Vernon School Panel Alarmed By Budget Prospects

The Board of Education budget for the next academic year is already alarming members. At last night's curriculum meeting, they learned prospects for the fall of 1968 "serious," "alarming" and "expensive."

"I don't really know where we're going to go," began Dr. Raymond E. Ramondelli, superintendent, as he warned board members of coming problems. "This Board must make serious decisions about next year," he said.

The problems are more students, outdated texts and little space, according to the Board's discussion.

The discussion was kicked off by the introduction of the new book plan put in operation for the sixth grade at the Vernon Center Junior High School.

It works, according to principal David Parker and his assistant, Albert Kerkin.

Robert M. Willard, 48, of Thompsonville was charged with following too closely after his car when it ran the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Dorothy J. Leville of Warehouse Point.

The 68, 9-12 plan is "beat," Smith said.

"We have it," he noted, adding, "Why shouldn't we come out and say we want to pay to put it fully in operation?"

More talk on what set-up is best expected when the school system's staff curriculum committee makes its report to the Board at the Nov. 13 curriculum meeting.

DeTolla suggested early study of the budget situation be made before the committee starts work on it. He asked the superintendent hire someone to research seven points for needed data.

The data needed includes the best estimate of more money, how much higher expenses will go up including teacher salaries, a graded list of priority items previously cut, comparative costs of programs and the work needed to keep a business

Vernon Guidance Director Chosen

Francis R. Shortell is the new guidance director for Vernon schools. The Board of Education has announced.

Shortell, a counselor in the guidance department at the high school, was one of several candidates interviewed by the board for the position. His choice was announced at its meeting last night.

The Boston College graduate has 11 years experience in guidance. He began as a counselor in Malone, N.Y. in 1956, was director of guidance in Granby as a counselor in 1960 and was just completed his first year as counselor in Rockville.

His degrees include Master of Education with a major in guidance from Boston College and a driver education teacher certificate.

As a member of the Connecticut Personnel and Guidance Association, Shortell worked two years in the position of the system this summer criticizing the curriculum as restrictive and outdated.

Man Is Charged In Disturbance

Honore Hubert Jr., 31, of Eastbrook Apts., Vernon, was arrested last night on two counts of breach of peace as the result of a disturbance at his home.

He appeared at the Rockville session of Circuit Court 12. He and bond was set at $1,000 and his case continued at Oct. 24.

Hubert failed to post his bond and was taken to Tolland County Jail.

Other police activity: SOUTHWINDSOR

Robert M. Willard, 48, of Thompsonville was charged with following too closely after his car when it ran the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Dorothy J. Leville of Warehouse Point.

The 68, 9-12 plan is "beat," Smith said.

Police Arrests

Lee P. Johnson, 19, of 21 McGrath Rd., South Windsor, was charged with carrying a dangerous weapon yesterday shortly after noon.

Johnson, who police say is a deserter from the Marines, was apprehended on Princeton St. while he was picking up garbage there for the St. Anthony's Catholic Church. He was carrying a switch blade knife and that he told them he had found it in a garbage can yesterday.

Johnson is scheduled to appear in court on Oct. 12.

Chairs March of St. Hartford, was charged yesterday morning with evading responsibility, failure to show her driver's license and making an unsafe turn. She was arrested on a warrant after Manchester and East Hartford police went to her home at 3 Janet Drive.

The evading responsibility and making an unsafe turn charges were made in connection with a car accident in which she was allegedly involved on Sept. 29. Police say the car she was driving ran into the rear of a car driven by Gerald Campasso of 80 Richmond Dr. at W. Middle Turnpike and Broad streets.

After the accident the car stopped, police say, but then drove off, leaving the car to be towed to Mrs. March.

On Oct. 2, Manchester police went to the March home to investigate the accident and Mrs. March refused to show police her license then picked up her car and drove off, police say. There was a last trumpet, police say, as she drove off. The car was towed to the lot of the Holy Land church, which will show the side of the case.

As a result of this she is charged with failure to show her license.

After her arrest yesterday, Mrs. March appeared in Circuit Court 12 East Hartford where she was released under the no-bail compact for further appearance.

John H. Johnson, 22, of 6 Cherry St., Rockville, was charged with making unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle, failure to carry license yesterday at 8:18 p.m. Police say he was apprehended after he left the McDonald's parking lot off W. Center St. with tires squealing.

Johnson is scheduled for court appearance on Oct. 23.

Sheinwold on Bridge

SIMPLEST PLAN IS OFFER BEST

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Bridge players have devious minds. If you want to get to the next town they'll guide you there by way of China—and then claim credit for good imagination.

Opening lead—queen of diamonds.

West opened the queen of diamonds, declarer covered with dummy's king and East won with the ace. East then upst South by returning the ace of trumps and a low trump.

If South led back a diamond the opponent with the last remaining trump would win and return that trump to make sure dummy never got a ruffing trick. Now South's only chance for the contract depends on good breaks in both black suits.

South took East's trump return, led a club to dummy, ruffed a club, got to dummy with a spade to ruff another club and got to dummy with a second spade to ruff dummy's last club.

Key Discard

West saw the plot and discarded a spade on the fourth round of clubs. Now South led a 4-4-4; Clubs, K-10-8-3-2.

It was a very good operation, South claimed, even though the patient died. If nobody had ruffed, South would have reached dummy with the third spade to draw the last trump.

There was a last trumpet, no need to try for 11 tricks was made in the contract. South should play the low diamond from dummy at the first trick. If West found the trump

You Never Outgrow Your Daily Paper

EDITORS NOTE: In the following article, I. William Hill, publisher of The Manchester Evening Herald, outlines some of the services performed by your daily newspaper. His article was written to mark observance of National Newspaper Week, Oct. 8-14.

By I. WILLIAM HILL

A wife or a husband is great to have but let's face it—on any given day your daily newspaper can do a lot more things for you.

For instance, I can't imagine my wife, on a day picked entirely at random, being able to tell me:

1. Details of the 12.8 per cent Social Security increase approved by Congress.

2. Where I cash out out tonight and have hot biscuits.

3. A way to breathe for a moment to overcome drowsiness.

4. How to convert two rooms into a country kitchen.

5. Where I can go tonight to see a production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" free of charge.

And so on and so on—and all the penny bits fitting that—just as a wedding anniversary may be a time to consider what a spouse has done for you.

The daily newspaper may be a time to evaluate the daily newspaper we may be taking for granted.

Survey Proves a Point

The Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association recently surveyed 2,670 individuals to find an answer to the question: "When people wake up, where do they go to find out the news?"

The newspaper was judged the best way to find out in six out of 10 cases. Television was second with three out of 10 cases.

Analysis of this survey shows that the immediate characteristics of the media account for the relative popularity of each and implies that it's unlikely television can achieve any relatively greater popularity compared to the newspaper.

Two categories of news matter the public prefers on television are (1) material whose essence can best be captured by action pictures and (2) material that gains an element of human interest when shown in a moving picture. Examples of the first category would be sports, war, or a space shot; of the second, news of figures in either national or foreign politics, where seeing people in action gives one far more sense of personality than can be produced by words supported by non-moving pictures.

On the other hand, as the Bureau of Advertising survey makes clear, the public much prefers a newspaper for its local news, for news which requires explanation, or for news that isn't particularly enhanced by visualization. You want a newspaper to tell you about your county board meeting, why debt consolidation is a bad practice or how and why the White House is seeking to increase the taxes we have to pay.

TV Runs Second

In the Bureau of Advertising survey, news was broken into 17 categories. Of these, those sur-

Coventry Artist Exhibits Work

Marian Bramhall of Parker Bridge Rd., South Coventry, has 28 of her paintings on exhibition in the Community Room on the lower level of the D and I Store in the Manchester Shopping Parkade. The exhibit, which is open to the public, will run through Nov. 4.

Most of her paintings feature children, but several "historical" are on view, one of which is "The Return of Lorenzo Dow," a once famous Coventry revivalist preacher and former tenant of the house now occupied by Mrs. Bramhall.

The artist has had a previous exhibition of her paintings in Coventry, and one of her works as a winner at a Manchester Fine Arts Festival. She says that all of her paintings are "inspired from my imagination, four of them based on stories told to me by my mother dealing with her Quaker upbringing."

Mrs. Bramhall is also a writer of mystery stories and has had five mysteries published by Doubleday's Crime Club. She is also a collector of antiques and pewter.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Aspinnall Jr. of Bolton. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newth of 18 Reading St.

The Rev. Hugh A. Gillis of United Methodist Church performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Lola Steiner was organist and Mrs. Nancy Lee was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of pearly blue silk with a wide, scalloped neckline and a full-length veil of illusion.

Mrs. Richard Bradford of Burlington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a full-length gown of deep aqua taffeta with lace overlay.

The bridesmaids and flower girls wore light aqua gowns, styled to match the groom's attire. The flower girls carried a basket of miniature carnations and pink roses.

Robert Alibrio of Manchester served as his brother's best man. Ushers were John Willard of Burlington, brother of the bride; Paul Stowe of Lakeside, Ohio; Donald Bergstrom of Hartford and Andrew Anas Jr. of Manchester.

But we are a little alarmed over the definitely revolutionary way Congressmen Mills grabbed up his statement on the tax issue. He was, at the end, arguing for some better control over federal spending. But then, suddenly, he produced the following general exhortation:
'Let's start now on the big job of making sure our government does what we want it to, the way we want it to, when we want it to, and as much as we want it to.'

Connecticut Yankee

The Republican trend in the town elections last week—particularly in the towns which are really cities—mixed one more bedevilment into the politicking and Mayor Richard Lee of New Haven.

Lee, in other words, not only has to combat Democratic Town Chairman Arthur Barber of New Haven, but also President Lyndon Johnson of the United States, to whom this analysis extends credit for inspiring the apparent spread of revision among Connecticut voters against anything Democratic.

Dispersal, Dispersal, Dispersal
Any summation of the racial situation in American cities this summer comes down to a relatively simple analysis which gives the one most important single guideline we could possibly ask to have for the future.

A Time To Face Up
President Johnson as a television performer usually leaves a lot to be desired. A little cynicism, a little slyly contrived. But in his address to the nation Friday night he came through in some of these ways. Here was a dedicated and sincere President, sure of his convictions, speaking some hard truths about the Vietnam War.

There are a number of instances in which such destruction of an existing or incipient ghetto has been a sort of by-product, rather than the original objective of some public job.

But the summary thing stands clear: when you can break a ghetto, you do the one single thing most likely to prove successful in the prevention of riot.

The ideal successor to the ghetto is not any new housing development located somewhere else. Nor is it the renovation and rebuilding of the ghetto homes, where they are, into something new and clean and appealing.

Tolland Town Planners May Hire Buck and Buck as Adviser

The Planning and Zoning Commission met last night with James Thompson of Buck and Buck, a civil engineering firm, to discuss the possibilities of the firm assuming the engineering advisory and inspection duties for the town.

The firm would handle both the consulting and sanitary engineering problems which arise in approving prospective subdivisions. The firm would serve as a watchdog for the town.

Tolland presently uses the services of several consulting firms including Richard Cosgrove, a consulting engineer; Leslie Sherman, a retired sanitary engineer and Buck and Buck. Cosgrove has moved from the area, necessitating the hiring of a replacement.

The PZC feels the hiring of one firm to assume all the duties would lead to better coordination, and possible economies.

The extent to which the PZC will avail itself of Thompson's Service hinges on how much money it can afford to spend, while starting within its budget. If it is necessary to expend more than is allotted, the commission will have to request the additional funds from the newly created Board of Finance.

The PZC said Buck and Buck has extensive knowledge of all phases of development including the establishment of regulations for subdivisions, now being studied by the PZC.

"Good apartments are beneficial money-makers for a town," Thompson noted last night. He recommended the PZC watch closely to keep the quality of new apartments up and the number of bedrooms down.

King Says Change Due
He indicated the firm would like to work for the town, stating Tolland is going to have "exciting times coming up."

Town Council Robert King, sitting in on the meeting, noted the subdivision regulations are due for considerable overhauling. The town is moving "terribly fast now, and the former standards of what was done, do not necessarily apply now."

Board member Samuel Elmstein pointed out the town would have the benefit of Buck and Buck's extensive professional experience. He proposed a meeting between the PZC, the Board of Selectmen, town council and Thompson to go over the town zoning regulations including recommendations to be made by Buck and Buck.

Thompson was given a set of the town zoning and subdivision regulations to study along with the plan of development for the 60-home New Rd. subdivision, recently purchased by So Lavit of West Hartford. The proposed lots were approved prior to the existence of zoning regulations and are subject only to new roads specifications and sanitary regulations. Lavit plans to start development of the area as soon as the go ahead is given by the PZC.

An additional 50 lots will not be built on at this time because of severe drainage problems in the area. This section would extend the development down to Gehring Rd.

Other Action
In other actions the PZC accepted the resignation of former member Ernest Vix who will hold a Christmas Bazaar Workshop tomorrow beginning at 10 a.m. in the Parish Center.

The Youth Choir of the United Congregational Church will rehearse tomorrow night at 8:30 at the church, followed by the Adult Choir at 7:30.

Ironing Cover New
TORONTO — To make ironing easier, a new board cover has been developed that is impregnated with stainless steel. Smooth and scorch-free, the cover reflects heat so that fabrics can be pressed at lower temperatures.

The zoning regulations prohibit the keeping of a horse on a less than two-acre lot. One neighbor has issued a complaint to the PZC, and is seeking a ruling that the horse is in violation of the town regulations. The PZC feels the complainant should contest the situation in court, based on a violation of restrictions in the owner's deed, without involving the town.

The town could conceivably be forced into going to court to enforce a decision that the horse is in violation of the town regulations, if pushed by the complainant.

The PZC tabled action on the situation for a third time last night.

Lap belts alone reduce certain injuries by 80 percent, the Traffic Safety Bureau told Bridwell in a report based on the 7-week review.

Bridwell warned, however, that chest belts used without lap belts could cause the body to slide forward and "mutilate" during a crash.

Haddon said the cost of chest belts will be about $20, including installation.

U.S. Stands by Requirement Of Over-the-Shoulder Belts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government, deciding that injuries from over-the-shoulder seatbelts are rare, will stand by its requirement that the chest belts be in all new cars built after Dec. 31.

Federal Highway Administrator Lowell K. Bridwell announced Monday the agency's second thoughts about the standard have been resolved.

He pronounced use of chest and lap belts together "the best single means of protection available" from injury in car accidents.

Meet George T. LaBonne, Jr. Top insurance executive. He shoots in the 80's. He can read 3,000 words a minute.

"I never touch the same piece of paper twice... That's Ted LaBonne's graphic way of saying that he likes to keep things moving.

Ted keeps a clean desk. An important part of his efficiency is that he can read 10 to 15 times faster than the average person. He picks up a three-page report, reads through it in less than a minute, and knows what he has read.

Whether it's a report, a letter, a memo or Million Dollar Round Table Newscast he reads it not only rapidly, but with purpose.

Ted LaBonne, who lives in Glastonbury, did not always read this way. Earlier this year when he was tested in his first class at Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics, Ted was reading 254 words a minute. That's about average. When he took his final test eight weeks later, he read John Gardner's Excellence at 3,180 words a minute, and with good comprehension.

In the course, like all of our students, he was taught to read vertically, using his hand as a pacer. He was taught also how to bring an organized approach to his reading.

Utah Teacher Discovers Method Improvement by Typical Local Area Graduates in Words Per Minute

Evelyn Wood's discovery began in 1945 when she was working on her master's degree at the University of Utah. She handed a term paper to her professor and then watched with amazement as he flipped through the 80 pages. She was even more amazed with the accuracy with which he recalled details. His untrained speed: 6,000 words a minute. Yet he could not explain how he did it.

Like all outstanding teachers, Evelyn Wood is deeply inquisitive. She decided to investigate and spent the next two years tracking down some 50 people in all parts of the country who could read from 1,500 to 6,000 words a minute.

She found that these natural speed readers all shared certain common characteristics. They all read down the page, not from left to right. They read groups of words, complete thoughts, not one word or two at a time. From these findings and exhaustive research over the next six years she distilled the system known as Reading Dynamics.

Mrs. Wood and her method first received national recognition in 1961 when President Kennedy invited her to the White House to teach his top aides. Since that time 72 Evelyn Wood Institutes have been opened (including one in London). There are today more than 300,000 graduates of the course.

At a recent teacher training conference, Mrs. Wood emphasized that dynamic reading is nothing like the skimming techniques commonly used in most speed reading courses. She said, "Skipping words is dangerous, as you don't know whether or not you have skipped a word which could change the whole meaning of the sentence."

"You read five times faster," she pointed out, "not by reading every fifth word, but by reading five times as many words in the same amount of time." Mrs. Wood emphasized that using her method of rapid reading, every word on the page is noted.

Attend one of the free demonstrations and learn what this remarkable technique can do for you. It could be the most worthwhile thing you do this year.

OUR POLICY
We guarantee to increase the reading efficiency of each student AT LEAST 3 times with good comprehension. We will refund the entire tuition to any student who, after completing minimum class and study requirements, does not at least triple his reading efficiency (speed plus comprehension) measured by our beginning and ending tests.

COME TO A FREE DEMONSTRATION TOMORROW NIGHT in MANCHESTER

8:00 p.m. Whiton Memorial Library Auditorium 85 North Main Street

You'll see a documentary film featuring some of Mrs. Wood's outstanding graduates, among them several U.S. Congressmen and a 17-year-old boy who reads 10,000 words a minute.

You will learn how in 8 weekly lessons you can learn the skills that will dramatically increase your reading rate while maintaining good comprehension.

The demonstration meetings are free. You are under no obligation. They are held to acquaint you with the Reading Dynamics method and to give you the opportunity to ask questions.

Columbia Program on 'Family Life' Asked for Porter School

The Toland County Extension Service has requested that a pilot program be introduced at Porter School on 'family life' education in one grade, preferably the sixth grade.

On Family Panel Farmers recently named to the Agricultural Station and Conservation and Conservation Administration are: Joseph Stegda of Columbia, chairman; Norman R. Strong of Vernon, vice chairman; and Edward Loghinbill of Ellington, Regular Member.

Myron Collette, superintendent, spoke favorably of the course and said eventually the Family Life Education would be incorporated throughout the school on all levels.

The board agreed that this was a necessary course and agreed to join in the pilot program. Patros said the Pilgrim Fellowship will be the first business distributed to the children to collect for UNICEF on Halloween.

The nurse's report stated that weighing and measuring is in progress; the Time Test will be given with parental permission; vision testing will begin shortly and the educational theme will be on safety.

Florida Treatment One of the first school health programs this year will be to provide free fluoride treatments to all children in the school.

Each child's teeth will be checked for decay and dental treatment done. The dental hygienist will be at the school starting Monday the week of Oct. 9.

Every child having this treatment must have parental permission. Flyers have been sent home and they are requested to decrease in federal spending.

Apollo Flight Is Delayed

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A moon program official at the Manned Spacecraft Center says "intricate technical details" were worked up and announced delay in launch date for the first manned Apollo flight.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration's office of manned spaceflight said Monday in Washington that the flight to take place in "third quarter, 1968," meaning next July at the earliest—perhaps August.

Originally, astronauts were due to test the moonship in space last February, but on the Apollo 7 mission the first Apollo flight died when the craft caught fire during a ground test at Cape Kennedy.

Last week AP Aerospace Writer Howard Benedict disclosed that North American Rockwell Corp., prime contractor for the Apollo craft, was trying to get NASA into a May, 1968 delivery date for the new fireproofed craft.

A Manned Spacecraft Center spokesman said talks ended last week with March as a compromise date. It will take technicians at Cape Kennedy four months to repair the craft for flight, pushing the launch back into July at the earliest.

Board of Education Names Harold Smith as Chairman

Harold Smith was elected chairman of the Board of Education at its meeting last night. Rigby Graham was elected to the new position of vice-chairman. Mrs. Claire Warfel was re-elected secretary.

Smith, a Republican, has served four years on the board and in last week's town election defeated Democratic opponent Aloysius Ahearn, in a contest for a two-year term.

Smith pledged closer cooperation with other town boards. He said he would continue to work with the Brookfield Bd. With his wife and four sons. The family is active in the Bolton Congregational Church.

A policy change was necessary to allow the creation of the post of vice-chairman. In the past when the chairman has been absent from a meeting, a chairman pro-tem has been selected.

Graham, also a Republican, was elected to the position of vice-chairman. He has served almost a complete unexpired term. He lives with his wife and two children on French Rd., works in the personal division of Travelers Insurance Co. and is active in St. George's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Warfel, a Democrat, will be beginning her fourth year as board secretary. There were no other nominations for any of the positions, and the votes were unanimous.

Smith thanked his fellow board members for their confidence and said he looked for their support as a team. He also expressed his appreciation to Waddell and to Harold Forcherman, who also is no longer on the board. Neither were present last night.

The board suggested that both members of the board be re-elected for three years. This is a temporary committee, but has been in existence, with rotating membership, for some time.

Board policy does not allow standing committees. Smith said that after everyone became familiar with the operation of the committee — it reviews bills before presentation to the board — perhaps the board would review the policy against standing committees.

Finance Board Elects Van Dine As Its Chairman

Peter Van Dine was elected chairman of the Board of Finance last night at the first meeting of that board following the town election. With the automatic shift of power from Republican to Democratic, Democrat Van Dine replaced Republican Richard Coughlin in the top spot.

Van Dine and Coughlin were nominated as chairman, and after a straight party-line vote, Van Dine was elected. He noted that if the board of finance is true to past form "this will be the last straight party vote for quite a while". Coughlin was unanimously elected vice-chairman. Van Dine had held the previous board.

Incumbent secretary John Allen chose not to serve in that capacity again, and new incumbent James Ryan was unanimously elected. Coughlin was re-elected as secretary. The board's recording secretary, Gay Bennett, was also re-elected.

He also read the results of a poll taken among students indicating library interest. Of 400 students questioned, 300 responded, many naming the reasons they would prefer, many adding comments.

The board asked that a status report on library use be given in February. Dr. Castagna commented to the parents assembled, "If your kids ask you to take them to the library, say yes. If they don't ask, ask them why they're not going."

According to U.S. Public Health Service figures, 47 per cent of the nation's population using public water supplies receive treated water, either from natural sources or from artificial processing.

GAS TANK LEAKS NEW BRITAIN (AP)—A leak in a valve leading to a gas storage tank sent three employees to the hospital Monday. The three were working on the valve on the company grounds at Pine and Meadow streets when the valve sprung a leak.

One of the men, Morris Saucier, was reported in critical condition at the hospital for three. This is a temporary committee, but has been in existence, with rotating membership, for some time.

Library Open Nights In other business, the board agreed to have the school library open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights from 7 to 9, with a staff member certified as a librarian employed on a contractual basis.

Schools Find New Doctor

A school physician to serve the Manchester public schools for the 1967-68 year was appointed last night by the Board of Education.

He is Dr. Robert Galvin of East Hartford who was recently admitted to practice and has opened an office in that town. His salary for the part-time position will be $7,600. In its current budget, the board had listed pay for the post by $6,000 in an effort to make it more attractive.

The schools had been without a physician since the resignation of Dr. Sylvia Helrick last June. She had held the post one year after Dr. Joseph Barry retired.

The position is mandatory under state statutes. The search for Dr. Helrick's replacement was headed by Dr. Walter Schardt, a board member.

HERES HOW: 1. Come in and vote each week for the high school athlete of your choice. 2. Any athlete from East Catholic and one from Manchester High receiving the most votes will be declared our local winners. They will receive the authentic Manly Bronze Shoe awards we now have on display and then become eligible for the National Award by competing with other local winners from around the country.

3. A special committee will select the national winner and runner-up on the basis of athletic achievement, scholastic merit, etc. 4. The national winner will receive a $1000 scholarship to the college of his choice. 5. The national runner-up will receive a round trip for two to the 1968 Summer Olympics in Mexico City.

Speaks on Diets

Dr. Howard Baldwin will speak Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the fall luncheon meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of Manchester Memorial Hospital at the Manchester Country Club. His topic will be "Weight Reduction and Diet Control."

A business meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m. and will include a panel discussion on "Blueprint for the Future." Speakers are Edward Kenney, hospital administrator; Jacob Miller, hospital trustee, and Roy Ferguson, architect.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Reservations will be made with Mrs. Donald Forstrom, 256 Timrod Rd.

Dr. Baldwin came to Manchester Hospital from Ohio in 1952 and specialized in the field of anesthesia. He became interested in the problems of overweight and how it can and does shorten a life span. In September of last year he opened an office for specializing in obesity.

The degree team of Manchester will rehearse the third and fourth degrees tomorrow at 7 p.m. at Orange Hall, 10 Olcott St. Mrs. Paul Emerson is in charge of the program.

Frank J. Mansfield Marine Corps League Auxiliary will meet tomorrow at the Marine Home on Parker St.

Manchester's 23 department heads have banded together to form a new organization, The Department Heads Association, for the purpose of developing high ethical standards and approved practices in performing the duties of the office with which each officer is entrusted.

Its statement of purpose calls upon the organization "to promote through its meetings a better understanding of the responsibilities and problems, and to forward to the Board of Directors and to the general manager any recommendations which would effectuate better governmental procedures."

The new organization was formed Sept. 13 at a luncheon meeting at the Manchester Country Club. Its second luncheon meeting is tomorrow, at the same place. Future meetings will be on the first Wednesday of each month.

Police officers, who will serve to January, when a new one-year class will be elected, are: Chief Edward Tomlin, president; Vice Chief James Reardon, vice president; and Treasurer Mrs. Rosalind Quish, secretary-treasurer.

About two years ago, Town Manager Joseph J. Tansky tried to organize a departmental union in Manchester's Special Education Program. Special education teachers in the Manchester Public School System will be held after the program. The event is open to the public.

Right. For only $2.95 a month (less than you'd pay for a carton of cigarettes), we'll convert your present heating system to gas. All it takes is a simple gas line into your home, underground, away from the weather (and at no cost to you) and replacement of your current heating unit with a compact gas burner (that's what the $2.95 is for... a simple rental deal that includes full burner maintenance and service). Then... you, too, can enjoy the economies of clean, modern gas... it costs less than did thirty years ago, when coffee was 30¢ a pound.

And remember... cooking, cooling, heating water and drying clothes by gas will increase your savings even more because... the more gas you use... the lower the rate.

Schools Find New Doctor

A school physician to serve the Manchester public schools for the 1967-68 year was appointed last night by the Board of Education.

He is Dr. Robert Galvin of East Hartford who was recently admitted to practice and has opened an office in that town. His salary for the part-time position will be $7,600. In its current budget, the board had listed pay for the post by $6,000 in an effort to make it more attractive.

The schools had been without a physician since the resignation of Dr. Sylvia Helrick last June. She had held the post one year after Dr. Joseph Barry retired.

The position is mandatory under state statutes. The search for Dr. Helrick's replacement was headed by Dr. Walter Schardt, a board member.

HERES HOW: 1. Come in and vote each week for the high school athlete of your choice. 2. Any athlete from East Catholic and one from Manchester High receiving the most votes will be declared our local winners. They will receive the authentic Manly Bronze Shoe awards we now have on display and then become eligible for the National Award by competing with other local winners from around the country.

3. A special committee will select the national winner and runner-up on the basis of athletic achievement, scholastic merit, etc. 4. The national winner will receive a $1000 scholarship to the college of his choice. 5. The national runner-up will receive a round trip for two to the 1968 Summer Olympics in Mexico City.
