Education, Culture Tops But Soviet Problems Exist

Editor's Note—On a comparative basis, Soviet citizens 80 years after the Bolshevik Revolution are among the world's most sophisticated, in terms of education and general culture. But they also have their share of social problems. Among the worst are boredom and drunkenness—both serious enough to warrant government concern as well as a century of Communist rule.

Paradoxically, however, some of the same problems are aggravated by the reverse of life. The majority of boys and girls spend a large part of their free time in the courtyards and streets.

There they get in trouble. Soviet authorities have been cracking down on a rising wave of juvenile delinquency.

Beginning last year, Moscow had a curfew for those under 16 years old. They cannot be in public places without an adult escort after 9 p.m. on school nights and 10 p.m. on other nights. Children under 14 cannot ride bicycles in public places, and no skating, skiing or sledding in the streets at any age.

Older people continue to cause trouble, especially when loaded with too much vodka. "Dangerous crimes and cases of insolent boogalooing still occur," despite efforts to overcome them, the Soviet Communist Party and government admitted in a joint statement last year which heralded a crackdown.

A Leningrad sociologist, Dr. A. G. Kharchev, estimates that 80 per cent of teen-age law-breakers come from broken homes. He adds that "the main reason for divorces is immorality, especially hard drinking."

Florida Cult's Lands Opened As State Park

ESTERO, Fla. — The Estero community founded by Korean Unity, "the people who live inside the world," has been opened to the public as Korean State Park.

The settlement was carved out of the South Florida wilderness near what is now Naples in 1933 by followers of Dr. Cyran, Head Teed, who taught that the earth, practically stationary is a concave sphere with all life on its inner surface.

Because of the members' belief in celibacy and the lack of large numbers of converts, the community has dwindled to four members.

Eighteen U.S. firms displayed food-processing and packaging equipment at last May's international "Imprimash" trade fair. Sales were reported by four—Fairbanks, Morse, Cherry-Burrell, Anderson Bros. and Scientific Data Systems.

Early this month 17 U.S. companies displayed wares at Moscow's international "Odezhd" clothing industry trade fair. One Singer-made sales probably because it was selling one of the things the Soviets want most from America—machinery, in this case about $100,000 a year worth of textile machinery.

Russians Say 'Nyet' U.S. Companies Frustrated In Try at Soviet Market

MOSCOW (AP) — "I'm never coming here again," an American businessman said. "I'm fed up."

He was expressing the frustration of his company and a number of others that tried and failed to crack the Soviet market this summer.

In a major U.S. effort to get Russians to buy American, four groups of company representatives came over to give sales pitches.

Communist officials listened politely and in most cases said "nyet."

Some of the businessmen were successful, ringing up total sales exceeding $600,000 in items ranging from inventory control computers to textile machinery.

These few sales helped raise this year's total U.S. exports to Russia, which are at an annual rate of about $3 billion, up from $1.7 billion last year.

But most of the U.S. businessmen went home empty handed.

"The main result," a U.S. diplomat observed, "was to expose them to what doing business in the Soviet Union is like. It's certainly very different from what they're used to."

An embittered salesman of men's socks put it this way: "I came over here twice. Every time I tried to get a firm answer, they gave me the run-around."

"Their bureaucracy is so big they can't make any fast decisions. I haven't got time to hang around. It would be cheaper to open a new sales office in San Francisco."

Even without Vietnam, Moscow shies from buying American machinery because it means spending hard-to-get dollars. Rubles are not accepted outside the Soviet bloc.

A technological gap between the two countries also impedes an American salesman of farm equipment visited a collective farm in Krasnodar, 300 miles south of Moscow. Officials there were interested in buying but "they seemed to lack any know-how necessary to make use of our sophisticated items like hydraulically powered machinery."

and the immediate Hartford community. We are economically tied with its very fiber. In fact, our reason for being is a direct consequence of Hartford's existence. These comments may sound platitudinous but they are facts nevertheless. Thus it is urgent that we help to solve the problem of the City in some measure approaching what we re- solve.

"It is imperative that we act first and on our own before we are forced by some more powerful governing body, be it Federal or State, to assume a share of the burden of the City's problems."

"It is proposed that we respond to the demands of the City as a community, we have such a duty. The proposition is that we volunteer to bus school children from the north end of Hartford for education in our Bolton schools. Each classroom could afford the addition of one, two, or three children.

"Even if it strains our facilities, our planning, our school dollar, our time and the imagination of some, it would serve our fellow man in a way that will be of immeasurable benefit. It will show him that in truth we believe he is our fellow man. Let us do something positive. Let us do something other than nod in silent agreement when virtuous pronouncements are made from the various pulpits in town. We have not discharged our responsibility just because we nod in agreement.

"By our example, we may be able to influence other towns to take similar steps. By doing so, we may avoid government control of a system that may be forced on us and be in a form distasteful to all. If done in a generous mood and without selfish concern, the recipients will eventually be more responsive and appreciative. Our true thanks will be provided in the form of additional youngsters getting a more complete education that will result in more law abiding and constructive citizens."

"Of course, this participation in the year-old busing program is not going to solve all the problems for the culturally deprived who we will be inviting his belief the port should be shut down by military action.

Appearing behind closed doors in August, the chairman of the joint chiefs told the Senate preparatory subcommittee against the gains and "I have come down on the side that we could undertake action against the port of Haliphong . . ."

The subcommittee has heard other military leaders, including Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, U.S. commander in the Pacific, testify in support of action against the Haliphong harbor.

McNamara and his associates believe the risk of a confrontation with Russia would be a serious one in attacking the Haliphong Harbor, because several Soviet ships are almost always there discharging cargo for North Vietnam.

A confrontation, they feel, might occur if Russian ships came under U.S. fire.

McNamara appeared to try to minimize the impression of difference with Wheeler.

He said the general's testimony amounted to "a balanced appraisal of potential risks and gains" from action against Haliphong.

McNamara said Wheeler "pointed out very clearly the possibility of widening the war by attacking the port."

The discussion on Haliphong overshadowed questions about the seven-nation NATO nuclear planning group at Ankara tomorrow and Friday.

Reports that McNamara will attempt to convince the NATO leaders that the U.S. decision to construct a "thin" anti-missile system against a possible Red Chinese nuclear at-

Swimming Suit Filled
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A pair of Dallas parents filled a $150 swimming suit Tuesday for an order to make her husband leave the house until her petition charging cruelty is heard. The husband's attorney said there were only two beds in their home and their three children slept in one.

The judge ruled that the husband may stay in the house and suggested that he sleep in one bedroom with the couple's son and the wife in the other with their two daughters.

There has been no U.S. enthusiasm for the plan.

The American view is that there are control problems in relation to such atomic demolition devices and it is U.S. policy to maintain the lightest possible control over atomic weapons to minimize the risk of accidental war.

The defense secretary and his party were due in Ankara after a 10 1/2-hour non-stop flight in an Air Force transport plane.

McNamara's current plan is to return to Washington Sunday night.

The testimony by Gen. Wheeler, delivered Aug. 16, disclosed that the joint chiefs sought a 16-day bombing on a 10 x 10 grid against 80 key targets in North Vietnam early in 1968. They didn't get their way.

The 9-year-old cat rushed into the bedroom, leaped onto the bed, began bounding up and down and clawing at the covers until Mr. and Mrs. Moore awoke.

The couple escaped without injury.

Joseph Spina Finds Lag In Town Industry Growth

Joseph Spina, Democratic candidate for the town council, said today that "South Windsor may face the possibility of a grave financial problem with an oppressive tax on the farmers and homeowners unless the basis for a stable tax rate can be achieved immediately."

Spina noted that he was proud to be a resident of the town but was troubled by the fact that industrial growth has not kept pace with the great residential growth experienced by the town within the last few years.

"The education budget must be increased each year to meet the needs of the expanding school population and other necessary services must be delayed or even abandoned because of the available revenues," the candidate said.

To meet this problem, Spina said, new revenue must be obtained in the form of commercial and industrial taxpayers while economy and intelligent spending is practised in the town.

"South Windsor is fortunate to have major state highways, railroads and utilities. The foresight of the Democratic administration provided for the creation of a sanitary sewer system and has made water available," he stated.

Calling for increased industrial expansion, Spina said the zoning commission has enacted the necessary zoning regulations. "Now the town must sell itself to industry," he said.

Continuing, Spina said he would support efforts of the Parkcentre group as a start in the right direction. "With proper cooperation and planning, both Parkcentre and the town council as well as the planning and zoning committees of South Windsor may have the beginning of an industrial and commercial development which will serve as the nucleus for great expansion."

Promoting Development Noting that "we can spend all kinds of money to revise the zoning regulations and to create additional industrial areas by zoning," Spina said these measures in themselves would not bring forth industrial development.

"We must spend some money to promote the development of our industrial land the same way private industry would when it decides to sell or market a product," he said.

In other areas, Spina said the town has not taken full advantage of the available federal and state funds for land purchase and recreation facilities.

"There are so many federal and state programs available that the last state legislature has created a new department to help and inform towns of all the programs currently in existence."

Noting that the value of land has been increasing and will probably continue to increase for many years, Spina said it would be wise for the town to acquire all the land necessary to fill requirements while funds are still available and before the value of the land has doubled or tripled.

In conclusion, the candidate said he advocates the consideration by the council of the development of old age housing now that the state and the federal government has made available funds for this purpose.

School Bus Rules The school administration has issued some 14 regulations for students who travel on school buses.

Students are required to take seats immediately on entering the bus and are to remain in their seats until they are discharged at the school or bus stop.

Students are not to open or close windows except with the permission from the bus driver and will not lean out of any open window.

No school bus or any part of it may be defaced, marked or marred in any way by a student," the administration said. Parents are required by law to pay for the damage to property of any kind caused by their children.

"The penalty for failure to obey these rules will be the denial of transportation until the student is disciplined."

British Bra Tycoon Happy; Sold Entire Stock in USSR

LONDON (AP) — A British bra tycoon, who took a suitcase full of samples to Moscow, has returned to London empty-handed.

"They bought my entire range of 72 sample bras," said Dennis Wallen of the Perfect Bra Co. "This is very encouraging."

For years Russian ladies have been using an article known as a "bus-halter" or "lifcheik," which does its basic job competently but far from esthetically.

Wallen said the samples he left behind included a wide variety of designs and colors.

"Our original plan was to show the bras at a fashion parade," he explained. "But at the last moment we were told it would not be proper to show such garments on live models in public."

"We just had to show them around by hand."

Wallen is expecting customer orders from Moscow but the Russians are adept at borrowing from Western innovations.

Years ago a Soviet minister of trade visited the United States and returned singing the praises of chocolate-coated ice cream bars, and corn flakes. Shortly thereafter there appeared on the Russian market an ice cream delicacy on a stick with chocolate covering called an "Eskimo."

So did a breakfast cereal known as "Korn Flaks."

So far, no "Braierovitch."

Vernon Special Education Program Poses Problems for Town

Only one pre-school child from Vernon is enrolled in a program of hearing program, according to Dr. Raymond E. Ramsdell, superintendent of schools.

The three-year-old girl joins the problems faced by school boards since the recent state law requiring school programs for children needing special education. A complete and state-approved program must be arranged for one or a 100 children if there are children needing it in the town.

Dr. Ramsdell managed to enroll the girl in a program organized in Enfield for hard of hearing pre-schoolers. The girl will be taken there every day by taxi or car, he said.

There are other special programs in Vernon, several arranged before the state law made them compulsory. They are geared especially for physically handicapped, socially and emotionally maladjusted and mentally retarded.

Dr. Ramsdell explained the crowded conditions of the schools resulting from pointing out the small size of many of the special classes. Many cannot by law exceed 12 students or even six in some grades.

School Board Unit Backs Family Life Curriculum

The educational policies committee of the Board of Education, after hearing a discussion on the need for "family life" education in the schools, last night gave its go-ahead for Manchester educators to begin working toward the development of a family life curriculum.

Such a curriculum would provide a guide to incorporating family life concepts into regular school subjects, beginning in kindergarten and continuing through Grade 12.

As one component, the curriculum would provide guidelines for a program of sex education, in which specific facts and terminology on human reproduction would be taught by the 8th grade.

One of the main points to come out of the discussion, however, was that the facts of sex would be only one facet of such a curriculum.

Dr. Ramsdell explained the crowded conditions of the schools resulting from pointing out the small size of many of the special classes. Many cannot by law exceed 12 students or even six in some grades.

Local Man Held For Questioning In Town Death

Local police were expected in Caribou, Maine, today to pick up a Vernon resident in connection with the death of Peter Shields of Rockville on Thursday. Police said they wanted to question him about the death.

The resident is James B. Curless, 24, who yesterday waived extradition in District Court and was ordered held in $10,000 bond.

The Andover League of Women Voters will hold a membership meeting tomorrow night in the club room of the Elements Hospital on Sept. 10, suffering from unexplained head and neck pain.

Five people from different organizations in town will make their annual report to the town meeting on Tuesday. The report will be made by Mrs. Vernon Loebe who is chairman of that item in the meeting.

Dr. Ramsdell explained the crowded conditions of the schools resulting from pointing out the small size of many of the special classes. Many cannot by law exceed 12 students or even six in some grades.

Dormant Boards: An unfortunate situation exists today among many of Manchester's boards.

On Aging Backs: Next to the common cold, the most widespread physical ailment suffered by mankind is the aching back.

On Aging Backs (continued): Group One favors drugs to alleviate pain, rest for the back, and heat to the affected area.

On Aging Backs (continued): Group Two physicians believe time and rest will cure almost anything, backache included.

On Aging Backs (continued): One of the most common ailments in the community, backache is a psychosomatic illness.

On Aging Backs (continued): A third is that for some of the boards there just isn't enough to do in Manchester.

On Aging Backs (continued): Everyone objects to being given what he thinks is busy work.

On Aging Backs (continued): Something of all three conclusions apply to the Manchester situation.

The Ocean Floor: UN Ambassador Goldberg's words on the subject of internationalization of the ocean floor.

The Ocean Floor (continued): The only new proposal before the United Nations in this session is one by the delegation of Malta.

The Ocean Floor (continued): It is ironic that the United Nations succeeded in putting the international stamp on water and faraway space before it got around to doing it for the land under the waters of our own planet.

The Ocean Floor (continued): The resolution before the UN calls for using any financial gain from exploitation of the ocean floor primarily for the development of poor countries.

The Ocean Floor (continued): The only other serious consideration given to tapping the ocean floor has been for mining.

Diminishing Alternatives

The difficulty with the post-election period in South Vietnam is that people everywhere will expect changes in the chronic, frustrating pattern of statements and no one anywhere can be sure what changes there will be.

Much is being made of the election's indications of a strong desire for peace in South Vietnam.

Nothing is surprising in this. Americans desire peace, too, as an election campaign would show.

Washington has complained often of finding no one to negotiate with. Perhaps the Saigon generals will meet the same obstacle.

Accommodation with Communists too often has meant a change of leadership by them.

Next to the common cold, the most widespread physical ailment suffered by mankind is the aching back.

Group One favors drugs to alleviate pain, rest for the back, and heat to the affected area.

Group Two physicians believe time and rest will cure almost anything, backache included.

One of the most common ailments in the community, backache is a psychosomatic illness.

A third is that for some of the boards there just isn't enough to do in Manchester.

Everyone objects to being given what he thinks is busy work.

Something of all three conclusions apply to the Manchester situation.

Change of Minds Over the Bombing

By JAMES MARLOW AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara apparently changed their minds over the bombing in North Vietnam.

This could be interpreted as a conflict between McNamara and the Joint Chiefs.

Nine Semifinalists In Scholarship Plan

Nine Manchester high school seniors are among some 14,000 students across the nation who today were named semifinalists in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship program.

The top one-half of one percent of the nation's students—qualified each year as finalists.

Being appointed semifinalists, the students have advanced to the second step in the competition for 2,900 Merit Scholarships, valued at more than $8 million, to be awarded in 1968.

The 14,000 national semifinalists are the highest scoring students on scholarship qualifying tests administered last February in 17,000 schools, and are now eligible to become finalists.

From the finalist group are chosen Merit Scholars, who will compete for four-year scholarships. Winners may receive up to $1,800 a year for the four years, depending on their individual need.

Miss Mary E. Matson, senior at East Catholic High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Matson of 23 Spruce St., was named semifinalist from her school.

Also, Brian D. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers of 438 Vernon St.; James F. Sinnaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Sinnaman of 29 Harlan St.; and Cyrus G. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stevens of 29 Harlan St.

All nine are honor students. Most have been elected to National Honor Society chapters at their respective schools and are active in clubs and other extracurricular affairs; all plan to attend college after graduation.

To become scholarship finalists, they must substantiate their qualifying test performance on a second examination and submit recommendations from their schools.

Merit Scholars for 1968 will be chosen from the finalist group on the basis of grades, creative accomplishments, leadership qualities, and the test scores.

Vernon School Board Will Decide On Curriculum by Nov. 16

A target date of Nov. 16 has been set by the Board of Education to decide on curriculum changes suggested by the 14-member curriculum committee of the school system.

The committee is made up of school administrators, heads of departments and consultants from the schools.

Albert Smith, chairman of the Board's three-member curriculum committee, requested the Nov. 16 meeting be set for curriculum discussion.

Smith said the committee are hoping to "come up with changes by Nov. 13 for students to choose their courses for September 1968."

The courses to be offered must be printed up and arranged by winter to be properly administered, he said.

Mrs. Marie Herbst, member of the Board's committee, said the curriculum changes is "a continuing thing." She described it as a long range plan and noted it did not have to all be done Nov. 13 or by any other deadline.

"We've opened lines of communications," she said, referring to the lack of communication in recent years between the board and the staff curriculum committee.

The mere fact that we've committee during the summer, the resigning guidance director, William A. Pope, criticized Vernon's schools, especially the high school, for the curriculum set-up. He called it out-of-date and too rigid.

The Board held a curriculum last week at the high school where board members asked questions of the high school staff and Martin Fagan, high school principal.

School Bus Added

The Board added a bus to the school busing system to end over-loaded buses. The yearly cost will be $5,000.

Several buses are crowded now, according to Dr. Ramsdell, because of the unexpected enrollment in busing areas. There will now be 24 buses making at least three runs a day, he said.

Total enrollment in the whole school system was reported at 6,892 on Sept. 18. Kindergarten has the highest number of children with 699. First graders total 671 and second graders, 608. Enrollment totals for a school year go steadily until only 320 in the senior year at high school.

Health Service Proposal

More cooperation between the Board of Education and the Catholic schools may be in the offing with a money saving scheme introduced by Dr. Ramsdell last night.

Laurel, Hardy Comeback Delightful to Hal Roach

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The man most delighted with the Laurel and Hardy revival is barrel-chested Hal Roach, who directed them through their classic comedies and then, when the Chaplin complex set in, fired them.

Roach's delight stems from artistic rather than monetary concerns. Early in the television era he sold out his interest in the Laurel and Hardy films and realized little of the immense returns that the comedies brought.

Bill Vigorous at 75, the veteran producer passed to reflect on the phenomenon that has brought the deceased Laurel and Hardy more acclaim now than in their heyday on the screen. Their comedies remain popular on television and in theaters, and critics have hailed them as the great comic artists of the talking films.

"It's strange," he said. "I've been at film festivals where Charlie Chaplin's old comedies are played. To my surprise, the gags that I roared at when I first saw them get hardly any laughter from today's audiences. But the Laurel and Hardy pictures get laughter in all the places where we planned them to be at the time."

Technology had much to do with this, he explained. In the silent films comedy was played at 22 frames of film per second, resulting in the jerky, comical movements of Chaplin and other comics. But sound movies required 24 frames per second, thus providing more natural movements.

Under the Roach aegis, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy flourished with brilliance through the 1930s, then fell into decline. They moved to other studios, making low-budget comedies that dulled the luster of their careers. For the last decade of their fame—Hardy died in 1952, Laurel in 1965—they were unable to find work in Hollywood.

"What happened to the brilliant pair?"

"It was the Chaplin complex," Roach sighed. "Chaplin was wrecked more comedy careers than booze. No matter who they are—Stan Laurel, Buster Keaton, Fatty Arbuckle, Jacques Tati, and Jerry Lewis—they all begin thinking they can't realize their potential unless they direct themselves, as Chaplin did."

"But the difference is that Charlie had a backlog of comedy that the others didn't have," he said. "The pantomime tradition had stayed in France, then moved to England where there were hundreds of companies that dealt in pantomime comedy."

"Chaplin borrowed from all those old pantomime routines, and he was great—until he ran out of them. His later films showed none of that early brim."

Roach said he had no problems with the return of Hardy, who was content to regard what he was doing as a job. But Laurel was struck with the Chaplin virus and insisted on controlling his film destiny. After Laurel threw out Roach's concept for "Babes in Toyland" and substituted his own, the producer told him: "Your contract expires, and I do not intend to renew it—at any price."

"That was the end of their relationship."

PHONES ON RADIO BACKED

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A two-way talk show on radio serves a useful purpose in a democracy by bringing the most radical views out into the open, a federal official says.

Lee Lovinger, a member of the Federal Communications Commission, said Tuesday he opposes efforts to censor the radio and television media.

He said that proper professional guidance is an essential part of the school system.

Primavera pledged the full support of the entire Republican team to making maximum, effective and efficient use of the tax dollars appropriated for education.

The committee is composed of Charles N. Zins, town clerk; Edward S. Guit, 240 Pleasant Valley Rd.; and John M. Leahy of 205 Hillton Dr.

Mayor James Throve has suggested to the committee that a contest be held and citizens invited to submit designs. He proposed that the committee make a report to the new town seal and that the contest be held at the first meeting in October.

It is anticipated that the new seal could be used for town hall stationary and town vehicles in addition to being the official stamp of the town.

South Windsor More and Better Courses Urged for Town Schools

Ronald E. Primavera, Republican candidate for the Board of Education, has issued a statement calling for improvements in education in South Windsor.

"In addition to improving courses offered in the college preparatory program, increased efforts must be made to broaden courses offered in industrial arts, business and home economics," Primavera stated.

He noted that students preparing for college must be offered the curriculum necessary for acceptance to the colleges and universities of their choice and given the basic foundation necessary to fulfill their educational goal.

"Industrial arts and business courses must be made available to all students who are adequately prepared for them. They are in industry and business, and South Windsor must strive to provide complete educational facilities within the town's own school system for all courses of study," the candidate said.

He said that only where local demand for specialized courses is too low or the acquisition of equipment not economically feasible should outside facilities, such as regional technical schools be considered.

Representing concerns about the limited guidance presently available to students, Primavera said, "The effectiveness of present guidance must be carefully evaluated, strengthened where necessary by the addition of trained, full time guidance counselors."

He stated that proper professional guidance is an essential part of the school system.

Primavera pledged the full support of the entire Republican team to making maximum, effective and efficient use of the tax dollars appropriated for education.

Mrs. Hicks Tops 10 For Mayor's Ballot

BOSTON (AP)—Mrs. Louise Day Hicks, an avowed foe of school desegregation programs, topped a 10-candidate field Tuesday in winning one of the two places for mayor on the Nov. 7 ballot.

The three-term school committee member led by margin of more than 4:3 over Secretary of State Kevin H. White, who will oppose her in the nonpartisan final election.

U. S. Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., immediately promised to wage "a strong campaign" for White.

Kennedy did not mention Mrs. Hicks by name, but said only one candidate of the two selected would carry out the mandate from a "large majority" of the voters for "progress and understanding in meeting the problems of our city."

"The battle for peace and progress in all our cities is going to be joined in the city of Boston over the next six weeks," he said.

White also picked up the personal support of Gov. John A. Volpe, a Republican. Volpe said he doubted the Republican party can take an official position, but added, "If I were a voter of Boston, I would not be casting a vote for Mrs. Hicks."

Mrs. Hicks received an unofficial total of 48,872 votes in the city's 275 precincts compared to 30,880 for White. More than 196,000 of the city's 278,862 voters went to the polls.

The matronly 48-year-old grandmother showed well in the city's white working class sections, but—as predicted—ran behind the other candidates in the heavily Negro and in upper class areas.

A practicing lawyer, she is completing her third term on the Boston School Committee, and has been the center of racial controversy for her opposition to efforts to achieve racial balance in the city's schools.

She opposed any change in the city's policy of having students attend their neighborhood schools, which, civil rights leaders claim, keeps Negro children in dilapidated schools that offer inferior instruction.

Obituary

Winthrop Porter of Hebron, Selectman for 30 Years, Dies

HEBRON — Winthrop Porter, 72, of Martin Rd., Gilead, was killed instantly yesterday afternoon while working on his farm installing corn silage in a bunker silo.

Mr. Porter was operating a bulldozer, according to State Trooper Raymond Andrews, and caught his right thumb in the arm of the bucket and lost control of the machine. It rolled backwards over the side of the silage crushing Mr. Porter against a large link belt shovel parked there.

The medical examiner, Dr. Ernie Rafferty, said death was caused by massive chest and head injuries.

Mr. Porter was born in Hebron and had been first selectman here for more than 20 years and a selectman for a total of 30 years. In 1929 he was a representative to the General Assembly from New Britain. He served on the Hebron Board of Assessors for 17 years and was a member of the Republican Town Committee for many years.

He was a veteran of World War I serving in the 82nd Division of the Army.

He was a trustee of the Douglas Library in Hebron, a director in the state Farm Bureau and a voting delegate in the Connecticut Milk Producers Association. He was a charter member of the Hebron Fire Department.

He was a self-employed dairy farmer and owner-operator of a lime and fertilizer business. He was a charter member and past commander of the Jones Post American Legion.

Mr. Porter was a deacon of the Gilead Congregational Church. He was an organizer of the Tolland Agricultural Center in Vernon and served on its board of trustees for six years.

On July 30, he and his wife, Mrs. Ethel Hill Porter, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Survivors also include three sons, Douglas H. Porter and Wilbur S. Porter of Gilead and W. Henry Porter of New Britain; a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Anderson of East Hampton; two brothers, Robert P. Porter of Manchester and Horace C. Porter of Wallingford; two sisters, Mrs. Albert Hilding of Hebron and Mrs. Bertha Ward of Providence, R.I. and 10 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Gilead Congregational Church at 1 p.m. with the Rev. O. Kelsey Jr. pastor officiating. Burial will be in the Gilead Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Porter Funeral Home in Willimantic tomorrow from 7 to 9 p.m.

The family requests friends wishing to do so to make contributions to the Gilead Congregational Church in Mr. Porter's memory.

George Gardner, Juvenile Officer In Vernon, Dies

VERNON — George C. Gardner, 62, of 24 Blenheim Place died yesterday afternoon at Hartford Hospital. He was the juvenile officer on the Vernon Police Department.

He joined the police department in 1957 as a superintendent. In a year he became a full-time officer, later becoming juvenile officer.

When word of his death was received, flags on town buildings were flown at half mast, and a teletype announcement of his death was sent out to other departments the same day. Mayor John E. Grant announced his death to a gathering of town officials last night.

Columbia Local Man Held In Hit-and-Run Crash Saturday

A town man who state police arrested a motorcycle driver on R.I. 6 early Saturday morning was arrested last night.

Arthur L. Bernier, 25, of Oakwood Lane, was arrested at his home on an 11th Circuit Court charge of driving with a night charging him with evading responsibility and reckless driving, police said. The arrest was the result of investigation by Trooper Warren Davis.

Bernier is charged with striking a motorcycle driver by William T. Marsh, 19, of William St., who was heading east in a pack of seven motorcycles. The car that struck the motorcycle was heading west. The car left the scene and police put out an alert.

Neither Marsh nor his wife, a passenger, were seriously injured.

But two of the other motorcycle drivers, when returning to check the crash, collided and one suffered severe head injuries. The driver, Dennis F. Cole, of Chaplin, was first taken to a hospital and later died.

All seven motorcycle drivers belonged to the Scorpions club of Willimantic.

Bernier was released on a $500 cash compact and is scheduled to appear in 11th Circuit Court in Willimantic Oct. 31.

UAW Hints At Demands On Big 3

The $1.20 would be on top of a current average of $4.46 now paid journeymen die makers in the 70 shops represented by the tooling association, whose three-year contract with the UAW ends Nov. 1.

The majority of skilled workers in General Motors plants earn $2.20 hourly. There is little, if any, difference at Chrysler and Ford.

A union source said $5.40 now is the minimum paid an electrician in the building trades in the Detroit area, where outside tradesmen often are employed by subcontractors and work on auto plants alongside UAW tradesmen.

Besides the pay increase, the union's top demands include equalizing pay to workers in Canadian and U.S. plants, bigger pensions, and guaranteed annual income. The average pay for the industry as a whole is $3.41 an hour, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Sen. Morton said "with a lick of sense" knew it was an open-ended commitment by Congress.

Consequently, Dirksen added, those who voted for the resolution have no right "to bellyache if the language hits them in the face."

Case said he wasn't misled by the resolution, which provided Johnson's taking "all necessary steps" to repel aggression. But Dirksen said Johnson intended to use it to support his intensification of the war.

Hal Boyle Washington Toothless at Age of 40

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: If you think you have dental work, consider the plight of George Washington. The president of his country had lost all his teeth by the time he was 40, and in later years wore at least three sets of false teeth.

Although Dr. Sigmund Freud's psychoanalytic theories are under considerable scientific attack, some 200,000 Americans pay a million dollars a year to lie on a couch and talk about their emotional problems.

Much fun is poked at the vanity of bearded hippies and beatniks. But men who wear beards have always been vain of them. During the 17th and 18th centuries gentlemen of class wore cumbersome cardboard boxes in bed to protect their chins while they slept.

The tired people become individually, the more energy civilization exerts against them. It is estimated that between now and the year 2000, the United States will consume 100 times as much energy as it did in the last 100 years.

Quotable notables: "The average Hollywood film star's ambition is to be admired by the American people, courted by an Italian, married to an Englishman and to have a French boy friend."

Artful weavers: Spider webs are almost as distinctive as human fingerprints. Each of the 30,000 known varieties of spiders has its own style of weaving and turns out a new web daily made of self-spun filament stronger than a strand of steel the same thickness. Some spiders even weave nets and use them to "lasso" their prey.

Bishop Pike Communicated With Dead Son, He Claims

SEATTLE (AP) — Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike, a critic of some religious doctrine but firmly convinced of life after death, says he believes he communicated with his dead son in an impromptu séance in Toronto.

The Bishop's son, James Jr., then 22, committed suicide in New York in February 1966. Bishop Pike said Tuesday in an interview that he believes the communication was authentic because "my impression of the words transmitted through a medium" was characteristic of the person and his style.

He referred to events—a lot of difficulties—and seemed very aware of things. Bishop Pike said his son knew of the bishop's dispute with the church over interpretation of some traditional doctrines.

Earlier Tuesday, Bishop Pike withdrew his demand for a heresy trial when the House of Bishops voted at the church's general convention to establish safeguards against heresy prosecution.

Referring to his experience at the séance as "astonishing," Bishop Pike said it began when he was in the Arthur Ford, promoter of the "Wholly World" use of an energy as it did in the last 100 years.

He said he had written books dealing with data leading to a belief in life after death. After discussing their books, Bishop Pike said the Rev. Mr. Ford put himself into a trance.

People at the meeting included the mayor, administrative assistant, described administrator's function as a "mechanism" working between the representatives and the boards and commissions.

Former Mayor Thomas J. McCusker initiated the full exchange of minutes of boards and commissions to the mayor's office.

Another suggestion of the mayor's met with more approval. Several representatives to each other's meetings, he said, especially when the groups are acting on the same or similar matters.

Jamboree Plated By Bowers PTA Phone Rate May Drop On Late Long Calls

WASHINGTON (AP) — You may soon be able to make a cross-country telephone call for 75 cents—if you don't mind waiting until midnight to dial.

The Federal Communications Commission announced Monday proposed new rates by which American Telephone and Telegraph Co. would meet a commission order for a $100 million rate in yearly interstate revenue.

The new rates will become effective Nov. 1 unless the FCC disapproves or blocks them. The reductions include maintenance of a 75-cent maximum rate for three-minute long-distance calls placed between midnight and 7 a.m. and dialed by the customer.

The present coast-to-coast maximum is $1 for station-to-station calls placed between 7 a.m. and 4:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday and all day Sunday. The 11 rate period will be expanded to 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. Monday through Friday plus all day Saturday, Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, July 4 and Labor Day, except for calls where the new 75-cent rate applies.

Other changes will reduce charges for most calls beyond down here so we can enshrine it in its proper place. The General, famed Civil War Sillington, thanking him for agreeing to speak Sunday at a national convention of agriculture officials in Atlanta.

Harold Smith Cites Work Of Town Education Board

Harold Smith, the only Board of Education member fighting for his seat this year, has issued a statement on why he is seeking re-election after four years of service.

Smith, a Republican, is being opposed by Democrat Aloysius Abear, for a two-year vacancy. Candidates for the other four vacancies on the board are assured their seats with no contest because of the minority representation law.

Smith said that "during the past four years all of us on the Board of Education have invested considerable time and effort to provide Bolton with an educational system that will prepare our children in the best possible way to compete in this ever-changing world."

"Many long hours have been spent in the evaluation of alternate approaches to administrative policy, school construction, transportation, operating budget, curriculum, teacher and school system employ salary negotiations and all of the many facets of the educational system, in order to carve out the plans that are in the best interests of the students and the Town of Bolton as a whole."

"We have been successful in most areas, and I look back with a sense of accomplishment; however, there is much to be done to lift the entire educational system to the level of excellence which must be attained."

Smith cited his experience as an asset to the board and went on to suggest "improved relationships and communication between the Board of Education and other boards in town. This is of course a two-way street," he said, adding that "communication between the townspeople and the Board of Education should be better."

"We are all taxpayers and neighbors working for the common good of our children and its essence have common interests and goals. We on the Board of Education have to attempt to equate the goals in the light of all the information that is available to the board and to be difficult for the average townsman to have at his disposal, unless he chooses to attend each Board of Education meeting."

Smith continued, "One of our efforts must be to more adequately acquaint townspeople with the overall educational and financial picture, and how various decisions will affect the taxes in the town not only today, but two, five and ten years from today."

"One of my ambitions," the candidate said, "is re-elected to the board to be able to work toward greater cooperation between the board and the townspeople and hope that this same spirit of cooperation will be returned so that we can work together for a common cause."

"My own personal policy over the past four years has been one of listening, questioning in depth, and when all facts are laid out, forming my own opinion, following the line which seems the most sensible and practical in the best interests of the students and the town as a whole."

Smith concluded his statement with a promise to continue on the same course, saying that he will continue to "encourage the town to support our children by supplying the tools necessary to sound educational program" and that he will "do all in my power to promote communications, understanding and cooperation among all the boards and the townspeople of Bolton."

Animal Survival First Lutz Film

"Designs for Survival," a film lecture by nationally known naturalist William A. Anderson, will be the first presentation in the third annual Audubon Film Series co-sponsored by Lutz Junior Museum and the Manchester Jaycees.

The lecture will be in Bailey Auditorium, Manchester High School, on Oct. 7 at 8 P.M. and is free to Jaycees and the museum's adult members. The general public may also attend for a nominal admission fee. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the museum, 328 Cedar St., or at the door the night of the performance.

"Designs for Survival" is about animals and how they get along in the world—how they are especially adapted for movement, feeding, protection, and reproduction.

Close-ups will show such creatures as the African chameleon, moonshell snail, nine-banded armadillo, sea horse, a family of osprey, and the eagle fish with its built-in fishing pole and bait.

William A. Anderson

A resident of McLean, Va., Anderson has distinguished himself in the field of nature photography, and a native curiosity has led him into a variety of endeavors. He and his wife have done the research, script writing and editing for many classroom films. They have also supplied sequences for a number of Walt Disney True Life Adventures and Disneyland television productions.

Money Important In Barmaid Work

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Darkness prevails. Cigarette smoke fills the air. In one corner, a jukebox blares. Elsewhere, an ashtray clatters to the floor. Glasses clink against each other as they're placed before silhouetted figures.

It's all part of the night life and the action at the local beer lounge or private club — or a job for the numerous women who make a living as barmaids.

"You can come in here for five minutes, any night, and you'll see and hear the same thing," says an attractive 24-year-old divorcee with two young children to support.

"You know, when you work in a bar you can't help getting in a rut. It gets so loud, you have a splitting headache by the time you quit. But listen, I'm not griping. The pay makes it all worth it."

The pay is exceptional, sometimes far more than that of a secretary, beautician or sales clerk. Anywhere from $25 to $50 in nightly tips is not unusual.

Often times, money is the only reason a woman works as a barmaid. Many of the women working in Wichita bars are divorced and must support themselves and their children.

"Where else could I make as much money? I've asked one barmaid. "There have been some weeks I took home as much as $200. But usually it averages around $125 to $150—and that's take-home pay, after taxes."

The subject of taxes did not evoke divided opinion among barmaids recently interviewed. "But we're supposed to report all our tips. But I don't think it's fair when the government already takes out taxes from our regular salary."

"If I get $50 in tips, am I supposed to say to the government: 'Here take what you want and give me what's left?' I can't see why we should give it away in taxes," says one barmaid.

South Windsor Teacher Survey Approved On Town Education System

The Board of Education last night approved a teacher survey which invites town teachers to forward their suggestions on the present status and future direction of education in South Windsor.

The survey will be given to the teachers by Friday of this week and is to be returned to the superintendent of schools by October 6.

The board noted that during the 1966-67 school year, meetings were held between the board and the school administration to discuss the educational system.

Items that the teachers will be asked to comment on include: Organized pattern for instruction; building programs and organization of new facilities; curriculum and instruction; child development; personnel policies; fiscal policies and procedures; and pupil personnel services.

The questionnaire need not be signed.

Superintendent of schools announced last night the appointment, effective Sept. 15, of Miss Judith Rose as school worker for the school system.

Miss Rose is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and held a post master's fellowship in clinical case-work from Mt. Zion Psychiatric Hospital in California.

The annual salary for the post is $7,000.

Busing Protests
Two groups of parents attended last night's meeting to protest against the location of bus stops.

In both cases the board requested the superintendent to revise the bus routes to relocate the stops.

Richard Evans of 42 Ash Rd., Wapping, representing several parents, expressed concern over the Lake St., Grace Rd. area and the safety hazard he felt exists by children being picked up from this area on Lake St.

Richard Roback of Concord Rd., spoke on a similar situation existing in the Clarmen Rd., Concord Rd., Alberta Dr. area near the Manchester town line.

Donald Waik of Carmen Rd. also noted the hazardous situation in this area and commented that there was no complaint on the distance the children had to walk but the complaint was over safety.

The board voted to authorize the administration to provide with plans for a course for parents on giving children safe education.

The course will be included in the spring session of the adult education courses.

Robert Eversole, chairman of the board, noted that parents of school children should be informed of this type of program and this method would be a good way to give parents the opportunity to become informed on this course.

No school Monday

Warner noted that school will not be held Monday because of the town elections. The high school and the Pleasant Valley School are both polling places for town elections.

The board also moved to notify the town council that funds for transportation in the current budget have been over-represented and that it may be necessary for the board to request an additional appropriation before the end of the current fiscal year.

The board recently approved an increase of $7.50 per bus per day as a base rate charge. The increase brought to $80 per day the base charge.

The board approved a report by the public information sub-committee on the planned third annual community conference.

Dr. Maurice Floss of the State Department of Education will speak on Regional Education at the Nov. 2 conference.

Board member James Arnold presented a suggested program that includes registration, dinner and a half hour address, both pro and con, by Dr. Floss and another speaker to be announced.

The board followed by a panel discussion and audience participation. The panel will consist of the mayor, a school principal, the PTA council president and a Board of Education member.

Invitations to attend the conference will be sent to town residents. The board of education and the South Windsor Education Association are co-sponsors of the annual event.

Further details of the program will be worked with the board public information sub-committee and SWEA.

Two Leaving Board Chairman Eversole noted that this was the last board meeting before the election and that two

Ohio Teen-ager Held in Stabbing Of School Coach

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Police were holding today a 19-year-old youth who they said stabbed a high school football coach to death with a hunting knife Tuesday when told to leave the sidelines during a scrimmage.

Dixon dropped out of Wilbur Wright high school last year. He was jailed after hospital treatment for facial injuries was held for investigation of homicide.

Dixon, a quarterback for the Wilbur Wright high school freshman football team, was in his first season of coaching. He had been married last year.

Prins, 21. The victim was stabbed eight times, police said. Police said Prins told Dixon to leave the sidelines because he wasn't a pupil at the East Side school. They said Prins was stabbed after calling for help from the team.

1908 Dirigible Flew All Day

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany — The first rigid airship, the LZ-1, took shape in Mannheim, near here. It was a 422-foot cigar-shaped structure whose lightweight skeleton was covered with balloon material. But it was the LZ-4 that had the first real flight success, on an all-day trip Aug. 4, 1908. The dirigible sailed to Basel, Switzerland and then down the Rhine as people below cheered and church bells rang.

South Windsor Cooperation Is Urged on School Use

Mrs. Audrey Wasik, Democratic candidate for the Board of Education, said yesterday that town officials and the Board of Education should cooperate for planning greater use of school facilities.

She said that she feels that "a well-planned schedule should be formulated by the Board of Education, Town Council, and the Town Park and Recreation Commission for greater use of our facilities for our children during school vacations and after school hours."

The candidate said that this cooperative effort should be initiated immediately. Mrs. Wasik, a physical therapist, with a B.S. from the University of Connecticut, explained that "recreation for the children is not more pleasure, but constitutes an important element in eliminating classroom tensions, and is often necessary in producing a healthy classroom attitude and satisfactory work."

Christian Noorderdorp, Democratic candidate for the town council, has expressed his interest in a new central library for the town.

The two public libraries in town are both unable to meet the needs of the students as well as interested parents. Noorderdorp said, "Terminating the Sudd library in Wapping 'obsolete' the candidate noted that basement storage areas cannot be used because of periodic flooding and the main floor is 'bursting at the seams'."

Noorderdorp continued that reference materials is inadequate and no longer augments the textbook-oriented reference material at the schools which necessitates students using other libraries instead of those in South Windsor.

"Funds for new books were cut drastically because space to store these new books is lacking. The Wood library does not belong to the town and is financed partially by a trust fund. Restrictions originated long ago by this trust preclude the use of both the second floor and basement for library use," he stated.

Settlement Not Likely For Britain, Rhodesia SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — A negotiated settlement between Britain and its breakaway territory seems less likely now than at any time since Rhodesia's unilateral declaration of independence.

Observers in Salisbury would not be surprised if Prime Minister Ian Smith declared Rhodesia a republic Nov. 11, second anniversary of the declaration. The ruling Rhodesian Front party meets in convention Thursday. Militant members appear certain to urge an end to sporadic efforts to reach agreement with Britain.

Benvenuti Favorite In Thursday Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—Emile Griffith's record shows he is a tough fighter in return bouts but it appears to him no difference to Nino Benvenuti, the content middle-weight champion.

The handsome Italian bubbles with optimism and it apparently is having an effect on the betting odds.

Out in Reno, Nev., where betting is legal, the 29-year-old champion from Trieste has been made the 7-5 favorite to retain his title in the 15-round return scrap at Shea Stadium Thursday night.

Benvenuti was a 13-5 underdog last April 17 when he defeated the muscular New York Yankee in a decisive 15-round decision at Madison Square Garden.

In New York, illegal bookies still made it even money—10-11 and take your pick—but the first stakes bet could change the odds. Most bets usually are made after the weigh-in in the day of the fight.

The last four times Griffith met an opponent twice, he won all four times. He was beaten in two previous fights with Benny Paré, Luis Rodríguez and Manny González, and whipped them in returns for the welterweight title.

BOWLING 'Mack the Knife' Rated Tops McVey Back of Week

NEW YORK (AP)—Duffy Daugherty thought he was the quickest runner he'd see in a long time. The trouble was Duffy's play had trouble seeing him at all.

He's Warren "Mack the Knife" McVey of Houston, this week's Associated Press Back of the Week.

The 5-foot-10, 180-pound senior from San Antonio, Tex., was named today as a result of his performance—165 yards and three touchdowns on 14 carries—in Houston's 37-7 upset of Michigan State last Saturday.

"You had to be close to him to appreciate some of his faking," Daugherty said.

Some Michigan State defenders may have been close to McVey, but it is doubtful they appreciated him very much as he raced 50 yards for a second point touchdown to put Houston ahead to stay, 10-7.

McVey, who runs the 100 in 1:55, also reeled off jumps of 48, 33 and 17 yards.

McVey barely edged Florida state quarterback Kim Hammond for Back of the Week.

The 6-1 senior from Melbourne, Fla., completed 23 of 40 passes for 280 yards and three touchdowns in Florida State's stunning 37-5 tie with Alabama.

He also ran 11 times for 46 yards.

And he did all of this in the role of a substitute. Hammond started in place of Gary Pajcik, who was troubled by a sore arm.

Hammond's three TD passes matched the number Alabama yielded last season. The 27 yards also matched the total given up by the Crimson Tide in 1964.

Paul Brown Plans to Return To Coach Cincinnati in AFL

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati officially has its American Football League franchise effective in 1968 and Paul Brown plans to return to coaching—at least for a year.

The details were completed Tuesday when Brown and his associates signed an agreement with the American Football League to locate a franchise here with Brown having the franchise and was equally successful.

BASEBALL HEROES

FITCHING—Mickey Lolich, Tiger, blanked the New York Yankees 1-0 on four hits to keep Detroit's American League pennant hopes alive.

BATTING—Harmon Killebrew, Twins, blasted his 42nd and 43rd homers, driving in three runs in a 7-5 victory over California that sent Minnesota into sole possession of the American League lead.

MIXED DOUBLE CHAMPS—Phil Hyde and Wendy Smith copped the mixed doubles title in competition among members of the Newport Tennis Club last weekend. (Herald Photo by Saterini)

Primary Veteran Team Returns UConn Hope to Be Ready For Its Turn at Winning

STORRS (AP)—With the season of testing over, the University of Connecticut football team may be ready for its turn at winning.

Coach John Toner has a primarily veteran team for his second year at UConn. He debuted with a 2-1 record in 1966 which might have been anything from a losing record to a 20-point tackle Tony Casarino.

Defensive players who did not letter at UConn in 1966, but have starting berths this year, include safety Vic Canzani, linebacker Henry Palasek, and tackle George Koller.

Junior rollout specialist Pete Petrillo appeared to have won the quarterback job in competition with senior Paul Gruner, although Gruner may be the better passer. Last year Gruner also served as a running back, but UConn has a healthy stable of runners this fall.

Jim Dewart is Toner's choice to start at fullback, with a few losses included a 50-yard field goal at the hands of Yankee runner-up Champ Massachusetts and four points to tiegame runner-up Vermont.

Vermont is the UConn Huskies' opening game opponent this Saturday at Burlington, Vt.

Vermont lost to American International 27-28 last Saturday. "It may be the same players, but I don't think Vermont will be using the same offense and defense they showed us against AIC," says Toner, who had two members of his coaching staff at the Vermont-AIC contest.

Toner said his aides felt Vermont did a lot of experimenting against AIC but may return to the things they did so well in 1966 when Yankee Conference play begins against Connecticut.

Only a few newcomers have been forced into starting roles with the Connecticut team this fall. Toner's offensive starting lineup includes only one sophomore on offense, and one on defense. Sophomore end Ralph Tiner and Wayne Lawrence are back.
