Widow Receives Marine's Medals

Mrs. William G. Blanchard, formerly of 482 W. Middle Temple, this week received several medals on behalf of her husband who was killed in Vietnam on March 31, 1966. Mrs. Blanchard, who now lives in West Springfield, Mass., received the Vietnamese Gallantry Cross with Palm and the Vietnamese Military Merit Medal.

The two posthumous decorations awarded by the Republic of Vietnam cited Pfc Blanchard as a "courageous combatant, well known for his sacrifice, who always exhibited a spirit of good will and cooperation. He assisted the blocking of Vietnam Armed Forces in the Red Wave of aggression from engulfing South Vietnam and Southeast Asia. With his enthusiasm and exemplary demeanor he willingly executed all of his entrusted missions and set a brilliant example for his comrades-in-arms. He died in the performance of his mission. His loss has been greatly mourned by both his American and Vietnamese comrades-in-arms."

The citation was signed by Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu.

Reuther Will Skip Meeting
MIAMI BEACH, Fla., (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther says he will not attend the annual convention of the AFL-CIO. As a result, convention leaders are faced with the problem of how to deal with his resolution demanding "internal reforms" to make the AFL-CIO more democratic.

Reuther said Friday he would not attend the convention and asked that the resolutions be withdrawn from consideration at the 14-million member organization's convention that opens next week.

But AFL-CIO sources said the organization's constitution had no specific provision for withdrawing a resolution whose sponsor did not show up.

AFL-CIO President George Meany declined to comment on Reuther's letter informing him Reuther would not attend but told a convention of the AFL-CIO's construction unions, "I have never seen the trade union movement as busy as it is today. I have never seen so many activities that affect the lives of the general membership."

The resolution might be shunted to a committee, the sources said, but some delegates may insist upon acting on it.

Many labor leaders wanted a showdown at the convention on Reuther's long attack on the AFL-CIO and its leadership.

The resolution charges that the AFL-CIO lacks the social vision the dynamic thrust, the crusading spirit that should characterize the progressive, modern labor movement.

At a meeting of the IAW's General Motors Council in Detroit, Reuther also announced that no strike deadline would be set against GM until after the New Year holidays.

Reuther said that would allow GM to draw Christmas and New Year holidays past being possibly called to walk off the job.

Reuther, in the letter to GM, asked that the auto workers' resolution be held in abeyance until the fourth of July.

150,000 Pounds of Bombs Unloaded

U.S. Planes Hit Demilitarized Zone

SAIGON (AP) American B52 opened up on a column of U.S. Stratofortress bombers 180,000 pounds of bombs over the demilitarized zone today. The Communist counter force fresh North Vietnamese thrusts after the second straight day of clashes between U.S. and Communist troops below the DMZ.

The Marines fought back with artillery and mortars, and the Navy destroyer Leary in the Tonkin Gulf of North Vietnam joined in blasting the Communist positions. The Navy said the Leary snuffed out several Communist mortars. There was no report on Communist casualties.

The Marine amphibious tractors came under fire while they landed along the South China Sea coast about two miles south of the DMZ.

Marine units, meanwhile, reported uncovering 14 more Communist bodies from a four-hour battle Thursday some two miles north-northeast of the DMZ.

At another outpost 35 miles northwest of Saigon, South Vietnamese troops got help from U.S. Army gunship choppers.

Vance Working On Resistance

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — U.S. presidential envoy Cyrus Vance worked urgently today to overcome the Cypriot government's opposition to the accord to keep Greece and Turkey from war over the island.

But signs grew that Cypriot President Makarios, backed by his Cabinet, was raising unexpectedly strong resistance to the plan already agreed on by Greece and Turkey.

Thinking his work done, Vance had flown as far toward home as Frankfurt, West Germany, but turned back to the Mediterranean. Friday afternoon a last-minute snag on the plan, U.S. sources said, had been cleared by Vance's three-hour, until 2 a.m. today.

Holiday Fight Looms On Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House and Senate face another holiday season battle over foreign aid. It seems likely to avoid a repeat of the 1965 Christmas Eve showdown on the issue.

In dispute this time are money—some $60 million—and purchases of modern weapons by underdeveloped countries receiving funds under the aid program.

The House last month backed up its Appropriations Committee by approving a $2.16 billion foreign-aid budget for fiscal 1968—the lowest money bill in the program's 20-year history.

But the Senate Appropriations Committee last week boosted the amount to $2.7 billion. Its version is scheduled for Senate consideration next week.

The administration originally asked for $3.2 billion in foreign-aid money Congress earlier set an authorization ceiling of $2.67 billion.

McCarthy Target Of Praise, Abuse

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy is attracting a mixed bouquet of praise and abuse as he carries on his opposition to President Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

At least one Republican senator, who asked that his name not be used, says the Minnesota Democrat's entry into several 1968 primaries could make him a strong candidate for his party's 1972 presidential nomination.

Texas Gov. John B. Connally, meanwhile, accused McCarthy of being a one-man advance guard for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. He said he believes Kennedy wants to run for the Democratic nomination and is using McCarthy's name to confuse the electorate and get some accurate approximation of their numbers and strength.

He said he doubted whether McCarthy will offer "anything significant" towards a settlement to the Vietnam war and concluded: "I don't think he will make very many converts. He's acting primarily as a catalyst for dissidents."

Several Senate Democrats, most of them classified by observers as doves on Vietnam, have generally indicated they favor McCarthy's candidacy as an implement to spark debate of Vietnam policies and alternatives within the Democratic party.

McCarthy, meanwhile, prepared to launch his candidacy with a speech to the Conference of Concerned Democrats in Chicago.

Harold Ickes of New York City, the group's control coordinator, said the organization was formed by a group of Democrats who felt "that there was a growing sentiment against President Johnson and against the war and we feel the rank and file Democrats deserve more."

U.S. Headquarters said Communist planes fired briefly near Dak To in the central highlands, scene of a three-week battle that ended Thanksgiving Day when U.S. paratroopers captured Hill 918.

U.S. Headquarters said Communist gunners poured mortars and heavy artillery rockets into an artillery base nine miles west-northwest of Dak To which supports paratroopers of the 101st Air Division.

GM News Rescues Market

By ED MORSE AP Business Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Good news for General Motors, the nation's biggest manufacturer, gave the stock market enough of a lift to rescue it from a weekly decline.

President Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers gave assurance that any strike against GM would not take place until after the Christmas and New Year holidays. This boosted GM and other blue chips.

It was the fourth straight weekly advance and, though small, it lent further encouragement to those who anticipated the "traditional year-end rally." Since the market never goes up each week, some were predicting it would not amount to very much.

The Dow Jones industrial average closed at 1,162.06, a gain of 1.86 and 36 3/4 points. Volume for the week was 4,186,000 shares compared with 4,172,000 shares the previous week.

With Viet Dissent Campaign McCarthy Support Is Seen For 1972 Presidential Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican senator believes Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy might build backing for a full-scale presidential bid to 1972 with the Democratic primary campaign of Vietnam dissent next year.

The senator, who asked that his name not be used, made the prediction as McCarthy's campaign for the first round of the primary campaign launched today the first round of his challenge to President Johnson.

The Minnesota makes his first speech as a declared candidate before the Conference of Concerned Democrats in Chicago.

His campaign trip opens with an abrupt rally strategy with dissent Democrats from presidential primary states and

Stevenson in his 1962 and 1966 presidential campaigns, and tried unsuccessfully to win him a third nomination in 1960.

Should Johnson seek and win re-nomination and re-election, McCarthy's candidacy as a second full term—the conventional limit—would end after the 1972 presidential election.

But a Democratic politician, who also didn't want to be named, said he doubted McCarthy could win the support or the money to present a formidable challenge to the likely Democratic contender in the 1972 nomination, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

McCarthy said in announcing Democratic support from rank and file Democrats who lined up with

The average weight of each case was about 50 pounds. Somewhere, someone will be eating steak for Christmas, for New Year's for Easter, for

Dodd Seeks Ruling in Libel Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd has asked the U.S. District Court for a summary judgment in his $2 million libel and conspiracy suit against columnist Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

The motion, filed Friday by Dodd's attorney, John F. Sonnett, has been scheduled for a Dec. 12 hearing by Judge Alexander Holtzoff. Sonnett contended evidence already developed makes a trial unnecessary.

He said further pre-trial proceedings could result in dropping of the suit against the columnist "not because they are innocent but because the plaintiff simply could not afford to prosecute them further."

The motion said Dodd, censured by his Senate colleagues June 22 for personal use of political funds, already had been put to "almost ruinous expense in meeting the sensational charges" by Pearson and Anderson.

Their columns, using material admitted to be removed from Dodd's files by the senator's employees, formed the basis for a Senate ethics committee probe of Dodd that resulted in his censure by a 92-3 vote.

He was specifically censured for converting to his personal use $116,083 in campaign and testimonial funds. His colleagues at the same time rejected a second committee charge that Dodd double-billed the Senate and private organizations for seven trips he made.

At the same time, the House Ways and Means Committee began hearings on the proposed 10 per cent income surtax combined with a proposed government cost-cutting program. This was what Wall Street has been rooting for to straighten out the confused monetary situation.

On Thursday, the market took a fairly steep loss. The decline was attributed mainly to technical factors. It did happen, however, that chairman William D. Miller of the House and Means, had definitely ruled out passage of the surtax this year. This news was accorded some weight in the market's decline, but many Wall Streeters said that stock would have fallen anyway.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks this week rose 2 to 315.1.

The five most active issues this week on the New York Stock Exchange were: Occidental Petroleum, off 6 1/4 at 96 1/2; American Motors, up 1 1/4 at 13 3/4; Aills-Chalmers, up 2% at 38 1/2; Brunswick, up 1 1/4 at 14 1/4; and American Telephone, off 1/4 at 50 1/4.

The five most active issues this week on the American Stock Exchange were: Bunker-Ramo, up 4 1/2 at 67 1/4; United Canso Oil & Gas, up 1/4 at 43 1/4; New Park Mining, up 1/4 at 11 1/4; and Signal Oil "A", off 1/4 at 35.

Militant 'Shocked'

HARTFORD (AP) — Militant Negro leader Fred Harris of New Haven says he is "shocked" by his appointment to a council looking for a site for a community college in the New Haven vicinity.

And U.S. Congressman Robert N. Glialmo says he is "outraged" by the appointment of Harris, serving a 30-day term in the Hartford County Jail for a breach of peace violation.

Harris was convicted of breach of peace in connection with a disturbance last year at the State Welfare Department.

He faces trial after his release Dec. 9 on charges of possession of narcotics and stolen goods — which he says are unjustified.

New Round of Steel Prices

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A new round of steel price hikes—now under study—could quickly add to consumer costs on a wide range of products.

Pressure to increase prices on items from autos to toasters would be added if a price increase announced by U.S. Steel Corp. becomes industry-wide.

The country's largest steelmaker posted a $5-a-ton increase Friday on two grades of steel sheets. Other producers said they were studying the move. Such increases generally have spread throughout the industry in recent years.

Price increases on some steel products, like railroad car wheels and heavy construction materials, take a long time reaching the pocketbooks of the average person. But boosts on sheets, which are used in consumer products, can be readily felt in the marketplace.

Steel sheets are a big item in automaking, and even before

Town Man Commands Unit Cited for Thailand Bases

The 566th Civil Engineering Squadron, under the command of Col. C.T. McCooe from Manchester, was officially presented the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award last week for their efforts in the buildup of U-Tapao and other installations in Thailand.

Col. C.T. McCooe is the son of John McCooe of 613 Main St. The presentation was given in the "Red Horse" cantonment area by Lt. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, 18th Air Force Commander. He accompanied the award by saying, "During this period, the staggering workload brought about by the build-up of forces in Southeast Asia was handled efficiently and effectively despite shortages of material and equipment."

He went on to say, "The dedicated service of these highly motivated people who devoted long hours and intensive efforts to assure that the maximum high quality facilities were completed was constantly evident. The completion of numerous facilities in minimum time and the international good will fostered by this unit are outstanding contributions to furthering United States and free world goals in Southeast Asia. . . ."

Special praise was given for the U-Tapao detachment. He said, "Thank you for your efforts at U-Tapao. The B-52 and KC-135 programs are very important to the effort in Vietnam. You were instrumental in this effort."

Col. C. T. McCooe and the Red Horse Construction Squadron also completed the newest major American air base in Vietnam—Phu Cat AFB in the Central Highlands of Binh Dinh. The job was finished in a record time of six months.

GM News Rescues Market

(Continued from Page One) the rate of 355 per ounce of gold. As one analyst put it, there was "considerable relief that so much bad news is out of the way." After a decline on the preceding Monday because of devaluation of the pound, prices on the exchange had moved up.

Tuesday brought another and more substantial advance, bringing the Dow industrials to a close of 884.88. At that figure the Dow was bumping its head against a widely advertised resistance area between 885 and 890. A correction of the rally — now in progress for five straight days — was predicted blandly by market technicians.

Surprisingly, the Wednesday session brought mixed prices, with more gainers than losers even though the Dow industrials sagged slightly.

At the same time, the House Ways and Means Committee began hearings on the proposed 10 per cent income surtax combined with a proposed government cost-cutting program. This was what Wall Street has been rooting for to straighten out the confused monetary situation.

That car was found abandoned minutes later in favor of another car stolen from the vicinity of Trumbull.

Bond for Perry on the combined charges was set at $100,000. Police are still seeking a second man.

Group Flaunts North Viet Flag

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A group of University of California students flayed and displayed a North Vietnamese flag as California Gov. Ronald Reagan passed by late Friday.

Reagan reprimanded the group of 30 students. "You ought to be ashamed of yourselves," the Republican governor declared.

"Even being young doesn't excuse the bad taste, the cruelty and the inhumanity of displaying that flag," Reagan went on. "Even free speech doesn't justify it."

He also commented critically on what he called appeasement of student trouble-makers on the various University of California campuses.

After listening to regents' reports of recent disturbances, Reagan said the university has been on a "sorry road of appeasement that leads to more and more of the same thing."

He suggested the regents investigate the possibility of initiating legislation that would give chancellors of the various campuses a stronger hand against disturbances.

Chinese Say Ship Attacked by U.S.

TOKYO O (AP) — Peking's official news agency said today U.S. aircraft "savagely attacked" a Chinese freighter anchored in Hong Gai, North Vietnam, last Saturday, wounding eight crew members and damaging the ship.

The New China News Agency (NCNA) said the Foreign Ministry issued a statement in Peking today "strongly protesting" the bombing.

NCNA said U.S. aircraft dove-bombed the Chinese freighter the same day the ship arrived at Hong Gai from Haiphong.

"Bombs exploded above water some 10 meters (11 yards) off its starboard, wounding eight crew members and damaging the ship in more than 20 places," NCNA said.

The broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, said, "This was not the first time" U.S. aircraft had attacked Chinese freighters.

Hong Gai is about 18 miles north of Haiphong, North Vietnam's major port.

Vance Works On Discord In Cyprus

(Continued from Page One) to have gone along with the settlement worked out by Vance and others earlier in the week, then suddenly backed down.

The main point of the Vance proposals—withdrawal of the estimated 12,000 Greek troops on the island—is widely regarded by the Greek Cypriot public as a surrender to Turkish demands and a betrayal by Greece's military dictatorship.

Makarios is said to have accepted the withdrawal but is balking at several other points unless he gets an unconditional guarantee that Turkey will never again threaten a Cyprus invasion.

Turkey said it was utterly determined not to give this on the grounds that it has a legal right under the 1960 accords that set up Cyprus as a republic to intervene if necessary to protect the Turkish-Cypriot minority.

One report said that the problem involved a Cypriot demand for guarantees for its territorial integrity and sovereignty either from the U.N. Security Council or from the Big Four—the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

Makarios also was known to oppose the provisions in the peace agreement that require a reduction in the Cypriot National Guard and an extension of the powers of the U.N. peace-keeping force on the island.

The U.N. representatives of Greece, Turkey and Cyprus scaled down the importance of the snags, but Vance's unexpected return to the island gave the situation urgency. "I am still hopeful," he said on arrival.

The developments stilled a peace appeal that U.N. Secretary General U Thant planned to issue as a face-saving device in order to make the settlement go down more easily in Greece.

The peace package now specifies these points: —The estimated 12,000 Greek soldiers and 1,200 Turks now on the island illegally will be pulled out within 45 days.

Turkey will end its invasion threat and guarantee the integrity of Cyprus. —Greece will pay compensation for the loss of lives and property suffered during the Nov. 15 battle that triggered the latest Cypriot crisis in 1963.

Cyprus will reduce its National Guard from an estimated 10,000 to 2,000 men. —Turkish Cypriots will have their own police force and a right to self-government in their own areas.

The powers of the U.N. peace-keeping force on the island will be widened.

In recommending more firemen, Weiss said that, on most fire calls, trucks go out with only two or three men on them. He recommended, also, the addition of more fire trucks and equipment.

Weiss, on Tuesday, recommended a ratio of two patrolmen to each 1,000 in population. His proposal would require the addition of about 30 men, plus cruisers and equipment to match.

150,000 Pounds Of U.S. Bombs Land on DMZ

In one raid, guerrillas swept in a village 18 miles north of Saigon Friday and killed eight members of a 34-man Revolutionary Development (pacifier) team. Four members of the team were reported wounded and two others were missing.

Meanwhile, it appeared today that Communist troops had backed off—at least for the time being—from a showdown with a battalion of U.S. 1st Infantry Division troops near the But Dop Special Forces camp three miles from the Cambodian border and 80 miles north of Saigon.

Associated Press correspondent John T. Wheeler, with the American infantrymen, reported that there was large enemy movement around the But Dop airstrip Friday night. American ambush patrols set off claymore mines toward the enemy movements with unknown results.

UoH Sets Policy

HARTFORD (AP) — The University of Hartford won't tolerate psychological interference with military recruiters on its campus, says its chancellor.

Dr. A. M. Woodruff said that in view of "the incidents which have occurred on other campuses in recent months, I have stated to our students directly and through the student newspaper, The Challenge, that the university will not tolerate any form of physical interference with the rights of any individual on campus."

Group Flaunts North Viet Flag

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A group of University of California students flayed and displayed a North Vietnamese flag as California Gov. Ronald Reagan passed by late Friday.

Reagan reprimanded the group of 30 students. "You ought to be ashamed of yourselves," the Republican governor declared.

"Even being young doesn't excuse the bad taste, the cruelty and the inhumanity of displaying that flag," Reagan went on. "Even free speech doesn't justify it."

He also commented critically on what he called appeasement of student trouble-makers on the various University of California campuses.

After listening to regents' reports of recent disturbances, Reagan said the university has been on a "sorry road of appeasement that leads to more and more of the same thing."

He suggested the regents investigate the possibility of initiating legislation that would give chancellors of the various campuses a stronger hand against disturbances.

On Law Review

Laurence P. Rubnow, son of Superior Court Judge and Mrs. Jay E. Rubnow of 49 Pitkin St., has been recently elected to serve on the University of Connecticut's Law Review.

Rubnow, one of 15 outstanding law students elected, was chosen for his academic excellence during the 1966-67 school year as well as his writing ability.

He represented the University of Connecticut School of Law as a delegate at the recent American Bar Association Convention's Law Student Division, Honolulu, Hawaii.

He received his bachelor of arts degree in English from Adelbert College of the undergraduate school of Western Reserve University.

Weiss View Shifted on Fire Needs

When Town Manager Robert Weiss told the town directors Tuesday during a review of his performance that he recommends more policemen and more firemen, it was an apparent change from his position of last spring.

Then, when he was reviewing the town's tentative budget for 1967-68, he turned down a request from Town Fire Chief W. Clifford Mason for nine new firemen and cut to one new patrolman. Police Chief James Reardon's request for four additional men.

The directors, when they adopted the budget, went along with his recommendation for no new firemen. They approved the hiring of two new patrolmen, thus doubling Weiss' recommendation and cutting Reardon's request in half.

Weiss, on Tuesday, recommended a ratio of two patrolmen to each 1,000 in population. His proposal would require the addition of about 30 men, plus cruisers and equipment to match.

In recommending more firemen, Weiss said that, on most fire calls, trucks go out with only two or three men on them. He recommended, also, the addition of more fire trucks and equipment.

Police Report Hit-Run Crash

Police today are seeking a 1959 tan Ford which struck a car driven by Maureen L. Fortin of 9 Hendee Rd. last night shortly after 10.

The Fortin woman complained of pain, though she had no visible sign of injury. She refused transportation to the hospital, police say.

Police say the Fortin Volkswagen was stopped on W. Middle Tpke. near Hendee Dr. ready to make a turn and was hit by the Ford which passed it on the left.

The Ford was damaged on its right side, while the left fender and bumper of the Fortin car was damaged.

Delay in Refuse Decision Raises Puzzling Questions

On Tuesday night, when the Board of Directors considered and then tabled action on an agreement with Case Bros. for dumping town garbage and refuse on the bed of the drained Laurel Lake, a question concerning the garbage and refuse already dumped there.

"The question was—'if the town decides not to use the bed for a refuse disposal site, what happens to the refuse already dumped there?'"

Atty. Thomas Bailey, counsel for Case Bros., explained that for now, Case Bros. wouldn't ask for removal of refuse already dumped there, but that he couldn't preclude the possibility of asking for its removal in the next few years.

And Town Manager Robert Weiss replied that the possibility exists, although he had not discussed it with Case Bros. officials, that the town would have to remove the refuse, should the agreement for dumping there fall through.

"The town has been trespassing (with its refuse disposal operation) for more years than we know on Case Bros. land," he said, adding, "and we are trespassing now."

A second question which arose concerned the responsibility for restoring water to the drained Laurel Lake, should the directors request it.

Weiss replied that the owner, Case Bros., would have to make

A Heartbreaking Saint Joan

By JOAN CROSSBY
NEW YORK — (NEA) — She's a Keane painting come to life: a pair of huge brown eyes barely surrounded by a face centered by a button nose. She looks like a fragile waif, vulnerable to all life's slings and arrows. The thought of her playing St. Joan is enough to break your heart.

Genevieve Bujold may be the most perfectly cast actress ever to attempt the difficult role in the George Bernard Shaw play. She looks like the child Joan is supposed to be, and she is an actress of depth and sensitivity. She will be seen as St. Joan in the "Hallmark of Fame" production set for NBC on Monday. Producer George Schaefer had seen her in one of her French movies "La Guerre est Finie" and thought she was perfect for the part. But there was one problem: did she speak English?

It turned out that Genevieve spoke excellent English, having been born in Montreal and is now, with her husband, director Paul Almond, a resident of Toronto.

After she auditioned for custodians of the Shaw estate, and was approved, Genevieve learned the names of some of the fellow actors who would be supporting her in the production: Maurice Evans, Raymond Massey, Leo Genn, Roddy McDowall, James Daly, James Donald, Theodore Bikel and George Rose.

"The first day when I walked into rehearsal and I saw all of them," she smiled, "I had to

It's About Marriage

NEW YORK—"This is a play about marriage."

That's how Reginald Rose reduces to its simplest terms the theme of his original two-hour drama "Dear Friends," the second "CBS Playhouse" of the season.

The play, starring Patricia Barry, James Daly, Rosemary Harris, Anne Jackson, Hope Lange, Pernell Roberts, Eli Wallach and David Wayne, will be broadcast Wednesday from 9 to 11 p.m.

"The 'dear friends' of the title are four couples who have been nearly inseparable for a number of years. Each of the eight characters in the play represents a key part in the unraveling of the story," Rose says.

"The social lives of these four couples have been intertwined and centered on each other,"

the author goes on. "They feel they not only know but understand each other completely—until they discover that all is illusion. Through the separation of one couple, the marriages of the other three are threatened."

In Rose's script, Michael and Lois Graves (James Daly and Hope Lange) have been separated for a few months. The other couples decide to give a party for the express purpose of bringing Michael and Lois back together again.

But soon, as the party progresses, the seemingly warm concern and good intent turn into the realization that each person has fears for his own relationships. The explosions which come out of the discussion reveal unrealized facets of all the marriages.

"When the evening ends,

TV Tests Are Face-Saving

By BOB COCHNAR
NEW YORK — (NEA) — It all started because Fred Friendly got a speeding ticket on this town's Henry Hudson Parkway. As punishment, he was hauled into traffic court and instructed to take a National Safety Council driver safety first.

Friendly, after a bit of grumbling, found the test enlightening. So he asked himself, "Why shouldn't everybody in the country take this test?"

Since Friendly was news chiefs for CBS at the time, he put the National Drivers Test on television and while perhaps not everybody in the country has taken it, a lot have. A revised test will be telecast at 10 p.m. Tuesday.

CBS producer and director Vern Diamond is the new boss of the popular test and told me a few of his experiences in producing the program over a bite at New York's Le Chateclair, the motor racing hangout.

"At least I have become very conscious of good driving," he remarked amidst the photographs and memorabilia of the world's greatest racing drivers. "I am now a bug on defensive driving. In fact, my friends tell me I'm beginning to sound like a crusader."

Diamond admits that the first test telecast met with some nervousness among CBS bigwigs. Taking a theme from the Detroit automakers, they possibly reasoned that "safety doesn't sell."

But the first test reached a huge audience and most everybody who saw it apparently liked it. "We've found it to be a great family broadcast," Diamond says. "It involves a lot of personal arguments."

But who will admit he's a lousy driver? Driving is a matter of intense pride, it would seem, and "the other guy" is usually at fault in an accident, certainly not the bloke who turns into Mario Andretti behind the wheel.

This is probably why the CBS tests have been so successful. "After all," Diamond says, "nobody has to see your test scores when you're at home before your television set."

The questions asked by Walter Cronkite on the program seem easy enough, but they are deceptive. For example, doesn't everybody know that if you want to increase tire traction on an icy road you weight your trunk? Well? I'm not going to ruin the show for you by divulging the answer, but let me say it might not be what you think.

The test is geared to prepare the driver for winter. Some questions have to do with operating a vehicle on slippery, snow-filled streets. The questions are provocative. The answers are useful.

Setting up accident scenes took a good deal of planning so that the accidents weren't fatal to participants. "We have yet to lose a driver or a camera," Diamond says. The test pilots were usually retired racing drivers who knew a lot about the capabilities of their cars.

Interestingly, although the drivers willingly executed the set-up accidents invented by Diamond and his staff, they refused to do some of the crashes in hardtops. "Hardtops may be sporty," Diamond says, "but they certainly are not so safe as sedans with tough door posts."

Missing TV Pitch

NEW YORK (AP)—The television network executives and sponsors have enough to fret about this season—broadcasts of old movie features regularly topping the regular TV product, complaints of critics about the quality of entertainment, increasing costs of production. Now comes an audience research concern with some more sad news.

A news letter to advertising executives issued by the Schwerin Research Co. contains a report on a recent audience study which found that during the past year 74 per cent of the network audience was "fully attentive during prime time" television viewing.

To this Schwerin added its opinion-based on its surveys and independent polls—that today's audience is "more critical and more easily distracted—hence less attentive—than was true five or ten years ago." The research company's educated guess, as it called it, no "attention loss" jumped from one out of four inattentive viewers during a program to "one out of two during the average commercial minute."

That means, of course, that half of us, according to Schwerin, just aren't listening when the pitch comes on.
