours, and found the North Vietnamese premier "deliberately conciliatory and... He seemed prepared to consider a specific proposal based on a formula for mutual de-escalation."

"Ho had understood," Ashmore said, "that we would report our conversation to the State Department, and expected some response, since he had made arrangements to have any further message sent directly to him."

The response to Ho Chi Minh's attitude, Ashmore said, was a letter drafted by himself and Baggs in collaboration with William P. Bundy, assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific affairs.

Ashmore said the letter rejected U.S. demands for "some reciprocal restraint" as a condition for a bombing halt prior to negotiations.

Despite this, President Johnson dispatched an uncompromising personal message to Ho Chi Minh, dated three days before the Ashmore-

Baggs letter, Ashmore said. State Department officials, including Bundy, declined to comment.

Johnson's letter, Ashmore said, set forth "the most stringent demands yet made for advance assurance that Hanoi would halt all infiltration of troops to the South."

Thus, Ashmore said, Johnson "effectively and brutally cancelled" the peace effort, nullifying the letter that was sent last Feb. 5.

Ashmore's charges were contained in an article in the first issue of Center Magazine, a new publication of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, of which Ashmore is now executive vice president.

In Los Angeles today, Ashmore said that before his Hanoi trip—as now—he considered himself a moderate on Vietnam. He said he has not condemned the war on moral grounds, but feels "the only kind of solution is some kind of a negotiated settlement."

In Miami, Baggs said, "The events Ashmore recorded are precisely correct as I recall them. There's lots more that he hasn't said. I'm going to say something this week. I may get into what he said and what he didn't say."

Baggs added, "The existing authorities, the White House and the State Department, asked us to lie doggo in the weeds and we did. They asked us to have a minimum public exposure."

In an article appearing in today's Miami News, Baggs wrote that "the plain fact is that Ho was conciliatory, as Ashmore has written, and that he said that talks to end the war could begin once the bombing of his country had stopped."

The Ashmore-Baggs letter, the Miami editor said, "expressed the softest position our

Crane Accident Near UAC Lab; 1 Dead, 3 Hurt

EAST HARTFORD (AP)—One man was killed and three others injured today in a construction accident — materials plunged from scaffolding that was hit by a crane — at United Aircraft Corp.'s Willgood Laboratory.

The victim was not immediately identified.

Two other men were treated at Hartford Hospital and reported in satisfactory condition. Another was treated at the company hospital and released.

Police said a crane swivelled into the scaffolding that was piled with plywood and other materials. The materials fell to the ground, hitting the men be-

U.S. Jets Move Closer To Red China Border

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Air Force F4 Phantoms hit a highway bridge just one minute away—at their supersonic speeds—from Red China's border Sunday in the war's closest strike yet to the border.

The pilots said their bombs knocked out the center span of the That Khe highway bridge seven miles from China and 92 miles north-northeast of Hanoi. The closest previous raid to China's border was 10 miles away Aug. 13.

Navy pilots flew follow-up missions against three targets inside Haiphong, apparently trying to cut rail and road arteries carrying supplies out of the North Vietnamese port city to Communist troops fighting in South Vietnam.

Skyhawk jets unloaded 500-, 1,000- and 2,000-pound bombs on a railroad and highway bridge just one mile west of the city's center. They also hit a rail yard 1.7 miles from the center and a warehouse complex 1.3 miles from its center. Those targets were hit for the first time a week ago.

In the heaviest ground action in the South, 2,000 American infantrymen were airlifted by helicopter into the heart of a Viet Cong stronghold 30 miles north of Saigon in the Ho Bo

Woods. Guerrillas greeted the massive hunt-and-kill operation with sharp fire at two chopper landing zones.

Sunday's air strikes cost another U.S. plane, the 67th warplane announced lost in combat over North Vietnam.

Military spokesmen said an Air Force RF4C Phantom reconnaissance jet went down to Communist ground fire. The two crewmen were reported missing.

North Vietnam claimed four

(Continued from Page One) Communists killed but no Americans died. Communist mortarmen lobbed rounds at three towns early Sunday, killing 12 Vietnamese and wounding 22. Most of the casualties occurred when the enemy tried to use a mortar barrage to spring 800 prisoners from the provincial jail at Tan Ky. South Vietnamese troops beat off a raid 12 days ago on the jail, which contained mostly Viet Cong prisoners and suspects. Also mortared were the provincial capital of Tuy Hoa, 225 miles northeast of Saigon and the district headquarters town of Tri Ton in the Mekong delta 100 miles southeast of Saigon. During the past two months Communists have shelled or mortared a dozen provincial capitals and district towns all across South Vietnam. A terrorist bombing wounded 29 Americans Sunday night at a noncommissioned officers club in coastal Nha Trang. The blast brushed low hills of the area, killed a South Vietnamese civilian and wounded two other civilians.

Journalist Says LBJ Ruined Promising Viet Peace Talks

(Continued from Page One) Secretary William Bundy, who is immediately in charge of South Asian affairs. He said he found "an almost total lack of candor on the official side" in the State department. Ashmore said his letter to Hanoi "also was to suggest that Mr. Baggs and I could return to the New York Times comment that the language was designed to convey a hardening of the U.S. position." "Why the President selected that time to write such a message to Hanoi is not known to Ashmore or me. However, his letter certainly did not encourage the development of conversations to initiate private talks," Ashmore said. "In our several discussions with senior officials of the State Department, they emphasized that the U.S. remains prepared for secret discussions at any time, without conditions, and that such discussions might cover the whole range of topics relevant to a peaceful settlement. They reiterated what the Geneva accords might be the framework for a peaceful solution." "They expressed particular interest in your suggestion that private talks could begin by revisiting the U.S. stopped bombing your country and ceased introducing additional U.S. troops into Vietnam." "They expressed the opinion that some reciprocal restraint to indicate that neither side intended to use the occasion of the talks for military advantage would provide tangible evidence of the good faith of all parties in the prospects for a negotiated settlement." The Johnson letter, Ashmore said, was transmitted through diplomatic channels via Moscow, and the timing made it certain the tough message reached Hanoi first. Ashmore, in a telephone interview Sunday in Los Angeles, said, "We had no idea at the time that the President's letter was being sent. We assumed our war was going forward in good faith." He said the reply to the Ashmore-Baggs letter came from Hanoi shortly after Hanoi made Johnson's letter public and was "the simple statement that there was no point in Messrs. Ashmore and Baggs coming back to Hanoi at that time." Ashmore, discussing his relations and dealings with the State Department, said, "We soon began to feel that we were confronted by two distinct State Departments. One, which obviously regarded us with profound distrust, apparently was headed by Secretary Dean Rusk, who never saw us or otherwise acknowledged our presence." "The other department, which appeared to be seriously interested in negotiations with Hanoi, included Undersecretary Nicholas Katzenbach, Averill Harriman... and Assistant Sec-

Dirksen Named Parade Marshal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader Charles W. Dirksen, who lives to deliver flowery dissertations now and then, was officially named today grand marshal of the 1968 Tournament of Roses. Dirksen will preside at the annual Rose Parade in Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day, preceding the Rose Bowl football game. One of the parade floats will feature a likeness of Dirksen done in flowers, the tournament committee said. "As an ill man, Dirksen should be allowed to undergo treatment at home in his own surroundings with his closest friends and relatives." "I think this is the best way to treat mental cases like this."

Nixon now is concentrating on broad issues of foreign affairs while consulting with "the best brains in the country on domestic affairs." In interview, he warned fellow contenders for the nomination to run on a platform of "peace at any price" in Vietnam.

La Traviata Opens Year

NEW YORK (AP) — The Metropolitan Opera's first season opens tonight with a sell-out performance of Verdi's "La Traviata." The usual turnout of social registrars and other prominent persons had tickets for the glittering opening night of the Met's second season in Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. Montserrat Caballe will sing the leading soprano role, Violetta. Tenor Richard Tucker will be Alfredo and baritone Cornell MacNeil will be Riccardo. Faustina Ciofi will conduct. The production of "La Traviata" was first mounted this season, with 22 productions during 31 weeks, will be the longest in the Met's history. Last season ran 30 weeks.

First Family, 'In-Laws' Hold First Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson have held their first meeting with the parents of Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb—but the White House had no word on the date for the marriage of Robb and his daughter, Lynda. Mr. and Mrs. James Robb of Milwaukee, Wis., stayed overnight at the White House Tuesday night, arriving for dinner Thursday night and returning home Friday. The visit was disclosed Sunday. Lynda, 23, and Robb, 23, plan to be married in the White House in early December. Mrs. Johnson's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, said the families talked about wedding plans but she did not announce the date or other details. The elder Robb said after returning to Milwaukee that "the greatest thing Mrs. Robb and I got out of this was to know that young people are really in love."

The talks had been swayed there from a midtown hotel late Sunday night after they had been under way since 1:30 p.m. Albert Shanker, president of the striking United Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, was as grim as he left the all-night talks. "I am neither optimistic nor pessimistic—just bushed," he said. "We've been working on this all night and we've just decided to adjourn." He added, "You know we've got to be in court at 10 a.m. we'll resume at 8 p.m. here."

NEW YORK — Here's a list of "standard" features to watch for in shopping for a new home: all-copper plumbing, large hot water boilers, removable window-down, vinyl asbestos flooring and self-cleaning ovens. Chamber Wants to Stiffen Anti-Litter Law Penalties

The Manchester Chamber of Commerce is recommending the adoption of an amended anti-litter ordinance which would stiffen the penalties for violators and which would spell out the penalties in detail. The existing ordinance calls for fines of not less than $1 and not more than $20 for each violation. The C of C is proposing fines of not less than $10 and not more than $100 for each violation. In both instances, the old ordinance and the proposed new one, each day that a violation is committed or is permitted to continue is considered a separate offense.

12 Counts for Safety

WASHINGTON — As a safeguard, currency paper is counted 12 times in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing—from its receipt as blank sheets to its delivery as finished bank notes. The proposed amended ordinance was drafted by the Chamber's City Beautiful Commission. The existing ordinance prohibits the littering of streets and highways. The proposed ordinance adds sidewalks, parks, school yards, recreation areas and other public areas, plus all private property, whether residential, commercial, industrial or vacant lots. Owners and persons in control of occupied private property or of any vacant lot would be required to maintain the premises free of litter at all times, or face possible fines. All violators of all restrictions under the proposed ordinance would be presented in Manchester Circuit Court 12.

New Haven Police Probe Shop Looting

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Police are investigating several incidents of breaking of store windows and looting of jewelry stores and other shops which occurred shortly before midnight Sunday.

Witnesses reported that small bands of youths, apparently coming from a dance near downtown New Haven which ended at 11 p.m. Sunday, broke front windows in two jewelry stores on Chapel Street and ran off with merchandise on display.

Police said that the value of the missing merchandise would not be determined until an inventory was made by the owners.

The two stores involved in looting in downtown New Haven were Spectors and Tilton Jewelers.

Other incidents of looting were reported at about the same time, one near the Yale University campus and at least two others in the suburb of Hamden farther north.

Police said that no arrests had been made that could be connected with the looting incidents, and that the various incidents were not definitely related.

LVV Plans Drive
The League of Women Voters will conduct its annual finance drive this week to raise funds to carry on its activities in behalf of legislative reform. Other activities of the local unit include conducting a program of public education on political issues and candidates on the local level.

In appealing for public support, a statement issued by the league noted that it has a backlog of serving groups whose by-word is excellence and involvement. A source of reliable non-partisan information about elections, candidates and issues, an indicator of reform, a backer of worthwhile issues and a watchdog in the public interest.

"Although composed of all citizens and the entire community," the statement says that the League's presence is noted at voter registration sessions, with helpful literature, in sponsorship of "Meet Your Candidates Night" and with the Democratic women's and Republican women's groups.

Other activities include members serving on appointed boards and commissions, attending town council meetings, observing State Legislative meetings and participating in the "Meet Your Candidates Night" and with the Democratic women's and Republican women's groups.

Maneuvering for the position of deputy chief of the fire department will change its chief of fire fighting, he will continue to respond to alarms where his long years of experience will be an asset. The arrangement is being made by the fire department.

Deputy Chief Forghetti has been a member of the Volunteer Fire Department for some six years. Prior to this service he was a volunteer fireman in Glastonbury. He was named lieutenant when Engine Company Three was organized in 1964 and was later promoted to captain and commanding officer of the new fire station on Sullivan Ave. and Engine Company Three.

In addition to his duties as deputy chief in District Three, Forghetti will also supervise training for the entire fire department.

Succeeding Forghetti as Captain of Engine Company Three will be Lt. William Lanning. He is currently on a temporary assignment with Ladder Company One. Lanning replaces Captain Patrick Hankard who was promoted from lieutenant to the head of Ladder One.

Lutheran Notes

Bolton Warren Potter, Scoutmaster For Troop 73, Resigns

The Troop committee of Boy Scout Troop 73 has accepted the resignation of Warren Potter as scoutmaster. Potter has served as scoutmaster for about 10 years, starting in 1955. He will continue to serve on the troop committee and work with the more advanced scouts on merit badge projects.

Before moving to Bolton with his family 14 years ago, Potter was a leader in Troop 9, Hartford, the troop he grew up in. In Bolton, he and his family have often accompanied the boys to Lake of Sales Reservation for a week in the summer.

The Troop committee says that Potter and the town are deeply indebted to Scoutmaster Potter for his years of unselfish service to the youth of our town in advancing the fine traditions of scouting.

Until a new scoutmaster is found the weekly meetings of Troop 73 will be held by troop committee members, assisted by senior scouts.

The first meeting of the year will be held tonight at 7 in the education building of Bolton Congregational Church.

Homemakers to Meet
Bolton Homemakers will hold their first meeting of the year Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Community Hall. Mrs. Orest Gromlund will demonstrate antique and arranging of flowers. Mrs. Edward Moriarty of Brandy St. will be the hostess.

New members are welcome to the meeting. They should bring a sandwich for lunch. Coffee is provided.

The Homemakers are an extension service of the Tolland County Agricultural Service. They meet once a month in Bolton and also attend meetings at the TAC building in Tolland. This year they plan to have meetings on drapery facts and fabric, the care of rugs and salting techniques. The Bolton group has about 20 members at the present.

Mrs. Leo Gambolati of Hebron is chairman this year. Mrs. Gromlund is vice-chairman; Mrs. Charles Benabell of Hebron, secretary; Mrs. Francis Tedford, treasurer, and Mrs. Moriarty, publicity.

Church Women Meet
The Women's Society of Christian Service of United Methodist Church will meet tomorrow at 7:45 p.m. in Skinner Hall for a program on "Modern Woman's Struggle for Personal Identity - Who Am I?" Meetings will begin with the program this year, followed by the business meeting and coffee hour. All women of the church are invited.

Building Panel Meeting
Incoming Board of Education members and the superintendent of schools and high school principal have been invited to attend a meeting of the public building commission tomorrow night after the town meeting.

Mrs. Virginia Butterfield and James Grunski, the only completely new board of education members guaranteed seats in the Oct. 2 election, and Dr. Joseph Castagna and Norman Shaw have been invited to give plans for the new elementary school with FBC members.

Bolton Mansfield Aide Will Give Talk

Louis F. Boly, director of training at Mansfield Training School, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of St. Maurice Council of Catholic Women Thursday at 7 p.m. in the church hall.

He will describe the sheltered workshop candle and ceramic projects conducted at the school.

Boly received his MA in education from the University of Connecticut. At Mansfield he has been a teacher, supervisor of adult education and principal before becoming director of training. He has also been a lecturer in education at the University and at St. Joseph's College.

All women of the parish are invited to the meeting. There will be a Mass at 6:30 followed by a pot luck dinner. Those attending should bring a dish of their choice. Dessert will be provided.

Columbia Town May Appoint Panel To Study Lake Problems

The Recreation Council is expected to name a special committee to study lake problems, according to chairman Peter Moeckel and Henry Ramm.

The chairman are advocating the removal of the boat ramp from the beach to a site on Erdon Rd., citing safety factors as well as the need for beach expansion. The Lake Association is on record as opposing the Erdon Rd. area, but all involved admit the problem must be solved one way or another.

If a ramp is to be built on Erdon Rd., stressed Ramm, work must begin in the fall and if the proposal is not brought before the October town meeting, valuable time will be wasted as the problem is pressing.

A point brought up by Raymond J. West is that if the town clamps down on high-powered motor boats (the actual limit never enforced, is five horsepower), there would be no need for any ramp.

Leonard Couchon, chairman of the council, said the committee to study the problem.

Leonard Couchon, chairman of the council, said the committee to study the problem.

Wigrens Mark 48 Years Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wigren of 15 Stephen St. were guests of honor yesterday at a dinner party celebrating the 48th wedding anniversary. The event was given at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Gary Wigren and James Mrs. Ernest Clark Jr. of East Hampton, N.Y., and Mrs. David H. Johnson of San Diego, Calif., and their husbands attended the event.

The first parachute jump from a balloon was made over Paris on October 22, 1797, by Andre Jacques Garnerin.

Bolton Area Looks For Windor Locks

WINDOR LOCKS (AP) — A slow moving extensive high pressure system covers the eastern portion of the country from North Dakota eastward to New England, the U.S. Weather Bureau said.

This system will influence our weather for today and into Tuesday.

A cold front well up in Canada early this morning will advance southward, reaching northern Maine tonight where it will produce a few showers.

Summer-like weather will prevail across New England today. It will be fair with temperatures rising into the 80s in most places except cooler along the immediate coast.

Ideal weather for outdoor activity. Fog that set in late last night will be burning off this morning, and skies again will be sunny with pleasant temperatures.

Five Day Forecast
WINDOR LOCKS (AP) — Five-day forecast for Connecticut for the period Tuesday through Saturday.

Temperatures in Connecticut during the five-day period Tuesday through Saturday will average below normal. Daily highs averaging in the mid 60s to low 70s. Daily lows averaging in the upper 40s to mid 50s.

Mild the first half of the period and cooler the latter half. Precipitation may total between 1/4 to 1/2 inch, falling mainly the second half of the week.

For example—can you picture a gentle person of good will, walking in a church and breaking up furniture in a fit of anger? With wounding anger, can you picture him throwing people out of the building? If that happened today, some people could make a special request for a straight jacket. Yes, it did happen, without a riot, and without a straight jacket.

Most of our picture Christ as gentle, of constant gracious good will. We picture Him incapable of being angry or causing others to get angry. We are mistaken. We are wrong. We are wrong. He showed when He banged up tables and threw the money changers from the Temple. We forget how He showed the anger of His captors and how they crucified Him in anger. The gentle can spitefully get angry and cause others to get angry too.

Bolton Cadet Mitchell Gets CAP Post

Cadet First Lt. Mitchell E. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cohen of 118 St. Dr., has recently been promoted to cadet commander of the Manchester Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol.

Cohen and other cadets were selected to participate in an International Air Cadet Exchange program and have recently returned from a four-week tour of England. The program was sponsored by the Civil Air Patrol.

In February, he received the Billy Mitchell award for proficiency in the Civil Air Patrol. A senior at Manchester High School he plans to attend the University of Connecticut and to join the ROTC. He also plans to sign up in the U.S. Air Force upon completion of his education.

Bolton Anti-Castroites Urge Big March On Washington

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — The leader of the Cuba Liberation Committee of Hartford, Conn., has urged organized opponents to the Castro government here to join a march on Washington next weekend proposed by the anti-Castro American activities in South America.

Jose Salazar, leader of the Hartford group, said the protest march also would highlight what he called a "secret pact" between the United States and the Soviet Union to stop interference with Castro's government.

About 10 persons of the 75 attending said they would take part in the march, for which Salazar is Eastern States organizer.

The march, Salazar said, would coincide with an Organization of American States meeting in the Pan American building in Washington. He said the OAS would be considering a resolution to condemn Castro for guerrilla activities in Venezuela.

Yale Gets Artwork
NEW HAVEN (AP) — A major collection of Tibetan Buddhist artwork has been acquired by Yale University from the estate of a Vassar College graduate.

The objects, including paintings, bronze images and books, were bequeathed by the late Mr. Arthur Schwab of New York City. Yale announced Sunday.

Wesley S. Needham, Yale library adviser on Tibetan literature, said the bequest was the most important single gift of religious objects from Tibet since the "Kanjur" in 1900.

The Dalai Lama sent the Kanjur—a 100-volume set of the Buddha's teachings—to Yale.

Mrs. Schwab was an author who published under her maiden name—Edna Bryner. Among her works are "Andy Brand's Ark," "While the Bridgegroom Tarryed" and "Thirteen Tibetan Tanks."

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By BILL LENNON

We all know people who must be handled with kid gloves. Quick temper, usually brought on by tension or nerves, can cause anger to be quickly aroused. On the other hand, we cause others to get angry. When we think that, we can be awfully mistaken.

With wounding anger, can you picture him throwing people out of the building? If that happened today, some people could make a special request for a straight jacket. the luckies

They live by a gas line on Regency Drive

Everyone living on Regency Drive is a "lucky." They can all take advantage of and enjoy the cleanliness, comfort and convenience of modern, low-cost GAS living.

Take Jim Holtgrieve on the left there for example... he lives at 11 Regency Drive with his wife Ruth and their son Rick. Ruth's a great cook, and why not... she has all the GAS cooking advantages of the Hotel America, the Hartford Hilton and the Corner House in Farmington.

And Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton Boyd standing next to him never have to worry about enough heat or hot water for their beautiful home at 34 Regency Drive. It's a home that stays beautifully clean, thanks to the friendly blue flame operation of their GAS heating system: The Freedman's standing behind them live a few doors away at 24. Needless to say those two little boys require a lot of bathing and fresh clean clothes. With fast, dependable GAS, Mrs. Freedman gets all the hot water she needs... whenever she needs it. And her GAS dryer gives her a steady supply of fluffy clothes and fresh blankets for David.

Maybe you're a "lucky" and don't know it. Why not call us today and find out if there's a GAS line near you.

31 Marchers Held In Hartford Brawl

HARTFORD (AP)—Some 31 persons, including Negro militant John Barber, were arrested after police stopped a group of marchers last night from heading into a possibly hot reception in the city's South End.

The halting of the march from the predominantly Negro North End provoked an outbreak of rock and bottle throwing, and about 30 store windows were broken in the North Main Street area.

Police had been escorting the 200 marchers—some of them white pacifists—down Main Street.

But at Morgan Street, Police Capt. Benjamin Goldstein told Barber that the group had to be more orderly.

"We'll risk our lives to protect your right to demonstrate," Goldstein said, "but it must be orderly."

Goldstein spoke with Barber, who heads a militant group called "The Black Guard," which organized the march as a demonstration in favor of open housing.

Barber tried to get the marchers into two files, but the crowd was not very cooperative.

Finally Goldstein told the group through a loudspeaker: "All right, gentlemen, it's time to go to get you to disperse. Your intentions are not peaceful."

When Barber objected, he was hustled into a police van. The crowd did break up as more arrests were made, and some of the marchers broke bottles and windows as they headed back toward the North End. One policeman was stung when a bottle hit his helmet.

In the South End, a crowd of at least 200 white persons had gathered on Franklin Street and it was feared that a confrontation with the marchers would touch off racial violence.

73 Degrees Was Boiling In Hartford

HARTFORD (AP)—It was 73 degrees at 8:30 p.m. Monday in Hartford, but the city was at the boiling point.

In North Hartford an estimated 200 marchers were halted at Main and Morgan streets—their so-called intention of walking into south Hartford to demonstrate for open housing was blocked by a force of more than 40 blue-helmeted policemen.

At Franklin Avenue in south Hartford, hundreds of persons tensely awaited arrival of the marchers.

At both ends of the city, police forces bolstered by additional manpower were stretched thin as they watched both factions.

As police tried to disperse the north Hartford marchers, a two-hour period of unrest and violence shook that section of the city. It resulted in: —31 arrests. —One instance of looting and (See Page Ten)

Texas Coast Braces; Beulah's on the Way

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—The Killer Hurricane Beulah surged toward the mouth of the Rio Grande today, taking a potentially disastrous course toward the populous lower Texas coast.

The Hurricane storm, with 130 mile per hour winds, was picked up strength. The Weather Bureau put out hurricane warnings for miles of coastline, extending as far north as Port Aransas, Tex.

Warnings against Beulah's far flung gale winds were in effect to the island city of Galveston two-thirds of the way up the Texas coast.

Padre Island lay evacuated in the hurricane's path. Corpus Christi, a city of more than 200,000, also was in the hurricane warning area.

The Weather Bureau said Beulah at 9 a.m. was centered near latitude 27.7 north and longitude 97.7 west, about 100 miles southeast of Brownsville.

Beulah was moving at 10 miles an hour but forecasters said it would pick up speed during the day. Forecasters said it would hit up to 10 feet would wash the coast today and tonight.

"Present indications are that the center should move inland near the mouth of the Rio

Mayor Hits Dempsey on State Taxes

HARTFORD (AP)—Mayor Fredrick W. Palomba of Waterbury said today Gov. John Dempsey's concern over holding the state tax line was an indication of what he called the governor's failure "to accept the challenge of urban crisis."

The Republican mayor said the Democratic governor's concern during the 1967 General Assembly session, as far as taxes were concerned, was made at the expense of solving the problems of Connecticut cities.

It is time, Palomba said, that the state "recognized its full responsibilities in resolving the problems of our cities."

"It is time that the state stopped pretending that the cities will somehow manage to stem the crisis on their own resources," he said. "The state cannot turn its back on the cities."

The Republican party "just cannot stand by and let the Democratic administration stand by passively and state it has drawn up a budget with no tax increase on the state level."

Palomba's remarks were made in a prepared talk at a weekly Republican luncheon. He said Republicans "cannot stand by and watch the cities being forced into increasing taxes to make up deficiencies in the allocation of state funds back to the cities."

"The present state administration was more concerned with keeping the state tax rate the same than it was in solving the smartest, throat-cutting political operator I have ever run into."

With a Democratic administration that has failed to accept the challenge of our urban crisis, the need for progressive officials said Republican Gov. (See Page Ten)

Goldwater Reveals Campaign Capers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Presidential hopefuls have available a manual on political fighting by Republican Barry Goldwater but if any of his novel tactics are adopted, it's not likely Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's transportation crew will be the victims.

Goldwater, discussing his long-ago bid for the White House in 1964, told how his lieutenant attacked the opposition at the GOP convention in San Francisco when he won the nomination on the first ballot and of a Keystone Cops caper involving Humphrey's plane crew.

"It will not reveal the names of people responsible, but we had every cable of every television company and every radio company marked up in the left of the Cow Palace" in San Francisco, Goldwater said. "If anybody got a little too obnoxious," he said, "they could always have cable trouble. And you might recall Sen. Hugh Scott got up on one with the bullhorn and it didn't work. The batteries weren't in it." Scott was backing fellow Pennsylvanian, Gov. William W. Scranton, for the nomination.

"These are the things that you do," Goldwater said in a National Educational Television network interview Monday night.

It is perfectly fair in love and war. "We had all kinds of things planned. We even had a plan once to try to keep Hubert Humphrey's crew of his plane looked up in their rooms so they couldn't get out and fly someplace."

The interviewer asked what happened. "They got out the window," Goldwater reported.

Whoever wins the GOP nomination next year, assuming President Johnson runs again, will be facing what Goldwater called "probably the toughest, smartest, throat-cutting political operator I have ever run into."

But Oregon Democratic Party officials said Republican Gov. (See Page Ten)

Bing Skips Party After 18-Hour Day

NEW YORK (AP)—"Oh well, it will soon be over," sighed General Manager Rudolf Bing as he stood on stage at the Metropolitan Opera House Monday night and the curtains closed on a rapturously applauded performance of "La Traviata."

Opening night—the second in the new house at Lincoln Center—had ended with none of the disasters which had plagued the Met the year before.

"And now I go home," he said, brushing aside a stray hair, as his stars took curtain call after curtain call.

Reservoir Normal

HARTFORD (AP)—The northeastern corner of the nation can expect near-normal or above normal water reservoir storage through mid-October, says the U.S. Weather Bureau's River Forecast Center.

The reservoir storage prediction was based on the 30-day weather outlook, the center's summary stated, which forecasts light precipitation in the Northeast for the period between mid-September and mid-October.

Major reservoir systems are generally at normal levels for this time of year and well above the level a year ago, the center said.

Bing's 18-hour day began, as usual, with a breakfast of porridge, toast and tea at 8:30 a.m. in his Essex House suite. Then, dressed in a navy blue suit and tie, he strode briskly across a corner of Central Park and up Broadway to Lincoln Center, disregarding the traffic swirling around him.

Latest Antimissile Plan Will Cover Entire Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon's plan to build a $5 billion Nike X antimissile missile system will provide each region of the United States with at least one battery of far-reaching interceptors.

Defense scientists made this clear today in guarded interviews about Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's so-called "light" defense against nuclear attack, primarily directed to guard against a potential threat from Red China.

The decision to proceed with deployment of an antimissile system was announced by McNamara Monday in a speech to news editors at San Francisco.

Although the plan he announced is one of the biggest strategic decisions in U.S. history, it is not the often-discussed full-blown antimissile system which would have an estimated cost of $40 billion.

McNamara opposes such an outlay. The exact locations of the antimissile batteries, each with several missiles, remain a closely held secret. But one Pentagon official familiar with the plans said the main line of defense will center on several antimissile complexes stationed below the Canadian border.

Other antimissile sites will be interspersed along the western and eastern seaboard, in the Midwest and in the Southwest and Deep South. Each site will be protected by a battery of Sprint missiles.

Government sources also indicated Canada has given the United States permission to establish one of the vital missile-detection radar sites on Canadian territory near the Great Lakes.

The civil defense decision was but a preliminary skirmish on a bill which includes money for two key Johnson administration housing programs. The Senate appeared ready to approve the action of its Appropriations and Commerce committees, but the House voted to postpone the bill.

The House voted to postpone the bill, but the Senate appeared ready to approve the action of its Appropriations and Commerce committees, but the House voted to postpone the bill.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters after a White House conference that Johnson believes there will be some federal spending reductions.

Such reductions, Mansfield said, will exclude defense and atomic energy outlays and miscellaneous expenditures such as interest on the national debt.

But they will include some rent subsidies and only $237 million of the $662 million which Johnson asked for his model cities plan. Rent subsidies would help the poor pay for their housing.

Johnson urged passage of his proposed 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes "as soon as practicable."

Mansfield added the President recognizes the House Ways and Means Committee, which must initiate such legislation, has the primary responsibility of deciding on the timing of any bill.

Asked how the decision to build an antimissile system would affect proposed spending reductions, Mansfield said the House already has provided the money for a start this year.

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., senior Republican on the subcommittee which handled the bill, said he did not know of any moves to reduce the committee figures in the floor debate. He doubted any would succeed if attempted.

Red Agents Shoot Two In Saigon

SAIGON (AP)—Communist terrorists blew up the Nationalist Chinese Embassy in Saigon's busy downtown section today and Red agents gunned down two prominent Chinese elsewhere in the capital.

South Vietnamese police said the blast that brought down the two-story embassy and an exchange of gunfire with terrorists killed one person and wounded 27. Fear spread of a new Red terror campaign in Saigon.

On other fronts U.S. planes rained inside North Vietnam's port of Haiphong for the second straight day Monday and Communist gunners rained a torrent of shells on U.S. Marine outposts below the demilitarized zone.

Throughout South Vietnam ground action was scattered. A female terrorist hurled two shots into the chest of Col. Charles F. Chung, chief intelligence officer of the Nationalist Chinese Embassy, shortly after the embassy bombing. Later police arrested 20-year-old Phung Ngoc Anh, a Chinese girl. They found her with a .45-caliber pistol.

Chung was in critical condition. Monday night several terrorists went to the home of a prominent Chinese professor in Cholon, Saigon's Chinese quarter, called him outside and shot him to death.

Open Switch Possible Cause Of Train Wreck

MT. WASHINGTON, N.H. (AP)—Investigators probing the cause of Sunday's derailment of the Cog Railway train off Mt. Washington which killed eight and injured 74 looked Monday for an open switch as the possible cause of the accident.

William E. Melvin, state Public Utilities Commission safety engineer named by Gov. John W. King to probe the cause, said his team was investigating a switch on the steep mountain-side track.

Neither King nor Melvin would comment on the cause of the wreck. Two other probes are underway in the crash, one by state police and the other by the railway. King viewed the crash scene Monday.

LBJ Asks Congress To Hurry Money Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson asked congressional leaders today to speed action on money bills so he can decide where to withhold spending in an effort to cut the deficit.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters after a White House conference that Johnson believes there will be some federal spending reductions.

Such reductions, Mansfield said, will exclude defense and atomic energy outlays and miscellaneous expenditures such as interest on the national debt.

But they will include some rent subsidies and only $237 million of the $662 million which Johnson asked for his model cities plan. Rent subsidies would help the poor pay for their housing.

PAN-AM MAY STRIKE WASHINGTON (AP)—The government warned today to head off a scheduled strike of some 7,000 workers at midnight against Pan American's biggest overseas air carrier. A spokesman for the National Mediation Board said the strike and a mediation of the wage dispute. There has been no reply from the union, the spokesman said.
